CINCINNATI STORYLINES

- » Cincinnati has won 16 of its first 18 games for the second consecutive season and third time in the past five years.
- » The Bearcats have won a season-high nine games in a row and 44 of their last 50 regular-season contests entering Saturday's matchup with ECU.
- » Cincinnati owns the nation's longest active home-court win streak at 35 games, including 19 consecutive league home victories.
- » The Bearcats have been ranked in the AP Top 25 for 26 consecutive weeks, a Mick Cronin coaching era high mark. It's the sixth-longest streak in school history.
- » For only the second time in school history (1977-78), a Cincinnati squad features four players (Cane Broome, Gary Clark, Jacob Evans III and Kyle Washington) who have scored 1,000 points during their collegiate career. Cincinnati and Saint Mary's are the only two teams in the nation currently with four 1,000-point scorers on the roster.
- » Despite Tuesday's defensive struggle at UCF, the Bearcats are posting the best offensive number of the Mick Cronin coaching era for points per game (77.3), field goal percentage (.464), three-point percentage (.367) and assists per game (17.0).
- » Defensively, UC hasn't allowed an AAC foe to score more than 56 points through five league games. The Bearcats rank in Top 10 nationally in scoring defense (2nd at 57.2); field-goal percentage defense (3rd at .365) and rebound margin (9th at +8.8).
- » Jarron Cumberland was named to the AAC Weekly Honor Roll on Monday. He scored a team-high 18 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field, matching a season best with four three-pointers in the Bearcats' 78-55 win at USF last Saturday.
- » Cincinnati is one of eight teams to appear in the NCAA Tournament each of the last seven seasons (along with Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, North Carolina, VCU and Wisconsin).

- » A positive example and strong representative for his team, university and the city of Cincinnati, Clark is an active volunteer who has logged more than 50 hours of service in the Cincinnati community leading his teammates to spend time at such places as Our Daily Bread, the Sheakley Boys and Girls Club and the Friar's Club. There he spends time with area youth encouraging them to follow rules and stay in school.
- » Clark also participates in campus orientation efforts during the fall to help new students grow comfortable with their surroundings and recently visited a hospitalized patient to offer words of encouragement.
- » UC head coach Mick Cronin said recently, "He's one of the greatest kids you will ever coach. I can only hope that the good Lord thinks I'm half as nice a human as Gary Clark because he's a really good person."

Renovations began immediately following Cincinnati's 2016-17 home finale against Houston on March 2.

"Our entire University has grown and transformed into one of the best in the country over the past 15 years, both academically and aesthetically," men's basketball head coach Mick Cronin said. "This arena will be awesome. The planning has been meticulous and the first-class, new design is as good as I've seen across all of college basketball. This building is about our future and is a testament to the commitment our University and donors have toward our programs."

Proposed improvements to the facility, built in 1989 and originally named the Myrl H. Shoemaker Center, include the creation of a 360-degree seating bowl, new HD scoreboard, ribbon boards, sound system, an LED lighting system which will allow for enhanced gameday presentation, new restroom and concession facilities, a new upper-level concourse with its own fan amenities, expanded food and beverage options and a new main entrance and plaza with centralized ticketing and guest services. The renovated arena also will feature upgraded locker room spaces, expanded premium seating options, including a courtside club, arena club and concourse club as well as enclosed suites, loge seating, a new Bearcats Lounge and super suites.

"We are inspired by the passionate engagement from the Board of Trustees, campus leadership and key constituents who are making a bold commitment to our athletic program and the campus community," UC Director of Athletics Mike Bohn said.

Those interested in making a gift to the construction of the arena should contact the UCATS office at 513-556-0735.

ARENA WEBSITE: OURHOUSE2018.COM

The University of Cincinnati Department of Athletics launched a website for the Fifth Third Arena Renovation titled OurHouse2018.com. The website, created in conjunction with the University's Office of Creative Services, was developed to provide Bearcats' fans current and up-to-date information on the arena construction project which is already underway.

OurHouse2018.com features an updated fly-through of the arena renovations, new renderings and information for those interested in purchasing tickets, premium seating or making a donation to the $87-million privately-funded project.

Monthly video updates on the renovations are available at GoBearcats.com.

BEARCATS PLAYING GAMES AT BB&T ARENA IN 2017-18

Cincinnati men's basketball is playing its 2017-18 home schedule at BB&T Arena in Highland Heights, Kentucky. The facility is home to Northern Kentucky University athletics.

"We are excited for the opportunity to play in one of the newest facilities in the area," UC Director of Athletics Mike Bohn said. "This was a long, thorough and engaging process with numerous stakeholders throughout our region. Hamilton County officials were all in for the right reasons and a key part of our discussions. The tri-state area is unique because of its regionality which encompasses a large swath of our fan base. All of those factors helped us make the right decision for our department and University while being fiscally responsible and providing an outstanding experience for our student-athletes, fans, students, donors and supporters."

