UC BEGINS BIG EAST PLAY ON THE NATIONAL STAGE WITH FRIDAY NIGHT DATE VS. PITTSBURGH

- The University of Cincinnati opens BIG EAST Conference play hosting Pittsburgh in a Friday night (Sept. 8) prime time contest that will be televised nationally by ESPN2 and ESPN Mobile. Kickoff is 8 p.m. at Nippert Stadium.
- The matchup of the two 1-0 teams features an experienced Bearcat defense facing a talented Panther offense. UC's defense stole the show in the Bearcats' 31-0 season opener win over Eastern Kentucky last Saturday, posting the school's first shutout in 123 games. Pitt enters the game after rolling up 38 points in a 38-13 victory over Virginia.
- UC's offense will be led by the quarterback tandem of Dustin Grutza and Nick Davila. Last week, the pair combined to complete 19-of-34 passes for 282 yards and two touchdowns. Moreover, they engineered an offense that did not commit a turnover.
- The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh matchup is titled the River City Rivalry. The first of three trophy games on UC's schedule, the River City Rivalry trophy is comprised of a riverboat telegraph—a brass device for signaling the engine room—and a silhouette of the Ohio River.
- Cincinnati is looking for its first win in the series, which dates back 85 years. Pittsburgh leads the all-time series, 5-0. The Panthers won last year's meeting, 38-20.
- The game is Youth Football Night as well as NCAA Take a Kid to the Game Night. UC will provide tickets to all area youth football teams (8th grade and below) with reduced price tickets available for all parents and family members. Any child (age 13 and under) will be admitted free with a paid adult admission.

Bearcats on the Air

Each University of Cincinnati football game is aired live on radio through the Clear Channel network. Due to conflicts with the Cincinnati Reds, this week's game will air on WCKY-AM (1530 Homer). Dan Hoard is back for his seventh year as play-by-play voice. Former Bearcat players Jim Kelly, a wide receiver in the 1970s, and Deontey Kenner, a quarterback in the early 2000s, handle the analysis. Scott Springer hosts the pregame and postgame shows.

The Mark Dantonio Show

The 30-minute program is televised by WXIX-TV (FOX 19) on Friday nights at 12:30 a.m. and is aired on the Ohio News Network on Saturday's at 12:30 p.m. It is also available via podcast from the UC web site: GoBearcats.com.

Mark Dantonio Radio Show

The one-hour call-in show is broadcast live from 8-9 p.m. each Thursday from Rick's Tavern in Fairfield, Ohio. Head Coach Mark Dantonio and Jim Kelly enjoy an hour of college football talk on 700WLW, XM Radio channel 173 and 700wlw.com.

Interviewing Mark Dantonio

Head Coach Mark Dantonio and the entire UC coaching staff are available for interviews before practice on Monday through Thursday of this week.

Interviewing Mark Dantonio by Appointment

Coach Dantonio and his coaching staff are available through Thursday of this week for one-on-one interviews. Contact Kelby Siler to schedule an interview with any of the Bearcat coaches.

Bearcat Player Interviews

University of Cincinnati student-athlete interviews can be conducted Sunday through Thursday. In-person interviews will be done either before or after practice Tuesday through Thursday. Please contact Kelby Siler or Tom Hathaway at least 24 hours in advance to schedule a player interview.

Bearcat Interviews by Appointment

Player interviews also can be conducted Sunday through Thursday by scheduling an interview through the Sports Communications Office. Home and/or mobile phone numbers of players are not available.

UC Hosts Pitt in BIG EAST Opener

Cincinnati lines up for its first BIG EAST Conference game of the season on Friday night when UC entertains Pittsburgh at Nippert Stadium. Kickoff in the River City Rivalry is slated for 8:00 p.m. on ESPN 2 and ESPN Mobile at Nippert Stadium.

The two teams enter the BIG EAST opener with 1-0 records. UC is coming off its first shutout in 123 games, a 31-0 whitewashing of Eastern Kentucky. Pitt rolled to a 38-13 win over Virginia on Saturday.

Dave Pasch, Trevor Matich, Rod Gilmore and Rob Simmeljaer will call the game for ESPN 2 and ESPN Mobile. Dan Hoard, Jim Kelly and Deontey Kenner broadcast the game on WCKY-AM (1530 Homer).

A Quick Look at the Bearcats

The Bearcats will likely continue their two-quarterback offense against Pittsburgh. Last week, the duo of Dustin Grutza and Nick Davila produced four touchdowns, each throwing for a TD score.

