CINCINNATI - The University of Cincinnati women's soccer program opens the 2025 season against Eastern Michigan at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday at Scicluna Field in Ypsilanti, Mich.

The Bearcats will then travel back to Cincinnati for their home opener against Toledo on Sunday, Aug. 17 inside Gettler Stadium.

Cincinnati's match versus Eastern Michigan will be broadcast nationally on ESPN+.

SERIES HISTORY

- Cincinnati and Eastern Michigan have met once in their history, with the Bearcats holding a 1-0 edge.
- The two teams faced off last year at Gettler Stadium, resulting in a 3-1 win for Cincinnati. Rylee Felton and Ellie Flower notched goals for the Bearcats.

RETURNING STRENGTH

- Cincinnati brings back eight starters from last season, including Emma Gioffre, Faith Broering, and Megan Smith, each of whom started all 19 matches. Twelve of UC's 17 returners appeared in double-digit games for the Red & Black.
- While the Bearcats will miss five-year starting goalkeeper Anna Rexford, they return their entire defensive line, featuring Broering, Oubs, Swingle, and Daveler.

NEW CATS ON THE BLOCK

- The Bearcats welcome four transfers and eight freshmen to the 2025 roster. Cincinnati's freshman class includes Lexi O'Shea, Christa Gibbons, Ava "AJ" Hendrick, Kailey Shannon, Lily DiBernardo, Dru Dorsey and twins Kayla and Bryana Gaynor.
- Transfers Camryn Miller (Virginia), Molly Cochran (Louisville), Karson Yon (Minnesota) and Joy Kimwemwe (USF) also join the Bearcats.

TRANSFERS TO NOTE

- Transfers Miller, Cochran, Yon and Kimwemwe bring experience to the 2025 crew and look to make a big impact on the field.
- Kimwemwe, a 5-foot-3 forward, appeared in eight games for the Bulls, where she recorded five shots (two on goal) and one assist.
- Cochran, a 5-foot-8 midfielder, made 28 appearances for the Cardinals in her two years there, securing three goals and 21 shots (12 on goal).
- Miller, a 5-foot-9 redshirt senior goalkeeper, made three appearances with one start at UVA.
- Yon, a sophomore defender, did not see action her freshman year at Minnesota.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Graduate student Ellie Flower is just three appearances shy of reaching 50 career matches. She also needs nine goals to hit the 20-goal milestone.

A WIN WOULD...

- Give Cincinnati its first win of the 2025 season
- Keep Cincinnati unbeaten against Eastern Michigan

2025 CINCINNATI SOCCER MATCH NOTES

3 Junior transfer Coley Sidloski reps the number 3 in honor of her sister and former UC student athlete, Ally Sidloski, who passed away in 2021. The number 3 was first worn in Ally's memory by Vanessa DiNardo during the 2022 season.

LAST TIME VS. EASTERN MICHIGAN

CINCINNATI -- The University of Cincinnati women's soccer program cruised past Eastern Michigan, 3-1, on Sept. 1, 2024.

The Bearcats move to 3-1-1 after giving the Eagles their first loss of the season. Cincinnati matched a season-high three goals and freshman Rylee Felton complemented the win with a career-high two goals and one assist.

Fifth-year Ellie Flower found her groove early, scoring the first goal of the day in the 16th minute and matching her game-high. Quickly after, junior Megan Smith found access and secured another goal for Cincinnati.

In the first half, Cincinnati allowed Eastern Michigan to just one shot, while the Bearcats managed to get off 11.

Eastern Michigan managed a last-effort goal from Cameryn Susey in the 85th minute but could not overcome the deficit.

Cincinnati remains at home as they host Butler on Sept. 5, 2024 at 7 p.m. before heading to Xavier for the final non-conference matchup of the season.

// FELTON-FLOWER CONNECTION

Sophomore forward Rylee Felton and graduate student forward/midfielder Ellie Flower have established themselves as a potent offensive duo for the Bearcats. They combined for 13 goals, five assists, and 31 points last season. Felton led the team with a .609 shots-on-goal percentage, while Flower contributed six goals and a team-high four assists over 19 games.

Together, Felton and Flower contributed 54% of Cincinnati's goals, nearly 28% of the team's assists, and accounted for 47% of the Bearcats' total points last season. They assisted each other's goals in three consecutive games.

