THE OPENING TIP...

- Southern Indiana concludes a season-long five-game road swing with back-to-back games Saturday and Sunday. USI plays at Wright State Saturday at 11 a.m. CT and at Cincinnati Sunday at 1 p.m. CT.
- The weekend slate is the only time this season that USI will play on back-to-back days until potential Ohio Valley Conference tournament play.
- USI is 1-2 so far on the current road stretch, falling to Murray State and Butler before winning last Saturday at Eastern Michigan. The win at EMU also put USI at 1-2 against MAC schools this season.
- The Screaming Eagles beat Eastern Michigan on Saturday 66-60, winning a tight back-and-forth contest where the lead changed six times and the largest lead was nine.
- USI was outscored by EMU 23-14 in the third quarter before USI rallied back to outscore EMU 21-13 in the fourth period to close out the win.
- Junior forward Meredith Raley recorded her second career double-double against EMU, tallying 17 points and 16 rebounds in the win. Raley extended her streak of scoring in double figures in every game this season for USI.
- USI compiled a 23-6 record last season, a GLVC regular season championship, and a berth into the 2022 NCAA Division II Midwest Region Tournament. The Screaming Eagles' 23 wins were the most since USI achieved 26 victories in the 2017-18 season.

The athletic teams representing the University of Southern Indiana are referred to as "Southern Indiana" or "USI" in all instances. "Screaming Eagles" is preferred on first reference, then "Eagles" thereafter.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT

Saturday's Opponent - Wright State

- Wright State, out of the Horizon League, is 1-8 so far in the 2022-23 season. WSU earned its only win on November 17 in a 98-37 final against Ohio Christian. Wright State has had a tough non-conference schedule, facing Toledo and Bowling Green out of the MAC, #4 Ohio State out of the Big Ten, and Tennessee out of the SEC. The Raiders have also faced Eastern Illinois, whom Southern Indiana will meet in OVC play.
- Last time out, Wright State fell 96-57 against Tennessee in Knoxville. Wright State was held to 38 percent from the floor while Tennessee shot nearly 60 percent overall. However, the Raiders did knock down 10 three-pointers for a mark of 47.6 percent from downtown. Defensively, Wright State held Tennessee to only three made triples and just over 17 percent from beyond the arc. The Raiders were led by senior guard Emily Chapman with 18 points on 7-10 shooting.
- On the season, senior guard Bryce Nixon leads Wright State at 10.0 points per game. Nixon has shot 44 percent overall this season, including 20 makes from three at 46.5 percent. Graduate Isabelle Bolender sits at 8.4 points per contest with Chapman just behind her at 8.1 points a game.

Sunday's Opponent - Cincinnati

- Cincinnati, out of the American Athletic Conference, is 6-5 so far in the 2022-23 season. Cincinnati's schedule thus far has featured games against ranked Louisville to open the season, wins against Tennessee Tech and Lindenwood out of the OVC, splitting games against Toledo and Ohio out of the MAC, and a loss against crosstown rival Xavier.
- On Tuesday, Cincinnati captured a 77-44 road win at Ohio. Cincinnati shot 50 percent overall in the game, hitting 12 threes in 20 attempts from distance. The Bearcats also claimed 44 rebounds with 18 on the offensive glass. Cincinnati was +10 in the game in points off turnovers, and defensively, the Bearcats held the Bobcats to only 31 percent shooting and only three made triples in 21 attempts. Cincinnati was led in the game by senior guard Dais'Ja Trotter with 13 points. Senior guard Caitlyn Wilson and sophomore guard Braylyn Milton posted 12 points. Junior guard Jillian Hayes also finished in double figures with 10 points for the Bearcats.
- On the season, Hayes paces the Bearcats with 14.9 points and 8.6 rebounds per game. Hayes also has 18 blocks. Senior guard Mya Jackson is second on the team in scoring at 12.5 points per contest

USI NOTES

Eagles' scoring efficiency

- The Screaming Eagles' offense has been one of the best when it comes to offensive conversion and the efficiency of putting the ball in the basket. USI is averaging 70.0 points per game, which is second in the Ohio Valley Conference. Southern Indiana's scoring output has been achieved by shooting 42.8 percent from the floor (second in the OVC), 38.2 percent from behind the arc (first in the OVC), and 78.9 percent at the free-throw line (first in the OVC).
- Meanwhile, USI's offensive effort has led to an OVC-best 16.6 assists per game, which sits among the best in the nation. The Screaming Eagles have recorded an assist on over 64 percent of their total made baskets this season.

