GAME PREVIEW

CINCINNATI – Cincinnati hosts Miami (Ohio) on Tuesday to wrap up a six-game homestand, with first pitch set for 6:00 p.m.

The Bearcats are 5-0 entering play on Tuesday after sweeping their four-game series vs. Canisius over the weekend. The sweep was clinched on Sunday with an emphatic 12-1 run-rule victory, a game that ended on Cal Sefcik's three-run home run in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Tuesday's game marks the 191st all-time meeting between Cincinnati and Miami, and the Bearcats have won the last two meetings in the series.

The last time these two teams met was last season on March 20, 2024 when UC won, 11-3, in Oxford. The Bearcats put up crooked numbers in the fifth and sixth innings of that game to open up a large lead and continued to push runs across in the later innings to put the game out of reach. Five UC hitters had multi-hit efforts: Lauden Brooks, Tommy O'Connor, Kerrington Cross, Luke Sefcik, and Landyn Vidourek. Sefcik and Vidourek also each drove in a pair of runs, as did Josh Kross and Hunter Jessee.

Head Coach Jordan Bischel is familiar with Miami from his five seasons at Central Michigan. He has had great success against the RedHawks in his career and sports a 14-1 record against them as a head coach.

Following Tuesday's game, Cincinnati opens Big 12 play at Arizona this weekend.

ABOUT MIAMI

Miami is 7-8 entering Tuesday's game after taking two out of three at home vs. Toledo in its Mid-American Conference series opener. Five players are hitting at least .300, including Anthony Zarlingo and his team-best batting average of .408. Evan Applewick leads the RedHawks with five home runs and 17 RBI, and he ranks second in the MAC in both categories. Miami was picked to finish third in the MAC preseason poll and is led by second-year head coach Brian Smiley.

NOTING THE CANISIUS SERIES

- The four wins combined with the victory vs. Toledo on Tuesday give the Bearcats a 5-0 record at home. The last time UC won that many home games in a row to start the year was 2016 when it won its first 10 home games.
- Cincinnati outscored Canisius 42-7 over the four games, its most runs scored in a four-game series since March 18-20, 2022 against Saint Joseph's (43).
- Its four-game series sweep was its first since taking all four games against North Alabama at home on March 3-5, 2023.
- UC hit .406 for the weekend while holding Canisius to a team batting average of just .181 over the course of the series.
- Cal Sefcik and Landyn Vidourek tied for the team lead over the weekend with eight RBI.
- Vidourek slugged an incredible 1.143, as half of his eight hits went for extra bases. He slugged two home runs and added two doubles as well. Vidourek also led the Bearcats with five stolen bases.
- The pitching staff combined to allow just two runs over the final three games. Canisius managed just three hits on Sunday, tied for the fewest allowed in a game by UC pitchers this season. The last time UC allowed two or fewer combined runs over a three-game stretch was March 11-13, 2011 vs. Cleveland State.

RANKED!

Following its statement-making series win at No. 11 Duke during opening weekend, Cincinnati was ranked No. 25 in the D1Baseball Top 25 poll for the first time ever.

The following week, UC moved up two spots to No. 23 in the poll. The Bearcats were the highest-ranked Big 12 team in the poll, just ahead of No. 25 TCU.

KERRINGTON CROSS LEAVING HIS MARK AT UC

Senior Kerrington Cross is the most experienced player (176 career games played) on Cincinnati's roster and also one of its best. His 176 career games played place him among the Top 25 among active leaders in career games played at one school.

After missing three games due to injury, Cross has picked up where he left off and leads Cincinnati in hitting (.404) and ranks second on the team in on-base percentage (.492).

Head Coach Jordan Bishel called Cross "one of the most valuable players in college baseball" and he lived up to that name at Duke. Cross hit .438 with two home runs and six RBI that weekend while also stealing two bags and starting all three games.

For his efforts, Cross was named to the NCAA's Week 1 Lineup of the Week.

