Things to Look For...

- With a win over Cincinnati on Friday, Temple's senior class will earn their 31st overall victory and vault them into a tie for winningest class in school history.

- In Temple's last two November campaigns, the Owls have compiled a strong 7-1 mark, with the lone loss coming at South Florida in 2015.

- Both Temple safeties Sean Chandler and Delvon Randall enter the game with 8 career interceptions, tied for 11th on the school's all-time list. Their 9th INT will move them into a tie for 8th in the TU record books.

- Temple currently leads the country in blocked kicks since Ed Foley took over the unit in 2015. The Owls have 13 blocked kicks over that span and 18 over the last four seasons.

- With his four receptions against Army, wide receiver Ventell Bryant jumped up into 9th all-time in receptions (113). Further, his 29 receiving yards versus the Black Knights helped Bryant climb into 9th in that category as well (1,659), and now has just one more catch and 34 yards to go in order to jump into 8th.

THIS WEEK

After a pair of close losses threatened the postseason, Temple recovered over the bye week en route to a 34-26 signature victory over Navy, sinking the Midshipmen in front of a Thursday night national audience. Next up, the Owls prep for a road trip to Cincinnati to face their division rival Bearcats, with the game set to kickoff Friday night at 7:00 p.m. EST and air nationally on ESPN2.

This past Thursday, Temple (4-5, 2-3 American) put on an offensive and defensive clinic as the team dominated Navy in nearly every aspect of the game, earning the 34-26 victory to improve to within two wins of being bowl eligible for the fourth straight season. Senior QB Frank Nutile, making just his second overall start, tossed a career-high four touchdown passes on 22-of-30 passing for 289 yards, connecting with fellow seniors WR Adonis Jennings (five catches for 127 yards & two TDs) and Keith Kirkwood (career-best seven receptions for 87 yards and & one score).

Meanwhile, the well-rested Temple defense held Navy's triple-option - the nation's top-ranked rushing attack - to a season-low 136 rushing yards, 240 yards below their previous average. Further, the Owls snuffed out the Midshipmen's 69-game streak of at least one rushing touchdown, forcing the offense into uncomfortable passing situations throughout the game. Concordantly, junior S Delvon Randall grabbed his fourth pick of the season late in the second half, once again vaulting him into a tie with fellow safety Sean Chandler on the all-time interception list at 11th overall.

Looking ahead to Cincinnati (3-6, 1-4 American), the Owls aim to pick up their first back-to-back conference wins of the season on the road under the Friday night lights. The victory over Navy helped reorient Temple and restore confidence on both sides of the ball, especially as multiple players returned from injuries throughout the roster. The complete performance from Nutile, combined with a harassing defensive showing that included 11 tackles-for-loss and five sacks, looked the part of a postseason team.

As for the Bearcats, Luke Fickell and company were finally able to earn their first conference victory this past Saturday on the road at Tulane, knocking off the Green Wave in a tight contest, 17-16.

LAST TIME vs. CINCINNATI

Temple last took on Cincinnati in late October of last season, cruising past the Bearcats in a 34-13 home victory. With the win, the Owls improved to bowl eligible for the second consecutive year, eventually serving as a jumping off point for the team's run at the American Athletic Conference title.

Multiple current Owls showed up in spades last season against Cincinnati with notable performances coming from then-sophomore RB Ryquell Armstead, who picked up 61 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries, and then-redshirt sophomore Ventell Bryant, who grabbed three catches for 66 yards and a TD.

UP NEXT

The Owls return to Lincoln Financial Field for the final time this season on Saturday, November 18, facing off against undefeated East Division leader UCF on Senior Day a noon..

Interview Requests

All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Football Communications staff.

Practice Regulations

Head coach Geoff Collins and select players will be available for brief interviews following Tuesday practices. Advance notice is required to the Football Communications department. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the last 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Monday evenings. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release

To access Temple's weekly football release, please visit www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon

Geoff Collins' weekly media luncheon is held each week at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor). Please check the weekly game-notes for luncheon schedule.

Game Day

Credentials

All requests for home games must be made through Football Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Football Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by e-mail (rich.burg@temple.edu).

Media Parking

Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance

Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone: (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services

All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics

Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy

Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures

Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed across the lobby (to the right of the Touchdown Club). Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Football Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs

For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

On the Airwaves

Temple University will produce a radio broadcast of all football games. This season, the broadcast can be heard on 97.5 The Fanatic. The Fanatic, a Greater Media station powered by ESPN, is Philadelphia's first FM sports station and is home to the Philadelphia Flyers and Philadelphia 76ers. For additional information about The Fanatic and to listen online, visit the station's website at: www.975thefanatic.com

On the Internet

For the latest info on Owl Football, log on to Temple Athletics' web site, www.OwlSports.com. In addition to live stats and audio of all games, fans can watch video of weekly press luncheons, head coach Geoff Collins' post-game press conferences, and the most up-to-date information on the Owls.

THE 9

Wearing a single-digit jersey is considered to be one of the highest honors an Owl can earn. These are awarded to the student-athletes deemed by their teammates to be the toughest members of the team. Three players have carried over the honor from last season. Sean Chandler, Nick Sharga, and Jacob Martin. Sharga has donned his number since 2015 and Chandler since 2014. Randall and Kirkwood earned theirs this spring. Three vacancies were filled during the summer as Sharif Finch, Ryquell Armstead and Artrel Foster rounded out The 9. Coach Geoff Collins decided this season to make the number one a jersey that is given out on a week-to-week basis. See page 18 for a list of this season's honorees. ## This Week

PRIME COMPETITION

The backend of the Temple defense - safeties Delvon Randall (#2) and Sean Chandler (#3) - has been one of Owls' strongest links since season kickoff, anchoring a veteran unit in both the passing and rushing games. Chandler, the senior, entered the season with seven interceptions and tied for 12th all-time in school history. Early during the UConn game though, Randall grabbed his third pick of the year, tying his fellow safety on the leaderboards. Chandler responded a week later against Army to retake the lead, moving up into 11th. Following the bye week, Randall knotted the category at eight interceptions apiece as he snared his fourth of the season versus Navy, sliding up into a tie, once again, with his senior mentor.

BEHIND ENEMY LINES

Unnoticed by most, Sharif Finch has compiled a career year rushing the passer, silently picking up a tackle-for-loss here and a sack there. Against Navy alone, the redshirt senior picked up two sacks on a usually run-focused Midshipmen offense, expanding on his already season-best 5.5 sacks. On the year, Finch ranks 31st nationally and fourth in the conference in tackles for loss per game (1.3) and 44th nationally and fifth in the conference in sacks per game (.61)

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

First-year head coach Geoff Collins may have learned a thing or two from Cincinnati head coach Luke Fickell while the pair worked together on the 2007 Alabama defensive staff, a group that took home a national title that season. While each took different paths to a head coaching position - Fickell through the Big Ten and Collins via the SEC - the two will finally have an opportunity to face off against one another.

THE DESTABILIZATION EFFECT

In terms of destabilizing opposing offenses, the Owls have been particularly disruptive, tackling opponents for a loss an average of eight times per game. On the year, Temple has racked up an impressive 72 tackles-for-loss totaling 290 yards, good for 10th nationally and second in the American Athletic Conference. This past Thursday against Navy, the Owls were especially harassing, shutting down the Midshipmen with 11 TFLs and 5.5 sacks.

THE CONQUEST OF OHIO

Since 2006, Temple has wreaked havoc upon programs hailing from the state of Ohio, earning a 17-14 overall record. When facing Cincinnati alone, the Owls have been particularly potent as of late, outscoring the Bearcats 78-39 the past two matchups.

DEEP THREAT DON

The Temple wide receiving unit has showcased its depth all season behind a slew of pass catchers making contributions every game. One who stands out in particular following the victory over Navy is Adonis Jennings, whose deep-threat ability has been deadly to opposing defenses throughout the season. The senior picked up his third career 100-yard receiving game versus the Midshipmen, grabbing two touchdowns along the way. On the year, Jennings' four total scores have come from a distance of at least 30 yards out, with the two against Navy sitting at 37 & 34, respectively.

NIGHT HUNTERS

In perhaps a coincidental tribute to Temple's beloved mascot, Stella, the Owls have performed particularly well at night, scoring a 14-9 mark since 2013 in games kicking off after 6:00 pm. In an unrelated note, Temple also plays solid football on Fridays, going 5-1 in Friday night contests dating back to 2015.

Geoff Collins

YOU HEARD IT HERE FIRST

On a weekly basis, head coach Geoff Collins can be seen and heard on a variety of platforms in the Philadelphia area. Below are a list of his weekly media appearances:

Date/Time	Station	Show
Mondays afternoons	KYW Radio	"Reporters Roundup" with Matt Leon weekly report
Tuesdays 12:03 p.m.	TUTV	"Inside the Nest" weekly report and press conference
Thursdays 6:45-6:55 a.m.	97.5 The Fanatic	"Meat Locker" with Anthony Gargano weekly call-in
Saturdays 9:45-10:00 a.m.	6ABC	"Temple Football Playback" weekly highlights and preview

SEC-OND TO NONE

Long thought of as the best conference in college football, the SEC was home to Geoff Collins for seven of the last 10 seasons. Collins served on Nick Saban's original Alabama staff in 2007 and then spent four seasons at Mississippi State and two at Florida before taking the head coaching position at Temple.

2017 Temple Football

A BRONX TALE

Among Geoff Collins' first coaching stops was tutoring the linebackers at Fordham University in the Bronx in 1996 under head coach Nick Quartaro. Three of Collins' top hires since coming to Temple were part of that same staff. Chief of staff Vinny Sinagra was the defensive coordinator, director of player personnel Tom Pajic handled receivers, and offensive coordinator Dave Patenaude was the special teams and quarterbacks coach.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Geoff Collins has been creative with titles for new staff members and has received some attention for it. He named former college head coach Vinny Sinagra his "Chief of Staff" and promoted two graduate assistants into full-time positions - Dave Gerson was named "S.W.A.G. Coordinator" (Specialist With Advanced Graphics) and Pat Boyle to "Strategic Specialist."

MAYHEM IS COMING

Geoff Collins came to Philadelphia with the title "Minister of Mayhem" and the Temple community quickly learned why. His Mississippi State and Florida defenses were designed to confuse offenses, cause havoc and create turnovers. However, his workouts and practices, for those not in the planning, look chaotic complete with fire engines, Easter bunnies, national flags, water guns, and more.

POSITION FLEXIBILITY

One of Geoff Collins' coaching philosophies is to incorporate position flexibility throughout his roster. He has always taught his defense globally so that players know what the man next to him is doing and so they can play each other's positions. Now that he controls the whole roster, that has led to many players being given the chance to play on both sides of the ball. Some of those are: Shaun Bradley (LB/RB), Keith Kirkwood (WR/DE), Freddie Booth-Lloyd (DL/FB), Dan Archibong (DL/OL), and Derrek Thomas (CB/WR).

MONEY DOWN

Head coach Geoff Collins believes that third down is where teams and players earn their money. For Temple, third down is now known as 'money down.' Throughout the game, fans will see Temple staff jumping up and down on the sidelines with money down signs. To show their support at home games, fans will be throwing fake money in the air on third down. The fake dollar bills will feature the face of Collins.

Offense

TOTE THE RYQ

RB Ryquell Armstead entered the season out of the shadows of Jahad Thomas, Temple's leading ground gainer the past two seasons. Armstead led the Owls with 14 rushing touchdowns in 2016 and finished slightly behind Thomas in rushing yards (919/953). Last season, the duo were the only pair of running backs in FBS to each rush for 900+ yards and 13+ TDs.

SHARG-NATO

One of the smartest players on the team with a 3.79 GPA in kinesiology, Nick Sharga is also one of the best fullbacks in the nation. His bone-crushing blocks led the way for both Jahad Thomas and Ryquell Armstead to each rush for 900+ yards and 13+ TDs in 2016, becoming the only pair of running backs in FBS to accomplish that feat. Sharga wears a single-digit (#4) awarded to Temple's toughest players. However, Sharga, one of 11 children - all single births - insists that his mother is tougher than him.

