SETTING THE SCENE

- » The University of Cincinnati football team will be playing in its 126th season in 2013. The Bearcats' program dates to 1885 and is one of the 10 oldest in major college football.
- » UC has won four of the final five BIG EAST Championships and has played in a bowl game in six of the past seven seasons and two straight years.
- » The Bearcats have won 65 games over the last six years, the most among the current American Athletic Conference.
- » The Bearcats are 20-6 over the past two seasons with two BIG EAST titles and a win over SEC foe Vanderbilt in the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl and a 2012 Belk Bowl victory over ACC opponent Duke.

WELCOME TO TUBERVILLE

- » Tommy Tuberville, a 17-year head coaching veteran was named the 41st football head coach at the University of Cincinnati on Dec. 8, 2012.
- » Tuberville, widely regarded as one of the top coaches and recruiters in the collegiate game, comes to Cincinnati after three years at Texas Tech.
- » In three seasons in Lubbock, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to a 20-17 mark and a pair of bowl appearances. In 17 seasons as a head coach, he holds a 130-77 career record with head coaching stops at Texas Tech, Auburn and Ole Miss.

10 games in five of the past six seasons, joining Alabama, Oklahoma and Oregon.

- » UC has six double-digit win seasons in 125 years of football.

GET THE YELLOW TAPE READY

- » Nippert Stadium will undergo an $86-million renovation and expansion starting in December of 2013.
- » The 98-year old facility will feature a new five-story west side pavilion as well as concourse, restroom and concession enhancements on both the west and east sides.
- » UC will play off site in 2014, likely at Paul Brown Stadium downtown and return to Nippert in 2015, the 100th anniversary of original construction on the stadium.

QUICK SLANTS

- » UC begins play in the re-branded American Athletic Conference in 2013.
- » Nippert Stadium now features a new UBU Sports' Speed Series S5-M synthetic turf system, the same product used at Paul Brown Stadium, the Mercedes Benz Superdome in New Orleans and the Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minn.
- » Senior QB Brendon Kay was granted a sixth year of eligibility on Dec. 17, 2012 after the NCAA approved his request for an extension of eligibility waiver. The 2012 Belk Bowl MVP after going 17-of-25 for a career high 332 yards and four TDs, Kay played in 11 games, starting the last five at QB and helping to lead UC to a 4-1 record.
- » Senior LB Greg Blair, a First-Team All-BIG EAST selection, will also return in 2013 after the NCAA granted him a medical hardship for the 2011 season. The First-Team All-BIG EAST honoree ranked 12th nationally, led UC and the BIG EAST with 138 tackles, averaging 10.6 per game.
- » UC returns its entire starting offensive line for the 2013 season, including First-Team All-BIG EAST selections Austen Bujnoch and Eric Lefeld and sophomore Parker Ehinger, who earned FWAA Freshman All-America honors in 2012.

WHO'S NEXT?

- » Over the past three seasons, UC has featured a 1,000-yard rusher in each campaign. Isaiah Pead accomplished the feat in both 2010 and 2011 and George Winn did it in 2012.
- » Heading into the season, Ralph David Abernathy IV is listed as the starter but will face competition from sophomore Tion Green and incoming junior-college transfers Hosey Williams and Rodriguez Moore.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for official working media credentials should be directed to the UC Sports Communications Office. All requests should be received no later than noon, three days prior to the game. Visit the football page at GoBEARCATS.com to request credentials online. Season credentials will be available for pickup prior to the first game. No credentials will be mailed after Tuesday preceding the game. Thereafter, credentials may be picked up on gameday at the media will call located on the west side of Fifth Third Arena at the ticket windows.

SCOUTING PASSES

Professional scouts may obtain credentials through UC's Sports Communications Office. Scouts will be issued seating in the press box on a space-available basis.

SIDELINE PASSES

The University of Cincinnati follows NCAA guidelines regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and the goal lines on both sidelines, or anywhere behind the restraining line in the end zone.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete stats, scoring summaries, running play-by-play, quickie stats and post-game notes and quotes are provided by the UC Sports Communications Office. Pregame food service is available beginning approximately two hours prior to kickoff, while beverages are available throughout the contest. This service is provided as a courtesy to working media. In addition, concession areas are available within the stadium confines. Wireless internet is available in the press box at Nippert Stadium. Members of the UC Sports Communications staff will be available to assist you. There is no access fee.

GOING GREEN

Starting with the 2010 season, the University of Cincinnati will no longer print media guides. Complete information, including a record book/media supplement will be made available on the football page at www.GoBEARCATS.com.

#BEARCATS

When tweeting and engaging others on social media networks about UC or the Bearcats, please use #Bearcats.

ON THE WEB

Information on the University of Cincinnati football team is available at www.GoBEARCATS.com. To receive the UC updates via email, please send a request to Ryan Koslen (ryan.koslen@uc.edu). Information on the American Athletic Conference and all member institutions is also available through the league's web site at www.TheAmerican.org.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

UC holds a weekly media luncheon each Tuesday in the second floor Bob Goin Team Room of Richard E. Lindner Center. Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., selected players are available for one-on-one interviews from 11:45-noon, and head coach Tommy Tuberville takes the podium at noon.

PRACTICES

During a typical Saturday game week, media may interview players and coaches immediately following practice on either Tuesday or Wednesday. Practice is generally closed to the public. Anyone hoping to observe practice should contact UC Sports Communications in advance. Failure to do so may result in an individual's removal from the venue. During regular-season practices, unless otherwise noted, still and television photographers will be allowed to shoot stretching and the first 20 minutes (four periods). At the conclusion of practice, head coach Tommy Tuberville will address the media on the field. First-year players, including freshmen and transfers, will be made available to the media only after they have made a significant contribution or at the coach's discretion.

WEB VIDEO CONTENT

Per UC's multimedia contract with IMG College, UC coaches, players, and administrators are not permitted to take part in one-on-one interviews or feature stories that will be made available exclusively for internet distribution.

INTERNET POLICIES

Live updating of websites, blogs and social network feeds is not allowed during practices.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The UC locker room will remain closed following all football games. Media should request players through UC Sports Communications personnel for the media room during the fourth quarter. Media will be allowed to enter the field (for home games) late in the fourth quarter but will not be allowed to conduct interviews with UC football players on the field (home or away). Only the originating television and radio networks will be allowed to conduct interviews on the field.

Coach Tuberville will address the media in Room 3200 of the Campus Recreation & Wellness Center following home games. Players will be brought into the interview area as soon as possible.

Postgame availability on the road will be determined on gameday. Please see football contact Ryan Koslen for details.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC TELECONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference will hold a weekly teleconference of the league's 10 head football coaches, beginning Monday, Aug. 26, and continuing each Monday through the 2013 season.

The call begins at 11 a.m. ET, with the order of schools as follows:

11 a.m.	Conference news/award winners
11:10 a.m.	Kyle Flood, Rutgers
11:20 a.m.	Charlie Strong, Louisville

RADIO

University of Cincinnati fans have had no trouble tracking the Bearcats due to their radio network.

700 WLW begins its 20th season as the Bearcats' broadcast partner. The station's 50,000-watt signal can project UC games to 38 states and a third of Canada, and worldwide via 700WLW.com, making it possible for UC football fans to hear every game.

WLW augments the broadcast coverage with pregame and postgame programming. Additionally, head coach Tommy Tuberville is featured on an hour-long call-in show each week from the original Montgomery Inn, allowing Cincinnati fans to meet the coach and ask their questions up close and personal.

ON-AIR TALENT

Dan Hoard

DAN HOARD – Play-by-Play

Dan Hoard is in his 14th season as the Voice of the Bearcats, handling the play-by-play duties for the football and men's basketball teams. Hoard, also the radio announcer for the Cincinnati Bengals, first served as UC's over-the-air voice in 1996 and handled the play-by-play on the local television telecasts from 1996-2000. He took over the radio play-by-play duties in 2000.

Jim Kelly, Jr.

JIM KELLY, JR. – Color Analyst

Jim Kelly, a standout receiver for the Bearcats in the mid-1970's, returns for his 23rd season as an analyst. Jim is the son of the late Jim Kelly, Sr., who was associated with UC for over 40 years as an athlete, assistant coach, and administrator. Kelly, Jr. followed in his father's footsteps as an athlete and started three seasons as a wide receiver for UC in the mid-1970's.

Tom Gelehrter

TOM GELEHRTER – Sideline Reporter

Tom Gelehrter is in his seventh year as the sideline reporter for UC football broadcasts. UC's Director of New Media and Broadcasting, Gelehrter is a 2002 graduate of Syracuse University and has worked for the past six years as a college sports broadcaster at both Cincinnati and the University of Akron. A Cleveland native, Gelehrter also hosts Bearcats Sports Weekly with Butch Jones and Mick Cronin on FOX Sports Ohio.

Mo Egger

MO EGGER – Host and Engineer

Mo Egger is the host, producer, and engineer on UC broadcasts. He is the morning sports anchor on 700 WLW, and hosts afternoons on ESPN 1530 and late nights and weekends on national ESPN Radio. A New Jersey native and a graduate of the University of Dayton, he has been with Clear Channel since 1997 and has worked on UC broadcasts since 2001.

TELEVISION

When it comes to television, the University of Cincinnati has one of the most extensive television packages in the country as its partners cover not only the state of Ohio, but the nation.

The American Athletic Conference is proud of its association with two of the most prestigious media organizations in sports – ESPN and CBS Sports. Those agreements will give the newly branded conference and its members unprecedented exposure on the nation's leading sports platforms.

ESPN PARTNERSHIP

The American Athletic Conference has entered into a multiyear, wide-ranging television contract through 2019-20 with ESPN to telecast its football, basketball and Olympic sports.

The contract includes comprehensive national exposure via the acknowledged leader in college sports television, the ESPN networks.

In football, the new contract will provide unprecedented national coverage for the league. In essence, the extensive national television coverage replaces previous syndication and local telecasts. All conference controlled games, which are conference games and non-conference home games, will be televised.

Nearly 90 percent of the games will be carried on national broadcast or national cable.

The minimum number of telecasts collectively on ABC/ESPN/ESPN2/ESPNU will be higher than the number of telecasts in the former contract, which expires at the end of the 2013 season.

The conference championship game, which is expected to begin in 2015, will be carried by ABC or ESPN on Championship Saturday.

In addition, the conference will have a football game of the week produced by ESPN Regional Television (ERT) distributed to a nationally syndicated audience, reaching more than 30 million homes. The package is carried by WKRC Local 12 in Cincinnati.

UC is in a multi-year agreement with FOX Sports Ohio that makes the network the exclusive regional cable home of UC football. Programming includes game telecasts, preseason and postseason specials, game replays on Sunday nights, and a weekly coaches show titled 'Bearcats Sports Weekly With Tommy Tuberville'.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

SETTING THE SCENE

- » The University of Cincinnati football team will be playing in its 126th season in 2013. The Bearcats' program dates to 1885 and is one of the 10 oldest in major college football.
- » UC has won four of the past five BIG EAST Championships and has played in a bowl game in six of the past seven seasons and two straight years.
- » The Bearcats have won 65 games over the last six years, the most among the current BIG EAST.
- » The Bearcats are 20-6 over the past two seasons with two BIG EAST titles and a win over SEC foe Vanderbilt in the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl and a 2012 Belk Bowl victory over ACC opponent Duke.

WELCOME TO TUBERVILLE

- » Tommy Tuberville, a 17-year head coaching veteran was named the 41st football head coach at the University of Cincinnati on Dec. 8, 2012.
- » Tuberville, widely regarded as one of the top coaches and recruiters in the collegiate game, comes to Cincinnati after three years at Texas Tech.
- » In three seasons in Lubbock, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to a 20-17 mark and a pair of bowl appearances. In 17 seasons as a head coach, he holds a 130-77 career record with head coaching stops at Texas Tech, Auburn and Ole Miss.
- » In 2004, after leading Auburn to a 13-0 record and an Southeastern Conference Championship, he was named AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.
- » Before becoming a head coach, he was an assistant at Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons. During that span, the Hurricanes won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

THE OFFENSE

- » The Bearcats will be under the direction of offensive coordinator Eddie Gran, who is in his second tour of duty at UC after serving as the WR coach from 1992-94.
- » UC will feature a pro-set multiple offense with a focus on running the ball and throwing it downfield.
- » Gran's 26 seasons in the college ranks includes stops from coast-to-coast.
- » It began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. He spent 15 seasons as a running backs coach and special teams coordinator in the SEC, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee before heading to Florida State from 2010-12.

WELCOME BACK THE FULLBACK

- » For the first time in recent memory, UC's offense will feature the fullback position entering 2013.
- » Some of the early contenders for the role include converted QBs Patrick Coyne and Jordan Luallen, TE Jared Golden and former LB EJ Junior IV.
- » Luallen will be playing his fifth position in six collegiate training camps (QB, WR, RB, LB, TE, FB).

THE DEFENSE

- » UC's defensive coordinator Art Kaufman leads a defensive staff with a near combined 100 years of coaching experience.
- » The Bearcats will base out of a 4-3 defense that is sound in its technique, fast and physical.
- » Kaufman, a 29-year veteran, came to UC after a year reforming the defensive unit at Texas Tech.
- » The Red Raiders were one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2012, ranking No. 22 in pass defense and surrendering less than 200 yards passing per game (195.8). That defense held than No. 5/4 West Virginia, one of the nation's most prolific offenses, to its lowest point total of the 2012 season in a 59-14 Red Raiders win.

KAY RETURNS

- » Senior QB Brendon Kay was granted a sixth year of eligibility on Dec. 17, 2012 after the NCAA approved his request for an extension of eligibility waiver.
- » The 2012 Belk Bowl MVP after going 17-of-25 for a career high 332 yards and four TDs, Kay played in 11 games, starting the last five at QB and helping to lead UC to a 4-1 record.
- » He was 87-of-138 for 1,298 yards and 10 touchdowns, while averaging 6.4 yards per carry on 48 rushes, tallying 306 yards and adding a pair of TDs.
- » Kay earned a bachelor's degree in health education during the spring of 2012 and is working towards a master's in business administration.

BLAIR BACK TOO

- » Senior LB Greg Blair, a First-Team All-BIG EAST selection, will also return in 2013 after the NCAA granted him a medical hardship for the 2011 season.
- » The First-Team All-BIG EAST honoree ranked 12th nationally, led UC and the BIG EAST with 138 tackles, averaging 10.6 per game.

ANCHORS

- » UC returns its entire starting offensive line for the 2013 season, including First-Team All-BIG EAST selections Austen Bujnoch and Eric Lefeld and sophomore Parker Ehinger, who earned FWAA Freshman All-America honors in 2012.

CHART TOPPERS

- » UC sits atop the average BCS rankings for the American Athletic Conference schools over the past four seasons.
- » The Bearcats average finished of 35.5 tops Louisville and UCF (53.3) while UC's No. 3 ranking in 2009 is the highest of any school in the reformed league.

CHAMPIONS

- » UC is the only school in the country among the BCS AQ Conferences (ACC, BIG EAST, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC) to win four conference titles in the last five years.
- » Boise State has won four as well, three in the WAC and one in the Mountain West, both non-AQ leagues.

ON THE HUNT FOR 10

- » UC is one of only four NCAA FBS AQ programs to have won 10 games in five of the past six seasons, joining Alabama, Oklahoma and Oregon.
- » UC has six double-digit win seasons in 125 years of football.

BEARCATS IN THE NFL

With the 2013 NFL preseason soon to be underway, 24 former student-athletes dot active rosters. In addition, UC has 24 former players and coaches on NFL coaching staffs.

BEARCATS IN THE NFL

NIPPERT STADIUM

- » Entering its 112th season, Carson Field at Nippert Stadium is the venerable home of the University of Cincinnati football team and provides the Bearcats with one of the best home-field environments in college football.
- » Construction began on Nippert Stadium in 1915 and was completed in 1924. UC has used the Nippert site as a playing field since 1901, making it the second-oldest playing site in the nation for college football behind Penn's Franklin Field (1895).
- » Among NCAA FBS schools, Nippert is the third-oldest stadium still in use, behind Bobby Dodd Stadium (Georgia Tech - 1913), Davis Wade Stadium (Mississippi State - 1914) and ahead of Wisconsin's Camp Randall Stadium, which was built in 1917.
- » USA Today recently named Nippert as the best home-field venue in the former BIG EAST Conference and ESPN's Scott Van Pelt cited Nippert as a "one of the gems of college football".

STREAKING AT HOME IN NON-LEAGUE PLAY

- » UC has won 24 straight home non-conference games at Nippert Stadium, dating back to a 30-24 win over Temple in three overtimes on Sept. 20, 2003.

SELLOUTS AT NIPPERT

- » Nippert Stadium has enjoyed a total of 22 sellouts in its lengthy history, including four of six home games in 2009.
- » Eleven of the Top 12 crowds, including a stadium record of 35,106 against Illinois (2009), have occurred since 2007.
- » Since 2007, UC has set four attendance records and over 1-million fans (1,016,235) have come through Nippert Stadium.
- » Nippert Stadium's 12 largest crowds are listed below:

ATT.	DATE	OPPONENT	RESULT
35,106	11/27/09	Illinois	W, 49-36*
35,105	11/13/09	West Virginia	W, 24-21*
35,100	11/07/09	Connecticut	W, 47-45*

*-Sellouts

GOING STREAKING

- » UC had a 14-game Nippert Stadium winning streak snapped in 2010 against USF. The streak dated back to the 2008 season.
- » Spanning the 2008-09 seasons and the first two home games at Nippert in 2010 (UC played Oklahoma at Paul Brown Stadium), marked the first time in UC history the Bearcats went undefeated at home in back-to-back seasons.
- » The school-record streak of 15-straight wins was set during a span from Nov. 8, 1952-Nov. 13, 1954.

NOTING THE WATCH LISTS

- » Four Bearcats dot the watch lists for five national awards entering the 2013 season.

Greg Blair	Bednarik & Butkus
Austen Bujnoch	Lombardi & Outland
Eric Lefeld	Outland
Tony Miliano	Groza

LUALLEN UP FOR AFCA/ALLSTATE GOOD WORKS TEAM

- » FB Jordan Luallen is one of 151 student-athletes under consideration for the 2013 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®.
- » The award recognizes a select group of college football players who have made a commitment to enriching the lives of others while contributing to the greater good of their communities.
- » Luallen, an Academic All-BIG EAST selection in 2012, is a regular in the local community with UC's Cats in the Community program and has traveled to Nicaragua on numerous mission trips with New Hope Church and Mi Familia.

NEW TURF FOR NIPPERT ENTERING 2013

- » The installation of a state-of-the-art artificial surface inside Nippert Stadium was completed recently in time for the 2013 season.
- » The stadium has featured artificial turf since 1970 with the most recent surface installed in 2005.
- » The new surface comes from UBU Sports, a Dalton, Ga. based company who is fast becoming a leader in the synthetic turf industry.
- » The Maumee Bay Turf Center based out of Oregon, Ohio, handled the installation.
- » The stadium will feature UBU Sports' Speed Series S5-M synthetic turf system, the same product used at Paul Brown Stadium, the Mercedes Benz Superdome in New Orleans and the Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minn. The same surface is scheduled to be installed into MetLife Stadium in New Jersey, the home field of the New York Giants and New York Jets and the home of Super Bowl XLVIII.
- » The synthetic surface features UBU Sports' exclusive Harmony Fiber, a trusted and durable component currently used in synthetic turf systems for football leagues ranging from pee-wee to professional ranks.
- » The field orientation was be shifted slightly north and west to even out the sideline areas and add a run-off area around the south endzone..

WHAT A LONG STRANGE TRIP IT'S BEEN

- » In the span of seven days in December of 2012, the UC football program went from the highest of highs to the lowest of lows and back again.
- » The week started on Saturday, Dec. 1 with the Bearcats winning their fourth BIG EAST Conference title in five seasons.
- » Rumors were swirling around the future of former head coach Butch Jones, who was eventually announced as Tennessee's head coach the morning of Dec. 7, 2012.
- » Hours later, director of athletics Whit Babcock addressed the media and announced 30-year veteran Steve Stripling as UC's interim head coach for the 2012 Belk Bowl.
- » Babcock swung for the fences and connected, as 30 hours later, on Saturday, Dec. 8, Tommy Tuberville was announced as UC's football head coach in front of an enthusiastic crowd of 3,000 UC supporters inside Fifth Third Arena.

CH-CH-CH-CHANGES

- » The former BIG EAST Conference was renamed the American Athletic Conference on July 1, 2013 and is rebranding across all platforms, associations and media.
- » The league membership has and will continue to undergo significant changes in the coming years, a process that began with the 2012 season as Temple returned to the league as a football-playing member.

Here is the breakdown of the coming membership changes:

- » 2012: Temple joined as a football-only member, replacing West Virginia.
- » 2013: UCF, Houston, Memphis and SMU join the conference as all-sports members. Temple becomes a member in all sports. Syracuse and Pittsburgh depart along with the seven non-football playing schools and Notre Dame.
- » 2014: East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa join as all-sports members. Louisville and Rutgers depart.
- » 2015: Navy joins as a football-playing member.

UC REINSTATES OLYMPIC SPORTS SCHOLARSHIPS

- » The UC department of athletics will reinstate and increase funding to its Olympic sports scholarship programs, ensuring they are able to compete at the highest level nationally.
- » Beginning in the fall of 2013-14, UC will implement an aggressive plan to ultimately offer the full NCAA complement of grant-in-aid scholarships to student-athletes in each of its 19 programs.
- » Due to fiscal constraints in 2009, the department previously reduced scholarship funding for a number of sports and eliminated all scholarships for three sports which included men's cross country, men's track and field, and men's swimming and diving.
- » UC fields 10 women's teams (basketball, cross country, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor and outdoor track & field and volleyball) and nine men's sports (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, swimming and diving and indoor and outdoor track and field).
- » Coach Tuberville is supporting the cause and will donate $300,000 over the next five years to benefit UC's Olympic sports programs.

UC FAMILY TIES

- » This year's roster includes two Bearcats who followed in family footsteps to play for UC.

Brother Played at Cincinnati

- » Austen Bujnoch - Digger (OL, 2004-07)

Grandfather Played at Cincinnati

- » Max Morrison - Joe (RB, 1956-58)

NFL FAMILY TIES

- » Cincinnati boasts four players on the roster who can lean on a member of their immediate family's background as NFL players.

» Austen Bujnoch: Son of Glenn, Cincinnati, Tampa Bay OL (1976-84)

» Deven Drane: Son of Dwight, Buffalo DB (1986-91)

» Jake Golic: Son of Mike Sr., Houston, Philadelphia, Miami DL (1986-93). Brother Mike Jr. a current OL for Pittsburgh.

