SETTING THE STAGE

- Navy and Cincinnati will meet for the third time overall and for the first time as American Athletic Conference members when they square off on Saturday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium (34,000). Kickoff is set for 3:30 PM and the presenting game day sponsor is American Armed Forces Mutual Aid Association. This will be the first meeting between the two schools since Oct. 20, 1956, when Navy defeated Cincinnati, 13-7, in Annapolis.
- Navy has won 14 consecutive regular-season games played on its home field, Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, and the Mids are 9-0 in American Athletic Conference games at home during that stretch. Navy's last regular-season loss at home was Sept. 27, 2014, when the Mids were upset by Western Kentucky, 36-27. The Mids' last loss at home was to Temple, 34-10, in the AAC Championship game last December.
- Even though Cincinnati has not played at Navy since 1956, the Bearcats have played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Cincinnati lost to Virginia Tech, 33-17, in the 2014 Military Bowl.
- Over the last 10 years, Navy is 79-41 (.658), while Cincinnati is 78-41 (.655). The Mids have the 24th-most wins in the FBS over that time period, while Cincinnati has the 25th-most wins.
- Ken Niumatalolo is in his 10th year at Navy, making him the longest-tenured coach in school history. Both George Welsh and Eddie Erdelatz served as head coach at Navy for nine seasons.
- Saturday's game will be televised nationally by CBS Sports Network with John Sadak, Randy Cross and Sheehan Stanwick-Burch on the call.
- The Navy Football Tailgate Show on WNAV 1430 AM / 99.9 FM will air at 1:30 PM.
- The Navy Football Insider Show with Tim Murray will air on WBAL Radio (1090 AM) at 2:00 PM
- The Navy Football Pregame Show with Pete Medhurst, Tom O'Brien, Joe Miller and Tim Murray will get underway at 2:30 PM, followed by game action beginning at 3:30 PM on the Navy Radio Network.
- Following the contest, Medhurst, O'Brien, Miller and Murray will recap the day's events in a 30-minute postgame show.

GAME DAY FESTIVITIES

- The Navy football team will arrive at the Blue Angel on the West (Blue) side of the stadium at approximately 1:00 PM. The team will walk down the sidewalk and through NavyFest before walking to the tunnel. Fans are invited to stand on both sides of the sidewalk to cheer on the players.
- The March-On of the Brigade of Midshipmen begins at 3:11 PM.
- The National Anthem will take place at 3:20 PM, followed by a flyby at the end of the National Anthem by two Sikorsky MH-60R helicopters from the "Airwolves" of HSM-40 based out of Naval Station Mayport in Mayport, Fla. Piloting the lead aircraft will be Lt. Cmdr. Ryan Miller, USNA Class of 2003, and Lt. Colin "POT" Looby, USNA Class of 2011 along with AWR2 Robert Flores. The wing aircraft will be piloted by Lt. Natalya "Winnie" Cooper and Lt. Robbie "Shawshank" King, both USNA Class of 2010, along with AWR1 Benjamin Latham. The Airwolves are responsible for training replacement air crew in the MH-60R. Once these students have completed their syllabus, they are assigned to squadrons based from Florida to Japan and actively deploy in support of U.S. Navy carrier strike groups and expeditionary forces.
- There will be a parachute jumper from Team Fastrax at 3:24 PM
- Kickoff on Saturday is slated for 3:32 PM. Please note, there is a chance kickoff and all activities noted above could be pushed back by five minutes if the first game on CBS Sports Network (Army at Tulane) is running long. That decision will be made before the 60-minute clock starts at 2:32 PM.
- The women's rowing team will be honored between the first and second quarters. The Mids won the Patriot League Championship this past spring for the third straight year with a five-point win over Boston University. Navy finished 20th at the NCAA Championship, which is the second-best finish in school history.
- At halftime, the Naval Academy Drum and Bugle Corps will perform.
- The pilots from the fly-by will be recognized between the third and fourth quarters.
- Following the game, Navy's alma mater, Navy Blue & Gold, will be played as the team stands at attention in front of the Brigade of Midshipmen. It is one of the best traditions in all of sports.

