UC, SU Have Several Similarities

- The University of Cincinnati visits Syracuse on Saturday for a 12 noon game at the Carrier Dome which will be televised regionally on the BIG EAST Game of the Week package on ESPN Regional and air in Cincinnati on WXIX-TV 19.
- Both teams enter the contest in serious need of a victory. Cincinnati, 3-4 overall and 1-2 in league play, will be seeking its first BIG EAST Conference road victory and its first-ever win in the Carrier Dome. Syracuse, 1-6 and 0-4, will be out to end a four-game losing skid and nab its first conference victory.
- Cincinnati had its six-game home contest win streak ended last Saturday in a 46-22 loss to Louisville. The Bearcats were unable to take full advantage of three Cardinal fumbles and committed a turnover of their own after reaching the Louisville 2-yard line late in the second quarter trailing 12-7.
- Syracuse jumped out to a 17-7 lead, but despite benefitting from four turnovers and blocking two punts, the Orange fell at Pittsburgh, 34-17, last Saturday.
- The game matches two of the nation's leading defensive backs. Cincinnati freshman cornerback Mike Mickens is leading the nation in passes defended (pass breakups plus interceptions), averaging 2.0 per game. Syracuse senior safety Anthony Smith is ranked third nationally in passes defended (1.71) and is second in interceptions (.71).
- Cincinnati's passing offense, which has encountered problems with consistency over the past three games (.447 completion percentage, 186.3 yards per game), will be tested by a Syracuse defense which is ranked 11th nationally in fewest yards surrendered and 24th in pass efficiency defense.
- The Bearcats are starting five first-year freshmen, making UC the youngest defensive unit in the nation (Northern Illinois is next closest with four). Despite their youth, those true frosh are making their mark. In addition to Mickens, who is leading the nation in passes defended and is fourth on the team in tackling (39), OLB Corey Smith is the team's tackling leader (52) and is third in tackles for loss. DT Thomas Claggett is tied for the lead in forced fumbles.
- Senior wide receiver Derick Ross will be out to top the 1,000-yard mark in career receiving yardage. He enters the game with 938 yards. Senior offensive tackle Steve Eastlake will be seeking his 32nd consecutive start.

UC vs. Syracuse

Saturday's game will be the sixth meeting between Cincinnati and Syracuse. The Orange have won five of the previous six contests. UC's lone win came in Cincinnati in 2000 when Jason Mammarelli booted a 47-yard field goal as time expired for a 12-10 victory. UC is 0-3 at Syracuse.

About Syracuse

- The Orange is ranked No. 24 nationally in pass efficiency defense, and is No. 11 in fewest yards allowed passing (175.7). Syracuse is 41st in total defense, surrendering 345.1 yards per game.
- Anthony Smith, Syracuse's lone Ohio native (Hubbard, Ohio), is ranked third nationally in pass breakups (1.71). He ranks second nationally and first in the BIG EAST in interceptions (.71) and his 4.71 solo tackles-per-game average is No. 96. In last year's game vs. Cincinnati, Smith recorded 11 tackles, intercepted a pass and blocked a punt, earning BIG EAST co-Defensive Player of the Week honors.
- Brendan Carney is 16th nationally and first in the BIG EAST in punting (43.9).
- Greg Robinson is in his first season as head coach, replacing Paul Pasqualoni. Robinson was co-defensive coordinator at Texas in 2004 and previously spent 13 seasons in the NFL, nine as a defensive coordinator.

Last Meeting

Walter Reyes rushed for 117 yards and scored the game's first touchdown to lead Syracuse to a 19-7 win over Cincinnati on Sept. 18, 2004 at the Carrier Dome. Six turnovers, three in the red zone, hampered the Bearcats, who scored their lone TD on a 2-yard pass from Gino Guidugli to Brent Celek.

UC-Syracuse Ties

Bob Wylie, Syracuse's offensive line coach, held the same position at Cincinnati in 1996.

Honorary Captain

Jim Kelly, Jr., will serve as the honorary captain for Saturday's game. Kelly was the Bearcats' leading receiver in the 1973, 1974 and 1975 seasons, making a total of 76 receptions for 964 yards. He currently serves as analyst on the Bearcat football radio broadcasts. Head coach Mark Dantonio began recognizing former UC players and coaches by naming them honorary game captains last season. The honorary captains participate with the elected captains in the pregame meal with the team as well as the pregame as coin toss.