Last season he hit .321 with 11 home runs, 53 RBI, 63 runs scored, 46 walks, and 16 stolen bases and led UC in hits (71) and walks. Cross ended the season ranking in the top ten in the Big 12 in walks, runs, and stolen bases.

Cross enters the weekend ranking fifth all-time in program history in runs scored (173).

LANDYN VIDOUREK: 5-TOOL PLAYER

Junior Landyn Vidourek put together an incredible five-game stretch last week, hitting .579 (11-for-19) with three home runs, nine RBI, 10 runs scored, five walks, and seven stolen bases. His two home runs came during the Canisius series and were prodigious, as one hit Fifth Third Arena and the other landed near the entrance to the arena. He started all five games in the outfield, four in right field and one in centerfield.

Vidourek is 14-for-14 on stolen base attempts this season and ranks among the national leaders in steals. A full list of NCAA Division I stolen base leaders is in the column to the left.

A local product from Hamilton, Ohio, Vidourek starred at Badin High School in both baseball and football. He was a two-way player on the diamond and the team's starting quarterback on the gridiron.

NATHAN TAYLOR OFF TO BLAZING START

One of the best pitchers in the Big 12 so far this season is Cincinnati sophomore Nathan Taylor. The big right-hander is sporting a 1.50 ERA and has 35 strikeouts in 24.0 innings with just nine walks.

Against Canisius last Saturday, Taylor struck out nine in seven innings to tie his career-long outing. It was his third straight start with at least nine strikeouts.

He turned in one of the best outings of his career this at UNLV, striking out 11 in six shutout innings against the Rebels. Taylor then followed that up by striking out nine in seven solid innings to earn the win at UC San Diego.

Taylor was terrific in his first collegiate season last year and was named honorable mention All-Big 12 and earned a spot on the all-freshman team. He made 16 starts and two relief appearances, posting an 8-2 record with 70 strikeouts in 72.2 innings pitched. His eight victories were tied for second in the Big 12 and tied for ninth-most in a season in school history.

SEFCIK BROTHERS REUNITE IN CLIFTON

Neither Luke nor Cal Sefcik began their career at Cincinnati, but the brothers are on the same team once again in 2025.

Luke started his collegiate career at Central Michigan and followed head coach Jordan Bischel to Cincinnati prior to last season. Cal was a freshman at Indiana last year before transferring to UC prior to this season.

Luke and Cal shared a cool moment on Opening Day when they hit back-to-back in the Bearcats' order. Luke hit sixth and started at second base, while Cal hit seventh and started at DH.

Kevin Sefcik, father of Cal and Luke, spent seven years in the big leagues, six with the Philadelphia Phillies. Kevin coached Cal and Luke at Marist High School in suburban Chicago as well.

DONOVAN FORD MAKES IMMEDIATE IMPACT

A transfer from Division II Newberry, Donovan Ford has started 14 games in center field for the Bearcats this season. He went 2-for-4 in both games he started this past weekend against Canisius and scored four times.

Ford started all three games in center field during the opening weekend at Duke and was 5-for-11 at the plate, helping UC win two out of three.

One of Cincinnati's most accomplished transfer portal additions, Ford had an extraordinary career at Newberry. He left as its all-time leader in career batting average (.396) and was second in stolen bases (91). Ford was an ABCA Second Team All-American in 2024 after hitting .421 and getting on-base at a .506 clip. When he got on base he was dangerous, stealing 35 bases. Ford was an All-American in 2023 as well, starting all 58 games while hitting .406 and driving in 70 runs. He had 42 steals and a school-record 86 runs scored in 2023 as well.

TOMMY O'CONNOR LOOKING TO SLUG IN 2025

Senior Tommy O'Connor left the yard for the first time this season in game two at UNLV, launching a solo homer. He also homered in the home opener vs. Toledo last Tuesday, his second dinger of the year and 22nd of his career.

O'Connor earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors last season, playing in 55 games while making 52 starts (29 at 1B, 23 at DH). The slugger hit 12 home runs and drove in 43 while tallying 42 walks, eight doubles, and 46 runs scored. He tended to homer in bunches and had three separate occasions where he homered in back-to-back games.