USI's defensive prowess

- USI's pressuring defense has been a problem for opponents this season. Southern Indiana is third in the OVC with 11.5 steals per game, second with 22.4 turnovers forced per game, third in field goal percentage defense at .392, and is third in the league at 3.3 blocks per contest.
- In terms of takeaways, sophomore guard Vanessa Shafford leads USI with 22 steals. It's a team effort on defense, however, as senior guard Tori Handley has 17 steals, senior guard Soffia Rieckers has 14, and junior forward Meredith Raley has 11.
- USI's post players have also done their part in erasing shots. Graduate forward Ashlynn Brown tops the squad with eight blocks on the season. Senior forward Hannah Haithcock has six swats while Meredith Raley has five blocks.

Raley named OVC Player of the Week

- Junior forward Meredith Raley was named OVC Player of the Week on December 13 for the second time in the 2022-23 season. Raley earned the accolade after posting 28 points and 19 rebounds in two games at Butler and Eastern Michigan, averaging 14 points and 9.5 boards per contest. She led USI with 11 points and a career-best five assists at Butler on December 7 before a stellar performance of 17 points and 16 rebounds at Eastern Michigan on December 10. Raley's second career double-double marked the first time a Screaming Eagle pulled down 15 or more rebounds in a game since Kacy Eschweiler tallied 22 rebounds against Ferris State University on November 16, 2018.
- Raley was named OVC co-Player of the Week on November 29. In earning the honor, Raley scored a career-high 23 points on November 23 against Bethel University (Ind.), hitting the 20-point plateau for the first time in her career. The Haubstadt, Indiana native added eight rebounds with five coming on the offensive glass.

Shafford is everywhere on the court

- Guard Vanessa Shafford is having a stellar sophomore season. After making one start in 27 appearances in her freshman season, Shafford has assumed a vital role with USI in her second season, starting every game and scoring at will. Shafford has scored 10 or more points in six games this season, including five straight games to start the season.
- Not only has Shafford been impressive in the scoring column, but the 5'9" guard has been sensational on the glass. Shafford paces USI at eight rebounds per game. She has already secured 10 or more rebounds in three games this season, including her first two career double-double games in consecutive outings against Bowling Green State on November 19 and Bethel University (Ind.) on November 23. In comparison, Shafford averaged 3.5 rebounds per game in her freshman season.

Raley setting up her teammates

- Junior forward Meredith Raley has been a tough matchup for USI's opponents this season. Raley has scored in double figures in every game this season for the Screaming Eagles. The junior has started the last five games for USI after being a spark off the bench in the first three games of the 2022-23 season. She has scored 15 or more points in five games this season.
- While Raley's scoring has drawn the attention, the Haubstadt, Indiana native has also done well dishing it out to her teammates. Raley is tied for second on the team with 21 assists this season, averaging just over 2.5 assists per game. The 6'0" forward has registered three or more assists in four games this season, including a career-best five assists on December 7 at Butler. Raley is averaging 3.25 assists per game in the last four outings.

Robbe working hard in the lane

- Senior forward Tara Robbe put together a solid stretch of play during the holiday season. Following two offensive rebounds before Thanksgiving against Bethel University (Ind.), Robbe grabbed three more offensive boards on December 3 against Murray State while also chipping in six points on 3-3 shooting. The Wildwood, Missouri native then pulled down six rebounds on December 7 at Butler and another six on December 10 at Eastern Michigan. In a defensive battle at Butler, Robbe had a season-high nine points.

