FIFTH THIRD ARENA

After a 20-month, privately-funded $87-million renovation, Fifth Third Arena reopened prior to the 2018-19 season as the latest marker in the continued growth of University of Cincinnati basketball.

Improvements to the 12,012-seat arena include two 360-degree concourses with court-centric seating, club seats, loge boxes and premium suites. The Arena Club, Champions Club and the Lexus Courtside Club provide entertainment options for fans. State-of-the-art videoboards and ribbon boards raise the gameday experience to the next level while increased points-of-sale for concessions feature food options from some of Cincinnati's most famous restaurants.

New student-athlete amenities include new locker rooms, a film room and a hydrotherapy room while the Margaret K. Valentine Classroom creates more learning environments for the University.

What hasn't changed is the thrilling environment on game day, featuring loud and intimidating student sections along both baselines and passionate, determined play on the court.

In the first two seasons following its renovation, Fifth Third Arena has welcomed more than 11,100 fans per game and ranked among the national leaders in attendance.

In all, more than 5 million fans have watched a Bearcats men's basketball game since the arena originally opened on Nov. 25, 1989. In the 29 seasons since, Cincinnati has posted a 419-88 (.826 win percentage) record in the building, while the program has achieved 21 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Sweet 16 appearances, one Final Four showing and 12 regular-season conference titles.

Originally tabbed the Myrl H. Shoemaker Center, it was named after the former Ohio lieutenant governor who was instrumental in securing state funding for the building while he was chairman of the Ohio House Finance Appropriations Committee. Shoemaker died in 1985.

Affectionately known as "The Shoe," the arena was renamed Fifth Third Arena at Myrl H. Shoemaker Center in 2004 in recognition of Fifth Third Bank's support of the Varsity Village facilities enhancement project. Fifth Third Bank remains a valued long-term campus-wide partner on numerous initiatives.

In 2002, the floor was named Ed Jucker Court in honor of the head coach who led Cincinnati to its two national titles in 1961 and 1962.

ARENA FEATURES

- » Renovation of the building facade, entries and plazas, including the addition of an outdoor videoboard
- » Two 360-degree concourses and permanent lower bowl with court-centric seating and new chairback seating
- » New hospitality areas, including main and upper level concourse bars available to all fans and the addition of three exclusive clubs - the Arena Club, the Champions Club and the Lexus Courtside Club
- » New upper-level concourse with its own fan amenities, including new restrooms, concessions and a specialty drink bar
- » Additional bars at the north end of the main and upper concourses - the Armory Bar and the Queen City Bar - that highlight UC Athletics' partnerships with Braxton, MadTree and Rhinegeist
- » New center-hung videoboard, ribbon boards, sound system and LED lighting to enhance game atmosphere
- » Increased points and sale for concessions including some of Cincinnati's favorite food options - Buffalo Wings & Rings, Frisch's, Skyline Chili and Taste of Belgium
- » Open entrance plaza with centralized ticketing and guest services along with the new Fan First Center

HEAD COACH KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hire of former Bearcats' captain Katrina Merriweather as the 10th women's basketball head coach at the University of Cincinnati on March 25, 2023.

Merriweather quickly has become a rising star in the coaching profession, taking three programs to the postseason a total of six times, including a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. She has totaled 180 wins in nine seasons as bench boss.

In just her second season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued the program's upward trajectory, guiding the Bearcats to their first winning season since 2019-20 and surpassing the previous year's win total. UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20. The Bearcats also led the Big 12 and ranked among the nation's top five in made free throws per game.

Forward Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

Merriweather's impact was immediate, successfully navigating Cincinnati's transition from the American Athletic Conference to the Big 12 in her first season at the helm. The Bearcats saw a five-win improvement, posted their best non-conference winning percentage (72.7%) in 15 years, and strung together a six-game win streak—their longest since 2019-20. That season also featured UC's first victory over an SEC opponent since 2004.

Merriweather once again proved her ability to build postseason contenders, leading Cincinnati to the 2024 WNIT—marking the program's 14th postseason appearance and first since 2019.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bearcats' Hall of Fame head coach Laurie Pirtle from 1997-01, Merriweather became the program's first women's basketball player to advance to four consecutive postseason tournaments. Additionally, she helped lead the program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win as a graduate assistant coach in 2001-02.

Merriweather and USA Basketball earned a silver medal podium finish at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in León, Mexico. She was elevated to her first bench coach assignment for the event after previously serving as a court coach for the 2021 USA Women's U19 National Team Trails.

