AROUND THE AMERICAN

East Carolina Grabs Grip on First Place
With only two conference weekends remaining, East Carolina has moved into the driver's seat in The American's standings, with a 2-game lead over Houston. The Pirates are at 14-4, while the Cougars are currently 12-6 in league play. UCF is right behind in third place at 11-7.

The Cougars and Knights face off in Houston this coming weekend, while East Carolina hosts South Florida. Elsewhere, Cincinnati hosts Memphis, while Tulane travels to Wichita State.

Mayhue, Gartman Record Pitcher's Duel for the Ages
The series opener between East Carolina and Memphis on May 6 was the best pitcher's duel in The American's history, as Pirate starter C.J. Mayhue and Tiger starter Landon Gartman both had career outings.

Gartman held the Pirates without a hit in eight innings of action with four walks and 10 strikeouts. Not to be outdone, Mayhue, who was making his first career start, tossed nine full innings of no-hit ball. He faced one batter over the minimum (28), issuing one walk while striking out nine Tigers.

Neither team would score until the 13th inning, with the Pirates prevailing, 4-1.

Brooks Bags a Cycle
Memphis' Ben Brooks earned a cycle in a game against Wichita State on May 8, the fourth cycle in the history of The American. Brooks started off with a triple in the first, doubled in the fourth, singled in the sixth and finished with a 3-run home run in the ninth.

It was the first cycle to be recorded in American Athletic Conference league play and the first overall since March 1, 2020, when Tulane's Trevor Minder (vs. Middle Tennessee) and Memphis' Taylor Howell (vs. Western Illinois) both recorded cycles. The first cycle in league history was UCF's Tommy Williams against Fairfield on March 14, 2015.

Mayhue turned in one of the best pitching performances in the country this season after throwing nine innings of no-hit ball against Memphis on Friday night. The redshirt sophomore faced one batter over the minimum through nine innings, only walked one batter and struck out nine Tigers. The Pirates would go on to win the game in 13 innings.