CAPTAIN KIRK

Keith Kirkwood has become the benchmark by which Geoff Collins' players will be measured. A solid player with a great work ethic on and off the field, Kirkwood impressed the new head coach throughout the winter/spring workouts so much that he was awarded one of the prestigious single-digit jerseys. Not only was it the first one handed out in the Collins' era but it was #5, Collins' old college number. Kirkwood was also the first player to exhibit "position flexibility" producing at his receiver spot and collecting a sack as a defensive end in the spring game.

WORLD WIDE LEADER

Not only is Bristol, Conn. home to ESPN, the World Wide Leader in Sports, but it's also home to redshirt sophomore quarterback Logan Marchi. Following a 245 passing yard, two touchdown performance in the season opener against Notre Dame, Marchi earned every start through Week 7 before an injury sidelined him prior to Army.

UNDER THE HOOD

@TrizzyTreHood is the Twitter moniker for RB David Hood. That makes sense for a budding rap artist who is one of four in his family with the name David - he has a father, brother and son with the same name. While there is little confusion in the Temple locker room for the redshirt junior who entered the 2017 season second among active Owls with 329 career rushing yards, it was a bit confusing at Absegami High where both he and his brother David were running backs.

BODY BLOWS MENTALITY

The idea of body blows, boxing terminology rooted in the concept of absorbing punishment while dealing out more than you're taking, serves as the foundation of the blue-collar psychology ingrained into the Temple football program. Junior RB Ryquell Armstead has taken this mindset to heart, showcasing his best work when he has more opportunities in the ground game. Per his career numbers, Armstead averages 6.7 yards per carry when his number is called 15-plus times a game, compiling nine touchdowns with an average of 118 yards per game. The most recent example of this trend came versus Army, as Armstead rushed for 151 yards and two scores on 18 carries.

ALL THE WRIGHT STUFF

Sophomore WR Isaiah Wright has provided a spark for the Owls' offense whenever he touches the field. While his primary position is receiver, he has lined up in the backfield as a running back and also as the QB in a Wildcat formation. "He's a touchdown waiting to happen," said WR coach Stan Hixon.

MOVING ON UP WITH GEORGE AND WIESE-Y

Temple returns a number of offensive linemen and they will have a familiar face coaching them. Chris Wiesehan, who coached the position from 2014-15, returns to coach the offensive line after spending a season with the running backs. Last season, 46-year coaching veteran George DeLeone tutored the linemen before departing.

Defense

APEX PREDATOR

Senior DE Jacob Martin has been harassing quarterbacks since he stepped on the field three seasons ago. Over the past seven games, however, Martin has gone beyond his usual standard, accumulating a career-high six sacks, including two back-breaking ones against ECU. Overall, three of Martin's sacks shifted the course of the games, as his first against the Pirates forced a turnover-on-downs, his one against USF served as the Owls' lone score and his one against Villanova was for a 17-yard loss.

SACK MACHINES

In their week three matchup against the UMass Minutemen, the Owls' defense registered nine total sacks. This is the highest by a Temple defense since the team recorded 10 sacks in a 27-10 victory over the Penn State Nittany Lions on Sept. 5, 2015. This was the second highest by the team dating back to 2000. The performance against UMass also propelled Temple to the top of the leaderboard for team sacks in the American with 14 - four more than the second-place SMU Mustangs.

WILD BOYZ

Temple's defensive line has been nicknamed "Wild Boyz" over the past decade and the unit has lived up to the special billing. Two NFL first round draft choices - Muhammad Wilkerson (2011, NY Jets) and Haason Reddick (2016, Cardinals) - and a handful of other pro players have learned their trade at Temple. DT Michael Dogbe, and DEs Sharif Finch and Jacob Martin lead a solid young group who hope to follow in their footsteps.

SHARIF DON'T LIKE IT

The 1982 hit record, "Rock the Casbah," by The Clash foresaw the attitude an unborn Sharif Finch had on punting. "Sharif don't like it..." is the lead line of the chorus and Finch has proven that he doesn't like opponents to punt, blocking five in his career, the most among active FBS players.

A-E-I-O-U

Former Temple basketball player Bill Mlkvy lives in school folklore as "The Owl Without a Vowel." Now Temple University can also claim "The Owl with Every Vowel." Sophomore DT Karamo Dioubate's surname is complete with all five vowels. Dioubate hopes one day to not just live alongside Mlkvy in uniqueness but in Temple's Hall of Fame.

FIGHT IN THE DOGBE

The lone remaining starter on the defensive line from a year ago, Michael Dogbe is expected to continue his own development and emerge as a leader for the group. Not an easy job for a unit that lost two players to the professional levels - Haason Reddick (Arizona Cardinals) and Avery Ellis (Ottawa Redblacks). A workout warrior with a 495 bench press and 705 squat, Dogbe is used to hard work.

UNDISPUTED CHAMP

The nickname "Champ" belongs to the two-time second team all-conference safety Sean Chandler. He has quickly become one of the most important players on Temple's roster. In fact, he was moved from corner to safety last offseason to take advantage of his playmaking skills. He entered 2017 ranked among the school's all-time leaders with seven interceptions and is the active leader with 186 tackles and three fumble recoveries. He's also earned the respect of his teammates as being the first freshman ever to be given one of the prestigious single digit numbers.

THE ULTIMATE WEAPON

Philadelphia football fans are familiar with a guy named Randall being "the ultimate weapon." Randall Cunningham was dubbed that in 1990 on the cover of Sports Illustrated. Now, Temple's Delvon Randall takes on the role. Randall was a ball-hawking takeaway machine a year ago with 65 tackles, 6.0 TFLs, four interceptions, and two fumble recoveries - most among returning Owls. He earned a prestigious single-digit jersey (#2) awarded on the eve of the spring game.

EIGHT IS ENOUGH

At the start of the 2017 season, Temple ranked eighth amongst all of Div. I college football, for fewest starts by linebackers on a team's current roster. For the Owls, the combined seven starts came from Jared Folks (5 starts) and Chapelle Russell (2 starts). Here is the list: Ball State, Old Dominion, Kansas State, UNLV (0), Troy (4), Boise State (5), Georgia Southern (6), Temple, Louisiana-Lafayette (7)

Special Teams

ISN'T THAT SPECIAL?

Ed Foley joined Temple's football program in 2008 and is now working under his fourth head coach. He has held many roles, including interim head coach for the 2016 Military Bowl, and continues as the special teams coordinator for the third straight season. During that time, the kicking game has flourished with both Austin Jones and Aaron Boumerhi among the most accurate kickers in the nation. Since 2015, the Owls lead the nation with 12 blocked kicks.

AUSTIN POWERS

In 2015, Temple received so many team and individual awards that most overlook the record breaking season kicker Austin Jones had. That year, Jones broke the Temple record for most field goals made in a season (23), most points by a kicker (113), and best field goal percentage for anyone with over 20 attempts (82.1%). He carried that over to 2016 setting the school record with 19 consecutive field goals made before suffering a torn ACL in game six at Memphis. He currently ranks seventh in school history with 186 career points and third in field goals with 37.

BOOM BOOM

Aaron Boumerhi entered the 2016 season as a walk-on freshman and didn't play through the first five games. Following Austin Jones' ACL injury in the fourth quarter of game six, Boumerhi was thrust into the leading role and made the most of his opportunity, finishing the year 15-17 on field goals, 74 points, second team all-conference honors and a scholarship.

BLOCK PARTY

Since the start of Ed Foley's tenure as the team's special teams coordinator, the Owls have led the NCAA in block kicks (punts, field goals and PATs). Over the last three years, the Owls have registered at least five blocked kicks per season.

Miscellaneous

TEMPLE TUFF

The phrase "Temple Tuff" is synonymous with the fight and grit of Temple's football team. However, it was coined by legendary Temple basketball coach John Chaney whose teams also were commended for their hard-nosed, lunch-pail passion by which they played.

REPEAT CHAMPIONS

Temple football has played in both American Athletic Conference Championship games since the conference instituted one in 2015. Temple joins UConn women's basketball, USF men's tennis, and Houston baseball to participate in every one of the AAC Championships in their respective sports.

WE'RE MOVIN' ON UP

The Owls saw seven players go to the pros after a very successful 2015 season topped by 10 more players in 2016. Three players in each year were drafted, including DE/LB Haason Reddick who was selected by Arizona with the #13 overall pick in 2016. OL Dion Dawkins and CB Nate Hairston joined Reddick in 2016 while CB Tavon Young, DL Matt Ioannidis, and LB Tyler Matakevich were the 2015 draft choices. There are currently 13 former Owls playing in the NFL.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl 50 saw the Denver Broncos defeat the Carolina Panthers 24-10 in a low-scoring battle. A huge key to the success of the Broncos that day was the kicking of Brandon McManus who went 3/3 on field goals and tacked on one extra point. He also happens to be a proud Temple grad. Like McManus, Temple has a number of alumni who have experienced success on the NFL's biggest stage. Out of the 21 times that an alum from Temple has played in the Super Bowl, 16 of them happen to be on the winning team. Notable names include former Ravens' RB Bernard Pierce (2011), former Patriots' DL Dan Klecko (2004, 2005) and former Redskins' DB Todd Bowles (1983), who is now a head coach for the New York Jets. Former Owls head coach Bruce Arians was also an offensive coordinator for the Steelers in 2009, helping head coach Mike Tomlin win his first Super Bowl that year.

BEST OF CLASS

Temple's senior class entered its fourth season with 26 victories. That ranked tied for ninth all-time in school history over a four-year span. However, with a full season remaining, this year's class has a chance to become the all-time winningest in school history (31 wins (2011), 30 (2012, 2017).

TEMPLE MADE

"Temple Made and Temple Proud," has been a mantra from recent graduates of Philadelphia's largest university. Two current football players truly embody that ideal. Red-shirt sophomore DB Kareem Ali is the son of two former Temple student-athletes, Tasha, a track star, and Kareem Sr., a football player. Freshman DL Casey Williams was born at Temple University Hospital.

IT'S ALL ACADEMIC

While excelling on the field, Temple football student-athletes have also performed well in the classroom. Enrolled in 41 different majors, the team posted a combined cumulative GPA of 2.88 in 2016-17. That was the highest in two years, although it marked nine consecutive semesters of 2.7+. Temple remains one of two (Purdue) football programs in the nation whose multi-year Academic Progress Rate has never decreased and its recent Graduate Success Rate (86) ranked 14th in the nation amongst all FBS institutions. In the past two bowl seasons, Temple ranked in the top three in number of graduates on the roster and this year should be no different – nine players enter the season with degrees in hand and an additional 14 students will complete their degrees prior to possibly competing in a bowl game - thus marking our third consecutive year of 20+.

SMARTY PANTS

On its current roster, Temple has nine players that have already graduated with their bachelors degrees. This ranks Temple in the top 20 nationwide. Those players are OL Cole Boozer, OL Brian Carter, DL Sharif Finch, DB Artrel Foster, OL Leon Johnson, DB Mike Jones, WR Keith Kirkwood, OL Adrian Sullivan, and DL Julian Taylor.

Northwestern (18), Cincinnati, Coastal Carolina, East Carolina (14), Toledo (13), TCU, Alabama, Oregon, Virginia (12), Georgia State, Kansas State, Maryland, UCF, USF (11), Kent State, Nevada, New Mexico, South Alabama, Texas Tech, West Virginia (10), Houston, Iowa State, Pittsburgh, Purdue, Rutgers, Temple (9)

TO BE YOUNG AGAIN

According to Phil Steele in his annual publication, the Owls entered the 2017 season as the 11th ranked team in all of FBS in terms of experience. Additionally, the Owls are more inexperienced than all AAC teams and any FBS team on their 2017 schedule. Steele takes a plethora of information into consideration when calculating his results such as using returning seniors in a teams two deep (not counting K/P) along with freshman, sophomores, juniors; percentage of passing; rushing and receiving yards returning; percentage of tackles returning; and the offensive line career starts. The team scores range from 0-100 with 100 being a perfect score. Temple comes in with a score of 49.3.

