He netted a career-high 32 points against Iowa State (Nov. 23) in the semifinals of the Global Sports Classic in Las Vegas, making 7 of 14 field goals and 16 of 16 free throws - a school record for most free throws in a game without a miss. He has led UC in scoring in four of seven games.

- » Senior center Cheikh Mbodj, who battled an ankle injury last season that limited his mobility, lost more than 30 pounds during the offseason while doubling his bench press numbers and lowering his body fat to less than 10 percent. any UC player).

- » Sophomore forward Jermaine Sanders lost 11 pounds this past summer which helped increase his no-step vertical leap by 3.5 inches.
- » Junior transfer forward Titus Rubles redefined his body composition since joining the team earlier in the summer, dropping three percent of his body fat (the biggest change on the team) and increasing his no-step vertical leap by 3.5 inches.
- » Junior guard Sean Kilpatrick, already the strongest player on the team, improved his nutrition, lost two percent body fat and upped his no-step vertical by two inches.
- » Redshirt freshman forward Shaquille Thomas added 15 pounds to his frame during the offseason, doubled his bench-press reps and increased his no-step vertical leap by four inches.

HONORING JACK TWYMAN

Twyman is one of three former Bearcats to have their jersey number retired. His jersey No. 27 hangs at Fifth Third Arena.
- » The Pittsburgh, Pa., native was selected by the Rochester Royals with the eighth pick in the 1955 NBA Draft. The organization moved to Cincinnati two years later. - » Twyman was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983.
- » Twyman was also known for his compassion for others. CINCINNATI HEAD COACH MICK CRONIN Positive momentum continues to build for the University of Cincinnati men's basketball program and Mick Cronin, who in his seventh year as head coach has restored the Bearcats' winning tradition and brought pride back to his hometown and alma mater.

Though the process was anything but easy - with the Bearcats' roster including only one returning letterman when he arrived at UC in March 2006 - Cronin's steadfast determination spearheaded what could be considered one of the nation's top rebuilding efforts during the past six seasons.

No program from a major conference other than Cincinnati improved its win total every season from 2007 to 2011. The Bearcats built off an 11-win season in 2007; earned 13 victories in 2008; added 18 wins in 2009; compiled 19 victories in 2010 en route to the postseason NIT; and posted 26 wins and returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time five years in 2011.

Last season, Cincinnati matched its win total from 2011 with 26 victories but made a bigger splash nationally in the postseason. The Bearcats topped BIG EAST stalwarts Georgetown and Syracuse to reach the league's tournament championship game for the first time in school history. UC followed that achievement with a pair of victories over Texas and Florida State to advance the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament for first time since 2001. Along the way the Bearcats defeated eight ranked teams, posted 12 BIG EAST victories and tied for fourth in the conference standings - all school records.

Cronin enters the 2012-13 campaign ranked among the top coaches in the BIG EAST Conference for most victories - both overall wins (third-52) and league wins (tied for third-23) - during the past two seasons.

TRACK RECORD OF SUCCESS

Success seems to follow Cronin, who came to UC after serving three years as head coach at Murray State. As mentor of the Racers, Cronin compiled a 69-24 overall record while earning a pair of NCAA tournament berths.

In his debut season as head coach, Cronin directed Murray State to a school-best 28-6 record, the Ohio Valley Conference tournament championship, and an NCAA tournament appearance. His 28 wins are the sixth most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach. He earned OVC Coach of the Year honors two seasons later, guiding Murray State to another OVC title, league tournament crown and NCAA tournament appearance with a 24-6 overall record and 17-3 conference mark in 2005-06.

Prior to earning a head coaching position, Cronin built a sterling reputation for his ability to evaluate and recruit top talent. In his stint at UC as an assistant coach for Bob Huggins from 1997-2001, Cronin made an immediate impact by recruiting several top players, including NBA Draft selections Steve Logan (Golden State); DerMarr Johnson (Atlanta); Pete Mickeal (Dallas); Kenny Satterfield (Dallas); and Jason Maxiell (Detroit). Those players helped build a recruiting base that included two top 5- and a top 10-rated class over Cronin's final three seasons. His work paid dividends for UC as it compiled a 108-26 record, five Conference-USA regular-season titles, and a pair of tournament crowns.

