KEY STORYLINES

AMERICAN AT CINCINNATI

• American begins the season on the road at Cincinnati out of the Big 12, matching up with the Bearcats for the only time since 1991.
• The Eagles are coming off a 16-16 season but return four starters, every non-graduated scholarship player, and are just two seasons removed from a 22-13 campaign in 2024-25 which saw them win the fourth Patriot League Championship in program history.
• Cincinnati went 18-15 last year with a 9-9 mark in the Big 12, falling to UCF in the second round of the Big 12 Tournament. The Eagles will play at UCF this season as well, heading to Orlando on Dec. 6.
• American will face two ACC opponents in its non-conference schedule, also heading to Virginia for a second straight year on Dec. 22.

LAST TIME OUT

• The Eagles played an exhibition contest against Howard on Oct. 25, falling 86-75. Leading the way was sophomore Madden Collins with 22 points, while Wyatt Nausadis added 15 with five three-pointers, and Julen Iturbe notched a double-double of 12 points and 11 boards.

PICKED TO WIN IT

• Expectations are high for American entering 2026-27, with the Eagles selected first in the Patriot League preseason poll.
• AU received every available first-place vote and 81 points from the league's head coaches and sports information directors. Defending champion Lehigh received the only other first-place vote (from AU) and was picked second with 72 points.
• Senior Greg Jones was named Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, while Jones and sophomore Madden Collins were both selected to the five-player Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
• American was the only Patriot League program with two players named to the preseason all-league team.

RUN IT BACK

• Continuity will be a theme for American in 2026-27, as the Eagles return nearly their entire roster from a team that went 16-16 overall and 9-9 in Patriot League play last season.
• AU returns its top three scorers in sophomore Madden Collins (13.4 ppg), senior Greg Jones (12.5), and junior Julen Iturbe (10.5).
• Four other returners averaged at least five points per game last season: Matt Mayock (8.5), Wyatt Nausadis (7.8), Carson McDonald (7.3 in four games), and Kade Sebastian (5.7).
• Jones, Iturbe and Mayock combined for 94 starts last season, while Sebastian made 16 starts as a freshman.
• The Eagles' only loss to the starting lineup was Geoff Sprouse (9.2 ppg), who finished his career ranked fifth all-time in program history with 218 three-point field goals.
• Head coach Duane Simpkins also has his entire coaching staff back for a fourth consecutive season, giving the Eagles unusual continuity on both the roster and the bench.

SCOUTING CINCINNATI

• Cincinnati enters the 2026-27 season under first-year head coach Jerrod Calhoun, who spent the previous two seasons at Utah State. Calhoun went 55-15 with the Aggies and led the program to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances.
• The Bearcats feature an almost entirely new roster, welcoming 14 newcomers in the offseason. Fifth-year guard Grant Darbyshire is Cincinnati's lone returner from 2025-26, leaving the Bearcats with no returning points from last season.
• Despite the turnover, Cincinnati will have plenty of experience with three fifth-year players and six seniors. The Bearcats were picked to finish tied for eighth in the 16-team Big 12 preseason poll.
• Senior guard Tylen Riley has impressed in exhibition play, scoring 23 points in a 79-68 win over Ohio State before recording 31 points and 13 assists against Illinois.
• Cincinnati added several proven transfers, including Bowling Green's Javontae Campbell, the reigning MAC Defensive Player of the Year, and former Towson forward Tyler Tejada, who averaged 17.7 points and 5.5 rebounds last season after earning CAA Player of the Year honors in 2024-25.

SERIES HISTORY

• American and Cincinnati are meeting for just the second time in program history.
• The Bearcats earned a narrow win in the first meeting, 72-69 at the Delta Bearcat Classic on Nov. 23, 1991.

GREG GETS IT DONE

• For the second year in a row, Greg Jones was selected by the PL head coaches as the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.
• Jones enters his senior season as a two-time Patriot League All-Defensive Team selection.
• The Alexandria, Va., native earned Third Team All-Patriot League honors last season after averaging 12.5 points, 4.8 rebounds, and 2.0 assists per game. He helped the Eagles rank second in the Patriot League in scoring defense at 71.3 points per game.

MADDEN MODE

• Madden Collins made an immediate impact as a freshman, leading American with 13.4 points per game while earning Third Team All-Patriot League and Patriot League All-Rookie Team honors.
• The 6-foot-6 guard shot 50.8 percent from the field, connecting on 165 of his 325 attempts.
• Collins did most of his damage inside the arc, shooting 144-of-232 (62.1 percent) on two-point field goals while making 21 three-pointers.
• He also averaged 4.8 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 1.3 steals per game during his debut season.
• Collins enters his sophomore campaign as one of five players selected to the Preseason All-Patriot League Team, joining teammate Greg Jones. American is the only program with two players on the preseason team.

CLOSE CALLS

• American's 16-16 record in 2025-26 included no shortage of games that could have gone either way.
• The Eagles played six games decided by one possession and finished 1-5 in those contests.
• AU lost back-to-back one-possession games to Boston University to close out the season, falling 68-65 in the final regular season contest and 75-73 in the PL quarterfinals on a step-back jumper from Chance Gladden with three seconds left.
• Turning some of those narrow defeats around will be one key to meeting the lofty expectations surrounding the Eagles in 2026-27.

LET IT FLY

• The three-point shot has become a major part of American's identity under fourth-year head coach Duane Simpkins.
• In Simpkins' first season, the Eagles set a program record with 279 made three-pointers.
• One year later, AU broke its own record, knocking down 299 threes during its 2024-25 Patriot League championship season.
• The Eagles continued firing away in 2025-26, averaging a program-record 9.0 made three-pointers per game.
• That offense helped American average 74.6 points per game last season, its highest scoring average in 30 years.

