YOUNGSTOWN STATE INFRACTIONS

- The former women's soccer head coach falsified transcripts for three international student-athletes. The coach arranged for false transcripts to show that the student-athletes attended a university in their home country that they never did so they would be immediately eligible for competition and financial aid.

PENALTIES

- Three years of probation
- Postseason ban for 2019-20 and vacation of records in which student-athletes competed while ineligible.
- Scholarship reduction by one equivalency for 2020-21
- Reduction in official visits by 5 during
- 10-week ban on unofficial visits, recruiting communications, and off-campus recruiting during one academic year in the probation period