BB&T Arena was built in 2008 and provides the Bearcats a state-of-the-art facility a short drive from UC's campus. The 9,400-seat multipurpose arena is located seven miles from downtown Cincinnati and features 12 luxury suites, a pair of party suites and 8,000 parking spaces within a five-minute walk to the arena. A four-sided video board, statistics boards and ribbon boards will keep fans up-to-date on what is going on in-game.

CINCINNATI TO REOPEN FIFTH THIRD ARENA AGAINST OHIO STATE

Cincinnati will reopen Fifth Third Arena by welcoming Ohio State in the 2018-19 season opener. The news came in early October as part of a home-and-home series announcement.

The Bearcats will open a newly renovated Fifth Third Arena against the Buckeyes in 2018 with Ohio State playing host in Columbus in 2019. Although dates for the games have not been determined, the game will take place on the first allowable date of competition in each of the next two years.

The two schools haven't played a regular-season game since 1921. Ohio State leads the series 6-4 overall, including an 81-66 victory in the last meeting: March 22, 2012 in the NCAA East Regional semifinals in Boston.

CINCINNATI HEAD COACH MICK CRONIN

Mick Cronin's tenure as head basketball coach at the University of Cincinnati has seen the rebirth of the Bearcats, rising from a program that featured only one returning scholarship player when he arrived in 2006-07 to one that posted 30 wins in 2016-17, made its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance last season and awaits the reopening of a renovated, state-of-the-art, Fifth Third Arena for the 2018-19 campaign.

Cronin is one of six coaches in the nation to take his team to the NCAA Tournament each of the past seven seasons, along with Mark Few (Gonzaga), Tom Izzo (Michigan State), Mike Krzyzewski (Duke), Bill Self (Kansas) and Roy Williams (North Carolina).

The Cincinnati native and UC alumnus leads the nation in Division I wins (322) and total NCAA Tournament appearances (nine) among active coaches his age (46-years old) and ranks second in Division I wins among active coaches under the age of 50.

Built on toughness, tenacious defense and continuous all-out effort, Cronin's Bearcats rank as one of two programs (along with Virginia) to be listed among the nation's top 25 in scoring defense each of the past five seasons. You can also find Cincinnati's name listed among the top 25 teams in field-goal percentage defense and blocks per game every year since 2012-13.

Cronin guided Cincinnati to a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference regular-season crown while earning the league's coach of the year honor. At Murray State from 2004-2006, Cronin guided the Racers two Ohio Valley Conference tournament titles and one regular-season crown while receiving OVC Coach of the Year distinction in 2006.

Along with his three seasons in Murray, Cronin has compiled a 322-161 career record in 14-plus years as a college head coach, including a 253-137 mark at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati's 2017-18 squad features the return of its top three scorers – Jacob Evans, Kyle Washington and Gary Clark – along with six other lettermen and six newcomers.

Cronin's rebuilding job began immediately when his first squad featured only one returning starter for the 2006-07 campaign. He tirelessly went to work setting the culture necessary to building long-term success while competing within arguably the sport's toughest league ever organized – the old BIG EAST Conference.

Despite the surroundings, Cincinnati began the retooling process, becoming the only program from a major conference to improve its win total every season from 2007 to 2011, building from 11 wins in 2007 to 26 victories and a return to the NCAA Tournament in 2011.

Now a fixture at the Big Dance, Cincinnati can include itself among an elite list of eight programs appearing in seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, along with Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Michigan State, North Carolina, VCU and Wisconsin.

SEVEN CONSECUTIVE TRIPS TO THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

2016-17: Cincinnati achieved the second-most wins in program history (30-6), advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, and tied the school record for league victories (16-2) while finishing second in the American Athletic Conference. The Bearcats also posted an 18-0 home record, the fourth undefeated season at Fifth Third Arena and was ranked in the national polls for 15 weeks during the season, a Cronin-era record high. The UC head coach also achieved a milestone, registering his 300th career victory against Tulsa on Feb. 18.

2015-16: Cincinnati won 11 of its final 15 games of the regular season, including a 61-54 win over then-No. 24 SMU, to register its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Junior Troy Caupain received First Team American Athletic Conference accolades while sophomore Gary Clark was named the league's defensive player of the year and second-team all-conference honoree. The Bearcats finished 22-11 overall and tied for third in the league with a 12-6 mark.

2014-15: A young, inexperienced group of newcomers and role players overcame the loss of its head coach due to health reasons and banded together to register a 23-11 mark and achieve the program's first second-round NCAA Tournament appearance since 2012. UC finished third in the conference but swept league-winner SMU and registered a victory at second-place Tulsa (in the only meeting between the schools) to secure the school's fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament invite. The Bearcats outlasted Purdue 66-65 in overtime in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to previously unbeaten Kentucky, 64-51.