A CENTURY OF HOOPS

• The 2026-27 season marks 100 years of American University men's basketball, with the program dating back to 1926.
• This year's team enters the centennial season two years removed from capturing the 2025 Patriot League Championship and making the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014.
• That championship was the fourth Patriot League Tournament title in program history, joining the Eagles' titles in 2008, 2009 and 2014. American has made four NCAA Tournament appearances as a member of the Patriot League.
• The Eagles will celebrate the program's history throughout the centennial season, with the 100 Years mark incorporated into the team's 2026-27 identity.

BACK WHERE HE BELONGS

• Junior Julen Iturbe returns to his natural position at power forward this season after spending significant time at center for the Eagles in 2025-26.
• Despite playing out of position, Iturbe started all 32 games and averaged 10.5 points and a team-best 4.9 rebounds per game.
• He also developed into one of AU's top perimeter threats, finishing second on the team with 44 made three-pointers while shooting 35.2 percent from behind the arc.
• Iturbe scored a career-high 26 points at Army, knocking down three of his four three-point attempts.

WELCOME BACK, ERIC

• Junior forward Eric Michaels returns to the court in 2026-27 after missing his entire sophomore season due to injury.
• The 6-foot-9, 240-pound Michaels appeared in 29 games as a freshman during American's 2024-25 Patriot League championship season.
• He shot 49.4 percent from the field as a freshman, ranking third on the team, and averaged 2.6 rebounds per game.
• Michaels showed his potential with a season-high 13 points on 6-of-8 shooting against Lehigh and narrowly missed a double-double with nine points and 10 rebounds against Puerto Rico-Bayamon.
• His return gives AU another experienced option in the frontcourt and allows Iturbe to spend more time at the four.

HEAD COACH DUANE SIMPKINS

» Nationally recognized coach and legendary DMV basketball star Duane Simpkins will enter his fourth season as head coach of the American University men's basketball team in 2026-27.

» In just his second year, Simpkins led the Eagles to a historic season, winning the 2024-25 Patriot League Championship and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. American finished 22-13 overall and 13-5 in the Patriot League, matching the program's all-time record for league wins in a season. The championship was clinched on the Eagles' home floor at Bender Arena in front of a packed house, capping off a season in which AU led the Patriot League in home attendance for the first time in over a decade.

» The 2024-25 campaign also saw the Eagles break their own program record for made three-pointers with 299 on the season. Under Simpkins' leadership, the team embraced an up-tempo, modern style of play and re-energized the fan base with its high-effort, high-character identity.

» Individually, Simpkins earned national recognition, landing on the watchlists for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award, the Ben Jobe Award, and the ABIS Mid-Major Coaches Watchlist. He coached two-time All-Patriot League First Teamer Matt Rogers for his final season, one in which Rogers earned Patriot League Tournament MVP honors. Also earning All-PL recognition in Simpkins' second season was Elijah Stephens (All-PL Third Team) and Greg Jones (All-PL Defensive Team).

» One year later, the Eagles were in the mix once again as the fifth-seeded team in the Patriot League after going 16-16 overall and 9-9 in conference play. American's scoring average of 74.6 points per game in 2025-26 was its most in 30 years, while the Eagles' 9.0 three-pointers made per game were a program record. Jones earned All-Defensive Team honors for a second year in a row, also being selected to the All-PL Third Team along with freshman standout Madden Collins, who was named to the All-Rookie Team. For the second year in a row, Simpkins was named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award.

» In his first season at the helm, Simpkins guided AU to a 16-16 record and a tie for second place in the Patriot League, despite multiple key injuries in the second half of the year. The team set a new program record with 279 three-pointers that season and earned a signature win at Colgate to close the regular season, snapping one of the nation's longest winning streaks.

» Over his first three seasons, Simpkins has coached multiple All-Patriot League selections including Matt Rogers, Elijah Stephens, Greg Jones, Matt Mayock, and Madden Collins, and has continued to emphasize academic success. The team finished with a 3.19 GPA in his first season, improved it to 3.26 in his second, and upped it again to a 3.4 GPA in 2026. The Eagles earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award in all three seasons, with nine players earning Patriot League Academic Honor Roll distinctions in his first two seasons, and a program-record 13 getting the honor in 2025-26. Rogers was named to the Academic All-Patriot League Team in 2024, grad student Lincoln Ball earned the honor in 2025, and Julen Iturbe was named Academic All-PL in 2026.

» Simpkins came to American after eight seasons on the staff at George Mason. During his time in Fairfax, Simpkins helped guide the Patriots to program bests within the Atlantic 10. Mason set or matched A-10 bests in league wins and tournament seeds in four seasons during his tenure. The Patriots matched a program best with 11 Atlantic 10 victories in 2022-23, and finished at 20-13 overall.

» A DMV basketball legend, Simpkins earned McDonald's High School All-America honors at DeMatha Catholic under Hall of Fame coach Morgan Wootten, and was just the third freshman to make DeMatha's varsity team.

» He was a three-time honorable mention All-ACC selection at the University of Maryland, helping the Terrapins to three NCAA appearances, including a pair of Sweet 16 showings. A three-year starter and captain under coach Gary Williams from 1992-96, Simpkins finished his career with 1,123 points over 119 games.

» Simpkins and his wife Kirsten have three kids – Kai, Darian and Elijah.
