- The team visited some of the city's most iconic landmarks, including the Colosseum, Vatican, Trevi Fountain and Pantheon. They also took part in a cooking class, learning to make authentic Italian pizza, and capped off the trip with a boat tour of the Amalfi Coast.
- Under NCAA rules, programs are permitted to take an international tour once every four years. The 2025 foreign tour also allowed Cincinnati 10 additional practices prior to departure.

- The Bearcats have also dominated the offensive glass under Merriweather, ranking second in the Big 12 with 13.1 per game in 2024-25 and first in the league with 14.5 in 2023-24.
- Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25.

SEASON PROSPECTUS

- The Bearcats return five letterwinners from a season ago, including key contributor Reagan Jackson, who ranked third on the team in scoring last season at 9.2 points per game. Destiny Thomas, Alliance Ndiba, Delaney Snyder and Ramiyah Byrd are also back.
- Cincinnati added eight newcomers, highlighted by a six-player nationally recognized freshman class. Mya Perry and Mary Carden join as transfers.

ON THE SIDELINES

- Head coach Katrina Merriweather announced staff promotions and additions ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- Ashley Barlow, Abby Jump and Kabrina Merriweather each were elevated to associate coaches. They will continue to oversee their secondary responsibilities.
- Abby Owings was promoted to director of scouting and analytics/assistant coach while Michal Miller moved into the role of director of player development/assistant coach. Layah Neal was elevated to sport program associate entering her second season with the Bearcats.
- In July 2025, Symone Denham was named Cincinnati's assistant general manager, the first position of its kind. Denham played for Merriweather at Wright State from 2012-16.
- Former Bearcat standout Ana Owens joined Cincinnati's staff as director of operations in October. She played for UC from 2014 to 2018 and ranks in the top 10 in career games played, minutes played, 3-pointers made, free throw percentage and assists.

SISTERHOOD STARTS WITH STAFF

- Prior to returning to Cincinnati, Katrina Merriweather was the head coach for Memphis where a familiar coaching staff started to take shape. Katrina Merriweather hired her younger sister Kabrina to help lead the Tigers to a 38-23 record and a postseason appearance in the WNIT Sweet 16 in 2023.
- Prior to Memphis, Kabrina worked as the Director of Operations for New Mexico Lobos where she made the jump to assistant coach in the 2021-22 season. She was also a forward for Florida A&M and Georgia Southwestern State from 2011-15.
- Both Merriweathers have been on the sidelines together since 2021, and have continued that sisterhood bond in Clifton.

THE SISTERHOOD

- Cincinnati is one of only seven programs in the Power Four, and the only program in the Big 12, with an all-female coaching staff.
- Every year, Merriweather has had a former player on staff. At least one from every head coaching stop.
- Merriweather has had a staff member selected to the WBCA Thirty Under 30 List for eight straight years. Owings earned her second honor in 2025.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Cincinnati posted a program-record 3.729 team GPA last semester and earned WBCA Academic Honor Roll Special Mention for 2024-25.
- The Bearcats have produced 38 straight graduating seniors and 12 consecutive years of 100-percent senior graduation. Since 2000-01, 68 of 70 women's basketball student-athletes have earned their degrees.

HEAD COACH KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hire of former Bearcats' captain Katrina Merriweather as the 10th women's basketball head coach at the University of Cincinnati on March 25, 2023.

Merriweather quickly has become a rising star in the coaching profession, taking three programs to the postseason a total of six times, including a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. She has totaled 180 wins in nine seasons as bench boss.

In just her second season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued the program's upward trajectory, guiding the Bearcats to their first winning season since 2019-20 and surpassing the previous year's win total. UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20. The Bearcats also led the Big 12 and ranked among the nation's top five in made free throws per game.

Forward Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

Merriweather's impact was immediate, successfully navigating Cincinnati's transition from the American Athletic Conference to the Big 12 in her first season at the helm. The Bearcats saw a five-win improvement, posted their best non-conference winning percentage (.72.7%) in 15 years, and strung together a six-game win streak—their longest since 2019-20. That season also featured UC's first victory over an SEC opponent since 2004.

Merriweather once again proved her ability to build postseason contenders, leading Cincinnati to the 2024 WNIT—marking the program's 14th postseason appearance and first since 2019.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bearcats' Hall of Fame head coach Laurie Pirtle from 1997-01, Merriweather became the program's first women's basketball player to advance to four consecutive postseason tournaments. Additionally, she helped lead the program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win as a graduate assistant coach in 2001-02.

Merriweather and USA Basketball earned a silver medal podium finish at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in León, Mexico. She was elevated to her first bench coach assignment for the event after previously serving as a court coach for the 2021 USA Women's U19 National Team Trails.

Merriweather led Memphis to a 22-11 season in 2022-23, the program's first 20-win season in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16.

Merriweather took over a four-win Memphis team and immediately produced 16 wins in 2021-22 before the 22-win campaign this season in which the Tigers clinched the two seed in the 2022 AAC Championships, the program's highest-ever AAC regular season finish, and advanced to a postseason tournament for the first time since 2015-16.

In her two seasons at the helm, the Tigers compiled a 38-23 record and earned three All-Conference selections.

The search was led by Maggie McKinley, Deputy Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator, who worked with Cunningham to bring Merriweather back home.

Prior to her tenure at Memphis, Merriweather spent five seasons as the head coach at Wright State, where she took the Raiders to two NCAA Tournaments and was named Horizon League Coach of the Year three times. Merriweather led Wright State to the program's third appearance and first NCAA Tournament win with an upset over four-seed Arkansas in 2021.

In 2018-19, she guided the Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and its first-ever outright Horizon League regular season championship, securing the conference tournament title and reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.

While at the helm, Merriweather led the Raiders to a 113-47 (.706) record, finishing with the best winning percentage in program history. She was a part of all three of the program's Horizon League tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, twice as a head coach in 2019 and 2021 and once as an assistant in 2014. The Raiders also earned 16 All-Conference selections in her tenure.

Merriweather was an assistant under Mike Bradbury for six seasons at Wright State from 2010-16 before becoming head coach.

Prior to Wright State, she was an assistant at Purdue from 2003-06, and at UIC for the 2002-03 season.

With the Bearcats, Merriweather made 27 career starts, including 22 in her senior season, and played in 107 games. She helped lead the program to an 83-41 record in her four seasons.

"I'm beyond proud for Katrina," said Pirtle, who won 310 games over 21 seasons at Cincinnati. "She was a tremendous player in terms of how she handled herself, but most importantly she was a coach and leader on and off the floor. She constantly pulled our team together. This hire should come as no surprise. I speak for all of the UC basketball family when I say we are extremely proud of her and excited to see her come back to lead this program."

The Indianapolis native graduated from Cincinnati in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and earned a second bachelor in secondary education in 2002.