REMEMBERING HARDIN

The 2017 season opener was the first game that the Temple Owls played since the passing of Hall of Fame coach Wayne Hardin. The winningest football coach in Temple history, Hardin had an 80-52-3 record for 13 seasons (1970-82). He led the 1979 team to the Garden State Bowl where the Owls defeated California for their first bowl win. That 1979 squad finished 10-2 for the University's most wins ever in a season. That team also was ranked No. 17 in both the AP and UPI polls, the first time the Owls were in the national wire service polls. The Owls will be wearing a 'WH' sticker on their helmets this season to remember Coach Hardin.

OWL SCHOLARS

In an effort to recognize the outstanding academic accomplishments of Temple University's student-athletes, Temple Athletics introduced the Owl Scholars Program in the Fall of 2016. Through team apparel, student-athletes on all of Temple's 19 sports regularly have the opportunity to wear items that represent their athletic lives while on campus or in the classroom; the Owl Scholars Program aims to accomplish the reverse - provide an easily identifiable symbol of academic success for student-athletes to wear on their respective field or court of competition.

The Owl Scholars Patch has been designed to pay homage to the rich history of the Temple Owls, while invoking images of the infamous speech of Temple

University's founder Russell Conwell, Acres of Diamonds. The three stars above the regal owl symbolize the three different ways a student-athlete can earn the honor of having the patch included on their uniform/game warm-up:

- 1) 3.0 semester GPA in previous term
- 2) 3.0 cumulative GPA prior to bringing of semester
- 3) Successfully completed his/her undergraduate degree at Temple

- 47 Football players will wear the patch this season
- 43 Football players wore the patch last season
- 18 Football players have worn the patch in both seasons

Position by Position Roundup

QUARTERBACKS

Unlike the past three years, there was an open competition for the 2017 starting quarterback after the departure of four-year starter Phillip Walker who broke nearly every passing record at Temple. Heading the unit will be first-year offensive coordinator David Patenaude. He comes off a five-year stint at Coastal Carolina, where he served in the same role for the Catamounts.

Emerging from camp was redshirt sophomore Logan Marchi, who started against Notre Dame and took up under center through game seven an injury sidelined him. The young singal-caller has exceeded expectations in terms of pass distribution, hitting a number of his wide receivers per game.

Marchi started through week seven and set the TU mark for most passing yards (767) and fewest INTs through his first three career starts.

Redshirt junior Frank Nutile took the reigns in game 8 after Marchi was injured and has flourished as a starter. In his first two games as a starter he was 42-of-59 passing for 579 yards and five TDs, including a 4TD performance vs. Navy. "Frankie Juice" has steadied the offense and is expected to continue in the starting role at Cincinnati.

Anthony Russo spent his freshman year redshirting. A local product from Archbishop Wood, Russo was a very highly touted recruit for the Owls in 2016. The coaches expect him to compete for the starting quarterback position.

The 2017 recruiting class welcomes the addition of Todd Centeio (West Palm Beach, Fla./Dwyer High ) who enrolled into school early and will benefit from working with the Owls during the spring.

Marchi

RUNNING BACKS

Leading the running backs this season will be first-year coach Tony Lucas, who comes from Georgetown serving in the same position.

Returning for his junior year, Ryquell Armstead looks to lead the unit. His backfield mate from a year ago, Jahad Thomas, was lost to graduation. Armstead led the team in rushing touchdowns (14) and was second on the team in rushing yards (919) behind Thomas. In 2016, Armstead and Thomas were the only two backs to each rush over 900 yards and 13 TDs. Armstead had four 100-yard rushing games last season including vs. USF, where he ran for a career-high 210 yards and a 76-yard touchdown which was the longest play from scrimmage by any Owl last season. His power, size and speed will help lead the Owls' rushing attack once again.

Junior Jager Gardner and redshirt junior David Hood have shined in the Owls' offense when opportunities presented themselves. Hood looked impressive early in 2016 for the Owls before being sidelined with an injury. He had 16 carries for 87 yards on the season including a career-high 47 yards vs. Army in the opener. Gardner suffered an injury at USF and will miss the remainder of the season. Both were top special teams performers.

Bursting onto the scene last year was true freshman wide receiver Isaiah Wright. A multi-position threat, Wright saw action in many different roles for the Owls last season including RB, WR, punt returner and even QB in the Wildcat formation. He was the third leading rusher on the team with 235 yards and caught eight balls for 74 yards. He also had a 31-yard touchdown at Tulane.

Booker McLean joined the team as a walk-on in 2016 and will be entering his redshirt junior season. He transitioned to running back this fall. Meanwhile, freshman Mark DeRobertis joined the team as a walk-on in the fall and has seen reps with the scout team this season.

Johnny Forrest and Tyliek Raynor both redshirted their freshman year and hope to make more of an impact for the Owls during the 2017 campaign.

WIDE RECEIVERS

This unit is led by Stan Hixon who brings 36 years of coaching experience to Temple this season.

Hixon inherits a very talented unit that returns everyone from the 2016 squad. The success of this unit starts with redshirt junior Ventell Bryant. Against Villanova, Bryant caught seven passes for 79 yards, moving him into 11th place all-time with 100 receptions and 1,553 receiving yards. Last season, Bryant led the team in receptions (54), yards (895) and tied for second in receiving touchdowns (4) while playing in just 11 games due to an injury he suffered early in the season.

Kirkwood

Against Notre Dame, redshirt senior Keith Kirkwood and senior Adonis Jennings both got the start for the Owls. Kirkwood and Jennings are two former transfers who have really stepped up big for the unit. Kirkwood was second on the team in receptions (42), receiving yards (648) and tied for second in receiving touchdowns with four. He impressed head coach Geoff Collins enough to be awarded a single digit (#5) this spring. Jennings finished the season with 27 receptions for 474 yards and four touchdowns. He really came on strong towards the end of the season posting two 100-yard outings in his last three games.

Bursting onto the scene last year was true freshman Isaiah Wright. A multi-position threat, Wright saw action in many different roles for the Owls last season including RB, WR, punt returner and even QB in the Wildcat formation. He was the third-leading rusher on the team with 235 yards and caught eight balls for 74 yards.

Redshirt junior Brodrick Yancy has proven to be a tough slot receiver when healthy. Last year, he played in 11 games, starting four, with 24 receptions before suffering a season-ending leg injury. Another redshirt junior, Marshall Ellick, provides much needed depth. Last year he played in nine games with five starts and finished the year with 12 receptions and 141 yards.

Sophomore Randle Jones and redshirt sophomore Travon Williams provide sparks in the kick return and punt return game, and add much depth to a unit loaded with talent. Jones served as a primary kick returner last year while Williams saw primarily special teams action.

Freddie Johnson and Brandon Mack are two players who were part of the 2016 recruiting class and ended up redshirting. Anthony Cruz and John Ruza were added on as walk-ons in 2016. T.J. Backer and Eric Kiewiak were added in the spring of 2017 and Travis Hines and Thomas Mat-toni joined the unit in a similar capacity in the fall.

The 2017 recruiting class welcomes the additions of Jaden Blue (Hightstown, N.J./Pieddie Prep), L'Jeron Holder (Marlboro, N.J./Manalapan), and Jeremy Jennings (Downingtown, Pa./Downingtown East).

OFFENSIVE LINE

This unit will be headed by Chris Wiesehan. Entering his fourth year at Temple, he was the running backs coach during the 2016 season but had spent the prior two seasons as the offensive line coach. Wiesehan has 22 years of coaching experience, including 19 years in college and three years in the pros. He comes into a unit that lost first-team all-conference tackle Dion Dawkins (Buffalo Bills' 2nd round pick) and center Brendan McGowan, both of whom started every game for the Owls in 2016.

Johnson

Picozzi

Hennessy

Carter

Boozer

Even though this unit has suffered some big losses, it returns a lot of talent including Leon Johnson, Adrian Sullivan and Jovahn Fair who are all returning starters. Johnson and Sullivan started every game for the Owls last season while Fair started 13 out of the 14 games and saw action in every game. They were all big parts of a unit that helped Ryquell Armstead and Jahad Thomas become the only pair of running backs in the country to each rush for over 900 yards and 13 TDs.

Brian Carter returns for his redshirt senior season where he got the start at right guard against Notre Dame. Carter has the most game experience of any Owls' offensive lineman appearing in 36 games over his three-year career with 12 starts, before entering this season. He was a big part of the rotation last year and saw action in every game at guard. Jaelin Robinson saw increased time as the season went on including in the last 10 games of the season rotating in at right tackle. He hopes to see an increased role for the Owls this year with the absence of Dawkins, earning his first career start against Army due to injuries along the line.

The Owls used a lot of multiple tight end packages to open up big holes in the running game. Cole Boozer, a converted tight end, played a huge role in the success of the unit. He saw action in every game last year and has played in 27 games over his three seasons entering his final year. Boozer saw his first career start at right tackle in the Owls' season opener and has held down that position.

As true freshmen last year, Matt Hennessey and Vincent Picozzi showed early promise before sitting the rest of the season and redshirting. Hennessey saw the start on opening day as the team's center. Meanwhile, Picozzi has stepped into the starting left guard role following an early injury to Fair, holding onto the spot from ECU on.

James McHale, Gordon Thomas, Aaron Ruff, Vaughn Fulton and Nick Apostolu are all entering their redshirt junior years and give the Owls much-needed depth across the board at multiple positions. The quintet has played in a combined 22 games throughout the course of their careers. As a redshirt freshman, Benson Israel saw action in three games last year.

Darian Bryant redshirted last season and hopes to earn an increased role in 2017. Senior Carrington Jones joined the team as a walk-on in the summer while redshirt freshman Leon Pinto did the same come the fall, each creating valuable depth to the unit.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the addition of Griffin Sestili (Sewickley, Pa./North Allegheny High). The Owls added Andrew Eisenson (Durham, N.C./Northern) as a walk-on freshman this summer.

TIGHT ENDS & FULLBACKS

Ed Foley takes on leading the tight ends in his fifth year at the position. He has the longest tenure at Temple of any coach on the current staff as he enters his ninth year with the Owls. Foley will look to replace honorable mention all-conference tight end Colin Thompson and leading pass catcher Romond DeLoatch for the upcoming season.

Redshirt junior Chris Myarick and redshirt sophomore Jake Robinson come back to the Owls as the most experienced players on the unit. Myarick had three starts last year and recorded his first career reception at Penn State. The former walk-on was awarded a scholarship earlier this spring. Robinson started the opener vs. Army. Both players saw action in every game last season in multiple tight end packages and on special teams.

Kenny Yeboah saw action in one game last year vs. Charlotte before an injury forced him to redshirt. Redshirt sophomore Domenic Nigrelli saw action in one game last year. Steve Petrick and Taiyir Wilson were sidelined with an injury as true freshmen and ended up redshirting.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the addition of Emil Moody (Philadelphia, Pa./Neumann-Goretti High).

The fullback position is led by redshirt senior Nick Sharga. Against Villanova, Sharga scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard rush. As a sophomore, he was awarded a single-digit jersey, a Temple tradition given to the nine toughest players on the team voted on by the team. Last season he had 17 carries for 98 yards with one reception and was a major reason for the success of the running game. Redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato is the backup fullback who saw action in 13 games on special teams last year, but has an expanded role as a ball carrier this season. Against ECU, he notched career-highs in carries (14) and yards (48) while scoring his first touchdown, and has been integral in the rush attack since.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The "Wild Boyz," nickname of Temple's defensive line unit, will be under new leadership this season after suffering some key losses such as Haason Reddick, Praise Martin-Oguike, Avere Robinson, and Avery Ellis. The position is still loaded with talent and plenty of players to make a difference. They will be led by first-year coach Jim Panagos who spent the past 10 seasons at UCF (2007-11), Rutgers (2012-15), and Pitt (2016).

