Meet the Hoyas...

2014 Roster

Ricky Fried is now in his 10th season at the helm of the Hoya program after serving as a Georgetown assistant coach in 2003 and 2004.

In his first nine seasons, Fried has led the Hoyas to a 106-58 overall record and a 49-10 record in BIG EAST regular season games.

Under Fried, Georgetown has earned six BIG EAST regular season titles, made five trips to the BIG EAST Tournament Championship Game winning in 2010 and has advanced to the NCAA Tournament six times, reaching the quarterfinals twice.

Fried has coached 22 national All-Americans as well as the National Goalie of the Year, two BIG EAST Attackers of the Year, two Midfielders of the Year and five Defensive Players of the Year to go along with 51 BIG EAST first or second team selections. Additionally, he and his staff have won BIG EAST Staff of the Year on two occasions.

Last season, the Hoyas advanced to both the NCAA and BIG EAST Tournaments with a record of 13-6. Caroline Tarzian and Ashley Hunter were both All-Americans as well as five players earning All-BIG EAST honors. Fried was named associate head coach for the Hoyas in November 2003 and was involved in all aspects of the Hoya program but focused on an offensive unit that became one of the most potent in the nation. On the other side of the field, in 2003, Georgetown led the nation in caused turnovers.

Prior to Georgetown, Fried was an assistant coach at Johns Hopkins University for nine seasons. While at the school, Fried served as the recruiting coordinator and helped build Hopkins into a Division I Top 20 program after aiding in the transition from a strong D-III program.

A 1988 graduate of the University of Maryland-Baltimore County (UMBC), Fried was an All-American where he was a midfielder for the Retrievers lacrosse team. As a senior, he served as team captain, was named the team's Most Valuable Player and earned the team's Leadership Award. He was named to UMBC's All-Time Team in 1990. Fried arrived at Hopkins following a two-year stint as an assistant coach at the Gilman School and serving a season as an assistant at his alma mater. He also played professionally with the Philadelphia Wings from 1989-92 and 1997 and the Baltimore Thunder from 1993-94.

Fried is also active in the Intercollegiate Women's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IWLCA) and has served as the organization's vice president, on the board of directors, on its ethics and recruiting tournaments committees. Currently, he is on the Regional All-American Committee and is a member of the Tewaaron Trophy Committee.

After serving as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's Lacrosse Elite Team for three years, Fried was named the head coach of the national team in August of 2009. After leading Team USA to an undefeated gold medal this past summer at the Federation of International Lacrosse World Cup in Oshawa, Canada, his position was renewed through 2017. It marked his second World Cup gold after winning in the summer of 2009 as an assistant in Prague, Czech Republic.

As the head coach of the national team, Fried appoints assistant coaches, identifies talented players for the squad and advises on the direction women's lacrosse takes in the United States.

He, his wife, Halyna, and their children, Jack (10) and Paige (8), reside in Columbia, Md.

Second Seed

The Temple win clinched the second seed in the BIG EAST Championship for the Hoyas. GU will play in the late game on Thursday in the semifinals against the No. 3 seed. The Hoyas still have a chance at the share of the regular season title as the final games wind down.

Coaching Record

With the win over Temple, Head Coach Ricky Fried set the program record for wins held by Kim Simons at 114. Simons did it in nine seasons and Fried is his 10th making it an impressive feat for both.

Seniors

The class of nine has seen countless successes both on and off the field. As of senior day against Temple, the group has compiled a record of 38-31 as well as an impressive mark of 22-7 in BIG EAST Conference play as of senior day. They have appeared in four BIG EAST Tournaments including the championship game in 2013 and earned one NCAA Tournament bid. Individually as of senior day, they have combined for 460 games played with 262 starts as well as 267 goals and 80 assists for 347 total points. They have tallied 279 draw controls and on the defensive end managed 177 caused turnovers as well as 272 saves. They are an incredibly dedicated class that has worked hard to make Georgetown better for four on the Hilltop.

Familiar Faces

The Hoyas had a familiar face on the opposing sidelines. Former Georgetown standout Jordy Kirr is in her first year with the Golden Eagles. Kirr left the program in 2011 as its all-time leader in assists with 105, ranks fourth in total points with 221 and 10th with 116 goals in 71 games played. The Hoyas made a pair of appearances in the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Championship during her tenure and claimed their first BIG EAST tournament title in 2010. Kirr earned All-BIG EAST Championship honors as a junior (2010) and senior (2011) as well as IWLCAs All-South Region honors each of her four seasons.

Close Calls

The Hoyas played three consecutive one-goal games going 2-1 in the stretch against three ranked opponents. They followed that up with another one-goal, 11-10, overtime decision against ranked Johns Hopkins. GU downed Princeton in OT, 17-16, and defeated Duke, 11-10, but fell to Stanford in double overtime, 11-10. The Louisville and Connecticut games were two more to the list as GU fell, 14-13, to the Cards and won, 11-10, to the Huskies.

Tewaaraton Watch List

Kelyn Freedman and Caroline Tarzian were two of 51 student-athletes to be named to the Tewaaraton Award Watch List presented by Panama Jack. This is Tarzian's second nod to the Tewaaraton Watch List and Freedman's first. Tarzian was a nominee a season ago. They were two of just five players from the BIG EAST Conference to earn a spot on the 2014 list.

Arlington Visit

To begin the 2014 season, Georgetown Women's Lacrosse Head Coach Ricky Fried took his team to see the Changing of the Guard at Arlington National Cemetery as an exercise in discipline and dedication. Upon returning from Arlington, Va., Fried and his assistants Lauren Morton, Meg Dentler and Nick Williams, held a discussion on what could be garnered from the experience.

Captains

Barb Black, MJ Coyle, Hannah Franklin, Kelyn Freedman were selected as the 2014 team captains.

Sisters

There is only one set of sisters on the 2014 squad as freshman Jenny Schwalje joins her sister Lauren. Despite the same last name, Mollie and Courtney Caputo are not related although a number of Mollie's siblings have gone through the program. Additionally, Colleen Lovett hopes to follow in the footsteps of her sister Erin who graduated and was a starter in 2013.

Fried to Coach in 2017

After leading Team USA to its seventh world championship in July, Georgetown University Head Women's Lacrosse Coach Ricky Fried has been selected as head coach for the 2017 U.S. Women's National Team. Fried will lead Team USA as head coach through the 2017 Federation of International Lacrosse (FIL) World Cup in Surrey, England, where the U.S. will seek a third-consecutive world title and eighth overall. He led Team USA to a perfect 7-0 mark at the 2013 FIL World Cup in Oshawa, Ontario, where the U.S. outscored its opponents by a record 13.2 goals per game, including a 19-5 victory over Canada in the gold medal game. The U.S. also set records for goals in a tournament (127) and goals per game (18.1).
