NOTING THE HORNED FROGS

- TCU is in its fourth season under the direction of head coach Sonny Dykes in 2025. The 2022 National Coach of the Year led TCU to more wins in his first three seasons (27) than all but one head coach in program history (Dutch Meyer, 29, 1934-36).
- Dykes has also led programs at SMU (2018-21), Cal (2013-16), and Louisiana Tech (2010-12). In all four stops, Dykes has led the program to the postseason, making him one of just four active head coaches to take four different schools to a bowl game. The others are Butch Jones, Lane Kiffin, and Rich Rodriguez. He is also one of six active head coaches to have appeared in the CFP National Championship game, joining Kirby Smart, Dabo Swinney, Ryan Day, Marcus Freeman, and Kalen DeBoer.
- Directing the TCU offense for his third season as the starting quarterback is redshirt junior Josh Hoover. In his redshirt sophomore campaign, Hoover set TCU's single-season passing record with 3,949 yards on 313-of-471 passing with 27 touchdowns to 11 interceptions. He has thrown 67 touchdown passes in 30 career starts.
- Surrounding Hoover is a new cast of wide receivers as 76 combined starts and 5,464 career receiving yards across their college careers left with the departures of Jack Bech, Savion Williams, and JP Richardson to the NFL.
- Speaking of receivers, Eric McAlister was just the third FBS player in the last 30 years to have at least 500 receiving yards, seven touchdown catches and 25.0 yards per reception through the first six games of a season. The others were Washington State's Jason Hill (2004) and Georgia Tech's Dez White (1998).
- TCU's rushing attack was an offseason focus as the Horned Frogs rushed for just 113.9 yards per game last season, their lowest per game average since 1997 (110.2) and by far the lowest for a Dykes-coached team. Over his tenure as a head coach, Dykes' teams have averaged 158.5 yards per game on the ground.
- Defensively, the Horned Frogs are led by Bud Clark, who led all safeties in college football last season with a 90.1 coverage grade. After logging a career-high 68 tackles last season, Clark opted to return to TCU rather than head to the NFL, and his 15 career interceptions are tied for fourth-most in program history.
- The Horned Frogs are bowl eligible for the ninth time in 12 seasons as a Big 12 member.

NOTING THE GAME

- TCU closes out the regular season at home on Saturday when they host Cincinnati. The Frogs are aiming for a five-win or better home record for the first time since 2022 and just the third since 2017. TCU is 12-5 at home under Sonny Dykes including an 11-2 mark in day games.
- The Frogs are looking to record consecutive 8-win seasons for the first time in a decade, those coming in 2014 (12 wins) and 2015 (11 wins).
- Like the Baylor game, the matchup looks to feature plenty of fireworks as quarterbacks Brendan Sorsby (8.3) and Josh Hoover (8.1) rank No. 2 and No. 3, respectively, in the Big 12 for passing yards per attempt.
- The Bearcats also lead the country quarterback protection, allowing just 0.36 sacks per game. TCU has not gotten to the quarterback the past two games.

CINCINNATI, Ohio –Savion Williams ran for two first-half touchdowns and a strong defensive effort led TCU to a 20-13 win over Cincinnati on a cold and snowy Saturday night at Nippert Stadium.

TCU (8-4, 6-3) won its third straight game and fifth in the last six contests.

The Horned Frogs led 20-7 at the half and relied on their defense and punter Ethan Craw to secure the win. Craw placed four of his five punts inside the 20, including three inside the 6. He pinned Cincinnati at its own 3 with a minute to play and TCU holding a 20-13 lead. The Bearcats advanced to the TCU 40 before Bud Clark batted down a Hail Mary pass in the end zone on the final play.

Trailing 20-7, Cincinnati drove to the TCU 12 with 11:34 to play. However, the TCU defense stiffened with Channing Canada recording his first career interception in the end zone to halt the scoring threat.

Williams' pair of 2-yard scoring runs for the Horned Frogs gave him six rushing touchdowns in the last five games. He first reached the end zone after Brent Matiscik recovered a muffed punt following TCU's opening series. The Horned Frogs took advantage by driving 29 yards in seven plays for a quick 7-0 lead on Williams' carry. The series was keyed by a 19-yard completion from Josh Hoover to Jack Bech on a 3rd-and-14.

Kyle Lemmermann's 27-yard field goal on the third play of the second quarter extended the Horned Frogs' lead to 10-0. He later added a 35-yard make.

Immediately following a Cincinnati score to cut TCU's deficit to 10-7, the Horned Frogs answered with a 7-play, 65-yard scoring drive, keyed by a 40-yard completion from Hoover to Blake Nowell, to take a 17-7 lead on Williams' second scoring run of the game.