Eagles head into Thanksgiving with a win

- Southern Indiana picked up an 85-52 win against Bethel University (Ind.) on November 23, going into the Thanksgiving break on a high note. The win solidified a 3-1 home record for USI in November, where four of USI's first five games of the season were at Screaming Eagles Arena.
- In addition to junior forward Meredith Raley's career-high 23 points, sophomore guard Vanessa Shafford picked up where she left off from the previous game against Bowling Green State. Shafford followed her 21 points, 11 rebounds performance against the Falcons with a second consecutive double-double against the Bethel Pilots. Shafford recorded 13 points and 10 boards for her second career double-double.
- Junior guard Lexie Green had a strong, fourth-quarter finish against Bethel. In a span of a minute and 24 seconds midway into the fourth period, Green connected on two three-pointers and converted a three-point opportunity on a basket and a foul. Green went on to score a career-high 11 points with all 11 tallies coming in the final 6:35 of the fourth quarter.

Shafford's career performance against BGSU

- Sophomore guard Vanessa Shafford set new career highs with 21 points and 11 rebounds for her first career double-double game to lead Southern Indiana against Bowling Green State. It was the first 20-10 game for a USI player since Imani Guy had 24 points and 12 rebounds in a 74-47 home win over the University of Illinois Springfield on February 16, 2019.
- Shafford was also a perfect 5-5 from distance Saturday, tying a USI single-game record for the best three-point percentage in a minimum of five attempts. The previous mark was set by Taylor Stephenson, who also went 5-5 against Georgia Southwestern on November 10, 2012.

BGSU achieves rare feats against USI

- Credit and a tip of the cap has to be given to Bowling Green State in its win against Southern Indiana, as they achieved a couple of rare marks against the Screaming Eagles. The 100 points the Falcons scored was the first time a USI opponent has reached the century mark since the University of Indianapolis scored 101 in a triple overtime, 101-100 win against USI in the 2010-11 season.
- The Falcons' 14 made triples was also the first time a USI opponent had hit double-digit three-pointers since Cedarville University hit 12 in an 88-82 win against USI on November 13, 2021. The last USI opponent to make 14 threes in a game was Rockhurst University in a 96-86 overtime loss to the Screaming Eagles on February 6, 2021.

Haithcock catches on fire in second-half against WIU

- In USI's 88-75 win against Western Illinois on November 11, senior forward Hannah Haithcock found a spark at halftime and caught on fire in the second half against the Leathernecks.
- After being held to two points and limited minutes in the first half due to early foul trouble, Haithcock dominated in the second half. The senior posted 20 points in the second half on 7-9 shooting and going 6-7 at the free-throw line. Her 12 fourth-quarter points and 20 second-half tallies against Western Illinois were more than any USI player scored in a quarter and half, respectively, in the entire 2021-22 season.
- Haithcock totaled 22 points in the game, tying her career high for the fourth time. The performance marked the 50th time Haithcock reached double figures and the fifth time scoring 20 or more in her career.

Other notable performances in USI's historic win against WIU

- Junior forward Meredith Raley was a catalyst off the bench for the Screaming Eagles, scoring 18 points to match her previous career high.
- Senior guard Tori Handley got it done on both ends against the Leathernecks, registering 13 points and tying a career best with five steals. Both are season highs for the senior.
- Graduate forward Ashlynn Brown grabbed 10 rebounds against WIU, tallying 10 or more rebounds for the fifth time in her career.
- In a limited 14 minutes played due to foul trouble, senior guard Soffia Rieckers dished out a career-best seven assists. Rieckers was also active on the defensive end with four takeaways.

Thompson fills it up from three against OCU

- USI opened its 2022-23 season with an 87-39 win against Oakland City on November 7. Southern Indiana had 12 players score in the win, including six players scoring eight or more in the contest.

USI NOTES

- Senior guard Lexi Thompson came off the bench in the game and immediately made an impact with her outside shooting ability. Thompson shot a perfect 3-3 in the game, all coming from three. The shooting performance was the first time in Thompson's career where she was perfect from distance on a minimum of three attempts.
- Thompson set a career high against OCU with the nine points scored from her three-point shooting. Plus, Thompson played 16 minutes against the Mighty Oaks, the most since her 21 minutes played against Quincy on February 2, 2021.