LAST MEETING:

Syracuse 19, Cincinnati 7

Sept. 18, 2004

Carrier Dome

Syracuse, NY

Six turnovers, including three in the red zone, proved to be the Bearcats' undoing as Cincinnati fell at Syracuse, 19-7 in a preview of soon-to-be Big East rivals.

Neither team could take advantage of opportunities in the early part of the contest, witnessed by 32,893 in the Carrier Dome. Cincinnati reached the Syracuse 18 on its second possession, but Gino Guidugli suffered the first of his three interceptions. On the ensuing possession, the Orange moved to the UC 16, but Doug Monaghan thwarted the drive with an INT.

Two other Syracuse drives ended in missed field goals, the first of which was blocked by Adam Roberts. The Orange got on the scoreboard on Walter Reyes' 6-yard run in the second quarter. Another Guidugli interception led to a SU field goal just before the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Dominic Ross scooped up a Syracuse fumble and returned in 30 yards to the SU 6. The Bearcats fumbled on their first play. UC got on the scoreboard when Monaghan's second interception set up an eventual 2-yard Guidugli-to-Brent Celek TD pass early in the fourth quarter.

Syracuse retaliated with Perry Patterson's 68-yard scoring strike to Damien Rhodes. The Orange blocked a UC punt out of the endzone for a safety to cap the scoring.

Cincinnati made one more drive, penetrating to the Syracuse 15, but the threat was halted when

Doug Monaghan

Mike Daniels threw an interception on a halfback pass.

LAST GAME:Louisville 46, Cincinnati 22

Oct. 22, 2005

Nippert Stadium

Cincinnati, OH

Michael Bush rushed for 127 yards and three touchdowns and Louisville rolled up 547 yards in total offense, the most by a UC opponent in 2005, to defeat Cincinnati, 46-22, in the Battle for the Keg of Nails.

Louisville got on the scoreboard less than five minutes into the game on a 13-yard run by Bush, which capped a 5-play, 80-yard drive. The Bearcat defense stiffened, holding the Cardinals to a 3-and-out and forcing fumbles on UofL's next three possessions. UC converted the second fumble into a score when Brent Celek caught a 9-yard pass from Dustin Grutza early in the second quarter to give Cincinnati a 7-6 lead.

Louisville regained the lead on Brian Brohm's 8-yard pass to Montrell Jones on its next possession. The Bearcats then let an opportunity slip by when, after marching to the UofL 2, Grutza threw an interception. The Cardinals marched 98 yards in five plays to up their margin to 18-7 right before halftime.

Greg Moore

Louisville put the game out of reach with a pair of drives capped by Bush TDs in the third quarter. The Bearcats got two late scoring drives with Nick Davila at quarterback. Davila connected with Earnest Jackson for a 15-yard TD and found Bill Poland for an 11-yard score.

Davila finished with 136 yards on 9-of-15 passing. Grutza was 9-of-24 for 75 yards. Greg Moore provided an offensive spark, gaining 75 yards on 16 rushes.

Bearcats Earn BIG EAST Honors

Bradley Glatthaar is the latest Bearcat to earn BIG EAST Conference honors. The sophomore running back was named to the BIG EAST weekly honor roll for the week of Oct. 15 after rushing for a career-high 123 yards and two touchdowns in UC's 28-17 win over Connecticut.

Dustin Grutza was named BIG EAST Conference Offensive Player of the Week after passing for two touchdowns and running for a third in the Bearcats' 28-26 victory over Eastern Michigan in the season opener. The redshirt freshman from Maysville, Ky., completed 17 of 26 passes for 176 yards and ran for 49 yards, including a 21-yard TD.

UC junior safety Dominic Ross was named to the BIG EAST Honor Roll for his performance in the Bearcats' 7-3 win over Western Carolina on Sept. 17. Ross entered the game in the fourth quarter and made two key interceptions to stop WCU. The first ended a drive on the UC 2-yard line with 5:46 remaining. The second, at the UC 37 with 22 seconds to play, clinched the victory.

