MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM / STARK PERFORMANCE CENTER

MIDAMERICAN ENERGY FIELD AT JACK TRICE STADIUM

MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium has proven to be one of the nation's most outstanding football structures and celebrated its 50th season as ISU's home field in 2024. With its remarkable sight lines and numerous renovations throughout the years to enhance the game day atmosphere, the stadium ranks as one of the nation's best football venues.

The 61,500-seat stadium is the Big 12 Conference's second-largest. Construction on the stadium started on Oct. 26, 1973, with the first game in the facility played on Sept. 20, 1975, a 17-12 Cyclone win over Air Force. In 1997, it was officially dedicated as Jack Trice Stadium in honor of Jack Trice, Iowa State's first African-American student-athlete who died tragically from injuries sustained in a football game in 1923. Iowa State is the nation's only FBS school to have a stadium name dedicated to an African-American.

WHO WAS JACK TRICE?

Jack Trice was born in Hiram, Ohio, in 1902. Trice attended East Tech High School in Cleveland, where he was a star athlete. When his football coach, Sam Willaman, was named head coach at Iowa State, Trice and six other athletes followed him west, as Trice became the first African-American student-athlete in Iowa State history. Trice majored in animal husbandry and his goal was to settle in the South after his graduation and help the black farmers of that area. He was a very studious young man and despite his participation in intercollegiate athletics, Trice managed to pass 45 college credits with a 90 percent average. Because there were no athletic scholarships granted in those days, he worked odd jobs to finance his education and support his wife and mother.

On the gridiron, Trice was a stellar performer along the interior line in 1923. His promising career abruptly ended, however. Trice played in ISU's season-opener, a 14-6 win over Simpson in Ames. He traveled to Minneapolis the following weekend to face a strong Gopher squad. It was during intermission that Trice began to complain of a sore left shoulder, but nevertheless, returned to action in the second half. Midway through the third quarter, a frustrated Minnesota team ran a play off left tackle. Trice immediately saw that he wouldn't be able to reach the ball carrier, so he threw himself in front of the Minnesota interference in a roll block. He was toppled over on his back and trampled on.

Trice wanted to continue playing but never returned to the game. Doctors at a Minneapolis hospital allowed Trice to return to Ames with the team, which lost the game 20-17. They declared his condition not so serious. Trice rode back on a pullman coach. He rested his body on a straw mattress and was immediately taken to the university hospital upon his arrival in Ames. There, doctors discovered a broken collarbone Trice had sustained during the first half of the contest. His condition worsened as he developed respiratory problems Sunday afternoon, and a stomach specialist from Des Moines was summoned. Dr. Oliver Fay decided that surgery would be too risky, so no operation was performed.

At 3 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8, 1923, Jack Trice died of hemorrhaged lungs and internal bleeding throughout the abdomen. The following Tuesday, classes were postponed and a funeral service was held before 4,000 students and faculty members on the central grounds of campus.

A letter written by Jack Trice to himself on the eve of the Minnesota game was found in his coat pocket the day of his funeral. The contents of that letter were divulged before the 4,000 mourners. It read:

"My thoughts just before the first real college game of my life: The honor of my race, family and self is at stake. Everyone is expecting me to do big things. I will. My whole body and soul are to be thrown recklessly about the field. Every time the ball is snapped, I will be trying to do more than my part. Fight low, with your eyes open and toward the play. Watch out for crossbucks and reverse end runs. Be on your toes every minute if you expect to make good. Jack."

A memorial scholarship was created, and a memorial to Trice is located on the east concourse of the football stadium as you enter the Jack Trice Club. A statue in his honor was unveiled in 1987 and currently resides on central campus, and a second statue was installed in front of the stadium in the fall of 2022.

Iowa State unveiled its new stadium in 1975 and it was originally named Cyclone Stadium. Gradually, the Trice story started to become more prevalent.

A strong push from students and alumni to dedicate the stadium in honor of Trice gained traction in the early 1980s. Iowa State President Dr. Robert Parks announced the facility name would change to Cyclone Stadium at Jack Trice Field prior to the 1984 season.

A groundswell of support for Trice continued, however. Supporters felt Trice's name should be the primary focus of the stadium. Finally, in 1997, President Dr. Martin Jischke officially dedicated Iowa State's football venue as Jack Trice Stadium, ahead of the season-opener against Oklahoma State.

Believed to be the first school to grow its own grass for its football stadium. In October 2022, GrassMax synthetic fibers were stitched into the sand base of the field to help with grass reinforcement and root stabilization. Fibers also help increase surface quality and player safety, durability, water and air movement as well as lifespan of the field. The field is classified as a "Hybrid" field like Lambeau Field.

