THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

AN INSTITUTION ON THE RISE

- » U.S. News has ranked UC in the Top Tier of America's Best Colleges and as one of 15 "up and coming" universities.
- » The Chronicle of Higher Ed. calls UC a "research heavyweight."
- » Travel & Leisure Magazine ranked UC among America's Most Beautiful College Campuses.
- » UC was the first public institution in Ohio named a "green university" by Princeton Review.
- » Classified as a Research University (Very High Research Activity) by the Carnegie Commission, UC is ranked as one of America's top 25 public research universities by the National Science Foundation.
- » Money Magazine's "Elite Values in Higher Education," Kaplan's "Unofficial, Unbiased Insider's Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges," Octameron's "College Match: A Blueprint for Choosing the Best School for You" and Yahoo's "Internet Life" have all ranked the University of Cincinnati's programs among the best in the nation.

LARGE PUBLIC UNIVERSITY

- » The University of Cincinnati enrolls more than 42,000 students, including its Blue Ash and Clermont campuses, each year in a diverse collection of 13 colleges and divisions - from the College-Conservatory of Music to the College of Medicine, law to engineering, business to arts and sciences.
- » The university offers more than 300 majors and degree programs from the associate to doctoral level.

ATTRACTING ELITE STUDENTS

- » UC's total financial support for students is nearly $68 million, with its cornerstone scholarship program, Cincinnatus, awarding more than 2,000 scholarships totaling over $18 million.
- » There are a several additional aid awards available, including the STEER Program, Darwin T. Turner Scholarship Fund, Choose Ohio First, Cincinnati Pathways Scholarship, UC Global scholars and tuition reciprocity.
- » Additional information is available for your consideration.
- » The University Honors Program comprises the top seven percent of UC students and is committed to helping students maximize their educational opportunities at UC while discovering and pursuing their passions in life and using their gifts and talents to make meaningful contributions to society.

AMONG THE NATION'S MOST DIVERSE

We offer many components that enrich us as a vibrant, public research university. UC is ranked 19th on the top 20 list of universities with a diverse student population.

ASSISTING IN THEIR SUCCESS

- » Learning communities serve more than 2,000 freshmen annually and feature personnel who have won national awards. They are an integral part of the first-year experience at UC and are an exciting way for first-year students to build a network of study partners and friends.
- » The Center for Exploratory Studies has been featured in New York Times as a best practice and assists students who have not yet declared a major or who may be considering a change and want to make informed, intelligent decisions about their futures.

WORLD-RENOWNED PROGRAMS

- » The College & Conservatory of Music (CCM) is ranked in the top 10 music schools nationally.
- » The Criminal Justice and Pediatrics programs are each ranked third in the nation, the College of Design Architecture Art & Planning (DAAP) annually has its design programs ranked in the top three nationally and its architecture program in the top 10.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

- » Co-op was invented at the University of Cincinnati in 1906. Now, over 100 years and 43 countries later, generations of students worldwide have followed our lead.
- » Today, UC's co-op program is listed among the nation's best in US News & World Report rankings.

LOYAL ALUMNI

- » The 2010-11 Almanac from the Chronicle of Higher Education ranked UC's endowment of $1,004,368,000 at 74th in the United States among all colleges and universities.
- » Income from endowment earnings reflect the dedication of more than 250,000 living alumni.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Cincinnati Bearcats take pride in their athletic and academic accomplishments. They also hold a unique place for their Cincinnati community and express that through engaging outside of sport. Each of our 19 teams does their part each year to give back to the community that supports them.

During the 2015-2016 academic year, UC studentathletes completed over 4,300 hours of community service, visiting over 25 separate sites. Some partnerships that were made include Cincinnati Reds Urban Youth Academy, Cincinniati Children's Hospital, Boys & Girls Club of Greater Cincinnati, Ronald McDonald House, Special Olympics, American Cancer Society, Habitat for Humanity, Free Store Food Bank, Girls on the Run, Making Strides Against Breast Cancer, American Red Cross and Relay for Life.

