NO. 17/21 FOOTBALL HEADS WEST FOR MATCHUP WITH NO. 24 OREGON STATE

► The University of Cincinnati football team, off to a 2-0 start after a 70-3 win over Southeast Missouri State on Sept. 12, heads to Reser Stadium Saturday to take on No. 24 Oregon State. UC had the third-highest scoring output in school history last week in front of 30,421 fans at the home opener. Mardy Gilyard was named the BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a punt 53 yards for a score, UC's first punt return TD in 12 years. He finished the game with four touchdowns, and became the first NCAA FBS player since 2005 to score by a reception, rush, and return in the same game. The Beavers knocked off UNLV 23-21 in Las Vegas and will look to defend a 26-game non-conference winning streak at Reser.

A UC THUMBNAIL

► UC returns eight offensive starters, including Tony Pike (QB), Jeff Linkenbach (OL), and all-America wideout/kick returner Mardy Gilyard. The Bearcats return only one starter on defense (Aaron Webster), but the depth chart features veteran players who have seen extensive playing time. UC has a new defensive coordinator in Bob Diaco and a new multiple-front defense.

THE SERIES

► Cincinnati and Oregon State meet for the second time on the gridiron Saturday. UC knocked off the Beavers 34-3 on Sept. 6, 2007 at Nippert Stadium in their only previous meeting.

THE COACHES

► BRIAN KELLY, the two-time reigning BIG EAST Coach of the Year, is in his third full season at the helm of the Cincinnati football program with a 24-6 record and a 19-year career mark of 161-57-2. Kelly led the Bearcats to a school-record 11 wins, a BIG EAST Championship, and a Bowl Championship Series game berth in 2008. He won two NCAA Division II National Championships at Grand Valley State and led Central Michigan to the 2006 Mid-American Conference Championship. He is the leader in victories among active BIG EAST coaches and is the only current BIG EAST coach with 150 or more career wins.

► MIKE RILEY is 58-42 in his ninth season with the Beavers. He is 0-1 against UC.

- Mitch's family has dubbed his battle with cancer, Mitch's Mission.
- Recently, Mitch made his first visit to football practice where the Bearcats sang happy birthday to him and twin brother Nick.
- The team also presented the boys a signed guitar among other gifts.
- Student-athletes, coaches, and support staff are all wearing red white and blue wrist bands that say 'Mitch's Mission.'
- UC is the first NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision team to adopt a child through FOJ.

HEAD COACH BRIAN KELLY

19th season overall | third at Cincinnati

Named the University of Cincinnati's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2006, Brian Kelly has set the bar high at UC and achieved a great deal of success in a short period of time.

Entering his third year at the helm of the UC program, Kelly boasts a 23-6 record and led the Bearcats to their first BIG EAST Conference Championship in 2008.

Cincinnati achieved a school-record 11 victories in 2008, had back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in school history, won the school's first outright conference championship since 1964, and earned the school's first berth in a Bowl Championship Series game, playing against Virginia Tech in the 75th FedEx Orange Bowl.

UC earned its best-ever ranking to close the regular season as it was ranked at No. 12 in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, and the BCS standings entering the Orange Bowl. The Bearcats held down a postseason ranking of No. 17 in both polls, tying the top postseason ranking in school history.

UC finished the regular season on a six-game winning streak and captured all three of its rivalry trophies, the Victory Bell (Miami [OH]), Keg Of Nails (Louisville), and River City Rivalry (Pittsburgh) in the same season for the first time.

Kelly was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year for the second-straight season, and also was named the American Football Monthly Schutt Sports Football Bowl Subdivision Coach of the Year. He also earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 1 Coach of the Year honors, and was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year by Sporting News.

UC placed 10 student-athletes on all-BIG EAST teams, including first-team selection defensive end Connor Barwin, who was a tight end entering spring practice in 2008.

Kick returner Mardy Gilyard was named the BIG EAST Special Teams Player of the Year, the second-straight season a UC player has earned that award, and punter Kevin Huber earned the first AFCA All-America nod in program history. Huber was also the first two-time Associated Press First-Team All-America selection in UC football history.