KELLEN O'CONNOR JOINS CINCINNATI'S ROTATION

Senior left-handed pitcher Kellen O'Connor has served as Cincinnati's Friday/Game 1 starter each of the first four weekend series and has put up impressive numbers thus far. He owns 12 strikeouts and a 3.55 ERA while holding opponents to a .200 batting average in 12.2 innings.

O'Connor was one of Cincinnati's biggest gets in the transfer portal this past offseason. The Portland, Ore. Native spent the last five seasons at CSU-Bakersfield, missing the 2023 campaign due to injury. He was Bakersfield's Sunday starter last season, logging a 2.89 ERA and 64 punchouts in 81.0 innings. His best performance of the season was a complete-game victory at UC Davis on May 25 when he allowed just one earned run while scattering eight hits and one walk.

FOR JOEL PINEIRO, IT'S IN HIS GENES

Redshirt junior right-handed pitcher Joel Pineiro has been valuable on the mound through the first four weekends. He owns a 2.76 ERA and has 16 strikeouts across 16.1 innings of work. He has started two games and has made four relief appearances.

In his Cincinnati debut at Duke, he turned in a stellar performance by striking out three in 4.0 shutout frames to earn the win in the 8-3 victory on Opening Day.

Pineiro transferred to UC from FIU, where he started 19 games on the mound.

Pineiro's father, Joel, spent 12 seasons in the major leagues (2000-2011) as a pitcher with the Seattle Mariners, St. Louis Cardinals, Los Angeles Angels, and Boston Red Sox. He won 104 games and collected 1,058 strikeouts in his MLB career.

LAUDEN BROOKS BACK IN THE LINEUP

Though he has battled injuries early this season, senior Lauden Brooks is an integral part of the Cincinnati lineup when he's in it.

He returned to the lineup this past weekend vs. Canisius and started two games at second base.

An honorable mention all-conference selection last season, Brooks made 49 starts (22 at 2B, 21 at SS, six at DH). He hit .301 with two home runs, 34 RBI, 10 doubles, 44 runs scored, and 13 stolen bases. Brooks collected 20 multi-hit efforts, tied for second on the team. His father, Marc Brooks, pitched for the Bearcats in 1984-85.

CARSON MARSH LOOKING TO ANCHOR BACK OF BULLPEN

Sophomore Carson Marsh has been a reliable and oft-used bullpen option through the first four weekends. He leads UC with seven pitching appearances and has multiple strikeouts in four of his seven outings.

Marsh was thrust into a high-leverage bullpen role last season and responded about as well as one could hope for a true freshman. He appeared in 24 games and posted a 4.30 ERA in 44.0 innings of work, striking out 52 while walking 15. The local product made his collegiate debut on Opening Day last season and came up big in one of the most important wins of the season, striking out four in 2.2 scoreless frames against Texas in the Big 12 Tournament.

ADAM MRAKITSCH REUNITES WITH BISCHEL

Senior left-hander Adam Mrakitsch has made three starts with the Bearcats so far, and turned in his best start of the year vs. Canisius last Friday. In 4.2 shutout innings of work, he struck out seven and allowed just three hits.

Mrakitsch joined the Bearcats this past offseason from Central Michigan, where he played under Jordan Bischel for two seasons. His best season came in 2023, when he was a First-Team All-MAC honoree after finishing 8-4 with a 3.59 ERA and 80 strikeouts while holding opposing hitters to a miniscule .196 batting average. Mrakitsch was D1Baseball's preseason MAC Pitcher of the Year in 2024 and made nine starts before being shut down with an injury. He fields his position well too, receiving an All-Defensive Team nod in 2023.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE CHRISTIAN MITCHELLE CAN DO IT ALL

Junior Christian Mitchell received second-team All-Big 12 distinctions last year as a two-way threat. He started 42 games (25 at SS, 11 at DH, six at 2B) and pitched in 22 games out of the bullpen, and earned a spot on the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award midseason watch list. Mitchell hit .319 at the dish with four home runs, 22 RBI, 34 runs scored, and nine stolen bases. Out of the bullpen, he led UC with six saves and totaled 39.1 innings of work.

