- Cincinnati, which has eight newcomers on this year's roster, has seen each of its first two games decided by five points or fewer with an average scoring margin of minus-four.
- Four Bearcats scored in double figures against Penn State: Kylie Torrence (18), Caliyah DeVillasee (15), Mya Perry (15) and Reagan Jackson (13). It marked the first time Cincinnati had two freshmen score in double figures in the same game since Dec. 1, 2023.
- Freshman forward Kylie Torrence finished with 18 points, six rebounds, three assists, three steals and a block at Penn State. She is the first freshman and just the sixth Bearcat overall to post that stat line since the 1999-2000 season.
- After missing the season opener while recovering from injury, Kali Barrett made her collegiate debut at Penn State, hitting two three-pointers in a span of one minute.
- Cincinnati outrebounded Penn State by five (45-40) and grabbed 21 offensive boards. Alliance Ndiba finished with 10 rebounds, while Ramiyah Byrd added a career-high seven.
- Senior guard Mya Perry averaged 23 points and made nine three-pointers in her first week of action. She tied her career high with 31 points against Lehigh on 11-of-17 shooting, including 6-of-8 from three-point range.
- The 31 points were the most by a Bearcat since Ilmar'l Thomas scored 51 on Feb. 24, 2021. It marked just the fifth time this century a Bearcat scored 30-plus points while hitting at least six threes. She was one of five players nationally to hit those marks in a game last week.
- Freshman point guard Caliyah DeVillasee averaged 14.5 points, 3.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists during the opening week. Her 14 points against Lehigh marked the most points scored by a Cincinnati freshman in their first game since 2017. She followed that with 15 points, five rebounds and four assists at Penn State, the only Big 12 freshman to post those numbers in a game last week.
- Junior guard Reagan Jackson has scored in double figures in each of the first two games, including 21 points against Lehigh. She is shooting 47% from the field, 56% from three-point range and 93% from the free throw line. She ranks fourth in the Big 12 in three-point percentage (.556) and sixth in free throw percentage (.929).
- Perry and Jackson combined for 10 three-pointers against Lehigh, becoming the first Bearcat duo to each score at least 20 points and make four or more threes in the same game since March 2, 2020, when Antoinette Miller and Sam Rodgers did so against East Carolina.
- Perry ranks first in the Big 12 in three-pointers made per game (4.5), fourth in scoring (23.0) and t-sixth in three-point percentage (.500).
- Cincinnati shot 55% (11-of-20) from three-point range against Lehigh, its best performance from beyond the arc since 2023. The mark ranked ninth nationally during the season's opening week.
- The Bearcats will face a challenging non-conference slate, playing four teams that reached the NCAA Tournament or WBIT last season and three others that played in the WNIT.
- Tuesday's game marks the first meeting between Cincinnati and Saint Joseph's. The Bearcats will face six first-time opponents during the 2025-26 season.
- Big 12 women's basketball head coaches voted Dee Alexander the conference's Preseason Freshman of the Year. The five-star guard is Cincinnati's first Big 12 individual preseason award honoree. DOUBLE-DOUBLES

BACK TO HER ROOTS

- Senior transfer Mya Perry returned home to Ohio to finish her college career with the Bearcats.
- From right outside of Columbus, Perry graduated from Reynoldsburg Summit High School as the program's all-time leading scorer and all-time leader in three-pointers made.
- The 5-foot-11 guard joins Cincinnati after an impressive season at Florida Atlantic. She led the Owls in scoring with 15.5 points per game, ranking among the top five in the conference, and hit a team-best 76 three-pointers — the third-most in a single season in FAU history.
- She has nine games of 20-or-more points and has made 142 three-pointers in her career. She enters the season with 763 career points.
- Perry began her collegiate career at Ohio State, where she helped the Buckeyes reach their first Elite Eight appearance in 30 years.

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

- Freshman Kali Barrett has quickly earned praise from head coach Katrina Merriweather for her versatility. She is expected to play position one through four for the Bearcats.
- Merriweather highlighted her versatility at Big 12 Media Days, saying, "I just love Kali's ability to play everywhere and you're going to see her on the floor more like a glue player. Just going to play her whenever to get her in the game."
- The No. 4-ranked player out of Florida, Barrett graduated as Cardinal Mooney High School's all-time leading scorer. She led Cardinal Mooney to its first-ever Class 3A State Championship and posted a state-leading 24 double-doubles as a senior.
- Barrett's path to Cincinnati is as unique as her game. A military child, she was born in Germany, grew up in Box Elder, South Dakota, and moved to Florida in 2019. She committed to Cincinnati before ever stepping foot on campus.

TENNESSEE TWO STEP

- Freshmen shooting guards Joya Crawford and Paige Whitted both call Tennessee home, separated by just 90 miles. The duo shared the floor in the Basketball Coaches Association of Tennessee All-Star Game.
- Crawford eclipsed 2,000 career points at Dyersburg High School and was a finalist for Tennessee Miss Basketball. She led her team to the 2024 TSSAA Class AAA State Championship, earning State Tournament MVP honors.
- Whitted, a Memphis native from Briarcrest Christian Academy, earned All-State recognition during her standout prep career.