STARK PERFORMANCE CENTER/BERGSTROM FOOTBALL COMPLEX

The visual landscape surrounding Jack Trice Stadium was amplified with the addition of the Stark Performance Center, a $90 million project connecting to the existing Bergstrom Football Complex and debuting in 2021. This massive upgrade created multiple spaces for use by all student-athletes, as well as the addition of the Albaugh Family Plaza north of Jack Trice Stadium for all Cyclones to enjoy.

New or upgraded amenities include: football locker room, football player's lounge, nutrition center, sports medicine center, football offices, student-athlete life skills center, student-athlete academic center and student-athlete dining hall.

- Iowa State's offensive staff has three position coaches who have served as offensive coordinators: Landry (NDSU), Ryan Clanton (UNI) and Noah Pauley (Minnesota-Duluth).
- Campbell also added Bryce Paup to the coaching staff as assistant defensive line coach following seven seasons at his alma mater, UNI ... Paup was the 1995 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and a First-Team All-Pro while playing for the Buffalo Bills ... he was a four-time NFL Pro Bowler during his 11-year career.

CYCLONES IN THE NFL

- Just what has Matt Campbell done to the talent level at Iowa State in his time at the school? ISU has 15 former players on 53-man rosters this season, third most among Big 12 schools.
- For the fifth-straight year, ISU had a player picked in the NFL Draft. The Cyclones had four players selected in the 2025 NFL Draft: WR Jayden Higgins (2nd Round, Houston Texans), DB Darien Porter (3rd Round, Las Vegas Raiders), WR Jaylin Noel (3rd Round, Houston Texans), OL Jalen Travis (4th Round, Indianapolis Colts).

FROM THE NOTEBOOK

PRESEASON QUICK HITS

- Jontez Williams' rise to All-Big 12 defensive back has been impressive ... the lowest-ranked non-specialist in Iowa State's 2022 class, Williams has four career interceptions, two of which were in the end zone and another that sent the Cyclones into victory formation.
- Beni Ngoyi looks to be the latest success story for the Cyclones in switches from WR to DB ... the last two Cyclones to do so, T.J. Tampa and Darien Porter, were both drafted and are currently in the NFL.
- DB Khijohnn Cummings-Coleman was Iowa State's Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year in 2024 alongside offensive lineman Easton Eledge ... Cummings-Coleman played wide receiver on the offensive scout team as numbers dwindled at the position late in the season ... Carson Van Dinter was Special Teams Scout Team POY, while Caden Kock was Defensive Scout Team POY.
- Iowa State has four players from Southeast Polk High School in Altoona, Iowa ... the Rams are the four-time Class 5A state champions, the largest class in Iowa ... Abu Sama, Connor Moberly, Carson Robbins and Sam Zelenovich all contributed to the streak.

SAME NAME

- No need for a double-take, Iowa State's roster includes two Jace Gilberts, one a redshirt junior kicker from Marlow, Oklahoma and the other a redshirt freshman defensive lineman from Waukesha, Wisconsin.
- On the roster, kicker Jace Gilbert will be Jace T. Gilbert, while defensive lineman Jace Gilbert will be Jace. J. Gilbert.
- It isn't the first time: From 2012-15, Iowa State had two Sam Richardsons on the team ... one a quarterback and the other a defensive back.
- The Cyclone roster has six Carson's on it: Carson Brown, Carson Hansen, Carson Rhodes, Carson Robbins, Carson Van Dinter and Carson Willich.

CLASSROOM SUCCESS

Nine Cyclones on the 2025 team have earned their degrees: Caleb Bacon (agricultural business), Dylan Barrett (liberal studies), Jim Bonifas (finance), Daniel Jackson (journalism/minor: human development and family studies), Tyler Miller (agricultural studies), Tyler Maro (mechanical engineering), Tamatoa McDonough (political science from Yale), Myles Mendeszoon (finance) and Tyler Moore (kinesiology).

■ Iowa State had 37 players on the 2024 Fall Academic All-Big 12 Team, tied for the most of any team in the league.

BACK FOR MORE

 ISU has two players who took their extra seasons: offensive lineman Tyler Miller and wide receiver Daniel Jackson.

BECHT'S COMMUNITY IMPACT

Florida native Rocco Becht has made an impact on the state of Iowa in just a few short years. Not just with his on-field accomplishments, but off the field as well.

In 2024, Becht hosted a camp for the Perry (Iowa) community after tragedy struck the community. He donated $7,500 to Perry Youth Football as well.

More recently, Becht donated Xbox gaming consoles to Mary Greeley Medical Center in Ames for the pediatric unit, so every room has a console for patients to use during their stay.

For his work in the community, Becht was featured on the 2025 Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and is an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team Naminee.