At Duke opening weekend, Mitchell recorded the final out on the mound in the game one victory and also started all three games in the outfield. He has started games this year in left field and right field and also at third base and second base.

NOTING OPENING WEEKEND AT DUKE

The Bearcats opened the 2025 season in exciting fashion, winning two out of three games at No. 11 Duke. After winning 8-3 on Opening Day and dropping game two in extra innings, Cincinnati exploded for a 19-5 win in game three.

Plenty of impressive notes came out of opening weekend:

- Cincinnati became ranked in the D1Baseball Top 25 for the first time in program history. D1Baseball's Top 25 poll began in 2015. The Bearcats have been nationally ranked before, ending the 1961 (No. 18) and 1971 (No. 13) seasons ranked in the Collegiate Baseball year-end Top 25.
- UC's win on Opening Day was its first victory against a ranked non-conference opponent since March 30, 2021 against No. 5 Louisville.
- In defeating the No. 11 Blue Devils, the Bearcats won a series against a ranked opponent for the first time since No. 22 UConn on April 5-7, 2019.
- Game three's 14-run margin of victory was UC's highest against a ranked opponent since at least 2000.

Eighteen Bearcats made their Cincinnati debuts last weekend.

BISCHEL BALL ERA ENTERS YEAR TWO

Head Coach Jordan Bischel enters his second season with Cincinnati in 2025.

UC posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. Cincinnati finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Bischel helped coach seven All-Big 12 players in 2024, including first-team selection Josh Kross. Christian Mitchell was named to the second team while Nathan Taylor, Lauden Brooks, Kerrington Cross, Josh Hegemann, and Tommy O'Connor were all honorable mention.

Kross was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the sixth round of the MLB Draft last summer.

In his first year at UC, Bischel successfully implemented his style of play and saw his players buy in as well. The Bearcats were among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91). Cincinnati's ability to get on base and take extra bases led to an average of 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS

Cincinnati's first year in the Big 12 saw several big moments that made year one unforgettable:

- UC's first-ever Big 12 Conference win came on March 9 at Kansas State.
- The next weekend, Cincinnati took two out of three from Kansas at home to claim its first Big 12 Conference series. The weekend was highlighted by Tommy Boba's performance in game two when he took a no-hitter into the ninth inning.
- One of the biggest statements made by the Bearcats last year came on April 5-7 at home when they swept TCU, capping the series with a 13-2 run-rule victory.
- Cincinnati took two out of three at home vs. West Virginia, a team that would go on to advance to a Super Regional.
- One of the most electric moments in the history of the program came in the final game of the regular season. With the score tied at 6-6 in the bottom of the eighth inning vs. No. 12 Oklahoma, senior Josh Hegemann blasted a two-out grand slam to give UC a 10-6 lead in the eventual victory. It was Hegemann's first career collegiate home run and came on Senior Day.
- Facing elimination in the Big 12 Tournament, Cincinnati beat Texas, 8-7, to send the Longhorns home in their final Big 12 baseball game.

COACHING STAFF UPDATES

Cincinnati had a couple updates to its coaching staff during the offseason. Tayler Sheriff was promoted from director of pitching development to pitching coach, and Chris Krepline joined the program as the new director of pitching development.

During Sheriff's first season with the Bearcats in 2024, the team posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. UC finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

Cincinnati also saw its team ERA drop by nearly a full run in 2024 from the previous season, and it posted its lowest single-season ERA since 2019.

Krepline comes to Cincinnati following a successful stint as the head coach at Lawrence University. From 2019-24, he earned two Midwest Conference Coach of the Year awards and held Lawrence to two conference titles (2022 and 2024).