» EJ Junior IV - Father EJ III, Arizona, Miami, Seattle, Tampa Bay LB (1981-93).

CARRYING ON A FAMILY LEGEND

- » Senior S Arryn Chenault has been competing against history since he grew up, matching his accomplishments with his uncle Paul Hogue, who is one of the most famous athletes in UC history.
- » Hogue passed away in 2009, but was on the 1961 and '62 national championship basketball teams.
- » Hogue was the Most Outstanding Player of the '61 tournament, spent two seasons in the NBA and owns a spot in the Ohio, Cincinnati and UC Halls of Fame.
- » He'll go in a second time in the UC Hall this year when the entire 1961 team is enshrined.
- » Chenault, from Fairfield HS, is UC's starting strong safety.

A NEW ARENA

- » Seven former UC student-athletes dot the rosters of Arena Football League teams during the 2013 season.
- » Former signal caller Nick Davila was the league's 2011 MVP playing for Arizona and has thrown 100 or more touchdowns in each of the past four seasons, the first player in pro football history to accomplish the feat.
- » WR Dominick Goodman, playing for Cleveland, set a single-game franchise record with 17 receptions in a game in 2012 and has caught 120 or more balls in the last three seasons and had a career-best 170 catches for 1,782 yards and 34 TDs in 2012.

TAKE ME TO HIGHER GROUND

- » For the past 13 years, the UC football has called the Higher Ground Conference and Retreat Center in West Harrison, Ind., its preseason training home.
- » The 280-acre facility is located about 30 miles from campus and has served as the Bearcats training camp location since the lead up to the 1999 season.
- » Among many amenities, Higher Ground features a pair of 100-yard FieldTurf practice fields, ample living and meeting spaces and no distractions from football.

DOUBLE DUTY

- » UC radio voice Dan Hoard has added duties as the play-by-play broadcaster of the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals.
- » He joins Bill Hillgrove (Pittsburgh Panthers & Steelers) and Gene Deckerhoff (Florida State/Tampa Bay Buccaneers) as the only broadcasters in the country to handle radio play-by-play duties for both an NCAA FBS and NFL team.
- » Michigan's Jim Brandstatter is the color analyst on both Wolverines and Detroit Lions broadcasts while ESPN's Dave Pasch (Arizona Cardinals) and Bob Wischusen (NY Jets) are NFL play-by-play voices.
- » Hoard's radio partner with the Cincinnati Bengals, Dave Lapham, calls college football games for FOX Sports.

BIG TEN FEATURED ON UC'S FUTURE SCHEDULES

- » The University of Cincinnati football play a number of upcoming games against teams from the Big Ten Conference.
- » Most recently, it was announced the Bearcats and Nebraska will play a home-and-home series, with UC playing at Memorial Stadium in Lincoln, Neb. on Sept. 12, 2020 season. Nebraska will return the game and play at Cincinnati on Sept. 13, 2025.
- » Cincinnati (1885) and Nebraska (1890) have combined to play 248 seasons of football, but have met only once on the gridiron, a 41-0 road loss for the Bearcats in 1906.
- » Nebraska is the latest marquee opponent UC has added to its future schedules list over the next five seasons. UC will face future contests against Purdue (Aug. 31) and at Illinois (Sept. 7), at Ohio State (2014), at BYU (2015), vs. BYU and at Purdue (2016) and at Michigan (2017).
- » Further future scheduling opportunities will be announced as arrangements are completed.

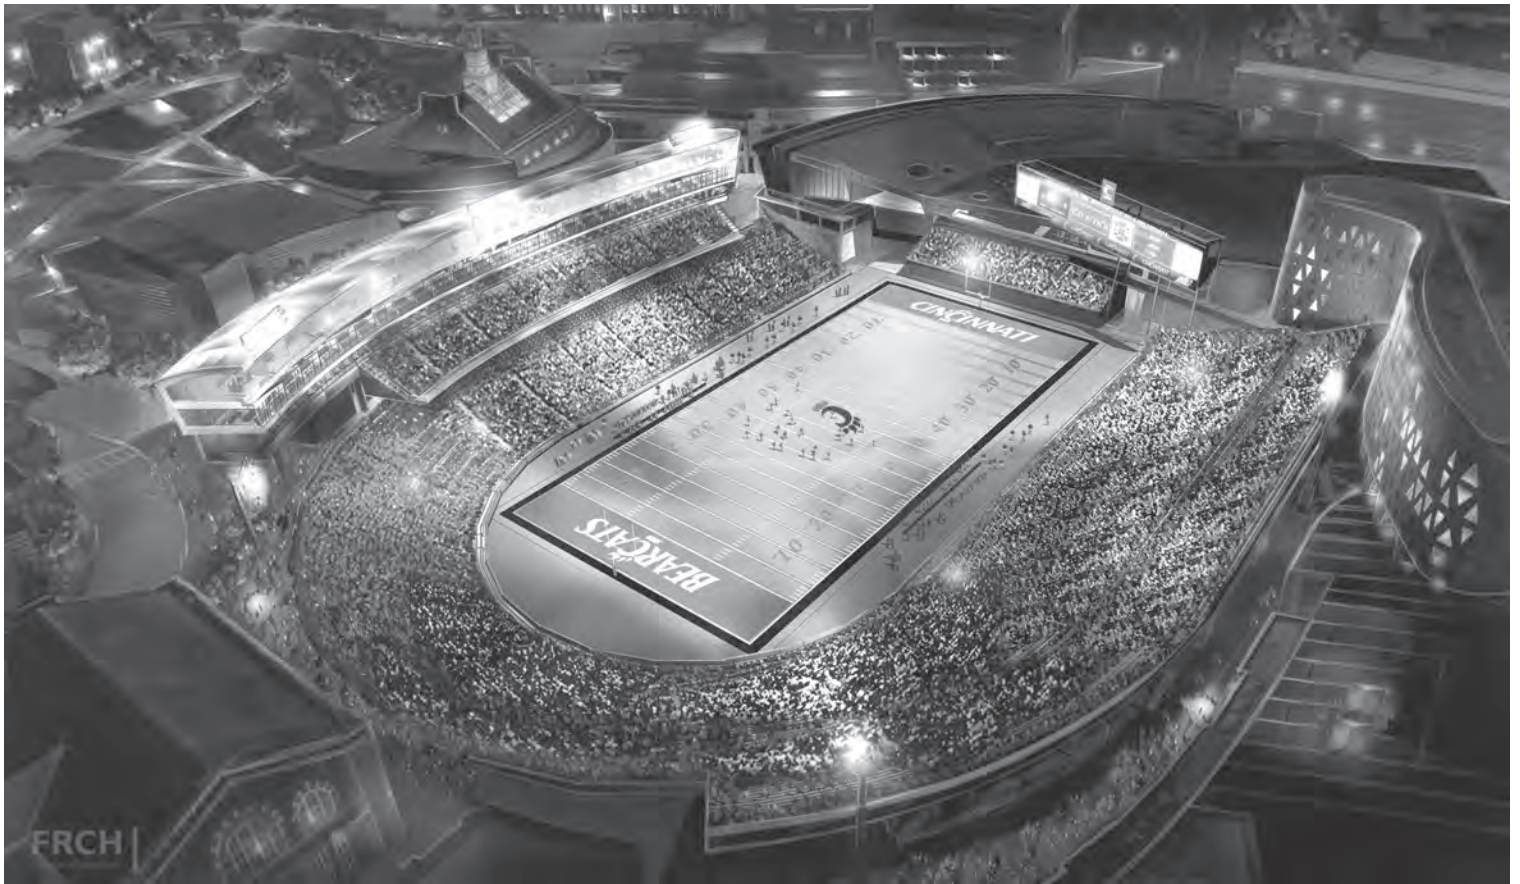

SURIANO TABBED FOR OHIO HS COACHES HOF

- » University of Cincinnati director of high school and player relations Vince Suriano was inducted into the Ohio High School FB Coaches Assoc. Hall of Fame on June 22, 2013.
- » Suriano, who joined the Bearcats in the spring of 2013, manages the Bearcats' on-campus recruiting program and focus on outreach and relationships with high school programs within the tri-state area.
- » Suriano joined UC after a season as the senior offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach at Thomas More College. He spent the 2007-11 seasons at the College of Mount St. Joseph, where he was the associate HC and OC, helping lead MSJ to a league championship in 2009 and playoff appearances in 2007 and 2009.
- » Prior to Mount St. Joseph, Suriano served as the head coach at Anderson High School from 1987-2007. During that time, he had a 147-61 record and had three undefeated regular seasons, won 12 conference championships and appeared in the state playoffs nine times.

	Tackles For Loss

Proposed renovation and expansion plans for the University of Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium have been formally approved by the UC Board of Trustees earlier today, director of athletics Whit Babcock announced in July 2013.

The renovation and expansion project, which is estimated to cost $80-85 million in total, will utilize private donations and premium seating revenues to fund the project over a period of years. No University general funds will be allocated.

Construction on both the west and east sides of the stadium is due to begin in December 2013 and is scheduled for completion in August 2015.

The expanded renovation focuses on both the east and west side of the stadium. On the west side, a new press box structure will be built, adding suites, scholarship club seats and patio suites/loge boxes. The west concourse will also be renovated, including concession stands and restrooms. Improvements on the east side include expanded and additional concession offerings and restroom facilities along with enhanced fan traffic flow, including the building of skywalks to connect the upper deck with the gameday brick plaza on O'Varsity Way.

The new West Pavilion structure will also be available for multi-purpose use on non-gamedays by various campus constituencies and athletics will partner with campus, student groups and academic units moving forward.

Design work is still ongoing and the overall stadium capacity upon completion is not finalized but it is estimated Nippert Stadium will have a capacity of approximately 40,000.

The new west-side structure will be approximately one-and-a-half stories taller than the current press box and two-and-a-half times as long. The curvature of the facility matches that of the upper deck on the east side of the stadium and contains four primary levels; a photo deck, a press and operations level, Founders Suite level and a Scholarship Club Seat / Patio Suite (loge box) level.

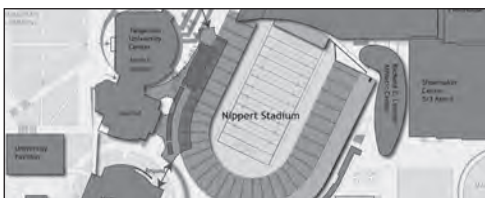

Potentially, all 2014 home games would need to be moved due to construction at Nippert Stadium. Paul Brown Stadium is being considered as an alternate site during this one-year transition during the project. More information will be released as it becomes available.

Original construction began on Nippert Stadium in 1915 and was completed in 1924. UC has used the Nippert site as a playing field since 1901, making it the second-oldest playing site in the nation for college football behind Penn's Franklin Field (1895).

USA Today recently named Nippert as the best home-field venue in the former BIG EAST Conference and ESPN's Scott Van Pelt cited Nippert as a 'one of the gems of college football.'

Among NCAA FBS schools, Nippert is the third-oldest stadium still in use, behind Bobby Dodd Stadium (Georgia Tech - 1913), Davis Wade Stadium (Mississippi State - 1914) and ahead of Wisconsin's Camp Randall Stadium, which was built in 1917.

Nippert Stadium's current press box was built in the 1980s and since its last major renovation in 1992, a minimum of 71 of the 75 BCS schools have made major renovations to their football stadiums or premium seating areas.

WELCOME TO THE #HOTTESTCOLLEGEINAMERICA

The University of Cincinnati offers students a balance of educational excellence and real-world experience. UC is a public research university with an enrollment of more than 42,000 students.

AN INSTITUTION ON THE RISE

- » U.S. News has ranked UC in the Top Tier of America's Best Colleges and as one of 15 “up and coming” universities.
- » The Chronicle of Higher Ed. calls UC a “research heavyweight.”
- » Travel & Leisure Magazine ranked UC among America's Most Beautiful College Campuses.
- » UC was the first public institution in Ohio named a “green university” by Princeton Review.
- » Classified as a Research University (Very High Research Activity) by the Carnegie Commission, UC is ranked as one of America's top 25 public research universities by the National Science Foundation.
- » Money Magazine's “Elite Values in Higher Education,” Kaplan's “Unofficial, Unbiased Insider's Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges,” Octameron's “College Match: A Blueprint for Choosing the Best School for You” and Yahoo's “Internet Life” have all ranked the University of Cincinnati's programs among the best in the nation.

LARGE PUBLIC UNIVERSITY

- » The University of Cincinnati enrolls more than 42,000 students, including its Blue Ash and Clermont campuses, each year in a diverse collection of 13 colleges and divisions – from the College-Conservatory of Music to the College of Medicine, law to engineering, business to arts and sciences.
- » The university offers more than 300 majors and degree programs from the associate to doctoral level.

ATTRACTING ELITE STUDENTS

- » UC's total financial support for students is nearly $68 million, with its cornerstone scholarship program, Cincinnati, awarding more than 2,000 scholarships totaling over $18 million.
- » There are several additional aid awards available, including the STEER Program, Darwin T. Turner Scholarship Fund, Choose Ohio First, Cincinnati Pathways Scholarship, UC Global scholars and tuition reciprocity.
- » Additional information is available for your consideration.
- » The University Honors Program comprises the top seven percent of UC students and is committed to helping students maximize their educational opportunities at UC while discovering and pursuing their passions in life and using their gifts and talents to make meaningful contributions to society.

AMONG THE NATION'S MOST DIVERSE

- » We offer many components that enrich us as a vibrant, public research university. UC is ranked 19th on the top 20 list of universities with a diverse student population.

ASSISTING IN THEIR SUCCESS

- » Learning communities serve more than 2,000 freshmen annually and feature personnel who have won national awards. They are an integral part of the first-year experience at UC and are an exciting way for first-year students to build a network of study partners and friends.
- » The Center for Exploratory Studies has been featured in New York Times as a best practice and assists students who have not yet declared a major or who may be considering a change and want to make informed, intelligent decisions about their futures.

WORLD-RENNED PROGRAMS

- » The College & Conservatory of Music (CCM) is ranked in the top 10 music schools nationally.
- » The Criminal Justice and Pediatrics programs are each ranked third in the nation, the College of Design Architecture Art & Planning (DAAP) annually has its design programs ranked in the top three nationally and its architecture program in the top 10.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

- » Co-op was invented at the University of Cincinnati in 1906. Now, over 100 years and 43 countries later, generations of students worldwide have followed our lead.
- » Today, UC's co-op program is listed among the nation's best in US News & World Report rankings.

LOYAL ALUMNI

- » The 2010-11 Almanac from the Chronicle of Higher Education ranked UC's endowment of $1,004,368,000 at 74th in the United States among all colleges and universities.
- » Income from endowment earnings reflect the dedication of more than 250,000 living alumni.

VIBRANT SETTING

- » The University of Cincinnati has seen tremendous growth since 2000 with the construction of 24 buildings across its main campus as well as Clermont College and Blue Ash locations.

THIS IS CINCINNATI USA

Take a look around Cincinnati USA and you'll see a region on the rise. New developments such as The Banks and the revitalization of historic neighborhoods like Over-the-Rhine are redefining our destination.

THE QUEEN CITY

Amidst the gently rolling hills along the Ohio River, Cincinnati spreads from the southwestern corner of Ohio into Northern Kentucky and southeastern Indiana.

AMONG THE FORTUNATE

Cincinnati has more Fortune 500 companies per million residents than New York, Boston, Chicago or Los Angeles, and is the home of many of the most recognized and respected brands in the world. The region counts eight Fortune 500 headquarters with seven more in the Fortune 1000.

A GREAT PLACE TO LIVE

Cincinnati is not only among the best places for these companies to do business; it's also one of the best places to live. Named 'A Top-10 Value City' by Kiplinger magazine, Cincinnati's vibrant economy, low cost of living and great amenities helps companies retain current employees and recruit new ones.

GETTING METROPOLITAN

The metropolitan Cincinnati population is 2.1 million. The metro area consists of Hamilton, Clermont and Warren Counties in Ohio; Boone, Campbell and Kenton Counties in Kentucky; and Dearborn County, Indiana. The city's population is about 356,000 and covers an area of 77.2 square miles.

ACCOLADES AND AWARDS

National praise keeps coming for Cincinnati and the city's improved image has been the subject of numerous articles placed in publications such as USA Today, CNN.com and Esquire Magazine. Cincinnati is recognized not only as a top destination for all ages, but also a community that strives for innovation, quality of life and regional growth.

AN ATTRACTIVE DESTINATION

Cincinnati's attractions were recognized as top vacation spots for families, in the Zagat Survey's U.S. Family Travel Guide, in association with Parenting Magazine. Numerous Cincinnati attractions top rankings among a list of over 1,000 sites and attractions in the United States.

- » Cincinnati is home to the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals and MLB's Cincinnati Reds.
- » Newport Aquarium was named the No. 1 aquarium in the Midwest and one of the 25 top rated attractions in the country.
- » Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden ranked 13th of 50 national attractions.
- » Cincinnati Art Museum tied with four museums, including the Metropolitan Art Museum in New York and the Art Institute in Chicago, for best art museum.
- » Kings Island ranked 4th overall in "child appeal" category.
- » Newport on the Levee topped the national list of malls and shopping centers.
- » Cincinnati Museum Center at Union Terminal and Great American Ball Park received top rankings as well.

A NEW ERA BEGINS —IN 2013—

VETERAN COACH TOMMY TUBERVILLE
TAKES THE REINS OF THE BEARCATS
PROGRAM ENTERING 2013 WITH HIS EYES SET ON CONTINUING THE WINNING TRADITION IN CINCINNATI.

Tommy Tuberville, a 17-year head coaching veteran was named the 41st football head coach at the University of Cincinnati on Dec. 8, 2012.

Tuberville, widely regarded as one of the top coaches and recruiters in the collegiate game, comes to Cincinnati after three years at Texas Tech.

In three seasons in Lubbock, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to a 20-17 mark and a pair of bowl appearances. In 17 seasons as a head coach, he holds a 130-77 career record.

He coached one of the nation's best offenses in 2012 as the Red Raiders finished the regular season ranked No. 2 in passing offense (361.9 ypg), No. 7 in passing efficiency (157.51 rtg), No. 21 in total offense (501.4 ypg) and No. 16 in scoring offense, averaging 37.8 points per game. Tech finished with a 7-5 mark and played in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas.

Texas Tech was one of the nation's most improved defenses in 2012, ranking No. 22 in pass defense and surrendering less than 200 yards passing per game (195.8). That defense held off No. 5/4 West Virginia, one of the nation's most prolific offenses, to its lowest point total of the 2012 season in a 59-14 Red Raiders win.

"As we start this journey ahead, it's not just me, it's all of us together. We will work every day to make this University and program better in every possible way that we can."

Tuberville assembled the top two recruiting classes in Texas Tech history that placed the Red Raiders in the national Top 25 in both 2011 and 2012.

In his first season at Tech, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to an 8-5 record and became the first coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first season. Armed with a prolific offense and an improving defense, the Red Raiders secured their 11th consecutive bowl bid by ending the regular-season with back-to-back wins.

Tuberville's strong bowl history proved beneficial for the Red Raiders as he led them to a 45-38 win over Northwestern, which gave Tech its third consecutive win over a Big Ten foe.

The excitement for Tuberville's first season was historic as a new single-season school record for season tickets was established with sales peaking at 46,565. Along the way, Tech also set a new standard for home attendance as an average of 57,107 fans attended the six home games at Jones A&T Stadium.

In 10 seasons at Auburn (1999-2008), Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven-straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to a 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalists for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989, including its first outright championship since 1987. Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated VirginiaTech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Tuberville has directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville built an Auburn program that excelled both on and off the field. Players flourished under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn earned 36 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 26 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 57 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Thirty-two players were selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round. Since 2004, 26 Auburn players have been drafted, including 22 in the last five drafts. Of those 22 selections since 2005, almost half were selected in the first two rounds-five first-round selections and five second-round picks. Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure, and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

In May 2008, he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame.

With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

His support of the military has carried over to Texas Tech as he has played an integral role with Under Armour in hosting two Wounded Warrior Project games at Jones AT&T Stadium (vs. Missouri in 2010 and Oklahoma State in 2011).

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993. While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg).

Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, nose guards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker and Troy Allen.

EDDIE GRAN

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | CAL LUTHERAN '87

Former University of Cincinnati assistant coach Eddie Gran returned to Clifton as the Bearcats offensive coordinator in 2013.

He served as UC's wide receivers coach from 1992-93.

Gran is wrapping up his 26th season of collegiate coaching and his third season at Florida State, where he serves as associate head coach, tutoring the running backs and coordinating special teams. In 2012, Gran's coaching and position group responsibilities helped lead the Seminoles to their first ACC Championship since 2005, first 11-win season since 2000 and ninth Orange Bowl appearance.

Gran's 26 seasons in the college ranks includes stops from coast-to-coast. It began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. He spent 15 seasons as a running backs coach and special teams coordinator in the SEC, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee before coming to Florida State in 2010.

He has also established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He has spent the better part of two decades recruiting Miami and greater South Florida as his primary territory. He helped the Seminoles attract the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011 and was named one of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011.

This past season was one of the best ever for Gran's special teams' pupils. FSU kicker Dustin Hopkins set the NCAA career record for scoring by a kicker and was a finalist the Lou Groza Award for the second-straight year in addition to numerous All-America honors and First Team All-ACC accolades. Heading into the 2013 Orange Bowl, Hopkins has 459 career points, breaking the previous national record of 439 held by Boise State's Kyle Brotzman. Hopkins' 133 points in 2012 also set an ACC record for scoring. His 87 career field goals ties the all-time NCAA mark with former Georgia kicker Billy Bennett. Perhaps most impressively, Hopkins is 5-of-5 on field goals from 50 yards and beyond in 2012.

The Noles' punt return and kickoff return units were arguably the most dynamic in the country, as each ranked second in the ACC and No. 7 and No. 17 in nation, respectively. Rashad Greene scored two touchdowns on punt returns and ranked second in the country with a 15.35 punt return average, while Tyler Hunter also had a punt return score. On kickoff returns, Lamarcus Joyner and Karlos Williams combined to average 24.6 yards per return.

Under Gran's direction, FSU's stable of running backs also had one of the most prolific seasons in the country and in school history, averaging 203 rushing yards per game and tallying 2,639 yards and an FSU-record 37 touchdowns on the ground in 2012.