NIUMATALOLO SPELLS SUCCESS

- Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo has been on the Mids sideline as either an assistant or head coach for 20 of the last 23 years (1995-98 and 2002-2007 as an assistant, head coach since 2008).
- Over those 20 years, Navy has compiled a 146-92 record (.613), won 10 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, gone to 14 bowl games and won six bowl games, and has either shared or won the AAC West in Navy's first two years in the league. Navy is 26-12 in Service Academy games with Niumatalolo on the coaching staff (.684).
- In the 117 seasons without Niumatalolo, Navy has posted a 555-460-57 (.549) record, won five Commander-In-Chief's Trophies (in 26 years), gone to eight bowl games and won three bowl games. Navy is 54-64-7 (.460) in Service Academy games without Niumatalolo on the sideline.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

- The Mids are 40-10 (.800) at home under Niumatalolo, including a 25-4 (.862) mark over the last five seasons.

NAVY FAST FACTS

- In just its second season in a conference, Navy won the 2016 AAC West Division title after sharing the division crown with Houston in its first year. Navy is one of 10 schools that has won at least a share of the division title in each of the last two years (or more), joining Alabama, Florida, Clemson, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Temple, Western Kentucky, Western Michigan and San Diego State.
- Navy is 28-8 (.778) over its last 36 games. The Mids own wins over No. 15 Memphis (2015) and No. 6 Houston (2016) during that time period.
- Navy is 15-3 (.833) against AAC teams since joining the conference in 2015, including a 15-2 (.882) in regular-season games.
- Navy is looking to get off to a 3-0 start for the third consecutive year.
- Last year's senior class finished with a 37-16 (.698) mark. The 37 wins are the most in school history by a senior class. This year's seniors (2018) have a career record of 30-12 (.714) career record. They are seven wins away from tying the school record for most wins by a class and eight from breaking it.
- Over the last five years, Navy is 27-2 (.931) when winning the turnover battle.
- The Mids are 40-10 (.800) at home under Niumatalolo, including a 25-4 (.862) mark over the last five seasons.
- Navy is 51-8 (.864) under Niumatalolo when scoring first, including 2-0 this year.
- Navy is 65-4 (.942) under Niumatalolo when entering the fourth quarter with the lead, including 2-0 this year.
- Navy has scored a rushing touchdown in 64 consecutive games. In 57 of those games (.891), Navy scored two or more rushing touchdowns.
- Niumatalolo is the only head coach in the FBS that has two sons playing FBS football. Va'a Niumatalolo is a senior at BYU and Ali'i Niumatalolo is a freshman at Utah. During Navy's bye week, he got to see both sons play at their home stadiums (BYU lost to Wisconsin in the afternoon, Utah beat San Jose State at night).

TIME TO GET READY

- Under Niumatalolo, Navy is 24-15 (.615) with more than one week to prepare for an opponent.

SCOUTING CINCINNATI

- Cincinnati enters Saturday's game with a 2-1 record and is coming off a miracle 21-17 victory over Miami (Ohio).
- The Bearcats scored 15 points over the final 2:52 to knock off the Redhawks and win the Victory Bell for the 12th consecutive year over Miami.
- Hayden Moore threw a 20-yard TD pass to Kahlil Lewis with 2:52 left and then hit Lewis again for the two-point conversion to pull Cincinnati to within 17-14 with 2:52 left.
- Cincinnati had just one timeout remaining and was saving it for after the third down play, but on third-and-two from the Miami 13, the Redhawks inexplicably took a delay of game penalty despite having timeouts remaining. On third-and-seven, Miami elected to pass and Gus Ragland was picked off by Malik Clements, who returned it 14 yards for a touchdown.
- Miami still had a chance to win the game, moving the ball down to the Cincinnati 20. However, two passes to the end zone fell incomplete and Cincinnati hung on for the win.
- Freshman running back Gerrid Doaks filled in for leading rusher Mike Boone, who missed the game with a leg injury, and rushed for 71 yards on 17 carries. Moore completed 24 of 43 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Kahlil Lewis caught seven passes for 83 yards and a touchdown.
- The Cincinnati defense held Miami to just 14 first downs and 291 yards of total offense, including just 70 yards on the ground. Jaylin Minor led the way with 10 tackles, while Clements had seven to go with his pick six. Cincinnati's third-leading tackler, Perry Young, was ejected from the game in the second half for targeting and will have to miss the first half of the Navy game.