Flower's team-high 16 points were the most since Vanessa DiNardo had 19 in 2021.

// FELTON'S BACK

Sophomore Rylee Felton made a significant impact in her freshman season despite missing five Big 12 games due to illness, tallying seven goals, 23 shots (14 on goal), three game-winning goals, and one assist. She led the team in goals and game-winners, while ranking second in points (15) and shots on goal (14). Felton earned Big 12 Co-Freshman of the Week honors for September 4, 2024 — her first weekly accolade and Cincinnati's only one of the season.

// ZEMBERYOVA RETURNS

Graduate student Laura Zemberyova returns to the pitch after missing the 2024 season with an injury suffered before the year began — her second season-ending setback in the last three years. A primary offensive weapon in 2023, she started all 15 games she played in, leading the Bearcats with a career-high four goals and adding an assist. She clinched Cincinnati's first-ever Big 12 conference tournament appearance, scoring the game-tying goal against West Virginia. She came to UC with head coach Erica Demers from UAB, where she earned All-Conference USA honors as both a freshman and sophomore despite also missing the 2022 season due to injury.

// SOPHOMORE RISE

The sophomore class this season features six returners (Oubs, Felton, Barber, Arthurs, Helfen, and Brandon) and two transfers (Yon and Kimwemwe). Four of the returners appeared in 10 or more games last season — including Oubs (19), Barber (19), Felton (14), and Arthurs (14) — while Kimwemwe saw action in eight games for USF. They combined for nine goals, four assists, and over 3,000 minutes played.

Felton led the team in goals scored (seven) and was second on the team in points (15). Oubs played 1,447 minutes as the one of the team's starting defenders.

// BIG SHOES TO FILL

The Bearcats will look to replace the steady presence of Anna Rexford, who graduated after playing every one of the team's 1,710 minutes in goal last season. Rexford earned 83 consecutive career starts (second in program history) and ranks fourth all-time at UC in both saves and shutouts.

Cincinnati's goalkeeping crew now features returning sophomores Kate Helfen and Amber Brandon, along with transfer Camryn Miller from Virginia. Miller made three appearances with one start in 2024, combining for shutouts against Utah Valley (8/25) and NC State (10/10). She earned a solo shutout in her first career start vs. Howard (9/8).

// FAMILIAR FACES

Sophomore midfielder Anna Barber reunites with fellow NC Courage alum Karson Yon, a North Carolina native who transferred from Minnesota. They are the only two North Carolina natives on the 2025 roster. Barber appeared in all 19 matches as a freshman, starting twice (against Toledo and West Virginia). She logged 590 minutes on the pitch and finished the season with nine shots.

// TWINS FROM TORONTO

Freshman twins Bryana and Kayla Gaynor join the Bearcats from Toronto, Ontario, where they developed their game with NDC Ontario. Bryana, a forward, has also been part of Canada's U-17 Women's National Team program, competing in the 2023 Concacaf U-17 Qualifiers and an international series in Portugal. The duo won the League 1 premiere championship in 2023.

// BEARCATS WORLDWIDE

Cincinnati's 2025 roster boasts six international players representing two countries. Canadians Claire Rea, Jada Arthurs, Kayla Gaynor, Bryana Gaynor, and Joy Kimwemwe continue a growing branch of head coach Erica Demers' deep recruiting ties to her home country.

Laura Zemberyova, from Slovakia, has been a member of her country's youth national team since 2015, appearing in over 50 international matches.

// WE PLAY FOR 3

Senior Coley Sidloski proudly wears the number 3 jersey in honor of her sister and former UC student-athlete, Ally Sidloski, who passed away in 2021. The number 3 was first worn in Ally's memory by Vanessa DiNardo during the 2022 season. After DiNardo, the number remained unworn until Coley transferred to Cincinnati in 2024.

Each year, the Sidloski family awards a memorial scholarship to a player who embodies the spirit of "Playing for 3." Maddie Swingle was the recipient last year. Along with this presentation, 150 UC student-athletes were awarded the "Bearcat Strong" award — a yearly award in honor of Ally's memory.

// THE SPIRIT OF 3

In last year's "Play for 3" game, Coley Sidloski sealed Cincinnati's 2-1 victory over Kansas State by scoring the game-winning goal in the 68th minute. "That moment was surreal. I had tears in my eyes as soon as the ball hit the back of the net," Sidloski reflected.