Through an 18-year head coaching career, Kelly has established a reputation for building winning teams. He has won at every stop along the way, earning a pair of Division II National Championships at Grand Valley State (2002, 2003), winning a Mid-American Conference Championship at Central Michigan in 2006, before leading UC to its first BIG EAST title in 2008. Entering 2009, Kelly boasts a career record of 160-57-2. He is the winningest active BIG EAST coach and the only league coach with more than 150 wins.

Kelly has become one of the most recognizable faces in the Cincinnati area as he has undertaken a grass roots effort to reach the UC fan base and create strong ties to the local community. A sought after public speaker, Kelly has addressed a number of local organizations, unions, civic groups, and has served as the keynote speaker at many high-profile events, including the 2009 Big 33 Football Classic Awards Dinner.

GAME 1 • SEPT. 7, 2009 • RUTGERS STADIUM • PISCATAWAY, N.J. • ATT.: 53,737

R	Cincinnati	45
	Rutgers	15

PISCATAWAY, N.J. (AP) - Tony Pike threw for a career-high 362 yards and three touchdowns, and Cincinnati used its high-speed, no-huddle offense to hurry past Rutgers 47-15 on Monday.

The defending Big East champion Bearcats got a jump on the conference race by improving to 4-0 against Rutgers since joining the league.

Looking to christen its newly expanded stadium and extend a seven-game winning streak, the Scarlet Knights couldn't keep up with Pike, Mardy Gilyard and the Bearcats. Instead, it looked like the bad ol' days at Rutgers.

Coach Brian Kelly began his third season with the Bearcats as a rising star in the business.

With the luxury of a returning starter at quarterback for the first time at UC, Kelly unleashed his fast-paced, Oklahoma-style offense.

Pike completed 27 of 34 passes, Gilyard caught eight passes for 89 yards and a score and Isaiah Pead scored two touchdowns.

With Pike directing traffic at the line of scrimmage, the Bearcats burned down the field on the opening drive of the game, covering 81 yards in 2:29 without an incomplete pass. Pead capped the drive with a 2-yard TD run.

Rutgers' response to UC's speed was a methodical, 20-play, 78-yard touchdown drive, that took more than 10 minutes and was capped by a 5-yard run by Joe Martinek.

Pike went 20 of 25 in the first half for 286 yards with touchdown passes of 5 yards to Gilyard and 41 yards to Pead as the Bearcats raced to a 31-7 halftime lead.

Cincinnati even gave Rutgers a dose of the Bearcat Formation-- with redshirt freshman tight end Travis Kelce, a former quarterback, taking two snaps and bulling 16 yards to finish off the first of three consecutive second-quarter touchdown drives. They were the first two touches of Kelce's career. He added a 2-yard TD run in the third quarter.

GAME 2 • SEPT. 12, 2009 • NIPPERT STADIUM • CINCINNATI, OHIO • ATT.: 30,421

SE MISSOURI STATE	Southeast Missouri State	3
	No. 23/23 Cincinnati	70

CINCINNATI (AP) - Mardy Gilyard scored four touchdowns as part of the third-best scoring performance in Cincinnati's history, reaching the end zone on an electrifying punt return, a run and two catches during the 23rd-ranked Bearcats' 70-3 victory over Southeast Missouri State.

A quick-strike offense scored every which way during a 49-point first half, the biggest in coach Brian Kelly's three seasons at Cincinnati (2-0). Gilyard was the catalyst, putting together one of the top individual performances in school history.

Gilyard, the Big East's top returner last season, took back the game's first punt 53 yards for a score. It was the Bearcats' first punt return for a touchdown in 12 years. He also had his first career rushing touchdown against the Redhawks (1-1), out of the Bearcat formation, and caught two touchdown passes from different quarterbacks.

The senior became the first Bowl Subdivision player to score on a punt return, run and catch in the same game since UCLA's Maurice Jones-Drew did it on Oct. 8, 2005 against California, according to STATS, LLC.

The 70 points were the third-most in Cincinnati history and the most since a 115-0 win over Kentucky Wesleyan 1921.

Tony Pike threw three touchdown passes and ran 1 yard for another during the first half. He headed to the bench for the final drive of the half, which ended when Gilyard took a short pass from Zach Collaros and dashed 37 yards down the middle of the field for a touchdown.

Redshirt freshman Darrin Williams returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards. Cincinnati used five quarterbacks in all.

Pike was 17 of 23 for 229 yards in less than a full half.
