LAST TIME VS. INDIANA STATE

Cincinnati snapped a two-match losing streak with a 5-2 win at Indiana State on Feb. 12, 2005 in Terre Haute, Ind. Cristina Reyes and Samantha Liu at No. 1 and sisters Jill and Julie Klauck at No. 2 won to give the Bearcats the doubles point. Both Klauck's and Liu won their singles matches in the second, third and fourth spots to give UC the win.

PLAYING SHORTHANDED

In UC's opening weeked dual matches at Ohio State and Miami (Ohio), coach Kimberly Jones had some difficulty filling out a lineup as only four Bearcats were healthy to play. Three of those missing were newcomers, but two were UC's leading returning winners, Jill Klauck and Hannah Hinton. With this lineup the Bearcats went 0-2, as freshman Elizabeth Young earned the only win on the weekend.

YOUTH IS SERVED

Now in her third year, head coach Kimberly Jones is getting settled in her recruiting and this year has UC's largest freshman class in years. After graduating a very successful senior class last season, UC has five newcomers this year. Three of them, Carling Arundel, Jenny Rowen and Elizabeth Young, are tied for the team lead in wins.

SUCCESSFUL WEEKEND

Senior Jill Klauck and freshman Jenny Rowen each won consolation championships at the season-opening Spartan Cup in September, hosted by Michigan State. Klauck defeated Michigan State's Pascale Schnitzer, 6-4, 6-2, to claim the Flight A consolation title. For the weekend, she won three-straight matches after dropping her opener. Rowen won the Flight B consolation title by forfeit after earning victories in two of her first three matches.

FRESHMAN TRADITION

The Bearcats have boasted extremely successful freshmen in the last five years. Lyndsey Molony won 19 singles matches in 2000-01, the third-most ever by a UC freshman. Julie Klauck surpassed that total the next year with 20 wins, and Jill Klauck took it further in 2002-03 with 21 wins. Hannah Hinton won 17 singles matches and a team-best 23 doubles contests in her initial season. This year boasts three freshmen each have a team-best five singles wins: Carling Arundel, Jenny Rowen and Elizabeth Young.

HOME AT LAST

The Bearcats have been without on-campus courts since the 2000-01 season, playing at various venues around the city and a majority of matches on the road. This spring that changes as the brand new, six-court UC Tennis Center opens as part of the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. The inaugural match on the courts is scheduled for Wednesday, March 1 against Ball State.

HOPEFUL RECOVERY

After exploding onto the scene with 17 singles and 23 doubles wins as a freshman, junior Hannah Hinton has struggled over the past two years, through no fault of her own. She has missed the fall season in each of the past two campaigns due to injury. Last year she came back for the dual season and went 2-10 in singles and 5-8 in doubles play. Hinton hopes to return to the lineup this weekend.

SHE KNOWS WHAT SHE'S TALKING ABOUT

Head Coach Kimberly Jones was a two-time NCAA All-American at San Diego State in 1977 and 1978. A year later she began an eight-year playing career on the Women's Tennis Association Tour. Among her accomplishments on the WTA, Jones captured the U.S. National Indoor Championship in 1983 and was a member of the U.S. Open Final Eight Club which honors players who reach the final eight of the U.S. Open during their careers. Jones was ranked as high as No. 25 in the world and played in the U.S. Open seven times, made five appearances at Wimbledon and three each in the French and Australian Opens.
