COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Cincinnati Bearcats take pride in their athletic and academic accomplishments. They also hold a unique place for their Cincinnati community and express that through engaging outside of sport. Each of our 19 teams does their part each year to give back to the community that supports them.

During the 2014-15 academic year, UC student-athletes completed over 2,968 hours of community service, visiting over 50 separate sites.

Within the athletic department we have two annual community engagement initiatives that are organized by UC student-athletes.

Playdate with the Bearcats grew out of the relationship between the Cincinnati football team and Mitch Stone, a young cancer patient who was adopted by the team during their 2009 record-breaking season. Today, Mitch is healthy and cancer-free. With help from the team, Mitch's family started Mitch's Mission so that they could continue helping kids facing similar health challenges.

Each February, Mitch's Mission and UC partner to host Playdate with the Bearcats. The fundraiser benefits pediatric cancer and blood disease patients at Cincinnati Children's Hospital. The event is designed as a carnival-like, family-fun event, featuring UC student-athletes from the football team and other varsity sports along with the Bearcat mascot. The day also offers cornhole, kid-friendly drills put together by UC coaches, swimming, rock-climbing, face painting, food and music.

The second major event sponsored by UC student-athletes is Gatorade Pong which. Put on annually by the Student-

Athlete Advisory Committee, it is a tournament style event with raffles, prizes and food. All of the proceeds go to Mother's Against Drunk Driving to promote education and safe driving. The event includes representation from all of our teams as well as faculty, staff and the Cincinnati community.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Strength and conditioning is one of the most important ingredients of any successful college athletic department. To help the Bearcats' student-athletes maximize their athletic potential, UC combines a modern, comprehensive facility with the latest techniques in sports performance.

The goal of the strength and conditioning program is to develop the total athlete. The strength and conditioning staff works with UC student-athletes in the following areas: strength/power, agility/skill development, nutrition, mental toughness, speed, flexibility, conditioning and injury prevention to lead to total athlete development.

No area is given greater attention and emphasis than strength and conditioning.

With the opening of the Richard E. Lindner Athletics Center, the Bearcats utilize a 22,000-square-foot strength training facility, one of the largest in the nation. The facility includes state-of-the art equipment and an artificial turf warm-up area, trimmed in the same surface UC plays on at Nippert Stadium, Gettler Stadium and Marge Schott Stadium.

In 2013, the mirror-covered space received an overhaul, including painting, new Olympic weights, 36 racks, a new top-of-the-line flooring system

Space within the weight room was also redistributed in a more efficient manner, allowing multiple teams and groups to work out at the same time.

In the summer of 2014, a nutrition bar was added; ensuring UC student-athletes will have access to pre- and post-workout nutritional shakes and NCAA-regulated supplements.

Joe Walker heads up the football strength and conditioning staff and is assisted by former UC standout running back Orlando Smith, David Neill and graduate assistants Reid Kagy.

Mike Rehfeldt oversees the men's basketball program while Kelly Powers leads the women's basketball and Olympic sports effort along with the hlep of Lauren Kelly.

UNDER ARMOUR APPAREL

The University of Cincinnati department of athletics officially welcomed Under Armour to the family Wednesday, as the global performance brand began its tenure as the official outfitter for UC's intercollegiate athletics program starting July 1, 2015.

The long-term partnership was originally announced on April 2, 2015.

As part of the multi-year agreement, Under Armour will exclusively design and supply the footwear, apparel and equipment for training and gameday uniforms for each of UC's 19 men's and women's varsity athletic teams beginning in the 2015-16 season.

In addition to outfitting the Bearcats, the brand plans to integrate the University into its wide-ranging storytelling efforts, including global marketing campaigns, social media initiatives, in-store promotions and grassroots activations.

"Our talented players, coaches and staff are excited to share this new relationship with our dedicated fans and demonstrate how two hot brands will take the Bearcats to new heights," Director of Athletics Mike Bohn said. "Under Armour has made a significant commitment to UC which will allow us to strive for even more significant achievements. We share a passion to provide our student-athletes with all the cutting edge tools to compete at the highest level."