The Seminoles rushed for over 200 yards seven times, including a 385-yard performance versus Wake Forest, and had three different running backs rush for over 500 yards in Chris Thompson (687 yards, five touchdowns), Devonta Freeman (630 yards, eight touchdowns) and James Wilder, Jr. (583 yards, 13 touchdowns). Thompson, who played in eight games before suffering a season-ending knee injury, was named Second Team All-ACC and captured the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award given to the conference's "most courageous" player.

Florida State boasted the nation's second-best special teams unit in 2011 based on the Football Outsiders Efficiency Ratings. Shawn Powell became FSU's first consensus All-American punter and the school's all-time leader in multiple punting categories as a three-year starter. Powell led the Football Bowl Subdivision with a 47-yard overall average and the Seminoles ranked second nationally in net punting (41.3). Hopkins was named one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award and Gran's return game featured some of the most electrifying players in Greg Reid, Joyner and Williams. Reid was one of the nation's most dangerous punt return specialists in the ACC, averaging 10.7 yards per return and scoring two touchdowns during the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

In 2011, Gran's running back corps played behind a banged up offensive line bringing down the group's production from the 2010 season. However, Gran still produced one of the top freshman running backs in FSU history as Freeman ran for 579 yards - the fifth best single season total by an FSU freshman. Freeman also led the team with eight rushing touchdowns.

Gran helped develop Florida State's running game into one of the strongest in the ACC in his first season in Tallahassee in 2010. The Seminoles averaged nearly 5.0 yards per carry and ranked third in the league in rushing touchdowns with 27. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the league in scoring as compared to sixth the year before Gran's arrival. In 2010, three Seminole running backs gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground led by FSU's leading rusher Thompson, who gained 845 yards. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games - BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina.

Gran has a strong record for developing backfield talent. During his 14 seasons as the assistant to Tommy Tuberville at Ole Miss and Auburn, he sent eight running backs to the NFL, including former Tigers Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons. They were preceded by former Rebels Deuce McCallister and John Avery.

Tennessee's Mario Hardesty (1,345 yards) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty, who did not fumble on 282 carries from scrimmage in 2009, was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He was selected one slot after Auburn's Ben Tate (Houston Texans), whom Gran coached in 2008.

Gran's tenure as a special teams coach included oversight of Auburn kicker John Vaughn, who was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2006. With his hands-on approach in all facets of special teams play, Gran is widely regarded as one of the most meticulous in tutoring the game's critical "third phase."

Gran has four daughters, Hannah, Dillan, Sydney and Lucy Grace.

He is deeply involved in the community for a cause that has changed his life and continues to impact others. The Sydney Gran Foundation is a charity designed to support children's hospitals and other families whose children are facing serious illness. Sydney, the third of the Gran's four daughters, was born with the rare disease called Holoprosencephaly. She passed away just shy of her sixth birthday in 2005. Additional information is available at www.sydneygranfoundation.org.

TYSON HELTON

TIGHT ENDS | HOUSTON '99

Tyson Helton enters his first season on the University of Cincinnati football staff coaching the tight ends.

The 13-year veteran comes to UC after six seasons at the University of Alabama-Birmingham. During 2012, he coached the running backs and served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

In 2012, Helton mentored Darrin Reaves, a First-Team All-Conference USA selection who rushed for 1,037 yards and 13 touchdowns. Reaves became the Blazers' only first-team, all-conference running back selection in school history, and the first Blazer all-league running back pick overall since the 2004 season.

Reaves registered the highest rushing total (223) in a game in the league this season, posting that number against Southern Miss (Nov. 3). In a three-game stretch vs. Tulane, Southern Miss and Marshall, Reaves averaged 191 yards per game, while his rushing touchdown total (13) established a new UAB single-season record. He also had 41 receptions (302 yards) in 2012.

Helton spent his previous five seasons at UAB coaching the quarterbacks. Under Helton's guidance, Joe Webb developed into one of the most prolific quarterbacks in NCAA history. In 2009 Webb became the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 in back-to-back seasons.

He finished the season ranked sixth nationally in total offense at 310.5 yards per game and was No. 9 in pass efficiency. Webb also shattered his own Conference USA record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,427, ranking No. 1 in the country among signal-callers.

The Blazer offense tallied 5,111 yards, the most in school history. Last season UAB again had a potent offense as the unit finished with 5,074 yards, second-highest in school history. Under Helton's tutelage, quarterback Bryan Ellis passed for 2,940 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Helton joined the Blazers after three years at Memphis, where he coached special teams and tight ends. While working on the Tigers' staff under head coach Tommy West, the Memphis special teams prospered under his guidance.

In 2005, UM kicker Stephen Gostkowski, now with the NFL's New England Patriots, was responsible for nearly one-third of the team's scoring and was named the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year.

Gostkowski is Memphis' all-time leading scorer with 369 points and was the first kicker chosen in the 2006 NFL Draft. Prior to joining the program at Memphis, Helton spent four years as a member of June Jones' staff at Hawai'i. He arrived on the Manoa campus in 2000 as a graduate assistant and worked with the Warriors' special teams.

In 2001, Helton's first season as a full-time coach, the Warriors led the nation in kickoff return yardage and broke the NCAA record for average gain per return (30.3). Under Helton, return specialist Chad Owens tied the NCAA record with two kick returns for a touchdown in a game and also broke the NCAA record for most yards gained on kick return.

Helton, the brother of Southern California assistant coach Clay Helton and the son of UAB offensive coordinator Kim Helton, had just completed his fourth season as a member of Jones' Hawai'i staff when he was hired at Memphis.

Helton, 34, earned his bachelor's degree in business at Houston in 1999 after a four-year career with the Cougars. He and his wife, April, have two daughters, Shelby Grace (7) and Presley (4), and twin boys Clay and Cole (2).

DARREN HILLER

OFFENSIVE LINE | WEST TEXAS A&M '94

Darren Hiller joined the University of Cincinnati football coaching staff in January of 2013 and will mentor the offensive line.

Hiller is in his 20th season of coaching and came to UC after a year at Nevada in the same position.

In his lone season with the Wolfpack, coaching "The Union," as the offensive front at Nevada has been called for nearly three decades, the team rushed for an average of 271 yards per game, which ranked seventh in the NCAA FBS while allowing only 18 sacks. Offensive tackle Jeff Nady was a First-Team All-Mountain West Conference honoree while Joel Bitonio was an honorable-mention all-league selection.

Hiller came to Nevada after a successful decade-long run at Arkansas State. While in Jonesboro, Hiller and the Red Wolves racked up a pair of conference championships, including a 10-2 record in 2011 and an appearance in the GoDaddy.com Bowl. He coached 16 All-Sun Belt Conference players, including an NFL Draft selection and five NFL free agents.

In 2010, Hiller saw three ASU offensive lineman were named All-Sun Belt Conference, including first team selection Derek Newton and second team choices Tom Castilaw and Sifa Etu. The Red Wolves' o-line paved the way for a school-record 4,841 yards of total offense that also ranked 40th in the nation.

In 2008, the offensive line helped lead ASU to the nation's 18th best rushing attack and a then school record for total offense. ASU also finished the 2008 season ranked 39th in the nation. Under Hiller's direction, the offensive line paved the way for ASU's 2007 running game that finished ranked 29th in the country.

Prior to joining ASU, Hiller spent two seasons at Arkansas-Monticello before moving on to one season at Northwestern State University. While at UAM, Hiller helped the team finish in the top five in Division II in total offense and scoring offense. During that time, UAM also broke 30 offensive school records.

A two-year starter at offensive guard at West Texas A&M (previously West Texas State), he also coached there from 1994-98 and helped his teams to national rankings in Division II and led that division in several offensive categories.

He started his collegiate career at Chabot Junior College in Hayward, Calif., where he received all-conference honors at offensive guard. A team captain, he was also a member of the GTE Academic All-America team. While at Chabot, his team played in the 1991 Merced Elks Bowl against Palomar Junior College for the national championship.

Born in Fremont, Calif., Hiller attended Washington High School where he played offensive guard and inside linebacker. A team captain, he received all-league honors.

He is married to the former Tracie Lenhart of Lubbock, Texas, and they have two daughters, Hailey and Aubrey, and one son, Colton.

DARIN HINSHAW

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS | UCF '93

Darin Hinshaw joins the University of Cincinnati staff in 2013 as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Hinshaw, a record-setting quarterback during his playing days at UCF, spent the previous three seasons at Tennessee, working with the quarterbacks from 2010-11 before moving over to the wide receivers and serving as the recruiting coordinator in 2012.

Tennessee finished the 2012 campaign with 5,711 yards, ranking second in school history behind only the 5,794 registered by the 1997 squad.

Cordarrelle Patterson, a First-Team All-SEC selection, set UT's single-season record with 1,858 all-purpose yards. Included in that total was 46 receptions for 778 yards and five TDs. Patterson's 16.9 yards per catch average led the Vols and was fourth in the Southeastern Conference.

Justin Hunter, who earned Second-Team All-SEC honors, grabbed 73 balls for 1,083 yards and nine TDs, the second-best single-season mark for receptions.

Hinshaw guided QB Tyler Bray to a record-setting start to the 2011 season as the signal caller set a school record for completion percentage in a game. He also started the year with the most passing yards in a three-game span in UT's storied history. Hinshaw was ranked as a Top-10 recruiter in 2011 by Rivals.com.

In 2010, Hinshaw's impact was immediate as Tennessee's quarterbacks coach. The former signalcaller helped two UT quarterbacks - both making their debuts in Knoxville - lead the Vols offense to a bowl game and a third-place finish in the SEC's Eastern Division.

Hinshaw's quarterback duo of Matt Simms and Bray combined for 3,309 yards passing and 26 touchdowns in 2010. The true freshman Bray assumed the starter's role in November and guided the team to a 4-0 finish to claim bowl eligibility.

Hinshaw, A Punta Gorda, Fla., native, was at Memphis from 2007-09 as the wide receivers coach. He joined the Tigers staff after serving one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia Southern. In 2006, Georgia Southern ranked 27th nationally in total offense, averaging 359.9 yards per game.

Prior to that, Hinshaw worked at Middle Tennessee for five seasons. He was the running backs coach his first two seasons before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in February 2003.

Under Hinshaw's guidance, the MTSU offense consistently led the Sun Belt Conference and was among the nation's statistical leaders. A highlight was in 2003, when the Blue Raiders offense was the highest scoring unit in the league at 27.7 points a contest. Hinshaw made his way to Middle Tennessee from Central Florida, his alma mater. Hinshaw spent 1999 as a graduate assistant before taking over the quarterback coaching duties in 2000.

Hinshaw set numerous school records for the Knights, finishing as career leader in every major passing category, including yards (9,000) and TDs (82). During his time under center, UCF had a combined 28-16 record, including a 9-3 mark in 1993 that resulted in a berth in the Division I-AA playoffs. Hinshaw was named in 2004 to UCF's 25th Anniversary Team.

Following his playing days at UCF, Hinshaw began a career in pro football. After a brief stint with the Cleveland Browns, he spent two years with the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League.

Hinshaw earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 1993 and a master's in business administration from UCF in 1996.

Hinshaw and his wife, Pam, have four children: daughters Sydney, Hayley and Carley; and son Darin Jr.

BLAKE ROLAN

WIDE RECEIVERS | LOUISVILLE '05

Blake Rolan enters his first season on the University of Cincinnati football staff as the wide receivers coach in 2013.

Rolan comes to UC after spending the 2010-12 seasons at Tennessee as an offensive intern working with Darrin Hinshaw, UC's passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Tennessee finished the 2012 campaign with 5,711 yards, ranking second in school history behind only the 5,794 registered by the 1997 squad.

Cordarrelle Patterson, a First-Team All-SEC selection, set UT's single-season record with 1,858 all-purpose yards. Included in that total were 46 receptions for 778 yards and five TDs. Patterson's 16.9 yards per catch average led the Vols and was fourth in the Southeastern Conference.

Justin Hunter, who earned Second-Team All-SEC honors, grabbed 73 balls for 1,083 yards and nine TDs, the second-best single-season mark for receptions.

Rolan spent the 2009 season tutoring running backs at the University of West Georgia.

In 2008, Rolan served as an offensive graduate assistant for UC head coach Tommy Tuberville at Auburn University assisting with the tight ends.

Rolan, a native of Rome, Ga., played collegiately (2000-03) as a quarterback and tight end at Division I Middle Tennessee State. There, he helped the Blue Raiders capture a Sun Belt Conference title. Rolan transferred to Louisville and earned a bachelor's degree in marketing in 2005 and a master's degree in higher education administration and sports management from Auburn in 2008.

He began his coaching career at Kentucky Country Day from 2004-07, serving as both assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

Rolan is married to the former Bennett Sumner. They have a son, Houston.

ART KAUFMAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | ARKANSAS-MONTICELLO '80

Art Kaufman, a 29-year coaching veteran, joined the University of Cincinnati staff in January 2013 after spending the 2012 season in the same role at Texas Tech University.

Kaufman has 11 years experience as a coordinator at the NCAA FBS level. He was a nominee for the 2012 Broyles Award, given to the top assistant coach in the country after leading a complete overhaul of the Texas Tech defensive unit.

Inheriting a defense that ranked 114th in the nation in 2011, the Red Raiders finished the 2012 regular season ranked No. 39 in the NCAA FBS in total defense and led the Big 12 Conference in pass defense, surrendering only 195.8 passing yards per game.

Kerry Hyder, Cody Davis and D.J. Johnson were named Second-Team All-Big 12 while Davis was also named a First-Team Capital One Academic All-American® and was one of 15 finalists for the William B. Campbell Trophy. Davis was the teams' leader in tackles (101), and interceptions (3) while adding seven pass break ups and 10 passes defended. Johnson was second with 90 stops while Hyder was third with 56 tackles and a team-leading 14.0 tackles for a loss and six sacks. He tallied 10.5 of those TFLs during Big 12 play, leading the conference.

Kaufman, who has coached in 13 bowl games, helped lead Texas Tech to a victory over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. A former defensive coordinator at North Carolina and Mississippi, Kaufman also has coached at Southern Miss, Middle Tennessee State, East Carolina, Arkansas Tech and Louisiana Tech.

Kaufman joined the Red Raiders from the University of North Carolina and was named the defensive coordinator for the Tar Heels when Everett Withers was given the title of interim head coach. Kaufman served the first two years at North Carolina as the linebackers coach. He helped guide the Tar Heels to a No. 48 national ranking in total defense in 2011, a No. 26 ranking in rush defense and an appearance against Missouri in the Independence Bowl.

Under his guidance, Carolina developed several outstanding linebackers, including 2011 NFL Draft picks Bruce Carter (second round, Dallas) and Quan Sturdivant (sixth round, Arizona), and current standouts Kevin Reddick and Zach Brown.

Despite injuries to Sturdivant and Carter in 2010, the Tar Heels still finished fourth in the ACC and 30th in the country in total defense. Reddick and Brown were the team's top tacklers.

Carolina's linebackers helped lead a defense that finished first in the ACC and sixth in the nation in total defense in 2009. The Tar Heels were 10th in the nation against the run and finished 13th in scoring defense. Carolina was the only defense in the country to finish among the top 15 in total yards allowed, scoring, rushing, passing, pass efficiency, third down percentage and tackles for losses. Sturdivant earned All-ACC honors and Carter was a second-team pick.

Kaufman spent three seasons at Middle Tennessee as the Blue Raiders linebackers coach and two seasons as defensive line coach at East Carolina. Prior to joining the staff at ECU, Kaufman spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas Tech.

A 1980 graduate of the University of Arkansas at Monticello, Kaufman had two stints at Mississippi, coaching in Oxford for a total of 10 years. He spent six years as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, coaching under UC head coach Tommy Tuberville from 1995-98.

Kaufman was a two-time All-America linebacker during his playing days at Arkansas-Monticello and followed his four-year career with the Boll Weevils by taking a graduate assistant position at Delta State University.

He earned his first full-time coaching job in 1983 when he became the outside linebackers coach at Northwestern State University (La.). In 1987, he was named defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northwestern State.

He left there the following year for Ole Miss to coach the Rebels' outside linebackers and defensive ends. While at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back bowl appearances (1989 Liberty Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl) for the first time since the 1970s.

Four years later, Kaufman was named the defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Louisiana Tech University, where he remained until returning to Ole Miss in 1995. In 1992, his defensive unit ranked in the top five nationally.

He again served as the Rebels' defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the next six years. During his second stint at Ole Miss, Kaufman helped the Rebels to four straight bowl berths (1997-2000), and his 1999 defense ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense.

A native of Dermott, Ark., Kaufman has three daughters: Tara, Taylor and Madison.

STEVE CLINKSCALE

DEFENSIVE BACKS | ASHLAND '00

Steven Clinkscale joined the University of Cincinnati staff in February of 2013.

He came to Cincinnati after a year coaching the cornerbacks at Illinois.

During his year at Illinois, Clinkscale mentored Honorable Mention All-Big Ten selection Terry Hawthorne while the Fighting Illini ranked in the Top-20 nationally in pass defense, surrendering under 200 yards passing per game.

He joined the Illini staff after spending three seasons at Toledo, including the last two as the cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator. Under his leadership, Toledo's cornerbacks played a key role in the Rockets' defensive resurgence, while special teams were a strong suit during Clinkscale's tenure at UT. The kickoff return team ranked 11th in the nation in 2010 and the punt return unit ranked 17th in 2011.

In 2011, Clinkscale helped the Rockets become a national leader in takeaways, as Toledo ranked 16th in turnovers gained in 2011. UT also ranked third in the nation in turnover margin and 29th in third-down defense in 2011. Clinkscale guided the Rockets to a No. 17 finish in punt return average in 2011, which helped Toledo to a 9-4 campaign and a victory in the Military Bowl.

Clinkscale also helped develop Eric Page into one of the most electrifying return men in college football, as Page was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele and a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player. Page also was named first-team All-Mid-American Conference as a receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner.

Toledo went from allowing 37.7 points per game in 2009 to 28.5 in 2010. The Rocket 'D' also increased its forced turnovers from 21 to 34, the fifth-highest takeaway total in the nation in 2010, and tied for eighth-most interceptions in the country with 20. UT also finished 11th in the nation in kickoff return average, helping propel Toledo to an 8-5 season and its first bowl appearance in five years.

In 2010, Clinkscale helped guide junior Desmond Marrow as he returned to the lineup after a nearly two-year absence. Marrow responded with an outstanding season, with 72 tackles, three interceptions and six pass breakups. On special teams, Clinkscale helped coach Page, who averaged 31.1 yards per return, earn numerous first-team All-America honors. He was the only player in the FBS to return three kickoffs for touchdowns.

Clinkscale went to Toledo with eight years of college coaching experience: one year at Western Carolina (2008) and seven seasons at Division II Ashland University (2001-07). In his only season at Western Carolina, Clinkscale worked with the Catamount defensive backs in addition to serving as Western's academic liaison.

During his seven seasons at Ashland, Clinkscale served mostly as a secondary coach, spending his final season as the linebackers coach. Clinkscale also served as the academic liaison at AU, where the football team routinely posted combined GPAs of 3.0 or better.

Clinkscale mentored two All-Americans (Devin Conwell and Toure Carter) and two Cactus Bowl (NCAA Division II All-Star game) participants at Ashland. Conwell was named the 2005 GLIAC Defensive Back of the Year.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Clinkscale was a four-year starter and a team captain at Ashland. He played in the 2000 Snow Bowl, the Division II all-star game. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports science, with a concentration in therapeutic recreation, in 2000.

Clinkscale and his wife, Jasena, have four sons: Isaiah, Elijah, and twins, Zion and Zivon.

ROBERT PRUNTY

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE ENDS | ALABAMA A&M '88

Robert Prunty joined the University of Cincinnati football staff in January 2013 as the associate head coach and defensive ends coach.

Prunty, who spent the previous three seasons at Texas Tech University, was named the 2010-11 and 2011-12 Big 12 Conference Recruiter of the Year.

Prunty was part of a strong defensive turnaround in 2012 as the Red Raiders finished the regular season ranked No. 39 in the NCAA FBS in total defense after finishing No. 114 in 2011.

Kerry Hyder was a Second-Team All-Big 12 selection, finishing third on the squad with 56 tackles and a team-leading 14.0 tackles for a loss and six sacks. He tallied 10.5 of those TFLs during Big 12 play, leading the conference.

Prunty, who joined the Red Raiders in 2010 from Hargrave Military Academy, put his mark on the Red Raider football program almost immediately. Prunty was an integral part in signing the highest rated football recruiting class in school history in 2011. For his efforts, he was named the 2010-11 Big 12 Recruiter of the Year by both Rivals and Scout.

His recruiting skills again paid off for the Red Raiders in 2012 as Texas Tech landed its second-highest rated class in school history. And yet again, Prunty was named the Big 12 Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com and Fox Sports.

Prunty's football knowledge and the ability to recruit were the reasons he was brought on board to help Tommy Tuberville install and championship level football program. Since 2002, Prunty served as the head football coach at Hargrave Military Academy where 27 of his players went on to the National Football League (NFL). Since 1999, the academy has been responsible for six first-round draft choices including two first-round players coached by Prunty. The academy has also produced two players faced by Texas Tech in bowl games: Virginia offensive tackle Branden Albert and Mississippi defensive tackle Peria Jerry. Albert and Perrywere first-round picks by Kansas City and Atlanta, respectively.

Prior to his tenure at Hargrave, Prunty led a resurgence at Gretna High School in Gretna, Va., as he redirected a program that lost 44 consecutive games between 1991-1995 and went 11-1 in his final season there in 2001. Gretna went on to become a powerhouse, winning multiple state championships.

Prunty is a Chatham, Va., native and a 1983 Hargrave Military Academy graduate. He earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Alabama A&M in 1988. Coach Prunty and his wife Kimberly have a son, Robert Prunty Jr., and a daughter Gabrielle.

FRED TATE

DEFENSIVE LINE | SOUTHERN MISS '97

Fred Tate, a 16-year coaching veteran, enters his first season at the University of Cincinnati coaching the defensive line.

Tate, who spent the 2012 campaign at Texas Tech, has had FBS coaching stints at Marshall, Tennessee-Chattanooga, Southern Miss, East Carolina and Middle Tennessee State, Texas State and Jacksonville State.

Tate helped guide a strong defensive turnaround in 2012 as the Red Raiders finished the regular season ranked No. 39 in the NCAA FBS in total defense after finishing No. 114 in 2011.

Kerry Hyder was a Second-Team All-Big 12 selection, finishing third on the squad with 56 tackles and a team-leading 14.0 tackles for a loss and six sacks. He tallied 10.5 of those TFLs during Big 12 play, leading the conference. Leon Mackey was an honorable mention all-league honoree.