In 2024, Krepline's squad posted a 31-11 record, the most wins in a season in school history, and four of his student-athletes earned All-America recognitions. His 2022 team won the Midwest Conference and took the conference tournament crown as well, earning the school's first trip to the NCAA Division III Tournament since 1979. He earned D3Baseball and ABCA Region 9 Coach of the Year accolades that season.

COACHING STAFF TIES

Bischel has a long history with assistants Tom Winske and Kyle Schroeder, having spent a lot of time with both of them at different institutions.

Winske and Schroeder were both on staff at Central Michigan with Bischel from 2019-23, helping the Chippewas win four Mid-American Conference championships and earn three NCAA Tournament berths.

Schroeder also coached under Bischel for four years at Northwood University (2015-18) and for two seasons at Midland University (2013-14).

Winske was a successful coach at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis. From 1999-2018 and coached Bischel as a player from 2000-03. Bischel also served as an assistant coach under Winske from 2007-09.

WINSKE INDUCTED INTO ST. NORBERT COLLEGE ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Assistant coach Tom Winske's former school, St. Norbert College, announced that he would be inducted into the athletics department's Hall of Fame later this year.

Winske, who coached at St. Norbert from 1999-2018, compiled a career record of 444-287-1 and led the program to five NCAA Division III berths. His 444 career wins were the most in the history of the Midwest Conference at the conclusion of his tenure, and he was named Midwest Conference North Division Coach of the Year nine times. Winske led St. Norbert to conference titles in 2003, 2012, 2014, and 2017.

PUTTING IN THE WORK IN THE CLASSROOM

Not only have the Bearcats been getting it done on the field, they've gotten it done in the classroom as well.

UC received its ninth straight ABCA Team Academic Excellence Award last summer.

Even better, last semester the baseball program posted a cumulative 3.429 GPA, the highest semester GPA in program history. Thirty-four players earned a spot on the Honor Roll with a GPA of 3.0 or higher, 25 made the Dean's List at 3.5 or higher, and five earned a perfect 4.0 semester GPA.

BEARCATS SIGN HIGHEST-RATED RECRUITING CLASS IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Cincinnati's success last season helped pave the way for a successful signing day last fall. The Bearcats added 11 signees during the early signing period, putting together a class that ranked 46th nationally, the highest-rated recruiting class in program history.

The 2025 recruiting class is comprised of pitcher Connor Blue (O'Fallon, Ill.), outfielder/first baseman/pitcher Joe DuSell (Elgin, Ill.), pitcher Scott DiMarco (Medina, Ohio), catcher Enzo Infelise (New Lenox, Ill.), pitcher Tucker King (Western Springs, Ill.), outfielder Luke Kosko (Jefferson Hills, Pa.), first baseman/outfielder Nolan Jaworowski (St. Louis, Mo.), outfielder Quincy Mazeke (Glenoak, Ohio), pitcher Brandon Menser (Sesser, Ill.), infielder Jackson Reardon (Hebron, Ky.), and infielder Ben Voegele (Hamilton, Ohio).

HEAD COACH JORDAN BISCHEL

JORDAN BISCHEL • HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON • ST. NORBERT '03

Jordan Bischel is entering his second season as the head coach at Cincinnati in 2025.

The 2024 season was Bischel's first at Cincinnati, and he led the Bearcats to a terrific year in their inaugural Big 12 campaign.

UC posted a 32-25 overall record and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. Cincinnati finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Bischel helped coach seven All-Big 12 players in 2024, including first-team selection Josh Kross. Christian Mitchelle was named to the second team while Nathan Taylor, Lauden Brooks, Kerrington Cross, Josh Hegemann, and Tommy O'Connor were all honorable mention.

In his first year at UC, Bischel successfully implemented his style of play and saw his players buy in as well. The Bearcats were among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91). Cincinnati's ability to get on base and take extra bases led to an average of 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

Bischel was announced as the 33rd head coach in program history on June 18, 2023.

The Green Bay, Wis., native came to UC from Central Michigan, where he served as head coach for five seasons. He also spent four seasons as head coach of Northwood, an NCAA Division II program in Midland, Mich., and two seasons at the helm of NAIA program Midland University in Fremont, Neb.