Mickens Tops in Pass Defense

Freshman cornerback Mike Mickens is ranked first nationally in passes defended for the second straight week. Mickens has 13 breakups and one interception in seven games this season, giving him an average of 2.0 passes defended.

Mickens continues to add to his impressive resume as a first-year freshman defensive back. The Greater Dayton area product (Huber Heights, Ohio/Wayne High) had three pass breakups in last Saturday's loss to Louisville, the second straight game in which he had three PBUs. His interception in the closing minutes of UC's Oct. 15 win vs. Connecticut silenced the Huskies final scoring threat and preserved the 28-17 victory. Mickens, who also had seven tackles vs. Louisville, is UC's fourth-leading tackler with 39 stops.

Other Defensive Dandies

- Junior linebacker Kevin McCullough is tied for No. 49 nationally in tackles for loss with 1.25.
- Freshman defensive tackle Thomas Claggett, and sophomore linebackers Anthony Hoke and Anthony Williams are tied for No. 52 in forced fumbles with a per-game average of .29.
- Senior defensive end Adam Roberts is ranked No. 62 nationally in sacks with a per-game average of .57.

Corey Seeks Freshman Honors

Playing on a defense stocked with freshman standouts, Corey Smith is making a bid for conference and national all-freshman honors. The 6-1, 215-pound outside linebacker is Cincinnati's leading tackler with 52 stops and is tied for third on the squad with 5.5 tackles for loss. Smith recorded 13 total tackles, including nine solo stops, vs. Western Carolina—a season high by a Bearcat defender. He has recorded 41 tackles over his last five games.

Glatthaar Scoring Streak Halted

Bradley Glatthaar had his streak of consecutive games with a touchdown stopped at six in last week's loss to Louisville. The sophomore running back has played a key role in the Cincinnati offense throughout the season, having scored seven touchdowns in UC's first six games, at least one in each contest. Going back to the 2004 season, Glatthaar has scored a touchdown in 10 of the Bearcats' last 13 games.

Glatthaar turned in the second century rushing performance of his career when he gained a personal-best 123 yards on 15 carries and scored two touchdowns in the Oct. 15 win over Connecticut. He scored on runs of 9 and 72 yards, the latter a career long.

Glatthaar became the first Bearcat to rush for over 100 yards this season when he recorded 107 yards in a career-high 18 rushing attempts in the Sept. 17 win over Western Carolina.

Roberts Rolls

Senior defensive end Adam Roberts played a large role in Cincinnati's defensive dominance in the 28-17 win over Connecticut on Oct. 15. Roberts recorded five tackles, all solo, and had a pair of sacks and a pass breakup. Roberts leads UC with four sacks and is ranked 62nd nationally with a .57 average per game.

Good Efforts from Goodman

Freshman Dominick Goodman is emerging as a multi-faceted threat. Though he has played in only four games, Goodman has quickly climbed into second place at UC in all-purpose yards. He has amassed 360 yards, 291 via kickoff returns. Goodman piled up 81 yards on four kickoff returns in last Saturday's game vs. Louisville.

Goodman was one of the bright spots for the Cincinnati offense in the Sept. 28 loss at Miami (Ohio), piling up 141 all-purpose yards, gaining 64 yards on five pass receptions and returning four kickoffs for 77 yards. Goodman snagged a 24-yard pass from Dustin Grutza in the second quarter, UC's longest pass play of the night. He then hooked up with Nick Davila four times for 50 yards on the Bearcats' final scoring drive, and scored when he made a leaping catch of a deflected pass on a four-yard TD.

Tight Ends are Top Targets

The Bearcat tight ends have been the big play performers in the Cincinnati passing attack to date. Junior starter Brent Celek is second on the team in receptions with 20 and has UC's most receiving yardage with 242. Celek caught a 47-yard touchdown pass from Dustin Grutza in the Oct. 8 game vs. Pittsburgh, the longest reception of Celek's career. Freshman backup Connor Barwin is fourth in receiving yardage with 135 on six catches, and leads the team with his 22.5 yards-per-reception average.