Solid fourth-quarter showings from Howard and Burgess

- Sophomore guard Takiya Howard has been acclimating to her new squad in 2022-23. Howard transferred to USI following her freshman season at Murray State last year. On November 19 against Bowling Green State, Howard came off the bench to score five quick points for USI in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter. The Chicago, Illinois native attacked the basket for a layup and capitalized on an old-fashioned three-point play.
- Aubrey Burgess, a sophomore guard, finished USI's game at Murray State with quite the burst. In the last 1:32, Burgess posted six points off a pair of free throws and two quick layups in the final seconds. Burgess is from Linton, Indiana and was high school teammates with fellow sophomore Vanessa Shafford. The two won back-to-back IHSAA Class 2A state championships in their last two years at Linton-Stockton High School.

USI's historic start to 2022-23

- USI made history to start the season, the program's first as an NCAA Division I program. On November 7, USI earned an 87-39 win against Oakland City for the first win as a Division I program, and then USI followed up that win with the first win as a Division I program against another D-I school in the 88-75 victory November 11 against Western Illinois. The win against Oakland City was USI's fourth straight season-opening win and eighth straight win in the home opener.
- Southern Indiana started 2-0 for the fourth time in the last seven seasons. The other 2-0 starts during that span were in the shortened 2020-21 season, the 2017-18 season, and the 2016-17 season. USI won the Great Lakes Valley Conference East Division in each of those three seasons. In the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons, USI won at least 24 games in each season. Southern Indiana's 175 points after two games were also the most since the 2016-17 season.

Key returners for USI

- An experienced group returns for the Screaming Eagles this season, featuring the return of four starters and 14 total players. There are 10 players of upperclass status with no freshmen on the roster.
- USI has their main frontcourt trio back in the fold this season as the team's returning leading scorers. Hannah Haithcock (12.3 PPG), Meredith Raley (11.8 PPG), and Ashlynn Brown (9.2 PPG) headline USI's post presence. Sharp-shooting senior guard Addy Blackwell leads the USI backcourt once again this season, coming off a 2021-22 season in which she shot 43.9% from three.

USI signs three for 2023-24

- USI Women's Basketball signed 5'11" guard/forward Sophia Loden (Mascoutah, Illinois), 6'2" center Chloe Gannon (Manchester, Tennessee), and 5'10" guard Kylee Dennis (Lexington, Kentucky) for the 2023-24 class.
- Loden averaged a double-double at 22.7 points per game and 12.5 rebounds per game in 2021-22 as a junior, receiving multiple conference and state accolades.
- Gannon averaged 13.6 points per contest in her junior season in 2021-22, shooting at a 57 percent clip. She also claimed five rebounds and had over one block per outing.
- Dennis averaged 15 points per game in 2021-22 to earn a Kentucky Junior All-Star Team selection. In 2020-21, her sophomore season, Dennis averaged 24 points per contest, finishing 8th in Kentucky in scoring.

Haithcock Preseason All-OVC

- Senior forward Hannah Haithcock was named to the 2022-23 Preseason All-OVC Team. Coming off a terrific junior season in 2021-22, Haithcock averaged 12.3 points per game, 4.7 rebounds per game, and shot 46.7% (135-289) from the floor. She also connected at the free throw line at an 80.5% (66-82) clip. Haithcock made 13 starts in 28 appearances on her way to earning second-team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference accolades for a second consecutive season.
- Last season, Haithcock scored in double-figures 20 times, increasing her career total to 48 such performances. She had a pair of double-doubles and two 20-plus games, matching a career-high 22 points in back-to-back contests midway into the conference season. She led the team in scoring in 11 of USI's 29 games last year. She helped USI to a 23-6 overall record, a 16-2 conference record, a GLVC regular season championship, and an appearance in the 2022 NCAA Division II Midwest Region Tournament.

