STARTING FIVE

► Wichita State returns to action after a week off with a road contest at Cincinnati on Saturday.

1 ON THE AIR: Saturday's game can be heard on the radio at KFH 97.5 FM/1240 AM with Steve Strain calling the action. Strain is in his ninth season as the radio voice for Wichita State women's basketball. The game will also be televised on ESPN+ and the ESPN app.

2 LAST TIME OUT: Wichita State couldn't overcome a season-high 27 turnovers vs. East Carolina last Saturday in Charles Koch Arena, as the Pirates downed the Shockers, 66-57. East Carolina scored 40 of its 66 points off those turnovers. East Carolina also entered the game as the worst three-point shooting team in the league, but went 7-of-20 against the Shockers. Wichita State dominated the glass, outrebounding ECU, 51-22, both of which were season highs. Trajata Colbert notched her third double-double of the season behind 17 points and 10 rebounds and Curtessia Dean recorded her second with 13 points and a season-high 13 rebounds. DJ McCarty added 11 points and Jane Asinde just missed a double-double with 8 points and 11 boards.

3 SCOUTING THE BEARCATS: Led by fifth year head coach Michelle Clark-Heard, Cincinnati enters Saturday's matchup at 7-12 this season and winless in American play. Despite shooting 32.1 percent from beyond the arc, Cincinnati shoots only 38.6 percent overall. The Bearcats excel at blocking shots, which was evident in the first matchup this season when they blocked 14 shots - a Charles Koch Arena record. Jillian Hayes leads Cincinnati in scoring (13.5), rebounding (8.4), steals (28) and blocks (31). Mya Jackson adds 11.9 points and a team-high 54 assists to lead the backcourt. Malea Williams had seven of the team's 14 blocks in the conference opener at Wichita State.

4 GETTING DEFENSIVE: Wichita State boasts a top 70 defense through the first 20 games of the season. They have held all but eight opponents to less than 38 percent shooting, and only six teams have shot better than 32 percent from three-point range. Wichita State's field goal defense is holding teams to just 37.2 percent, good for 57th nationally. Opponents are connecting on only 28.9 percent of their attempts from long range. Wichita State has held eight opponents under 60 points, including three under 50.

5 TALENTED TRIO: Jane Asinde, DJ McCarty and Trajata Colbert are forming a potent trio for the Shockers. All three are averaging double figures on the season and combine for 51.0 percent of Wichita State's points on the offensive end. On the glass, they combine to pull down 21.6 rebounds a game. On the defensive end, the trio makes up 62.1 percent (95 steals) of the team's steals this season and 56.5 percent (35 blocks) of the team's blocks.

SEEING DOUBLE

► Wichita State senior Jane Asinde is averaging a double-double through 20 games this season at 11.3 points and 10.6 rebounds. The Uganda native is on pace to finish the season with a top 10 single season rebounding mark. Her current 10.6 boards per game would rank as the 8th most in school history. She is also trying to become the first Shocker to average a double-double over the course of a season since Antionette Wells during the 2006-07 season when she posted 13.0 points and 10.4 rebounds.

BEST START IN SCHOOL HISTORY

► Wichita State's 8-1 record to open the season marked the best start in program history. The Shockers got there behind a seven-game win streak. The seven-game win streak was the longest since 2015 when Wichita State won 12 in a row.

HUGE WIN

► In Wichita State's 105-38 win over South Carolina State on Dec. 27, the Shockers broke a 41-year old school record for largest margin of victory. Wichita State won by 67, besting the previous mark of 64 set in 1981 vs. Phillips. It also marked just the second 100-point game of the Keitha Adams era, two points shy of the school record for most points in a game. Wichita State's 28 assists were also the most of the Adams era. Wichita State's field goal percentage of 60.3 was the highest since Feb. 2018 when the Shockers shot a school record 70.0 percent vs. Temple in Charles Koch Arena. Wichita State did set Charles Koch Arena records for points (105), field goals made (38) and assists (28).

COLBERT CASHING IN

► Trajata Colbert has improved dramatically the last two years at the free throw line. The Georgia native began her career shooting 42.1 percent as a freshman, 61.1 percent as a sophomore and 50.9 percent as a COVID sophomore. In 2021-22 she shot a career-high 76.0 percent and so far through 20 games in 2022-23, she is 60-for-75 (80.0 percent). Colbert ranks fifth in the American in free throw percentage.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

► Through 20 games Wichita State ranks in the top 70 nationally in the following categories: No. 22 in rebound margin (8.6), No. 40 in rebounds per game (41.25), No. 57 in field goal percentage defense (37.2), No. 59 in defensive rebounds per game (27.7), No. 64 in offensive rebounds per game (13.6) and No. 65 in fouls per game (15.1). Jane Asinde ranks 16th nationally in rebounds per game, No. 26 in total rebounds and No. 26 in defensive rebounds per game.

Keitha Adams was named the Wichita State Head Women's Basketball Coach on March 29, 2017.

Adams is in her sixth season with the Shockers after leading the program to a 62-78 record during her first five seasons. In 2019-20, Adams' squad recorded its first winning season, with a 16-15 record, since 2014-15. Led by Third Team All-Conference selection Mariah McCully, Wichita State also collected its first American Athletic Conference Championship victory since joining The American. The Shockers defeated Houston in the first round, 72-64.

Her 2018-19 squad was tied for the fifth youngest in all of Division I women's college basketball, having had to replace eight seniors to graduation. Despite a young roster, the Shockers ranked in the top four in The American in steals and three-point defense.