Vanessa DiNardo, who wore number 3 in honor of Ally in 2022, scored the team's first goal of the season against NKU. Last season, Sidloski scored the first goal for Cincinnati in a 2-1 win over Murray State.

// CLIFTON CONFIDENCE

Head coach Erica Demers and her staff adopted a saying at the beginning of the 2024 season to help the team adapt to the changes at hand and embody the team's mindset and playing style, which is to play with "Clifton Confidence." The effect of Clifton Confidence became a reality during the match against then-ranked No. 6 BYU on Sept. 28, 2023, where the team went and shocked the Cougars and 5,000 fans in attendance, walking away with a 1-1 draw against one of the best scoring teams in the nation, and a team that advanced all the way to the 2023 College Cup Final Four.

// PROFESSIONAL BEARCATS

Vanessa Gilles, a former student-athlete at UC from 2014-17 was recently inducted into the James P. Kelly Hall of Fame in 2024. Gilles was named Canada Soccer's 2024 Player of the Year, marking her first time receiving the national honor. She anchored the Canada Women's National Team (CANWNT) defense throughout 2024, starting in 14 matches and showcasing her offensive talents with four goals and one assist. Vanessa is a 2021 Olympic gold medalist.

Ashley Barron, a former UC student-athlete from 2019-23, began her professional career in Örebro, Sweden, as she gained a one-year contract with KIF Örebro DFF in February of 2024.

Lauren Bastian, a former UC student-athlete from 2020-24, begins her professional career this year with Odysseas Moschatou Women's FC in Moschato, Athens, Greece.

HEAD COACH ERICA DEMERS | THIRD SEASON

University of Cincinnati Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hiring of Erica Demers as the sixth women's soccer head coach in program history on December 7, 2022.

In her first year as head coach of the Bearcats, Demers led UC to the program's first Big 12 Championship Tournament victory, defeating Baylor 3-2 in the first round of the tournament in the team's first year in the conference.

During her second season, she led the team to a overall record of 6-9-4. Under Demers' leadership, Cincinnati has secured back-to-back appearances in the Big 12 Championship.

Demers ushered in the Bearcats' new era after elevating the University of Alabama at Birmingham to unrivaled success during six seasons as head coach.

Demers was honored as the 2022 Conference USA Coach of the Year following a 9-4-5 overall and 6-1-3 Conference USA record that featured a program-best 10-match unbeaten streak. The Blazers had a league-best six student-athletes named to All-Conference teams and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in Asha Zuniga.

During her time in Birmingham, Demers coached the Blazers to 23 All-Conference selections, 16 conference All-Academic honorees and an overall record of 50-38-19.

Hired on May 22, 2017, Demers orchestrated one of the best turnarounds in the NCAA in her first season at the helm by increasing the team's win total by nine games and leading the Blazers to their most wins since 2004.

Prior to her tenure with the Blazers, Demers spent 12 seasons on Dave Dilanni's staff at Iowa and Grand Valley State. She helped lead Iowa to 29 victories, coached three All-Big Ten performers and 31 Big Ten All-Academic selections in three seasons.

At Grand Valley State, she helped guide the Lakers to three NCAA Division II national titles, nine GLIAC championships and nine NCAA regional championships. She spent her final two seasons as associate head coach of the program. In addition to her coaching duties, Demers served as the school's recruiting coordinator, camps coordinator and instructor, strength and conditioning coach and fundraising director. She also was instrumental in the team's academic success, as she coached two Academic All-American of the Year honorees, eight Academic All-Americans, one Elite 88 Award winner and more than 40 athletes to GLIAC All-Academic honors during her tenure.

Demers started her coaching career at The Citadel, where she served as a graduate assistant.

As a student-athlete, Demers led Oakland to four-straight Mid-Continent Conference titles and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a two-time First Team All-Conference selection and was named Conference Player of the Year in 2002.

Demers competed for the Canadian U-21 National Team and was part of the 2000 Canadian National Championship Team. In 1997-98, she played for the National Training Centre team and was a member of the Ontario Provincial Team for five seasons. The Welland, Ontario, Canada native graduated from Oakland with a Bachelor of Health Science in 2004 and earned her Master's in Education while at Grand Valley State in 2009.