DeHart joins USI Women's Basketball staff

- During the summer months, USI Head Coach Rick Stein announced the hiring of Emma DeHart as an assistant coach in 2022-23. DeHart joins the staff following her USI playing career from 2017-22.
- DeHart was a three-time All-GLVC honoree and five-time Academic All-GLVC member while playing for the Screaming Eagles under Stein. She finished her career ranked No. 1 all-time at USI in games played (126), No. 2 in three-point field goals attempted (433), No. 8 in free throws made (296) and three-point field goals made (127), No. 9 in free throws attempts (389), No. 12 in scoring (1,189) and assists (230). In her career, DeHart scored in double-figures 59 times, including seven 20-point outings.
- Her career-high 39 points came in 2020-21 in a come-from-behind overtime road win over Rockhurst. The 39 points tied Amie Newhart and LeAnn Freeland for third on USI's all-time single-game scoring list and was the most points ever scored by a USI women's basketball player in a road win.

USI's move to Division I and joining the OVC

- On February 7, 2022, the University of Southern Indiana Board of Trustees, after careful review and consideration, gave approval for the University to make formal application to the NCAA for reclassification from Division II to Division I athletics. The Screaming Eagles had been a competitive member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference since 1979 and with a winning history, including 10 individual and four team national championships at the DII level. USI has 19 varsity sports competing at the DI level.
- On February 9, 2022, the University of Southern Indiana accepted an invitation to join the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) as it's Division I partner. Although USI may be eligible for conference championships during the four-year transition, it would not be eligible for NCAA championships. USI is only the 23rd full-time member in the 74-year history of the Ohio Valley Conference, the eighth oldest conference in NCAA Division I.

USI's Overtime Record

- Southern Indiana is 18-12 all-time in overtime games. USI last played in overtime in 2021-22 at Cedarville University, losing 88-82. The last time USI had multiple overtime games in a season was 2015-16. The last multi-overtime game for USI was a 101-100, triple-overtime loss against the University of Indianapolis in 2010-11.

Magic mark of 75

- The Eagles are 441-79 (.848) all-time when scoring at least 75 points. USI is 314-30 (.913) since 1996-97 when reaching the 75-point plateau.

Record watch

- Graduate forward Ashlynn Brown is 22nd all-time on USI's all-time rebounding list (452) and 45th in scoring (646). Senior forward Hannah Haithcock is 22nd in scoring (931) and 27th in rebounding (407).

Gatling 500

- USI Assistant Coach Randa Gatling also hit a milestone when Head Coach Rick Stein earned his 400th career win last season. Gatling, who has been on the bench for all of Stein's wins, picked up her 500th career win, including her 100 wins as a player at USI. Currently, Gatling has 515 wins overall as a player and assistant coach at USI.

LAST GAME OUT RECAP

YPSILANTI, Mich. – University of Southern Indiana Women's Basketball earned a strong 66-60 victory against Eastern Michigan University on Saturday, recording the first road win of the season for the Screaming Eagles. USI's solid road win comes behind the stout performance of junior forward Meredith Raley (Haubstadt, Indiana), who posted her second career double-double with 17 points and 16 rebounds Saturday afternoon.

Raley's 16 rebounds on Saturday marks the first time a Screaming Eagle has pulled down 15 or more rebounds in a game since Kacy Eschweiler grabbed 22 rebounds against Ferris State University on November 16, 2018. For Raley, her previous season-high was eight rebounds against Bethel University (Ind.) on November 23. Her other career double-double and previous career-high in rebounds came last season against Missouri University of Science and Technology on February 19 when Raley tallied 18 points and 10 rebounds. Raley also extended her streak on Saturday of scoring 10 or more in every game this season for USI.

The Screaming Eagles also had senior forward Hannah Haithcock (Washington Courthouse, Ohio) register 17 points and six rebounds Saturday, while sophomore guard Vanessa Shafford (Linton, Indiana) collected 16 points and seven boards on the afternoon.

Southern Indiana's win against Eastern Michigan was also USI's first in three tries this season against an opponent from the Mid-American Conference. Heading into Saturday's matchup, Eastern Michigan was fourth in the overall MAC standings with Northern Illinois University and Bowling Green State University, whom USI fell to earlier this season, sitting first and second in the overall MAC standings, respectively.

