Bearcats Seek Improvement vs. WCU

- Improvement will be the No. 1 objective when the University of Cincinnati hosts Western Carolina on Saturday, Sept. 17 in Game 3 of the 2005 college football season. Kickoff is 7 p.m. EDT at Nippert Stadium
- UC, sporting the nation's third-youngest Division I-A football team, has seen its freshmen-sophomore dominated squad make progress through its 1-1 start, which featured a hard-fought 28-26 win over Eastern Michigan and a 42-24 setback at Penn State. The Bearcats will use the next two contests—Saturday's home game vs. Western Carolina and the Sept. 28 visit to area rival Miami (Ohio), to continue to prepare those young players for the school's first season in the BIG EAST Conference.
- Cincinnati, which rushed for 293 yards in its season opener vs. Eastern Michigan, had its ground game limited to just 31 yards by Penn State's veteran defense in last Saturday's loss. The Bearcats passed for 329 yards and a pair of scores, 286 of those by redshirt freshman Dustin Grutza, who completed 27 of 47 passes (57 percent).
- UC's defense gave up 393 yards to the Nittany Lions, but 145 of that came on three long passes. Sophomore safety Haruki Nakamura recorded a career-high 12 tackles while making an interception and a fumble recovery, with first-year freshman cornerback Mike Mickens gathering eight tackles.
- Western Carolina is off to a 2-0 start. The Catamounts, with a dozen returning starters divided evenly between offense and defense, defeated Furman, the No. 2-ranked team in Division I-AA, 41-21, last Saturday.
- Saturday's game is the Skyline Chili Classic. Coupons which will allow the purchase of two adult tickets for the price of one (limit four tickets per coupon) are available at all participating Skyline Chili locations. Additionally, the game has been designated as part of the NCAA's Take a Kid to the Game promotion, with youth age 12 and under receiving a free ticket when accompanied by an adult purchasing a regular priced ticket. Tickets for both promotions must be purchased in advance at the UC Athletic Ticket Office, located at One Edwards Center, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
- Saturday's game will also be Band Night at Nippert Stadium with 13 area high school bands joining the Bearcat Marching Band.

UC vs. Western Carolina/SoCon

Saturday's contest will be the first ever for the two schools. In fact, Cincinnati has played only one current school from the Southern Conference, the nation's third-oldest Division I athletic conference. In 1974, the Bearcats defeated Chattanooga, 35-20.

Coaching Ties

UC offensive coordinator Don Treadwell and Western Carolina head coach Kent Briggs served together on the North Carolina State staff in 1999, Treadwell as running backs coach and Briggs as co-defensive coordinator.

On This Date

Cincinnati is 2-2-2 in games played on Sept. 17. In 1994, Jon Bacon kicked a UC-record long 58-yard field goal to give Cincinnati a 17-14 lead over rival Miami (Ohio) with 1:19 to play. Miami managed to get off 11 plays in the next 79 seconds to move 60 yards and set up a 37-yard game-tying field goal by Chad Seitz.

1994	at Miami (Ohio)	T, 17-17
1988	Austin Peay	W, 52-7
1983	Oklahoma State	L, 27-17
1977	at Louisville	T, 17-17
1960	Hardin-Simmons	W, 15-14
1949	Nevada	L, 41-21

1955 Bearcats Recognized

The University of Cincinnati will observe the 50th anniversary of its 1955 football season, with over a dozen members of that team expected to return for the reunion. The returning members will be recognized at halftime.

Honorary Captain

The honorary captain for Saturday's game vs. Western Carolina will be Jonathan Ruffin, the Bearcat who won the Lou Groza Award in 2000. Ruffin, a native of Metairie, La., will be present representing those affected by Hurricane Katrina. Head coach Mark Dantonio began recognizing former Bearcat players and coaches by naming them honorary game captains last season. The honorary captains participate with the elected captains in the pregame coin toss. Donnie Goodman, who scored one of two touchdowns in UC's 1983

GAME 2: Penn State 42, Cincinnati 24

Sept. 10, 2005

Beaver Stadium

University Park, PA

Linebacker Kevin McCullough

Penn State's veteran defense limited the Bearcats to 31 net yards rushing as the Nittany Lions downed Cincinnati, 42-24. UC suffered four turnovers and PSU turned the miscues into three touchdowns. The first of those TDs came 3:29 into the contest when an interception by Dustin Grutza set up a 25-yard scoring drive, capped by Michael Robinson's 1-yard run. UC's offense got untracked early in the second quarter to produce a 24-yard field goal by Kevin Lovell, but the Nittany Lions closed the half with an 80-yard drive capped by Robinson's 3-yard pass to Patrick Hall.

