* American Athletic Conference match

// FOR STARTERS

University of Cincinnati men's soccer will begin a three-match homestand Wednesday when it welcomes IUPUI to Gettler Stadium for a 7 p.m. kickoff. Admission to the match is free of charge as part of the season-long Experience UC initiative.

// LAST TIME OUT

UC (1-7, 0-1 AAC) fell, 1-0, to the Memphis Tigers Sunday night in Memphis, Tennessee in the American Athletic Conference opener for both teams. The Bearcats were the better team for much of the match, but a goal by UM (5-2-2, 1-0 AAC) during the 45th minute proved to be the difference. For the game, UC had 11 shots, including five on goal. The Bearcats also totaled five corner kicks. Goalkeeper Noah Lawrence was solid in goal with four saves.

// SCOUTING THE JAGUARS

IUPUI is 1-5-2 overall, 1-2 in Horizon League play, and has lost its last three matches. In their latest game, the Jaguars fell, 1-0, at Green Bay on a penalty kick in the 109th minute. IUPUI's lone win on the year was against Detroit Mercy on Sept. 8. So far in 2018, the Jaguars have scored only three goals with Tommy Patacca scoring two. Goalkeeper Quinn McCallion has 47 saves on the season with two shutouts. In the preseason, IUPUI was picked to finish last in the nine-team Horizon League.

// IUPUI SERIES

The Bearcats lead the all-time series against the Jaguars, 7-2-0, and have won the last three matchups, including five of the last six. Last season, UC topped IUPUI, 2-1, at Gettler Stadium. Austin Smythe scored the game winner during the 63rd minute. The Red & Black is 5-1 all-time versus the Jaguars in Cincinnati.

// EPPS' DEBUT

Newcomer Rex Epps, in his first game as a Bearcat, made his presence felt at the top of the attack with a team-best three shots on goal in 46 minutes of play at Memphis. The junior forward transferred to UC after two years at Army West Point. At Army, Epps led the Black Knights in goals (8), points (20) and shots (61), en route to 2017 All-Patriot League Second Team and Second Team All-Northeast Region honors as a sophomore. As a freshman, he led Army with 22 points, 11 goals, and five game-winning goals, garnering College Soccer News All-Freshman Third Team and All-Patriot League Third Team accolades. Epps is an Army veteran who will participate in the Army ROTC at UC.