Both teams started the game trying to settle in and find their rhythm in half-court sets, as the defenses were active early. The contest showed signs of being a game of runs and a tight game in the opening minutes. At the 5:38 mark of the first quarter, USI trailed Eastern Michigan 9-4, but the Screaming Eagles went on a 9-0 run to surge ahead. Haithcock had four points and Raley scored the other five points of the 9-0 run. The first period concluded with an 11-2 run for the Screaming Eagles, as USI took a 15-11 lead into the second quarter.

USI increased its lead to six, 19-13, after a pair of free throws by Shafford with 8:10 left until halftime. Eastern Michigan battled back to cut USI's lead down to two, 19-17, with 6:32 on the clock in the second. Shafford put USI back up five after a three-pointers seconds later, but then Eastern Michigan answered with five points within the next minute to even the game at 22 halfway in the second period. Southern Indiana was not fazed, as the Screaming Eagles went on another 9-0 run, including a basket by Raley and a triple from Shafford. USI went into halftime with a 31-24 lead after a late, second-quarter basket by Eastern Michigan.

The third quarter started with a layup by Raley to push USI's advantage back to nine. Then Eastern Michigan found a spark and made a charge, scoring eight straight points to climb within a point of USI, 33-22, and 6:57 remaining in the third. A jumper by Shafford quickly snapped EMU's scoring run, but the battle was just starting. Eastern Michigan went ahead 36-35 at the 5:45 mark in the third, snagging its first lead since early in the first quarter. Just as it seemed the momentum was swinging in Eastern Michigan's favor, USI's senior forward Tara Robbe (Wildwood, Missouri) made a strong drive toward the basket to give the lead back to USI, 37-36. Both teams exchanged points over the next couple of minutes until Eastern Michigan tied the game again 43-43 with just over two minutes left in the third. The EMU Eagles made the last rally of the third quarter to carry a 47-45 lead into the fourth quarter. Eastern Michigan outscored USI 23-14 in the third period.

A three-pointer by Eastern Michigan in the first minute of the fourth period increased EMU's lead to five, 50-45. Once again, USI was not rattled, as Shafford converted an and-one play less than a minute later. After a few back-and-forth possessions, Southern Indiana capitalized on another three-point play. A basket and a foul by Haithcock put USI back in front 53-52 with 6:10 left in the fourth. Raley scored her 17th point of the game a minute later off a jump shot to give USI a 55-52 advantage. Southern Indiana's lead improved to eight, 61-53, with under two minutes remaining. Eastern Michigan continued to fight, making the game a five-point contest with less than a minute left. Late free throws by Shafford and Robbe gave USI added insurance on the scoreboard to secure the road win. The Screaming Eagles responded to Eastern Michigan's third quarter by outscoring EMU 21-13 in the final frame.

Southern Indiana had a big day on the glass Saturday, outrebounding Eastern Michigan 50-39 and pulling down 13 offensive boards. USI was also aggressive inside with 36 points in the paint. On the day, USI was 24-for-63 and 38 percent from the floor, including three triples made from beyond the arc. The Screaming Eagles were very effective at the charity stripe, going 15-for-16 and 93 percent from the line Saturday.

Individually, Raley's 17 points came behind 7-for-17 shooting overall. Haithcock was 6-for-15 overall and 5-for-5 at the line toward her 17 points. Shafford scored her 16 points on 5-for-11 shooting from the floor and four makes at the free-throw line. Robbe scored six points with six rebounds.

Eastern Michigan went 18-for-62 and 29 percent from the field, 5-for-19 and 26 percent from three, and 19-for-27 and 70 percent at the line. EMU also tallied 22 fast-break points in the game. Eastern Michigan was led by its leading scorer Saturday, as sophomore guard Lachelle Austin scored 19 points with 11 of the 19 coming at the free-throw line. Sophomore center Tayra Eke posted a double-double of 14 points and 14 caroms.

USI held an opponent to only 18 makes from the floor and 10 or more points below their season scoring average for the second consecutive game on Saturday, as Southern Indiana's defense previously did so on Wednesday at Butler.

Saturday's win moves USI to 4-4 on the season, while Eastern Michigan is now 5-2 after a second consecutive loss.