Merriweather led Memphis to a 22-11 season in 2022-23, the program's first 20-win season in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16.

Merriweather took over a four-win Memphis team and immediately produced 16 wins in 2021-22 before the 22-win campaign this season in which the Tigers clinched the two seed in the 2022 AAC Championships, the program's highest-ever AAC regular season finish, and advanced to a postseason tournament for the first time since 2015-16.

In her two seasons at the helm, the Tigers compiled a 38-23 record and earned three All-Conference selections.

The search was led by Maggie McKinley, Deputy Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator, who worked with Cunningham to bring Merriweather back home.

Prior to her tenure at Memphis, Merriweather spent five seasons as the head coach at Wright State, where she took the Raiders to two NCAA Tournaments and was named Horizon League Coach of the Year three times. Merriweather led Wright State to the program's third appearance and first NCAA Tournament win with an upset over four-seed Arkansas in 2021.

In 2018-19, she guided the Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and its first-ever outright Horizon League regular season championship, securing the conference tournament title and reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.

While at the helm, Merriweather led the Raiders to a 113-47 (.706) record, finishing with the best winning percentage in program history. She was a part of all three of the program's Horizon League tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, twice as a head coach in 2019 and 2021 and once as an assistant in 2014. The Raiders also earned 16 All-Conference selections in her tenure.

Merriweather was an assistant under Mike Bradbury for six seasons at Wright State from 2010-16 before becoming head coach.

Prior to Wright State, she was an assistant at Purdue from 2003-06, and at UIC for the 2002-03 season.

With the Bearcats, Merriweather made 27 career starts, including 22 in her senior season, and played in 107 games. She helped lead the program to an 83-41 record in her four seasons.

"I'm beyond proud for Katrina," said Pirtle, who won 310 games over 21 seasons at Cincinnati. "She was a tremendous player in terms of how she handled herself, but most importantly she was a coach and leader on and off the floor. She constantly pulled our team together. This hire should come as no surprise. I speak for all of the UC basketball family when I say we are extremely proud of her and excited to see her come back to lead this program."

The Indianapolis native graduated from Cincinnati in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and earned a second bachelor in secondary education in 2002.

ASHLEY BARLOW

ASSOCIATE COACH / OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
THIRD SEASON

Ashley Barlow brings more than a decade of coaching experience to the Bearcats, including eight seasons as a longtime assistant under Katrina Merriweather. Entering her third season with Cincinnati in 2025-26, Barlow has been promoted to Associate Coach and will continue working directly with the guards while serving as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2024-25, Barlow helped lead the team to its best winning percentage since 2019-20, including UC's highest non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and its most conference victories (7) since 2019-20. She also played a pivotal role in the development of transfer point guard Tineya Hylton, who posted career-best numbers by surpassing her combined totals from three previous seasons, including 129 field goals and 109 free throws (up from 89 FG and 57 FT).

In 2023-24, the Bearcats saw a five-win improvement from the season prior and their 14 wins were the most in a single season since 2019-20. The squad posted its best non-conference winning percentage (72.7%) in 15 years and won six consecutive games during the stretch for its longest win streak since 2019-20.

In her two seasons at Memphis, she worked directly with the guards and was indispensable in the development of the program's all-time career three-point leader and two-time All-AAC selection Madison Griggs.

In her five seasons on the Raiders' bench, Barlow helped Katrina Merriweather compile a 113-47 record, four postseason appearances and two Horizon League Championships. Prior to Wright State, she spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Evansville and two seasons in the same role at IUPUI.

Prior to coaching, the Indianapolis native was a standout guard for four seasons at Notre Dame from 2006-10 and became the only player in Fighting Irish history, male or female, to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 250 assists and 250 steals in her career.

Barlow played one season professionally in Israel for Elitzur Rishon Le-Zion in 2010-11.

ABBY JUMP

ASSOCIATE COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR
THIRD SEASON

Abby Jump joined Cincinnati in 2023 and was promoted to Associate Coach prior to the 2025-26 season. She came to the Bearcats after five seasons working alongside Katrina Merriweather at Memphis and Wright State.

A rising star in the profession, she was the only coach nationally to be named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 list for a six-year stretch from 2018-23.