Within the athletic department we have two annual community engagement initiatives that are organized by UC student-athletes.

One of the major events sponsored by UC studentathletes is Gatorade Pong. Put on annually by the DURING THE 2015-2016 ACADEMIC YEAR, UC STUDENT-ATHLETES COMPLETED OVER 4,300 HOURS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), the tournament style event includes raffles, prizes and food. All of the proceeds go to Mother's Against Drunk Driving to promote education and safe driving. The event includes representation from all of our teams as well as faculty, staff and the Cincinnati community.

The Bearcats partnered with the Ronald McDonald House this year with both athletes and members of the Athletic Department staff held a gift drive to benefit the children and their families.

Members of SAAC and other student-athletes also parterned with campus and Greek Life to host a Special Olympics day at Sheackly Athletics Center. This events builds on the relationship the women's volleyball program has fostered with the Special Olympics program.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Strength and conditioning is one of the most important ingredients of any successful college athletic department. To help the Bearcats' student-athletes maximize their athletic potential, UC combines a modern, comprehensive facility with the latest techniques in sports performance.

The goal of the strength and conditioning program is to develop the total athlete. The strength and conditioning staff works with UC student-athletes in the following areas: strength/power, agility/skill development, nutrition, mental toughness, speed, flexibility, conditioning and injury prevention to lead to total athlete development.

No area is given greater attention and emphasis than strength and conditioning.

With the opening of the Richard E. Lindner Athletics Center, the Bearcats utilize a 22,000-square-foot strength training facility, one of the largest in the nation. The facility includes state-of-the art equipment and an artificial turf warm-up area, trimmed in the same surface UC plays on at Nippert Stadium, Gettler Stadium and Marge Schott Stadium.

In 2013, the mirror-covered space received an overhaul, including painting, new Olympic weights, 36 racks, a new top-of-the-line flooring system

Space within the weight room was also redistributed in a more efficient manner, allowing multiple teams and groups to work out at the same time.

In the summer of 2014, a nutrition bar was added; ensuring UC student-athletes will have access to pre- and post-workout nutritional shakes and NCAA-regulated supplements.

Joe Walker heads up the football strength and conditioning staff and is assisted by former UC standout running back Orlando Smith, Parker Showers and Chris Gray.

Mike Rehfeldt oversees the men's basketball program while Kelly Powers leads the women's basketball and Olympic sports effort along with the hlep of Lauren Kelly.

UNDER ARMOUR APPAREL

The University of Cincinnati department of athletics officially welcomed Under Armour to the family Wednesday, as the global performance brand began its tenure as the official outfitter for UC's intercollegiate athletics program starting July 1, 2015.

The long-term partnership was originally announced on April 2, 2015.

As part of the multi-year agreement, Under Armour will exclusively design and supply the footwear, apparel and equipment for training and gameday uniforms for each of UC's 19 men's and women's varsity athletic teams beginning in the 2015-16 season.

In addition to outfitting the Bearcats, the brand plans to integrate the University into its wide-ranging storytelling efforts, including global marketing campaigns, social media initiatives, in-store promotions and grassroots activations.

"Our talented players, coaches and staff are excited to share this new relationship with our dedicated fans and demonstrate how two hot brands will take the Bearcats to new heights," Director of Athletics Mike Bohn said. "Under Armour has made a significant commitment to UC which will allow us to strive for even more significant achievements. We share a passion to provide our student-athletes with all the cutting edge tools to compete at the highest level."

This new affiliation further expands Under Armour's leadership in providing proven performance benefits to college athletes on all playing fields. Cincinnati is the brand's fifteenth Division 1 all-school partnership.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Cincinnati's sports medicine program is responsible not only for helping student-athletes make speedy recoveries from injuries, but in preventing injuries from occurring.

UC's sports medicine program is a comprehensive approach to the injury care and the wellness of the University's over 500 student-athletes, utilizing state-of-the-art diagnostic and treatment equipment with the latest methods in the care and prevention of injuries.