Celek Upping Numbers and Credentials

Brent Celek has picked up where he left off last season, which could mean conference and national accolades for Cincinnati's junior tight end. Celek heads into Saturday's game second on the team in receptions with 20. His 242 yards receiving is tops among the Bearcats. Last season, Celek recorded 22 receptions for 254 yards and eight touchdowns, the latter figure representing a UC record for TDs by a TE. With the exception of the scoring plays, Celek is well on his way to exceeding those totals:

Season	Rec	Yards	Avg	TD
2004	22	254	11.5	8
2005	20	242	12.2	2

Bearcats in the NFL

The University of Cincinnati is again well-represented in the National Football League this season. Thirteen former Bearcats earned spots on NFL rosters with the close of preseason practice, six of them from the 2004 UC squad which posted a 7-5 record and won the Fort Worth Bowl.

Former Bearcat defensive ends Trent Cole and Andre Frazier earned roster spots at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, respectively. Mike Wright, another member of the 2004 defensive front, is with the two-time defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots. Tyjuan Hagler, also a member of that UC defense, is with Indianapolis. Cornerback Daven Holly is with Chicago. Offensive lineman Kyle Takavitz is with Cincinnati.

The veteran of the UC football alumni in the NFL is Jason Fabini, who is beginning his eighth year as a starting offensive lineman with the New York Jets. Troy Evans and Antwan Peek are in the fourth and third seasons, respectively, with the Houston Texans.

There are 17 assistant coaches in the NFL with UC ties, either as former players or members of Bearcat coaching staffs. Three former players are in this group; Billy Davis, defensive coordinator at San Francisco; Tom Rossley, assistant coach at Green Bay; and George Warhop, an assistant at San Francisco.

Eastlake Builds on Streak

Steve Eastlake, one of the few veterans on the Bearcat offense, will try to extend a personal streak in Saturday's contest vs. Syracuse. The 6-6, 305-pound senior will be making his 32nd consecutive start at left tackle, a position at which he has been a fixture since 2003. For a point of comparison, all other offensive linemen have a combined total of 29 games of starting experience.

Freshmen Lead Bearcat Defense

Cincinnati, has the youngest defensive unit in the nation. The Bearcats are starting five first-year freshmen—tackles Terrill Byrd and Thomas Claggett, end Trevor Anderson, outside linebacker Corey Smith and cornerback Mike Mickens. Northern Illinois, which has started up to four true frosh, is the only Division I-A team which comes close.

Byrd, Smith and Mickens have been starters all season. Anderson joined the starting lineup four games ago and Claggett became a starter in the Oct. 8 Pittsburgh game. Additionally, Cedric Tolbert, another true frosh, started at strong safety vs. Western Carolina on Sept. 17.

Those freshmen are holding their own. Smith leads the team in tackles (52) and is third in tackles for loss (5.5). Mickens is fourth in tackles (39) and leads the team in passes broken up (13). Claggett shares the UC lead in forced fumbles (2) and with 17 tackles is climbing that list.

Nakamura Tops in Stops

Sophomore Haruki Nakamura posted a pair of double-digit tackling performances this season. The Bearcat free safety set a career high with 12 tackles in the Sept. 10 game at Penn State, and matched that total on Sept. 28 vs. Miami (Ohio). Nakamura is second on the team in tackling with 50 total stops. He has made 28 tackles in his last four games.

Ervin Climbing Career Charts

Senior Chet Ervin is climbing the UC career punting records lists. Ervin is tied for No. 3 in career punts with 216 and is No. 4 in career punting yards with 8,450. The career record for punts is 236, established by Jeff Blaylock in 1991-94. Shaun Burdick (1983-86) holds the career mark for punting yards with 9,244. Ervin is ranked sixth in attempts and seventh in punting yards among the NCAA national active career leaders.

