

2009-10 SEASON OUTLOOK

A new chapter began at the University of Cincinnati on May 5, 2009 when Jamelle Elliott was named the school's eighth head women's basketball coach. A former student – athlete and assistant coach at the University of Connecticut, Elliott instantly injected the program with a jolt of excitement.

She brings nearly two decades of experience under Huskies Hall of Fame Coach Geno Auriemma to campus, and in her first few months on the job, has already sent the Bearcats down the right path in assembling a proven staff and a quality roster with five new faces for the 2009-10 season.

With only six returning student – athletes from last season's team, and senior guard/forward Shelly Bellman lost to injury for the season, Elliott looks forward to giving this new squad a boost and restoring the program to BIG EAST prominence.

"I am looking forward to coaching quality student – athletes who will become our society's next leaders, as well as engaging the entire campus community," Elliott said. "It is a great honor to become a part of the Bearcat tradition and family. Together, we will build an exciting brand of basketball and championship people."

Along with Elliott comes a versatile new coaching staff with a wealth of experience. Assistant coach Mark Ehlen spent 22 seasons as a head coach at the Division I level, all in the state of Ohio. He also coached Forest Park High School to the first state title in Cincinnati girl's basketball history. Assistant LaRita Wilcher will act as the recruiting coordinator after serving in that role at Louisiana Tech and South Alabama. E. Todd Moore comes to UC with 19 years of college, high school, and A.A.U. experience. Director of Basketball Operations Dana Rieger is a nine-year veteran of athletics administration, most recently serving as the Executive Assistant to the Director of Athletics at Connecticut.

The Bearcats look to build on a 2008-09 season that saw them earn wins in 12 of their first 15 games, and outshoot their opponents .408 to .389 in field goal percentage, including a .330 to .321 3- point field goal advantage, before falling to USF in the second round of the BIG EAST Championship.

Despite the lack of returning depth, of the six players back from last season, four bring senior leadership in guard Stephanie Stevens and fifth-year seniors Kahla Roudebush, Michelle Jones and Bellman. Roudebush returns after an impressive season in which she led the team in scoring, averaging 16.3 points a game, in steals, with 41 on the year, and handed out a team-leading 103 assists. Roudebush was eighth in the nation last season, averaging 38.5 minutes per game. She will be depended on to lead an offense that is without another returning player who averaged double-digits in scoring, but will also have five new teammates arriving on campus for the 2009-10 season to shoulder some of the weight.

BIG EAST all-Freshman selection Shanasa Sanders returns and will move to her natural shooting guard position after playing her freshman season at point guard. She averaged 7.6 points and 3.3 rebounds per game and got more comfortable as the season wore on. Another sophomore, Val Schuster, played sparingly as a freshman, but should see significant time this season.

The Bearcats add two transfers and three freshmen to this season's roster to compliment the veterans. Shareese Ulis, a 5-7 guard, transfers from Trinity Valley CC (TX), where she averaged a solid line of 12.0 points, 3.0 assists, 3.0 rebounds, and 3.0 steals per game. The Toledo, Ohio native, expected to contribute immediately to the Bearcats' backcourt efforts, will have two years of eligibility remaining. Chanel Chisholm, a Long Island, N.Y. native, spent two seasons at Vanderbilt University where she played in 53 career games. The 5-11 guard averaged 5.0 points per game in 2008-09, helping the Commodores to the Southeastern Conference Tournament Championship and a spot in the NCAA Sweet 16. Due to NCAA transfer guidelines, Chisholm will sit out the 2009-10 season and have two years of eligibility remaining, beginning with the 2010-11 campaign. Missouri native Bryonna Snow, a 6-1 forward, gives UC a great rebounder with the size to be productive in the BIG EAST. Else Daniel, a 5-11 forward from South Bend, Ind., was a four-year starter at Clay High School where she averaged 12.1 points and a team-leading 7.9 rebounds per game her senior season, and with Indianapolis native Daress McClung, a 6-0 guard/forward, providing the toughness and versatility to play two positions, the future appears bright for the Bearcats.