RECRUITING OHIO

- Navy has seven players on its roster from the state of Ohio, including freshman corner Micah Farrar (Cincinnati) who could see action against the Bearcats on special teams.
- Other Navy players from Ohio include freshman linebacker Griffin Baumel (Canton), freshman quarterback Myke Brooks (Richmond Heights), sophomore quarterback Jacob Harrison (Centerville), freshman offensive lineman Sean Rattay (Monclova), junior linebacker Matt Stewart (Mason) and junior fullback Akili Taylor (Columbus).
- Two of the greatest players in Navy history hail from Cincinnati. 1963 Heisman Trophy winner and College Football Hall of Famer Roger Staubach went to Purcell Marian High School, while College Football Hall of Famer Napoleon McCallum grew up in the Lincoln Heights neighborhood in Cincinnati before moving to the suburb of Milford where he went to high school.
- Navy radio color analyst Tom O'Brien, who played and coached at Navy before going on to be the head coach at Boston College and NC State, is also from Cincinnati and went to St. Xavier High School.

IN SUPPORT OF JARREN JASPER

- Navy football players will wear a sticker on the back of their helmets with the initials JJ inside of a heart in support of Navy offensive coordinator Ivin Jasper's son, Jarren.
- Jarren Jasper, who is 14 years old, went for a routine physical on June 27 in advance of trying out for football at Broadneck High, where he would be a freshman this fall. The physician who performed the physical did not like the sound of the youngster's heart rhythm and referred the family to a pediatric cardiologist.
- Jarren underwent an echocardiogram and the cardiologist was concerned about the results, subsequently ordering a stress test and 24-hour Holter monitor. That is when it was discovered that Jarren had a condition known as Accelerated Idioventricular Rhythm. Ivin and his wife Donna took their son to see an electrophysiologist since the condition involves the electrical function of the heart.
- Jarren was admitted to Children's National Medical Center in D.C., where he was diagnosed with Supraventricular Tachycardia — an abnormally fast heart rhythm arising from improper electrical activity in the upper portion of the heart. On Aug. 4, Jarren underwent a procedure called Catheter Ablation, which is designed to selectively destroy areas of the heart that are causing a heart rhythm problem. Thin, flexible wires with electrodes at the tips were inserted into the heart. Each electrode sends out radiowaves that create heat and destroys the bad heart tissue. Unfortunately, Jarren's heart swelled too much and completely closed off his coronary artery, which basically sent him into cardiac arrest. Jarren was placed on an Extracorporeal Membrane Oxygenation (ECMO) machine, which performs the heart function of pumping blood to all the vital organs.
- Jarren then received a stent to open his coronary artery and doctors were hopeful the heart would heal on its own and resume normal functioning. On Monday Aug. 14, Ivin and Donna were informed that things were not progressing positively and a heart assistance device would be necessary until a transplant can be performed.

MORE ON NIUMATALOLO

- 10th-year head coach Ken Niumatalolo has led the Midshipmen to a 79-42 (.653) record and is the program's all-time winningest coach.
- He is 8-1 all-time against Navy's biggest rival, Army West Point, and is the first head coach in the history of the Army-Navy game to win his first eight games against the rival service academy.
- His eight wins against the Black Knights are tied for the most in Army-Navy history with College Football Hall of Fame Coach Army West Point's Earl Blaik, who was just 8-8-2 (.500) from 1941-58 against Navy.
- He is the fastest in school history to reach 50 wins, earning his 50th victory in 2013 against Temple in what was his 81st career game.
- He is one of seven active coaches that are the all-time winningest coach at their respective schools. Two of the seven have been the only coach in that school's history.
- He is the 14th-longest tenured head coach in the FBS taking over the head job at Navy on Dec. 8, 2007. Niumatalolo has been the head coach at Navy (nine years) longer than the other 11 AAC coaches combined (eight years, using only Randy Edsall's current tenure).
- His four bowl wins are the most in school history and he is the only coach in school history to win three-consecutive bowl games.
- His four wins against top 25 opponents are tied with George Welsh for the second most in school history. Eddie Erdelatz holds the record with nine.
- Niumatalolo has three wins over Notre Dame, which is tied with Wayne Hardin for most in school history.
- In Navy's first two years as a member of the American Athletic Conference, he led the Mids to a share of the AAC West Division title (2015) and won the AAC West title outright in year two (2016).
- Niumatalolo is the first Samoan head football coach on the collegiate level and the second Polynesian head coach in FBS history (Larry Price, who was the head coach at Hawai'i from 1974-76, was the first).