Punts

1. 236 Jeff Blaylock, 1991-94
2. 235 Shaun Burdick, 1983-86
3. 216 Jeff Jones, 1987-90
- 216 Chet Ervin, 2002-active
5. 214 Adam Wulfbeck, 1998-01

Punting Yards

1. 9,244 Shaun Burdick, 1983-86
2. 9,008 Adam Wulfbeck, 1998-01
3. 8,711 Jeff Blaylock, 1991-94
4. 8,450 Chet Ervin, 2002-active
5. 8,247 Mike Connell, 1974-77

Dominic Ross Makes Key Plays

Junior Dominic Ross put together the two best performances of his college career during Cincinnati's games vs. Western Carolina and Miami. Ross, who did not start the Western Carolina game, replaced the injured Cedric Tolbert in the fourth quarter and made two interceptions, one on the 2-yard line to stop WCU's go-ahead scoring drive with 5:46 to play. His second pick, in the final minute, clinched the 7-3 victory. In UC's Sept. 28 contest at Miami (Ohio), Ross made a career-high 13 tackles, six of them solos, and had a tackle for loss. He has had 25 tackles over his last three games.

Derick Ross Seeking Millennium Mark

Cincinnati senior wide receiver Derick Ross will be out to top the 1,000-yard mark in career receiving yardage when Cincinnati visits Syracuse on Saturday. Ross enters the game with 938 career yards on 64 receptions.

Running Wild

Cincinnati has topped the 200-yard mark in rushing twice this season. The most recent game was the Oct. 15 win over Connecticut, when UC gained 223 yards against the Huskies' defense, which entered the contest ranked No. 1 nationally in fewest yards allowed. Bradley Glatthaar ran for a career-high 123 yards.

The Bearcats rushed for 293 yards in their season-opener win over Eastern Michigan on Sept. 1.

Sack Attack

The Cincinnati defense recorded six sacks in the Oct. 15 win over Connecticut, the most since UC had six vs. East Carolina last season (Sept. 25, 2004). Senior Adam Roberts and freshman Trevor Anderson each recorded two sacks, with Thomas Claggett and Anthony Hoke contributing one each. The sack attack doubled the Bearcats' season total.

Many Happy Returns

The Bearcats enjoyed one of their most productive games in terms of kickoff returns vs. Miami (Ohio) on Sept. 28.

- Marshwan Gilyard nearly broke off a return for a touchdown. The first-year freshman was dragged down after a 60-yard return, the longest since Tedric Harwell took a kick back 71 yards vs. West Virginia in 2002. Gilyard is averaging a team-high 27.8 yards on five returns.
- Dominick Goodman returned four kickoffs for a total of 77 yards, which featured a 27-yard return. Goodman is averaging 19.1 yards on 11 returns this season.
- In the punt return department, Mike Daniels tied a UC single game record when he returned seven punts in the Sept. 17 game vs. Western Carolina. He compiled 47 yards on those seven returns.
- Haruki Nakamura, who took over the punt return duties when Daniels was sidelined by injury, is averaging 12.4 yards on five returns.

Young Bearcats See First Action

Over the first seven games, a total of 30 Bearcats have seen their first college game action. Ten are first-year freshmen and 12 others are redshirt freshmen. Nine of those frosh have been starters: true freshmen Trevor Anderson (Detroit, MI/Crockett Tech) at defensive end, Terrill Byrd (Cincinnati, OH/Colerain) and Thomas Claggett (Temple Hills, MD/Frederick Douglas), at defensive tackle, Corey Smith (Salem, NJ/Salem) at outside linebacker, Mike Mickens (Huber Heights, OH/Wayne) at cornerback, Cedric Tolbert (Xenia, OH/Xenia) at safety, and redshirt freshmen Dustin Grutza (Maysville, KY/Mason County) at quarterback, Trevor Canfield (Cincinnati, OH/Western Hills) at offensive guard, and Ryan Manalac (Pickerington, OH/Pickerington) at middle linebacker.

Dantonio Second-Winningest Rookie Head Coach

Cincinnati's Mark Dantonio had the second-best record of any of the new 13 Division I-A head coaches in 2004, and the best among first-time head coaches. Dantonio directed UC to a 7-5 record, including a win over Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl. Only Mike Price, who led UTEP to an 8-4 season, had a better record.

How Young Are Those Cats

Cincinnati began the season as one of the nation's youngest teams, in terms of returning starters, in terms of projected senior starters and in terms of lettermen on its two-deep chart. UC had starters returning at eight positions—tackle Steve Eastlake, tight end Brent Celek and fullback Doug Jones on offense; end Adam Roberts, cornerback Antoine Horton and Dominic Ross and JaJuan Hall, who shared the strong safety position on defense; along with punter Chet Ervin and kicker Kevin Lovell. Only two schools have fewer returning starters, Navy with six and Marshall with seven.