Robinson struck for a pair of long passes in the third quarter, a 59-yard TD strike to Justin King and a 41-yard toss to Derrick Williams which set up a 1-yard run by Austin Scott. Grutza closed the third period with a 27-yard TD pass to Derick Ross. Penn State struck for two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Grutza retaliated with a 64-yard scoring drive capped by Bradley Glatthaar's 2-yard run with 39 seconds to play. After recovering an on-side kick, junior college transfer Nick Davila hit Earnest Jackson with a 5-yard TD pass with 18 seconds to play.

Frequently avoiding the Penn State rush with his scrambling ability, Grutza passed for 286 yards, completing 27 of 47 passes. Brent Celek had seven catches for 73 yards, both career highs. Haruki Nakamura had a career-best 12 tackles in addition to an interception and a fumble recovery.

upset of Penn State, served as the honorary captain for last week's Penn State game.

Captains

Three seniors and a junior will take on the leadership role as team captains. The four, who were elected by their teammates, are offensive tackle Steve Eastlake (Columbus, Ohio/Bishop Watterson), defensive end Adam Roberts (Brooklyn, N.Y./Milford (Conn.) Academy), wide receiver Derick Ross (Marion, Ohio/Harding), all seniors, and junior tight end Brent Celek (Cincinnati, Ohio/LaSalle).

Grutza Earns BIG EAST Honors

Dustin Grutza's successful debut as a college quarterback was capped by his earning BIG EAST Conference Offensive Player of the Week honors on Sept. 6. Grutza passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third in the Bearcats' 28-26 victory over Eastern Michigan in the season opener. The redshirt freshman from Maysville, Ky., completed 17 of 26 passes for 176 yards and ran for 49 yards, including a 21-yard TD.

Young Bearcats See First Action

Five more Bearcats saw their first college playing experience in last Saturday's game at Penn State. First-year freshmen Dominick Goodman and Marshwan Gilyard, redshirt frosh DeAngelo Smith and junior college transfers Nick Davila and Leo Morgan, got on the field for the first time. Over the first two games, a total of 19 Bearcats have seen their first college game action. Nine are first-year freshmen and six others are redshirt freshmen. Four of those frosh were in the starting lineup: true freshmen Terrill Byrd (Cincinnati, OH/Colerain) at defensive tackle, Corey Smith (Salem, NJ/Salem) at outside linebacker, Mike Mickens (Huber Heights, OH/Wayne) at cornerback and redshirt freshman Dustin Grutza (Maysville, KY/Mason County) at quarterback.

Eastlake Builds on Streak

Steve Eastlake, one of the few veterans on the Bearcat offense, will try to extend a personal streak in Saturday's contest. The 6-6, 305-pound senior will be making his 27th consecutive start at left tackle, a position at which he has been a fixture since 2003.

Notes from the Penn State Game

- Haruki Nakamura recorded career highs of eight solo tackles, four assisted tackles and 12 total tackles. The sophomore, making his second start at free safety, also garnered his first career tackle for loss. Nakamura also came up with a pair of turnovers. He intercepted a pass in the first quarter and stopped a Penn State drive with a fumble recovery in the third quarter.

- Kevin Lovell's second quarter field goal, his first of the season, extended his streak of consecutive successful field goal tries to four. Lovell has made 12 of 16 field goal attempts in his UC career.
- Junior college transfer Nick Davila made his UC debut. He completed his first three pass attempts, hitting Connor Barwin for 38 yards, Earnest Jackson for five yards and a TD, and connected with Jackson for a two-point PAT.
- Brent Celek achieved career highs with seven receptions for 73 yards. With first-year freshman Connor Barwin adding two receptions for 72 yards, the tight ends had nine catches for 145 yards, almost half of UC's receiving yardage.
- Dominick Goodman gained 31 yards on a late-game kickoff return, the first time the true freshman touched the football.

Cat Attack Diversified

The Cincinnati passing attack has used eight different receivers in each of the team's first two games. In last Saturday's game at Penn State, the 29 completions were divided among three wide receivers, three running backs and two tight ends. Here is how the passing targets break out:

	Rec	%	Yards	%
Wide Receivers	21	45%	188	37%
Running Backs	15	33%	148	30%
Tight Ends	10	22%	169	33%

How Young Are Those Cats

Cincinnati is one of the nation's youngest teams, in terms of returning starters and in terms of projected senior starters. UC has starters returning at eight positions—tackle Steve Eastlake, tight end Brent Celek and fullback Doug Jones on offense; end Adam Roberts, cornerback Antoine Horton and Dominic Ross and JaJuan Hall, who shared the strong safety position on defense; along with punter Chet Ervin and kicker Kevin Lovell. Only two schools have fewer returning starters, Navy with six and Marshall with seven.