Head Coach SONNY DYKES

34-17 OVERALL // FOURTH YEAR

105-80 Overall // 15th Year

Sonny Dykes was introduced as TCU's head football coach on Nov. 30, 2021.

Entering the 2025 season, Dykes' 27 wins trail only two-time national champion Dutch Meyer (29, 1934-36) for the most by a TCU head coach in his first three seasons. During that same span, the Horned Frogs' 18 Big 12 wins tied for the conference lead. TCU has had six All-Americans, 52 All-Big 12 selections and six of the top seven crowds in program history during Dykes' tenure.

The Horned Frogs have won at least nine games three times since 2015 with Dykes on staff for all three occasions. He was an analyst on the 11-win 2017 team and head coach of the 13-victory College Football Playoff team in 2022 as well as the 9-4 squad in 2024.

Dykes won 10 National Coach of the Year awards in 2022, his first season leading the Horned Frogs. TCU became the first program from the state of Texas to make the College Football Playoff and first from the Big 12 Conference to reach the CFP National Championship. Picked to finish seventh in the Big 12, the Horned Frogs were No. 2 in the final Associated Press poll. TCU also became the first team to be in the CFP National Championship after starting the season unranked and just the third program since 1998 to play for a national title while beginning the season outside the top 25. TCU's six wins over ranked opponents, including a victory over No. 2 Michigan in the CFP Semifinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, tied for the national lead.

Dykes is only the third head coach in the CFP era to guide his team to the playoffs in his first season at the helm. The unanimous Big 12 Coach of the Year, Dykes became the first head football coach in TCU and Big 12 history to start 12-0 in his first season. He was just the fourth head coach nationally since 1996 to accomplish the feat.

TCU was the first Big 12 team to complete the regular season with a 12-0 record since 2009 and the first league member to go 9-0 in conference play since 2016. TCU's 13 wins in 2022 tied a program record.

Dykes is one of just four active FBS head coaches to take four different schools (Louisiana Tech, Cal, SMU, TCU) to a bowl game. The others are Butch Jones, Lane Kiffin and Rich Rodriguez.

TCU has had 11 players selected in the NFL Draft over the last two seasons, including eight in 2023 to lead the Big 12 and schools in the state of Texas, place fourth nationally and set a program record since the NFL went to its current seven-round format in 1994. Including free agents, Dykes has had 19 players sign NFL contracts in his three seasons.

Dykes arrived at TCU after serving the previous four seasons as head coach at SMU, where he completed one of the more remarkable turnarounds in college football. Behind an offense that consistently ranked among the nation's best, Dykes guided SMU to 19 weeks in the national top 25 and three consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the mid-1980s.

The son of legendary Texas Tech football coach Spike Dykes, the Big Spring, Texas native rebuilt SMU through his deep ties to the state of Texas, focus on recruiting in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex and utilization of the transfer portal.

Before becoming SMU's head coach, he was instrumental in the Horned Frogs posting an 11-3 record, reaching the Big 12 Championship Game and finishing with a No. 9 national ranking after a 39-37 victory over Stanford in the Alamo Bowl while serving as an analyst.

Dykes was 30-18 at SMU with a 25-10 record over his last three seasons. Included in that total were SMU's first consecutive victories over TCU since 1992-93. His .625 winning percentage ranked fourth in program history for head coaches of more than two seasons. The 2019 Mustangs went 10-3, their most wins since 1984, and earned their highest national ranking (14) since 1985.

Dykes was named a finalist for both the 2019 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award. He was also a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award.

In addition to setting numerous school records and ranking among the national leaders in most major offensive categories, Dykes also left his mark on the other side of the ball. In 2019, SMU led the FBS in sacks per game and ranked third in tackles for loss. SMU's 51 sacks and 111 TFLs were program records.

Dykes also served as head coach at Cal (2013-16) and Louisiana Tech (2010-12).

In 2011, Dykes was the Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year as the Bulldogs won the WAC Championship and earned a Poinsettia Bowl appearance against TCU.

While at Cal, Dykes took a team from one win in 2013 to an 8-5 record two years later and a win over Air Force at the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl in Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Cal's eight wins in 2015 marked the school's most since 2009. The Golden Bears also cracked the national rankings for the first time since 2010, climbing as high as No. 19.

Dykes developed quarterback Jared Goff into the No. 1 overall pick in the 2016 National Football League Draft.

Under Dykes, Cal's offense set a modern-era record for points scored and shattered all the program's offensive marks. Cal became the first college football team in history to have six players with 40 or more receptions and three 500-yard rushers in the same season.

Dykes went to Cal after spending three seasons as head coach at Louisiana Tech. In his final campaign in 2012, he directed an offense that led the nation in both scoring (51.5 points per game) and total offense (577.9 yards per game). The 51.5 points per game marked the fifth-best scoring average in history by an FBS team.

