#STRIKEOUTALS "MUSTACHE MARCH" ...

Annually, for the past 18 seasons, East Carolina hosts the "Keith LeClair Classic" a tournament put together to bring awareness to ALS through the Jim "Catfish" Hunter chapter, which is located in Raleigh, N.C.

The chapter finds the tournament as a way to continue awareness and fundraising in Coach LeClair's honor. The goal is to use the Keith LeClair Classic as a starting point for our own fundraiser to help Strikeout ALS.

Now for the sixth consecutive year, the ECU baseball team will be growing mustaches to raise money and awareness for ALS research. The Pirates will be teaming up with the Memphis and Michigan baseball programs as well as CoopStrong for the second consecutive year. Erik Bakich (Michigan Head Coach) and Cliff Godwin (ECU Head Coach) were teammates under Keith LeClair.

CoopStrong is a non-profit organization formed to honor the memory of Nelson Cooper, a beloved husband, father, professor, and friend who passed away from ALS in May 2017. He has a special place in the ECU Baseball program being a professor to numerous of our players in his tenure as well as being close friends with Hall of Fame Head Coach Keith LeClair. CoopStrong keeps the memory and legacy of Dr. Nelson Cooper alive through scholarships awarded to Recreation Sciences students at East Carolina University.

This year, the Pirates along with the Tigers and Wolverines and CoopStrong raised $10,874 for ALS Research. In 2018, the ECU and Memphis baseball programs participated raised nearly $11,000 and in 2019, ECU, Memphis and Michigan raised $10,836 with donations going towards funding, supporting families and research. Last year (2020) they raised $3,325.

The past three seasons, ECU Dowdy Student Stores has donated $10,500 from t-shirt sales during the year and has pushed ECU's six-year total (including '21) to $57,697 in donations.

He also walked three times and scored twice including the game-winning run in the ninth. Worrell closed out the series with another hit in the eighth and scored once.

On Sunday, he capped off the week with another game-winning hit (solo home run) in the third pushing his season total to four game-winning RBI.

COLMORE NAMED AAC PITCHER OF THE WEEK (MAY 10)

Senior Cam Colmore was named the American Athletic Conference Pitcher-of-the-Week on May 10. Colmore, who helped the Pirates to a 3-1 week, made three relief appearances against Tulane posting a 0.00 ERA after working 4.1 scoreless innings. The right-hander faced 17 batters on the weekend allowing just three hits, walking one and fanning four. In the series opener, he entered the game with the bases loaded, one out and the Pirates holding on to a 5-2 lead. He threw seven pitches getting Ethan Groff to fly out and struck out Jared Hart to end the top of the sixth. Colmore finished with two perfect frames retiring all six batters faced with three punch outs.

During the first game of the doubleheader Saturday, Colmore made his second appearance coming in again with the bases loaded, two outs in the fifth and ECU leading 4-1. He walked the first batter he faced, which scored a run for the Green Wave, but promptly struck out Chase Engelhard slamming the door on a potential big inning. 90-FEET AWAY FROM OMAHA & CWS BERTH ...

After capturing the Charlottesville Regional title, the ECU baseball team traveled to No. 5 National Seed Texas Tech for a three-game series in the Lubbock Super Regional in 2016.

The Pirates, who entered the weekend set having dropped all six previous super regional games, picked up their first win (8-6) on Friday, June 10 behind a pair of home runs from Travis Watkins. Evan Kruczynski notched his eighth win and became the first ECU pitcher to win a super regional contest.

One win away from advancing to its first-ever College World Series appearance, ECU came within 90-feet from going to Omaha leaving a runner stranded at third in both the 11th and 12th innings. TTU would win in 13 innings on a two-RBI single by Eric Gutierrez.

Texas Tech wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard in game three plating three runs in the home half of the first and cruised to its second CWS berth in the last three years with an 11-0 win over ECU.

CWS DROUGHT EXTENDED TO 30 TRIPS

When the 2019 NCAA Tournament came to an end at the Louisville Regional, ECU's streak of 30 regional trips without going to Omaha was extended - the longest active streak in baseball. In 2016, The Pirates came 90-feet away twice in Game 2 in the Lubbock Super Regional of making their first trip to the College World Series. Below is a look at the longest active streaks by teams that have never made a trip to Omaha (list updated through 2019 - no CWS in 2020 due to COVID-19 pandemic).
