<ul style="list-style-type: none">Madison Less was named the Goalkeeper of the Week for the second time in her career as she played the second half and overtime against LU before playing the full 90 against LSU, racking up 12 saves, including a career-high-tying 8 against the Tigers, to help UC to two wins. Her award gives UC the keeper honor for the second week in a row after Claudia Eustaquio was selected last week.Julia Abbott was named to the Honor Roll after she netted her first goal since last October. Her goal went down as the winning strike in the 2-1 win over LSU and gave the junior her first career game-winning goal with the Bearcats.
// MAJOR AWARDS • OFFENSE
Vetere's honor was the first of her career, making her the fifth different Bearcats player to be honored by the AAC since joining the league in 2013. She joins Jaycie Brown and Danielle Rotheram, who each were two-time honorees, as well as Julie Gavorski and Emily Elsbrock to bring UC's total to seven. Prior to Vetere, Brown was the most recent recipient after being honored last year (9/11/17).
// MAJOR AWARDS • GOALKEEPER
With her honor, Less became the second Bearcats net minder to be selected for the weekly award more than once in a career after she was selected last year (October 30). She now joins Natalie Smith, who was a four-time honoree, and Claudia Eustaquio, who earned the award for the first time last week, giving UC the keeper's award in back-to-back weeks.
// FEELING HONORED
Historically, Abbott's honor makes her the 16th different Bearcats player to earn a spot on the Honor Roll and the second newcomer to the list in as many weeks after Kiki Lowell was selected last week. Abbott collects the 37th Honor Roll award for the Bearcats since the start of the 2013 season and third of the season after Vetere was honored on August 27.
// IN THE RANKINGS
The Bearcats are not ranked this week in either poll and sit sixth in the latest United Soccer Coaches South Region rankings once again this week. Memphis is receiving votes in this week's Coaches poll while only one other foe on the 2018 schedule is currently ranked as USF sits 18th in the Coaches rankings and #16 according to Top Drawer Soccer.
// IN THE RPI
The NCAA released its first RPI rankings of the year with the Bearcats coming at #36, the third-highest among all teams in the American behind #12 Memphis and #23 USF. According to the data, the Bearcats' strength of schedule is ranked #12 nationally with three foes already played this year sitting in the RPI Top 14, including #11 Auburn (L), #13 Kansas (T) and #14 Virginia (L). Along with Memphis (12), the Bearcats will play #235 Tulsa this week with #52 SMU and #213 Houston coming to town next weekend.
// LIFTING THE LID: CONFERENCE PLAY
UC will face Memphis Thursday night to open the conference season, marking the third time the Bearcats' first AAC match of the season is away from home. Overall, the Bearcats are 11-11-2 all-time in their first conference match of the season and are undefeated in their last three, including a 0-0 draw with #14 UCF at home last year before a 2-0 win at ECU in 2016 and a 2-2 draw at SMU in 2015. That tie with the Mustangs ended a three-match losing streak in openers. In its first road conference match of the season, UC is slightly better, holding a 12-11-1 overall record and is undefeated in its last five matches, posting a 4-0-1 record in that span, including wins in the last two that included a 1-0 win at UConn last year and a 2-0 win at ECU in 2016.

// THAT'S A FIRST

Last week, several firsts were achieved by Bearcats players, including:

- Julia Abbott's goal against LSU was not only her first of the year and third of her career, but also stands as her first career game-winning strike
- Freshman Vanessa DiNardo collected her first college point as she assisted on the winning goal against Lipscomb with a sweet back-heel pass to Vetere, who played into Sophie Gorman for the winning strike
- Bri Costigan assisted on the game-tying goal against LSU to pick-up her first point of the year and just her second career point after she assisted on a goal against Temple in 2016, the same match that started UC's current 18-match home undefeated streak
- Freshman Alli Pestaina earned her first career start, making her way into the Starting XI against Lipscomb

// ALMOST OVER THE HILL

// HOME STREAKING

Speaking of the success the Bearcats have enjoyed at home, the team is currently on an 18-match undefeated streak, dating back to the home finale in 2016, a 2-1 win over Temple. Holders of the second-longest streak in program history, UC posted an 8-0-3 record at Guttler Stadium last year and are 5-0-1 so far this season to build the mark. The record is 23 in a row which was set during the 1983-86 seasons.