He has previously won eight conference championships: four at Central Michigan, four at Northwood.

Bischel led the Chippewas to four Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships -- two regular season and two tournament -- and three NCAA Regionals. The Chippewas went 177-80 (.689) during Bischel's tenure.

In five seasons as head coach at CMU, Bischel had a 102-32 MAC record and posted three consecutive 40-win full seasons for the first time since 1986-88. His teams won a combined 132 games in 2019, '21 and '22, the winningest three-year stretch in program history.

Bischel's CMU teams went a combined 31-8 against the five other Michigan Division I programs, Michigan, Michigan State, Eastern Michigan, Western Michigan and Oakland, and Bischel led his Chippewas to 12 victories over opponents from Power 5 conferences.

In 2022, the Chippewas finished 43-19, including 30-7 and in second place in the MAC. They made a remarkable run to the league tournament crown, starting 1-1 and then winning three consecutive elimination games, the final two against host and regular season champion Ball State. That put the Chippewas in the NCAA Tournament for the third straight season, where they went 1-2 and bowed to No. 13-ranked Florida in the Gators' home stadium in Gainesville.

The Chippewas posted a 42-18 ledger in 2021, capped by a 2-2 finish in the NCAA Regional in South Bend, Ind. The Chippewas were the No. 4 seed in the four-team tournament and posted victories over No. 2 Michigan and No. 3 UConn.

Bischel electrified CMU baseball from the word go in 2019, leading it to its first MAC Tournament championship and its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1995. The 2019 squad posted a 47-14 mark -- an 18-win improvement over the 2018 squad -- and a dramatic 6-5 victory over Miami (Fla.) in an NCAA Regional game in Starkville, Miss. It was CMU's first NCAA Tournament victory since 1988.

The Chippewas earned their first MAC regular season title since 2015, tied the program record for victories in a season (47), and its .770-win percentage was fifth best in the nation.

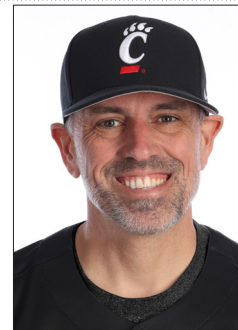

Prior to his time at CMU, Bischel was the head coach of Northwood from 2014 to 2018. The Timberwolves posted a combined 137-76 record and won two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Championships as well as two GLIAC Tournament titles. Over his last two seasons, Northwood won 84 games -- the best two-year stretch prior to Bischel's arrival featured 55 wins (1989-90).

Before Northwood, Bischel coached at Midland University in Fremont, Neb., for two seasons, leading the Warriors to a combined 74-45 record. In his first year at Midland, the Warriors won 31 games, an 18-victory improvement over the previous year.

Bischel also coached in the Northwoods League for five seasons, four with the Green Bay Bullfrogs and one with the Wisconsin Woodchucks. He also served as the pitching coach for three seasons at Northwest Missouri State and was an assistant coach at John Carroll University in Ohio and at St. Norbert College in Wisconsin.

Bischel was an academic all-conference first baseman and pitcher at St. Norbert from 2000 to 2003. He earned all-conference honors and served as the team captain as a senior.

Bischel and his wife Katie have three sons, twins Luke and Parker, and Chase.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Working with the pitching staff, Sheriff helped mentor freshman right-hander Nathan Taylor to an All-Big 12 campaign. Taylor was named to the league's all-freshman team and was an honorable mention all-conference selection.

In addition to Taylor, Sheriff helped two-way player Christian Michelle to a Second-Team All-Big 12 accolade. Michelle appeared in 22 games on the mound and totaled six saves, while throwing 39.1 innings for the Bearcats.

Cincinnati also saw its team ERA drop by nearly a full run in 2024 from the previous season, and it posted its lowest single-season ERA since 2019.

Sheriff came to UC from Western Illinois where he served as interim head coach of the baseball program for the 2023 season. He was the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2022 season, which was his first with the program.