UC projected five senior starters on offense and defense, entering the 2005 season, second fewest to Rice which has three projected senior starters.

Looking Ahead

After the game at Syracuse, the Bearcats will then have 10 days to prepare for their next home game. BIG EAST leader and No. 17 West Virginia invades for a Wednesday, Nov. 9 showdown at Nippert Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m. and will be televised nationally on ESPN2.

Head Coach Mark Dantonio

One other coach has taken Cincinnati to a bowl game in his initial season at the helm—the legendary Sid Gillman. That puts Mark Dantonio, who leads the Bearcats into the BIG EAST Conference this season, in pretty select company.

Dantonio has been in good company throughout his coaching career, having served as an assistant coach for Nick Saban, Jim Tressel and Earle Bruce—coaches who have directed teams to conference championships, postseason bowls, and national championships.

Thirteen Bearcats earned all-conference honors. Six members of that team participated in the NFL Pre-Draft Combine, and three were ultimately drafted. Dantonio, who was named head coach at Cincinnati on Dec. 23, 2003, became the first head coach in 23 years to pilot a team to a winning season in his initial campaign at UC. The Bearcats' 7-5 record included a 5-3 mark in Conference USA, good enough for a second place finish, and a win over Marshall in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl.

The manner in which the Bearcats achieved that success speaks well for the Dantonio's coaching abilities. The Bearcats had fallen to a 2-4 start, but the new coach maintained confidence in his team and helped UC turn things around with an impressive four-game winning streak late in the season.

Dantonio is ideally suited hold the reigns of the University of Cincinnati football program. He has compiled nearly a quarter of a century of coaching experience, during which he has played integral roles in building winning programs. He has crafted defensive units which have been nationally recognized. And he has built a reputation for the close bonds that he builds with the players he coaches and the staff members with whom he works.

He has strong Midwest ties. An Ohio native who has spent half of his coaching career in the state, he has been effective recruiting its top talent.

Dantonio had served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State the previous three seasons, where he helped craft the defense which was the backbone of the Buckeyes success.

Dantonio has compiled 23 seasons of coaching experience in the college ranks, 12 of them in the state of Ohio, where he earned all-state football honors as a senior at Zanesville High.

Prior to his stint at Ohio State, Dantonio spent six seasons (1995-2000) as secondary coach at Michigan State, serving as associate head coach in 2000.

Dantonio served as defensive backs coach at Kansas for four seasons (1991-94). His work helped the Jayhawks produce an 8-4 record and defeat BYU in the Aloha Bowl in 1992. A 1979 graduate of South Carolina, Dantonio began his coaching career as an assistant at Westside High in Anderson, S.C. In 1980, he served as graduate assistant at Ohio University. He spent the 1981 season as a graduate assistant at Purdue and was defensive coordinator at Butler County (Kan.) Community College in 1982.

Dantonio was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State football staff in 1983 and 1984, helping the Buckeyes to the Fiesta and Rose bowls. He spent the 1985 season as the secondary coach at Akron where he coached under Jim Dennison, helping the Zips to an 8-3 record and an appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs.

Dantonio joined Jim Tressel's staff at Youngstown State. The Penguins made three trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs during his five seasons there, and posted a perfect 11-0 regular season record in 1990, when Dantonio was YSU's defensive coordinator.

When Tressel became head coach at Ohio State, Dantonio joined him as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator.

GAME 1: Cincinnati 28, Eastern Michigan 26

Sept. 1, 2005

Nippert Stadium

Cincinnati, OH

Dustin Grutza

Dustin Grutza passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third, and the Cincinnati defense came up with a game-deciding stop in the final seconds as the Bearcats opened the 2005 season with a 28-26 win over Eastern Michigan.

Grutza, a redshirt freshman making his college debut, directed touchdown drives on UC's first two possessions, connecting with Antwan Giddens for 10 yards and Greg Moore for 38 yards. He finished with 176 yards, completing 17 of 26 pass attempts.