When healthy, seniors Sharif Finch and Jullian Taylor have been a force to be reckoned with. Over four years, Finch has played in 40 games and had 89 tackles, 16.5 TFLs, 6.0 sacks and two interceptions. Last season Finch was sidelined for most of the season due to a knee injury. Taylor had eight tackles in just three games last year before suffering a season-ending injury as well. Both ended up redshirting, and are making solid contributions this season.

Jacob Martin is a tough kid who has provided the Owls with quality playing time throughout his three-year career. He earned a single-digit jersey, given to the nine toughest players on the team as voted on by his teammates. He has played 37 games with three starts in his three years with the program.

Two key defensive tackles returning to this unit are redshirt juniors Michael Dogbe and Fred-die Booth-Lloyd. Dogbe is the lone starter from the unit returning from last year. He was tied for fifth on the team in TFLs with 5.0. Booth-Lloyd's size and quickness make him a difficult matchup to block having played in 26 games with two starts throughout his career.

Redshirt senior Greg Webb, sophomore Karamo Dioubate, and redshirt freshman Dan Archibong provide more depth to a talented unit. In their first year with the Owls, they played in a combined 27 games last season. A transfer from Hutchinson College, Webb had seven tackles and 1.5 TFLs, while as true freshmen, Dioubate and Archibong combined for six tackles.

Dana Levine, who made his first career start against Villanova, and DeAndre Kelly are players who will be returning for their redshirt sophomore years. They add more depth to the unit and have played in a combined seven games throughout the course of their careers.

Quincy Roche was part of the 2016 recruiting class and ended up redshirting this past season. Roche made his first career sack in the season opener against the Fighting Irish. Roche had a career-best three sacks against UMass. Hez Trahan is a redshirt junior who joined as a walk-on and provides more depth to the unit. Redshirt sophomore Prosper Mekoba rejoined the team to add depth.

Redshirt junior Zack Mesday is making the conversion to defensive end from linebacker.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the additions of Malik Burns (Marbury, Md./Lackey High), Arnold Ebiketie (Silver Spring, Md./Albert Einstein High), Ifeanyi Maijeh (Far Rockaway, N.Y./Poly Prep High), and Casey Williams (South Philadelphia (Pa.) High). Williams was an early enrollee and participated in spring practices. During the season, junior Rob Chander, Jr. (Camden N.J./Highland Regional) transferred in from Ferrum College and will be eligible starting next season following a redshirt.

LINEBACKERS

This unit will be headed by first-year coach Andrew Thacker who comes to Temple from Kennesaw State. Thacker will have his work cut out for him as he has to replace the starting trio of Jared Alwan, Stephaun Marshall, and Avery Williams.

The one player returning with the most experience is redshirt junior Jared Folks. Last year, Folks started in five games at middle linebacker and played in all but one game. He finished 12th on the team in tackles with 32 and had one interception.

Shaun Bradley played in 11 games as a true freshman and was in and out of the lineup as he battled a season-long injury. He showed enough promise to play at each of the linebacker positions. Bradley got the nod at middle linebacker to start the season at Notre Dame. Against Villanova, Bradley registered his first career sack.

As a true freshman, Sam Franklin saw action in every game on special teams and finished the year with four tackles. He is converting to linebacker after spending time at cornerback and wide receiver last season. Franklin started at Notre Dame at strong-

SINCE 2014, TEMPLE FOOTBALL HAS...

- Beaten an SEC team (Vanderbilt) for the first time in 76 years (Florida in 1938).
- Posted the largest margin of victory in 40 seasons – a 59-0 shutout over Delaware State.
- Beaten a ranked team at home for the first time ever (#21 East Carolina in 2014 and #21 Memphis in 2015) and just the third and fourth times ever beating a ranked team. Previous time was 16 years ago.
- Beaten a ranked team in each of the past three seasons.
- Beat Penn State for the first time in 74 years and 40 tries.
- Beat Cincinnati for the first time in 30 years and six tries.
- Won three consecutive games on the road for the first time in 45 years.
- Started a season 7-0 for the first time ever.
- Became ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 1979 (36 years).
- Won a game as a ranked team (at East Carolina, at SMU, vs. UConn) for the first time in 74 years.
- Had ESPN's College Gameday broadcast a Temple football game for the first time ever...from Philadelphia, no less.
- Played in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked football games – vs. Notre Dame and at Houston.
- Ranked in the Top 25 for four consecutive weeks and for seven weeks total - both for the first time ever.
- Had a national award winner - Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award - for the first time since 1974 (when Steve Joachim won the Maxwell Award).
- Had a player earn first-team All-American honors for the first time since 1986.
- Become bowl eligible for three consecutive seasons for the second time in school history.
- Posted back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925.
- Had three shutouts in a season for the first time since 1945.
- Won 20 games in a two-year span for the first time ever.
- Posted 10 wins for only the second and third times (1979, 2015, 2016).
- Won its first Conference Championship since 1967 and its first Conference Championship Game ever.

Position by Position Roundup

side linebaker. Redshirt sophomore Chapelle Russell saw action in 10 games and started in two before a knee injury sidelined him for the remainder of the season. He had 25 tackles and one sack on the season.

Jeremiah Atoki, William Kwenkeu, and Chris Smith are players on the unit who each saw action in 10+ games last year on special teams, combining for 25 tackles.

Junior Todd Jones saw action in seven games last season, and show much talent for the future going forward. Kevin DeCeasar and Mike DiFrancesco are both former walk-ons who saw little game action last season.

Isaiah Graham-Mobley was part of the 2016 recruiting class and saw his first career game action when he started against Notre Dame at weakside linebaker. Sam Kramer joined the team as a walk-on and ended up redshirting the 2016 season. Sophomore Shaun Gabriel (Harrisburg, Pa./Central Dauphin) and freshman Adrian Rosa (Milltown, N.J./Piscataway) joined the team as a walk-on in the fall, and adds depth to the unit.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the addition of Audley Isaacs (Philadelphia, Pa./Valley Forge High), and redshirt freshman Boaz Pogue (Chambersburg, Pa./Fork Union Military Academy) transferred in from Morehead State midway through the season.

CORNERBACKS

This unit will be headed up by first-year coach Cory Robinson. Robinson comes from the University of Toledo, where he served the same position during the 2016 season. The unit suffers the key loss of starting corner Nate Hairston (Indianapolis Colts' 5th round pick).

Returning to the unit as a starting corner is redshirt senior Artrel Foster. He started all but one game last year, led all corners in total tackles with 34, and had one forced fumble. Redshirt junior Derrek Thomas hopes to provide the Owls with another big season as he saw action in 13 games last year and finished up with 29 tackles and seven pass breakups.

The unit also has really high expectations for graduate transfer Mike Jones, who comes to Temple from North Carolina Central. Jones started in the team's season opener against Notre Dame and also grabbed his first interception as an Owl. Over his career, he had 35 starts and racked up 114 tackles, 36 pass breakups, and 11 interceptions with the Eagles.

Sophomore Linwood Crump saw a lot of time on special teams last year and have played in a combined 42 games throughout their careers. Kareem Ali is a talented individual who suffered an injury in the second game last year and did not return until the end of the season.

Adding depth to the unit is Kimere Brown, part of the 2016 recruiting class, who redshirted last season.

The 2017 recruiting class sees the additions of Christian Braswell (Washington, D.C./Friendship Collegiate Academy) and Ty Mason (Silver Spring, Md./James Hubert Blake High). Freshmen walk-ons Joshua Allen (Sicklerville, N.J./Winslow Township) and Aaron Adu (Worcester, Mass./Doherty Memorial) joined the team this summer.

SAFETIES

First-year defensive coordinator Taver Johnson will also tutor the safeties. He has coached college football over 20 years with his most recent stops being the defensive backs coach at Purdue and Ohio State.

Johnson's job with the safeties will be infinitely easier as he returns one of the best tandems in the country in Sean Chandler and Delvon Randall. Chandler is returning for his senior year as a two-time second team all-conference selection. In just 10 games last year, he had 51 tackles, 3.5 TFLs, a sack, two interceptions and three forced fumbles. He is also a "Temple Tuff" single-digit jersey member, which he has worn since his freshman year. Randall started every game for the Owls last season and finished tied for second on the team in tackles with 65. He also led the team in takeaways with six, which was tied most by an individual in the American Athletic Conference. Randall earned a single-digit jersey this spring.

Senior Cequan Jefferson made the transition to safety this fall.

Redshirt junior Jyquis Thomas and sophomore Benny Walls provide the Owls with depth at the position. Walls had 12 tackles on the season to go along with an interception while Thomas finished the year with seven tackles. Keyvone Bruton and Amir Tyler are both freshmen who ended up redshirting last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Once again, Ed Foley will be heading the unit which he has done since 2015. The unit will have to decide between two fabulous kickers in senior Austin Jones and sophomore Aaron Bomerhi. Jones kicked field goals for the Owls in their opener while Bomerhi had the kick off duties. Jones started the 2016 season going 11-13 on field goals before suffering a season-ending ACL tear at Memphis. In 2015, he set the school record for field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (133). When Bomerhi filled in for Jones the second half of the season, he connected on 15-17 field goals including a career-high four made in the Military Bowl vs. Wake Forest. He earned second-team all-conference honors. Against Villanova, Bomerhi kicked a 49-yard game-winning field goal with one minute remaining. The kick also sits as a career best.

Freshman Will Mobley (Lititz, Pa./Warwick) walked on to the team in the fall, and as already added valuable depth in the kicking game during practice.

Senior Alex Starzyk was suspended by the team in the spring and returned to the team in August. Starzyk was the starter to open the season against Notre Dame. He has been the Owls' punter ever since his freshman season. Last season, he had 44 punts for an average of 39.5 yards, with 17 punts inside the 20. His longest punt of the season was 55 yards, but he excelled at the rugby-style punt which left many kicks unreturnable. Walk-on freshmen Connor Bowler (Glenmoore, Pa./Downingtown West), who joined this past summer, Drew Levin (Voorhees, N.J./Eastern) and Max Cavallucci (Wyncote, Pa./Cheltenham) will take reps at the position as well.

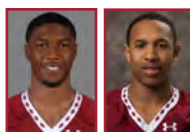

The unit is also strengthened by long snapper Corey Lerch, who has held the spot down since his freshman season in 2014.

Redshirt senior Josh Lang and freshman Cole Lerch add depth at long-snapper.

In the return game, the Owls saw Mike Jones and Sean Chandler pave the way for the unit in the opener against Notre Dame. Jones was an All-MEAC First Team returner and saw time returning kicks. Chandler carried the team last year as a punt returner and will see action again this season.

Geoff COLLINS

Head Coach

Western Carolina '94

1st Season at Temple

Geoff Collins accepted the head coaching position at Temple University on December 14, 2016, becoming the 27th head football coach in Owls' history. Armed with 23 years of coaching experience, Collins has proven to be a driven leader who is not bashful about the word love. He has demonstrated a love for his players and they have reciprocated that passion in their actions and words.

"I could not speak more highly of Coach Collins," said Houston Texans' LB Benardrick McKinney who played for Collins at Mississippi State. "He has done so much for shaping the player I am today. He coached aggressively with a tremendous amount of energy and fun. He loved his players. Coach Collins would do anything for us, on and off the field. Not only did he train us to be the best defensive players we could be on the field, but also the best men we would be off the field."

Collins' creative spirit has paid dividends on and off the field. Whether devising original game-plans, creating new methods to teach, or splashy ways to pursue recruits, Collins' ideas are mimicked throughout college football.

He has been recognized as one of the leading assistant coaches in the nation numerous times and is the only coach to be a Broyles Award nominee, given to the nation's best assistant coach, at three schools [FIU (2010), MSU (2014) and Florida (2015)].

"The excitement over Temple football has been growing for years, and Geoff is going to ensure that Temple's reputation for quality on the field and in the classroom is going to continue," said President Richard M. Englert. "Our student-athletes are great representatives of this university and make me proud every time I see them play."