Its objectives are simple: to prevent injuries, to rehabilitate injuries, to adjust to the stress following injuries and to educate student-athletes about various wellness issues. Athletic trainers are present at every practice and event to monitor the health of the student-athletes and respond to injuries.

The goal is to get UC's athletes back in the classroom and on the playing field functioning at 100 percent capacity. New student-athletes are carefully examined before they participate to detect potential problems. All student-athletes are afforded state-of-the-art therapeutic care.

During the summer of 2011 and following an extensive departmental review, UC made the decision to outsource it sports medicine operation to Select Medical, the parent company of NovaCare Rehabilitation, which is UC's longtime provider of rehabilitation services.

Under the direction of Associate AD/Sports Medicine Bob Mangine, UC's athletic trainers are the backbone of the sports medicine program. Mangine, drawing on more than three decades in the sports medicine and physical therapy fields, supervises a staff of six assistant athletic trainers, four intern athletic trainers and two physical therapists.

UC has some of the top doctors in the country on staff, led by Head Team Physician Dr. Jon Divine and Director of Orthopedic Services Dr. Angelo Colosimo.

Cincinnati is on the forefront of concussion prevention and management thanks to Dynavision Training. In 2010, wanting to address the prevention and management of concussions in its own athletes, UC called on medical researchers at UC to develop a Concussion Prevention Program. What resulted is a training program that helps athletes improve their peripheral vision and neurovisual performance to protect themselves from potentially violent collisions. Since the introduction, UC athletics has seen an 80% drop in concussions.

UC's state-of-the-art sports medicine facility caters to the needs of UC's student-athletes. Features of the training room include over 4,000 square feet of space for treatment and taping, spacious office suites for training staff and physicians, hydrotherapy areas, a physicians' exam area and x-ray facilities.

UC Health provides nationally-recognized specialists who are immediately accessible. University of Cincinnati Medical Center, a nationally recognized medical center, is immediately adjacent to UC's campus, providing Bearcats student-athletes the absolute best in health and medical care. UC Health Imaging Centers has an MRI diagnostic center within the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village complex.

Beverly J. Davenport is Interim President of the University of Cincinnati, one of the nation's top public research universities and an institution ranked by U.S. News & World Report among the top tier of the Best National Universities.

Prior to her appointment as Interim President by UC's Board of Trustees in July 2016, she served for three years as UC's Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost - the university's chief academic officer.

In her newest role, Davenport oversees a state university with a $1.2 billion budget, record-setting enrollment of over 44,000 students, nearly 300,000 living alumni, over 17,000 faculty, staff and student workers, a $1.2 billion endowment and more than $390 million in annual research funding. In collaboration with the university's senior leadership, faculty, staff and students, Davenport helps to advance the ambitious goals outlined in UC's Creating Our Third Century plan: investing in faculty and staff, reimagining the student experience, leveraging research and excelling in elearning.

Since Davenport's arrival at UC in July 2013 as Provost, UC has enjoyed record-setting enrollments along with rising retention and graduation rates. Forty percent of the growth in baccalaureate degrees awarded in the entire state of Ohio is due to UC's recent record graduation rates.

During her UC tenure, Davenport has launched aggressive faculty recruitment initiatives, including a $60 million Cluster Hiring Initiative, a Strategic Hiring Opportunity Program and a Dual Career Assistance Program that has significantly increased the number of women and underrepresented minority faculty hired. The number of female faculty hired has nearly doubled since she came to the university.

In supporting student success, Davenport also has increased UC's international engagement with faculty and student partnerships while doubling the number of students who study abroad. She has invested in mental health counseling, student services, on-line learning and access and opportunity programs including the formation of the UC Summer Scholars Academy, a summer residential program for Hughes STEM High School students. She has overseen operations to award financial aid to more than 30,000 UC undergraduates and championed a Textbook Affordability Initiative, which has gained state-wide attention for helping students save millions of dollars.