Prior to joining the Red Raiders, Tate coached at Marshall from 2010-11. In 2011, Tate coached the defensive line and the Herd excelled among FBS teams in tackles for loss (8th, 102), fumbles recovered (T-14th, 15), fourth down efficiency defense (19th, 38.89 percent), red zone efficiency (T-19th, 88 percent) and turnovers gained (T-19th, 29). DE Vinny Curry was the 2011 Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year, a First-Team All-C-USA selection and a three-time All-America selection (FWAA, CBSSports.com, Walter Camp FB Foundation). Marshall won the Beef O'Brady's Bowl over Florida International.

In his first season with the Herd in 2010, Tate coached the safeties and saw two of his pupils, Donald Brown and Omar Brown, earn an Honorable Mention All-Conference USA selection.

Prior to being at Marshall, he spent time as the defensive line coach at both Tennessee-Chattanooga and Southern Miss. During his tenure at UTC, Tate mentored Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First-Team All-Southern Conference selection Josh Beard.

While at Southern Miss, one of his Golden Eagle defenders, Tom Johnson, earned All-Conference USA honors in 2005. USM finished 7-5 in 2005 and 9-5 in 2006. The 2005 squad was New Orleans Bowl Champions with a 31-19 victory over Arkansas State. The 2006 Eagles claimed the Conference USA East Division title, played Houston in the C-USA Championship Game and defeated Ohio University 28-7 in the GMAC Bowl.

Tate's coaching career began in 1997 at East Central Community College in Mississippi where he coached tight ends and receivers. He moved to Jacksonville State in 1998 and served as the defensive line and special teams coach for two years. While with the Gamecocks, he mentored Mark Word who played in the National Football League for the Kansas City Chiefs and the Cleveland Browns.

The 2000 season saw him return to the junior college level, coaching the defensive line, punting and kicking teams at East Mississippi Community College. He served as the defensive line coach at Southwest Texas State in 2001 and at Middle Tennessee in 2002. At Southwest Texas, he guided Clenton Ballard to All-America status. Ballard went on to play in the NFL for the Jacksonville Jaguars and the San Diego Chargers.

Tate joined former Southern Mississippi defensive coordinator John Thompson at East Carolina in 2003. He coached the Pirates' outside linebackers for two years and assisted with special teams.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Tate enlisted in the United States Army upon high school graduation. He served five years as a combat engineer in the Airborne Division. He earned an Army Commendation Medal and was named Soldier of the Quarter three times.

Following his service, Tate attended East Central Community College in Decatur, Miss., where he was a JC Gridwire All-America selection as a sophomore and was voted the Most Valuable Offensive Player of the National Junior College All-Star Game.

His playing career continued at Southern Mississippi, playing defensive end and tackle in 1995 and 1996 for Coach Bower. The Golden Eagles were charter members of Conference USA in 1996 and won the league's first football championship that season with a 4-1 mark. The 8-3 overall record included a victory over Georgia and a seven-game winning streak.

Tate earned his bachelor's degree in human performance from Southern Miss in 1997.

ANTRIONE ARCHER

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Antrione Archer joined the Bearcats in the Summer of 2011 as the Director of Player Development.

In his role, Archer will work directly with UC's student-athletes, providing guidance and counsel and ensuring they are adhering to the program goals and policies regarding intellectual, social, spiritual, physical, and skill development.

He will also help manage many of UC's off-the-field responsibilities including overseeing the highly-successful Cats In The Community program. Prior to joining the Bearcats, Archer worked in private business in Cincinnati for several years.

The Tennille, Ga. native was a two-year letterwinner for head coach Butch Jones at Central Michigan (2007-08). He overcame a viral heart condition which caused him to miss the 2005 and 2006 seasons. He was part of two Mid-American Conference Championship teams and a Motor City Bowl Championship squad.

He earned a bachelor's degree in sports management with a minor in marketing from CMU in 2008.

Archer and his wife Twinkle have a son Antrione Jr.

GREG BRUNER

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL VIDEO

Greg Bruner started his second stint as the football video coordinator at the University of Cincinnati in 2011.

He is responsible for the preparation of weekly scouting reports, film breakdown, and implementation of recruiting weekends, motivational videos, daily practice video, and overseeing a staff of student assistants.

Bruner, a 2003 graduate of UC, returned to the Bearcats program after five seasons at the University of Illinois in the same position.

He previously headed the Bearcats video operation from 2003-05 before joining the Fighting Illini. In addition to his video duties at UC, Bruner also assisted with team travel, gameday personnel, banquets, and alumni weekends.

Bruner, a native of Fairfield, Ohio, is a 2003 graduate of Cincinnati where he received a Bachelor's degree in political science. During his time as an undergraduate, he served as a video intern for four years.

Bruner and his wife, Heather, have three children: daughters, Emma and Eva, and a son, Tyler.

SHERRY MURRAY

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Sherry Murray joined the UC football staff in 2010 as the executive assistant to the head football coach.

In her current role, Murray coordinates event scheduling and is responsible for all staff and office operations as well as coordinating all events surrounding the football program.

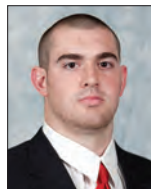

Prior to joining the football staff, Murray served as the administrative coordinator in the UCATS office from 2008-2010 where she was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the UCATS office and coordination of all UCATS events.

Prior to coming to UC, she was employed by the Northwest Local School District from 1999-2008. For the first eight years she was the assistant to the head football coach and assistant principal and finished out her ninth year in the school board administration office of student services.

Murray has been a lifelong resident of Cincinnati, and earned an associate's degree from the University of Cincinnati in applied business in 1991. She and her husband Mark are the proud parents of Jacob and Luke Murray.

DAVID NEILL

ASST. DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

David Neil came to the University of Cincinnati in January of 2013 as an assistant director of football strength and conditioning.

Neill came to UC after serving the 2012 season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, Texas Tech.

He played in 36 games for the Red Raiders, seeing action on the offensive and defensive lines and on special teams. He played defensive tackle until early in the 2010 season and moved to the offensive line, playing every position except for center.

He finished his senior campaign in 2011 with 81 tackles, including 53 solo stops, nine tackles for a loss, six sacks, two forced fumbles and four pass break ups. He was a two-time First-Team Academic All-Big 12 selection as a junior (2010) and a senior (2011).

Neill earned a pair of degrees in Lubbock, a bachelor's in exercise science in 2011 and a master's in sport management in 2012.

Neill, a native of Highland Village, Texas, and his wife Ally, live in Northern Kentucky.

BLAKE REID

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT

Blake Reid joined the University of Cincinnati staff in the summer of 2013 as the director of athletic equipment, working directly with the Bearcats' football team.

Reid handles all day-to-day aspects of the football program's equipment needs, including purchasing, maintenance, organization, as well as coordination of the 12-member student assistant program.

Reid came to UC after serving as an assistant equipment manager for the Army Athletic Association from 2007-13. His primary focus was on the day-to-day operations of the Army's football team. In addition, he served as the head men's and women's basketball equipment manager, placing him in charge of the budgeting, purchasing, inventory, and issuance of all team-issued apparel.

Reid graduated from Iowa State University with a degree in Kinesiology. During his time at Iowa State, he had the opportunity to be part of the football team in a student manager role.

Reid has also served as a volunteer equipment manager for the 2008 East-West All Star college football game. He was also heavily involved in the creation of the 2008, 2011 and 2012 Army-Navy Pro Combat uniforms as well as the Black Knights' men's basketball vintage uniforms and women's basketball's "Pink Zone" uniforms. Reid is a native of Onslow, Iowa, and lives in Cincinnati.

PATRICK SCREEN

ASST. DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT OPERATIONS

Patrick Screen joined the University of Cincinnati staff in July of 2013 and serves as the assistant director of football equipment operations.

Screen assists head equipment manager Blake Reid in the day-to-day operations of the football equipment room in the Richard E. Lindner Center.

Screen's responsibilities include the maintenance and organization of all football practice and game equipment, laundry, fitting and helping oversee the 10-member student assistant program.

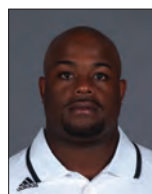

For home and away games and practices Screen oversees the setup and teardown of Nippert Stadium and UC's home and game locker rooms.

He joined UC after stints with Georgia Southern and Nevada as an assistant equipment manager.

Screen earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State University in 2010 where he served as a student manager.

ORLANDO SMITH

ASST. DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
CINCINNATI '99

Former University of Cincinnati standout Orlando Smith returned to the Bearcats in December of 2012 as the assistant director of football strength and conditioning.

Smith spent the previous four seasons at Texas Tech University and the past three under current UC head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Prior to Tech, Smith served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of South Carolina from 2005-2008, after spending two years at the University of Kansas in a similar role.

Following graduation in 1999, Smith took a position as running backs coach at Thomas More College in Kentucky, before moving on to his first NCAA FBS position as a graduate assistant strength coach for football at the University of Minnesota.

A former all-conference running back for the University of Cincinnati in the late 1990's, Smith helped lead the Bearcats to the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl championship. He twice earned All-Conference USA honors.

Smith graduated from UC in 1999 with a degree in criminal justice/psychology.

While with the Minnesota program, he earned a master's degree in sport management in December of 2002.

VINCE SURIANO

DIRECTOR, HIGH SCHOOL & PLAYER RELATIONS

Vince Suriano, a long-time head coach at Anderson High School, joined the University of Cincinnati football staff as director of high school and player relations in February of 2013.

Suriano joins UC after a season as the senior offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach at Thomas More College. In his role at UC, he will manage the Bearcats' on-campus recruiting program and focus on outreach and relationships with high school programs within the tri-state area.

Suriano spent the 2007-11 seasons at the College of Mount St. Joseph, where he was the associate head coach and offensive coordinator, helping lead MSJ to a conference championship in 2009 and playoff appearances in 2007 and 2009.

Prior to Mount St. Joseph, Suriano served as the head coach at Anderson High School from 1987-2007. During that time, he had a 147-61 record and had three undefeated regular seasons, won 12 conference championships and appeared in the state playoffs nine times.

He was inducted into the Anderson HS Hall of Fame in the spring of 2012 and the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in June 2013.

He also served as the head coach at Cadiz High School from 1984-1987 and as an assistant coach at Martins Ferry High School from 1974-1984.

Suriano, who earned his bachelor's degree from West Liberty State College and his master's degree from the University of Dayton, is a member of the Ohio High School Coaches Association, Southwest Ohio Football Coaches Association, American Football Coaches Association, National Education/Ohio Education Association and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Suriano and his wife Crystal have two sons, Michael and Christopher, three grandchildren and live in Anderson Township in Cincinnati.

JOE WALKER

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
LOCK HAVEN '02

Joe Walker joined the UC football staff in December of 2012 as the director of football strength and conditioning.

Walker comes to UC after three years in the same role at Texas Tech University under current UC head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Walker joined the Red Raiders in 2010 after spending two seasons as an assistant strength coach at Auburn, as he joined the Tiger staff in February 2007.

His arrival at Auburn in 2007 was not his first stint with the Tigers as he served as a graduate assistant from May 2003 until May 2005 where he worked directly with the football program then led by Tuberville. Following his graduate assistantship at Auburn, he moved to Texas where he served as an assistant strength coach at TCU from May 2005 until January 2007. Walker also gained experience through brief stints at Kansas State and Pittsburgh.

Walker earned a bachelor's degree in recreation management/fitness option from Lock Haven University in 2002 and a master's degree in adult education from Auburn in 2004.

He and his wife Lauren have three sons, Caden, Colby and Caleb.

MIKE WAUGH

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL RECRUITING

Mike Waugh joined the University of Cincinnati football staff in 2012 as the director of football recruiting.

He came to UC after three years in a similar role at Marshall University.

Waugh oversees the day-to-day operations of the recruiting program including database management, organizing all official and unofficial visits, coordinating special events associated with recruiting, managing the current roster and recruiting budgets as well as administering all recruiting paperwork including transcripts and scholarship documents.

He also serves as the Bearcats' NFL liaison, coordinates the walk-on program, and assists with football camps and coaches' clinics.

He was the acting director of high school relations from 2009-2010 before being named permanently to that spot in Aug. 2010. In his role, Waugh oversaw Marshall's recruiting operation, coordinating the school's on-campus program, working with the coaching staff on planning visits and recruiting trips and also served as the departmental liaison on external matters. He later served as an interim assistant coach from Dec. 2011 to Feb. 2012, adding on the road recruiting responsibilities during staff changeover.

He started at Marshall in July of 2008, serving as the graduate assistant for recruiting; assisting in all aspects of the Thundering Herd's recruiting operations.

Waugh started his career as a football operations intern and recruiting assistant at Ohio University while he was an undergraduate. In that role, he supported the staff in the day-to-day operations of the program, served as the point person for the Bobcats' on-campus recruiting efforts and helped coordinate on-campus visits.

The Cleveland, Ohio native earned his bachelor's degree in sports science at Ohio in 2008 and also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Marshall in 2010.

JOHN WIDECAN

ASST. AD/FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Widecan begins his 24th season with the University of Cincinnati Football Program.

As the Assistant Director of Athletics for Football Operations, he is in charge of the day-to-day operations for the team, including duties such as team travel, recruiting operations, events, camps, clinics, team schedule, technology, and other facets of the football program.

Widecan joined the Bearcats in 1989 as a graduate assistant football coach. He was promoted in 1991 to a full-time administrative position in which he assisted with day-to-day operations and assumed the duties of video director for the football team. Widecan was recognized as the 1997-98 Conference USA Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association.

As his responsibilities continued to expand, he was named the Director of Football Operations in 2000, and the program hired a video coordinator to handle the increased team video needs.

Prior to coming to UC, Widecan began his career as defensive line coach at his alma mater, Mercyhurst.

A native of Wickliffe, Ohio, he was an all-conference and all-area performer at Wickliffe High. He earned Football News Division III all-America honors as well as all-ECAC acclaim at Mercyhurst.

He earned his bachelor's degrees in mathematics and education in 1988. He later received his master's degree in criminal justice from UC in 1990.

His family includes his wife, Michelle, and children Mallory, a student at UC, Collin (15), and J.P. (7).

MEDICAL STAFF

DR. ANGELO COLOSIMO

DIRECTOR OF ORTHOPAEDIC SERVICES

Angelo J. Colosimo, M.D. is currently an Assistant Professor, Director of the Division of Sports Medicine and Director of Orthopaedic Services for University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics.

Colosimo is in his 22nd season as Team Orthopaedic Surgeon for the University of Cincinnati and also served in the same role for the Cincinnati Bengals Football Club from 1999-2011. He is the co-director of the University of Cincinnati/Wellington Sports Medicine Fellowship.

Dr. Colosimo takes an active role in the Greater Cincinnati community by supporting and providing medical coverage for several area high schools.

A native of Yonkers, N.Y., Dr. Colosimo was a two-time first-team academic all-America running back at Colgate University. He signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots and eventually entered New York University School of Medicine, where he obtained his M.D.

Dr. Colosimo conducted his orthopaedic residency training at the Duke University Medical Center and assisted in the care of the Blue Devil athletics teams. Upon completion of his orthopaedic residency, he moved on to a Sports Medicine Fellowship with the Kentucky Sports Medicine Clinic in Lexington, Ky., and served as assistant orthopaedic surgeon to both Kentucky and Eastern Kentucky athletics.

Dr. Colosimo is a member of numerous societies, including The American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine, Arthroscopy Association of North America, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and many others. He also is on the board for Greater Cincinnati Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

As the director of the sports medicine division in the department of orthopaedics at the University of Cincinnati, Dr. Colosimo is involved in the education of residents and sports medicine fellows. He is involved in ongoing sports medicine research and lectures regionally and nationally on numerous sports medicine topics.

DR. JON DIVINE

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Jon Divine is in his fourth season as head team physician for the University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics and his third year with the football team.

Divine, who will split time between UC Orthopedics and the Cincinnati Children's Hospital Sports Medicine program, worked primarily with the Bearcats football team during the 2009-10 season.

Divine, who has served as the medical director in sports medicine at Cincinnati Children's since 2004, came to Cincinnati from Houston, where he was on the clinical and teaching faculty of Southwest Memorial Family Practice. He also was medical director of The Wellness Institute of Memorial-Hermann Healthcare System and team physician for the University of Houston and the Houston Comets women's basketball team.

He earned his medical degree at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston and completed his residency in the family medicine department at Baylor College of Medicine. He is board certified in family practice and is a fellow in the American College of Sports Medicine.

BOB MANGINE

ASSOCIATE AD/SPORTS MEDICINE

Bob Mangine's extensive experience in the field of athletics training makes him well-suited to diagnose and treat injuries as well as advising on their prevention.

As athletics trainer for football, Mangine supervises a program that addresses the health and well-being of the Bearcats on a year-round basis by drawing from over three decades of experience in sports medicine.

Mangine, who assumed the football duties in 2005, has served as Director of Rehabilitative Services at the University of Cincinnati since 2002. He has worked with both amateur and professional athletes since 1976, when he first arrived at UC. In 1982, he assisted in the development of the nationally recognized Cincinnati Sportsmedicine and Orthopaedic Center. After serving approximately 10 years with the organization, he started his own practice which merged with NovaCare Rehabilitation in 1998.

While he was a student at the University of Pittsburgh, Mangine launched his career in athletics training. He served as assistant trainer of the Pittsburgh Condor Basketball Club and as head athletics trainer at the Community College of Allegheny County prior to graduation in 1977.

Mangine served as director of rehabilitation at UC from 1977-80 while earning his master's degree. After two years as an assistant professor of physical therapy at the Medical College of Virginia, he returned to Cincinnati to work in private clinics.

Mangine currently serves as National Director of Clinical Research and Education for NovaCare and is President of MBM Consultants, which provides management for physical therapy and occupational therapy management.

A 25-year award recipient of the National Athletic Trainers Association, he was the head athletic trainer for the aquatic teams at the 1996 Olympics, and the Goodwill Games of 1986, 1990 and 1998. He is a charter member of the Sports Physical Therapy Section Hall of Fame.

EMI MATSUNO

ASSOCIATE HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER, FOOTBALL

Emi Matsuno came to the University of Cincinnati in 2008 as an assistant athletic trainer. She was promoted to associate head athletic trainer for football prior to the 2012 season.

Prior to her time with the Bearcats, she was a student athletic trainer at the University of Illinois from 2004-08.

Matsuno, a native of Saporro, Japan, earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology and athletic training from Illinois in 2008.

JOSEPH T. RAUCH

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Joseph T. Rauch joined the University of Cincinnati staff in 2010 as an assistant athletic trainer. He has served as the director of rehabilitation for football and the head athletic trainer for baseball.

He was promoted to his current role of head athletic trainer prior to the 2012 season. He works directly with the football and men's basketball programs while overseeing the day-to-day operations of the training room.

Prior to coming to UC, Rauch was an athletic trainer at PRO Physical Therapy in Wilmington, Del.

He was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Widener University while completing his masters degree from 2006-09.

Rauch earned his bachelors degree in rehabilitation science from Pittsburgh in 2005.

WHIT BABCOCK

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Whit Babcock was officially announced as the University of Cincinnati's 14th Director of Athletics on Oct. 22, 2011.

Babcock, a former college baseball player, joined the Bearcats following five years at the University of Missouri, where he served as the executive associate director of athletics.

The Bearcats' leader has initiated a new administrative structure within the department, proposed a comprehensive vision and capital campaign for athletic facility enhancement including an $86-million renovation and expansion to Nippert Stadium, set forth a scholarship enhancement plan for Olympic sports, crafted a three-year strategic plan for all facets of the program, hired head coaches in football, baseball, men's track and field, lacrosse, volleyball and women's soccer and implemented numerous external relations strategies to connect and engage with Bearcats' alumni, donors, fans, and students.

His background in fundraising, marketing, promotions, ticket sales, licensing and multimedia partnerships were key attributes in support of his hiring. In his introductory press conference, Babcock cited three guiding principles for his vision for the athletic department's future: commitment to comprehensive excellence, centering the department's focus on the student-athlete experience, and engaging the community.

The department operates under Babcock's ONE TEAM philosophy which is centered on the core values of Integrity, Respect, Determination and Excellence working together as 547 student-athletes, 150 staff, 19 sports and ONE TEAM.

Over the past year, Babcock has implemented numerous changes in the academic area aimed at enhancing the student-athlete experience, reinstated and enhanced scholarship funding to Olympic sports, added men's indoor track and field as the department's 19th sport and streamlined his executive team to ensure better lines of communications across the department and University community.

Nippert Stadium, the venerable home field for the UC football team, will undergo an $86-million renovation over the next 18 months. The renovation and expansion project, which focuses on the east and west sides of the stadium will add new premium seating options while enhancing the gameday experience for all fans. The project will utilize private donations and premium seating revenues and no University general funds will be allocated. The project is scheduled to be completed prior to the 2015 season, the 100th anniversary of the start of original construction on the stadium.

The 2012-13 season was another successful one for the Bearcats that saw the football team win its fourth conference championship in five seasons and the men's basketball squad earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the third straight year. Former national coach of the year Tommy Tuberville was hired as the football head coach, David Tepe won the BIG EAST Men's Golf Individual Championship and the Bearcats had three track All-Americans, Mackenzie Fields (pole vault) indoors and Josh Dangel (pole vault) and Terrence Somerville (110 hurdles) outdoors.

The College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) named Babcock as the 2013 recipient of the Benjamin Franklin Award. The CSCAA Benjamin Franklin Award is presented to the individual or organization whose efforts best promote the integrity and enhancement of the student-athlete ideal.

UC student-athletes participated in over 5,000 hours of community involvement in the Tri-State Area in 2012.

The Bearcats also opened the $15-million Sheakley Athletics Center, a complex that will play host to lacrosse games and serve as a practice facility for football and all UC sports in the wintertime.

Having transitioned from an academic calendar of quarters to semesters, the Bearcats had a departmental GPA of 3.028, marking its eighth consecutive grading period with a 3.0 GPA or higher and 14 of the last 15 quarters in which the department had a 3.0 GPA or higher. Overall 11 of 17 teams achieved a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Nearly 60 percent of all UC student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or higher, earning recognition on the Bearcat Honor Roll. Thirty-three percent of all student-athletes achieved a 3.4 GPA or higher earning each of them recognition as Dean's List with 18 who achieved a perfect 4.0 GPA.

The 2012-13 season marked the inaugural year of the newly implemented BEARCATstrong program, which recognizes student-athletes who excel in academic performance, strength and conditioning, personal character and service to others.

"I'm thrilled to be here and to serve UC and the Bearcats Family in this capacity," Babcock said. "It's an honor to serve under President Ono and his dynamic leadership. I'm excited to be able to help build upon our positive momentum and continue to move UC forward."