• Kiki Lowell 9/10			// HOME OVERTIME
• Jill Vetere 8/27			When playing in home overtime matches, the Bearcats have been tough to beat recently as they are undefeated in their last 11, holding a 2-0-9 record. The last time UC lost in overtime at home came in 2013 in a 5-4 loss to Louisville. Prior to the current streak, the longest stretch of undefeated home overtime matches was six and came two times, first from 1996-98 (3-0-3) and then from 1999-03 (5-0-1). All told, the Bearcats are 18-19-29 all-time in home overtime contests.
ACADEMIC HONORS			// SPOT ON
NCAA Woman of the Year			At the 11:38 mark, Jill Vetere played the ball into the box and Brandi Thomsen was pulled down to earn a penalty kick for the Bearcats. Cassie Wheldon stepped up to the spot and coolly slotted her shot low and into the netting for a 1-0 lead. It was the first PK conversion for the Bearcats in over one year after Julie Gavorski scored from the spot on August 27, 2017, to secure a 1-0 win over visiting Miami (Fla.).
• Jordan Cotleur UC & AAC Nominee			// BACK IN THE SCORING COLUMN
			Wheldon's goal was the third of her career, but her first since 2015, her freshman campaign for the Bearcats. That year, she scored twice with the last coming October 18, 2015, when she knocked in the fourth and final goal of a 4-0 victory over visiting Evansville.
			// RARE FINISH
			The match at Auburn was the 725th in program history. In the 727 matches UC has played in its history, including the two last week, a match has only ended in a scoreless draw 22 times (0.03 percent). Of those 22 matches, seven have come in the last four seasons with two each in the 2015, 2016 and 2017 seasons and once this year.
			// MILESTONE MATCH
			Of those 727 matches played, 326 have been played at home with last Thursday's match against Lipscomb standing as both the 325th all-time home match in program history, but also as the 250th played at Gettler Stadium. All-time, the Bearcats are 197-100-29 at home and sport a 138-86-26 record at Gettler Stadium/Meyers Field.

// PACKING THEM IN

The 1,194 fans that attended the Riverboat Rivalry match with Northern Kentucky (Aug. 26) ranks highly in program history attendance figures. That total stands as the sixth-largest home crowd in Bearcats history while also ranking as the 11th-largest UC has played before in its history. That attendance also means two of the Top 6 home crowds in UC history have come when the Norse have visited after the inaugural Riverboat Rivalry in 2016 drew 4,722 fans, a record for a women's college soccer game played in the state of Ohio.

// HELLO! MY NAME IS...

Nine true freshmen, one sophomore and a junior transfer make up this year's newest Bearcats. Junior Sydney Kilgore, a native of Cincinnati (Oak Hills HS) joins the program after playing for two years at Indiana while sophomore Ying Zhan, a native of China, is in her first year playing collegiate soccer. The rookies are comprised of four individuals from the Cincinnati area, including Emi Carlo (Lebanon HS), Kiley Keehan (Walnut Hills HS), Madison Lindsay (Lebanon HS) and Annie Metzger (Mason HS), three from the Cleveland area, including Vanessa DiNardo (Strongsville, Ohio), Camryn Hartman (Bay Village, Ohio) and Ally Sidloski (Strongsville, Ohio), and two others from outside of the state, including Wisconsin's Brandi Thomsen (Brookfield) and Massachusetts' Alli Pestaina (Brimfield).

// PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Two of the newcomers earned high honors ahead of joining the Bearcats. Brandi Thomsen twice earned player of the year honors in the state of Wisconsin, including being named the 2018 Gatorade Player of the Year and the 2017 Wisconsin Soccer Coaches Association Player of the Year. Vanessa DiNardo also earned a state honor as she was tabbed as the 2017 Ohio Division I State Player of the Year.

// SAME SCHOOL

While local players joining the program often hail from the same high schools as upperclassmen is nothing new for a collegiate program or, like this year, two sets of two teammates joining the program at the same time (DiNardo/Sidloski from Strongsville and Carlo/Lindsay from Lebanon), the addition of Alli Pestaina to the team brings with it another connection. Before coming to UC, Pestaina, a native of Brimfield, Mass., attended Worcester Academy, the same academy head coach Stafford attended during his prep days.

// WELCOME TO AMERICA!

Throughout the history of the program, the roster has featured several Canadian players with this year's team featuring a trio from north of the border in Claudia Eustaquio, Michelle Travassos and Cassie Wheldon. This year, though, a new country was added to the list with the arrival of Ying Zhan from Shenzhen, China. Along with the American and Canadian players that have appeared, only three other nations have been represented in program history, including Ana Farmer of Scotland (2004-06), Alana McShane of Northern Ireland (2013) and now Zhan.