The Bearcat defense was paced by Anthony Hoke, who had seven stops and 2.5 tackles for loss. The team's leading tackler a year ago, Haruki Nakamura finished with six stops and an interception.

Senior safety Dominic Ross and sophomore cornerback DeAngelo Smith also collected interceptions.

UC recorded the school's first shutout in 11 seasons in the 31-0 win over Eastern Kentucky.

Tight end Brent Celek lead the Bearcats with six catches for 81 yards in the season opener. Wide receiver Dominick Goodman scored on touchdown passes of 16 and six yards and finished with four catches for 48 yards. Eight different Bearcats registered a catch.

Kicker Kevin Lovell was perfect on placements, converting 4-of-4 PAT attempts and converting his lone field goal try, a 34-yarder against ECU. Punter Brian Steel notched three punts inside the ECU 20 yard line in his first action as a starter.

UC vs. Pennsylvania Programs

Cincinnati has been playing against teams from Pennsylvania since 1899, when the Bearcats dropped a 20-0 decision to Washington & Jefferson. UC owns an all-time mark of 7-24-1 (.234) against teams from Pennsylvania. The record against each Pennsylvania program is listed to the right:

Cats from the State of Independence

The Bearcats' roster contains four players from Western Pennsylvania. Antoine Horton, Lance Jeter and Donnell McKenzie all hail from Beaver County.

The Series... UC trails 0-5

Cincinnati and Pittsburgh are meeting on the gridiron for the sixth time in a series that dates back to 1921.

Friday's game marks the first time the Panthers have visited Cincinnati since 1922, a span of 84 years. Each of the past three meetings have taken place in Pittsburgh.

In the teams' last meeting, Dustin Grutza completed 9-of-19 passes for 180 yards and two touchdowns. Trailing 3-0 after the first quarter, UC allowed a blocked punt that led to the first touchdown of the game and a 10-0 deficit. It was the first-ever BIG EAST contest for UC.

Cincinnati vs. Pittsburgh

Friday's game marks the sixth meeting between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh and the second as a BIG EAST Conference matchup.

After a 22-year break between matchups, the Panthers won last year's fray 38-20 at Heinz Field. Pitt has won all five contests in the series. Cincinnati has allowed 38 points in each of the past two meetings with Pitt.

The two sides coined the title "River City Rivalry" for the game and created a trophy for the winner prior to the 2005 season.

UC-Pitt Ties

Pittsburgh offensive line coach Paul Dunn held the same position in Cincinnati for the 1994 and 1995 seasons. Pitt kicker David Abdul and UC offensive lineman J.P. Simon were teammates as Massillon (Ohio) Washington High. UC's Anthony Hoke and Delbert Ferguson and Pitt defensive back Mike Phillips played on some of the same teams at Warren (Ohio) Harding High. Pittsburgh defensive back Darrelle Revis and linebacker Tommie Campbell, and Cincinnati defensive end Donnell McKenzie played together at Aliquippa (Pa.) High. Cincinnati's Butler Benton and Pittsburgh's Branden Ballard played together at Detroit's Martin Luther King. UC's Robby Armstrong and Pitt's Francis Johns both played at Franklin Regional High in Murrysville, Pa. UC strong safety Haruki Nakamura and Pitt's offensive lineman Joe Thomas both played at St. Edward High in Lakewood, Ohio.

Homecoming for Pitt Player

One Pitt player hails from Greater Cincinnati. Sophomore DB Eric Thatcher (Moeller) is the Panther from the Queen City.

LAST MEETING: Pittsburgh 38, Cincinnati 20

Oct. 8, 2005

Heinz Field

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Special teams miscues proved to be Cincinnati's undoing in a 38-20 loss to Pittsburgh. Those miscues started on the opening kickoff of UC's first-ever BIG EAST Conference game when the Bearcats surrendered a 69-yard kickoff return to Terrell Allen. UC's defense responded to the challenge and held Pitt to a field goal.

In the second quarter, a blocked punt set up a Pitt six-yard TD drive, quarterback Tyler Palko taking it the final five yards. A penalty on the ensuing kickoff put UC on its 15 where an interception led to another field goal and a 16-0 halftime deficit.

The Bearcats showed life in the third quarter with a 5-play, 73-yard scoring drive, keyed by Dustin Grutza's 56-yard hook-up with Earnest Jackson. The Panthers retaliated with a touchdown almost as quickly, Rashad Jennings' 13-yard run capping a six-play, 52-yard drive, and later in the quarter took a 30-7 lead with a 79-yard punt return by Darrelle Revis.

