

season REVIEW

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

The Bearcats finished the 2007 season with a record of 6-10-2, while compiling a 3-7-1 conference mark. Cincinnati finished seventh in the National division, four points away from making the conference tournament. Many highlights were enjoyed during the season including head coach Meredy Glenn capturing her 250th win against cross-town rival Xavier and Erin MacDonald becoming UC's first all-BIG EAST selection.

MACDONALD LEADS THE WAY

Sophomore forward Erin MacDonald was tabbed to the BIG EAST's second-team, a first for any Bearcat since joining the league in 2005. MacDonald led UC in all major scoring categories and finished among the top ten in the conference in points, goals and assists.

CLOSE BUT NO CIGAR

Despite being one of the younger teams in the BIG EAST, the Bearcats played well against league opponents. In their seven conference losses, four came by a one goal differential. UC was also snake bitten when it came to overtime play, as the Bearcats were a combined 1-2-1 in overtime league matches.

O-HI-O

Cincinnati maintained its status as one of the state's best teams as they compiled wins against Xavier, Dayton and Cleveland State; finishing with a 3-1-1 record against intrastate opponents. The Bearcats tied MAC foe Miami (OH) 1-1 and dropped their only match in the state to Wright State by a 2-1 margin.

KAMINSKI SAVES THE DAY

Sophomore goalkeeper Andrea Kaminski saved 19 shots in a 1-1 draw against Marquette. For her efforts she was named the BIG EAST Goalkeeper of the Week for the games ending Oct. 22 and earned a spot on the SoccerBuzz.com National Team of the Week. Kaminski led the conference in total saves with 110 and saves per match with 6.11 stops. She was in net for all but just under eight minutes on the season and pitched one shutout in her second year as the Bearcat backstop.

IT'S ALL ACADEMIC

Senior Gigi Ernst and junior Kim Sykes each were named to the NSCAA/adidas Scholar Athlete All-East Region team in 2007, both earning honorable-mention plaudits. Ernst, who earned her second College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District honor in 2007, holds a 3.83 grade point average as a double major in finance and accounting. Sykes, a junior defender and two-year team captain, earned her second straight CoSIDA honor in 2007. She holds a 3.98 GPA in journalism.

AWARD WINNERS

Sophomore Andrea Kaminski was named the team MVP for the season and freshman Kendall Loggins earned Newcomer of the Year honors, while senior Gigi Ernst and junior Jenn Johannigman garnered the Player's Award and Coaches Award, respectively. As a team, the Bearcats received the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Team Academic Award with a team GPA of 3.26.
