OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
McKenzie Milton • Jr. • QB • UCF • Kapolei, Hawaii
Milton becomes the first player to repeat as The American's Offensive Player of the Year as he served as the catalyst behind an offense that leads the conference and ranks fifth nationally at 531.5 yards per game and averaged 43.1 points per game, which ranks eighth. Milton, who suffered a serious injury in UCF's win against USF last Friday, threw for 2,663 yards and 25 touchdowns with six interceptions and rushed for 307 yards and a team-high nine TDs in 2018. DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Nate Harvey • Sr. • DE • ECU • Knightdale, N.C.
Harvey enjoyed a breakout season as a senior in 2018. After spending last season primarily on special teams, Harvey emerged as a starting defensive end and enters Saturday's regular-season finale at North Carolina State as the national leader in tackles for loss (24.0). Harvey broke The American's single-season record of 23.0 tackles for loss, set by Houston's Ed Oliver last year, and enters Saturday's game with 13.5 sacks, one shy of the conference's single-season record (14.5 by Louisville's Marcus Smith in 2013). In addition, Harvey has 59 tackles, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. He is the first ECU player to be chosen as The American's Defensive Player of the Year.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Isaiah Wright • Jr. • WR/KR • Temple • West Hartford, Conn.
Wright becomes the first Temple player to earn Special Teams Player of the Year honors from The American. Wright scored a nation-leading three special teams touchdowns in 2018 and enters the postseason as the conference leader in punt return average (13.9 yards per return). Wright is third in the conference in kickoff return average (25.9 ypr) and fifth in all-purpose yards (119.0 yards per game).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR
Desmond Ridder • Fr. • QB • Cincinnati • Louisville, Ky.
Ridder is the first Cincinnati player to be named as The American's Rookie of the Year. Ridder took over as the Bearcats' quarterback in the second quarter of the season-opening win at UCLA and has led Cincinnati to a 10-2 record. Ridder has thrown for 2,382 yards and 19 touchdowns with five interceptions and has rushed for 563 yards and five TDs as a redshirt freshman. He ranks fourth in The American in pass efficiency (145.7) and fifth in total offense (245.4 yards per game).

COACH OF THE YEAR
Luke Fickell • Cincinnati
Fickell was chosen by his peers as The American's Coach of the Year after he orchestrated a six-win improvement in his second year on the Cincinnati sideline. After going 4-8 in his first year, Fickell has led the Bearcats to a 10-2 overall record, a 4-0 in mark in nonconference games and a 6-2 conference mark in 2018. The Bearcats returned to the national polls for the first time since 2013, ranking as high as No. 19 in the Nov. 11 Associated Press poll.

Notes
Memphis is making its 11th appearance in a bowl game as well as its school-record fifth straight bowl appearance ... The Tigers have gone 4-6 in their previous bowls and look for their first bowl victory since a 55-48 double-overtime win against BYU in the 2014 Miami Beach Bowl ... The Tigers fell 21-20 to Iowa State last year in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl ... Memphis enjoyed a remarkable second half of the season that culminated in a second straight American Athletic Conference West Division title ... That seemed unlikely after the Tigers fell to 1-3 in conference play after an October loss to UCF ... Facing must-win situations in each of its last four conference games, the Tigers won all four by an average of 18 points ... Head coach Mike Norvell's 26 wins are the most in a three-year span in school history ... The Tigers rank fourth nationally in total offense at 534.3 yards per game, thanks in large part to the performance of RB Darrell Henderson ... Henderson, an NCAA Consensus All-America selection and a Doak Walker Award finalist, is second nationally with a conference-record 1,909 rushing yards and has a nation-leading 22 touchdown runs ... RB Patrick Taylor II has rushed for 1,012 yards and 15 touchdowns, giving Memphis what might be the most potent backfield duo nationally ... QB Brady White, a transfer from Arizona State, has stepped in to throw for 3,125 yards and 25 touchdowns in his first year with the Tigers ... WR Damonte Coxie has team highs of 66 receptions, 1,104 receiving yards and seven touchdown catches ... LB Bryce Huff enters the bowl season ranked second in The American with 19.0 tackles for loss and is third in the conference with 9.5 sacks ... LB Curtis Akins has a team-high 91 tackles ... CB T.J. Carter, the 2017 American Rookie of the Year, is a player to watch in the secondary with two interceptions and 11 pass breakups ... WR Tony Pollard, a two-time American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year, has averaged 21.8 yards on kickoff returns ... WR John "Pop" Williams is second The American in punt return average (11.1 yards) ... K Riley Patterson is third in the conference in scoring, first among kickers (9.0 ppg) ... P Adam Williams has averaged 42.5 yards per punt.

POSTSEASON HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
McKenzie Milton, QB, UCF (Jr., Kapolei, Hawaii)

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Nate Harvey, DE, ECU (Sr., Knightdale, N.C.)

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Isaiah Wright, WR/KR, Temple (Jr., West Hartford, Conn.)

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR
Desmond Ridder, QB, Cincinnati (Fr., Louisville, Ky.)

COACH OF THE YEAR
Luke Fickell, Cincinnati

UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton, who led the No. 7-ranked Knights to a second consecutive perfect regular season, has been chosen as the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight year, while ECU defensive end Nate Harvey, the national leader in tackles for loss, was named as The American's Defensive Player of the Year by the league's 12 head coaches.