WHEN IN ROME

- The Bearcats enjoyed a once-in-a-lifetime experience this past August with a foreign tour to Rome, Italy, marking the program's first international trip under head coach Katrina Merriweather.
- Cincinnati played two games during its stay in Rome, gaining valuable on-court experience and team chemistry ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- The team visited some of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the Colosseum, Vatican, Trevi Fountain and Pantheon. They also took part in a cooking class, learning to make authentic Italian pizza, and capped off the trip with a boat tour of the Amalfi Coast.
- Under NCAA rules, programs are permitted to take an international tour once every four years. The 2025 foreign tour also allowed Cincinnati 10 additional practices prior to departure.

BA-DA-BA-BA-BA, WE'RE LOVING IT!

- Dee Alexander made history as the first Cincinnati women's basketball signee to earn a spot in the prestigious 2025 McDonald's All-American Games.
- Cincinnati stood out as one of just seven schools with both a girls' and boys' McDonald's All-American selection in 2025, thanks to Alexander and men's basketball freshman Shon Abaev.

- Prior to returning to Cincinnati, Katrina Merriweather was the head coach for Memphis where a familiar coaching staff started to take shape. Katrina Merriweather hired her younger sister Kabrina to help lead the Tigers to a 38-23 record and a postseason appearance in the WNIT Sweet 16 in 2023.
- Prior to Memphis, Kabrina worked as the Director of Operations for New Mexico Lobos where she made the jump to assistant coach in the 2021-22 season. She was also a forward for Florida A&M and Georgia Southwestern State from 2011-15.

HEAD COACH KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hire of former Bearcats' captain Katrina Merriweather as the 10th women's basketball head coach at the University of Cincinnati on March 25, 2023.

Merriweather quickly has become a rising star in the coaching profession, taking three programs to the postseason a total of six times, including a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. She has totaled 180 wins in nine seasons as bench boss.

In just her second season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued the program's upward trajectory, guiding the Bearcats to their first winning season since 2019-20 and surpassing the previous year's win total. UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20. The Bearcats also led the Big 12 and ranked among the nation's top five in made free throws per game.

Forward Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

Merriweather's impact was immediate, successfully navigating Cincinnati's transition from the American Athletic Conference to the Big 12 in her first season at the helm. The Bearcats saw a five-win improvement, posted their best non-conference winning percentage (.72.7%) in 15 years, and strung together a six-game win streak—their longest since 2019-20. That season also featured UC's first victory over an SEC opponent since 2004.

Merriweather once again proved her ability to build postseason contenders, leading Cincinnati to the 2024 WNIT—marking the program's 14th postseason appearance and first since 2019.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bearcats' Hall of Fame head coach Laurie Pirtle from 1997-01, Merriweather became the program's first women's basketball player to advance to four consecutive postseason tournaments. Additionally, she helped lead the program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win as a graduate assistant coach in 2001-02.

Merriweather and USA Basketball earned a silver medal podium finish at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in León, Mexico. She was elevated to her first bench coach assignment for the event after previously serving as a court coach for the 2021 USA Women's U19 National Team Trails.

Merriweather led Memphis to a 22-11 season in 2022-23, the program's first 20-win season in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16.

Merriweather took over a four-win Memphis team and immediately produced 16 wins in 2021-22 before the 22-win campaign this season in which the Tigers clinched the two seed in the 2022 AAC Championships, the program's highest-ever AAC regular season finish, and advanced to a postseason tournament for the first time since 2015-16.

In her two seasons at the helm, the Tigers compiled a 38-23 record and earned three All-Conference selections.

The search was led by Maggie McKinley, Deputy Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator, who worked with Cunningham to bring Merriweather back home.

Prior to her tenure at Memphis, Merriweather spent five seasons as the head coach at Wright State, where she took the Raiders to two NCAA Tournaments and was named Horizon League Coach of the Year three times. Merriweather led Wright State to the program's third appearance and first NCAA Tournament win with an upset over four-seed Arkansas in 2021.

In 2018-19, she guided the Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and its first-ever outright Horizon League regular season championship, securing the conference tournament title and reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.

While at the helm, Merriweather led the Raiders to a 113-47 (.706) record, finishing with the best winning percentage in program history. She was a part of all three of the program's Horizon League tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, twice as a head coach in 2019 and 2021 and once as an assistant in 2014. The Raiders also earned 16 All-Conference selections in her tenure.

Merriweather was an assistant under Mike Bradbury for six seasons at Wright State from 2010-16 before becoming head coach.

Prior to Wright State, she was an assistant at Purdue from 2003-06, and at UIC for the 2002-03 season.

With the Bearcats, Merriweather made 27 career starts, including 22 in her senior season, and played in 107 games. She helped lead the program to an 83-41 record in her four seasons.

"I'm beyond proud for Katrina," said Pirtle, who won 310 games over 21 seasons at Cincinnati. "She was a tremendous player in terms of how she handled herself, but most importantly she was a coach and leader on and off the floor. She constantly pulled our team together. This hire should come as no surprise. I speak for all of the UC basketball family when I say we are extremely proud of her and excited to see her come back to lead this program."

The Indianapolis native graduated from Cincinnati in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and earned a second bachelor in secondary education in 2002.