SHOWTIME TO CHRONICLE THE 2017 NAVY FOOTBALL SEASON

- SHOWTIME Sports will chronicle the 2017 Naval Academy football team with weekly installments of the all-access documentary series A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL. The third edition of the groundbreaking franchise, A SEASON WITH, immerses viewers behind the scenes and into the lives of the football players and coaches at the storied Service Academy with weekly 30-minute episodes throughout the 2017 season.
- The series premieres Tuesday, Sept. 5 at 10 p.m. ET/PT on SHOWTIME, four days after Navy begins its season on the road against Florida Atlantic. New episodes will premiere each Tuesday as the Midshipmen balance the rigors of academics, athletics and military service while navigating a challenging 2017 NCAA FBS football schedule.
- After chronicling The Notre Dame Fighting Irish and Florida State Seminoles in its first two seasons, the SHOWTIME Sports original franchise returns to reveal a vastly different picture of student-athlete life.
- "It's an honor and privilege to be welcomed by the United States Naval Academy and given extensive access to its accomplished football program and prestigious institution," said Stephen Espinoza, Executive Vice President and General Manager, SHOWTIME Sports. "Special thanks are due to Naval Academy Superintendent Admiral Ted Carter, Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk, head coach Ken Niumatalolo and the entire Academy. We look forward to taking viewers into the rarely seen world of a service academy, where student-athletes must not only balance the rigorous demands of an elite academic institution with top-tier collegiate football, but also prepare themselves for service in the Navy or Marine Corps."
- "This is a tremendous opportunity through the extraordinary exposure of SHOWTIME to share the character and impact of Navy football to the nation," said Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk. "These stories have never before been told to the public and they will highlight the dedication and commitment reflected by our coaches and midshipmen who represent this program. SHOWTIME is big time in telling the inside story and they will make these weekly episodes something you won't want to miss."
- "It is an unbelievable opportunity for the Navy Football Brotherhood to be featured on SHOWTIME," said Niumatalolo. "We are excited to showcase the Navy Football culture. We are extremely grateful to Stephen Espinoza and SHOWTIME for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and we are honored to work with Ross Greenburg and his talented production team."
- A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL will feature signature access and storytelling, providing a glimpse into one of the world's most unique collegiate institutions and its dedicated student body. The weekly series will introduce viewers to a team that embodies the term "student athlete," young men who sacrifice on and off the field in preparation for serving their country for a minimum of five years. As viewers will learn, the Midshipmen approach the game with the same goal of gridiron glory as players in other major college football programs but with unique demands off the field.
- A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL will take viewers behind the scenes as the Midshipmen return for their 137th season and 10th under Niumatalolo. The weekly series will document Navy's preparation for each matchup of the 2017 season, the pageantry and the intensity on game day, while showcasing the requisite selflessness and dedication it takes to compete at the Naval Academy. From grueling summer practices to the annual rivalry showdown with Army, A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL will deliver all the sights, sounds and drama as Navy aims to conquer the 2017 season while developing future leaders of America's military.
- Production for A SEASON WITH NAVY FOOTBALL is underway with cameras entrenched on the Yard in Annapolis, Md. The executive producers are Ross Greenburg of Ross Greenburg Productions, Scott A. Stone of Stone & Company Entertainment, Michael Antinoro of IMG Productions, Tom Cappello of Crazy Legs Productions, Steve Stern, David Check, and Jason Sciacavico.

NIUMATALOLO THE ONLY FBS HEAD COACH WITH TWO SONS PLAYING FBS FOOTBALL

- Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo is the only FBS head coach that has two sons playing FBS football.
- Va'a is a senior linebacker at BYU, while Ali'i is a freshman linebacker at Utah. Utah beat BYU, 19-13, on Sept. 9.
- On Sept. 16, thanks to Navy's bye week and some fortuitous scheduling, Niumatalolo got to watch both sons play in person as BYU hosted Wisconsin in the afternoon and Utah hosted San Jose State at night. Both Va'a and Ali'i saw action on special teams.