UC's defense had troubles with EMU's explosive offense and the Bearcats fell behind, 20-14, at the half. Grutza showed his running ability, putting Cincinnati back in the lead with a 21-yard scamper on the first possession of the third quarter. The Bearcat defense stiffened, holding the Eagles to 29 yards in the third quarter. Bradley Glatthaar extended the lead with an 11-yard run early in the fourth quarter, but Eastern responded with a TD and cut the margin to two points.

Facing a fourth-and-1 from their 48 with 55 seconds to play, the Bearcats elected to go for the first down which would have allowed them to run out the clock. Butler Benton was stopped short. With 21 seconds to play, the UC defense was faced with the challenge of holding EMU on a fourth-and-1 situation. The Bearcats held to clinch the victory.

UC rolled up 469 yards in total offense, 293 on the ground. Glatthaar, with 75 yards on 14 carries, topped four runners who gained 50 or more yards.

GAME 2: Penn State 42, Cincinnati 24

Sept. 10, 2005

Beaver Stadium

University Park, PA

Linebacker Kevin McCullough

Penn State's veteran defense limited the Bearcats to 31 net yards rushing as the Nittany Lions downed Cincinnati, 42-24. UC suffered four turnovers and PSU turned the miscues into three touchdowns. The first of those TDs came 3:29 into the contest when an interception by Dustin Grutza set up a 25-yard scoring drive, capped by Michael Robinson's 1-yard run. UC's offense got untracked early in the second quarter to produce a 24-yard field goal by Kevin Lovell, but the Nittany Lions closed the half with an 80-yard drive capped by Robinson's 3-yard pass to Patrick Hall.

Robinson struck for a pair of long passes in the third quarter, a 59-yard TD strike to Justin King and a 41-yard toss to Derrick Williams which set up a 1-yard run by Austin Scott. Grutza closed the third period with a 27-yard TD pass to Derick Ross. Penn State struck for two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Grutza retaliated with a 64-yard scoring drive capped by Bradley Glatthaar's 2-yard run with 39 seconds to play. After recovering an on-side kick, junior college transfer Nick Davila hit Earnest Jackson with a 5-yard TD pass with 18 seconds to play.

Frequently avoiding the Penn State rush with his scrambling ability, Grutza passed for 286 yards, completing 27 of 47 passes. Brent Celek had seven catches for 73 yards, both career highs. Haruki Nakamura had a career-best 12 tackles in addition to an interception and a fumble recovery.

GAME 3: Cincinnati 7, Western Carolina 3

Sept. 17, 2005

Nippert Stadium

Cincinnati, OH

The University of Cincinnati defense, which started five first-year, played the key role in the Bearcats' 7-3 win over Western Carolina.

Junior safety Dominic Ross intercepted a WCU pass on the UC 2-yard line midway through the fourth quarter, stopping a Catamount scoring march which had begun on the WCU 6. Ross clinched the victory with an interception with 22 seconds to play.

Ross, a junior safety who had entered the game in the fourth quarter when starter Cedric Tolbert left the game with an ankle injury, wasn't the only defensive star of the game.

Sophomore Haruki Nakamura snuffed a first half WCU scoring threat, which had reached the UC 17, win an interception. Anthony Williams, splitting time at outside linebacker with Jon Carpenter, helped set the stage for Ross' eventual game-clinching interception by sacking Clark for a 9-yard loss on the first play of WCU's final possession.

Corey Smith, one of those true freshmen starters on defense, turned in big play after big play in accumulating 13 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

The Bearcat offense mounted what turned out to be its lone scoring drive in the second quarter, Bradley Glatthaar capping an 89-yard march with a 7-yard TD burst.

UC reached WCU territory on its first three possessions of the second half, but turned the ball over twice on an interception by Dustin Grutza and Mike Daniels' fumble, and Kevin Lovell's 51-yard field goal try bounced off the crossbar.

Daniels' fumble set up the drive which culminated in the Catamounts' lone score, a 23-yard field goal by Stephen Brown.

GAME 4: Miami 44, Cincinnati 16

Sept. 28, 2005

Yager Stadium

Oxford, OH

The Miami RedHawks proved that a heated rivalry game was a difficult situation for freshmen in defeating Cincinnati, 44-16, in the 110th meeting between the two schools.

Miami senior quarterback Josh Betts passed for 359 yards and three touchdowns as the veteran RedHawks piled up 539 yards of total offense.