As recruiting coordinator, Jump brought in the highest-rated recruiting class in program history for the 2025-26 season. Cincinnati native Dee Alexander, a five-star recruit ranked No. 11 nationally in the ESPNW final rankings, headlines the class as the highest-ranked player ever signed.

In 2024-25, Jump helped lead the team to its best winning percentage since 2019-20, including UC's highest non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and its most conference victories (7) since 2019-20. She mentored forward Jillian Hayes, who became the first Bearcat to earn All-Big 12 honors. Hayes landed on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

With the Tigers, Jump oversaw the development of perimeter players, including leading scorer and All-AAC Second Team selection Jamirah Shutes, while coordinating recruiting efforts over the last two seasons.

Prior to Memphis, Jump helped lead her alma mater Wright State to two NCAA Tournament appearances and two Horizon League Championships over three seasons.

Before returning to Wright State, Jump was an assistant coach at Morehead State for two seasons, where she was a part of the Eagles' first WNIT appearance and helped signed the highest ranked recruiting class in program history.

Jump spent a season as the director of operations at Bucknell from 2015-16. The Union, Ky., native played four seasons at Wright State under then-assistant coach Katrina Merriweather from 2011-15, where the guard led the conference in three-point field goal percentage each of her last two seasons and helped guide the program to a 2014 NCAA Tournament appearance.

KABRINA MERRIWEATHER

ASSOCIATE COACH / DIRECTOR OF CULTURE DEVELOPMENT
THIRD SEASON

Kabrina Merriweather joined Cincinnati in 2023 and was promoted to Associate Coach prior to the 2025-26 season. The youngest sister of head coach Katrina Merriweather, she specializes in coaching the post players and leads the team's cultural development initiatives.

Merriweather was named to the WBCA Thirty Under 30 list in 2023 and 2024, recognizing her leadership, mentorship, and impact on the game. In 2024-25, she helped guide Cincinnati to its best winning percentage since 2019-20, including the highest non-conference winning percentage (.800) since 2005-06 and most conference wins (7) since 2019-20.

Her work with the Bearcats' posts in 2023-24 led Cincinnati to finish the season ranked 23rd nationally in offensive rebounds per game (14.5), 53rd in total rebounding (39.66) and 54th in rebounding margin (+5.0).

Merriweather comes to Cincinnati after serving in the same role at Memphis in 2022-23, where she helped lead the Tigers to a 22-11 record, the program's first 20-win campaign in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16. Her work with the Tigers' posts led Memphis to finish the season ranked seventh nationally and first in the conference with 43.5 rebounds per game, the program's best average since 1993-94 and sixth-best overall, and Destiny Thomas to 2022-23 American Athletic Conference All-Freshman Team honors.

Prior to Memphis, Merriweather spent two years at New Mexico from 2020-22, where she was elevated to an assistant coach role as an under Mike Bradbury in 2021-22 after spending 2020-21 as the Lobos' Director of Operations. Merriweather specialized in the post players, where she guided Shaiquel McGruder to the Mountain West All-Conference and All-Defensive team accolades and Paula Reus to the Mountain West All-Freshman team.

Prior to her stint at New Mexico, Merriweather spent a season as a coach with the Indianapolis Bandits, a semi-professional basketball team. Preceding her stint with the Bandits, Merriweather was a teacher and basketball coach at alma mater, Tindley High School, in Indianapolis, Ind. for four years.

A former forward for Florida A&M and Georgia Southwestern State from 2011-15, Merriweather earned a bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in education in 2015. Despite a college career stunted by injury, Merriweather spent three years as a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

ABBY OWINGS

ASSISTANT COACH / DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING & ANALYTICS
THIRD SEASON

Abby Owings enters her third season on staff, having been promoted to Director of Scouting and Analytics / Assistant Coach ahead of the 2025-26 season. She previously served as Director of Operations / Assistant Coach for two seasons.

Owings was named to the WBCA Thirty Under 30 list for the second time in her career (2025, 2022), recognizing her leadership, mentorship, and impact on the game.

In 2024-25, Owings helped lead the team to its best winning percentage since 2019-20, including UC's highest non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and its most conference victories (7) since 2019-20. Among her many contributions, Owings' scout played a crucial role in one of UC's most notable conference wins this season — a victory over Colorado.

Owings most recently served as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Eastern Kentucky from 2021-23. She assisted the Colonels to a 33-30 record, including a 22-8 home mark, and orchestrated recruiting efforts in their transition to the ASUN conference.