After inheriting a LA Tech team that was 4-8 the year before his arrival, it took Dykes just two seasons to lead the Bulldogs to the 2011 WAC title. It was the program's first league championship in a decade. He compiled a 22-15 overall record with the Bulldogs and won 16 of 17 regular-season games during one stretch.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Dykes worked as an assistant in the Pac-12, Big 12 and SEC under Mike Stoops (Arizona), Mike Leach (Texas Tech) and Hal Mumme (Kentucky).

Dykes received his bachelor's degree in history from Texas Tech in 1993 and was a member of the Red Raiders baseball team for two seasons.

He and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Ally and Charlie, and a son, Daniel.

DYKES IN 2017

After spending a highly successful 2017 season as an offensive analyst at TCU where he helped the Horned Frogs to an 11-3 record, a No. 9 overall ranking in the final AP poll, and an appearance in the Big 12 Championship game, Dykes went across the Metroplex when he was named head coach at SMU on Dec. 11, 2017, replacing the outgoing Chad Morris (Arkansas).

With the Mustangs set to appear in their first bowl game in five seasons, Dykes opted to lead the program nine days later in the DXL Frisco Bowl against his former team, Louisiana Tech.

TRADITIONS AT TCU

Whether it's throwing up a peace sign and curving your fingers, chanting along with Riff Ram, or just hanging out in Funky Town, TCU is home to a number of unique traditions and rivalries

» A PEACE SIGN, BUT FUNKIER

Cheerleader Chad Schrotel '82 helped our gesture of unity catch on with the crowds in 1980. Appropriately, it's like a peace sign with slightly curled fingers, symbolizing the horns of our tiny, mighty mascot, the horned frog.

» WON'T YOU TAKE ME TO FUNKY TOWN?

Since the 1980s, denizens of Fort Worth have leaned into calling their home Funky Town. The nickname stems from the popular 1980s song "Funkytown" by Lipps Inc. and the promotion of the city by the local soul radio station KKDA (K-104) as a place to "get down" and "get funky".

Town to keep me movin', keep me groovin' with some energy"*

Sounds like Fort Worth to us.

» THE FROG FOUNTAIN

Situated at the center of campus commons, one of the most popular landmarks on campus is Frog Fountain. The fountain features four lily pads that are positioned to be different heights that signifies the flow of knowledge from our seniors (represented by the tallest lily pad) all the way to our first-years (the shortest lily pad).

» RAISE HELL, PRAISE DALE!

What was, during our membership in the league, the oldest cheer in the Southwest conference, Riff Ram is over 100 years old and frequently chanted by students and fans on game day at TCU.

Riff, Ram, Bah Zoo

Lickety, Lickety, Zoo, Zoo

Who, Wah, Wah, Who

Give 'em Hell, TCU!

Riff Ram could have faded away had it not been for the efforts of alumni cheerleaders to revive the yell. Dale Young '66 (MA '68), the former director of student teaching and career services for the College of Education who retired in 2013, was instrumental in reviving the cheer.

"For awhile, cheerleaders didn't even do it, they thought it was beneath their dignity," according to Young, who cheered for TCU in the 1960s and later served as the squad adviser. "But back in 1975, they let alumni cheerleaders come back, and we kept it alive."

» THE FROG HORN

Every home game, every time the Horned Frogs scored a touchdown, there it is.

Hhwaaaaaaaaaaah!

The Frog Horn - a gift from Burlington Northern Railroad - was unveiled in 1994 and signals to everyone in the Metroplex that the Horned Frogs just put six on the board.

THE FUTURE

TCU's 2025 recruiting class was No. 1 in the Big 12 by 247Sports.com for the first time in program history. Boasting six four-star and 25 three-star recruits, the class figures to be a high-impact group for years to come.

ALL IN

With the settlement of the House v. NCAA class-action lawsuit, TCU has announced that it will fully participate at the maximum level in the permissible revenue sharing plan with its student-athletes.

THE GIFT

In August 2024, Sonny Dykes and his wife Kate made a $1 million donation to TCU Athletics which was split between honoring former TCU offensive lineman Jamal Powell with his name in the weight room in the new Mike and Brenda Harrison Football Performance Center as well as recognizing Shirley Enis, late wife of TCU Trustee Hunter Enis, with an endowment in her name to support women's athletics at TCU.

Powell was a three-year letterman (2000-02) for the Horned Frogs, earning First-Team All-Conference USA honors his senior year. He then began a collegiate coaching career with Dykes hiring Powell as his offensive line coach at SMU in 2018. They worked together for three years until Powell's passing in April 2021 at the age of 39.

HONORING HILL COUNTRY

Led by Kate Dykes, TCU's players and head coach Sonny Dykes wore green ribbons in tribute to those who lost their lives in the July 4 Hill Country floods at Big 12 Media Days this summer.