Davenport also has been a partner with UC's Athletics Director Mike Bohn in using mobile devices to improve student-athletes' study habits and their access to study materials while traveling. These programs have resulted in record improvements in athletes' academic performance. Davenport and Bohn have also collaborated to use athletic facilities for innovative classroom spaces, such as the newly renovated Nippert Stadium.

Recently, she brought together the oldest co-op program in the world - UC's Professional Practice and Experiential learning division (ProPEL) - with the university's Career Development Center to reimagine experiential education for the 21st century.

Another of her recent innovations is the launch of the Urban Futures Cluster hiring initiative, designed to recruit faculty whose research, teaching and scholarship focuses on opportunities and challenges facing urban areas.

In the Cincinnati community, she serves on the board of UC Research Institute and UC Health; the leadership team for Go Red for Women; and on the Board of Directors for St. Vincent de Paul Cincinnati and the UC Research Institute.

Prior to her appointment at UC, Davenport served as Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs at Purdue University, where she managed a broad portfolio of faculty-focused initiatives, ranging from a $70 million faculty cluster hiring initiative to faculty development programs, including the launch of women's leadership programs. Before her tenure at Purdue, Davenport was a senior fellow at Virginia Tech University, divisional dean for the social sciences at the University of Kansas and chair of the Department of Communication at the University of Kentucky.

Davenport is an accomplished scholar who has authored more than 100 papers and articles. She published three books on quality of work life issues and workplace civility. She is an award-winning teacher who has been recognized for excellence in education at the national level and for her advances in technology-infused learning at the state level. Earlier in her career, she was named a University of Kentucky Great Teacher, a University of Kansas Kemper Fellow for Excellence in Teaching, and a Mortar Board and Phi Beta Kappa outstanding professor.

Davenport has been the principal investigator or co-principal investigator for more than $18 million of funding from the National Science Foundation, the U.S. Department of Education and various foundations. She earned a PhD in communication with a cognate in organizational behavior and management from The University of Michigan and bachelor's degrees in communication and journalism from Western Kentucky University in her hometown of Bowling Green, Kentucky.

MIKE BOHN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mike Bohn was named the director of athletics at the University of Cincinnati on Feb. 6, 2014

Bohn's career spans thirty years and includes record-setting achievements at multiple institutions.

"We are beyond excited to join the UC community--with its rich history and remarkable momentum," Bohn said.

As director of athletics at the University of Colorado from 2005 to 2013, Bohn successfully led their transition to the Pac-12 Conference. CU won four conference championship titles within two years, including the first for men's basketball in over 43 years. Meanwhile, Bohn enhanced academic support for scholar-athletes, resulting in departmental highs for APR and GPA.

He oversaw several multi-million dollar capital proiects and facility upgrades, as well as secured the largest corporate sponsorship in school history. In 2008, CU garnered national attention for launching the first zero-waste stadium initiative at the college or professional level. In 2013, CU was named the most economically efficient athletics department in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics at Texas A&M.

Prior to the University of Colorado, Bohn served as director of athletics at San Diego State University. Under his watch. SDSU football increased season ticket sales by 27% and game-day attendance by 59%, in addition to setting a SDSU single-game attendance record of 57,000 against Idaho State. The SDSU baseball team set a NCAA single-game attendance record of 40,000.

As director of athletics at the University of Idaho from 1999 to 2003, Bohn successfully led their transition to the Division I-A ranks from the Big Sky Conference. Under Bohn, UI began construction on the Vandal Athletics Center, the first athletic facilities improvement in two decades. Additionally, he spearheaded a 20% increase in the Vandal Scholarship Fund and a $350,000 surge in annual corporate support.

Bohn spent three years at Colorado State University as associate director of athletics. At CSU, he was responsible for all external revenue-producing operations, including: ticket sales; fundraising through the Greater Ram Club; licensing; corporate sales; signage; capital campaigns; broadcasting rights fees; and special events.