Grutza rallied UC with TD passes of 47 yards to Brent Celek and 22 yards to Jackson. The freshman finished with 180 yards on 9-of-19 passing. Bradley Glatthaar, who scored UC's first TD on a five-yard run, had 63 yards in 16 carries.

The game was fairly even statistically. Pitt out-gained UC, 321-312, in total offense. The Bearcats actually had two more first downs than the Panthers and owned an edge in time of possession.

Defense Gives Rude Welcome with Shutout of Colonels

Cincinnati served as an unfriendly host to Eastern Kentucky's offense in the 31-0 triumph. In the first meeting between the two programs, UC's defense limited the Colonels to just 250 yards of total offense. ECU quarterback Justin Greco, the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year after passing for 2,861 yards last season, was limited to 159 yards passing through the air.

Stingy all night, through the first 30 minutes the UC defense yielded just 60 yards on 29 plays. The Bearcat defense was impressive in the first quarter, holding ECU to minus-11 yards of total offense. It took the Colonels more than 17 minutes to record their first first down.

Carvitti Makes the Most of Start vs. ECU

After recording one sack as a backup a year ago, senior Tony Carvitti notched two sacks in his first career start at defensive tackle in Saturday's win over Eastern Kentucky. The Cincinnati native's two sacks led the team. He set a career high with four tackles. The Bearcat defensive unit totaled four quarterback sacks and eight tackles for loss in the 31-0 triumph over ECU.

Hoke Sets New Highs on His Way to Leading the Defensive Front

Defensive end Anthony Hoke paced the Bearcat defense with a career-high seven tackles (four solo, three assists). Hoke was credited with 2.5 tackles for loss and two quarterback hurries in the victory.

Nakamura Stops Threat with First of Three UC Interceptions

Haruki Nakamura finished with six stops (5 solo, 1 assist) in the first game of the season. The junior intercepted a Colonel pass and returned it 14 yards to halt an ECU scoring threat and maintain the shutout late in the third quarter. It was the third interception of the free safety's career.

Senior free safety Dominic Ross and sophomore cornerback DeAngelo Smith also picked off passes in the victory.

Goodman Provides Good Target

Touted by the coaching staff throughout preseason camp, sophomore wide receiver Dominick Goodman caught four passes for 48 yards, including two for touchdowns in the season opener. Goodman made scoring catches of 15 and six yards in the 31-0 victory.

A former high school quarterback, Goodman recorded the first multiple receiving TD game since Hannibal Thomas tied the UC mark with three TD catches vs. Southern Miss. on Nov. 6, 2004.

Young Bearcats See First Action

A total of 13 Bearcats saw their first action in a college game in Cincinnati's season-opening victory over Eastern Kentucky. Four were first-year freshmen and seven were redshirt freshmen.

Two of the rookies were starters. Jeffrey Linkenbach and Marcus Waugh, both redshirt freshmen, started at left tackle and fullback, respectively.

Celek Totals Career Day

Tight end Brent Celek set a new career high with 81 receiving yards. Celek, who made six catches, extended his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception to 13.

The senior from Cincinnati recorded catches of 20 and 23 yards in the first 30 minutes. He made one catch for 10 yards in the second half.

LAST GAME: Cincinnati 31, Eastern Kentucky 0

Sept. 2, 2006

Nippert Stadium

Cincinnati, Ohio

The Bearcats' two-quarterback offense produced four touchdowns while the defense recorded the school's first shutout in 11 seasons as Cincinnati blanked Eastern Kentucky, 31-0.

The shutout was UC's first since a 16-0 whitewashing of Virginia Tech on Sept. 16, 1995, a span of 123 games. It was aided in part by drive-snuffing interceptions by Haruki Nakamura, Dominic Ross and DeAngelo Smith and aggressive play that limited EKU to just 250 yards.

The offense got a 161-yard passing effort from starter Dustin Grutza, who completed 9-of-15 passes, while Nick Davila, playing the second and fourth quarters, was 10-of-19 for 121 yards.

With a rushing attack that generated 129 yards, the Bearcats amassed 411 yards of total offense. The most important statistic to head coach Mark Dantonio was UC's zero turnovers.

Each quarterback engineered a touchdown drive in the first half. Grutza marched the Bearcats 66 yards in nine plays on UC's second possession of the season to set up Butler Benton's two-year TD run. Davila, who took over in the second quarter, got the Bearcats on the board with a 15-yard pass play to Dominick Goodman just before the half ended.

Grutza added a touchdown with a six-yard toss to Goodman late in the third quarter and was at the controls when Bradley Glatthaar scored from six yards out on the first play of the fourth quarter. Davila generated a clock-killing 12-play, 71-yard drive in the fourth quarter that set up Kevin Lovell's 34-yard field goal.