This new affiliation further expands Under Armour's leadership in providing proven performance benefits to college athletes on all playing fields. Cincinnati is the brand's fifteenth Division 1 all-school partnership.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Cincinnati's sports medicine program is responsible not only for helping student-athletes make speedy recoveries from injuries, but in preventing injuries from occurring.

UC's sports medicine program is a comprehensive approach to the injury care and the wellness of the University's over 500 student-athletes, utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries.

Its objectives are simple: to prevent injuries, to rehabilitate injuries, to adjust to the stress following injuries and to educate student-athletes about various wellness issues. Trainers are present at every practice and event to monitor the health of the student-athletes and respond to injuries.

The goal is to get UC's athletes back in the classroom and on the playing field functioning at 100 percent capacity. New student-athletes are carefully examined before they participate to detect potential problems. All student-athletes are afforded state-of-the-art therapeutic care.

During the summer of 2011 and following an extensive departmental review, UC made the decision to outsource it sports medicine operation to Select Medical, the parent company of NovaCare Rehabilitation, which is UC's longtime provider of rehabilitation services.

Under the direction of Associate AD/Sports Medicine Bob Mangine, UC's athletic trainers are the backbone of the sports medicine program. Mangine, drawing on more than three decades in the sports medicine and physical therapy fields, supervises a staff of six assistant athletic trainers, four intern athletic trainers and two physical therapists.

Mangine leads the football sports medicine team while Head Athletic Trainer Robb Williams is in his second season with the men's basketball squads at UC while overseeing the day-to-day operations of the training room.

Associate Head Football Trainer Daniel Springer starts his second full-time season with the program. Springer is a UC graduate who was a student trainer with the 2008 Bearcats team which traveled to the Orange Bowl.

Emi Matsuno, who previously worked at the University of Illinois, enters her seventh season at UC and her second with the women's basketball squad, after spending the previous six years with the football program.

Kris Chalk is in his third year at UC and works with the men's soccer and men's and women's swimming & diving.

Samantha Loughlin is also in her third year with the Bearcats and works with the lacrosse program and men's and women's swimming and diving.

Interns for the 2105-16 season are Phil Montano (football), Haley McDaniel (volleyball), Michele Galvin (Track & Field), Stephanie Medina (tennis, cheer and dance).

Matt Donlin and Lydia Wright will serve as physical therapists.

UC has some of the top doctors in the country on staff, led by Head Team Physician Dr. Jon Divine, and Director of Orthopedic Services Dr. Angelo Colosimo.

UC's state-of-the-art sports medicine facility caters to the needs of UC's student-athletes. Features of the training room include over 4,000 square feet of space for treatment and taping, spacious office suites for training staff and physicians, hydrotherapy areas, a physicians' exam area and x-ray facilities.

UC Health provides nationally-recognized specialists who are immediately accessible. University of Cincinnati Medical Center, a nationally recognized medical center, is immediately adjacent to UC's campus, providing Bearcats student-athletes the absolute best in health and medical care. UC Health Imaging Centers has an MRI diagnostic center within the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village complex.

CINCINNATI ADMINISTRATION

DR. SANTA J. ONO

UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI PRESIDENT

Santa Jeremy Ono, PhD, is the 28th President at the University of Cincinnati. After serving on an interim basis for two months, he was appointed to the presidency on Oct. 23, 2012.

President Ono first arrived at UC in 2010, serving two years as the Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost. As Provost, he led the development of an Academic Master Plan (AMP) aligned to the university's strategic plan, UC2019u. The AMP, unveiled in May 2012, outlined an initial investment of about $10 million toward long-term strategic goals set for completion in UC's bicentennial year, 2019.

Dr. Ono is the first Asian American to serve as UC's chief executive and one of only a few Asian Americans to serve as president of a major research institution in the United States.

Dr. Ono also serves as Professor of Pediatrics within UC's College of Medicine and Professor of Biology in the McMicken College of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Ono's principal research interests focus on transcriptional regulation in the human immune system, mechanisms of mast cell dependent inflammation on the ocular surface and the immune component of age-related macular degeneration.

Prior to UC, Dr. Ono served at Emory University as Vice Provost for Academic Initiatives and Deputy to the Provost and then Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academic Affairs, also serving as Professor in the Department of Ophthalmology, Emory University School of Medicine.