A number of Texas college football programs, including TCU, followed up by creating a shared helmet sticker to be worn during the opening weeks of the 2025 season.

MAKING THE ROUNDS

By joining the Big 12 in 2012, TCU played in its fifth league in an 18-year span. Below is a look at TCU's conference history:

Years	Conference
1909-22	Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association
1923-95	Southwest Conference
1996-00	Western Athletic Conference
2001-04	Conference USA
2005-11	Mountain West Conference
2012-25	Big 12 Conference

TCU accepted an invitation to the Big East in October 2010, but never officially became a member of the conference before joining the Big 12.

BIG PLAY GUY

For players with at least 20 catches, Eric McAlister led the nation last year with 92.3 percent (36-of-39) of his receptions resulting in a first down.

McAlister was fourth in the nation in yards per catch at 21.8 which also ranks second in TCU history for a player with at least 20 receptions (Quentin Johnston, 22.1, 2020).

He is the only FBS player to record at least 750 receiving yards and average at least 18.0 yards per reception in each of the last two seasons. He is looking to become the first FBS player to reach those marks in three straight seasons since Oklahoma State's James Washington (2015-17).

THE BIG 12'S WINNINGEST PROGRAM

Since the 2022 season - Sonny Dykes' first as the Horned Frogs' head man - no one in the Big 12 has won more overall games than TCU. Totals for teams who joined the Big 12 since 2022 are included in their conference win totals for the league they were in (or were not: BYU) at that time.

STEPPING UP

In defensive coordinator Andy Avalos' first season with the Frogs (2023), TCU enjoyed a defensive revival of sorts, allowing 62.7 fewer yards in 2024 than in 2023. It represented the 18th largest margin of improvement in the country last season and second largest improvement among Big 12 schools (BYU).

It was also the first time since 2020 that TCU posted a top-50 defensive ranking. TCU has not posted consecutive seasons holding opponents under 400 yards per game since the 2019-20 seasons.

Year	Yards Per Game Allowed (Rank)
2020	350.9 (30)
2021	461.8 (119)
2022	408.2 (95)
2023	408.3 (103)
2024	345.6 (45)
2025	375.3 (70)

THE TURNOVER STORY

In the Sonny Dykes era, TCU is 27-4 when ahead or even in turnover margin and 7-13 when on the negative side.

TCU is also 7-0 when generating three or more turnovers under Dykes, those games being wins over North Carolina, Colorado, and Baylor in 2025, Oklahoma State and Cincinnati in 2024, and Iowa State (2022) and the 2022 College Football Playoff victory against Michigan.

Since joining the Big 12, TCU is 86-24 when ahead (54-11) or even (32-13) in turnover margin and 22-44 when on the negative side.

FAMILIAR FACES IN AND OUT

An theme for TCU in 2025 will be looking for replacing production lost at the wide receiver position as 76 combined starts left with the departures of Savion Williams (41), JP Richardson (23), and Jack Bech (12) to the NFL.

Elsewhere, there's plenty of room for optimism, particularly in the defensive backfield as TCU returns 51 combined starts, led by safety Bud Clark's 33.

ROAD WARRIORS

Since 2022, only seven schools in the country have won more games on the road than TCU's 14 victories.

2. Oregon	17

SMU'S NO GOOD VERY BAD DAY

Against the Ponies, in a span of 3:15 of game time in the fourth quarter, Eric McAlister posted touchdowns of 70 yards and 44 yards, both a result of breakaway runs from would-be tacklers.

As part of his 254-yard day - the second-most in a single game in school history - McAlister's notes included: more yards after catch (145) than all but 20 full-game performances to that point in the season; the most by an FBS receiver in a game to that point in the season; the 7th Big 12 player all-time to have at least 250 receiving yards and three touchdowns in a game

SPREADING AROUND THE ROCK

TCU - regardless of quarterback - has been kind with the ball, getting the rock to six different receivers in 47 consecutive games, between the game at Kansas on Nov. 20, 2021 and the Baylor game in 2025. The streak was snapped against Baylor as only five receivers caught a pass in the victory.

THE BALL HAWK

Senior safety Bud Clark has recorded at least three interceptions in four seasons, putting him in rare air - not just at TCU, but among the all-time greats of college football.

Clark is the 37th player in the last 50 years to reach those marks, and the first since Dominick Sanders (Georgia) and Skai Moore (South Carolina) did so to cap their careers in 2017.

Other names in that rare group include Kevin Byard (Middle Tennessee), Johnthan Banks (Mississippi State), and Eric Weddle (Utah).

Clark's 15 career interceptions are tied for the fourth-most in program history.

