CAMP OVERVIEW

Objective:

This camp is designed for the serious player who has an interest in continuing his career at the college level. The objective is to provide each player with an introduction to college teaching drills, techniques

Facilities:

The Bearcat Baseball Camp will be held at Marge Schott Stadium on the campus of the University of Cincinnati

What to bring:

Campers will need to bring their glove(s), hat, baseball cleats, turfs or gym shoes, a cup, baseball or sweat pants, sunscreen, and a snack. You should also bring a bat and helmet if you have them. Catchers will need to bring all of their catchers gear. Water and ice will be provided.

E-Mail:

Important: Your confirmation of a spot in the camp, any changes in schedule, additional information, questions, or general camp information will be sent through email. Please check the email address that you have put on your application regularly as this is our main form of communication. An e-mail will be sent out a week prior to camp with additional information (parking, directions, etc).

Staff:

The UC Baseball Coaching staff will be running and working the camp. The camp is open for any college coach or pro scout to attend. Feel free to invite other college coaches or scouts to come and watch you.