Earlier in his career, he also served in a variety of teaching, research and administrative positions at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, Harvard Medical School (and the Schepens Eye Research Institute), University College London (UCL) and Moorfields Eye Hospital in London.

Effective in July 2013, the U.S. Department of State Office of Foreign Missions appointed Dr. Ono to serve as Honorary Consul of Japan.

Dr. Ono's service in the community includes the Cincinnati Business Committee and the boards of Ohio's Third Frontier, Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber of Commerce, Cincinnati Art Museum, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, CincyTech, UC Health, Uptown Consortium, United Way, and Japan America Society of Cincinnati. He chairs the UC Research Institute board, the United Way Research Council and the board of the Global HEED (Promoting Health, Education and Economic Development), and co-chairs the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky Early Grade-Level Reading Campaign. He is a member of the Chancellor's Ohio Completion Task Force of the Ohio Board of Regents as well as the Executive Committee of the STRIVE partnership and served on the Board of Advisors for Strive for College.

He has served on the Medical Research Council's Medical Advisory Board and College of Experts and the IMS and HAI study sections of the National Institutes of Health. He has consulted widely for companies such as GSK, Cambridge Antibody Technologies plc (now part of Astra Zeneca), Johnson & Johnson, Santen Inc. and Oxagen plc. He is chief scientific officer of iCo Therapeutics Inc., of Vancouver, Canada.

As a scholar and researcher, Dr. Ono has served on the editorial boards of the Journal of Immunology, Journal of Biological Chemistry, Immunology and the Journal of Allergy & Clinical Immunology.

Among his many honors and awards are the American Diabetes Association Career Development Award, the Investigator Award from the National Arthritis Foundation, the Brit Katz Award (Emory University), the Roche Laboratories Award for Excellence in Research, the Pharmacia International Award in Allergy Research. He was elected a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2012.

Dr. Ono earned his PhD at McGill University and his BA at the University of Chicago. His training in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at Harvard was supported by a Helen Hay Whitney Foundation Fellowship.

MIKE BOHN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mike Bohn was named the director of athletics at the University of Cincinnati on Feb. 6, 2014

Bohn's career spans thirty years and includes record-setting achievements at multiple institutions.

"We are beyond excited to join the UC community--with its rich history and remarkable momentum," Bohn said. I am eager to partner with a highly energized President who understands the collaborative role that athletics can play in advancing the University's vision and values. Go Bearcats!"

"To recruit a leader of Mike's caliber and national standing only reaffirms the strength, promise and pride of UC Athletics. Mike has successfully moved multiple high profile programs to greater heights, and I am confident that he will help us do the same," Ono said. "I invite all of you to join me in welcoming Mike and his family to the Bearcat family."

As director of athletics at the University of Colorado from 2005 to 2013, Bohn successfully led their transition to the Pac-12 Conference. CU won four conference championship titles within two years, including the first for men's basketball in over 43 years. Meanwhile, Bohn enhanced academic support for scholar-athletes, resulting in departmental highs for APR and GPA.

He oversaw several multi-million dollar capital projects and facility upgrades, as well as secured the largest corporate sponsorship in school history. In 2008, CU garnered national attention for launching the first zero-waste stadium initiative at the college or professional level. In 2013, CU was named the most economically efficient athletics department in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics at

Prior to the University of Colorado, Bohn served as director of athletics at San Diego State University. Under his watch, SDSU football increased season ticket sales by 27% and game-day attendance by 59%, in addition to setting a SDSU single-game attendance record of 57,000 against Idaho State. The SDSU baseball team set a NCAA single-game attendance record of 40,000.

As director of athletics at the University of Idaho from 1999 to 2003, Bohn successfully led their transition to the Division I-A ranks from the Big Sky Conference. Under Bohn, UI began construction on the Vandal Athletics Center, the first athletic facilities improvement in two decades. Additionally, he spearheaded a 20% increase in the Vandal Scholarship Fund and a $350,000 surge in annual corporate support.

Bohn spent three years at Colorado State University as associate director of athletics. At CSU, he was responsible for all external revenue-producing operations, including: ticket sales; fundraising through the Greater Ram Club; licensing; corporate sales; signage; capital campaigns; broadcasting rights fees; and special events.