TCU CAREER INTERCEPTION LEADERS

Player	Career Interceptions
1. Ronald Fraley, 1951-53	18
2. Davey O'Brien, 1936-38	16
Jimmy Lawrence, 1933-35	16
4. Bud Clark, 2020-Pres.	15

DYNAMIC DUO

Against Iowa State, Eric McAlister and Jordan Dwyer hit a mark they'd been flirting with all season long, becoming the first pair of TCU receivers to tally double-digit receptions in the same game in nearly 25 years.

When each Frog snagged 11 passes from Josh Hoover, they became the first TCU duo since Adrian Madise and Latarence Dunbar each caught 10 passes at East Carolina on October 30, 2001.

DYNAMIC DUO PART DEUX

Opposite the receivers, TCU's linebacking duo of Kaleb Elarms-Orr and Namdi Obiazor have each put together three-game streaks of double-digit tackle totals this season.

Against Colorado (10), Kansas State (11), and Baylor (11), Obiazor tallied 32 total tackles while Elarms-Orr had a three-game run that included the second-most total tackles over a three-game span since at least 2005 by a Horned Frog linebacker - Baylor, West Virginia, and Iowa State.

Elarms-Orr's 44 tackles trailed only Travin Howard's 45 tackles (15-11-19) across Kansas, West Virginia, and Texas Tech in 2016. Howard racked up double-digit tackles that season in six consecutive games.

There have been just seven TCU linebackers since 2005 to put together three-game spans of double-digit tackles, adding in Daryl Washington (2009), Garrett Wallow (2019-20), Paul Dawson (2013-14), and Ty Summers (2016).

THE NATION'S MOST COMPLETE LB

is a Horned Frog. LB Kaleb Elarms-Orr ranks No. 9 nationally in tackles per game (10.36) while leading the Big 12 in that category - ahead of No. 2, Kansas State's Baron Hopson (9.45) who ranks No. 13 nationally.

Elarms-Orr's value extends to all areas of the defense as he is one of only three Power Four linebackers to post an 85-plus grade as a run defender (89.4) and tackler (88.2) with a 70-plus grade in coverage (72.0) - Sonny Styles (Ohio State) and Jake Golday (Cincinnati) are the others.

Through 11 weeks, his 70.5 snaps per game is the highest usage rate in the country among all linebackers.

The CARTER

AMON G. CARTER STADIUM
Capacity: 46,000

The 2012 season opener against Grambling State marked the re-opening of TCU's Amon G. Carter Stadium after a $164 million rebuild to the site completely funded through donor support.

On Aug. 16, 2010, TCU announced an initial $105 million renovation of the west side and north end zone of Amon G. Carter Stadium to better enhance the football fan experience, upgrade amenities and transform the historic Fort Worth icon into the "Camden Yards" of collegiate football stadiums. With the addition of the east side renovation one year later, the total cost of the project rose to $164 million.

Construction began immediately following TCU's final 2010 home game versus San Diego State on Nov. 13, 2010. The historic south tower structure was first removed prior to the implosion of the iconic west side upper deck of the stadium during the morning of Dec. 5, 2010. Following construction, Amon G. Carter Stadium's seating capacity stood at 45,000.

TCU began examining the possibility of renovating its football stadium in 2006 when Luther King, chairman of TCU's Board of Trustees, appointed Clarence Scharbauer, vice chair of the board, to lead a stadium renovation committee. The committee's invaluable work, along with that of TCU administrators, led to a stadium renovation that lifted the historical icon to a level of national visibility on par with the University's championship-winning football team.

It was the first major renovation to Amon G. Carter Stadium, built in 1930, since the upper deck was added in 1956.

2025 RULE CHANGES

Each offseason, college football's rules and regulations are reviewed. The below are three changes that will be in place for the 2025 season.

Feigning Injuries

To combat the practice of feigning injuries, the rules committee passed a rule that if a player presents as injured after the ball is spotted by officials, that team will be charged a Team Timeout or a delay penalty if all timeouts have been used. That player must remain out of the game for at least one down, even if that team is granted a team timeout and may not return to the game until receiving approval of professional medical personnel designated by their institution.

Timeouts in Extra Periods

Currently, each team is permitted a team timeout in each extra period. To keep the game moving, now each team shall be allowed one timeout for the first extra period and one timeout for the second extra period. After the first two overtime periods, each team will be allowed only one timeout from the beginning of the third extra period until the game has ended. In addition, media timeouts will only be permitted after the first and second extra periods.

"T" Signal on Kicks

Any waving signal by any player of a return team is considered an invalid signal. The "T" signal given by a returner during any kick will now also be considered an invalid signal and will deprive the receiving team of the opportunity to advance the ball. This signal evolved as a signal to alert teammates that a kick returner was not going to return the kick. Now, after a "T" signal on kicks, there will be no return.