Babcock's first year at UC was also certainly full of notable highlights, both on the field and in the classroom. The football team won the BIG EAST Conference title and defeated Vanderbilt University in the Liberty Bowl. The men's basketball team reached the title game of the BIG EAST Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16.

UC was one of just six schools in the nation to have both its football and men's basketball programs be nationally ranked at the end of the year. Women's basketball earned a berth in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) and posted a first-round win. Volleyball won the BIG EAST Tournament Championship and participated in the NCAA Tournament. Women's track had its best-ever finishes in the BIG EAST Championship meet in both indoor and outdoor competition.

Those competitive successes led to UC's highest finish in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, a system that ranks athletic departments across all sports nationally.

Since becoming UC AD, Babcock has been active on the local and national speaking circuits. He has presented before the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA) and the 1-A Athletic Directors Association annual institute.

He is a past president of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD), serves on the NCAA men's basketball issues committee and in several leadership roles within the American Athletic Conference.

Prior to his time at Missouri, Babcock's 20-year career path included stops at West Virginia University, Auburn University, and James Madison University.

A native of Harrisonburg, Va., Babcock lettered four seasons in baseball at James Madison University and served as team captain his senior year. He earned his bachelor's degree from JMU in 1992. In 1996, he received his master's in sports management from West Virginia University.

He and his wife, Kelly, have three sons: Andrew, Brett and Eli.

DR. SANTA JEREMY ONO

28TH PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

Santa Jeremy Ono, PhD, is the 28th President at the University of Cincinnati. After serving on an interim basis for two months, he was appointed to the presidency on Oct. 23, 2012.

President Ono first arrived at UC in 2010, serving two years as the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost. As Provost, he led the development of an Academic Master Plan (AMP) aligned to the university's strategic plan, UC2019. The AMP, unveiled in May 2012, outlined an initial investment of about $10 million toward long-term strategic goals set for completion in UC's bicentennial year, 2019.

Dr. Ono is the first Asian American to serve as UC's chief executive and one of only a few Asian Americans to serve as president of a major research institution in the United States.

Dr. Ono also serves as Professor of Pediatrics within UC's College of Medicine and Professor of Biology in the McMicken College of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Ono's principal research interests focus on transcriptional regulation in the human immune system, mechanisms of mast cell dependent inflammation on the ocular surface and the immune component of age-related macular degeneration.

Prior to UC, Dr. Ono served at Emory University as Vice Provost for Academic Initiatives and Deputy to the Provost and then Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academic Affairs, also serving as Professor in the Department of Ophthalmology, Emory University School of Medicine.

Earlier in his career, he also served in a variety of teaching, research and administrative positions at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, Harvard Medical School (and the Schepens Eye Research Institute), University College London (UCL) and Moorfields Eye Hospital in London.

Effective in July 2013, the U.S. Department of State Office of Foreign Missions appointed Dr. Ono to serve as Honorary Consul of Japan.

Dr. Ono's service in the community includes the Cincinnati Business Committee and the boards of Ohio's Third Frontier, Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber of Commerce, Cincinnati Art Museum, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, CincyTech, UC Health, Uptown Consortium, United Way, and Japan America Society of Cincinnati. He chairs the UC Research Institute board, the United Way Research Council and the board of the Global HEED (Promoting Health, Education and Economic Development), and co-chairs the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky Early Grade-Level Reading Campaign. He is a member of the Chancellor's Ohio Completion Task Force of the Ohio Board of Regents as well as the Executive Committee of the STRIVE partnership and served on the Board of Advisors for Strive for College.

He has served on the Medical Research Council's Medical Advisory Board and College of Experts and the IMS and HAI study sections of the National Institutes of Health. He has consulted widely for companies such as GSK, Cambridge Antibody Technologies plc (now part of Astra Zeneca), Johnson & Johnson, Santen Inc. and Oxagen plc. He is chief scientific officer of iCo Therapeutics Inc., of Vancouver, Canada.

As a scholar and researcher, Dr. Ono has served on the editorial boards of the Journal of Immunology, Journal of Biological Chemistry, Immunology and the Journal of Allergy & Clinical Immunology.

Among his many honors and awards are the American Diabetes Association Career Development Award, the Investigator Award from the National Arthritis Foundation, the Brit Katz Award (Emory University), the Roche Laboratories Award for Excellence in Research, the Pharmacia International Award in Allergy Research. He was elected a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2012.

Dr. Ono earned his PhD at McGill University and his BA at the University of Chicago. His training in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at Harvard was supported by a Helen Hay Whitney Foundation Fellowship.

- » Rumors were swirling around the future of former head coach Butch Jones, who was eventually announced as Tennessee's head coach the morning of Dec. 7, 2012.
- » Hours later, director of athletics Whit Babcock addressed the media and announced 30-year veteran Steve Stripling as UC's interim head coach for the 2012 Belk Bowl.
- » Babcock swung for the fences and connected, as 30 hours later, on Saturday, Dec. 8, Tommy Tuberville was announced as UC's football head coach in front of an enthusiastic crowd of 3,000 UC supporters inside Fifth Third Arena.
- » Babcock said it best when he remarked to the crowd: "Now is the time and this is the place."

TWENTY-FOUR SENIORS HONORED PRIOR TO USF WIN

- » UC honored 24 seniors in a pregame ceremony before the 27-10 win over USF.

UC PLACES EIGHT ON ALL-BIG EAST TEAMS

- » Eight University of Cincinnati football student-athletes were named All-BIG EAST Conference for the 2012 season
- » Sophomore OT Eric Lefeld, junior OG Austen Bujnoch, senior TE Travis Kelce, senior DE Dan Giordano and junior LB Greg Blair were named to the first team while senior RB George Winn, senior DL Walter Stewart and junior P Pat O'Donnell were second-team honorees.
- » O'Donnell was a first-team honoree in 2011 and the only UC player to repeat all-league honors from a year ago.

STEWART FACES ADVERSITY

- » DL Walter Stewart was Second-Team All-BIG EAST Conference honoree despite being limited to five games this season due to a career-ending congenital spine abnormality that was discovered following the Fordham game.
- » Stewart tallied 22 tackles, with a season-best nine in the season opener against Pittsburgh.
- » He tied for the team high with 5.0 sacks and at the time of his injury was the BIG EAST's active career sacks leader with 17.0.
- » He also added a pair of forced fumbles and a pass break up.

THE GRADUATES

- » UC features four student-athletes who have finished their primary program of studies and are enrolled in a post-graduate program.

- » QB Brendon Kay (MBA program) and WR Danny Milligan are in graduate school. DB Dominique Battle and RB George Winn are both pursuing second undergrad degrees in paralegal studies.
- » Nine more, DB Cameron Cheatham, RB Adam Fearing, DL Dan Giordano, OL Sean Hooey, WR Bruce Horner, DB Malcolm Murray, DB Aaron Roberson, DL Walter Stewart and WR Kenbrell Thompkins, received bachelor's degrees at fall commencement on Dec. 15, 2012.

KAY WILL RETURN

- » Senior QB Brendon Kay was granted a sixth year of eligibility on Dec. 17, 2012 after the NCAA approved his request for an extension of eligibility waiver.
- » Kay, who suffered multiple injuries during his first four seasons at Cincinnati, missed participation opportunities in both 2008 and 2011. Based on contemporaneous medical documentation and the granting of a medical hardship waiver for the 2011 season by the conference office, the NCAA staff approved the granting of a sixth year of eligibility for Kay to utilize during the 2013-14 season.
- » Kay earned a bachelor's degree in health education during the spring of 2012 and is working towards a master's in business administration.

BLAIR BACK TOO

- » Senior LB Greg Blair, a First-Team All-BIG EAST selection, will also return in 2013 after the NCAA granted him a medical hardship for the 2011 season.
- » Blair, who joined the Bearcats prior to 2011 from Lackawanna CC, was limited to only a handful of plays in one game before suffering a season-ending injury.

ANCHORS

- » Offensive lineman Austen Bujnoch and Eric Lefeld both earned First-Team All-BIG EAST honors this season.
- » Bujnoch and Lefeld helped lead an offensive line unit that paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher for the third-straight year while surrendering only 13 sacks, a mark that ranks in the Top-20 in the NCAA FBS in 2012.
- » UC will return its entire starting offensive line for the 2013 season with only backup Sean Hooey scheduled to graduate. Hooey was a starter but missed six games due to injury and led to the emergence of redshirt freshman Parker Ehinger, who earned FWAA Freshman All-America honors, allowing the Bearcats to not miss a beat.

ANYONE WANT TO REVOTE THE MACKEY AWARD?

- » TE Travis Kelce, a First-Team All-BIG EAST honoree put together quite the campaign in 2012.
- » Kelce emerged as one of the top tight ends in the country, leading the Bearcats by hauling in 45 receptions for 722 yards and eight touchdowns, a mark that represents the best ever statistical season for a UC tight end.
- » He also has the unique distinction of scoring a TD by rushing (at Rutgers/2008), receiving (multiple times) and passing (at Connecticut/2012) through his UC career, a claim only one teammate, QB Brendon Kay, can share.

TOPPING 1,000

- » RB George Winn is the 15th 1,000-yard rusher in UC history and the third-straight year it has occurred.
- » It is the third time in school history UC has had a 1,000-yard rusher in three consecutive seasons. Isaiah Pead rushed for 1,029 yards (2010) and 1,259 yards (2011).
- » The last time it happened was when Reggie Taylor accomplished the feat from 1984-86. James Bettis (1980-81) and Alan Harvin (1982) were the first duo to reach the mark.

TAKING HIS SPOT AT THE TOP

- » RB George Winn has averaged 5.5 yards per carry and 102.6 yards per game with 13 TDs.
- » A year ago, Isaiah Pead averaged 5.3 yards per carry and 96.8 yards per game with 12 TDs.
- » Prior to the 2011 Liberty Bowl, Winn appeared in 23 games, carrying 73 times for 298 yards and a TD, a 4.1 ypc and 13.0 ypg average.

THE DEFENSIVE STAT THAT MATTERS

- » The UC defense is surrendering just 17.2 points per game, a mark that ranks 12th nationally and second in the BIG EAST Conference.
- » UC has held three of its last four opponents and five on the season to 10 points or less and also has held eight of 12 opponents to 17 points or less.
- » The 17.2 points per game is the lowest number of points given up by a Bearcats defense since the 1981 season. That year, UC's defense gave up an average of 17.0 points per game with its opponents scoring 187 points in 11 games.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

- » UC 5-0 when scoring 34 or more points in a game in 2012.
- » The Bearcats rank second in the BIG EAST and 49th in the NCAA FBS, averaging 30.7 points per game.
- » UC has scored 23 or more points in all but one game this season (Rutgers).

WINNING IN THE TRENCHES

- » UC has run for 200 or more yards in seven games this season after gaining 228 yards on the ground at Temple.
- » UC rushed a season-high 53 time for 263 yards against Syracuse and had a season-high mark of 272 yards against Miami (Ohio).
- » UC has scored at least one rushing TD in 11 of 12 games.

TEARING UP THE FIELD

- » UC finished with 472 yards of total offense at Temple (244 yards passing/228 yards rushing).
- » The Bearcats have eclipsed 425 yards of total offense in nine of their 13 games this season.
- » It's the 18th time (14-4 record) UC has surpassed the 400-yard mark since 2010.

PER-PLAY PERSISTENCE

- » UC averaged a Belk Bowl record 10.5 yards per play against Duke, tallying 554 yards on 53 plays.
- » The Bearcats' previous best in 2012 was 8.3 yards per play averaged against Fordham on Oct. 13 (472 yards in 57 plays) and the conference game best was 7.7 yards per play (472 yards on 61 plays) at Temple
- » UC's 6.6 yards per play average led the BIG EAST Conference and ranked ninth nationally.

CLOSING OUT GAMES

- » Late in the game at Temple, UC shut the door with a marathon 13-play, 71-yard drive capped by a Tony Miliano field goal that took 7:05 off the clock, marking the Bearcats longest scoring drive of the season.
- » UC has four 4th-quarter scoring drives of four minutes or more in 2012 and holds a 50-1 record since 2007 when holding a lead entering the fourth quarter.
- » The lone loss came in overtime at Louisville earlier this season.

CINCINNATI - Junior quarterback Munchie Legaux rushed for a career-high 132 yards and passed for another 205 and two touchdowns to lead the University of Cincinnati football team to a season-opening 34-10 win over Pittsburgh in front of 33,562 Thursday night at Nippert Stadium. In addition to Legaux's career day, UC senior running back George Winn rushed for a career-best 101 yards on just 11 carries and added two touchdowns, while sophomore Ralph David Abernathy IV produced a game-high 71 receiving yards and two scores of his own - both personal bests. Cincinnati's defense, which finished 2011 second in the NCAA FBS in sacks and first in tackles for loss, picked up where it left off a year ago, sacking Pitt quarterback Tino Suneri six times and recording 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Bearcats middle linebacker Greg Blair led the UC defense by produced a career-high 10 total tackles. Senior defensive ends Walter Stewart and Dan Giordano followed after each produced nine stops and combined for 2½ sacks. Cincinnati built a 14-0 lead just 4 minutes, 56 seconds into the game with two quick scoring drives and never looked back. After the Bearcats defense forced a three-and-out on Pitt's opening drive, Winn ripped a 58-yard touchdown run on their first offensive play from scrimmage for a 7-0 UC lead. Winn's score marked the second year in a row Cincinnati recorded a touchdown on its season-opening play from scrimmage after Isiah Pead produced a 40-yard scamper against Austin Peay on Sept. 3, 2011. Cincinnati executed a four-play, 38-yard drive on its second possession that was capped by Abernathy IV's first-career touchdown reception; a 15-yard catch-and-run down the left sideline that doubled the Bearcats lead to 14 points. Bearcats sophomore kicker Tony Miliano's 39-yard field goal with 2:51 left in the second quarter put Cincinnati in front 17-0. UC outgained Pitt 220-206 in the first half, including 113 yards on 8-of-16 passing from Legaux. Legaux and Abernathy IV connected on their second touchdown pass with 13:54 left in the game, putting the game out of reach after increasing Cincinnati's advantage to 31-3. Miliano added a second field goal - a 46-yarder with 3:55 left in the fourth - to increase the Bearcats lead to 34-3.					CINCINNATI - Senior running back George Winn rushed for a career-high 147 yards and the University of Cincinnati football team defeated Delaware State University 23-7 at Nippert Stadium. Winn is the third different Bearcat to run past the 100-yard mark in their last three games. Making his first career start for Cincinnati (2-0) was senior wide receiver Damon Julian, who produced a team-high 62 yards on four receptions, including his first career touchdown in the second quarter. UC outgained DSU 467-261, including a 259-101 rushing advantage, but managed just 23 points largely due to six turnovers. Junior QB Munchie Legaux ended the game 20 of 27 passing for 207 yards and two touchdowns, but ended the night with two interceptions and two fumbles. Defensively, UC linebacker Greg Blair led the Bearcats with seven total tackles, including one tackle for loss. Senior defensive tackle Brandon Mills and senior defensive back Aaron Roberson each produced one sack, while junior free safety Arryn Chenault came up with the first pick of his career. The UC offense continued its struggles with ball security in the second half as the Bearcats' first two possessions ended with red-zone turnovers. The first T.O. occurred on a forced pass in the end zone from Legaux that was picked off by Hornets junior free safety Davon Moore, while the second arrived via a muffed handoff exchange by Legaux at the DSU 11-yard line. Delaware State (1-1) got on the board at the 11:41 mark of the fourth quarter when junior running back Malcolm Williams broke away for a 60-yard touchdown run that decreased UC's lead to 20-7. UC built a 20-point halftime lead after outgaining the Hornets 327-107 through the first 30 minutes. UC's lead potentially could have been larger had it not been for three turnovers - one interception and two fumbles. Sophomore running back Jameel Poteat's one-yard touchdown rush capped a 10-play, 65-yard opening drive for the Bearcats, lifting UC to an early 6-0 lead with 8:17 left in the first quarter. Poteat's score, the second of his career, was set up by Winn's four carries and 43 rushing yards, which included a 31-yard run on Cincinnati's second play from scrimmage.

LANDOVER, MD. - Munchie Legaux hit Damon Julian for a 39-yard touchdown pass with 13 seconds to play, and Cincinnati beat Virginia Tech 27-24 Saturday.

Trailing by four after a Hokies touchdown, the Bearcats (3-0) took over at their own 15 with 1:43 to play and moved downfield in nine plays for the score, capping a seesaw fourth quarter that brought to life a sleepy game.

Cincinnati dominated in every way but the scoreboard, piling on the yards all game, and managed to finally escape with the win. Legaux completed 19 of 42 passes for a career-high 376 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. Kenbrell Thompkins also set career highs for Cincinnati with seven catches for 134 yards and a score.

The game was played at the Washington Redskins stadium, with Cincinnati giving up a home game for a chance to play in the vicinity of the nation's capital. Still, the Bearcats fans were an overwhelming minority compared to the Hokies' faithful, who had to travel half the distance of their counterparts.

The teams combined for 21 points in the fourth quarter after putting up just 20 in the first three. Michael Holmes spun into the end zone from 3 yards out with 8:37 to play to put Virginia Tech ahead 17-13, but Ralph David Abernathy IV's 76-yard catch-and-run score put the Bearcats back in front less than a minute later.

The Hokies then responded with Corey Fuller's 56-yard touchdown catch with 1:49 remaining.

The Bearcats run a spread offense, but they had more success with conventional drop-back pass plays. They took a 13-7 lead midway through the third quarter when Legaux, with plenty of time to throw, hit Thompkins wide open over the middle for a 29-yard touchdown.

Virginia Tech was outgained 165 to 72 - yet the Hokies had a just 7-6 lead to show for it. They didn't get a first down until Fuller's 15-yard reception with 5:17 to go in the half.

GAME 4 • OCT. 6, 2012 • NIPPERT STADIUM • CINCINNATI, OHIO • ATT.: 35,097

CINCINNATI - The No. 23 University of Cincinnati football team downed Miami University 52-14 in the 117th Battle for the Victory Bell at Nippert Stadium.

The crowd of 35,097 on hand for the Homecoming game marked the first sellout at Nippert Stadium since Nov. 27, 2009 when the fifth-ranked Bearcats topped Illinois 49-36.

The 52 points scored was the highest total of the season for the Bearcats and the most scored in the series since a 52-42 victory at Miami on Oct. 30, 1999.

UC (4-0) put up a season-high 290 rushing yards, led by senior George Winn with 131 yards on 16 carries and two touchdowns. Junior Munchie Legaux threw for 157 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior Danny Milligan and freshman Tion Green both scored their first career touchdowns for the Bearcats. Milligan's came by way of an 11-yard reception from Legaux in the first quarter for a 14-6 lead. Green closed the scoring in the fourth quarter with a 1-yard rush to give the Bearcats the 52-14 advantage.

Defensively, Cincinnati picked off three interceptions, including senior Camerron Cheatham's 68-yard touchdown return to open the scoring for the Bearcats. It was his second career interception return for a touchdown. Junior Deven Drane and senior Greg Blair also recorded interceptions for UC. The Bearcats also forced one Miami fumble when sophomore Camaron Beard stripped the ball from Jamire Westbrook. Junior Arryn Chenault recovered the ball for his first career fumble recovery.

The RedHawks drove the ball down the field on the first drive of the game, going 75 yards on seven plays. The touchdown was a 19-yard pass from Zac Dysert to Dawon Scott at the 11:31 mark to put Miami up 6-0. A bad snap forced a failure on the point after to keep the lead at six.

The Bearcats entered the half with a 24-14 lead and a 122 to 57 advantage in rushing yardage. Miami held a 203 to 80 advantage in passing yards and a 260 to 202 advantage in overall yards.

A 58-yard return on the opening kickoff of the second half by sophomore Ralph David Abernathy IV started a five play, 39-yard scoring drive for the Bearcats. The drive was capped by a 19-yard touchdown pass from Legaux to senior Travis Kelce to give UC a 31-14 lead. Kelce's touchdown reception was his first of the season and the third of his career.

CINCINNATI - Munchie Legaux passed for two scores and ran for another and 21st-ranked Cincinnati scored on every second-half possession to roll over Fordham, 49-17 on Saturday night.

Deven Drane scooted 76 yards for a touchdown after picking up a fumble and Legaux tossed a 78-yard scoring pass to Travis Kelce in the first half before the Bearcats methodically dominated on both sides of the ball with long, impressive drives in the second half.

The Bearcats (5-0) stayed perfect but the Rams (4-3), playing up a level from the Football Championship Subdivision, hung around for a half. The win was Cincinnati's 24th straight in nonconference games at Nippert Stadium and upped its overall winning streak to eight in a row.

After a sloppy first two quarters, the Bearcats came alive on offense. Legaux, Ralph David Abernathy IV and Jordan Luallen scored on runs to start the third quarter and the rout was on.

Legaux raced eight yards for the score on the Bearcats' first possession to start the second half. After the defense forced a punt, Cincinnati came right back down the field. This time Abernathy took a handoff from Legaux, slashed inside left tackle and sped down the middle of the field on a 36-yard scoring run for a 28-6 lead. Milligan's 42-yard punt return led to another quick score, with wide receiver Jordan Luallen taking the direct snap and skirting left end from 1 yard out to cap a five-play sprint to the end zone.

Milligan then caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from Legaux to swell the lead to 42-14 early in the fourth quarter. Brendon Kay also scored on a 1-yard keeper.

Cincinnati's defense held Fordham running back Carlton Koonce, averaging 135 yards rushing a game, to 72 on 22 carries.

In a weird start, the Rams ran off the first 22 offensive plays of the game - and still trailed 7-3.

Taking the opening kickoff, they moved quickly to a first down at the Cincinnati 17. But Higgins was sacked by defensive end Dan Giordano and the ball popped loose. Drane picked it up almost in stride and raced untouched down the field for the touchdown.

TOLEDO, Ohio - Bernard Reedy scored on a 91-yard kickoff return and Toledo beat No. 21/18 Cincinnati 29-23 on Saturday night, handing the Bearcats their first loss of the season.

Cincinnati's only lead came late in the third quarter, and it only lasted a few seconds. Reedy was barely touched as he scampered up the field to put the Rockets in front 26-20.

Toledo (6-1) also got five field goals from Jeremiah Detmer, the last one coming with 42 seconds left after the Rockets ate up seven minutes with a pivotal drive. The Rockets have won six straight an after opening loss at Arizona.

The Bearcats (5-1) had one last chance, Munchie Legaux's second interception of the game ended any hope for the Bearcats. Jermaine Robinson returned Legaux's first interception for a 75-yard touchdown in the first half.

