Grace Claxton

Athlete - Albany

CW 400m Hurdles Championship

On going into the race: "It's been kind of tough, I'm still new at hurdles. The past few weeks I've been at 58, but this is an Olympic year so I'm trying to qualify but I've been a little disappointed because I'm not seeing the time. Then today, at the perfect meet with perfect competition, I just came out and did 56, a huge PR for me." On winning at Penn Relays: "Last year I came in third overall. This is the first step before going to the Olympics so this is like a dream come true for me." On the upcoming season: "I have conference next week, then ECACs, then I have regionals all of those are going to help me to my main goal (The Olympics)."

Anna Cockrell

Athlete - Providence Day/NC

HSG 400M Hurdles Championship

On the atmosphere at Penn Relays: "This is a huge meet and a huge stadium, and there are so many people in here so it's hard to hear what's going on with the announcers. But it's exciting. It's exciting to be at this meet because it's so historic and so many people have come here and done great things." On her Penn Relays experience: "My first time here, I was a freshman and ran the 4x100. This is my third time doing 400 hurdles." On winning at Penn Relays: "It's incredible. Saying you won Relays is definitely a distinction, it's definitely something people respect, and it's something I've wanted to say for a long time. It feels great."

Andrea Keklak

1st Leg - Georgetown

Harsh weather conditions

"I enjoyed it in a weird way, it is the Penn Relays so I wanted to run my best."

Katrina Coogan

Anchor - Georgetown

Harsh weather conditions

"I just tried my best to stay calm, and run the best I could."

Heather Martin

2nd Leg - Georgetown

"I was glad that we were not in the lead when I got the baton because I like having someone to chase down when I run."

Michael Smith

Coach - Georgetown

"This win not only means a lot to me, but it also means a lot to the history of Georgetown."

Megan Clark
Athlete - Duke
How it felt to win at Penn Relays
"It feels good to win because I've been here four times and never won before."
Megan Clark
Athlete - Duke
How she handled harsh conditions
"I had to change my steps up a little bit, which was new for me, but I was able to adjust and get it done."
Megan Clark
Athlete - Duke
How it felt to compete against teammate
"We are usually the last two left, so it's always fun going up against her. Madison is great, she is a sophomore to look out for her in the future."