Prior to CSU, Bohn served as Director of Marketing for the College Football Association. The CFA, the precursor to the current Bowl Championship Series, consisted of six major football conferences encompassing 67 universities. Bohn assisted with the CFA's administration of a $67 million television package involving ABC, ESPN and ESPN2.

He began his athletic administrative career at the Air Force Academy, where he played a major role in increasing football season ticket sales from 6,000 to 20,000 and in implementing a fundraising campaign that generated $16 million for stadium improvements.

Bohn received a bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas, where he was recruited as a quarterback and also played baseball, and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

He is married to the former Kim Zeren, and they have a son, Brandon, and a daughter, Michaelyn Tynan, along with a son-in-law, John Tynan, and a grandson, Chase Tynan.

Home to University of Cincinnati men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball since 1989, Fifth Third Arena has served as the venerable backdrop for numerous exciting moments in Bearcats Athletics.

The 13,176-seat facility opened as the Myrl H. Shoemaker Center, named for the former Ohio Lieutenant Governor. The building was renamed in 2004 to recognize Fifth Third Bank's generous support of the athletic facilities improvement campaign.

The festive arena, with 16 private executive suites, new Daktronics video boards and restaurant and lounge area overlooking the court, provides a loud and raucous home-court advantage for the Bearcats.

A new portable playing surface, the All-Star Plus which is used by several NBA teams, was installed for the 2003-04 season and resurfaced prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Fifth Third Arena stands at the center of the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. It is connected to the Lindner Athletic Center, which allows convenient access to the Bearcats' state-of-the-art sports medicine and strength & conditioning centers, as well as all administrative and coaching offices and the Nancy Hamant Academic Center.

The UC volleyball squad beat Toledo on Sept. 12, 1989 in the first organized athletic event in the new $32-million facility.

Fifth Third Arena has been the ultimate home court advantage for the Bearcats volleyball team. Since the arena's inception, UC has produced a .706 winning percentage (221-92) in matches played at home, as well as a .767 winning percentage (132-40) in conference matches played at home.

Additionally, Fifth Third Arena has hosted 12 regular-season volleyball tournaments, two conference tournaments and four nationally televised matches.

The Bearcats are playing their final season in Fifth Third Arena before the facility undergoes an $90 million renovation beginning in 2017.

COACHING STAFF

Molly Alvey was named the 12th head coach of the University of Cincinnati volleyball program on Feb. 15, 2012.

During her fourth season at UC in 2015-16, Alvey led the Bearcats to a third-place finish in the American Athletic Conference with a 21-10 overall record and a 13-7 mark in league play. The team finished the year at No. 85 in the RPI rankings, jumping 74 sports from the year before.

She guided a young team that included freshmen Jordan Thompson, the American Freshman of the Year and First Team All-Conference honoree, and Carly Nolan, another first team All-League selection. Additionally, senior Emma Roberson earned First Team Academic All-America accolades to lead the team to a strong semester in the classroom, earning a collective 3.3 GPA.

Prior to the 2015 season, Alvey received acclaim from Prep Volleyball with the nation's 26th-best recruiting class, including Thompson and Jade Tinglehoff, ranked Nos. 44 and 96, respectively. It is the first UC recruiting class recognized by Prep Volleyball since the 2010 class was named to the honorable mention list.

The 2014-15 school year was a record-breaking year for the volleyball team in the classroom. Under Alvey's guidance the team posted a 3.475 GPA, including a department-high 3.648 during the spring semester. The top marks earned the Bearcats the AVCA Team Academic Award for the second time since 2013.

Additionally in 2014, the head coach mentored junior right side hitter Emma Roberson to Second Team All-American Athletic Conference honors after finishing the season with 415 kills, the highest mark for a UC player since 2012.

In 2012, during her first year at the helm of the program, Alvey led Cincinnati to a fifth-place finish in the BIG EAST standings and its eighth consecutive bid to the BIG EAST Championship where it advanced to the semifinal round for the fourth straight year. Alvey guided her team through a tough schedule, playing 11 matches against teams ranked in the top-25 of the AVCA Coaches' poll, and two others against teams receiving votes.