CONTINUITY IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

- Navy has lost just six coaches under head coach Ken Niumatalolo (three changed jobs, three retired). Eight of Navy's coaches (seven assistants and Niumatalolo) have been in Annapolis for at least 10 years, giving Navy, along with Northwestern, the most coaches in the country that have been at the same school for 10 years or more.
- Defensive coordinator Dale Pehrson is in his 22nd year at Navy, which is tied for the fifth-longest tenured assistant in the FBS. Niumatalolo is in his 20th year at Navy and his 10th as the head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Ivin Jasper is in his 18th year, slot backs coach and special teams coordinator Danny O'Rourke is in his 16th year, outside linebackers coach Justin Davis is in his 11th year, while Ashley Ingram (OL/running game coordinator), Steve Johns (LB) and Mike Judge (FB) are all entering their 10th year at Navy.

ABEY PUTTING UP BIG NUMBERS

• Junior quarterback Zach Abey rushed for 235 yards and two touchdowns on 32 carries, while throwing for 110 yards and a touchdown to lead Navy to a 42-19 victory over Florida Atlantic in the season opener. He was named AAC Co-Offensive Player of the Week and a Manning Award Star of the Week for his efforts.

• Abey is the second Navy quarterback in school history to rush for over 200 yards and throw for over 100 yards in a single game against an FBS opponent. Brian Madden rushed for 201 yards and threw for 113 yards in a 42-28 loss against Tulane in 2001. Brian Broadwater did it in 1998 against FCS Colgate, rushing for 216 yards and passing for 165 yards in a 42-35 win.

• Abey's 235 yards rushing were the most by a Navy player since Keenan Reynolds rushed for 277 yards against Georgia Southern on Nov 15, 2014. It's the second-most yards by a quarterback so far in 2017 and the third most overall. Georgia Tech quarterback Taquon Marshall rushed for 249 yards vs. Tennessee and Tulsa running back D'Angelo Brewer rushed for 262 yards vs. Louisiana-Lafayette.

• Abey's 235 yards rushing broke the record for the most rushing yards by a quarterback in American Athletic Conference history. The previous record was 210 yards set by USF's Quinton Flowers last year against Memphis.

• Abey's 345 yards of total offense was the best by a Navy player since Oct. 28, 2016, when Will Worth set a school record with 428 yards of total offense against USF.

• Abey has rushed and thrown for more than 100 yards in a game in three straight contests. He rushed for 114 yards and threw for 159 yards against Louisiana Tech in the Armed Forces Bowl, rushed for 235 yards and threw for 110 yards against FAU and rushed for 108 yards and threw for 132 yards against Tulane. He is the second player in school history to accomplish that feat, joining Will Worth who was the first to do it last year. No Navy player has ever done it four straight games.

• Abey's 79-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona against Tulane was the longest touchdown pass by a Navy player since Ricky Dobbs threw an 85-yard touchdown pass to Greg Jones against Arkansas State in 2010. Abey has now thrown a touchdown pass in three straight games

• Abey is averaging 171.5 yards per game on the ground, which is the third-best rushing average in the country.

IN THE CLASSROOM

- The rigors a student-athlete faces at a Service Academy are unlike those a typical student-athlete might encounter on a day-to-day basis. Whether it's the added military training, mandatory room or uniform inspections or the academic schedule, Service Academy student-athletes are in a league of their own.
- The Naval Academy's academic day is divided into six 50-minute class periods beginning at 7:55 am and concluding at 3:20 pm. Unique to the Academies, all 4,400 Midshipmen reside on the Yard in Bancroft Hall and dine together in King Hall.

BONNER AND PALMORE NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

- Rising seniors slot back Darryl Bonner (Fayetteville, N.C.) and outside linebacker D.J. Palmore (Bartlett, Tenn.) have been elected team captains for the 2017 football season by their teammates.
- "Being elected team captain at the Naval Academy is one of the highest honors you can receive at an institution that prides itself on producing great leaders," said head coach Ken Niumatalolo. "Darryl and D.J. are not only outstanding football players, but they are great leaders in the locker room and in Bancroft Hall and I have no doubt that they will be great captains for us."
- Bonner, who entered his junior campaign with two career yards of total offense (rushing), turned into "Big Play" Darryl in 2016. He rushed for 229 yards and two touchdowns on 30 carries (7.6 yds / carry), catching 10 passes for 278 yards (27.8 yds / catch) and three touchdowns and returning two kickoffs for 71 yards (35.5 yds / return). He averaged 14.0 yards every time he touched the ball.
- Palmore has started 25 career games for the Mids at outside linebacker, including 12 starts last fall. He was Navy's fourth-leading tackler a year ago with 56 stops, while leading the team in sacks (six) and tackles for a loss (11.5). In his career, Palmore has recorded 99 tackles, 16.5 tackles for a loss and eight sacks.