Owings served in the same role at Bellarmine for its transition to Division I basketball in the 2020-21 season. She spent the 2019-20 season at Shawnee State, where she assisted the Bears to a 29-4 record and a Mid-South Conference Tournament title. She was instrumental in the development of All-Conference Player of the Year Bailey Cummins and Brandie Snow, who were both named NAIA All-Americans.

Owings started her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Morehead State in 2018-19, helping lead the program to a 24-11 record, second-place regular season finish in the Ohio Valley conference and an appearance in the WNIT second round.

A three-time team captain, Owings concluded her collegiate career as one of the most accomplished players in Thomas More history. She currently ranks second in program history with 1,789 points, second with 264 three-point field goals made and fourth with 434 assists. Owings was named a three-time D3Hoops.com All-American and two-time WBCA All-American, while leading the team to two NCAA DIII National Championships and three DIII final four appearances. The Independence, Ky. native concluded her collegiate career with a 124-3 and 72-0 conference record.

MICHAL MILLER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT / ASSISTANT COACH
THIRD SEASON

Michal Miller enters her third season on staff, having been promoted to Director of Player Development / Assistant Coach ahead of the 2025-26 season. She previously served as Director of Player Personnel / Assistant Coach for two seasons.

In 2024-25, Miller helped guide Cincinnati to its best winning percentage since 2019-20, including its highest non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and most conference victories (7) since 2019-20.

Prior to arriving in Cincinnati, Miller served as a video coordinator at Memphis and as a volunteer coach at Wright State during the 2020-21 season.

A Michigan City, Ind., native, Miller played her final two collegiate seasons under Merriweather at Wright State from 2018-20, earning 2019 Horizon League Tournament MVP honors and a 2020 All-Horizon League Second Team selection.

Before joining the Raiders, she led Trinity Valley Community College to an NJCAA National Championship appearance after beginning her career at Arizona.

ANA OWENS

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
FIRST SEASON

Head coach Katrina Merriweather announced the addition of former Bearcat standout Ana Owens to the Cincinnati women's basketball staff as Director of Operations ahead of the 2025-26 season.

Owens returns to Clifton after an impressive playing career with the Bearcats from 2014-18, where she finished as one of the program's all-time great guards. She ranks inside the top 10 in career games played, minutes played, three-pointers made, free throw percentage and assists.

In her new role, Owens will oversee the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, budget management and scheduling.

Following her Bearcat career, she played professionally in Germany with the Chemnitz Chemcats before transitioning into a successful career in human resources and operations.

Owens is also a double alumna of the University of Cincinnati. She earned a bachelor's degree in organizational leadership in 2018, followed by a master's degree in human resources management in 2021.

SYMONE DENHAM

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER FIRST SEASON

Symone Denham joined the University of Cincinnati women's basketball staff as Assistant General Manager ahead of the 2025-26 season.

Denham most recently served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at ETSU, following two seasons in the same role at Bradley. She also spent five seasons on the University of New Mexico staff, beginning as video coordinator in 2017 before being promoted to assistant coach in 2018 and serving as both assistant coach and director of basketball operations during the 2019-20 season. During her tenure with the Lobos, New Mexico posted a 105-50 (.677) record and made four WNIT appearances.

A five-time honoree in the WBCA Thirty Under 30 program, Denham has been recognized as one of the top up-and-coming women's basketball coaches under the age of 30.

Denham played collegiately at Wright State from 2012 to 2016, helping the Raiders to the program's winningest team in history and the 2014 Horizon League championship. She earned a spot on the 2015 Horizon League All-Tournament team and served as team captain during her senior season while representing the squad on Wright State's Student-Athlete Advisory Council. She graduated in 2016 with a bachelor's degree in business finance and economics and began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Lourdes University while completing her MBA in December 2017.

LAYAH NEAL

SPORT PROGRAM ASSOCIATE SECOND SEASON

Layah Neal joined the University of Cincinnati women's basketball staff as a Basketball Operations Assistant in October 2024. She was promoted to Sport Program Associate in August 2025.

Neal previously worked alongside head coach Katrina Merriweather as a student manager at Memphis, gaining valuable experience in team operations and program management.

Prior to her time at Memphis, Neal played for Ancilla College from 2020 to 2021. She was also a standout player under Katrina Merriweather at Arsenal Tech High School in Indianapolis, Ind., during the 2019-2020 season, and previously played at North Central High School from 2016 to 2019.