That season, Alvey tutored senior All-American Jordanne Scott, a unanimous pick to the All-BIG EAST First Team, as well as the AVCA All-Northeast Region First Team and the AVCA All-America Honorable Mention team. Seniors Becca Refenes and Emily Hayden and junior Emmi MacIntyre were named to the All-BIG EAST Second Team in 2012.

Before coming to Cincinnati, Alvey spent two seasons as head coach at Houston, leading the Cougars to a 38-24 overall record and mentoring 2011 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-America selection Lucy Charuk. She also spent the 2004 season as the head coach at the University of Southern Indiana, leading the Screaming Eagles to Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) regular-season and tournament titles en route to the program's second-ever NCAA Division II national championship tournament berth.

Alvey's 2011 Cougars were ranked as high as 38th in the AVCA RPI and placed four members on the all-conference teams. She guided Houston to a third-place finish in Conference USA in 2010 with a 13-7 record. It was the program's first top-three finish since 2005 and the 13 C-USA wins were also the most in league play since 1999. In addition, Alvey tutored all-C-USA first-team selections Charuk and Chandace Tryon. Charuk went on to be named an AVCA All-America honorable mention selection while earning a spot as an AVCA all-region selection. She also earned a spot on the Canadian national team during the summer of 2010. Not only did Alvey have success on the court in her first season at UH, but she also guided the program to a 3.37 GPA during the 2010-11 academic year, the highest departmental GPA and the best in program history. The squad also earned the AVCA team academic award.

Prior to Houston, Alvey spent five seasons at the University of Mississippi, including the final two seasons as associate head coach. She began her career at Temple in 2001 where she spent three seasons as a graduate assistant coach.

During her five-year tenure at Ole Miss, Alvey was part of a coaching staff that guided Ole Miss to a pair of NCAA national championship tournament appearances in 2006 and 2007. In that time, Alvey was responsible for coaching two-time All-Southeastern Conference setter Rachel Kieckhaefer who also picked up all-region honorable mention honors as a junior. She also played a part in developing All-SEC selection Jaclyn Toohey as well as SEC all-freshman selections Jackie Jones, Regina Thomas and Whitney Craven. As recruiting coordinator, Alvey helped secure the nation's 23rd-ranked recruiting class in 2009.

In 2006, the Rebels advanced to the NCAA national championship tournament for the first time in program history while tying the school record for conference wins in a season with 10. Ole Miss then advanced to the NCAA tournament for a second-straight season in 2007 with a 25-9 mark on the year and a record-setting 14 wins in SEC play. The Rebels finished third in the league and second in the western division that season while posting the first 20-win season since 1989.

During her lone season at Southern Indiana, Alvey led the Screaming Eagles to a 24-7 regular-season finish, claiming the GLVC regular-season title with a 15-1 conference record. Southern Indiana then stormed through the conference tournament to earn the program's second-ever NCAA Division II tournament berth, advancing to the second round. In her time at USI, Alvey coached two all-region selections and the program's second All-America selection, Laura Ellerbusch.

During her three years at Temple, Alvey was part of a program that posted an overall record of 72-25 (.742), claimed an Atlantic 10 Conference championship and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament in 2002. The Owls finished as A-10 runners-up in 2001 and 2003. Alvey was also a part of a staff that coached A-10 Player of the Year Xu Yun in 2002 and two-time A-10 Setter of the Year Allison Runk in 2002 and 2003. The Owls featured eight first-team all-conference selections during her tenure.

Alvey played volleyball and basketball at Centre College in Danville, Ky., earning her bachelor's degree in economics in 2001. Alvey lettered all four seasons as a setter for the volleyball team and held the school's career record for assists with 4,340. She helped her team to an 82-59 overall record during her career, earning all-conference honors as a junior and senior.

Alvey also played basketball for Centre and was an all-conference selection at point guard as a senior. She holds the single-season three-point percentage record at .456.