Nov. 1, 2008 – Clint Sovie's 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown with 37 seconds left in regulation capped a 20-point rally in the final 9:16 to send the game into overtime. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs' one-yard run in OT gave Navy a miraculous 33-27 victory over Temple.

Sept. 26, 2009 – Navy celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first game played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium by wearing replica 1959 jerseys against Western Kentucky. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 143 yards and four touchdowns in the 38-22 victory.

Oct. 3, 2009 – Navy shut down the nation's top rushing offense, while Joe Buckley drilled three field goals, including a 38-yarder in overtime, to lead Navy to a 16-13 victory over Air Force in front of a sellout crowd of 37,820.

Oct. 20, 2012 – Navy scored 10 points in the final 5:30 to come from behind and shock Indiana, 31-30, on Homecoming. Keenan Reynolds hit Matt Aiken with a touchdown pass with 2:02 remaining to give Navy the lead and a Parrish Gaines interception clinched the Mids' first win over a BIG TEN opponent at home since 1926.

Oct. 26, 2013 – One week after missing an extra-point against Toledo in the second overtime, Nick Sloan booted a 30-yard field goal against Pitt as time expired to give Navy a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind victory.

It marked the first time in program history that three players each rushed for 100 or more yards in a game.

Nov. 14, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds shattered the FBS career rushing touchdown record scoring four rushing touchdowns against SMU in Navy's 55-14 rout of SMU. The four rushing touchdowns gave Reynolds 81 in his career, surpassing Montee Ball's record of 77.

Dec. 28, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting career by rushing for three scores and passing for another to lead Navy to a 44-28 win over Pitt in the Military Bowl. The win was the 11th on the year for Navy, setting a school record.

Sept. 10, 2016 – Navy stopped UConn on the one yard line in the final seconds to hold off the Huskies, 28-24, to improve to 2-0 on the year. UConn had the ball on the one-yard line with 17 seconds left, but burned its final timeout before running the ball and being stuffed by the Navy defense.

Oct. 8, 2016 – Will Worth ran for a touchdown and threw for two more, while Josiah Powell picked off a pass and returned it 34-yards for a touchdown to lead Navy to a 46-40 upset of #6 Houston. It was Navy's first win over a top 10 opponent since beat #2 South Carolina in 1984.

GM 2 NAVY 23, TULANE 21

SEPT. 9, 2017 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 30,420

- Quarterback Zach Abey amassed 240 total yards with a touchdown, leading Navy past Tulane 23-21 in the American Athletic Conference opener.
- Abey was coming off a record-setting performance last week against Florida Atlantic when he ran for 235 yards -- the most ever for a quarterback in the AAC. He was the difference again with 108 yards on 29 carries. Abey also completed 4 of 12 passes for 132 yards, including a 79-yard touchdown throw to Tyler Carmona.
- Tulane quarterback Jonathan Banks, a junior college transfer, took a hard hit in the second quarter and did not return with an undisclosed injury. Sophomore Johnathan Brantley, however, provided a spark off the bench and scored his first career touchdown with a 3-yard run in the second quarter.
- The Green Wave cut the margin to 23-21 on a 1-yard dive by Dontrell Hilliard and a two-point conversion with 12:56 left in the game. Tulane, however, failed to convert a pair of key fourth downs late in the game to extend drives.
- A penalty for too many players on the field gave Navy a 4th and 1 from the Green Wave's 46 with 1:58 left. Abey converted the first down and the Midshipmen were able to run out the clock to seal the win.
- Brantley completed five of eight passes for 58 yards. He also ran for 73 yards on nine carries with the score.
- The game was a battle of two teams that have a similar offense.
- Midshipmen coach Ken Niumatalolo ran the triple-option as a quarterback at Hawaii and was later an assistant under coach Paul Johnson, who ran the same system. Tulane's Willie Fritz has used the zone option throughout his 24-year coaching career.
- On this day, Navy was more successful moving the ball, out-gaining the Green Wave 326 to 262.
- Tulane was looking to open the season with two straight wins for the first time since 2002.