NATOSHA GOTTLIEB

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE SECOND SEASON

University of Cincinnati women's basketball head coach Katrina Merriweather announced the hiring of Natosha Gottlieb as the program's Director of Sports Performance. Gottlieb's responsibilities will include the physical development of UC players to perform optimally while decreasing their likelihood of injury. She will be closely involved in the preparation of each player's readiness for practices and games via nutrition, recovery and education.

The New Orleans native arrives in Cincinnati after spending four seasons at the University of Florida. She served as the Gators' strength and conditioning coordinator, specializing in women's basketball and women's tennis.

Prior to UF, she served as the associate director of strength and conditioning at Florida State where she trained women's cross country, volleyball and beach volleyball. Gottlieb was an All-American guard at Louisiana College where she scored over 1,000 points and appeared in over 100 games for the Wildcats. She garnered three ASC Academic Honor Roll designations and earned the prestigious ASC Scholar Athlete Medal of Honor as a senior.

NATE HOFFMEIER

ATHLETIC TRAINER FIRST SEASON

Nathan Hoffmeier joined Cincinnati women's basketball ahead of the 2025-26 season after spending the previous year with the Bearcats' track and field program.

Before coming to UC, he served as an assistant athletic trainer at Xavier through TriHealth from 2017-2024. He worked previously as a clinical Athletic Trainer for Mercy Health Physical Therapy at their Bridgetown Rd and Northern Kentucky locations.

Hoffmeier worked as an athletic trainer and instructor at Mount St. Joseph University from 2014-16. He also served as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State University from 2011-14 where he worked as an athletic trainer with the softball team from 2011-13 and the men's and women's tennis teams during the 2013-14 school year.

Hoffmeier holds a bachelor's of science degree in athletic training from Ball State University (2011) and earned a master's of science degree in applied exercise science from Oklahoma State University in 2014.

ELISE SUM

ASSISTANT PERFORMANCE DIETITIAN SECOND SEASON

Elise Sum joined the Cincinnati athletics department in October 2022 and currently serves as Assistant Performance Dietitian.

Sum is a registered and licensed dietitian, who oversees the day-to-day nutrition of women's basketball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's golf, women's lacrosse, and women's tennis.

Prior to her current role at Cincinnati, she was an Olympic sports nutrition intern at Clemson University where she worked primarily with men's soccer. During her time at Clemson, Sum was also a student-athlete on the varsity rowing team.

Sum is a 2021 graduate of Clemson University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in human nutrition with an emphasis in dietetics with minors in psychology and athletic leadership. In 2022, she completed her dietetic internship and master's degree in dietetics from Marshall University.

CHERYL COOK: THE COOKIE MONSTER

Cheryl Cook is Cincinnati's top women's basketball performer and one of the best female student-athletes ever.

The Indianapolis, Ind., native set virtually every Bearcat scoring record, tallying 2,367 points during her four-year career, the seventh-highest total in NCAA women's basketball history at the time she concluded her career.

"Cookie" was one of the nation's top six scorers her junior and senior seasons. After earning honorable mention all-America honors as a junior, she was selected for the Olympic Trials, though an injury hampered her efforts to earn a berth on the 1984 U.S. team.

Cook returned to garner second-team all-America honors as a senior, and was the nation's second-leading scorer.

An all-around player, Cook not only tallied the most assists by a UC performer by the close of her career (her 360 currently ranks fourth), the 5-9 guard also is sixth in rebounding (688).

A two-time Metro Conference Player of the Year selection, Cook landed a berth on the 1986 U.S. Pan American Games team.

She is the only player to have her jersey number, 24, retired.

WINNINGEST TEAM

The 2001-02 Bearcats etched their place in history with a 27-5 record under head coach Laurie Pirtle — the program's all-time best mark. That squad captured Cincinnati's lone conference tournament title, winning the C-USA championship to secure the program's third NCAA Tournament berth. The Bearcats then made history with their first NCAA Tournament victory, a thrilling 76-63 overtime win over Saint Peter's.

The 1988-89 Bearcats compiled a 21-9 ledger under Laurie Pirtle and made the school's first appearance in the NCAA tournament. Cincinnati opened the campaign with victories over UCLA, Ohio State, Kentucky and Bowling Green in December while reeling off a then school record-tying 12 consecutive wins. That start drew attention as the Bearcats received votes in the national polls. After earning an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, the Bearcats played at Bowling Green due to the construction of the Shoemaker Center.