Following the 2000-01 season, Cronin became the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville, under Rick Pitino. In his first year, Cronin helped attract a top-10 ranked recruiting class, including Francisco Garcia, who went on to earn 2003 C-USA Freshman of the Year and was eventually drafted by Sacramento. National sports publications took notice in 2002-03, ranking Cronin as the top assistant coach in the nation (Athlon) and the top assistant in C-USA (Lindy's). That same year, Sporting News named him the top recruiting assistant in the nation and the top assistant in C-USA.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Cronin's passion for success on the court also carries over to the Cincinnati community where he is committed to making a difference. He currently serves as a board member of the American Cancer Society's Coaches vs. Cancer of Southwest Ohio chapter. Among the fundraising events for the organization is the annual Tip-Off Breakfast where Cronin and other area Division I coaches discuss their upcoming season while raising money for the American Cancer Society (ACS). In June, Cronin received a $5,000 check that he presented to the ACS as his charity of choice for participating in the "Infiniti Coaches' Charity Challenge" during the 2011-12 season.

Other recent community events that Cronin has been involved with include an effort to couple with Xavier head coach Chris Mack in August 2012 as special guests of the Catholic Inner-City Schools Education (CISE) Fund. The fund provides children from low income urban settings the opportunity to attend Catholic schools. The two coaches met with the organization's Young Executive Group, a collection of young business professionals who contact Cincinnati area corporations, foundations and individuals asking for support of CISE.

Cronin also served as the honorary host of the Soul of the City Soiree and Fireworks celebration in September 2012. The event helps support programs and services offered by Our Daily Bread, a ministry of hospitality located in the Over-the-Rhine area of Cincinnati that is dedicated to serving the needs of the neighborhood residents.

PATH TO COACHING

Cronin has long held great pride in the Queen City, the University of Cincinnati and the sport of basketball. As a child growing up on the west side of town, he used to follow his father, Harold "Hep" Cronin -- a highly successful local high school coach -- around the gyms of Cincinnati. A product of LaSalle High School, Cronin had his playing career end sooner than expected due to a knee injury in high school.

That didn't stop his desire to find his place in basketball. While completing his undergraduate degree at UC, Cronin served as assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Woodward High School. He compiled a 57-3 record as a junior varsity mentor and helped the varsity squads claim three city championships. He helped develop six players who went on to play Division I college basketball, including former Bearcat Damon Flint, who ranks among the top 20 scorers in program history.

Cronin made the jump from high school to college coaching during the 1996-97 season joining Huggins as video coordinator for UC basketball. A year later, Cronin was elevated to an assistant coach for the Bearcats, setting the stage for his long tenure in college basketball.

Mick is the second generation of the Cronin family in the coaching ranks. His father compiled more than 400 victories in his high school coaching career and is recently retired from being a Major League Baseball scout for the Atlanta Braves.

Mick Cronin resides in Cincinnati with his six-year old daughter, Samantha.

GLOBAL SPORTS CLASSIC SEMIFINAL

Iowa State.....70
vs. No. 22/20 Cincinnati78
Nov. 23, 2012 • Las Vegas, Nev.
(Thomas & Mack Arena)

(AP) - Sean Kilpatrick made a school record 16 of 16 free throw attempts and scored a career-high 32 points, leading No. 22 Cincinnati to a 78-70 win over Iowa State in the semifinals of the Global Sports Classic.

Cashmere Wright added 14 points for the Bearcats and Titus Rubles had 10 points.

After winning their first four games by an average margin of 34.5 points per game, the Bearcats (5-0) had their hands full with a talented Iowa State (4-1) team that stole the momentum in the first half, dictated the pace at times to keep things close and pulled within four points with 46 seconds left.

Cincinnati's early second-half run of 15-5 gave it enough breathing room to secure the win. The Bearcats, who came in shooting 51.3 percent from the field (including 42.2 percent from 3-point range), shot just 25 of their 60 attempts (41.7) from the floor. They hit just 25 percent (5 of 20) of their 3-pointers.

Iowa State's Tyrus McGee led his team with 22 points, Korie Lucious scored 12 and Melvin Ejim had seven points and 10 rebounds.

GAME 7

Alabama..... 56
 at No. 17/16 Cincinnati 58

Dec. 1, 2012 • Cincinnati, Ohio
 (Fifth Third Arena)

Cashmere Wright's buzzer-beating jump shot lifted No. 17/16 University of Cincinnati to a 58-56 win over Alabama at Fifth Third Arena.

With six seconds left and the score tied at 56-56, Wright took an inbound pass from Titus Rubles and dribbled three-quarters the length of the floor all the way to the left baseline before hitting a step-back, fade-away over Crimson Tide 7-footer Moussa Gueye as the game clock expired.

Wright, who finished the game with eight points, and Sean Kilpatrick, who totaled a team-best 13 points, each topped the 1,000-career point total. The only other time a pair of Bearcats reached 1,000 career points in the same game was Danny Fortson and Darnell Burton on Feb. 29, 1996 against Memphis.

JaQuon Parker also tallied 13 points while hauling in a team-high six rebounds. Rubles was the third Bearcat to reach double digits with 10 points off the bench.

Trevor Lacey led Alabama with a game-high 16 points on 7-of-11 shooting.