Team Pre-Snap Movement

Any defensive team player within one yard of the line of scrimmage (stationary or not) may not make quick and abrupt or exaggerated actions that simulate action at the snap and are not part of normal defensive player movement in an obvious attempt to make the offense foul. This will continue as a point of emphasis in the game. The offense will be held to the same standard as any pre-snap movement that simulates action at the snap is a foul on the offense for a false start.

Disconcerting Signals

No player shall use words or signals that disconcert opponents when they are preparing to put the ball in play. No player may call defensive signals that simulate the sound or cadence of, or otherwise interfere with, offensive starting signals. New for 2025, the terms "move" and "stem" are reserved for defensive cadence and may not be used by the offense. The offense may use a "clap" as a starting signal and this signal may not be used by the defense.

Human Performance CENTER

TCU'S HUMAN PERFORMANCE CENTER

As Coach Dutch Meyer said...

Then fight'em on the ice!

Inside the Harrison Performance Center, TCU football players have access to the latest in weight room technology engineered for efficiency and intensity. Outside, the Horned Frog Fuel Station fuels performance while the Lunar iDXA machine and DEXA scanners provide data-backed performance insights. The center also features an indoor track and heated yoga studio.

The Simpson Family Restoration Center is where the Horned Frogs begin their post-practice recovery at the hydrotherapy "lazy river" which is kept between 45 and 55 degrees for a walking lap path immediately off the practice field. The car wash preps each player after their practice equipment has been removed.

Fitting to Coach Meyer's famous rallying cry, the restoration center also includes a recovery room that houses hydro massage pods, a traditional steam sauna, infrared therapy beds, and the only Snow Room (right) in north America. Each day, the room fills with snow to provide the most unique contrast therapy experience anywhere in collegiate or professional sports.

It must be seen and experienced to be believed.

Game RECAPS

GAME 1

SCORE	1	2	3	4	OT	FINAL
TCU	7	13	21	7	-	48
North Carolina	7	0	7	0	-	14

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – North Carolina (0-1) tallied 83 yards on their first offensive drive of the game to take a 7-0 lead, and then TCU (1-0) went on to dominate the remaining 56 minutes of play, outgaining the Tar Heels 542 to 222 in front of a sell-out crowd and prime time national audience on ESPN for a 48-14 victory.

TCU quarterback Josh Hoover led the way for the Horned Frogs passing attack, going 27-36 for 284 yards and a pair of passing touchdowns scores. But, after an offseason of questions about TCU's ground game, it was the play of the offensive line and running backs that stole the show away from the head coach occupying the opposing sideline.

Kevorian Barnes, in his first start as a Frog, gained 113 yards on the ground, including a 75-yard touchdown rush, as part of a 35-carry, 258-yard day on the ground for TCU. TCU averaged 7.4 yards per carry.

Defensively, the Frogs made a statement of their own by adding two defensive touchdowns by Bud Clark (interception return) and Devean Deal (fumble return). Following their opening drive, North Carolina managed just 15 yards on 17 plays for the remainder of the half as TCU outgained the hosts 247-103 in the first half.

After both teams exchanged punts on the subsequent possessions, Hoover found Dwyer for a 27-yard touchdown to put TCU on the board for the first time in 2025 with 4:08 remaining in the first quarter.

It was all Frogs from there.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS – Quarterback Josh Hoover had another gem of a performance, posting a career-high passer rating of 231.5 with four touchdowns, to lead TCU to a 42-21 victory over Abilene Christian on Saturday in front of a sold-out crowd at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Five different TCU players found the end zone, with Ed Small, Jordan Dwyer, Chase Curtis, Trent Battle and Jon Denman.

Defensively, Namdi Obiazor led the Frogs with nine tackles and a sack. TCU kept ACU (1-2) off the board in the first half, taking a 28-0 lead into the break.

TCU started the game strong, marching right down the field to take a 7-0 lead. The Frogs quickly forced an ACU punt and then found the end zone shortly after again to open up a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

The home team didn't waste much time in the second quarter, finding the end zone less than two minutes in to continue the commanding start. For the second time of the game, freshman wideout Small caught a touchdown pass from Hoover and the Frogs extend their lead to 28-0 headed into the locker room.

In the third, TCU would add another score and Abilene Christian would get on the board for the first time of the evening. Denman found the end zone for the first time in his career on the first play of the fourth to extend the lead.

ACU would add two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to cement the final score.

FORT WORTH – In the 104th rendition of the Battle for the Iron Skillet on Saturday afternoon, the TCU offense exploded for over 500 yards, and the Horned Frogs pulled away from SMU late for a 35-24 victory in front of a record student crowd at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Trailing in the fourth quarter, the Horned Frogs rattled off two unanswered touchdowns, both to McAlister, to take a double-digit victory over SMU (2-2).

After forcing a Mustang three and out to open the game, the TCU offense marched down the field and found the end zone thanks to an improvised play by Hoover on third and long.