UC's defense held the Rocket's potent offensive attack without an offensive touchdown and to 355 yards of total offense, a low for the Bearcats against an FBS team in 2012.

Legaux had 228 yards passing and 66 yards on the ground, but never seemed to get on track. His 25-yard touchdown pass to leaping receiver Damon Julian gave the Bearcats a short-lived 20-19 lead. Nothing went right for the Bearcats early on.

They fell behind 10-0 when Legaux floated a pass into the chest of Robinson, who ran down the sideline midway into the first quarter.

Cincinnati appeared set to build some momentum when Deven Drane recovered what was initially was ruled a Toledo fumble caused by Greg Blair inside its own 10-yard line, but the officials changed the call after looking at the replay.

Toledo punted just once in the first half and controlled the game early on, but a handful of long plays for the Bearcats brought them back.

Ralph David Abernathy IV's 52-yard run set up Legaux's 2-yard scoring plunge, cutting Toledo's lead to 13-7. Tony Miliano added a pair of field goals on the Bearcats' next two possessions to get them within three at the half.

Blair set a career and game high with 15 tackles.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) - John Wallace's kicked a 30-yard field goal in overtime to lead No. 16 Louisville to a 34-31 victory over Cincinnati.

Cincinnati (5-2, 1-1 Big East) led 24-14 with 10:26 remaining in the third quarter, but needed a late touchdown pass by Munchie Legaux just to get to overtime.

Louisville (8-0, 3-0) stopped a four-game slide in the series against Cincinnati and captured the Keg of Nails trophy that goes to the winner of the rivalry.

Teddy Bridgewater connected with DeVante Parker for two terrific touchdowns after the Cardinals fell behind by 10 in the third.

Parker's tying 30-yard grab in the fourth was initially ruled incomplete. He juggled the ball near the back of the end zone but brought it in with one foot inbounds, and it was changed to a touchdown after a replay review.

Parker gave the Cardinals the lead with a 64-yard catch-and-run with 1:56 remaining, but the Bearcats tied it at 31 on Legaux's 26-yard pass to Damon Julian with just over a minute left.

Bridgewater overcame a slow start and completed 24 of 41 passes for 416 yards and the pair of TD strikes to Parker, who had four catches for 120 yards. Legaux ran for a score but tossed three interceptions, including the costly mistake in overtime.

George Winn rushed for 125 yards on 26 carries for the Bearcats, who led by 10 points twice but dropped their second consecutive game after a 5-0 start. Ralph David Abernathy had touchdown runs of 14 and 4 yards.

Louisville grabbed a 7-3 lead on Jeremy Wright's 1-yard plunge but Cincinnati bounced back with Abernathy's first scoring run and Legaux's TD to build a 17-7 advantage with 8:05 left in the first half.

The Cardinals responded with their best drive of the night, marching 80 yards down the field. Senior Perry's 8-yard touchdown run trimmed Cincinnati's lead to 17-14 at the break.

It was a rough half for both quarterbacks. Bridgewater was just 9 of 22 for 154 yards and his fourth interception of the season, while Legaux was 4 of 15 for 54 with two INTs.

Cincinnati began the second half with another impressive drive, going 73 yards in 10 plays for another 10-point cushion on Abernathy's 4-yard TD run.

CINCINNATI - Senior running back George Winn set career highs in rushing yards (165), attempts (30) and total touchdowns (4) to lead the University of Cincinnati football team to a 35-24 win over Syracuse University at Nippert Stadium.

Cincinnati outscored SU 21-7 in the second half and received contributions from three quarterbacks to notch its second BIG EAST Conference win of the season in a game that featured six lead changes.

Senior quarterback Brendon Kay came off the bench in the third quarter in relief of junior Munchie Legaux and led the Bearcats to two straight touchdown drives. Kay would finish the game 3 for 3 passing for 32 yards and his first-career touchdown. Legaux went 11 of 22 for 124 passing yards, while adding 39 rushing yards on six carries, and redshirt junior Jordan Luallen totaled 32 rushing yards and 14 through the air.

With Syracuse leading 24-21 midway through the third quarter, UC senior defensive back Chris Williams blitzed off the right edge and sacked SU quarterback Ryan Nassib from behind, forcing a fumble that was recovered by senior defensive lineman Dan Giordano at the SU 15-yard line.

Three plays later on third-and-eight, Kay rolled to his right before throwing a cross-field pass to senior tight end Travis Kelce on the left side. With two blockers and just one defender in front of him, Kelce trotted into the end zone for Kay's first career touchdown pass and a 28-24 UC lead. Kelce ended the day with career highs in receptions (4) and touchdowns (2) for a team-best 77 yards.

The Bearcats pulled away 35-24 on their next possession. Winn accounted for all 42 yards of the four-play drive, which included back-to-back 18-yard rushes, before he ran it in from two yards out for his third rushing TD of the game with 14:22 to go in fourth.

Cincinnati scored 1:47 into the game after Winn punched in a five-yard touchdown run. The four-play scoring drive was set up by Bearcats freshman Deionte Buckley, who forced SU sophomore Jeremiah Kobena to fumble the opening kickoff, which was recovered by UC freshman Jeremy Graves at the Orange 28-yard line.

With the Bearcats facing a fourth-and-two to begin the second quarter, Winn took the handoff and threw a 37-yard jump pass to Kelce to put UC ahead 14-10 at the 14:53 mark. It was the first-career touchdown pass for Winn.

	Cincinnati	34
	Temple	10

PHILADELPHIA - Cincinnati scored on four of its last five first-half possessions and rode that momentum to a 34-10 BIG EAST Conference victory over Temple.

Senior quarterback Brendon Kay, making his first career start for the Bearcats (7-2, 3-1), was an efficient 13-for-21 for 244 yards, including a pair of touchdown passes of 75 and 65 yards. But Kay did a little of everything, rushing for 71 yards on seven carries and also making a 5-yard reception, when he caught his own deflected pass.

Kay showed some big-play ability, connecting with wide receivers Kenbrell Thompkins (75 yards) and Chris Moore (65 yards) on touchdown passes.

Temple (3-6, 2-4), in its first BIG EAST season, lost for the fourth straight time.

Kay didn't turn the ball over in directing the Bearcats on scoring drives of 74, 75, 80, 94 and 71 yards. UC's final drive of the game, which lasted 13 plays and ate 7:05 off the clock was the team's longest of the season and was capped by a 23 field goal from Tony Miliano who also connected on a 22-yard kick just before the half.

The Bearcats were in firm control by halftime. A 29-yard Kay completion to Anthony McClung, along with a Temple personal foul penalty, in the first quarter helped set up the first of George Winn's two 1-yard touchdown runs. Kay's 40-yard run on a third-and-12 play in the second quarter set up Winn's second score.

Winn finished the game with 83 yards on 20 carries, his 10th-straight game gaining 75 or more yards, dating back to the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Temple, which has been outscored 86-27 in the first half the last three weeks, was able to do little against Cincinnati. The Owls' leading rusher, Montel Harris, injured his left knee after losing 3 yards on a screen pass with 12:38 left in the second quarter and never returned.

Temple starting quarterback Chris Coyer was replaced by Clinton Granger in the second half. Granger promptly guided the Owls to their only touchdown, ending an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive with a 4-yard touchdown pass to Cody Booth with 8:55 left in the third quarter.

The UC defense was guided by linebackers Maalik Bomar and Greg Blair who had six tackles apiece and safety Drew Frey who added three tackles, one for a loss, two pass breakups and an interception.

	Cincinnati	3

CINCINNATI - The University of Cincinnati football team dropped a hard-fought contest to No. 22/20 Rutgers University by a score of 10-3 Saturday afternoon at Nippert Stadium.

The game was a 60-minute defensive struggle for the Bearcats, as they were unable to put points on the scoreboard until 11 seconds left in the fourth quarter when Tony Miliano kicked a 36-yard field goal to make the score 10-3.

The Bearcats defense was not to be outdone by Rutgers, which entered the game fifth nationally in points allowed, as the Scarlet Knights scored zero points in three red-zone trips. The 10 points allowed by UC were the fewest in a loss since the Bearcats played Rutgers on Sept. 5, 1987.

Greg Blair led the way with a game-high 12 tackles, while defensive backs Cameron Cheatham and Dominique Battle each picked off Rutgers QB Gary Nova, who finished the day 11-19 passing for 186 yards and one touchdown.

In his second career start, Cincinnati quarterback Brendon Kay went 17 for 31 passing for 251 yards, while adding a team-best 72 rushing yards on 13 carries. Running back Ralph David Abernathy (84) and George Winn (65) led the Bearcats in all-purpose yardage, while senior tight end Travis Kelce caught a game-high five pass for 50 yards.

The Scarlet Knights took a 7-0 lead with 6:13 remaining in the second quarter when Nova connected with Mark Harrison for a 71-yard touchdown pass that capped a five-play, 97-yard drive

Two timely interceptions by the UC defense kept the Bearcats to within one touchdown as they trailed 7-0 at halftime.

The Bearcats missed another scoring opportunity on their opening drive of the second half. Facing a fourth-and-one on the Rutgers 7-yard line, Winn was dropped for a one-yard loss.

A Kay interception set up a Rutgers drive the saw the Knights erase 6:11 off the play clock as they moved the ball down the to the UC 5-yard line. However, Rutgers kicker Nick Borgese's attempted 22-yard field goal was blocked by Jordan Stepp, which kept the Bearcats within one possession.

CINCINNATI - The University of Cincinnati football team defeated South Florida 27-10 on Senior Day at Nippert Stadium, keeping alive the program's goal of a fourth 10-win season in five years. UC (8-3, 4-2 BIG EAST) RB George Winn rushed for 119 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns, while QB Brendon Kay passed for 178 yards and one TD while adding 52 yards and a score on the ground. Travis Kelce produced a career-high seven receptions for 58 yards and a touchdown to lead the Bearcats offensive attack. Kelce now has 507 receiving yards on the season, which surpassed Joe Koynock's 1990 mark of 496 yard for the UC all-time single-season leader for a tight end. Defensively, LB Greg Blair recorded a game-high 14 total tackles, while DL Dan Giordano and John Williams added seven and six stops, respectively, to lead the Bearcats defense. Winn scored his second touchdown with 12:12 left in the game when he muscled his way to the end zone on a 4-yard rush that capped a six-play, 66-yard drive and gave Cincinnati a 27-3 lead. USF (3-8, 1-5 BIG EAST) reached the 10-point plateau at the 7:19 mark in the fourth quarter when senior running back Demetrius Murray scampered in the end zone from five yards out. UC took a 13-point lead into halftime after outgaining USF 188-95, including a 101-48 advantage in rushing yardage. The Bearcats defense set up the first points of the game when Giordano recovered Murray's unforced fumble at the USF 17-yard line at the 7:24 mark of the first quarter. Two players later, Kay rushed 18 yards to the left pile-on for the touchdown and a 7-0 UC lead. Cincinnati took a double-digit lead with 2:58 remaining in the second quarter after completing an 11-play, 81-yard drive when Kay threw a 3-yard touchdown strike to Kelce, who was wide open in the back of the end zone. A missed point-after attempt by Tony Miliano made the score 13-0 Bearcats. USF produced its first points of the game on its opening drive of the second half. Starting on their own 27-yardline, the Bulls move the ball 65 yards in the nine plays before place kicker Maikon Bonani made a 25-yard field goal, which cut Cincinnati's lead to 13-3 with 8:01 left in the third quarter. On UC's third possession of the second half, a 48-yard pass from Kay to senior receiver Kenbrell Thompkins preceded a 3-yard touchdown run by Winn that gave the Bearcats a 20-3 lead at the 3:06 mark of the third quarter.					E. HARTFORD, Conn. - Brendon Kay threw two touchdown passes to Travis Kelce, and caught one from the big tight end on a trick play as Cincinnati beat Connecticut 34-17 on Saturday to earn UC's fourth BIG EAST Conference Championship in five years. UC (9-3) was part of a four-way split for the league title, along with Louisville, Rutgers and Syracuse, all of which ended the season with 5-2 conference records. Cincinnati's two conference losses came to the Cardinals and Scarlet Knights and the Bearcats were not in the running for the conference's Bowl Championship Series bowl berth. Kelce caught five balls for 69 yards and the two scores. Kay completed 19 of his 29 passes for 245 yards and the two scores. Chandler Whitmer threw for 264 yards and a touchdown for UConn (5-7, 2-5), before leaving the game with a head injury in the third quarter. Kay hit Kelce for a 25-yard touchdown on the Bearcats' opening drive, one of three passes of at least 25 yards during the six-play, 76-yard march. Kelce returned the favor in the second quarter. An interception return by Chris Williams set the Bearcats up on the UConn 39. On first down, Kelce took a backward screen pass from Kay and threw the ball back across the field to his quarterback, who ran down the right side for a touchdown that made it 14-0. Kay found Kelce from 21-yards out on the opening drive of the second half to give the Bearcats a 21-10 lead. Kelce and Kay came into the program together as quarterbacks. Whitmer started for UConn despite being knocked out of last week's win over Louisville with a head injury. He left this game in the third quarter after taking a shot from Greg Blair on a trick play and hitting his head on the turf. A bad pass by backup QB Johnny McEntee that was intercepted by Drane set up another Bearcats touchdown, a 4-yard run by George Winn, his 12th touchdown this season. That came after Tony Miliano had made it a seven-point game, hitting a 38-yard field goal with 12 minutes left. His 42-yarder with 6 minutes left put a bow on the game.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - The last month was pure chaos for quarterback Brendon Kay and the Cincinnati Bearcats. That made Thursday night's Belk Bowl victory all the more rewarding.

Duke running back Josh Snead fumbled at the Cincinnati five with 1:20 left and Kay threw an 83-yard touchdown pass to tight end Travis Kelce with 44 seconds to go, lifting the Bearcats to an improbable 48-34 win over the Blue Devils.

The Bearcats won without former head coach Butch Jones and both coordinators who helped guided them to the postseason.

Kay, who set a Belk Bowl record with four touchdown passes and was named the game's MVP, called it a "huge win."

"It's really been chaos for the last month ... pure chaos," Kay said. "We've played it off as it hasn't been but it was pure chaos from the time we found out (Jones) he was leaving."

Almost as chaotic as their latest win.

With the score tied at 34 and Duke driving for a go-ahead score, Snead fumbled and Kay capitalized with his go-ahead scoring pass to Kelce. Nick Temple capped the wild finish with a 55-yard interception return with 14 seconds left.

"We were figuring we might get one more shot as an offense and when we got the fumble we looked at each other and said we've worked way too hard to quit now," Kay said.

Kay quickly took advantage of the change in momentum after the Snead fumble, finding Kelce down the middle on a seam route. Kelce got behind the Duke defense and caught the ball in stride, racing the final 60 yards to the end zone as Blue Devils fans looked on in stunned silence.

It was a play called Left Texas 60, Y Go Burst, with three receivers running seam routes.

"I threw the ball and I was just hoping he would turn and look," Kay said. "He wasn't looking until the last second and it worked out great."

Kay also threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Ralph David Abernathy, and 25-yard scoring strikes to Anthony McClung and Chris Moore. George Winn also ran for a 46-yard touchdown for Cincinnati.

"I felt like a point guard dishing out the ball," Kay said. "The guys were making plays."

Cincinnati (10-3) finished with its fifth 10-win season in six years.

"That was one of our goals," said Bearcats interim coach Steve Stripling.

Duke quarterback Sean Renfree threw for 358 yards - another Belk Bowl record - for the Blue Devils (6-7), who were seeking their first bowl win since 1961. Conner Vernon, the ACC's all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards, had 10 catches for 119 yards and a touchdown in his final game for the Blue Devils.

But the big play for Duke was Snead's fumble.

"It's heartbreaking because we wanted to win this game for our seniors," Snead said. "But as a team, we're going to learn from this and build off the momentum from this. I've got great teammates. They encouraged me to keep my head up. If you have a little adversity, you've got to face it."

Duke coach David Cutcliffe said the loss was tough to swallow.

"This feeling in our guts is not very good right now," Cutcliffe said. "But we're going to move forward with this. The biggest insult we can give our seniors is to not move forward from this and we will do this."

Duke, which came in having allowed 51 points and an average of 294.5 yards rushing over its previous four games, struggled to stop Cincinnati after the first quarter.

The Bearcats piled up 554 total yards of offense, including 130 yards on the ground by Winn. Duke wasn't too shabby on offense, either, combining with the Bearcats for a Belk Bowl-record 1,114 yards.

Cincinnati trailed 16-0 before rattling off 27 straight points to seemingly take control, and the big turning point came courtesy of linebacker Greg Blair.

With Duke leading 16-3 and looking for more, Renfree fired a pass over the middle for running back Jela Duncan, who lunged for the goal line but was hit by Blair and fumbled. Blair recovered and suddenly the Bearcats had a shot.

"That seemed to fire us up on the sidelines," Blair said. "It gave us some life."

A short time later, Kay connected with McClung to cut the Duke lead to 16-10. Kay's second scoring pass to Abernathy capped a 98-yard drive in the final two minutes of the first half and gave the Bearcats their first lead.

BELK BOWL POSTGAME NOTES

- » UC has won two straight postseason games and moves to 8-6 all-time in bowl games.
- » UC is one of only four NCAA FBS AQ programs to have won 10 games in five of the past six seasons, joining Alabama, Oklahoma and Oregon as teams who have achieved the mark.
- » UC has six double-digit win seasons in 125 years of football.
- » UC has won 65 games over the past seven seasons, the most among the current membership of the BIG EAST Conference.
- » Over the past two years, UC has gone 20-6, won a pair of BIG EAST titles and has won two bowl games, the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl and 2012 Belk Bowl.
- » UC wore red helmets in a game for the first time since 1982.
- » UC scored a rushing touchdown in 12 of 13 games this season.
- » The Bearcats intercepted 15 passes on the season
- » UC topped 425 yards of total offense in nine of 13 games this season.
- » Duke blocked a UC punt in the first quarter and Tony Foster returned it for a score. It was the first time UC had a punt blocked for a touchdown since Nov. 27, 2004 when Louisville's Tiger Jones returned a blocked punt for a TD.
- » UC's offense averaged 10.5 yards per play against Duke and achieved its third-highest point total of 2012.
- » UC's 332 yards passing was its second-highest total of the season.
- » UC blocked its third kick of the season on Duke's first extra point attempt.
- » After trailing 16-0 in the first quarter, UC led 17-16 and scored 21 points in the fourth quarter, including a pair of touchdowns in the final 44 seconds to earn the 48-34 win.
- » UC set school records for points scored in a bowl game (48), total offense (554 yds), fewest offensive plays (53) and tied the marks for most passing TDs (4) and most total TDs (5).
- » UC set or tied six Belk Bowl team records, including highest per play average (10.5), most passing TDs (4), highest yards per rush average (7.9), most points by the winning team (48), most turnovers forced (4) and tying the mark for most points in one quarter (21/WWU, 2008; Virginia, 2002).
- » The two teams combined to set or tie seven Belk Bowl records, including the marks for most combined points (82), first downs (54), total yards (1,114), pass completions (55), passing yards (692), yards penalized (107) while tying the record for most TD passes (6/WWU-UNC, 2008).

2013 CINCINNATI FOOTBALL

HISTORY

BEARCATS FOOTBALL HISTORY

THE 1924 BEARCATS

JONATHAN RUFFIN

CONNOR BARWIN

The University of Cincinnati football team, under the direction of 17-year veteran head coach Tommy Tuberville, will play its 126th season of football in 2013.

The Bearcats program dates to 1885 and ranks as one of the 10 oldest in major college football and following a 10-3 campaign in 2012, holds an all-time mark of 571-556-51.

UC has won four of the past five BIG EAST Championships, played in a bowl game in six of the past seven seasons and won 65 games over the last six years, the most among current members of the American Athletic Conference.

In 2010, UC reached as high as No. 3 in all three major polls (Associated Press, USA Today, Bowl Championship Series).

UC's football program is one of the nation's oldest — only Rutgers (1869), Michigan (1879), Navy (1880), and Minnesota (1883), among NCAA Division I institutions, predate Cincinnati, which began the sport in 1885.

UC has been involved in several historic college football milestones starting with Dec. 8, 1888. That day, the Bearcats and Miami (Ohio) University engaged in the first college football game played in the state of Ohio, launching a rivalry that is tied for the oldest in the game among major universities — North Carolina vs. Wake Forest began playing that same year. The Battle for the Victory Bell is the fifth-most played rivalry series in college football.

A few years later in 1897, UC received an invitation to visit New Orleans to play a football game as a reward for a successful season. The game was a precursor to the current postseason football bowl games.

In the 1930s, a UC football player wore a device with his helmet to protect his broken nose. The device was a forerunner of the now standard face mask. The first soccer-style place kick was also attempted by a Bearcat, Hank Hartong, in the early 1960s.

Coaching luminaries have patrolled the sidelines at Cincinnati. College Football Hall of Fame coach Frank Cavanaugh began his 24-season career at UC. Sid Gillman, a member of the College and NFL Halls of Fame, was the architect of one of the top eras of Cincinnati football history. He directed the Bearcats to three conference titles and a pair of bowl game appearances during his six seasons (1949-54) before leaving for the professional ranks. Cincinnati, with Gillman developing the passing offenses which would make him successful in the pro ranks, became known for its aerial attack in the early 1950s. That notoriety continued long after his departure.

In 1968, the Bearcats were the nation's top passing team with quarterback Greg Cook leading the NCAA in total offense, while receiver/kicker Jim O'Brien captured the national scoring title. A year later, Cook earned Rookie of the Year honors as a Cincinnati Bengal, and two years later, O'Brien kicked the game-winning field goal for the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl V.

With more than 100 players advancing into the professional ranks and nine earning Super Bowl wins, 41 earning all-America honors, and 11 garnering academic all-America recognition, Cincinnati football has clearly made an important impact on college football with its long history of accomplishments.

>> BOWL-CATS Cincinnati has been to 10 bowl games over the last 13 seasons and 14 in the program's 125 seasons. UC played in the first Bowl Championship Series game in school history, taking on Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2009.

>> ALL-AMERICA TRADITION Forty-one Bearcats have earned All-America recognition. Mike Woods garnered first-team honors in 1977, earning him an appearance on Bob Hope's television special. Punter Kevin Huber became the first two-time First-Team Associated Press all-American in UC history when he earned the honor in 2007 and 2008.

>> "THE TOE" Jonathan Ruffin received the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2000 after booting a record 26 field goals. He was presented the award by ESPN's Chris Fowler. Ruffin was also a consensus all-American that year.