Prior to CSU, Bohn served as Director of Marketing for the College Football Association. The CFA, the precursor to the current Bowl Championship Series, consisted of six major football conferences encompassing 67 universities. Bohn assisted with the CFA's administration of a $67 million television package involving ABC, ESPN and ESPN2.

He began his athletic administrative career at the Air Force Academy, where he played a major role in increasing football season ticket sales from 6,000 to 20,000 and in implementing a fundraising campaign that generated $16 million for stadium improvements.

Bohn received a bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas, where he was recruited as a quarterback and also played baseball, and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

He is married to the former Kim Zeren, and they have a son, Brandon, and a daughter, Michaelyn Tynan, along with a son-in-law, John Tynan, and a grandson, Chase Tynan.

Home to University of Cincinnati men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball since 1989, Fifth Third Arena has served as the venerable backdrop for numerous exciting moments in Bearcats Athletics.

The 13,176-seat facility opened as the Myrl H. Shoemaker Center, named for the former Ohio Lieutenant Governor. The building was renamed in 2004 to recognize Fifth Third Bank's generous support of the athletic facilities improvement campaign.

The festive arena, with 16 private executive suites, new Daktronics video boards and restaurant and lounge area overlooking the court, provides a loud and raucous home-court advantage for the Bearcats.

A new portable playing surface, the All-Star Plus which is used by several NBA teams, was installed for the 2003-04 season and resurfaced prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Fifth Third Arena stands at the center of the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. It is connected to the Lindner Athletic Center, which allows convenient access to the Bearcats' state-of-the-art sports medicine and strength & conditioning centers, as well as all administrative and coaching offices and the Nancy Hamant Academic Center.

The UC volleyball squad beat Toledo on Sept. 12, 1989 in the first organized athletic event in the new $32-million facility.

Fifth Third Arena has been the ultimate home court advantage for the Bearcats volleyball team. Since the arena's inception, UC has produced a .706 winning percentage (221-92) in matches played at home, as well as a .767 winning percentage (132-40) in conference matches played at home.

Additionally, Fifth Third Arena has hosted 12 regular-season volleyball tournaments, two conference tournaments and four nationally televised matches.

Molly Alvey was named the 12th head coach in the 40-year history of University of Cincinnati volleyball on Feb. 15. 2012.

Entering her fourth season at Cincinnati, Alvey received acclaim from Prep Volleyball with the nation's 26th-best recruiting class, including Jordan Thompson and Jade Tinglehoff, ranked Nos. 44 and 96, respectively. It was the first UC recruiting class recognized by Prep Volleyball since the 2010 class was named to the honorable mention list.

The 2014-15 school year was a record-breaking year for the volleyball team in the classroom. Under Alvey's guidance the team posted a 3.475 GPA, including a department-high 3.648 during the spring semester. The top marks earned the Bearcats the AVCA Team Academic Award for the second time since 2013.

Additionally in 2014, the head coach mentored junior right side hitter Emma Roberson to Second Team All-American Athletic Conference honors after finishing the season with 415 kills, the highest mark for a UC player since 2012

In 2012, during her first year at the helm of the program, Alvey led Cincinnati to a fifth-place finish in the BIG EAST standings and its eighth consecutive bid to the BIG EAST Championship where it advanced to the semifinal round for the fourth straight year. Alvey guided her team through a tough schedule, playing 11 matches against teams ranked in the top-25 of the AVCA Coaches' poll, and two others against teams receiving votes.

In her first season, Alvey tutored senior All-American Jordanne Scott, who was a unanimous pick to the All-BIG EAST First Team, as well as the AVCA All-Northeast Region First Team and the AVCA All-America Honorable Mention team.

In addition to Scott, seniors Becca Refenes and Emily Hayden and junior Emmi MacIntyre were named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team in 2012.

Before coming to Cincinnati, Alvey spent two seasons as head coach at Houston, leading the Cougars to a 38-24 overall record and mentoring 2011 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America selection Lucy Charuk.

She also spent the 2004 season as the head coach at the University of Southern Indiana, leading the Screaming Eagles to Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) regular-season and tournament titles en route to the program's second-ever NCAA Division II national championship tournament berth.