UC projected five senior starters on offense and defense, entering the 2005 season, second fewest to Rice which has three projected senior starters.

What a Difference a Year Makes

When the Bearcats opened the 2004 season, they boasted 26 seniors, 17 of whom were projected starters and seven more who were listed as backups. The total starting experience of the 2004 Bearcats was 256 games, 127 on offense and 129 on defense. The 2005 team enters the season with 85 games, 57 on offense and 28 on defense.

Cincinnati Begins BIG EAST Play

Cincinnati, which finished first or second in Conference USA in four of the past five seasons, begins play in the BIG EAST Conference this season. The Bearcats' first BIG EAST game will be on Oct. 8 when they visit Pittsburgh. UC's first BIG EAST home contest will be on Oct. 15 when Connecticut visits for Homecoming.

Bearcats in the NFL

The University of Cincinnati is again well-represented in the National Football League this season. Eleven former Bearcats earned spots on NFL rosters with the close of preseason practice, six of them from the 2004 UC squad which posted a 7-5 record and won the Fort Worth Bowl.

Former Bearcat defensive ends Trent Cole and Andre Frazier earned roster spots at Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, respectively. Mike Wright, another member of the 2004 defensive front, is with the two-time defending Super Bowl champion New England Patriots. Tyjuan Hagler, also a member of that UC defense, and offensive tackle Clint Stickdon are at Indianapolis. Cornerback Daven Holly is with Chicago.

The veteran of the UC football alumni in the NFL is Jason Fabini, who is beginning his eighth year as a starting offensive lineman with the New York Jets. Troy Evans and Antwan Peek are in the fourth and third seasons, respectively, with the Houston Texans.

There are 17 assistant coaches in the NFL with UC ties, either as former players or members of Bearcat coaching staffs. Three former players are in this group; Billy Davis, defensive coordinator at San Francisco; Tom Rossley, assistant coach at Green Bay; and George Warhop, an assistant at San Francisco.

Dantonio Second-Winningest Rookie Head Coach

Cincinnati's Mark Dantonio had the second-best record of any of the new 13 Division I-A head coaches in 2004, and the best among first-time head coaches. Dantonio directed UC to a 7-5 record, including a win over Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl. Only Mike Price, who led UTEP to an 8-4 season, had a better record.

Dantonio had the fifth-best season of any head football coach in his first season at Cincinnati.

A New Trophy Game

The University of Cincinnati will add another trophy rivalry game to its football schedule. The Bearcats will begin battling the University of Pittsburgh in the River City Rivalry for a soon-to-be created trophy. UC already plays Miami University for the Victory Bell and the University of Louisville for the Keg of Nails. UC and Pitt, both located along the Ohio River, will begin playing each other on an annual basis with the Bearcats' entry into the BIG EAST Conference, beginning this season. The teams will clash for the first time as BIG EAST rivals on Saturday, Oct. 8 at Heinz Field in Pittsburgh.

New Championship Trophy

The University of Cincinnati will be eligible for the coveted Lambert Meadowlands Trophy, which recognizes the best Division I-A team in the East, due to the Bearcats affiliation with the BIG EAST Conference. To be eligible for the Lambert, a school must either be located in the East or play half of its schedule against teams eligible for the Lambert Trophy. UC, along with new BIG EAST members Louisville and South Florida have been deemed eligible for the award since they will play at least half of their games against Lambert-eligible teams via their new conference alignment. The ECAC will conduct weekly polls and issue a final poll in early January to determine the trophy winner. The team will be presented with their awards at the Eastern College Football

Nippert Renovations

Fans have observed several changes in Nippert Stadium, all leading to enhanced decorum for Bearcat home football games.

- A new 19-foot by 53-foot video board, with over twice the display area of the previous board, has been installed in the revamped scoreboard structure, which also contains a team statistics panel and 8-foot by 83-foot message center. Elements of the old video board will be installed in the Baseball Stadium and Gettler Track/Soccer Stadium, benefiting those playing venues.

- New permanent seating has been constructed in the North end zone. The new seating structure also contains a full locker room for the visiting team, a first aid room and a halftime room for the Bearcats.

- The FieldTurf playing surface has been replaced, with all markings and logos inlaid in the new artificial surface.

- Entry and access to the stadium has been improved, with all barriers removed from the West, Northwest and South sides. The stadium now opens to Bearcat Plaza, outside of the Tangeman University Center, on the West side, adding to the atmosphere. Access via the East side is limited by the construction of the Richard E. Lindner Athletic Center.