In his first season, the Leathernecks saw an improvement in overall wins, Summit League victories and conference finish. Western Illinois also had improvements in nearly every major statistical category.

Prior to joining Western Illinois, Sheriff spent three years working for the baseball program at Spalding University as a pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. He oversaw three pitchers who were named All-SLIAC in 2019.

In 2017-18, Sheriff contributed as a volunteer assistant coach at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Prior to that, he worked nearby at Penn State - New Kensington as an assistant coach.

Since 2014, Sheriff has spent his summer days functioning as a general manager and head coach for Paul Carpenter Capital Advisors AAABA Baseball in his home state of Pennsylvania. He started his coaching career in 2015 with United High School in Armagh, Pa.

KYLE PETTORUTO

ASSISTANT COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Kyle Pettoruto is in his second season with the Bearcats in 2025.

His roles include overseeing the recruiting efforts of the program, instructing infield play, and assisting in all areas of the offense.

UC posted a 32-25 overall record in 2024 and a 17-13 mark in conference play, the program's first 30-win season since 2019. Cincinnati finished the regular season in fifth place in the Big 12 after being picked to finish in last in the preseason coaches poll.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Six hitters earned All-Big 12 honors in 2024, including first-team selection Josh Kross. Two-way performer Christian Michelle was named to the second team while Lauden Brooks, Kerrington Cross, Josh Hegemann, and Tommy O'Connor were all honorable mention.

Under Pettoruto's tutelage, UC scored 423 runs in 2024, the highest single-season total since 2008. UC averaged 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the Big 12. The Bearcats were also among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91).

Pettoruto officially joined the Cincinnati baseball program on July 11, 2023. He came to UC after following a four-year stint as the hitting coach/assistant coach for Rutgers University (2020-23).

Pettoruto helped lead Rutgers to back-to-back top-5 league finishes, rebuilding a program that had not finished better than 10th in its entire Big Ten history prior to his arrival. The Scarlet Knights went 77-38 (.670) overall and 31-17 (.646) in the Big Ten over 2022 and 2023.

Under Pettoruto's guidance in 2022, Rutgers had one of the most prolific lineups in all of college baseball. The Scarlet Knights led the country with 9.6 runs per game and were top-5 nationally in runs (565) and doubles (147). In addition, the 2022 recruiting class was ranked No. 25 by D1Baseball.com and Top 35 by Baseball America.

Prior to his time at Rutgers, Pettoruto spent six seasons at Bryant and was a part of six straight Northeast Conference regular season championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Prior to Bryant, Pettoruto worked as an assistant coach with the North Shore Navigators in the Futures Collegiate Baseball League in the summer of the 2012. Following the summer, Pettoruto was hired as an assistant coach at Merrimack. He worked with the outfielders and the hitters, helping the Warriors set a school record for wins in the spring of 2013.

The Bearcats claimed six series wins in conference play including series vs. TCU, West Virginia, and UCF, and also posted an 18-8 record at home.

Wiske helped mentor one of the most exciting offenses in the Big 12 in 2024. The Bearcats were among the national leaders in walks (320, most in school history) and stolen bases (109) and ranked atop the league in HBP (91). Cincinnati's ability to get on base and take extra bases led to an average of 7.4 runs per game, which ranked fourth in the league.

UC collected 109 stolen bases in 2024, the most in a single season since swiping a school-record 133 in 2008.

Wiske was hired as an assistant coach on July 11, 2023, resuming his longtime affiliation with head coach Jordan Bischel when the latter was named to lead the Cincinnati baseball program.

Wiske came to Cincinnati from Central Michigan, where he served as a volunteer assistant coach from 2019 to 2023. He combined with Bischel to lead the Chippewas to four Mid-American Conference (MAC) championships -- two regular season and two tournament -- and three NCAA Tournament berths.

With Wiske on the coaching staff, the Chippewas compiled an 102-32 MAC record and posted three consecutive 40-win full seasons for the first time since 1986-88. They won a combined 132 games in 2019, '21 and '22, marking the winningest three-year stretch in program history.
