THURSDAY AUG. 29, 2024 | 7 P.M. ET | GETTLER STADIUM | CINCINNATI, OHIO

CINCINNATI — The University of Cincinnati women's soccer program begins a three-game home stand by hosting the Louisville Cardinals on Thursday inside Gettler Stadium.

Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. and fans can participate in tie dying t-shirts along with Bearcat thunder sticks exclusively for UC students.

Cincinnati enters the match 2-1-0 after falling to Central Michigan, 2-1. The Bearcats could not overcome a quick start by the Chippewas, scoring both their goals in the first 11 minutes of action.

// FELTON'S FEELIN' IT

Freshman Rylee Felton is off to a stellar start of her debut season. Felton has scored in two of the last three games for the Bearcats, including the game winning goal in the season opener vs. Murray State. She recorded Cincinnati's lone goal against Central Michigan this past Sunday.

// SPREADING THE WEALTH

Cincinnati has seen several players contribute to the scoresheet in the early stages of this season. So far, five different players have scored, compared to just eight throughout the entirety of last season. Fifth-year player Ellie Flower brings back her leadership in the offense, having returned as a top scorer and already notched one goal this season.

// SCOUTING THE CARDINALS

Last season showcased significant breakthroughs for the Cardinals, including their first-ever victory over Duke and a historic draw against Virginia. Louisville also set a program record with five draws, underscoring their competitiveness in tough matchups.

Louisville faces the task of replenishing its offensive firepower after a season that saw limited goal production. Molly Cochran and Emersen Jennings, each with two goals last year, lead the returning scorers. The return of Brooke Dardano and Amber Jackson from injury promises added depth, with Jackson boasting an impressive career tally of eight goals and eight assists.

Defensively, the Cardinals benefit from the return of Karsyn Cherry, known for her scoring ability from the backline with three goals in her freshman season.

In goal, Erynn Floyd returns after starting 32 of the last 34 games across two seasons, setting a career high with 62 saves last year.

Head Coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes enters her 25th season leading a squad marked by a blend of seasoned returners and promising newcomers. Louisville boasts a roster of 14 players returning from the 2023 season, which marked several historic milestones for the program.

2024 CINCINNATI SOCCER MATCH NOTES

// TEAM LEADERS

Junior midfielder Megan Smith and fifth year forward Ellie Flower are tied for the team lead in goals with three apiece. Junior Fran Stables was the team's primary play maker last season, as she finished with six.

// RECORD BOOK REXFORD

Fifth year goalkeeper Anna Rexford brings stability to a UC backline that will be replacing key players from last season. The Wilmore, Ky., native has started 64 straight games and has accumulated the sixth-most career wins (23), seventh-most career shutouts (15) and eighth-most career saves (205) in program history.

// A CONFERENCE CHANGE IS NOTHING NEW

With UC joining the Big 12, it will mark the sixth new conference the Bearcats have joined since the programs formation in 1980 (note team was independent from 1984-93.) The Bearcats have reached double-digit wins in there previous conference inaugural seasons, including going 15-5-2 as part of the GMC in 1994.

// NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

The Bearcats 2024 roster features eight freshman and three transfers. Coley Sidloski (Ohio State), Ashlyn Basinger (Maryland) and Jenna Daveler (Old Dominion) all come with previous collegiate experience.

// WELCOMING THE WEST

The Big 12 Conference welcomed four new members ahead of the 2024-25 season. The Bearcats will face three of the four new conference members this upcoming season. UC will host Colorado on Oct. 17 for the first match between the two programs since 2015.

// SUPER SENIORS

In December, the program announced the return of four key fifth year players. Vyviene Spaulding (F), Lauren Bastian (M), Ellie Flower (F/M) and Anna Rexford (GK) will suit up in the red and black for one more season.

// RETURNING STRENGTH

Cincinnati returns great numbers from last year's roster including five leading scorers and team leader in assists, Fran Stables.

// WE PLAY FOR 3

Junior transfer Coley Sidloski will rep the number 3 this year in honor of her sister and former UC student athlete, Ally Sidloski, who passed away in 2021. This will be the first time since 2022 that #3 is worn, last done so by Vanessa DiNardo, also in honor of Ally. DiNardo proceeded to score the team's first goal of the 2022 season in the win at NKU.

// CLIFTON CONFIDENCE

Head coach Erica Demers and her staff adopted a saying at the beginning of the season to help the team adapt to the changes at hand and embody the team's mindset and playing style, which is to play with "Clifton Confidence." The effect of Clifton Confidence became a reality during the match against then-ranked No. 6 BYU, where the team went and shocked the Cougars and 5,000 fans in attendance, walking away with a 1-1 draw against one best scoring teams in the nation, and a team that advanced all the way to the 2023 College Cup Final Four.

// BEARCATS WORLD-WIDE

Cincinnati's 2024 roster features four international students from three different countries. Claire Rea and Jada Arthurs represent Ontario. Fran Stables reps England and Laura Zembryova comes to UC from Slovakia.

HEAD COACH ERICA DEMERS | SECOND SEASON

University of Cincinnati Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hiring of Erica Demers as the sixth women's soccer head coach in program history on December 7, 2022.

In her first year as head coach of the Bearcats, Demers led UC to the program's first Big 12 Championship Tournament victory, defeating Baylor 3-2 in the first round of the tournament in the team's first year in the conference.

Demers ushers in the new era after elevating the University of Alabama at Birmingham to unrivaled success during six seasons as head coach.

Demers was honored as the 2022 Conference USA Coach of the Year following a 9-4-5 overall and 6-1-3 Conference USA record that featured a program-best 10-match unbeaten streak. The Blazers had a league-best six student-athletes named to All-Conference teams and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in Asha Zuniga.

During her time in Birmingham, Demers coached the Blazers to 23 All-Conference selections, 16 conference All-Academic honorees and an overall record of 50-38-19.

Hired on May 22, 2017, Demers orchestrated one of the best turnarounds in the NCAA in her first season at the helm by increasing the team's win total by nine games and leading the Blazers to their most wins since 2004.

Prior to her tenure with the Blazers, Demers spent 12 seasons on Dave Dilanni's staff at Iowa and Grand Valley State. She helped lead Iowa to 29 victories, coached three All-Big Ten performers and 31 Big Ten All-Academic selections in three seasons.

At Grand Valley State, she helped guide the Lakers to three NCAA Division II national titles, nine GLIAC championships and nine NCAA regional championships. She spent her final two seasons as associate head coach of the program.

In addition to her coaching duties, Demers served as the school's recruiting coordinator, camps coordinator and instructor, strength and conditioning coach and fundraising director. She also was instrumental in the team's academic success, as she coached two Academic All-American of the Year honorees, eight Academic All-Americans, one Elite 88 Award winner and more than 40 athletes to GLIAC All-Academic honors during her tenure.

Demers started her coaching career at The Citadel, where she served one season as a graduate assistant.

As a student-athlete, Demers led Oakland to four-straight Mid-Continent Conference titles and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a two-time First Team All-Conference selection and was named Conference Player of the Year in 2002.

Demers competed for the Canadian U-21 National Team and was part of the 2000 Canadian National Championship Team. In 1997-98, she played for the National Training Centre team and was a member of the Ontario Provincial Team for five seasons.

The Welland, Ontario, Canada native graduated from Oakland with a Bachelor of Health Science in 2004 and earned her Master's in Education while at Grand Valley State in 2009.
