FOCUS OF THE MONTH

UNDERGRADUATE FOUR-YEAR TRANSFER PROCESS

Effective for 2023-2024 championship eligibility the NCAA has stated that an undergraduate transfer waiver will only be considered for student-athletes who transfer:

- For reasons related to the student-athlete's physical or mental health and well-being.
- Due to exigent circumstances outside the student-athlete's control (e.g., physical or sexual assault or discrimination based on a protected class); or
- Assertions involving diagnosed education impacting disabilities

Reasons an undergraduate transfer waiver will be denied

	Academic Reasons	Athletic Reasons
1)	Degree program does not meet SA's expectations (e.g., academic difficulty).	Lack or change of participation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No participation opportunity. • Reduction in playing time. • Change in position or role on the team.
2)	Perceived prestige of an institution's degree program does not meet SA's expectations.	Change to athletics scholarship.
3)	SA transferred to change majors	Coaching change

EXAM WEEK REMINDER

Exam Week (Saturday, April 22nd - Thursday, April 27th):

- Out of Season Sports have to stop all required and countable activity ONE WEEK before the start of final exams and it lasts through the entire exam period! (April 15th through exam period).
- In Season Sports continue with their 20 hours of CARA and still require one day off.

IS THIS PERMISSIBLE?

The University bowling team will begin practicing later this month. During the first week or two of practice, a couple of former student-athletes would like to practice with the team. Is that permissible?

Yes with conditions.

Division I NCAA Bylaw 14.2.1.7 states that in sports other than football, a former student (e.g., former student-athlete) at the certifying institution may participate in an organized practice session on an occasional basis, provided the institution does not publicize the participation of the former student at any time before the practice session. (Adopted: 3/3/11, Revised: 4/25/18 effective 8/1/18)