SMU would respond with a field goal, but the Frog offense was able to march right down the field again to take an early 14-3 lead. The Mustangs did not let up however, finding the end zone about halfway through the second to make the score 14-10 going into the locker room.

Joseph Manjack IV found the end zone for the first time in his TCU career early in the third to put the Horned Frogs back up double digits at 21-10.

The Mustangs continued to respond, scoring two touchdowns to claim a 24-21 lead with 10:30 remaining in the fourth quarter.

To close out the victory for the Horned Frogs, Jamel Johnson picked off SMU twice in the final five minutes to give TCU the Iron Skillet once again.

TEMPE, Ariz. – No. 24 TCU dropped a close contest in its Big 12 opener on the road to Arizona State, 27-24, on Friday night at Mountain America Stadium.

The Horned Frogs were able to take an early 14-0 lead thanks to strong efforts by Battle and Payne to reach across the goal line. Midway through the second quarter, TCU would extend its lead to three possessions thanks to a field goal by Nate McCashland.

Arizona State found a response for the first time of the night by way of a 57-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 10. The Sun Devils would continue to fight back, finding the end zone again to cut the lead to three heading into the locker room.

To begin the second half, the Frogs drove the ball into the red zone before a bobbled pass landed in the hands of a Sun Devil defender. In the ensuing possession, ASU drove down the field before settling for a field goal to tie the game halfway through the third quarter. It didn't take long for TCU to regain the lead, marching downfield in a drive that lasted just under three minutes to go in front 24-17.

Facing a fourth down at the goal line inside two minutes remaining, Arizona State found the end zone to even the score. On the ensuing TCU possession, the Sun Devils strip sacked Hoover to get the ball back in the red zone. Arizona State would proceed to nail a 23-yard field goal to take the lead with just 1:14 left in the game and then earn an interception two plays later to seal the game.

FORT WORTH — Despite an early deficit, TCU battled back and pulled away late to claim a 35-21 victory over Colorado on Saturday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Colorado (2-4) opened up a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, but the Frogs were able to generate a response to close the first half on a high note. The first touchdown came with 2:38 remaining in the second quarter as Hoover scored on a quarterback sneak to cut the lead to one score.

Following an interception by Clark, Hoover would find Eric McAlister on a fade route in the end zone to tie the game with just over 90 seconds remaining until halftime.

The Buffaloes were able to generate a drive to close the half, but Obiazor picked CU off on a deflected pass at the goal line to stop any potential score by the visiting team.

The two defenses shut down the offenses in the third quarter, but within the first minute of the fourth Hoover found Lafayette Kaiuway in the end zone on fourth down to give the Frogs a seven-point lead.

After a penalty forced a TCU punt, the Colorado returner muffed the punt and TCU recovered to give the offense an opportunity deep in Buffaloes territory. The offense took advantage, with Hoover finding Manjack for a score to give the Frogs a 28-21 lead.

Facing a fourth down with under 30 seconds remaining in the game, Hoover found a wide-open McAllister to cement a double-digit victory for TCU.

FORT WORTH — Baylor and the elements were not able to hold back TCU on Saturday. The Frogs seized control of the game in the second quarter, and then held off Baylor despite three lightning delays in the fourth quarter. TCU's defense was spectacular, holding the nation's best passing offense to below a 50-percent completion rate.

Baylor was able to take an early lead 7-0. The Frogs would not sit idly by, marching down the field to score. Then the rain started. During and after a downpour, TCU outscored BU 14-3 the remainder of the half to take a 21-10 lead into the intermission. The rain subsided for a short period of time, and TCU continued its momentum early in the second half by marching right down the field on its first possession.

As is typical in a rivalry game, Baylor scored a touchdown and field goal to give the Frogs some game pressure in the fourth quarter. TCU responded, this time by breaking off a long touchdown run just three plays into the drive to regain a two-score lead.

The fourth quarter saw three different rain delays. After returning to play, Barnes ripped off a touchdown run to give the Frogs a 21-point lead.

Trailing, Baylor rallied to score off a TCU fumble and their quick strike offense made it a one-score game with time winding down. The comeback attempt failed as Namdi Obiazor intercepted Robertson to close out the contest.