For most of the game, it was the Bearcat defense on center stage. The Colonels crossed midfield just four times. Anthony Hoke led UC with a career-best seven tackles. Tony Carvitt, making his first start at defensive tackle, had a pair of sacks.

Leg of Steel

Replacing Chet Ervin, who rewrote the UC record book for career punts and punting yardage over his four seasons was the task for Brian Steel. The junior made good in his debut as the starter. Steel boomed three punts inside the EKU 20. Five of his six punts required fair catches. The Colonels were unable to return a punt.

Starting on the Right Foot

After recording a 31-0 victory over Eastern Kentucky in the lid-lifter, Cincinnati improved to 71-38-10 (.639) in season openers. UC has opened the season with a win in seven of its last 10 seasons.

Kicking Off the Year at Home

The 2006 campaign marks the second year in a row in which UC started the slate with a home game. When opening the season at home, UC owns an impressive 37-14-3 record (.713) all-time.

Beginning the Home Slate with a Victory

Last weeks' 31-0 win over Eastern Kentucky marked Cincinnati's fifth consecutive victory in a home opener. The streak dates back to the Sept. 2, 2002, when UC needed overtime to outlast TCU, 36-29. The Bearcats are 51-37-3 (.577) all-time in home openers. They have started the home schedule with a win in seven of the last eight years.

There's No Place Like Home

Head Coach, Mark Dantonio's squads are 8-3 (.727) when playing at Nippert Stadium. In 2004, Dantonio's club went 4-1 at home. Last year's team finished 3-2 at home.

Game 2 • vs. Pittsburgh • Sept. 8, 2006

Lucky Seven Home Dates

Off to a 1-0 start at home, Cincinnati is hoping that playing seven home games is its lucky number. No strangers to playing seven home dates, UC has played seven or more home games 24 times in program history.

In 1953, Sid Gillman's squad notched the only 7-0 home mark in UC history on its way to a 9-1 record. Most recently, in 2002 Cincinnati hosted seven games. That squad finished 4-3 in the Queen City and advanced to the New Orleans Bowl.

On This Date...

Cincinnati is 2-1 all-time in games played on Sept. 8. It is 1-0 in home tilts on Sept. 8.

On Sept. 8, 2001, the Bearcats invaded Michie Stadium and topped Army, 27-24. On Sept. 8, 1984, Cincinnati won its season opener in dramatic fashion, 28-27 over Akron.

Captains

Seniors, tight end Brent Celek and strong safety Dominic Ross, will lead Cincinnati onto the field as teams captains throughout the 2006 campaign. Both are entering their third year as starters. They were elected by their teammates.

On Sept 8...

1990	L, 34-0	at Central Michigan
2001	W, 27-24	at Army

BIG EAST Champion

John Bowie already has a pair of BIG EAST Conference championships. The senior cornerback won the 100 meters and anchored UC's winning 4x100 relay at the league championship meet in June. He also placed third in the 200 meters. It was the first season in which he had competed in track since high school.

Quartet with Starting Strings

Four Bearcats own starting streaks of 12 games or more. Terrill Byrd, Brent Celek, Dustin Grutza and Haruki Nakamura started all 11 games in 2005, plus the 2006 opener.

Celek owns the longest streak of consecutive starts, having made 22 starts in-a-row. The tight end has not missed a start since the 24-19 win at East Carolina on Sept. 25, 2004.

Consecutive Starts

Smith Named to Butkus List

Cincinnati sophomore Corey Smith has been named to the watch list for the 2006 Butkus Award. The award, initiated in 1985 by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando, Fla., annually honors the nation's top linebacker. Smith, a 6-1, 220-pound native of Salem, N.J., was the Bearcats' third-leading tackler from his outside linebacker position as a first-year freshman in 2005. He recorded 64 stops before suffering an injury which sidelined him for the final two games.

Other Bearcat Honors

Eight Bearcats earned were cited by various preseason football publications. Trevor Anderson, Mike Mickens (first team), Earnest Jackson, Haruki Nakamura (second team) and Freddie Lenix (third team) were named to the preseason All-BIG EAST team by Phil Steele's College Football. Brent Celek, Terrill Byrd, Lenix and Mickens were nationally ranked at their respective positions.

Celek Approaches TE Marks

Brent Celek is on his way to becoming Cincinnati's all-time leading receiver from the tight end position. Celek entered the season with career totals of 56 receptions for 654 yards and needs just 19 catches and 56 receiving yards to reach the career records for tight end.