>> TROPHY GAMES The Bearcats are involved in three trophy games. Cincinnati's annual clash with the Miami RedHawks is the nation's eighth-oldest and 11th longest running rivalry in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision. The winner of the yearly fall battle claims the Victory Bell. The winner of the UC-Louisville contest takes home the Keg of Nails, while the winner of the UC-Pittsburgh game stakes claim to the recently created River City Rivalry Trophy. UC currently holds two of the three trophies.

>> UPSET CATS UC football has been dangerous to top teams over the years, knocking off the likes of No. 8 Wisconsin, 17-12, at home in 1999, going to defending national champion Penn State in 1983 and upending the Nittany Lions, 14-3, and dominating Virginia Tech, 16-0, in 1995 while allowing just 41 yards of offense. However, possibly the biggest upset in UC history came in 2006 as the Bearcats beat its highest-ranked opponent in Nippert Stadium history, blowing away then-No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11.

>> CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL With a 57-21 record since the 2007 season, the Bearcats have become relevant on the national stage once again. In 2008, UC claimed the BIG EAST Conference title, the school's first outright conference crown since 1946. The Bearcats climbed as high as No. 12 in the Associated Press, and USA Today Top 25 polls on the way to a school-record 11 wins. In 2009, UC set a school-record with 12 wins, finished No. 3 in the final Bowl Championship Series rankings, won its second-straight BIG EAST crown, and played in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Bearcats played in four straight bowl games for the first time in school history. In 2011, UC won its third BIG EAST crown in four years and finished ranked in both the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls. In 2012, UC became the only FBS AQ school in the country to win its fourth conference title in the past five years.

BEARCATS FOOTBALL HISTORY

1885 UC fielded its first football team under the organization of Arch Carson, who served as the first coach. The team won a pair of games over a club from neighboring Mt. Auburn.

1888 Cincinnati and Miami faced off in Oxford for the first college football game in the state of Ohio. The game ended in a scoreless tie but launched a rivalry that is tied for the honors of being the oldest among major college schools.

1897 Following a 7-1-1 season--the lone loss was to the fabled Carlisle Indians--Cincinnati was invited to celebrate New Years in New Orleans and play a contest against the host Southern Athletic Club. A day after their victory, the Bearcats accepted a challenge from LSU and also defeated the Tigers.

1898 Frank Cavanaugh, immortalized as the Iron Major, began his head coaching career at Cincinnati. He was elected to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame at the conclusion of his illustrious career.

1901 Cincinnati played its first home game at the current site of Nippert Stadium, defeating Hanover, 18-0.

1912 Cincinnati scored a school-record 124 points in a shutout win over Transylvania. Ike Stewart and Bob Heuck each tallied six TDs and Alonzo Wells kicked 12 PATs, all UC records.

1914 Cincinnati teams first used the nickname Bearcats.

1915 Construction began on permanent stadium seating and facilities.

1922 George McLauren, another UC mentor to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, began his four-season tenure as UC's head coach.

1923 Nippert Stadium was the site of the first night football game in the Midwest as Cincinnati defeated Kentucky Wesleyan, 17-0. In the season-ending game vs. Miami, Jimmy Nippert sustained a spike wound and died a month later of blood poisoning. His grandfather, James Gamble, donated the money needed to finish the stadium construction.

1924 Nippert Stadium was dedicated.

1933 UC won the first of two straight Buckeye Athletic Association titles.

1934 UC played its first Homecoming game, defeating Marshall, 7-0.

1935 The Bearcats' first NFL players, Bill Feldhaus (Detroit) and Ray Nolting (Chicago), lead UC to a 7-2 record before embarking on their pro careers.

1942 UC hosted No. 2 Georgia at Nippert Stadium. The Bulldogs won, 35-13, and won the Rose Bowl a few months later. The other lone blemish on UC's 8-2 record was to Sugar Bowl victor Tennessee.

1943-44 Football suspended due to World War II.

1946 Cincinnati defeated defending Big 10 Conference champion Indiana in the season opener en route to a 9-2 record. The season was capped by the Bearcats' first bowl appearance. UC defeated Virginia Tech, 18-6, in the Sun Bowl.

1947 UC won its first Mid-American Conference championship. The Bearcats won four crowns in their six-year association with the league.

1949 Sid Gillman took over as head coach and promptly piloted UC to a Mid-American Conference title and a win over Toledo in the Glass Bowl. Tom O'Malley's 1,617 passing yards led the nation.

1950 The Bearcats advanced to the Sun Bowl but are edged by West Texas State, 14-13.

1951 UC posted an all-time best record of 10-1. Gene Rossi and Bob Stratton became the first Bearcats to earn all-America recognition.

1953 Cincinnati led the nation in both total offense (409.5 yards per game) and total defense (184.3), a feat accomplished by only three other teams in college football history.

1954 Sid Gillman left for the Los Angeles Rams after directing UC to an 8-2 ledger. In six seasons under the eventual college and pro hall of fame coach, the Bearcats posted a 50-13-1 record and won three Mid-American Conference titles.

1956 UC led the nation in punt return average, averaging 17.7 yards per return.

1959 Dave Canary became the first of 11 Bearcats to earn academic all-America honors. Canary eschewed pro football possibilities to pursue a successful acting career and became a regular in several TV series. Teammates Jack Lee and Jim Leo were named MVP of the Senior Bowl and College All-Star games, respectively.

1963-64 Cincinnati won back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles under Chuck Studley, who went on to become head coach of the Houston Oilers. UC compiled a 14-6 record during those two seasons.

1968 Cincinnati led the nation in passing offense, averaging 335.8 yards per game. Greg Cook led the nation in total offense, amassing 3,210 yards, while receiver/kicker Jim O'Brien was the nation's leading scorer with 142 points.

1970 Bob Bell became the second Bearcat in as many seasons to be a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

1976 Cincinnati defeated Arizona State and Vanderbilt en route to a 9-2 ledger. Co-Captain Mike Woods earned first-team all-America honors and was a second-round draft pick by the Baltimore Colts.

1983 UC opened the season with a 14-3 upset of defending national champion Penn State at Beaver Stadium.

1985 The Bearcats upset a pair of 1984 bowl teams, Virginia Tech and Boston College.

1986 UC hosted the No. 1 Miami Hurricanes at Nippert Stadium. The Hurricanes validated its ranking with a 45-13 win.

1992 Nippert Stadium reopened to full use following an extensive renovation. The Bearcats hosted No. 8 Penn State in the season opener, and nearly pulled off the upset before falling, 24-20.

1995 Robert Tate led the nation in kickoff return average, averaging 34.3 yards on 15 returns. Tate was named both Offensive and Special Teams MVP in Conference USA.

1996 Cincinnati began competition in Conference USA. The Bearcats posted back-to-back crowds of 30,729 for Kentucky and 30,887 for Miami University, breaking the old stadium attendance record.

1997 Cincinnati ended a draught of 47 seasons without a bowl game appearance when it was selected to play in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl. The Bearcats defeated Utah State, 35-19, to finish the year at 8-4.

1999 Cincinnati upset No. 8 Wisconsin, 17-12 in Nippert Stadium.

2000 UC won five of its last six games to finish second in Conference USA and earn a bid to play Marshall in the Motor City Bowl. Jonathan Ruffin became a first consensus first-team all-America choice and received the 2000 Lou Groza Award after leading the nation in field goals.

2001 The Bearcats opened the season against No. 25 Purdue in front of a sellout Nippert Stadium crowd. UC won its first four league games en route to a second-place finish in Conference USA and second straight trip to the Motor City Bowl. Quarterback Gino Guidugli is named the C-USA Freshman of the Year after setting school and league freshman records by throwing for 2,573 yards and 16 touchdowns.

2002 Cincinnati set school and Conference USA single-game attendance marks when 66,319 packed Paul Brown Stadium to see UC play eventual national champion Ohio State. UC won its final five league games to claim a share of the C-USA title, its first league championship since 1964. Quarterback Gino Guidugli threw for 3,543 yards, one of five season records set by the sophomore. UC earned a bowl bid for a record third straight year, playing in the New Orleans Bowl.

2004 The Bearcats recovered from a 2-4 start to win five of their last six games, including a convincing 52-24 victory over No. 21 Southern Miss. UC was selected for the Fort Worth Bowl where the Bearcats defeated Marshall, 32-14.

2005 Cincinnati began play in the BIG EAST Conference

2006 The Bearcats posted a 7-5 regular-season mark, playing a schedule that featured five teams ranked in the Top 10 at the time they faced UC. After a couple of near misses against those ranked foes, UC downed No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11, before a national television audience. Cincinnati earned a berth in the inaugural International Bowl in Toronto, Ont. The UC squad earned a 27-24 win over Western Michigan.

2007 The program equaled the school single-season record for wins, posting a 10-3 record and earning a No. 17 ranking in the final Associated Press poll. It marked the first time UC ended the season among the nation's Top 25 programs. Three Bearcats earned all-America honors, including punter Kevin Huber, who was the school's second consensus selection.

2008 The Bearcats had a banner season that included 11 wins, the program's first BIG EAST Conference Championship, a final ranking of No. 17 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Top 25 polls, and a Bowl Championship Series appearance in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2009. Five UC players earned all-America honors while punter Kevin Huber became the first two-time First Team Associated Press all-America selection in school history.

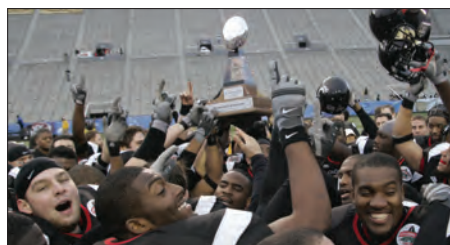

2009 Cincinnati ran off a school-record 12-straight wins, achieved a best-ever ranking of No. 3 in the country (AP/USA Today/BCS) and won its second-straight BIG EAST Conference Championship before falling to Florida in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl. Wide receiver Mardy Gilyard re-wrote parts of the UC record book on the way to earning AFCA First-Team All-America honors.

2010 In 2010, the Bearcats led the BIG EAST in scoring offense (27.1 ppg), total offense (417.3 ypg), passing offense (260.7 ypg), first downs (21.9 pg), third-down conversions (45.6 pct.), and touchdown passes (27). Wide receiver Armon Binns and quarterback Zach Collaros were both First-Team All-BIG EAST selections while five other teammates earned All-BIG EAST honors. Nineteen players were named Academic All-BIG EAST and John Goebel earned the 2010 American Eagle Outfitters BIG EAST Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year award.

2011 UC was the most improved NCAA FBS AQ team in 2011, finishing with a 10-3 mark, a Top-25 final ranking, winning its third BIG EAST Conference title in four years and knocking off SEC foe Vanderbilt in the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the program's first bowl win over a BCS opponent. Eight student-athletes earned All-BIG EAST accolades in 2011, including BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year Isaiah Pead and BIG EAST Co-Defensive Player of the Year Derek Wolfe. Wolfe, a senior defensive tackle, earned spots on five All-America teams and JK Schaffer was named the 2011 American Eagle Outfitters BIG EAST Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

2012 UC closed out its sixth 10-win season in 125 years of football. The Bearcats are one of only four NCAA FBS AQ programs to have won 10 games in five of the past six seasons, joining Alabama, Oklahoma and Oregon as teams who have achieved the mark. UC also won its fourth conference championship in the past five seasons an earned a victory over Duke in a thrilling come-from-behind effort in the 2012 Belk Bowl.

BOWL HISTORY

Cincinnati's proud football history includes a number of firsts, possibly including the first postseason bowl game.

The NCAA Official Football Records recognizes the Rose Bowl, which was started in 1902, as being the first collegiate bowl game. A manuscript written by former UC athletic director Bill Schwarberg points to a bowl appearance by Cincinnati that pre-dates the Rose Bowl by five years.

Schwarberg, who played for the Bearcats from 1933-36 and served as interim Director of Athletics in 1976, cited a record in the University's McMicken Review. It indicated that following the 1897 season, Cincinnati became the first institution from Ohio to make a trip south to play in a postseason game.

Cincinnati posted a 7-1-1 record that year, which included a 34-0 win over Ohio State. The lone team to beat UC was the powerful Carlisle Indians.

Shortly after Thanksgiving, management of the Cincinnati team received an invitation from the Southern Athletic Club to play a game in New Orleans on New Year's Day. A travel party of 14, which included the substitutes and the coach and manager, departed for New Orleans on Dec. 30 where they were hosted by the Southern Athletic Club. Accounts of the game have UC winning with ease by a score of 16-0.

At a victory party that evening, players from Louisiana State challenged the Bearcats to a game the next day in Baton Rouge. UC accepted the challenge and overwhelmed the LSU team, 28-0. Accounts of the trip describe lavish entertainment provided during the trip.

If this was indeed UC's first bowl game, it was 49 years before the Bearcats again experienced postseason play.

The post-World War II influx of veterans into colleges rejuvenated college athletics, and with that came a surge of new bowls. Cincinnati capped a successful 1946 season with a trip to the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. There, the Bearcats defeated Virginia Tech, 18-6.

UC made appearances in the Glass Bowl in Toledo in 1949 and returned to the Sun Bowl at the end of the 1950 campaign.

Cincinnati then went 47 years without a bowl appearance. That drought was broken when the Bearcats played in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho in 1997.

With Conference USA developing alliances with five bowls, the Bearcats made three straight bowl appearances in 2000, 2001 and 2002--the first two in the Motor City Bowl in Detroit and the third in the New Orleans Bowl.

In 2004, UC was selected to represent Conference USA in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl, the Bearcats' fourth bowl appearance in the past five years. UC defeated Marshall, 32-14, in that contest.

After the 2006 season, Cincinnati earned its first BIG EAST Conference bowl appearance after knocking off Connecticut in the season finale. In unusual circumstances following Mark Dantonio and his staff's departure to Michigan State before the bowl game, UC hired Brian Kelly from Central Michigan who came in and in just 34 days prepared UC and defeated Western Michigan University, 27-24, in the inaugural International Bowl in Toronto, Ontario.

Following a 9-3 regular season in 2007, the Bearcats earned victory number 10 in the Papajohns.com Bowl with a 31-21 win against former Conference USA foe Southern Mississippi.

UC made history again in 2008, following a school-record 11 wins in the regular season and the programs' first BIG EAST Championship. The Bearcats earned their first ever trip to a Bowl Championship Series Game, taking on Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

The Bearcats followed up their 2008 successes by winning their second-straight BIG EAST Championship in 2009 after a perfect 12-0 regular season. Climbing to No. 3 in the final Bowl Championship Series rankings, UC earned a spot in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl against the Florida Gators, coached by UC alum Urban Meyer.

UC has an 8-6 all-time bowl record and has played in the postseason in four of the past five seasons, including back-to-back victories in the Liberty (2011) and Belk (2012) bowls.

ALL-TIME BOWL RECORD

The University of Cincinnati has been well-represented on the lists of professional and college coaching greats, a legacy which continues into 2012 with a proliferation of former Bearcats mentors, assistant coaches and players in the NFL, CFL and major university ranks.

Sid Gillman has long been the standard-bearer for Bearcat coaching greats. Gillman, whose 50-13-1 record in his six seasons in the late 1940s and early 1950s is one of the winningest marks at UC, is one of the few coaches to earn induction into both the college and professional football halls of fame. His UC success vaulted him into the NFL, with the Los Angeles Rams.

Two other members of the College Football Hall of Fame, Frank Cavanaugh, George Little, launched their head coaching careers at UC. Cavanaugh, the legendary "Iron Major" for his accomplishments as a coach and war hero at Army, in 1898, and Little, who earned fame at Michigan and Wisconsin, in 1914-15. Former UC assistants Dick MacPherson and Don Nehlen are also in the College Football Hall of Fame. MacPherson, a UC assistant in the early 1960s, concluded a distinguished career at Syracuse. Nehlen, on the 1963 UC staff, was West Virginia's winningest coach following his 21 seasons there.

One-time Bearcats mentors Homer Rice (1967-68), and Chuck Studley (1961-66) were NFL head coaches at Cincinnati and Houston, respectively, as were former assistants Leeman Bennett (Atlanta) and Jack Faulkner (Denver).

Nick Skorich, a member of the UC Athletic Hall of Fame for his football prowess in the 1940s, was head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Browns.

Twenty-seven former UC players or assistants went on to head coaching jobs in the college or NFL ranks and a trio of former Bearcats assistants, John Harbaugh (Baltimore Ravens), Rex Ryan (New York Jets), and Mike Tomlin (Pittsburgh Steelers) are current NFL head coaches. Harbaugh was a UC assistant from 1989-96, Ryan from 1996-97, and Tomlin was on the UC staff from 1999-2000.

Both Harbaugh and Tomlin have assistants on their staff with UC ties. Amos Jones (1999-2002) is an assistant special teams coach in Pittsburgh. Jerry Rosburg (1992-95) serves on Harbaugh's staff in Baltimore as the Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams and has coached in the NFL for over 10 years. Don Martindale (1997-98), a former UC defensive line coach, joined the Ravens staff in 2012 coaching the inside linebackers and senior offensive assistant Craig Ver Steeg was on the UC staff from 1990-93 and has coached nearly 30 years at all levels of football.

The Cleveland Browns staff features former UC letterwinner in offensive line coach George Warhop (1981-82). Warhop, a center during his time at UC, has coached in the NFL for 17 seasons during stints for the Browns, Arizona Cardinals, Dallas Cowboys, and St. Louis Rams.

Bill Davis, a quarterback at UC (1985-88) is a 21-year veteran as an NFL assistant, currently serving as defensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles. He previously was a coordinator for the Arizona Cardinals and San Francisco 49ers. Eagles inside linebackers coach Rick Minter was UC's head coach from 1994-2003 and Philly's defensive backs coach John Lovett coached for 35 years in the college ranks, including two stops at Cincinnati (1989-92, 2013) before heading to the NFL.

Bob Wylie has four decades of coaching football under his belt that includes 18 years at the professional level. He coached at UC in the mid 1990s and spent time as the Oakland Raiders offensive line coach. He currently works for Blesto and is consulting with EA Sports on the Madden Football video game franchise.

Former UC offensive line coach Larry Zierlein (1997-2000) recently wrapped up a 40-year coaching career that included nearly 10 years in the NFL and a win in Super Bowl XLII I with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008. Rick Christophel (1983) was the head coach at Austin Peay from 2007-12 and is now the tight ends coach for the Arizona Cardinals.

Former UC aide Bill Sheridan (1989-91) is defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers while Tracy Rocker (1997) is coaching with the Tennessee Titans after a storied collegiate career that included a stint with 2010 National Champion Auburn.

Former defensive coordinator Mark Duffner (1977-80) was a collegiate head coach at Holy Cross and Maryland before coaching in the NFL for the Cincinnati Bengals and Green Bay Packers. He is currently the Jacksonville Jaguars linebackers coach.

In Canada, former Bearcats player and coach Dave Ritchie directed British Columbia and Winnipeg to Grey Cup titles, the Canadian Football League's Super Bowl, and former UC quarterback Danny Barrett spent six years as the head coach of the Saskatchewan Roughriders (2000-06). Barrett is now the running backs coach at UCF.

UC's representation in the college coaching ranks is highlighted by a trio of former assistants. Paul Dietzel, an aide to Gillman in 1949-50, directed LSU to the national title in 1958 and later coached at Army and South Carolina. Other UC assistants to garner head coaching positions include Foge Fazio (Pittsburgh), Mark Duffner (Holy Cross, Maryland), Chuck Stobart (Toledo, Utah, Memphis), Lou West (Indiana State) and Ron Zook (Florida, Illinois).

Joe Morrison, a standout as a Bearcats player and later for the New York Giants in the NFL, achieved similar success during his 15 seasons as a major college head coach. His grandson Max is a sophomore wide receiver on UC's 2013 squad.

Urban Meyer, a Bearcat in the mid-1980s and later a student assistant coach, carved out an impressive career at Florida following successful stints at Bowling Green and Utah, spent a year as a college football analyst for ESPN and is now the head coach at Ohio State.

Six former UC assistants are current head coaches at the collegiate level, including Dan Enos (Central Michigan), Jeff Filkovski (North Carolina Wesleyan), Jimbo Fisher (Florida State), Charley Molnar (Massachusetts), Don Treadwell (Miami OH) and Jeff Quinn (Buffalo).

Former UC assistant Greg Hudson (1997-2000) is Fisher's Assistant Head Coach/Defense at Florida State and former assistant Joker Phillips (1997-98) was the head coach at Kentucky and is now Florida's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator.

Several former UC assistants are coordinators at NCAA FBS schools including former UC letterwinner Mike Bajakian (OC Tennessee) Tim Banks (DC Illinois), Bob Diaco (DC Notre Dame), Greg Hudson (DC Purdue) John Jancek (DC Tennessee), William Inge (Co-DC Indiana), Pat Narduzzi (DC Michigan State) and Joe Tressey (DC Youngstown State).

Former UC letterwinner Dana Bible just wrapped up a storied career as a collegiate assistant, with his last stop coming as the OC at NC State.

Tom Rossley, who set many UC receiving records, spent nearly four decades in the coaching ranks at the college and NFL levels, including a stint as head coach at SMU and six seasons as the offensive coordinator for the Green Bay Packers. He most recently was the quarterbacks coach at Texas A&M.

Former assistant Harry Hiestand (1987-93) spent five years with the Chicago Bears and now serves as the offensive line coach at Notre Dame.

Entering its 112th season, Carson Field at Nippert Stadium is the venerable home of the University of Cincinnati football team and provides the Bearcats with one of the best home-field environments in college football.

An $86-million renovation and expansion project to Nippert Stadium was formally approved by the UC Board of Trustees in June. Construction on both the west and east sides of the stadium is due to begin in December 2013 and is scheduled for completion in August 2015.

On the west side, a new press box structure will be built, adding suites, scholarship club seats and patio suites/loge boxes. The west concourse will also be renovated, including concession stands and restrooms.

Improvements on the east side include expanded and additional concession offerings and restroom facilities along with enhanced fan traffic flow, including the building of skywalks to connect the upper deck with the gameday brick plaza on O'Varsity Way.

Construction began on Nippert Stadium in 1916 and was completed in 1924. UC has used the Nippert site as a playing field since 1901, making it the second-oldest playing site in the nation for college football behind Penn's Franklin Field (1895).

Among NCAA FBS schools, Nippert is the third-oldest stadium still in use, behind Bobby Dodd Stadium (Georgia Tech - 1913), Davis Wade Stadium (Mississippi State - 1914) and ahead of Wisconsin's Camp Randall Stadium, which was built in 1917.

USA Today recently named Nippert as the best home-field venue in the BIG EAST Conference and ESPN's Scott Van Pelt cited Nippert as a "one of the gems of college football."