The Bearcat defense, with four first-year freshmen starters and four other frosh seeing significant action, held its own at times. Jaluan Hall came up with an interception to stop a Miami threat. Dominic Ross made a career-high 13 tackles with Haruki Nakamura matching a personal best with a dozen stops. Mike Mickens also recorded a career high with 11 tackles.

Miami took a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter and added a touchdown with 53 seconds to play in the first half.

UC's offense awakened to march 63 yards in nine plays, with Kevin Lovell putting the Bearcats on the scoreboard with a 34-yard field goal as time expired in the half.

Bradley Glatthaar

goal as time expired in the half.

The Bearcats put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive in the third quarter with Bradley Glatthaar scoring on a one-yard run. Redshirt freshman quarterback Dustin Grutza was intercepted three times in the fourth quarter, two of those picks leading to Miami TDs. Nick Davila, in relief of Grutza, engineered a late 65-yard drive, hitting Dominick Goodman with a four-yard TD toss. Goodman, another frosh, was one of the offensive bright spots with five catches for 64 yards, and had 77 yards on four kickoff returns.

GAME 5:

Pittsburgh 38, Cincinnati 20

Oct. 8, 2005

Heinz Field

Pittsburgh, PA

Special teams miscues proved to be Cincinnati's undoing in a 38-20 loss to Pittsburgh. Those miscues started on the opening kickoff of UC's first-ever BIG EAST Conference game when the Bearcats surrendered a 69-yard kickoff return to Terrell Allen. UC's defense responded to the challenge and held Pitt to a field goal.

In the second quarter, a blocked punt set up a Pitt six-yard TD drive, quarterback Tyler Palko taking it the final five yards. A penalty on the ensuing kickoff put UC on its 15 where an interception led to another field goal and a 16-0 halftime deficit.

The Bearcats showed life in the third quarter with a 5-play, 73-yard scoring drive, keyed by Dustin Grutza's 56-yard hook-up with Earnest Jackson. The Panthers retaliated with a touchdown almost as quickly, Rashad Jennings' 13-yard run capping a six-play, 52-yard drive, and later in the quarter took a 30-7 lead with a 79-yard punt return by Darrell Revis.

Grutza rallied UC with TD passes of 47 yards to Brent Celek and 22 yards to Jackson. The freshman finished with 180 yards on 9-of-19 passing. Bradley Glatthaar, who scored UC's first TD on a five-yard run, had 63 yards in 16 carries.

The game was fairly even statistically. Pitt outgained UC, 321-312, in total offense. The Bearcats actually had two more first downs than the Panthers and owned an edge in time of possession.

Bradley Glatthaar

Connor Barwin on UC's first possession of the half. Benton caught a 34-yard pass from Grutza, then scored on a 27-yard run down the sideline.

D.J. Hernandez kept UConn in the game with a 16-yard TD pass to Lou Allen just before the end of the quarter and added a 13-yard scoring pass with 2:40 left in the game.

While UConn's defense entered the game with impressive credentials—the Huskies were No. 1 in pass defense in addition to total defense—the Bearcat defenders stole the show. Adam Roberts and Trevor Anderson each had two sacks. Mike Mickens had an interception and three pass breakups. Kevin McCullough had two fumble recoveries and Anthony Williams came up with a loose ball.

Bradley Glatthaar rushed for 123 yards and two touchdowns and the Bearcat defense came up with six sacks to spark Cincinnati to a 28-17 win over Connecticut, capping Homecoming on the UC campus.

Glatthaar scored the game's first TD on a seven-yard run near the end of the first quarter, then broke free for a 72-yard scoring run midway through the fourth quarter to give Cincinnati a 28-10 lead. The sophomore finished with a career high for yardage in helping UC rack up 223 yards on the ground against the UConn defense, which entered the game ranked No. 1 nationally in total defense.

Greg Moore, whose 28-yard run ignited UC's first scoring drive, finished with 64 yards in 11 carries with Butler Benton adding 44 yards and a TD in eight tries.

Cincinnati boosted its 7-3 halftime lead with a pair of third quarter touchdowns. Dustin Grutza capped a 65-yard drive with a seven-yard toss to