"Geoff Collins is an extraordinary leader, and it's clear he is the right person to take an already successful program and advance it to the next level," added the University's Board of Trustees Chairman Patrick J. O'Connor. "We are thrilled to have him join the Temple University community."

Collins is an alumnus of Western Carolina University, where he played defensive back and linebacker. Collins has coached all over, beginning at his alma mater, and most recently working in the SEC at both Florida, where he helped the Gators to back-to-back SEC East Division Titles, and Mississippi State in the role of defensive coordinator. Over the course of his career, Collins has helped guide 31 of his student-athletes to careers in the National Football League.

"As soon as I met with Geoff I knew right away that this was the right coach at the right time for Temple University," said Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick M. Kraft. "Well beyond Geoff's acumen as a coach of hard, physical football, he shares our values of embracing the student-athlete and demanding excellence in all that we do."

Collins first began at Florida in 2015, hired by Jim McElwain to be on his initial staff at the school. Collins' opportunity to serve as defensive coordinator at Florida was his second defensive coordinator job in the SEC, as he held the same title at Mississippi State for two seasons.

The Florida defense was relentless under the guidance of Collins, finishing the season ranked eighth nationally in 2015. His Gators' defense was also ranked third in the SEC during that time, only allowing 310.2 yards per game. Collins' defense also set a number of other records during his time in Gainesville, including being one of only seven FBS teams in the last 20 years to not allow a touchdown against three FBS Power 5 schools on the road, in a single season.

In the 2015 season alone, Collins helped prepare three players who eventually earned first-team All-SEC honors, including CB Jalen "Teez" Tabor, DL Jon Bullard, and CB Vernon Hargreaves. Hargreaves was also a consensus first team All-American in 2015. In total, five of Collins' defensive players were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft; two first round selections (CB Vernon Hargreaves and S Keanu Neal) along with DT Jonathan Bullard (3rd), LB Antonio Morrison (4th), and DE Alex McCalister (7th), along with Brian Poole who started for the Falcons in the Super Bowl after joining Atlanta as a rookie free agent.

The Florida team capitalized on the success of its defense in 2016, finishing 8-4 on the year and earning its second straight SEC East Division Title. The unit finished among the nation's best in multiple categories - first in pass efficiency (92.87), second in pass defense (148.5), third in defensive scores (5), fourth in red zone defense (71.8), fifth in total defense (293.0), sixth in scoring defense (16.8 ppg), and seventh in first downs allowed (206). Collins also helped three of his players earn All-SEC selections in the 2016 season. Florida's defensive unit developed seven more draft picks in 2017, including four in the first two rounds.

Prior to his time at Florida, Collins was a member of the coaching staff at Mississippi State. Originally hired to serve as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2011 season, Collins was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator in 2013.

Mississippi State had tremendous success while he was on the coaching staff, most notably the 2014 season, when the Bulldogs when they were ranked #1 in the country for most of the season and finished with a 10-3 record. This 10-win season was the best finish at the school in 15 years, and concluded with a berth in the Orange Bowl. Collins' defense was dominant that season, producing the most sacks in the SEC (37), as well as the #1 ranked red zone defense and ninth ranked scoring defense in the country.

The season prior, Mississippi State went 7-6 and defeated Rice in the Liberty Bowl, 44-7. Collins' unit was one of the best in the SEC. In his first season as full-time defensive coordinator, his defense ranked among the SEC's top five in a number of categories, including fourth in total defense (349.3 yards per game), fourth in rushing defense (144.2 yards per game) and fifth in passing defense (205.2 yards per game). He also held his last three opponents during the 2013 season to just 11.3 points per game.

In 2012, the Bulldogs finished the year 8-5 and made an appearance in the Gator Bowl. That year, Collins tutored DB Darius Slay, a second team All-SEC selection. Along with Slay, who was picked in the second round of the NFL Draft, Collins helped prepare a number of other Mississippi State players for careers in the NFL, including Jim Thorpe Award winner CB Jonathan Banks (2nd round), Will Redmond (3rd round), and DT Josh Boyd (5th round).

During his first season on the staff, Mississippi State finished the season 7-6 as the Bulldogs went to the Music City Bowl, defeating Wake Forest, 25-17. In Collins' first season as a co-defensive coordinator for the Bulldogs, he helped mentor DT Fletcher Cox, a first team All-American and first team All-SEC selection in 2011. Cox was selected 12th overall in the first round of the NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, and earned All-Pro honors in 2014 and 2015.

Collins' ability to mold a defense was evident well prior to his time in Mississippi State and Florida. Before coaching in the SEC, he sharpened his teeth as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International University in 2010. During that season, his defense was ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in total defense, scoring defense, pass defense efficiency, and turnover margin. This, off of the prior year when the team was ranked 119th in total defense nationally. This dramatic turnaround led Collins to be named a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, an award for the top assistant in college football.

Before joining the staff at FIU, Collins was a linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach George O'Leary at UCF for two seasons. In 2009, he was part of a staff the led the Knights to an 8-5 record and a berth in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Even though UCF did not make a bowl game in 2008, he had the defense ranked second in Conference USA in total and scoring defense.

Collins also spent some time working at both the University of Alabama and Georgia Tech. In 2007, he worked at Alabama as the director of player personnel under head coach Nick Saban and had the #1 recruiting class in the country. That class included Mark Ingram Jr., the 2008 Heisman Trophy winner and the first-ever by an Alabama player. He spent the 2006 season at Georgia Tech as director of player personnel. Georgia Tech secured their best recruiting class in team history that year as well.

Between the years of 2002 and 2005, Collins was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Western Carolina. Collins' defense was continually ranked near the top nationally at the FCS level while under his guidance. In 2005, the team was ranked first nationally in pass defense and 18th in total defense. The team also led the So-Con conference in rushing defense for the first time in program history in that season.

From 1999-2000, Collins served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under O'Leary. During that time, the Yellow Jackets had a 25-12 record, including reaching three consecutive bowl games. In Collins' last season at Georgia Tech he was promoted to tight ends coach under current Houston Texans' head coach Bill O'Brien and the Yellow Jackets defeated the Stanford Cardinal in the 2001 Seattle Bowl, 25-12.

Collins got his chance at being a defensive coordinator at Albright College from 1997-1998. Before that, he was a linebackers coach for the Fordham Rams for the 1996 season. In 1995, he was an assistant coach for Franklin High School in North Carolina. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Carolina University, contributing as a student assistant during the 1993 and 1994 seasons.

Collins played college football at WCU as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-1992. He totaled 194 career tackles during his four year career with the Catamounts. As a junior, he was the team's fifth-leading tackler (68), while registering 6.0 tackles-for-loss. As a senior, he helped Western Carolina to a 7-4 record, totaling 62 total tackles and 5.0 tackles-for-loss.

The Conyers, Ga., native was born April 10, 1971. He and his wife, Jennifer (formerly Haynes), have one daughter, Astrid (one).

2017 Temple Football

What They're Saying About Geoff Collins

"Geoff Collins was a great hire for Temple University. He is a very organized and detailed coach who will get maximum effort from his team. Geoff also happened to be an outstanding recruiter who evaluates talent very well. He will hit the ground running."

- George O'Leary, former head coach Georgia Tech and UCF

"Geoff did an outstanding job for us during his time at the University of Alabama, and we are very excited to see him get this head coaching opportunity. He is a fantastic hire for the Temple Owls. He brings an extraordinary amount of positive energy and enthusiasm to his job. Geoff is a very intelligent football coach and someone who works extremely hard to help his team be successful. We are very happy for Geoff and wish him the best of luck at Temple."

- Nick Saban, Alabama head coach

"They're going to get a guy that motivates players. A guy that really understands the game and understands both sides of the ball, not just the defensive side. A relentless, competitive recruiter, and a guy that's now been around at some places to see how he can establish his own kinds of ways of doing things."

- Jim McElwain, University of Florida head coach

"Geoff Collins is the perfect choice to be the head football coach at Temple University. Geoff is a tremendous person with a brilliant defensive mind. He is a relentless recruiter, and he will always put the players first! I'm so excited that he and Jennifer are coming to Philadelphia and know that he will lead Temple into a brilliant and successful future."

- Matt Rhule, Baylor head coach

"Geoff Collins is an outstanding, high-energy coach that is an even better person. He is a tremendous motivator, players love playing for him, and he gets the most out of all of his guys. He is a tireless recruiter with an infectious personality. He's been a winner at every stop of his career, and it was only a matter of time before he became a head coach. I am extremely happy for Geoff, and I commend Temple for hiring one of the bright, up-and-coming head coaches in the game."

- Dan Mullen, Mississippi State head coach

"Geoff Collins has a proven record of success in one of the best conferences in the country and he accomplished it by being innovative off the field and developing talented football players on the field."

- Kirby Smart, Georgia head coach

"Going back to our time together at Alabama, it was evident that Geoff was very intelligent and very driven. He is a hard worker with an incredible motor and a great grasp for the game. He's another great addition to our league and I know Temple will be well prepared with an aggressive attitude each week."

- Major Applewhite, University of Houston head coach

"Geoff was with us for one year [at Georgia Tech] and did a great job heading up our recruiting and was a very energetic, hard-working guy. I know he will do a great job at Temple."

- Chan Gailey, former New York Jets' offensive coordinator

"Coach Collins is one of the best. He has really helped my career in a big way...Very energetic...he demands excellence out of his players. He's going to push you hard and love you hard at the same time. When we break down every meeting he tells us that he loves us....I remember one play...I made a lot of good plays, interceptions, PBUs, tackles but this one time I gave up a 60-yard touchdown and when I got to the sidelines he wasn't mad. He asked me what happened and I told him I messed up. He said 'I love you.' That's not what you expect to hear from a coach in that moment."

- Jalen "Teez" Tabor, Florida, Detroit

"Geoff is always thinking big and always spoke the truth. He helped everybody. He was big on teaching. Geoff is super competitive. He meant a lot to the guys he was coaching. That's why the players loved him so much. He loves his guys. He will lay it all on the line for his guys. He demands greatness out of everyone no matter whether you're the starter or the backup."

- Fletcher Cox, MSU, Philadelphia

"I loved him man. One of the best defensive coordinators I've ever had, one of the best coaches I've ever had. You guys got a great coach in Coach Collins. I can't say enough about him. I miss him. He's got a winning attitude. You couldn't have picked a better person and a better coach. He's going to change the program and make it a big time program...Man, I mean he's a super smart guy. He puts people in the perfect position to make plays. My one year that I did play under him, my junior year, I think I had my best season. I was All-American that year. I had five picks. Coach Collins, he's going to do a great job putting his players in the best position to succeed on the field."

- Johnathan Banks, MSU, Chicago

"As a defensive coordinator, he was awesome. He's an energetic coach; which everyone likes to see. He's going to bring a lot to the players. He's going to give the guys a lot to play for...I feel like he's going to bring a lot of knowledge to the team. I know playing against him, he knew just about everything as defensive coordinator and he heard a lot of plays that could be very helpful to the offense. He'll be a great head coach with his knowledge of the game. He's going to be a really great coach and I'm just excited for him at Temple, now that he's a head coach there. He's going to bring the guys a lot of life. They'll love to play for him. They're going to have a lot of edge when they go out there and play. I'm confident in what he can make those guys do, with play-calling and everything else he brings to the table."

- Preston Smith, MSU, Washington

"I could not speak more highly of Coach Collins. He has done so much for shaping the player I am today. He coached aggressively with a tremendous amount of energy and fun. He loved his players. Coach Collins would do anything for us, on and off the field. Not only did he train us to be the best defensive players we could be on the field, but also the best men we would be off the field. I took the same aggressive, energetic, 'go out and have fun' mentality of football that Coach Collins instilled in us back at Mississippi State and applied that to how I play the game in the NFL. Coach Collins always said 'Go out and play with Juice' and that is exactly what I do every time I step out on the field...Coach Collins has done a lot for my career and always pushed me to be a greater man. It was an honor to play for him and have the opportunity to be a student of his game. Thank you, Coach Collins."

