SETTING THE SCENE

- » Connor McVey was named the NCBWA National Hitter of the Week and the American Athletic Conference Player of the Week for games played through May 11. The freshman hit .800 with a 1.200 slugging percentage and a .824 on-base percentage in four games last week. He hit a go-ahead grand slam for his first-career homerun to win the game against Toledo on May 7.
- » Redshirt junior Matt Ring was named to the American honor roll this week. He pitched his second-career complete game on Friday, May 9 in the final home game of his career. He did not allow an earned run and struck out three.
- » Senior Matt Williams is currently riding a career-high 12-game hit streak. McVey failed to get on base during the loss to Ohio State, effectively ending his eight-game hit streak.
- » The Bearcats are currently on the outside looking in for the American Athletic Conference baseball championship but can play their way into a spot this weekend. UC will earn a bid to Clearwater if it wins one more game than Memphis on the weekend. The Tigers are hosting Rutgers for three games beginning on Thursday. If the Bearcats do not win a game, they will be eliminated from contention.
- » Louisville is currently in play to earn the American regular-season crown and the No. 1 seed at the championship. The Cardinals must win one more game than UCF, who plays at UConn this weekend.

MARGE SCHOTT STADIUM

MARGE SCHOTT STADIUM

- » Marge Schott Stadium has been the home of the Cincinnati Bearcats baseball team since the end of the 2004 season.
- » The first game played at the 3,085-seat, on-campus facility occurred on May, 20 2004 when the Bearcats hosted UAB in the final series of 2004. The opening game was played on a Thursday night, before a crowd of 2,200.
- » The facility was later named Marge Schott Stadium in the spring of 2006 after the Marge and Charles J. Schott Foundation made a $2 million gift to the Richard E. Lindner Varsity Village. Marge Schott was a well-known Cincinnati philanthropist who held controlling interest of the Cincinnati Reds from 1985 to 1999. She passed away in March, 2004, leaving the majority of her estate to the foundation.
- » Recently voted the favorite road stadium in the BIG EAST Conference to visit, Marge Schott Stadium is located directly east of the spot where Johnny Bench Field, the Bearcats' previous home, sat for a number of years.
- » Some of the features of the stadium include:
 - » Batting Cages
 - » Seating capacity of 3,085
 - » Indoor batting cages and pitcher's mound
 - » A fully equipped pressbox with private viewing areas
 - » A player's clubhouse and lounge
 - » Dressing rooms for coaches
 - » Full laundry and equipment facilities
 - » State-of-the-art training room
 - » FieldTurf playing surface
 - » A fully lighted playing field