The senior has already established a new mark for touch-down catches by a TE with 11.

Academic Honors

Cincinnati placed nine players on the BIG EAST All-Academic team last season. Holdovers from those selections are seniors Tony Carvitti, Brent Celek, Bill Poland and Dominic Ross; juniors Digger Boujnoch and Jon Carpenter and redshirt freshman Ryan Manalac.

The UC football program earned honorable mention status in the American Football Coaches Association's Academic Achievement Award recognition. UC was one of 28 schools to achieve a graduation rate of 70 percent or better for the entering freshmen class of 2000-01. It marked the second time in the past four years that the Bearcats have been honored.

Historical Nippert Stadium

Nippert Stadium is the fifth-oldest NCAA Division I-A or I-AA stadium still in use. Opened in 1916, Nippert Stadium is preceeded in history by Harvard Stadium (1903), Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd/Grant Field (1914), the Yale Bowl (1914) and Cornell's Schoellkopf Stadium (1915). Though the permanent stadium first came into use in 1916, UC has been playing on the site since 1902.

Richard E. Lindner Center and Varsity Village

The future arrived for the University of Cincinnati athletics program in May with the completion of the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. The term "village" aptly applies because the close location and interconnection of the facilities provides ease of use and access to services for all of the sports teams and their student-athletes, similar to that of a small town. There was nothing small about the vision for Varsity Village, a $105 million project.

The focal point of Varsity Village is the Richard E. Lindner Center. Located between Nippert Stadium and Fifth Third Arena, the new futuristic eight-story structure houses offices, locker rooms, meeting and support space for each of UC's teams. The emphasis of the Lindner Center programming is on the student-athlete. One entire floor of the building is devoted to the Nancy Hamant Academics Center, which contains study facilities for UC's 530 student-athletes, including over 80 computer stations.

Other features include Marge Schott Stadium for baseball, Ben and Dee Gettler Stadium for soccer and track, a new tennis center, and the Keating Aquatics Center. Nippert Stadium also benefitted with new seating, video boards and the FieldTurf playing surface.

Head Coach Mark Dantonio

Mark Dantonio has established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming head coaches during his first two seasons at the University of Cincinnati.

He has led the Bearcats to a bowl game victory and directed the team's transition into the BIG EAST Conference.

Fifteen of his players have earned all-league honors. Twenty-five have received conference academic recognition. Six members of his first squad were on the rosters of NFL teams last fall. Eighteen members of the 2004 team completed their degrees.

Named head coach at Cincinnati on Dec. 23, 2003, became the first head coach in 23 years to pilot a team to a winning season in his initial campaign at UC. The Bearcats' 7-5 record included a 5-3 mark in Conference USA, good enough for a second place finish, and a win over Marshall in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl.

During the 2005 season, Dantonio molded a team that ranked among the nation's youngest to be a competitive squad in UC's first season in the BIG EAST en route to a 4-7 record.

The development of those young players plus the addition of another strong recruiting class portends a bright future for Cincinnati football.

Dantonio has completed nearly a quarter of a century of coaching experience, during which he has played integral roles in building winning programs. He has crafted defensive units which have been nationally recognized. And he has built a reputation for the close bonds that he builds with his players and the staff members with whom he works.

He has strong Midwest ties. An Ohio native who has spent half of his coaching career in the state, he has been effective recruiting its top talent.

Dantonio had served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State the previous three seasons, where he helped craft the defense which was the backbone of the Buckeyes' 2002 national championship.

Prior to his stint at Ohio State, Dantonio spent six seasons (1995-2000) as secondary coach at Michigan State, serving as associate head coach in 2000.

Dantonio served as defensive backs coach at Kansas for four seasons (1991-94). His work helped the Jayhawks produce an 8-4 record and defeat BYU in the Aloha Bowl in 1992. A 1979 graduate of South Carolina, Dantonio began his coaching career as an assistant at Westside High in Anderson, S.C. In 1980, he served as graduate assistant at Ohio University. He spent the 1981 season as a graduate assistant at Purdue and was defensive coordinator at Butler County (Kan.) Community College in 1982.

Dantonio was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State football staff in 1983 and 1984, helping the Buckeyes to the Fiesta and Rose bowls. He spent the 1985 season as the secondary coach at Akron where he helped the Zips to an 8-3 record and an appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs.

Dantonio joined Jim Tressel's staff at Youngstown State. The Penguins made three trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs during his five seasons there, and posted a perfect 11-0 regular season record in 1990, when Dantonio was YSU's defensive coordinator.

When Tressel became head coach at Ohio State, Dantonio joined him as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator.