- Benardrick McKinney, MSU, Houston

"Coach Collins is a guy who truly cares about the well-being of his players on and off the field no matter where you are on the depth chart. He has high energy and his attention to detail is through the roof. Coach Collins is one of the best coaches I've had over my career."

- Alex Anzalone, Florida, New Orleans

"Geoff Collins passion for the game is unbelievable. He was more than a coach to me. He was more like family!"

- Brian Poole, Florida, Atlanta

"Geoff Collins is a major reason I decided to attend UCF because he is a passionate and enthusiastic coach who loves the game of football. His attitude and desire to improve are both infectious and can be felt throughout the team. He is extremely knowledgeable and I'll be rooting for him to succeed at Temple."

- Blake Bortles, UCF, Jacksonville

"He's an amazing guy. Most important, he's not just a coach, he's a friend. He's a people person. He's a great coach and a great mentor. I hope he coaches long enough that my son can play for him."

- Chris Jones, MSU, Kansas City

"Coach Collins always bring the juice and the swag! Always in a good mood, always ready to help and always up tempo! He's the ultimate players coach. I loved my time with him!"

- Vernon Hargreaves, Florida, Tampa Bay

"True definition of a player's coach. As a player under him our relationship was always deeper than just ball itself. Always ask genuinely about the family and how I was, and he did that with all his guys. During the combine I trained with a few guys he coached previously at Mississippi State. All those guys would tell you the same thing. On defense he brought a whole new meaning to third down with the energy and teaching the importance field position. Just all around genius of a coach. I wish could've played under Collins as a head coach. Temple future is definitely bright with one of the best coaches in the game running things."

- Alex McCallister, Florida, Philadelphia

PROMINENT PLAYERS COACHED

MISSISSIPPI STATE

LB BENARDRICK MCKINNEY - Originally recruited as a two-star quarterback out of high school, he developed into a 2014 First-Team All-SEC selection and 2012 Freshman All-SEC selection. Named an All-American by numerous media outlets and left school after his junior year in 2014 for the NFL Draft. MSU's leading tackler in 2013 and 2014 and ended his career with 244 tackles.

CB DARIUS SLAY - Second Team All-SEC selection in 2012. Played two seasons at MSU and finished his career with six interceptions. Drafted 36th overall in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

DL FLETCHER COX - First Team All-American and All-SEC in 2011. Amassed 114 tackles, 24.5 tackles-for-loss and 8.5 sacks during his career. Drafted with the 12th pick in the 2012 NFL Draft. Named a Second Team All-Pro after the 2014 season.

FLORIDA

CB VERNON HARGREAVES - Was a three-time All-American and All-SEC Selection at corner back. Played three seasons at UF prior to declaring for the NFL Draft after his junior year. Was selected in the first round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers with the 11th overall pick.

DB KEANU NEAL - Ranked third on the team with 96 total tackles, including a team-high 51 solo grabs as a junior. Played in a total of 34 games and made 19 starts for the UF secondary. Neal declared for the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the first round with the 17th overall pick.

DL JON BULLARD - Was named a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, a first-team All-American by CBSSports.com and Pro Football Focus, and was a unanimous first-team All-SEC selection his senior year. Bullard appeared in 50 games and made 36 starts as a Gator and was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft with the 72nd overall pick by the Chicago Bears.

DB BRIAN POOLE - Despite joining Atlanta as an undrafted free agent, made the transition to the pro game quickly and helped the Falcons to the Super Bowl in his rookie year. Played in all 16 games with nine starts during the regular season and played in all three playoff games starting two, including SBLL.

LB ALEX ANZALONE - A tremendous leader who, despite missing most of his freshman and junior years to shoulder injury, was a second day draft choice by the New Orleans Saints.

CB TEEZ TABOR - Was a first team All-SEC player as a sophomore in 2015 and junior in 2016. Declared for the NFL Draft as a junior and was selected by Detroit in the second round (53rd overall).

CB QUINCY WILSON - Played in 39 games in three seasons recording six interceptions. Earned second team All-SEC honors as a junior.

Conference Championship Game

On Saturday, December 3, 2016, the American Athletic Conference will hold its second Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games — both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.

TEMPLE AT A GLANCE

Temple is in the 4th largest media market in the country, with over 2.9 million TV homes according to Nielsen. The designated market area (DMA) is 7.6 million.

Temple is located in a region of 6.53 million people, and is only 95 miles from NYC and 120 miles from Washington DC. In fact, more than 40% of the US population is within a day's drive from Philadelphia.

Temple is the 26th largest public University in the country with over 40,000 students founded in 1884 and has 404 academic programs including five professional schools of law, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, and podiatry.

Temple is a Research I institution, a Carnegie Classification in 2015 as the highest level and ranked by US News and World Report at 115 (6th) with an overall graduation rate of 70%, and has a full time retention rate for undergraduate students at 89%.

Temple's athletic department has 19 sports and 500 student-athletes.

Temple is one of 11 institutions in the country with multi-year APR scores of 970 or greater for all teams including a 2015 multi-years APR score of 971. Temple has over 300,000 alumni around the world including over 170,000 alumni that live in the Philadelphia DMA.

Temple has been bowl eligible six out of the last eight years. The Owls finished 10-4, won the AAC Eastern Division and were ranked in the Top 25 each of the past two seasons. They won the American Athletic Conference Championship in 2016.

Temple posted the largest attendance gain during the 2015 season, playing in front of an average home crowd of 44,159, an increase of 20,789 per game. This excitement led ESPN to bring their popular pregame show, Game Day, to Philadelphia.

The Temple game played against Notre Dame in 2015 had a 3.9 national rating and an 18.1 local rating. It was ABC's highest ranking game ever in the Philadelphia area which is impactful given we are in the 4th largest media market in the country.

Temple's athletic facilities are among the finest in the country. The football team plays its games in the NFL stadium operated by the Philadelphia Eagles and there are ongoing discussions to build an on campus football stadium as well. The basketball arena is a state-of-the-art facility with a capacity crowd of 10,000. Over the last four years Temple has spent over $50 million for athletics multipurpose facilities with all the athletic facilities being state-of-the-art.

The University itself has over $400 million planned for capital projects over the next five years including a $170 million state of the art library.

The men's basketball team is led by two-time AAC Coach of the Year, Fran Dunphy, and is the 2015-16 AAC regular season basketball champions. The basketball program is the 5th winningest program in the history of college basketball.

ABOVE THE LINE

Since he was first asked about depth charts and two-deeps, Geoff Collins has insisted that he doesn't believe in them. He coaches his players to be "Above the Line" (ATL). Those who are ATL are ready to play and can see game action, while others work to get to that level. This season in place of a traditional two-deep that often omits some players who see action and lists others who seldom enter the game, Temple will list those players who are ATL (in numerical order by position). Those players who started the previous week, will be printed in bold.

Notre Dame 49, Temple 16 Saturday, September 2, 2017 Notre Dame Stadium, South Bend, Ind.

TEMPLE FALLS TO IRISH IN COLLINS' DEBUT

SOUTH BEND, Ind.
— Temple could not start the Geoff Collins era in the win column Saturday afternoon as the Owls lost, 49-16, at Notre Dame Stadium against the Fighting Irish. This completes the three-game series between the schools.

Keys to the Game

> Notre Dame jumped out to an early 14-0 lead on the Owls and scored touchdowns on four of their first five drives to increase the lead to 28-3.
> Redshirt freshman QB Logan Marchi, who started and played the entire game, found redshirt senior WR Keith Kirkwood for a 12-yard touchdown to cut the margin to 28-10 prior to halftime.

> Following Kirkwood's TD, Temple held Notre Dame scoreless until Tony Jones, Jr. rushed in from seven-yards out to make it 35-10.

> Marchi then connected with redshirt junior WR Brodrick Yancy for an 11-yard score to cut the margin to 35-16, early in the fourth quarter, but two late Irish scores sealed the win.

> Notre Dame QB Brandon Wimbush was impressive in his first start, throwing for 184 yards and two TDs while also rushing for 104 yards and a touchdown.

> On the day, Marchi went 19 of 35 for 245 yards and two touchdowns, while distributing the ball to nine different receivers.

Game Notes

> Five Temple players made their first career starts — linebacker Isaiah Graham-Mobley, center Matt Hennessy, Marchi, defensive tackle Dan Archibong, and linebacker Sam Franklin.

> Three Owls saw their first game action of their careers — Graham-Mobley, wide receiver Branden Mack, and defensive lineman Quincy Roche.

> In his first game at Temple, Jones also made his first interception as an Owl.

> Marchi's TD pass to Kirkwood was the first of his career.

> Redshirt junior S Delvon Randall and redshirt freshman DL Quincy Roche each registered their first career sacks.

> Sophomore WR Isaiah Wright had a career day with four catches and 79 yards receiving — both game highs.

Quotable

"I love them, I'm proud of the way they competed, the way they fought, they never quit," said Collins.

"Logan [Marchi] came in and played admirably and moved the offense really well at times, threw some really nice balls and threw some balls that not a lot of kids in the country can make. And I thought the rest of the offense kind of rallied around him," said Collins.

TEMPLE BREAKS TIE WITH LAST MINUTE FG TO WIN

PHILADELPHIA – Sophomore Aaron Boumerhi connected on a career long 49-yard field goal with one minute remaining to lift Temple to a hard-fought 16-13 win over Villanova in front of 35,117 Saturday at Lincoln Financial. The win was the first for Owls (1-1) and new head coach Geoff Collins.

Keys to the Game

> The first half was a defensive battle as the only score on the board was a 22-yard field goal from senior kicker Austin Jones, until redshirt senior fullback Nick Sharga plowed forward for a one-yard touchdown run with one second remaining in the half to give the Owls a 10-0 lead.

> The Temple defense held Villanova to 31 rushing yards and 98 passing yards in the first half.

> On their first drive of the second half, the Owls marched into field goal range and sophomore kicker Aaron Boumerhi nailed a 44-yard field goal to extend the Owls' lead to 13-0.

> In the third quarter, the Temple defense buckled down and forced a Villanova change of possession as the Wildcats were threatening in the redzone.

> Villanova then scored 13 straight points, tying the game on a 34-yard Drew Kresge field goal with 3:29 remaining.

> Redshirt junior WR Ventell Bryant made a one-handed 29-yard reception on the ensuing possession to help set up Boumerhi's winning kick.

> Sophomore LB Shaun Bradley forced a Villanova fumble with senior DE Sharif Finch recovering to seal the win.

Game Notes

> Sharga scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard run.

> Redshirt sophomore Dana Levine made his career start.

> Redshirt sophomore QB Logan Marchi had a strong game, completing 20 of 34 passes for 274 yards > Bryant made seven catches for 79 yards while senior WR Adonis Jennings had three catches for 75 yards. Bryant's seventh reception of the game was the 100th of his career.

> Villanova (1-1) entered the game ranked #6 in the latest STATS FCS poll.

TEMPLE SACKS UMASS 29-21

PHILADELPHIA – Temple (2-1) took down the UMass Minutemen (0-4) under the Friday night lights, 29-14. Quarterback Logan Marchi finished the day 22 of 37 for 248 yards and three touchdowns, completing passes to 11 different receivers. On the ground, junior RB Ryquell Armstead saw his best game of the season, rushing for 91 yards on 17 carries, averaging 5.4 yards per carry. The defense amassed nine sacks with redshirt freshman DE Quincy Roche accounting for a career-high three solos.

Keys to the Game

> Temple started off fast out of the gate with Armstead picking up 60 yards on the first drive, including a 56-yard rush up the right sideline. The drive ended with an Austin Jones 24-yard field goal to put the Owls on the board, 3-0.

> The Minutemen looked to get on the board, but kicker Michael Schreiner missed a 23-yard field goal on their opening drive.

> The Owls were looking to extend their lead to 6-0, but an Aaron Boumerhi 43-yard field goal was blocked by Isaiah Rodgers.

> Schreiner attempted a 39-yard field goal to tie up the game at three, however kicked it wide left.

> UMass bounced back after QB Andrew Ford found RB Nick Orehoya for a 10-yard score to go ahead 7-6.