Phillip White is in his third season with the University of Cincinnati volleyball team after spending the 2013 season as the volunteer assistant and taking a full time assistant position in 2014.

In 2015, he helped guide the Bearcats to a third place finish in the American Athletic Conference while mentoring a pair of All-Conference selections in Carly Nolan and Jordan Thompson, the American Freshman of the Year.

White came to UC with over 12 years of coaching experience at the high school, club, college and national levels as well as ample directing and playing experience. Before starting his stint at Cincinnati, White spent two years as the head coach and training coach at the Academy Volleyball Club (AVC) in Cleveland, Ohio while also acting as the associate director of volleyball at the SPIRE Institute in Geneva, Ohio.

At the AVC, he was a training coach for the 15, 16, 17 and 18-year-old club players, amassing 100 athletes. White oversaw all training of individual defensive skills and team block/defensive systems. While at the club, he earned silver medals at the 2013 AAU National Championships and at the 2013 Junior Olympic National Championships as the head coach of the AVC 17s team.

At the SPIRE Institute, White organized and administered all ongoing volleyball training sessions for 50 athletes, coordinated recruitment, marketed the volleyball program and designed camps and college combines. Two of his top athletes that he mentored and trained committed to play their college careers at UC San Diego and UCLA.

White was the head volleyball coach at Schreiner University from 2008 through 2011. White took over a program that was 11-14 in its previous season and compiled three consecutive winning seasons during his tenure. White was named American Southwest Conference Coach of the Year in 2009, the same year his team set the single-season wins record for the school. He had two players earn ASC All-Conference awards from the 2009 volleyball team.

Before taking the head job at Schreiner, White was an assistant coach at the University of Southern California from 2007 through 2008. He was responsible for backcourt training as well as the block and defense systems. While at USC, the team made it to the NCAA National Championship match.

White coached at Los Alamitos High School from 2004-2007. There he won two Division I State Championships. He also led the boys program to the most successful season in school history. He coached at the club level for the Southern California Volleyball Club (SCVC) from 2002 - 2008.

Additionally, White has 11 years of directing camps under his belt, including NIKE volleyball camps in Texas and California, and USA High Performance boys' camps.

White played his collegiate volleyball at Long Beach State from 2000-2004 and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications. His junior season, White earned MPSF All-Conference honors. White was part of the 2004 team that played for a national championship title coming up just short to BYU in the fifth set.

Kaya Jeter was added to the University of Cincinnati volleyball staff as an assistant coach in March of 2014.

A native of Solon, Ohio, Jeter brings many years of highlevel volleyball experience and TQ to the University of Cincinnati.

During the 2015 season, Jeter helped mentor two All-American Athletic Conference selections in freshmen Carly Nolan and Jordan Thompson, the American Freshman of the Year. The Bearcats finished the season with a 21-10 overall record and a third place mark in conference play.

KAYLA JETER

ASSISTANT VOLLEYBALL COACH | 3RD SEASON

Prior to being named as assistant coach at UC, Jeter spent a year as a professional volleyball player in Finland playing for the LP Kangasala Volleyball Club in the LML Lentopallon Mestaruusliga league. There she played with four national team trainees, winning the 2012 Suomen Cup Championship and earning a 2012 league runner-up title. She also was named the regular-season team MVP three times and the playoff-season team MVP four times.

Jeter spent five years as a member of the University of Tennessee volleyball team from 2008 until 2012. During her time at UT, she was named AVCA All-America honorable mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC first team while also being recognized as part of the SEC academic honor roll and the SEC community service team. Jeter was also selected as the AVCA National Player of the Week in 2010, recognizing her play as the best in the country.

She was part of a Tennessee program that advanced to the NCAA tournament in each of her five years as a member of the team and finished no worse than third in the competitive Southeastern Conference (SEC). Jeter helped UT earn a national ranking as high as No.

14 during her time on the court.

Jeter graduated from UT with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and a Masters of Kinesiology.