Looking Ahead

The Bearcats visit area rival Miami (Ohio) on Wednesday, Sept. 28 for the 110th edition of the nation's fifth-most played college football rivalry. The 7 p.m. contest will be televised nationally by ESPN2.

Head Coach Mark Dantonio

One other coach has taken Cincinnati to a bowl game in his initial season at the helm—the legendary Sid Gillman. That puts Mark Dantonio, who leads the Bearcats into the BIG EAST Conference this season, in pretty select company.

Dantonio has been in good company throughout his coaching career, having served as an assistant coach for Nick Saban, Jim Tressel and Earle Bruce—coaches who have directed teams to conference championships, postseason bowls, and national championships.

Thirteen Bearcats earned all-conference honors. Six members of that team participated in the NFL Pre-Draft Combine, and three were ultimately drafted. Dantonio, who was named head coach at Cincinnati on Dec. 23, 2003, became the first head coach in 23 years to pilot a team to a winning season in his initial campaign at UC. The Bearcats' 7-5 record included a 5-3 mark in Conference USA, good enough for a second place finish, and a win over Marshall in the PlainsCapital Fort Worth Bowl.

The manner in which the Bearcats achieved that success speaks well for the Dantonio's coaching abilities. The Bearcats had fallen to a 2-4 start, but the new coach maintained confidence in his team and helped UC turn things around with an impressive four-game winning streak late in the season.

Dantonio is ideally suited hold the reigns of the University of Cincinnati football program. He has compiled nearly a quarter of a century of coaching experience, during which he has played integral roles in building winning programs. He has crafted defensive units which have been nationally recognized. And he has built a reputation for the close bonds that he builds with the players he coaches and the staff members with whom he works.

He has strong Midwest ties. An Ohio native who has spent half of his coaching career in the state, he has been effective recruiting its top talent.

Dantonio had served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State the previous three seasons, where he helped craft the defense which was the backbone of the Buckeyes success.

Dantonio has compiled 23 seasons of coaching experience in the college ranks, 12 of them in the state of Ohio, where he earned all-state football honors as a senior at Zanesville High.

Prior to his stint at Ohio State, Dantonio spent six seasons (1995-2000) as secondary coach at Michigan State, serving as associate head coach in 2000.

Dantonio served as defensive backs coach at Kansas for four seasons (1991-94). His work helped the Jayhawks produce an 8-4 record and defeat BYU in the Aloha Bowl in 1992. A 1979 graduate of South Carolina, Dantonio began his coaching career as an assistant at Westside High in Anderson, S.C. In 1980, he served as graduate assistant at Ohio University. He spent the 1981 season as a graduate assistant at Purdue and was defensive coordinator at Butler County (Kan.) Community College in 1982.

Dantonio was a member of Earle Bruce's Ohio State football staff in 1983 and 1984, helping the Buckeyes to the Fiesta and Rose bowls. He spent the 1985 season as the secondary coach at Akron where he coached under Jim Dennison, helping the Zips to an 8-3 record and an appearance in the Division I-AA playoffs.

Dantonio joined Jim Tressel's staff at Youngstown State. The Penguins made three trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs during his five seasons there, and posted a perfect 11-0 regular season record in 1990, when Dantonio was YSU's defensive coordinator.

When Tressel became head coach at Ohio State, Dantonio joined him as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator.

GAME 1: Cincinnati 28, Eastern Michigan 26

Sept. 1, 2005

Nippert Stadium

Cincinnati, OH

Dustin Grutza

Dustin Grutza passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third, and the Cincinnati defense came up with a game-deciding stop in the final seconds as the Bearcats opened the 2005 season with a 28-26 win over Eastern Michigan. Grutza, a red shirt freshman making his college debut, directed touchdown drives on UC's first two possessions, connecting with Antwan Giddens for 10 yards and Greg Moore for 38 yards. He finished with 176 yards, completing 17 of 26 pass attempts.

UC's defense had troubles with EMU's explosive offense and the Bearcats fell behind, 20-14, at the half. Grutza showed his running ability, putting Cincinnati back in the lead with a 21-yard scamper on the first possession of the third quarter. The Bearcat defense stiffened, holding the Eagles to 29 yards in the third quarter. Bradley Glatthaar extended the lead with an 11-yard run early in the fourth quarter, but Eastern responded with a TD and cut the margin to two points.

Facing a fourth-and-1 from their 48 with 55 seconds to play, the Bearcats elected to go for the first down which would have allowed them to run out the clock. Butler Benton was stopped short. With 21 seconds to play, the UC defense was faced with the challenge of holding EMU on a fourth-and-1 situation. The Bearcats held to clinch the victory.

UC rolled up 469 yards in total offense, 293 on the ground. Glatthaar, with 75 yards on 14 carries,