> It wasn't long before Temple struck again. Marchi found WR Adonis Jennings for a 30-yard touchdown on a fly route. The Owls took the lead 10-7.

> Quincy Roche sacked Ford, forcing a fumble. The Randallstown, Md. native would end up recovering the fumble which would lead to a Marchi 12-yard TD pass to Keith Kirkwood to make it 16-7.

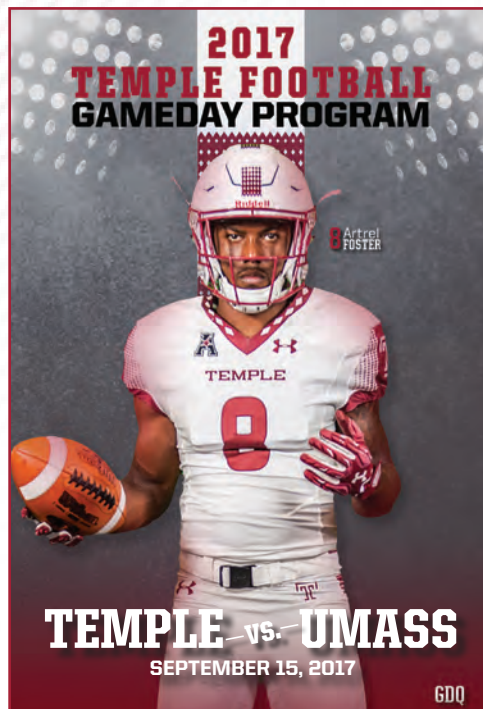

> The Owls continued their unanswered scoring run as Boumerhi booted a 52-yard career long field goal to put Temple up 19-7.

> The Minutemen answered four minutes later as Ford found Jessie Britt for a 20-yard touchdown to cut the deficit to five, 19-14.

> The Owls would add another 10 straight points with another field goal by Jones and a touchdown from Marchi to Isaiah Wright.

> In the waning minutes of the game, UMass marched down the field to cut the Temple lead to 29-21.

> The Minutemen had one final chance after holding the Owls to a three-and-out, but Sharif Finch's second sack of the game ended the threat.

Game Notes

> Roche's three sacks is the first time a Temple player had a multi-sack game since DL Praise Martin-Oguike against ECU on Oct. 21, 2016.

It is also the first time a Temple player had three sacks in a game since Tyler Matakovich against Penn State on Sept. 5, 2015.

> For the second week in a row, Boumerhi made his career long field goal. This was the longest by a Temple kicker since Brandon McManus hit a 53-yard field goal against Villanova on Sept. 3, 2010.

> Linebackers Sam Franklin and Isaiah Graham-Mobley both registered their first career sacks.

> Kirkwood and Marshall Ellick both saw season highs in receptions and receiving yards. Kirkwood caught four passes for 64 yards, while Ellick had four catches for 33 yards.

> The nine sacks today are the most by Temple since recording 10 vs. Penn State on Sept. 5, 2015.

> Redshirt freshman TE Kenny Yeboah made his first career start.

> Freshman QB Todd Centeio saw his first career action. The Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. native, went two of two for 20 yards.

#21 USF'S DEFENSE SMOTHERS TEMPLE

TAMPA – #21 USF (4-0, 1-0) proved to be too much for the visiting Temple Owls (2-2, 0-1) Thursday night at Raymond James Stadium. Noted for their high-powered offense, it was the Bulls' defense that led the way in the lopsided 43-7 win in the conference opener for both teams.

Keys to the Game

> Temple struggled offensively all game, amassing just 85 total yards while turning the ball over six times.

> Temple's defense was tough, especially in the first quarter, holding the explosive USF offense to just 36 yards and an Emilio Nadelman 44-yard field goal. That score came after Logan Marchi's first interception of the season at the Owls' 26.

> Darius Tice exploded up the middle for a 47-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second quarter to give the Bulls a 10-0 lead.

> The Owls defense again came up big following Marchi's second interception, holding USF off the scoreboard on four plays from the TU six-yard line. Delvon Randall had the big stop on third down with a solo tackle of Mitch Wilcox at the two. The defensive front then stuffed the Bulls fourth down rush.

> USF quarterback Quinton Flowers broke free for a 22-yard touchdown following a short punt from Temple's end zone to make it 17-0.

> Redshirt junior QB Frank Nutile, seeing his first action of the season, completed his first pass to Adonis Jennings, but the Owls' wide receiver fumbled for TU's third turnover of the half.

> That fumble led to another Nadelman field goal (28 yds) to increase the Bulls lead to 20-0.

> Senior DL Jacob Martin gave the Owls life in the final minutes of the first half, stripping Flowers and then returning the fumble 44 yards for the touchdown.

> Temple's defense forced a three-and-out on the first USF possession of the second half, but Nutile was picked off on the Owls' opening drive. That led to a Tice three-yard touchdown to make it 27-7.

> Turnovers on consecutive drives led to two more Nadelman field goals, making it 33-7.

> Nadelman added a fifth field goal, coming from 44 yards out, on the Bulls first drive of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 36-7.

> Flowers scored from one yard out, his second rushing TD of the game, to finish the scoring.

Game Notes

> Marchi's streak of pass attempts without an interception ended at 108 attempts with USF cornerback Deatrick Nichols' first quarter pick.

> The Owls utilized three QBs during the contest with Marchi starting, freshman Todd Centeio playing a series in the first quarter, and Nutile making his first appearance of the season.

> USF accumulated 408 total yards of total offense with Tice (117 yds, 2 TDs) and D'Ernest Johnson (106 yds) each eclipsing the century mark on the ground.

> Temple redshirt sophomore LB Chapelle Russell led all defenders with 13 tackles, including nine solo.

TEMPLE'S SECOND HALF COMEBACK FALLS SHORT

PHILADELPHIA – After struggling through a tough first half, laced with close calls and no points, Temple (2-3, 0-2 AAC) battled back throughout the remainder of the game, coming up short, 20-13, to visiting American Athletic Conference foe Houston (3-1, 1-0 AAC) on Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls defense competed spectacularly, holding the high-powered Cougar offense to just 388 total yards on the day. Meanwhile, the Temple rushing attack got back on its feet, racking up 142 yards on 37 carries.

Keys to the Game

> Following a string of scoreless possessions to kickoff the game, Houston found the endzone on a 13-yard misdirection rush up the left sideline midway through the first quarter. The touchdown came one play after a Temple interception was reversed in lieu of a pass interference call, setting up the Cougars deep in the red zone.

> As the second quarter began, Houston extended its lead to 10-0 off a 25-yard field goal from Camden Novikoff, capping a 10-play, 55-yard drive.

> Novikoff returned less than five minutes later to knock through another attempt, this time from 35-yards out, pushing the Cougars to an eventual 13-0 halftime advantage.

> Houston continued the second half just as they had the first: with a scoring drive. The Cougars maneuvered their way 85 yards on nine plays, sealing the possession with a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Kyle Postma to WR Linell Bonner III.

> The ensuing Temple drive proved fruitful for the first time in the matchup, as the Owls moved the ball 41 yards before K Aaron Boumerhi drilled a 41-yard field goal, cutting the lead down to a 20-3 Houston edge.

> One unsuccessful Cougar possession later, Temple managed an 11-play, 85-yard drive all the way into the endzone. Following a touchdown overturned on second down and a stuffed run on third, QB Logan Marchi shoveled the ball to RB David Hood for the one-yard score, moving the Owls within striking distance.

> The Temple defense proceed to come alive, dominating the Cougar offense for the remainder of the game. The excellent field position set up Boumerhi with a 29-yard chip shot, finally closing the gap to one possession, 20-13.

> Throughout the final minutes of the game, the Owls had two offensive opportunities to knot the score at 20, but came up short each time. With time expiring, Houston intercepted Marchi for the third time, sealing the 20-13 victory over Temple.

Game Notes

> The first half shutout composed by the Houston defense marked the first time in 51 games Temple was unable to find the scoreboard in the opening two periods. The stretch dates back to October 7, 2013, when the Owls fell to then-No. 7 Louisville.

> Boumerhi went perfect for the first time this season, going 2-of-2 on fields goal (35, 29).

> Sophomore LB William Kwenku recorded a career-best in tackles with seven, topping his previous high of five earlier this season against USF.

> Similarly, redshirt senior DB Mike Jones racked up a season-high in tackles, notching six on the game. Previously this year, Jones had two games (at Notre Dame & vs. UMass) with four total tackles.

OWLS PLAY COMPLETE GAME ON ROAD, SHUT DOWN PIRATE FOR COLLINS' FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Highlighted by a much-improved offensive performance, Temple routed ECU in a 34-10 victory on the road, dominating throughout on both sides of the ball. The Owls revved their offensive engine early and often, balancing the unit via strong efforts from redshirt sophomore QB Logan Marchi, who finished the game 19-of-31 passing for 321 yards and two touchdowns, and redshirt junior RB David Hood, who powered his way for 106 rushing yards and one touchdown on 20 carries.

Keys to the Game

> Both the Temple and ECU offenses got to strong starts, as each set up field goal attempts on their opening possessions. After driving 41 yards on nine plays, Owl kicker Aaron Bouserhi missed a 52-yarder wide left, setting up the Pirates to march 57 yards back the opposite direction and chip shot in a 25-yard attempt for the early 3-0 lead.

> As the second quarter began, Temple was able to find the board behind a 29-yard field goal from Bouserhi, leveling the score at 3-3. Earlier that drive, the Owls converted on a crucial third-and-long with a 48-yard pass to redshirt junior Brodrick Yancy, setting up the eventual short kicking attempt.

> After the Owls' defense forced a punt deep inside their own territory, Marchi orchestrated an eight-play, 91-yard touchdown drive, giving Temple its first lead of the day, 10-3. Marchi wrapped up the season's longest scoring drive with a five-yard connection to WR Adonis Jennings, his second TD catch on the year.

> A Delvon Randall interception on the ensuing Pirate possession gave Temple excellent field position on ECU's side of the 50, setting up a two-yard TD rush by Hood and a 17-3 Owls edge.

> Another defensive stand gifted the Temple offense with a short field, a position Marchi and company immediately sought to take advantage of. After a 45-yard bomb found sophomore WR Randle Jones inside the five-yard line, redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato powered his way into the end zone on a two-yard rush, surging Temple to a 24-3 lead heading into halftime.

> Following the halftime break, the ECU offense came out hitting on all cylinders, driving 11-plays and 75 yards for a touchdown and cutting the Temple lead down to 24-10.

> Two unsuccessful possessions later, Marchi and the Owls' offense returned looking to recapture their 21-point advantage. The redshirt sophomore quarterback was impressive, finding WR Isaiah Wright up the right sideline on a 32-yard touchdown pass late in the drive, securing Temple a 31-10 edge near the end of the third quarter.

> An ECU turnover-on-downs on their side of the 50-yard line set up yet another Bouserhi field goal attempt, this time from 39 yards out, for a 34-10 Temple lead.

> Under the supervision of back-up QB Frank Nutile,

Temple finished the game with a drive inside the ECU red zone, running out the clock with a play to the Pirate four-yard line.

Game Notes

> For first-year Temple head coach Geoff Collins, the win marks his first road and conference victory with the Owls, his third try in both categories.

> Meanwhile, senior DE Jacob Martin racked up his fourth and fifth sacks of the season, forcing an ECU turnover-on-downs with his first bout into the Pirate backfield.

> After years playing power blocker in the Temple backfield, Ritrovato found the end zone for the first time in his career late in the first half, forcing his way in on a two-yard rush up the middle.

> Meanwhile, Hood racked up 106 yards rushing, a career-high, breaking the 100-yard plateau for his first time along the way.

> Throughout the game, Marchi completed a 25-yard or better pass to five different Owl receivers: Yancy (48), Jones (45), Keith Kirkwood (37 & 29), Isaiah Wright (32) and Adonis Jennings (25).

> Further, Marchi finished the game with 321 yards passing, topping the 300-yard mark for the first time in his short career with the Owls.