// DOUBLE DIGIT WINS

Last year, UC won 12 matches, marking the fourth year in a row the team has won 10+ in a single season under Head Coach Neil Stafford. That streak ties for the second-best in program history and leaves the Bearcats one shy of equaling the all-time best. Currently, the four-year streak equals the 1980-83 and 1986-89 squads for second while the 1994-97 teams hold the mark with five in a row.

// CONTINUING TO IMPROVE

Before Stafford took over the program, UC had improved its season win percentage in two-consecutive seasons four times, with the most recent coming in 2000 (.727 from .447) and 2001 (.834 from .727). After the program finished with a win percentage of .250 in 2012 and Stafford came in, the team has raised its win percentage in all five seasons, posting marks of .425 (2013), .550 (2014), .646 (2015), .650 (2016) and .711 (2017).

// SORRY, THE GOAL IS CLOSED

One of the reasons the Bearcats have continued to raise its overall profile has been the outstanding defense it has played. In 2012, UC conceded 39 goals. Since then, that number has gone down every year under Stafford, reaching a miniscule total of 11 allowed in 2017, which tied for the fewest in a season. During that span, UC has allowed 37 (2013), 27 (2014), 22 (2015), 21 (2016) and 11 (2017).

// IN THE RPI

During the 2017 season, the Bearcats rose as high as #11 in the RPI data released by the NCAA, the highest ranking they have attained in program history. What is more impressive is where the program had come from. At the end of the 2012 season, Cincinnati's final RPI ranking was #227, meaning that, in the five years Stafford and his staff have guided the program, the Bearcats have clawed their way up 216 positions since the start of the 2013 season.

// BROUGHT HOME THE BAGEL

With the regular season finale - a 1-0 win over ECU - the 2017 Bearcats did something only four other UC squads had done in program history: post an undefeated home record. With the win, UC closed out the home slate with an 8-0-3 record, the first undefeated home slate since 1996. Here is a look at some of the stats and notes following the 8-0-3 record:

- The team's .950 win percentage at home is the third-best in program history behind only the 1982 (7-0-0) and 1984 (5-0-0) teams
- The 8 home wins is a program record, surpassing 10 previous times UC had recorded 7 wins
- The Bearcats posted eight shutouts at home, which ties the 2015 side for the most in a single season in program history
- UC allowed just 0.45 goals per match at home this year, one of only nine campaigns win which the Bearcats allowed 0.50 goals or less

// GORMAN GOALS To get the 1-0 victory over ECU, Sophie Gorman did her thing and scored in the 42' as a shot was deflected by the defense right to Gorman, who put the ball over the keeper's head and under the crossbar for what would be the winner. What makes that goal even more interesting is that it not only won the game, but also book-ended the regular season with winning goals from Gorman as the freshman scored the lone goal in a 1-0 win over Buffalo in the season opener before Friday's victorious strike. // SHARING THE SHEETS In 2017, the Bearcats recorded 11 shutouts. While that is a strong statistic on its own, what is more impressive is that all four keepers on the roster have contributed to those clean sheets. Madison Less has recorded seven shutouts while Jane Sensibaugh and Claudia Eustaquio have tallied two and 1.5, respectively. Kaleigh Piscioneri joined in with a scoreless second half against Morehead State to pick up a share of a shutout. What does it all mean? It means that UC is the only team in the nation that has four keepers with at least a share of one shutout and also has the Bearcats joining Louisiana Tech as the only schools with three keepers that have tallied at least one full shutout. // ACADEMICALLY SOUND Last year, the Bearcats collectively sported a 3.50 grade-point average for the year and earned a College Team Academic Award from the NSCAA, an award the program has collected each of the past two years and nine times in total. Individually, 28 of the 31 women on the roster recorded a 3.00 GPA or better during the 2017-18 academic year and were named American Athletic Conference All-Academic. Staying the conference, Vanessa Gilles was one of three UC student-athletes to also be named a 2017-18 Scholar-Athlete Sport Excellence Award recipient by the AAC, an award that is give annually to one student-athlete that carries a 3.00 GPA, has strong academic and athletic credentials and serves in the community. Gilles, who was chosen by the Faculty Representatives from around the conference, was the winner for women's soccer. // UP NEXT Conference action continues next week with the Bearcats welcoming the Texas schools for UC's first home AAC contests of the 2018 season. First, the Bearcats will play host to SMU Thursday, September 27, in a 7 p.m. match at Gettler Stadium. The weekend will come to a close Sunday, September 30, when the Houston Cougars visit Gettler Stadium at 1 p.m.