The Bearcats have established program attendance standards over the last six seasons. UC drew a total of 30,246 fans in 2007 before setting back-to-back-to-back regular season average records with program-best clips of 31,965, 33,957 and 35,067 in 2008, 2009 and 2010, respectively.

Through numerous renovations, the structure situated in the middle of the Clifton campus has retained its early-century brickwork, wrought iron gates, and trim giving Nippert a comfortable old-time stadium charm and appeal, while remaining a classic showplace for college football. On Nov. 27, 2009 in a game against the University of Illinois, a crowd of 35,106 filled the stadium, setting a single-game attendance record for the fourth time in 2009.

Prior to the 2013 season, UBU Sports' Speed Series S5-M synthetic turf system was installed as the playing surface at Nippert, the same product used at Paul Brown Stadium, the Mercedes Benz Superdome in New Orleans and the Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minn. The same surface is scheduled to be installed into MetLife Stadium in New Jersey, the home field of the New York Giants and New York Jets and the home of Super Bowl XLVIII.

The stadium's field orientation was shifted slightly north and west to even out the sideline areas and add a run-off area around the south endzone.

The last major renovation occurred in 2005 when a new, permanent grandstand added new and improved seating in the North endzone. Underneath the structure are new game locker rooms for both the Bearcats and the visiting team. The scoreboard features a new video board, nearly twice as large as the previous display.

The stadium's founder was Arch Carson, who as captain and principal organizer played a significant role in starting football on the UC campus in 1885. In 1901 as physical director of the university, Carson guided the construction of the field which was later named for him -- the playing surface is still called Carson Field.

In 1916, construction began on a permanent brick-and-concrete stadium structure, which was completed, section-by-section, as funds were raised.

During the season-ending clash with rival Miami (Ohio) in 1923, Jimmy Nippert sustained a spike wound injury and died a month later from blood poisoning. His grandfather, James N. Gamble of Procter and Gamble, provided the funds needed to complete the horseshoe-shaped structure, and the James Gamble Nippert Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 8, 1924.

In 1936, the playing field was lowered 12 feet to allow spectator seating to increase to 24,000. The Reed Shank Pavilion was added in 1954 to bring the capacity to 28,000. In 1991, the capacity was upped to 35,000 through extending the upper deck, now called the Herschede-Shank Pavilion, and a new pressbox was constructed.

Artificial turf was first installed in 1970 and in 2000, the stadium became one of the first in the U.S. to utilize FieldTurf, a grass-like synthetic surface.

The stadium served as home for the American Football League expansion team, the Cincinnati Bengals, in 1968 and 1969, while their eventual permanent home at Riverfront Stadium was being constructed.

Along with this, the stadium has served as a venue for concerts by Britney Spears, Michael Jackson, NSYNC, Janet Jackson, KT Tunstall, The North Mississippi All-Stars, The Roots, the Cincinnati Opera Company and many more.

On November 2, 2008, President Barack Obama held a campaign rally at Nippert two days before the 2008 Presidential Election to an estimated 27,000 attendees.

2012 BELK BOWL

Cincinnati 48, Duke 34

Dec. 27, 2012 • Charlotte, N.C.

The last month was pure chaos for quarterback Brendon Kay and the Cincinnati Bearcats. That made Thursday night's Belk Bowl victory all the more rewarding.

Duke running back Josh Snead fumbled at the Cincinnati five with 1:20 left and Kay threw an 83-yard touchdown pass to tight end Travis Kelce with 44 seconds to go, lifting the Bearcats to an improbable 48-34 win over the Blue Devils.

The Bearcats won without former head coach Butch Jones and both coordinators who helped guided them to the postseason.

Kay, who set a Belk Bowl record with four touchdown passes and was named the game's MVP, called it a "huge win."

Almost as chaotic as their latest win.

With the score tied at 34 and Duke driving for a go-ahead score, Snead fumbled and Kay capitalized with his go-ahead scoring pass to Kelce. Nick Temple capped the wild finish with a 55-yard interception return with 14 seconds left.

Kay quickly took advantage of the change in momentum after the Snead fumble, finding Kelce down the middle on a seam route. Kelce got behind the Duke defense and caught the ball in stride, racing the final 60 yards to the end zone as Blue Devils fans looked on in stunned silence.

It was a play called Left Texas 60, Y Go Burst, with three receivers running seam routes.

Kay also threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Ralph David Abernathy, and 25-yard scoring strikes to Anthony McClung and Chris Moore. George Winn also ran for a 46-yard touchdown for Cincinnati.

Cincinnati (10-3) finished with its fifth 10-win season in six years. But the big play for Duke was Snead's fumble.

Duke, which came in having allowed 51 points and an average of 294.5 yards rushing over its previous four games, struggled to stop Cincinnati after the first quarter.

The Bearcats piled up 554 total yards of offense, including 130 yards on the ground by Winn. Duke wasn't too shabby on offense, either, combining with the Bearcats for a Belk Bowl-record 1,114 yards.

Cincinnati trailed 16-0 before rattling off 27 straight points to seemingly take control, and the big turning point came courtesy of linebacker Greg Blair.

With Duke leading 16-3 and looking for more, Renfree fired a pass over the middle for running back Jela Duncan, who lunged for the goal line but was hit by Blair and fumbled. Blair recovered and suddenly the Bearcats had a shot.

A short time later, Kay connected with McClung to cut the Duke lead to 16-10. Kay's second scoring pass to Abernathy capped a 98-yard drive in the final two minutes of the first half and gave the Bearcats their first lead.

2011 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

Cincinnati 31, Vanderbilt 24

Dec. 31, 2011 • Memphis, Tenn.

University of Cincinnati Head Coach Butch Jones rang the bell on the AutoZone Liberty Bowl trophy, eager to get the Bearcats' party started.

Isaiah Pead ran for 149 yards and a TD, and Ralph David Abernathy IV's 90-yard kickoff return early in the fourth quarter put Cincinnati ahead to stay as the Bearcats edged Vanderbilt 31-24.

The Bearcats (10-3) capped the season with their third straight victory by snapping a two-game skid in bowl games. They also notched their fourth 10-win season in the past five years, bouncing back from 4-8 in 2010 during Jones' first season.

But the 2011 BIG EAST Conference co-champs had to work to put away Vanderbilt (6-7), a team that tied for fourth in the Southeastern Conference's East Division, despite forcing three turnovers and coming up with two sacks. The Commodores led 21-17 when Abernathy became the first Cincinnati player to return a kickoff for a TD in the program's 13 bowl appearances.

Abernathy is the grandson of the civil rights leader who was in Memphis with Martin Luther King when he was assassinated in 1968 at the Lorraine Motel, a few miles away from the Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium.

Pead was the game's MVP, and J.K. Schaffer was UC's defensive MVP, finishing with nine tackles, including one for a loss and a sack.

BOWL GAMES HISTORY

2010 ALLSTATE SUGAR BOWL

No. 5 Florida 51, No. 3 Cincinnati 24
Jan. 1, 2010 • New Orleans, La.

The University of Cincinnati football team, reeling from the resignation of former head coach Brian Kelly, saw its perfect season blemished with a loss to Florida in the 2010 Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Tim Tebow threw for a career-high 482 yards and three touchdowns, ran for 51 yards and another score, and fifth-ranked Florida (13-1) overwhelmed No. 4 Cincinnati (12-1) 51-24 inside the Louisiana Superdome.

Cincinnati, who donned white helmets for the game for the first time since 1966, was playing in its second straight BCS game. Kelly resigned in early December to take the head coaching job at Notre Dame.

Quarterback Tony Pike completed 27 of 45 passes for 170 yards and three scores, all in the second half when the outcome was no longer in doubt.

UC was held to a season low 246 yards of total offense, including a season low 170 passing yards by the Gators defense.

Mardy Gilyard finished the game with seven receptions, giving him 204 career receptions which ties Dominick Goodman and LaDaris Vann as the UC record holders in career catches.

Florida finished with a Sugar Bowl-record 659 yards of total offense

2009 FEDEX ORANGE BOWL

No. 21 Virginia Tech 20, No. 12 Cincinnati 7
Jan. 1, 2010 • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Mardy Gilyard had 255 all-purpose yards and a touchdown catch, but it was not enough as No. 21 Virginia Tech knocked off No. 12 Cincinnati, 20-7, in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

Gilyard had seven receptions for 158 yards and a touchdown, along with 97 kickoff return yards for Cincinnati (11-3), which had its six-game winning streak snapped. Tony Pike threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but had his night marred by four interceptions and getting stopped on a fourth-and-goal in the fourth quarter.

The Bearcats took the opening kickoff, sent their spread offense onto the field, and made the Hokies look very confused. Pike found Gilyard for a 38-yard pickup on the third play from scrimmage, and they hooked up for a spectacular 15-yard touchdown three plays later.

Facing a third-and-9 from the right hash, Pike waited before lofting a fade to the far left of the end zone. Gilyard took off on a sprint, made a diving catch as he sailed out of bounds and managed to just barely drag his right toe on the turf painted in Virginia Tech's colors for a 7-0 UC lead.

The Hokies defense held UC to 137 yards, stifled the Bearcats running game (eight carries, 11 yards) over the remainder of the half, and battled their way to a 10-7 lead by intermission.

Darren Evans, the game's MVP, had 28 carries for 153 yards and a TD.

Terrill Byrd led the UC defense with 11 tackles, including 10 solo stops, four tackles for a loss, and a sack. Brandon Underwood had six tackles, including a sack and an interception.

2007 PAPAJOHNS.com BOWL

No. 20 Cincinnati 31, Southern Miss 21
Dec. 22, 2007 • Birmingham, Ala.

Ben Mauk shrugged off mistakes and Southern Miss defenders, helping No. 20 Cincinnati make another entry in an impressive season.

The hard-to-tackle Mauk passed for 334 yards and four touchdowns, and DeAngelo Smith intercepted three passes, leading the Bearcats to a 31-21 victory over Southern Miss in the PapaJohns.com Bowl.

The victory gave UC (10-3) its second 10-win season and first since 1951, virtually assuring a spot in the final rankings for the first time.

Mauk, the game's most valuable player, completed 30-of-52 passes and overcame three interceptions to become only the third Bearcats player to have a 3,000-yard passing season.

Mauk, who also rushed for 41 yards and frequently broke loose from defenders to make plays, threw three touchdown passes during an 8-minute span extending into the second half.

Cincinnati stopped punter Britt Barefoot on a fake punt on fourth-and-1 from his own 29 and Mauk hit Earnest Jackson for a 29-yard TD strike on the next play for a 21-7 lead. Mauk struck again with a 10-yarder to Antwuan Giddens and set up a 22-yard field goal by Jake Rogers in the final seconds of the third quarter to put the Bearcats up 31-14.

Young cut into the lead again with a 5-yard touchdown pass to Chris Johnson but Southern Miss could not recover an onside kick or convert a fourth-and-1 play on its next possession.

2007 INTERNATIONAL BOWL

Cincinnati 27, Western Michigan 24
Jan. 6, 2007 • Toronto, Canada

The International Bowl provided Cincinnati fans a preview of what Brian Kelly has in store as UC knocked off Western Michigan, 27-24.

Kevin Lovell's 33-yard field goal with 6:11 remaining provided the winning margin for Cincinnati and Western Michigan's 51-yard field goal try with 1:26 left fell short.

Dominick Goodman was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Butler Benton led UC rushing attack with 62 of the team's combined 126 yards against the Broncos—a defense that was ranked fifth nationally defending the run.

John Bowie put UC on the scoreboard first when he gathered in a tipped pass and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. On Cincinnati's next drive, Davila connected on a 21-yard TD toss to Goodman. Goodman later hauled in a second touchdown pass in the second quarter.

The reeling Broncos used some trickery on the first play following Lovell's field goal. E.J. Biggers, on a double reverse, lofted the ball to Jamarko Simmons for a 76-yard touchdown.

The Broncos' defense got the ball right back and Cubit tossed a 30-yard scoring pass to close the gap to 24-14. A miscue by the UC offense—Davila's pass was deflected and intercepted with 23 seconds to play in the half—setting up Nate Meyer's 29-yard field goal.

2004 FORT WORTH BOWL

Cincinnati 32, Marshall 14
Dec. 23, 2004 • Fort Worth, Texas

Cincinnati's seniors capped their careers with a dominating performance in a 32-14 win over Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl.

Linebacker Tyjuan Hagler started things by blocking a punt one minute into the game, which was returned by Antwan Giddens for a touchdown. Hagler forced a fumble to set up one of three Kevin Lovell field goals, recorded a sack and had a team-high seven tackles to earn a spot on Football News' all-bowl team.

Trent Cole and Andre Frazier each recorded sacks while leading the defensive pursuit from their end positions. Cole also blocked a punt for a safety. UC's defense held the Thundering Herd to 134 total yards, minus-3 yards rushing.

Gino Guidugli capped his stellar career with his guttiest performance. Playing with a broken hand, Guidugli completed 24-of-36 passes for 231 yards and staked the Bearcats to their lead with a pair of second-quarter TD tosses. Guidugli was to be limited to shotgun snaps, but with the running game sputtering, he moved under center in the second quarter, a move which energized the offense. UC gained 168 yards on the ground, 62 by Richard Hall who capped his senior season with 1,000 yards. Hannibal Thomas caught nine passes for 102 yards to top the 1,000-yard mark in receiving.

2002 NEW ORLEANS BOWL

North Texas 24, Cincinnati 19
Dec. 17, 2002 • New Orleans, La.

Kevin Galbreath rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown to earn MVP honors as North Texas defeated Cincinnati, 24-19.

After Cincinnati took an early 7-0 lead on a six-yard pass from Gino Guidugli to Tye Keith, North Texas ran off 24 straight points to build a 24-7 advantage.

Patrick Cobbs put the Mean Green ahead for good, 10-7, when he broke free for a 27-yard TD run with 10:53 left in the half. UNT extended the lead to 17-3 at the intermission when Jeremy Pearl returned a Guidugli interception 20 yards for a TD.

The Bearcats rallied as Jonathan Ruffin connected on field goals of 29 and 33 yards, the second allowing him to break his own school record with 13 straight field goals made. Franklin Callicott pulled UC to within 24-19 when he stripped Cobbs of the ball in the backfield and raced 43 yards for a touchdown with 5:15 left.

Cincinnati would not get the chance to come any closer as North Texas used a time-consuming ground game to key an 11-play drive to run out the clock.

DeMarco McCleskey rushed 23 times for 85 yards to set the UC season rushing record with 1,361 yards. Jon Olinger's four catches for 107 yards raising his season receiving total to 1,114 yards, allowed the senior to break Jim O'Brien's 34-year old record of 1,107 receiving yards.

SUMMER ROSTER

2001 MOTOR CITY BOWL

Toledo 23, Cincinnati 16

Dec. 29, 2001 • Pontiac, Mich.

Chester Taylor rushed for a bowl-record 190 yards, including a game-winning 24-yard touchdown with 3:23 left to lead Toledo to a 23-16 win over Cincinnati in the Motor City Bowl.

Cincinnati had a chance to tie the game in the closing moments but could not score following a first down at the 11 yard line.

Tavares Bolden was 14-for-28 for 135 yards and ran for 99 yards, which helped the Rockets set a Motor City Bowl-record with 322 yards rushing. Toledo held Cincinnati to just 13 yards on the ground, also a record in the five-year history of the bowl.

Taylor's 24-yard touchdown capped an 80-yard drive, which he sparked with three carries for 52 yards. The third-team all-America selection had a bowl-record 31 carries.

After Todd France gave Toledo a 3-0 lead on a 28-yard field goal with 9:24 left in the first quarter, the Bearcats ran off 13 straight points to take a 13-3 halftime lead. Jonathan Ruffin sandwiched field goals from 29 and 46 yards, the latter coming as time expired in the first half, around a 28-yard Gino Guidugli touchdown pass to Tim Walker.

Toledo pulled even after three quarters as France connected on a 42-yard field goal and Tavares Bolden scored on a 28-yard run with 1:44 left in the third. Both teams put together long drives on the first two possessions of the fourth quarter but settled for field goals.

Guidugli was 29-for-46 for 283 yards and a touchdown. Tye Keith caught a bowl-record nine passes for 63 yards.

2000 MOTOR CITY BOWL

Marshall 25, Cincinnati 14

Dec. 27, 2000 • New Orleans, La.

Byron Leftwich threw for one touchdown and rushed for another to help Marshall rally for 16 second-half points to defeat Cincinnati, 25-14, in the Motor City Bowl.

Cincinnati used a pair of DeMarco McCleskey touchdown runs to build a 14-9 halftime lead.

Marshall jumped on top, 7-0, when Leftwich connected with Darius Watts on a 77-yd catch and run. UC came right back, driving 67 yards in nine plays, culminating with McCleskey leaping over the pile to score from two yards out with 8:28 left to tie the game.

The Thundering Herd regained the lead with 2:35 left in the first quarter when Michael Owens tackled running back Ray Jackson in the endzone for a safety.

Antwan Peek recovered a Leftwich fumble at the Marshall 21 to set up McCleskey's second score, a two-yard run with 1:44 left in the half.

Marshall scored a pair of third quarter touchdowns, a one-yard run by Leftwich on its opening drive, and a Frank Wallace four-yard run with 7:24 left.

The Cincinnati offense, which ran up 181 yards of total offense in the first half, struggled after intermission, failing to score on any of its six possessions.

Leftwich paced the Thundering Herd, completing 17-of-30 passes for 221 yards while UC's Deontey Kenner connected on 19-of-39 passes for 189 yards and a pair of interceptions.

1997 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Cincinnati 35, Utah State 19

Dec. 21, 1997 • Boise, Idaho

Chad Plummer threw for a touchdown and ran for another score and Cornelius Bonner caught two touchdown passes as Cincinnati defeated Utah State, 35-19, in the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl.

Deontey Kenner, who rotated at quarterback with Plummer, completed 10-of-16 passes for 124 yards and one touchdown for Cincinnati, which had not played in the postseason since the 1951 Sun Bowl.

Plummer, voted the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 5-of-10 passes for 61 yards while rushing 15 times for 53 yards.

Bonner, who had 48 yards on four receptions, caught touchdown passes of 14-yards each from Plummer and Kenner as the Bearcats raced to a 21-0 halftime lead.

The Bearcats held a 265-76 advantage in rushing yards while holding the ball for more than 42 minutes.

Utah State's Steve Smith turned a five-yard pass from Matt Sauk into a spectacular 75-yard touchdown as he broke tackles and outran the secondary.

Melvin Blue's three-yard TD run capped an 80-yard drive in just 1:54, but the Aggies missed the extra point and trailed 35-13 with 29 seconds left in the third quarter.

1951 SUN BOWL

West Texas A&M 14, Cincinnati 13
Jan. 1, 1951 • El Paso, Texas

A missed extra point in the second quarter proved to be the difference as West Texas A&M edged Cincinnati, 14-13, in the 16th annual Sun Bowl.

The Buffaloes took a 7-0 lead three minutes into the second quarter. Bill Cross capped off a 57-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

Cincinnati used the passing game to come back. On a 68-yard scoring drive, quarterback Gene Rossi completed a 36-yard pass to Joe Benzinger and short passes to Dick Jarvis and Dan McKeever. When Dan McKeever was injured on a running play, he was replaced by his brother, Tom, who carried three straight plays, the last a three-yard touchdown.

Jim Kelly's extra-point attempt went wide right and proved to be important as the game progressed.

Cincinnati claimed its first lead, 13-7, when Rossi threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Bob Stratton and Bill Shalonsky added the extra point.

West Texas A&M used a trick play on a fake punt to score the game-winning touchdown. Faced with a fourth and long, punter Frank Wise moved under center, took the snap and lateraled to the right to quarterback Gene Mayfield. Mayfield completed a pass to Cross at the UC 40 and Cross broke several tackles to finish the 62-yard touchdown pass. Roy Lee Dunn added the extra point to give West Texas A&M a 14-13 lead.

Cincinnati could not take advantage of its best scoring chance in the fourth when Shalonsky's 35-yard field goal attempt went wide right.

West Texas A&M drove 79-yards to the UC one but the Bearcat defense held on a fourth down play. With time running out, the Bearcats moved to the Buffaloes' 27 on a long pass to Kelly, but the game ended when Rossi was sacked on successive plays.

1949 GLASS BOWL

Cincinnati 33, Toledo 13
Dec. 3, 1949 • Toledo, Ohio

Cincinnati used a strong defense and solid play on special teams to dominate Toledo, 33-13, in the fifth annual Glass Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter the Bearcats recorded a safety when Jack Tracy trapped Rocket back Emerson Cole in the end zone. Following a Toledo fumble, UC's Bob Stratton scored the first of his two touchdowns on a 10-yard run. He later added a 29-yard TD early in the third quarter.

Gene Gibson showed his open-field running skills with a pair of touchdowns. He returned a punt 76-yards in the third quarter to give the Bearcats a 27-6 lead. On the next possession, Don Jansen intercepted a Toledo pass and pitched it to Gibson who returned it 80 yards for the score.

UC outgained Toledo, 330-286 on offense, but owned a lopsided advantage on special teams. The Bearcats returned punts, kickoffs and interceptions for 258 yards while the Rockets managed only 97 return yards.

1947 SUN BOWL

Cincinnati 18, Virginia Tech 6
Jan. 1, 1947 • El Paso, Texas

The Bearcats played in their first-ever bowl game in school history, earning an 18-6 victory over Virginia Tech in the 12th annual Sun Bowl.

Both teams struggled offensively in the first half, due largely in part to the three inches of snow that fell in El Paso the day before the game.

The Bearcat offense dominated play in the second half. UC out-rushed the Gobblers, 369 to 34 for the game, scoring all three touchdowns on the ground.

After a scoreless first half, Cincinnati took the second half kickoff and drove 75 yards for the game's first score, a 13-yard run by sophomore Harold Johnson. After holding Virginia Tech to just three plays on offense in the next possession, the Bearcats regained possession and drove 52 yards for the second score, taking a 12-0 lead on junior fullback Hugo Sabato's one-yard run.

Virginia Tech cut the lead to 12-6 early in the fourth quarter when Ralph Beard capped off a 55-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown run.

Johnson emerged as the defensive leader for the Bearcats, intercepting a pass in the end zone late in the third quarter to stop a potential game-tying drive.

With time running out, Tech drove into Cincinnati territory, before Johnson made his second interception, returning it deep into Gobbler territory. Three plays later, Don McMillan scored on a quarterback sneak from three yards to provide the final margin.

Cincinnati finished the season with a 9-2 record, including wins over defending Big Nine champions Indiana and Michigan State.
