His 35 three-pointers during the circuit's April-May schedule ranked second among all guards. A 2015-16 First-Team All-Catholic High School Athletic Association selection, Williams helped guide Bishop Loughlin Memorial to a 22-8 record while averaging 16.0 points per game as a junior. He scored 21 points and surpassed 1,000 career points while leading Bishop Loughlin Memorial to the CHSAA Brooklyn-Queens AA diocesan title.

FIFTH THIRD ARENA RENOVATION BEGINS IN APRIL 2017

Fifth Third Arena, the home of Cincinnati basketball since the start of the 1989-90 season, will undergo a privately-funded $87-million renovation following the 2016-17 campaign.

Construction is scheduled to begin in April 2017 and be completed prior to the 2018-19 campaign.

"Our entire University has grown and transformed into one of the best in the country over the past 15 years, both academically and aesthetically," men's basketball head coach Mick Cronin said. "This arena will be awesome. The planning has been meticulous and the first-class, new design is as good as I've seen across all of college basketball. This building is about our future and is a testament to the commitment our University and donors have toward our programs."

Proposed improvements to the facility, built in 1989 and originally named the Myrl H. Shoemaker Center, include the creation of a 360-degree seating bowl, new HD scoreboard, ribbon boards, sound system, an LED lighting system which will allow for enhanced gameday presentation, new restroom and concession facilities, a new upper-level concourse with its own fan amenities, expanded food and beverage options and a new main entrance and plaza with centralized ticketing and guest services. The renovated arena also will feature upgraded locker room spaces, expanded premium seating options, including a courtside club, arena club and concourse club as well as enclosed suites, loge seating, a new Bearcats Lounge and super suites.

"We are inspired by the passionate engagement from the Board of Trustees, campus leadership and key constituents who are making a bold commitment to our athletic program and the campus community," UC Director of Athletics Mike Bohn said.

Those interested in making a gift to the construction of the arena should contact the UCATS office at 513-556-0735.

ARENA WEBSITE: OURHOUSE2018.COM

The University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics has launched a website for the upcoming Fifth Third Arena Renovation titled OurHouse2018.com.

The website, created in conjunction with the University's Office of Creative Services, was developed to provide Bearcats fans current and up-to-date information on the arena construction project which is already underway.

OurHouse2018.com features an updated fly-through of the arena renovations, new renderings and information for those interested in purchasing tickets, premium seating or making a donation to the $87-million privately-funded project.

SIXTH-FLOOR SUITES READY FOR 2016-17 SEASON

Fans visiting the University of Cincinnati's Fifth Third Arena this fall will have the opportunity to take part in a new premium seating experience for the 2016-17 season.

The addition of four luxury suites on the sixth floor of the arena is the first phase of an $87-million renovation of the 26-year old venue which will kick off in earnest following the close of the 2016-17 basketball season.

The suites are being constructed on the sixth floor of the arena, which formerly housed the UCATS Club. The 18-seat suites will overhang the north baseline of the court.

Each suite is ADA accessible and features granite countertops, a flat-screen television, along with custom cabinets and furniture. Suite holders will receive four parking passes and also have access to a private lounge and restrooms on the sixth floor.

Each suite requires a commitment of $40,000 a year for 10 years, plus a per ticket cost.

CINCINNATI HEAD COACH MICK CRONIN

The second decade of the Mick Cronin era begins now. Ten years after returning to his alma mater and hometown city in March 2006 with a determined work ethic, steady approach and vision for rebuilding the proud University of Cincinnati basketball program, Cronin has the Bearcats on solid footing poised for more prominence.

Though his first squad featured only one returning starter in 2006-07, Cronin tirelessly went to work setting the culture necessary to building long-term success while competing within arguably the sport's toughest league ever organized – the old BIG EAST Conference. Despite the surroundings, Cincinnati began the retooling process, becoming the only program from a major conference to improve its win total every season from 2007 to 2011, building from 11 wins in 2007 to 26 victories and a return to the NCAA Tournament in 2011.

Now a fixture at the Big Dance, Cincinnati can include itself on an elite list of eight programs appearing in six consecutive NCAA Tournaments, along with Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, North Carolina, VCU and Wisconsin.

SIX CONSECUTIVE TRIPS TO THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

2015-16: Cincinnati won 11 of its final 15 games of the regular season, including a 61-54 win over then-No. 24 SMU on March 6, to register its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Junior Troy Caupain received First Team American Athletic Conference accolades while sophomore Gary Clark was named the league's defensive player of the year and second-team all-conference honoree. The Bearcats finished 22-11 overall and tied for third in the league with a 12-6 mark.

2014-15: A young, inexperienced group of newcomers and role players overcame the loss of its head coach due to health reasons and banded together to register a 23-11 mark and achieve the program's first third-round NCAA Tournament appearance since 2012. UC finished third in the conference but swept league-winner SMU and registered a victory at second-place Tulsa (in the only meeting between the schools) to secure the school's fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament invite. The Bearcats outlasted Purdue 66-65 in overtime in the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to previously unbeaten Kentucky, 64-51.

2013-14: Cincinnati won a share of the inaugural American Athletic Conference regular-season crown, the program's first conference title since 2003-04, behind the efforts of AP All-American Sean Kilpatrick and league defensive player of the year Justin Jackson. Kilpatrick led The American with 20.6 points per game and Cronin was named The American's Coach of the Year in leading UC to a 27-7 record – its most wins since 2001-02. The Bearcats strung together 15 consecutive wins, including their first 11 league games. UC was listed among the top 15 teams in the AP poll during each of the last eight weeks of the regular season, climbing as high as seventh.