GAME NOTES

- TCU snapped a three-game scoreless first quarter streak that dated back to the Arizona State game.
- TCU's second touchdown drive (to go up 17-7) took 5:38 off the clock in the second quarter, the longest touchdown drive by time this season.
- With the win, TCU has won their 33rd game overall and 21st conference game since 2022, both the most in the Big 12.
- Trent Battle led the Frogs in rushing for the second week in a row
- Both games including a rush of 40+ yards (65-yard touchdown last week vs. Baylor)
- The 46-yard rush before halftime was Battle's fifth explosive rush of the season (15+ yards), the most on the team.
- Kaleb Elarms-Orr tallied 15+ tackles for the second consecutive game, the first Horned Frog to do so since at least 1995 (records do not go back further)
- Nate McCashland converted a 35-yard field goal on the game's opening drive, the longest made field goal of the redshirt freshman's young career.
- It was also the first made field goal – and just second attempt – in the past four games for TCU
- Later in the game, he connected on a 41-yard field goal to eclipse his previously set career long
- Eric McAlister eclipsed 100 yards receiving for the third time this season and for the eighth time in his career

FORT WORTH — TCU had opportunities to take control of the game but faltered at home in a 20-17 loss to Iowa State on Saturday. The Horned Frogs outgained Iowa State 432-272 in total offense, including a 208-yard advantage in the passing game, but a 79-yard punt return touchdown by the Cyclones in the first quarter proved to be the difference.

The Frogs struggled to gain momentum early, and thanks to two timely interceptions Iowa State was able to take a 6-0 lead in a slugfest of a game early.

Thanks to a key fourth-down conversion near midfield, Hoover was able to lead the TCU offense down the field and find Dwyer in the end zone for the home teams first touchdown of the day.

Iowa State was driving with a chance to regain the lead, but Bud Clark's second interception of the game halted the drive.

The Frogs took advantage of the interception, marching down the field and scoring a touchdown early in the fourth to take a 17-6 lead.

Iowa State would not go away quietly by answering quickly to cut it back down to one possession with just over eight minutes remaining.

Needing a game-changing play, the Cyclones found it by way of a punt returned for a touchdown to regain the lead and overcome an 11-point TCU lead with just over six minutes remaining in the game.

PROVO, Utah – TCU was never able to generate much life in a 44-13 loss to 12th-ranked BYU in front of an over-capacity crowd in Provo.

Josh Hoover went 10-23 for 183 yards passing. His top target, Eric McAlister, had 107 yards on four receptions. Defensively, the Frogs (6-4, 3-4 Big 12) were not able to put up much of a fight against a determined BYU offense. The BYU (9-1, 6-1 Big 12) offense put up 447 yards of total offense, 296 through the air and 151 on the ground, and scored on their first seven possessions of the game.

In addition, the Cougars were able to keep the ball out of the TCU's hands, controlling the time of possession battle by over 12 minutes.

TCU's defense started uncharacteristically slow, allowing the Cougars to take a 17-0 first half lead to get the home crowd even more energy.

The game didn't get much better from there, as TCU would get on the board with a field goal but BYU marched right back down the field to extend their commanding lead.

TCU would finally find the end zone late in the second quarter, but the defense once again did not provide much resistance to the BYU offense and allowed the Cougars to take a 27-10 lead headed into halftime.

The Frogs generated some life by way of an opening drive field goal in the second half, but the first half issues would continue to repeat themselves to allow BYU to put it out of reach.

- BYU's points on the opening drive were the first opening-drive-points TCU has allowed since the season opener at North Carolina.
- TCU failed to score in the first quarter for the fifth time in seven Big 12 games this season (West Virginia and Arizona State, the exceptions).
- BYU scored 27 first-half points, the most in the series since No. 15 BYU scored 31 here in Provo in 1996.

- TCU did not record a sack for the first time this season and for the first time since the SMU game last season – a span of 18 games.
- The loss extends a four-game losing streak to ranked opponents, dating back to the national championship game vs. No. 1 Georgia at the end of the 2022-23 season.
- Eric McAlister finished the game with 941 yards on the season, good for ninth-most in a season in school history

#23 Houston	0	7	7	0	-	14

HOUSTON – TCU overcame adversity on the road to post a gritty 17-14 victory over 23rd-ranked Houston. The win marked TCU's first over a ranked opponent since it defeated No. 2 Michigan in the 2022 College Football Playoff Semifinal.

The Frogs stormed out of the gates in the Space City, outgaining the Cougars by 128 yards to take a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The 14 tied the second-most points by TCU in the opening stanza this season.

Three untimely turnovers halted the Horned Frogs' attempts at opening up the score even more, and TCU entered the half with a 14-7 lead.

With TCU threatening once again in the third quarter, the Frogs turned the ball over for the fourth time of the game to continue to keep Houston alive in the game. For the second time of the afternoon, the Cougars made TCU pay and marched downfield for a score to tie the game with just over five minutes left in the third quarter.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Jordan Dwyer delivered an electric 53-yard punt return to put the Frogs in field goal range. TCU went up 17-14 with 11-minutes and change remaining in the game. The Nate McCashland field goal ended up being a game winner, the first of the sophomore's career.

With the game on the line, the Frogs defense would bend but not break on the Cougars final possession, and a missed UH field goal secured the victory for TCU.