> Yancy's 48-yard first quarter reception, a catch that set up a game-tying field goal, now sits as the longest in the wideout's career with the Owls.

> Similarly, Jones grabbed a 45-yard reception of his own, a career-best, setting up the Owls inside the red zone for their third score of the game.

> Finally, redshirt freshman Branden Mack grabbed his first career reception with Temple, a 15-yard toss from Nutile late in the fourth quarter.

OWLS FALL TO UCONN IN HOMECOMING GAME

PHILADELPHIA – Despite admirable performances on both sides of the ball, Temple came up short in a comeback bid against division rival UConn, falling 28-24 Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. The Owls' defense competed particularly well, forcing two turnovers and slowing down the potent UConn passing attack throughout the game. Redshirt sophomore LB Chapelle Russell led the unit with 12 tackles, one for loss, while fellow junior S Delvon Randall picked up five tackles with one interception.

Keys to the Game

> The Temple defense went to work early against the high-powered UConn passing attack, as Randall picked off a pass up the left sideline midway through the Huskies' opening drive.

> Despite a slow start on their first drive, the Owls' offense hit on all cylinders following the turnover, driving 78 yards over 10 plays for a touchdown. Redshirt junior RB David Hood capped the possession with two impressive runs: an 11-yard bulldozer followed up by a one-yard surge into the end zone, giving Temple the 7-0 advantage.

> Even with a long field and its backs up against the goal line, the UConn offense managed an 88-yard scoring drive to knot the game at a touchdown apiece to start the second quarter, leaving the game a 7-7 tie.

> The Huskies followed up the score with a string of positive plays, beginning with a forced fumble on Owls' WR Brodrick Yancy that was returned to the Temple nine-yard line. The offense took advantage soon after, as QB Bryant Shirreffs found WR Hergy Mayala on a short six-yard fade into the right corner of the end zone, setting up UConn with its first lead of the game, 14-7.

> After holding the one-score edge through halftime, UConn kick-started the second half with an 11-play, 63-yard touchdown possession, jumping out to a 21-7 lead over the Owls. Shirreffs threw his third score of the game, this time a screen to RB Arkeel Newsome.

> The Temple offense rebounded immediately behind a few quick-strike tosses from QB Logan Marchi, cutting the lead back to one-score, 21-14. The redshirt sophomore initially found redshirt freshman TE Kenny Yeboah for 37 yards to set up the Owls inside the red zone, allowing Marchi to find sophomore WR Isaiah Wright wide open in the back of the end zone on a perfect nine-yard pass.

> Despite Temple holding UConn to a quick three-and-out, the tables quickly turned as Marchi's initial pass of the drive was intercepted and taken 34 yards for a pick-six by DB Tyler Coyle, re-extending the Huskies' lead back to two touchdowns, 28-14.

> Following a failed fourth-down conversion inside the UConn red zone, the Temple defense stepped up for the Owls, as senior DB Artrel Foster recovered a fumble on the Huskies' first play of the drive. The offense answered with haste, as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way 10-yards for a touchdown, cutting the UConn lead, 28-21.

> Another quick possession from UConn set up the Temple offense with a chance to knot the game at 28 apiece. The Owls drove inside the five-yard line before finding a brick wall in the form of the Huskies' front seven, leading to sophomore K Aaron Boucher's first attempt and success from 21 yards out, leaving UConn up just 28-24.

> After UConn missed on a 36-yard field goal attempt, Marchi worked to lead Temple down the field in the final minute of the matchup. The redshirt sophomore came up just short on a fourth down hail mary, as the ball was knocked down in the end zone before it could reach redshirt junior WR Ventell Bryant.

Game Notes

> As UConn moved the ball into Temple territory on its initial drive, Randall interrupted the Huskies' progress with his third interception on the year. The timely turnover means the junior now has one pick in each of the past three games (Houston, ECU & UConn), and moves him into a tie for eighth all-time in career interceptions at Temple (7).
 > Down two scores, Marchi found a wide-open Yeboah for 37-yards up the right sideline, setting up an eventual touchdown later in the possession. The catch-and-run surpassed Yeboah's previous long (15 yards vs. Charlotte) by an impressive 22 yards. With Yeboah's later 21-yard reception, the redshirt freshman also topped his career-best in catches (2).
 > Despite the low point total, Marchi and the passing game performed above expectations, notching a career-best 356 yards through the air. The mark surpasses last week's former career-best against ECU, when the redshirt sophomore tossed for 321 passing yards.

ARMY OUTLASTS TEMPLE IN OVERTIME THRILLER

WEST POINT, N.Y. — In a matchup that showcased two squads unwilling to back down, Temple failed to convert on an overtime field goal, falling to Army in a tight 31-28 OT contest Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium. The Owls performed well despite a slew of injuries and first-time starters on both sides of the ball, ultimately coming up short on the road against a relentless Black Knights unit.

Keys to the Game

> Army kicked off the scoring on the Black Knights' second possession of the game, taking the ball 68 yards over 12 plays before wrapping up the drive with an 11-yard touchdown rush by Darnell Woolfolk.

> The Black Knights' special teams came through to set up their following offensive drive, as a blocked punt placed Army at the Owls' 28-yard line. Two plays later, including a 24-yard pass, Army extended its lead out to 14-0 early in the second quarter. > Temple took over its next possession with purpose, responding behind WR Isaiah Wright's 50-yard touchdown run. The sophomore broke away under the guise of a unique formation, drifting between defenders en route to the end zone.

> After the Temple defense shut down Army near midfield, the Owls' took over deep in their own territory. First-time starter QB Frank Nutile then proceeded to orchestrate an 83-yard touchdown drive to knot the game at 14 apiece, culminating with a 37-yard bomb to senior WR Adonis Jennings for the score.

> The third quarter proved nearly as uneventful as the first, as the only highlight came as Temple K Aaron Boumerhi clanged a 32-yard field goal off the right upright.

> Near the start of the final period, the Owls were finally able to earn their first lead of the day. Nutile kickstarted the drive with a 36-yard toss to redshirt junior RB David Hood before junior RB Ryquell Armstead broke loose on a 43-yard scamper for the Temple touchdown and the 21-14 edge.

> Late in the fourth quarter, the Black Knights found a response of their own, as Woolfolk sprinted 44 yards for a game-tying score, 21-21.

> The ensuing Temple possession saw a very methodical offensive drive by the Owls, as Nutile guided his unit down the field for their fourth touchdown of the game. Armstead again showed his toughness, breaking multiple tackles on a 21-yard push into the end zone, giving Temple a 28-21 advantage with less than two minutes to play.

> With just one second remaining, Army once again closed the gap on the Owls, scoring on a 16-yard touchdown pass from back-up QB Hopkins to WR Adams. With the late score tying the game 28 all, Temple advances to its first overtime matchup since 2012.

> With the Owls winning the coin toss, they elected to play defense to kickoff OT. Army took advantage of the opening possession, drilling a 29-yard field goal for the three-point lead.

> Despite the Temple offense performing similar to their counterpart, Boumerhi failed to convert on a 27-yard attempt, ending the game in Army's favor, 31-28.

Game Notes

> On the game, the Owls saw five new players make their first career starts: redshirt junior Frank Nutile at QB, redshirt junior James McHale at LT, redshirt junior Jaelin Robinson at LG, redshirt junior Gordon Thomas at C and redshirt sophomore DeAndre Kelly at DE.

> Redshirt freshman Jonny Forrest stepped onto the field for the first time as a Temple Owl, earning time on special teams throughout the game.

> Senior S Sean Chandler, a four-year veteran in the Temple secondary, grabbed his first interception of the year on the final play of the opening half. With the pick, Chandler jumps up another spot to seventh all-time in career interceptions (8) with Temple.

> Do-it-all sophomore Isaiah Wright compiled two 50-yard plus plays on the day, as he picked up a 50-yard rush in the second quarter and a 51-yard reception in the third.

> The joint sack on the Black Knights' final drive by Temple seniors DE Jacob Martin and DE Sharif Finch marked the first Army has given up all year.

> Temple advanced to an overtime matchup for the first time since 2012, when the Owls dropped UConn in a 17-14 victory on the road.

TEMPLE KNOCKS OFF NAVY IN REMATCH OF 2016 AAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

PHILADELPHIA – In a dominant performance reminiscent of last season's conference title game, QB Frank Nutile and the Temple offense took care of business in a 34-26 victory over Navy in front of a nationally-televised audience Thursday night at Lincoln Financial Field. The senior signal-caller guided the Owls' offense on six consecutive scoring drives throughout the win, including four for touchdowns, ending just two on negative plays (interception & punt).

Keys to the Game

> After receiving the opening kickoff, the Owls offense went to work immediately, driving the field behind a methodical composition of air attack and ground game. The possession would sizzle out inside the Navy five-yard line, setting up K Aaron Bouserhi for a 22-yard field goal and an early 3-0 edge.

> The Naval Academy took advantage on the ensuing kickoff, as the return team set up the Midshipmen offense on the Temple 36-yard line. The Owls' defense proved stout, however, forcing a 48-yard field goal as Navy knotted the game at 3-3.

> Under the guidance of Nutile, Temple responded on its next possession in quick-strike fashion. On a short third-and-three, Nutile dropped a 40-yard dime to senior WR Adonis Jennings as he streaked up the left sideline, recapturing the lead, 10-3.

> Following a defensive stand, Nutile and the Owls' offense once again put on a clinic against the Midshipmen defense. The senior quarterback went 5-for-5 throughout the drive, finishing off the possession with two straight to senior WR Keith Kirkwood for the TD and a 17-3 advantage.

> With one second remaining in the first half, Navy was forced into a short field goal after the Temple defense made a stand inside the five-yard line, ending the initial two periods up 17-6.

> The Temple offense continued its scoring streak on its opening possession of the second half, as the Nutile-to-Jennings connection remained in-sync. This time around, the signal-caller found his fellow senior on a 34-yard pass in the end zone, jumping Temple out to a 24-6 lead.

> On the ensuing Navy drive, the Midshipmen finally found some traction as they drove 75 yards over 10 plays for their first touchdown of the day, cutting their deficit to a 24-13 difference.

> Nutile's career night continued one possession later as he once again led the Owls on a scoring drive, their fifth consecutive of the night. After once again finding Jennings on a 33-yard pass, this time down to the one-yard line, Nutile tossed a three-yard gem to redshirt sophomore TE Jake Robinson for the score, both the first catch and TD of his career.

> Midway through the final period, Bouserhi drilled a field goal attempt from 33 yards out, extending Temple's streak of scoring drives to six and its lead over Navy to 34-13.

> The Navy offense was able to generate some points after an interception of Nutile snapped Temple's streak of scoring possessions, finding the end zone on a 16-yard pass. The touchdown would cut the Owls' lead down to 34-19 with just under six minutes to play.

> Under guidance of a back-up quarterback, the Midshipmen would cut the lead one more time with a late touchdown pass, finalizing the score at 34-26 in Temple's favor.

Game Notes

> The Owls' 10 first quarter points marks the team's best showing in the opening period this season, as they had previously combined for just 16 points in the first eight matchups.

> Nutile carried a streak of 10 consecutive completions from midway through the first quarter all the way to his first attempt of the third, the longest of his career.

> For the game, Jennings grabbed five receptions for 127 yards and two touchdowns. The pair of scores stand out in particular, as each was 30-yards or more, meaning all four of his TD catches this year came from that distance or greater. Further, the 127 yards marks Jennings' third career 100-yard receiving game.

> Early in the fourth quarter, redshirt freshman Isaiah Graham-Mobley picked up his first career sack.

> Late in the final period, junior S Delvon Randall grabbed his fourth pick of the season and eighth overall, tying him once again with fellow safety and senior Sean Chandler on the all-time Temple leaderboards at 11th in program history.

> Redshirt sophomore Dana Levine broke through the Navy offensive front to earn special teams coach Ed Foley and his unit their first blocked kick of the year, helping the team hold onto title as the NCAA leader in the category over the past four seasons.