In the second game of the season, an overtime win against Missouri State on Nov. 10, 2018, she recorded her 300th career win at the Division I level.

Picked to finish 10th in the 2017-18 preseason coaches poll, Wichita State exceeded expectations in year one of The American en route to earning the No. 6 seed in the conference tournament after going 9-7 in league play.

The highlight of the season came during a season-best five game winning streak that saw the Shockers upset No. 23 USF in Charles Koch Arena on Jan. 21. It marked just the third win vs. a ranked opponent in school history and first since Dec. 27, 1998 vs. No. 25 Missouri State.

Adams, an Oxford, Kan., native and Southwestern [Kan.] graduate returned to the Sunflower State after 16 years as the head coach at UTEP. She also coached at Independence [Kan.] Community College, Winfield [Kan.] High School and Belle Plaine [Kan.] High School.

"Today is a very special day in my life," Adams said after being named the Shockers' head coach. "I'm extremely excited about being the head women's basketball coach at Wichita State University. I'd like to thank President John Bardo, Darron Boatright, and Linda Hargrove for this opportunity. I'm a small town Kansas girl who grew up watching the Shockers. I'm honored to now be a part of this great University!"

"I'm excited to work with our players to build special memories in Charles Koch Arena that we will all cherish. I look forward to sharing my passion for this great game with Shocker fans, my friends and my family. Go Shocks!"

She was responsible for all four UTEP postseason bids (NCAA in 2012 and 2008; WNIT 2016 and 2014) and all four championships (2016 C-USA regular season, 2012 C-USA regular season and conference tournament and 2008 C-USA regular season) in school history.

All six Miner 20+ win seasons were during Adams' tenure, including a school-record tying 29 in 2015-16.

UTEP cracked the top-25 poll in two seasons (2015-16, 2007-08), including being ranked in the final six weeks in '07-08, while receiving votes in eight campaigns total ('15-16, '13-14, '12-13, '11-12, '08-09, '07-08 and '06-07). UTEP has also been mentioned in the preseason poll three times, most recently garnering a trio of votes in 2012-13.

The only three-time Conference USA Women's Basketball Coach of the Year (2016, 2012 and 2008), in league history, Adams graduated every player who exhausted their eligibility at UTEP during her tenure.

The Miners had no postseason bids, no conference crowns (let alone finish better than third), never advanced beyond the semifinals in the league tournament nor received a vote for a top-25 poll prior to her arrival.

UTEP put together one of the finest years in program history in 2015-16. The Miners equaled the school record for wins (29), took home the 2016 C-USA regular-season championship (16-2) and advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2016 WNIT.

The Miners received votes in the USA TODAY Sports women's basketball coaches top-25 poll for six consecutive weeks, including breaking into the top 25 (#25) for the second time in school history the week of March 1-6. UTEP also picked up votes for a school-record 14 straight weeks in the AP Top-25 poll.

Adams made the move to UTEP after several successful years as head and assistant coach at Independence Community College in Independence, Kan.

At Independence C.C., Adams was the head coach for five seasons and guided the Lady Pirates to a 127-37 record, including back-to-back Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference titles in 1999-00 and 2000-01. Her teams also combined for a 35-1 conference record over her final two seasons.

In 2000-01, she paced the Lady Pirates to a 31-2 mark, the conference title and was named the KJCCC Eastern Division Coach of the Year. Her team also led the nation, averaging 94.0 points per game, and she coached the conference's freshman of the year. Independence ended the regular season rated fifth in the NJCAA poll.

During the 1999-2000 season Adams led Independence C.C. to a 28-5 record and her first conference crown. She also took her Lady Pirate squad deep into the Regional Tournament.

In her first three seasons as head coach, Adams's teams won 22, 24 and 22 games respectively and advanced to the Regional Tournament in each of those seasons.

While at Independence, Adams honed her athletes into all-conference, All-American and Academic All-American caliber players. Included were 22 all-KJCCC selections and five NJCAA All-Americans.

Adams also had an impressive track record of sending her student-athletes on to play at four-year schools. Fifteen of her former players went on to play NCAA Division I basketball, including two in the SEC, two in the Big 12, one in the ACC, three in the WAC and one in Conference USA. Svetlana Volnaya, who played at Virginia, was chosen in the third round by the Detroit Shock in the 2001 WNBA Draft.

While at Independence, four of her teams had cumulative grade point averages of 3.20 or better. The 1995-96 team was the NJCAA Academic Team of the Year after posting a 3.59 average. In 1996-97, her team was second in the nation with a team average of 3.29, while her team was fourth in 1997-98 (3.26).

Adams was an assistant coach at Independence C.C. for two seasons (1994-96) prior to being elevated to head coach. As the Lady Pirates' top assistant and recruiting coordinator, she helped the team fashion a 34-4 mark in 1995-96 and finish as the national runner-up at the NJCAA Tournament, limiting opponents to 57.4 points per game, a school record.

She also served as men's and women's tennis coach from 1994-95 at Independence. Prior to joining the collegiate ranks, Adams coached basketball, softball, volleyball and track and field at Winfield High School in Winfield, Kan.

She was also an assistant basketball coach at Belle Plaine (Kan.) H.S., from 1987-89. A native of Oxford, Kan., Adams graduated with a degree in health, physical education and recreation from Southwestern College in 1989.

Adams was Oxford High School's all-time leading scorer and earned all-state honors as a prep. Her jersey was retired in 1986.