2013-14: Cincinnati won a share of the inaugural American Athletic Conference regular-season crown, the program's first conference title since 2003-04, behind the efforts of AP All-American Sean Kilpatrick and league defensive player of the year Justin Jackson. Kilpatrick led The American with 20.6 points per game and Cronin was named The American's Coach of the Year in leading UC to a 27-7 record – its most wins since 2001-02. The Bearcats strung together 15 consecutive wins, including their first 11 league games. UC was listed among the top 15 teams in the AP poll during each of the last eight weeks of the regular season, climbing as high as seventh.

2012-13: Senior Cashmere Wright fought through nagging injuries and, along with fellow senior JaQuon Parker and junior Sean Kilpatrick, helped lead the Bearcats to a 22-12 overall record and third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Wright finished his career as UC's all-time steals leader (198) and Cronin claimed his 200th career coaching win. The Bearcats ranked sixth nationally with 6.1 blocks per game.

2011-12: Cincinnati advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, registered 26 wins for the second consecutive season and defeated a school-record eight nationally ranked teams, including No. 2 Syracuse in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Championship. The Bearcats posted a school-record 12 wins in the BIG EAST en route to tying for fourth place in the league standings and finishing as runners up in the league tournament. Yancy Gates capped off his career as one of only six players in program history to compile more than 1,400 points and 900 rebounds. The Bearcats outlasted Texas and Florida State before falling to Ohio State in the NCAA Tournament.

2010-11: Cincinnati won its first 15 games of the season and closed strong with five victories in its last six regular-season contests to secure its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2005. Yancy Gates led the Bearcats with 11.9 points and 6.9 rebounds and Sean Kilpatrick was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie team. UC defeated Missouri 78-63 before falling to eventual national champion UConn 69-58 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Bearcats finished 26-9 overall.

PRIOR TO CINCINNATI

Success seems to follow Cronin, who came to Cincinnati after serving three years as head coach at Murray State (2004-06). As mentor of the Racers, Cronin compiled a 69-24 overall record while earning a pair of NCAA tournament berths.

In his debut season as head coach, Cronin directed Murray State to a school-best 28-6 record, the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance. His 28 wins were the sixth most in NCAA history for a first-year head coach at the time. He earned OVC Coach of the Year honors two seasons later, guiding Murray State to another OVC regular-season title, league tournament crown and NCAA Tournament appearance with a 24-6 mark in 2005-06.

Prior to Murray State, Cronin built a sterling reputation for his ability to evaluate and recruit top talent. In his stint at UC as an assistant coach for Bob Huggins from 1997-2001, Cronin recruited several top players, including NBA Draft selections Steve Logan (Golden State); DerMarr Johnson (Atlanta); Pete Mickeal (Dallas); Kenny Satterfield (Dallas); and Jason Maxiell (Detroit).

Following the 2000-01 season, Cronin became the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville, under Rick Pitino. In his first year, Cronin helped attract a top-10 ranked recruiting class.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Cronin's passion for success on the court also carries over to the local community where he is committed to making a difference. He currently serves as a board member on both the American Cancer Society and the ACS's Coaches vs. Cancer of Southwest Ohio chapter.

He also assists with a major fundraising event - Soul of the City Soiree - for Our Daily Bread that has generated more than $100,000 each of the past four years to assist the soup kitchen and community center in Cincinnati.

Cronin also annually speaks with the Young Executive Group of the Catholic Inner-City Schools Education (CISE) Fund. The group raises money from area corporations to help give children from low income urban settings the opportunity to attend Catholic schools.

During the 2013-14 season, Cronin also wrote a column in the Cincinnati Enquirer highlighting the dangers of texting while driving as part of the AT&T sponsored "It Can Wait" campaign. He spotlighted the campaign again during an on-campus awareness event in October 2014.

PATH TO COACHING

Cronin has long held great pride in the Queen City, the University of Cincinnati and the sport of basketball. As a child growing up on the west side of town, he used to follow his father Harold "Hep" Cronin -- a highly successful local high school coach with more than 400 career wins -- around the gyms of Cincinnati. A product of LaSalle High School, Cronin had his playing career end sooner than expected due to a knee injury in high school.

That didn't stop his desire to find his place in basketball. While completing his undergraduate degree at UC, Cronin served as assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach at Woodward High School. He helped develop six players who went on to play Division I college basketball, including former Bearcat Damon Flint, who ranks among the top 25 scorers in program history.

Cronin made the jump from high school to college coaching during the 1996-97 season joining Huggins as video coordinator at UC. A year later, Cronin was elevated to an assistant coach for the Bearcats, setting the stage for his long tenure in college basketball.

Cronin resides in Cincinnati with his 11-year old daughter, Samantha.