2012-13: Senior Cashmere Wright fought through nagging injuries and, along with fellow senior JaQuon Parker and junior Sean Kilpatrick, helped lead the Bearcats to a 22-12 overall record and third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Wright finished his career as UC's all-time steals leader (198) and Cronin claimed his 200th career coaching win. The Bearcats ranked sixth nationally with 6.1 blocks per game.

2011-12: Cincinnati advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, registered 26 wins for the second consecutive season and defeated a school record eight nationally ranked teams, including No. 2 Syracuse in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Championship. The Bearcats posted a school-record 12 wins in the BIG EAST en route to tying for fourth place in the league standings and finishing as runners up in the league tournament. Yancy Gates capped off his career as one of only six players in program history to compile more than 1,400 points and 900 rebounds. The Bearcats outlasted Texas and Florida State before falling to Ohio State in the NCAA Tournament.

2010-11: Cincinnati won its first 15 games of the season and closed strong with five victories in its last six regular-season contests to secure its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2005. Yancy Gates led the Bearcats with 11.9 points and 6.9 rebounds and Sean Kilpatrick was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team. UC defeated Missouri 78-63 before falling to eventual national champion UConn 69-58 in the third round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bearcats finished 26-9 overall.

Cronin has guided Cincinnati to 160 wins since the start of the 2010-11 season, highlighting one of the most successful periods in program history with six 20-win seasons, including three years with at least 26 victories.

Tenacious defense and continuous all-out effort reflect the Bearcats' standard. Cincinnati is one of only two programs in the nation (along with Louisville) to rank among the top 25 in scoring defense in each of the last four seasons. The Bearcats allowed only 55.8 points a game in 2014-15, the third fewest in school history (since 1960).

You can also find Cincinnati's name listed among the top 25 teams in field-goal percentage defense and blocks per game in each of the last four seasons. The 2012-13 Bearcats squad set Cronin-era high marks, ranking 14th in field-goal percentage defense (.387) and sixth in blocks (6.1).

After 10-plus seasons at Cincinnati, Cronin has compiled a 221-131 mark and owns a 290-155 record in 13-plus years as a college head coach. He entered the 2016-17 campaign as the nation's winningest active coach age 45 or younger and the fifth winningest active coach under the age of 50 (birth dates as of Nov. 1, 2016).

PRIOR TO CINCINNATI

Success seems to follow Cronin, who came to Cincinnati after serving three years as head coach at Murray State (2004-06). As mentor of the Racers, Cronin compiled a 69-24 overall record while earning a pair of NCAA tournament berths.

In his debut season as head coach, Cronin directed Murray State to a school-best 28-6 record, the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance. His 28 wins were the sixth most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach at the time. He earned OVC Coach of the Year honors two seasons later, guiding Murray State to another OVC regular-season title, league tournament crown and NCAA Tournament appearance with a 24-6 mark in 2005-06.

Prior to Murray State, Cronin built a sterling reputation for his ability to evaluate and recruit top talent. In his stint at UC as an assistant coach for Bob Huggins from 1997-2001, Cronin recruited several top players, including NBA Draft selections Steve Logan (Golden State); DerMarr Johnson (Atlanta); Pete Mickeal (Dallas); Kenny Satterfield (Dallas); and Jason Maxiell (Detroit).

Following the 2000-01 season, Cronin became the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville, under Rick Pitino. In his first year, Cronin helped attract a top-10 ranked recruiting class.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Cronin's passion for success on the court also carries over to the local community where he is committed to making a difference. He currently serves as a board member on the American Cancer Society's Coaches vs. Cancer of Southwest Ohio chapter.

He also assists with a major fundraising event - Soul of the City Soiree - for Our Daily Bread that has generated more than $100,000 each of the past four years to assist the soup kitchen and community center in Cincinnati.

Cronin also annually speaks with the Young Executive Group of the Catholic Inner-City Schools Education (CISE) Fund. The group raises money from area corporations to help give children from low income urban settings the opportunity to attend Catholic schools.

During the 2013-14 season, Cronin also wrote a column in the Cincinnati Enquirer highlighting the dangers of texting while driving as part of the ATGT sponsored "It Can Wait" campaign. He spotlighted the campaign again during an on-campus awareness event in October 2014.

PATH TO COACHING

Cronin has long held great pride in the Queen City, the University of Cincinnati and the sport of basketball. As a child growing up on the west side of town, he used to follow his father Harold "Hep" Cronin -- a highly successful local high school coach with more than 400 career wins -- around the gyms of Cincinnati. A product of LaSalle High School, Cronin had his playing career end sooner than expected due to a knee injury in high school.

That didn't stop his desire to find his place in basketball. While completing his undergraduate degree at UC, Cronin served as assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Woodward High School. He helped develop six players who went on to play Division I college basketball, including former Bearcat Damon Flint, who ranks among the top 25 scorers in program history.

Cronin made the jump from high school to college coaching during the 1996-97 season joining Huggins as video coordinator at UC. A year later, Cronin was elevated to an assistant coach for the Bearcats, setting the stage for his long tenure in college basketball.

Cronin resides in Cincinnati with his 10-year old daughter, Samantha.