Temple wide receiver Isaiah Wright was named as The American's Special Teams Player of the Year. Cincinnati quarterback Desmond Ridder was chosen as Rookie of the Year, while Bearcat head coach Luke Fickell was named as Coach of the Year.

Milton becomes the first player to repeat as The American's Offensive Player of the Year as he served as the catalyst behind an offense that leads the conference and ranks fifth nationally at 531.5 yards per game and averaged 43.1 points per game, which ranks eighth. Milton, who suffered a serious injury in UCF's win against USF last Friday, threw for 2,663 yards and 25 touchdowns with six interceptions and rushed for 307 yards and a team-high nine TDs in 2018.

Harvey enjoyed a breakout season as a senior at ECU in 2018. After spending last season primarily on special teams, Harvey emerged as a starting defensive end and enters Saturday's regular-season finale at North Carolina State as the national leader in tackles for loss (24.0). Harvey broke The American's single-season record of 23.0 tackles for loss, set by Houston's Ed Oliver last year, and enters Saturday's game with 13.5 sacks, one shy of the conference's single-season record (14.5 by Louisville's Marcus Smith in 2013). He is the first ECU player to be chosen as The American's Defensive Player of the Year.

Wright becomes the first Temple player to earn Special Teams Player of the Year honors from The American. Wright scored a nation-leading three special teams touchdowns in 2018 and enters the postseason as the conference leader in punt return average (13.9 yards per return). Wright is third in the conference in kickoff return average (25.9 ypr) and fifth in all-purpose yards (119.0 yards per game).

Ridder is the first Cincinnati player to be named as The American's Rookie of the Year. Ridder took over as the Bearcats' quarterback during the season-opening win at UCLA and has led Cincinnati to a 10-2 record. Ridder has thrown for 2,382 yards and 19 touchdowns with five interceptions and has rushed for 563 yards and five TDs. He ranks fourth in The American in pass efficiency (145.7) and fifth in total offense (245.4 ypg).

Fickell was chosen by his peers as The American's Coach of the Year after he orchestrated a six-win improvement in his second year on the Cincinnati sideline. After going 4-8 in his first year, Fickell has led the Bearcats to a 10-2 overall record, a 4-0 in mark in nonconference games and a 6-2 conference mark in 2018. The Bearcats returned to the national polls for the first time since 2013, ranking as high as No. 19 in the Nov. 11 Associated Press poll.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a big success. Fans, including many who are new to the sport, enjoy it. The first College Football Playoff semi-finals and national championship were the three most-viewed programs in cable television history.

Every Game Counts
The playoff preserves the excitement and significance of college foot-ball's unique regular season where every game counts.

Four Teams
The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

Two Games, One Goal
The kickoff of the new year belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. The two teams winning the playoff semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. That game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

Universal Access
Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

Governance
University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve on the CFP Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the playoff office in Irving, Texas, carries out the detailed responsibilities.

Selection Committee
A talented group of high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are: Rob Mullens (chair), Frank Beamer, Paola Boivin, Jeff Bower, Joe Castiglione, Herb Deromedi, Ken Hatfield, Chris Howard, Bobby Johnson, Ronnie Lott, Gene Smith, Todd Stansbury, and Scott Stricklin.

Selection Committee Responsibilities
- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls
- Create competitive matchups
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances
- Consider geography

Participants In New Year's Bowls
Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.

BOWL PARTNERSHIPS

The American Bowl Lineup

In addition to the College Football Playoff and New Year's Bowls, The American has either a primary or secondary affiliation with 12 bowl games during its current six-year bowl cycle, which ends following the 2019 season. The American works annually with its member schools and bowl partners to create the most sensible and attractive postseason matchups.

The Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman takes place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, Maryland, while the events and activities surrounding the game are based in Washington, D.C. The American Athletic Conference will face an opponent from the Atlantic Coast Conference each year in the current cycle.

The Jared Birmingham Bowl takes place at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama. The American/Big East has partnered with the bowl since its inception in the 2006 season. The Ame-rican Athletic Conference will annually face an opponent from the Southeastern Conference.

The Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl is played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Florida. The American Athletic Conference will supply a team to the bowl during each year of the six-year cycle. Conference USA will play in the game in 2015, 2017 and 2019, while the Atlantic Coast Conference provides the opposing team in 2014, 2016 and 2018.

The Cheribundi Tart Cherry Boca Raton Bowl began in 2014 and will feature an American Athletic Conference team three times during the six-year cycle at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, Florida. The American representative will play a team from Conference USA in 2018.

The Frisco Bowl will be played for the second time in 2018 as the former Miami Beach Bowl was relocated to Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas. An American Athletic Conference plays in the bowl each year.

The AutoNation Cure Bowl made its debut in 2015 at the newly renovated Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Florida. An American Athletic Conference team will be paired against an opponent from the Sun Belt Conference. Net proceeds from the game will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl is played at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the campus of Texas Christian University. The American Athletic Conference sends a team to the bowl in 2014, 2016 and 2018. The opponent will be a Big 12 team in 2016 and 2018, with Conference USA as a secondary affiliation.

In addition to the conference's primary bowl affiliations, The American holds secondary partnerships with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tennessee, and the Walk-On's Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana, as well as with other ESPN-owned bowls.