Alvey's 2011 Cougars were ranked as high as 38th in the AVCA RPI and placed four members on the all-conference teams. She guided Houston to a third-place finish in Conference USA in 2010 with a 13-7 record. It was the program's first top-three finish since 2005 and the 13 C-USA wins were also the most in league play since 1999. In addition, Alvey tutored all-C-USA first-team selections Charuk and Chandace Tryon. Charuk went on to be named an AVCA All-America honorable mention selection while earning a spot as an AVCA allregion selection.

Prior to Houston, Alvey spent five seasons at the University of Mississippi, including the final two seasons as associate head coach. She began her career at Temple in 2001 where she spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach.

Alvey played volleyball and basketball at Centre College in Danville, Ky., earning her bachelor's degree in economics in 2001. Alvey lettered all four seasons as a setter for the volleyball team and held the school's career record for assists with 4,340. She helped her team to an 82-59 overall record during her career, earning all-conference honors as a junior and senior.

Alvey also played basketball for Centre and was an all-conference selection at point guard as a senior. She holds the single-season three-point percentage record at .456.

COACHING STAFF

Phillip White came to UC in 2014 with over 12 years of coaching experience at the high school, club, college and national levels as well as ample directing and playing experience. Before starting his stint at Cincinnati, White spent two years as the head coach and training coach at the Academy Volleyball Club (AVC) in Cleveland, Ohio while also acting as the associate director of volleyball at the SPIRE Institute in Geneva, Ohio.

At the AVC, he was a training coach for the 15, 16, 17 and 18-year-old club players, amassing 100 athletes. White oversaw all training of individual defensive skills and team block/defensive systems. While at the club, he earned silver medals at the 2013 AAU National Championships and at the 2013 Junior Olympic National Championships as the head coach of the AVC 17s team.

At the SPIRE Institute, White organized and administered all ongoing volleyball training sessions for 50 athletes, coordinated recruitment, marketed the volleyball program and designed camps and college combines. Two of his top athletes that he mentored and trained committed to play their college careers at UC San Diego and UCLA.

White was the head volleyball coach at Schreiner University from 2008 through 2011. White took over a program that was 11-14 in its previous season and compiled three consecutive winning seasons during his tenure. White was named American Southwest Conference Coach of the Year in 2009, the same year his team set the single-season wins record for the school. He had two players earn ASC All-Conference awards from the 2009 volleyball team.

Before taking the head job at Schreiner, White was an assistant coach at the University of Southern California from 2007 through 2008. He was responsible for backcourt training as well as the block and defense systems. While at USC, the team made it to the NCAA National Championship match.

Additionally, White has 11 years of directing camps under his belt, including NIKE volleyball camps in Texas and California, and USA High Performance boys' camps.

White played his collegiate volleyball at Long Beach State from 2000-2004 and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications. His junior season, White earned MPSF All-Conference honors. White was part of the 2004 team that played for a national championship title coming up just short to BYU in the fifth set.

Kaya Jeter was added to the University of Cincinnati volleyball staff as an assistant coach in March of 2014.

A native of Solon, Ohio, Jeter brings many years of high-level volleyball experience and IQ to the University of Cincinnati.

Prior to being named as assistant coach at UC, Jeter spent a year as a professional volleyball player in Finland playing for the LP Kangasala Volleyball Club in the LML Lentopallon Mestaruusliga league. There she played with four national team trainees, winning the 2012 Suomen Cup Championship and earning a 2012 league runner-up title. She also was named the regular-season team MVP three times and the playoff-season team MVP four times.

Jeter spent five years as a member of the University of Tennessee volleyball team from 2008 until 2012. During her time at UT, she was named AVCA All-America honorable mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC first team while also being recognized as part of the SEC academic honor roll and the SEC community service team. Jeter also was selected as the AVCA National Player of the Week in 2010, recognizing her play as the best in the country.

She was part of a Tennessee program that advanced to the NCAA tournament in each of her five years as a member of the team and finished no worse than third in the competitive Southeastern Conference (SEC). Jeter helped UT earn a national ranking as high as No. 14 during her time on the court.

Jeter graduated from UT with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and a Masters of Kinesiology.
