126TH SEASON OF BEARCAT BASKETBALL

The 2026-27 campaign marks the 126th season of competition for Cincinnati men's basketball. Cincinnati men's basketball, which was named a top-10 program in college basketball history by the Associated Press, boasts 44 All-Americans, 41 conference titles, six Final Four appearances and back-to-back national championships across its history, which dates back to the 1901-02 season.

START ME UP

Cincinnati has won its last six season openers after a 64-56 defeat at Ohio State in the 2019-20 lid-lifter. The Bearcats have won their last seven home openers.

BEARCATS VS. EAGLES

The Bearcats and Eagles are meeting for just the second time, with Cincinnati earning a 72-69 victory in the Delta Bearcat Classic in the only previous meeting Nov. 23, 1991.

SCOUTING THE EAGLES

American, under the direction of fourth-year head coach Duane Simpkins, is coming off a 16-16 season but returns four starters and every non-graduated scholarship player. The Eagles received every available first-place vote from the Patriot League's head coaches in the preseason poll as senior Greg Jones was named Preseason Defensive Player of the Year and joined sophomore Madden Collins on the Preseason All-Patriot League Team.

Collins led the Eagles with 13.4 points per game a season ago, while Jones added 12.5. Junior Julen Iturbe led American with 4.9 rebounds per game.

CHASING 300

Bearcats' first-year head coach Jerrod Calhoun enters his first season in Clifton three wins shy of 300 for his career. Calhoun won 124 games over five seasons at Fairmont State, 118 in seven seasons at Youngstown State and then another 55 in two seasons at Utah State.

WELCOME TO CLIFTON

Calhoun has surrounded himself with a talented, experienced staff in his first year at the helm of the Bearcats. Associate head coach Mantoris Robinson, along with assistant coaches Ben Asher, Max Bent, Johnny Hill and Curran Walsh and chief of staff Paul Molinari come to Cincinnati with Calhoun from Utah State. Fellow assistants Mike Fuline and Jason Slay, alongside video coordinator Andrew Bittle, round out the Bearcats' coaching staff.

NEW FACES AT FIFTH THIRD

Calhoun's first group of Bearcats is filled with new faces. Only one Bearcat, fifth-year walk-on Grant Darbyshire, returns from Cincinnati's 2025-26 squad. With that, the Bearcats return 0.0% of their scoring and assists and 0.001% of their rebounding from 2025-26 but will be the most-experienced roster in the Big 12.

Some notes on the veteran group:
- The full roster has combined to average 59 career Division I games played and 30 starts.
- Counting the group of 12 newcomers who have appeared in a Division 1 game, the Bearcats have averaged 72 games played and 39 starts.
- MJ Collins Jr. leads the Bearcats with 134 career games played (81 starts), Amani Lyles has played in 116 games (42 starts) and Myles Colvin has appeared in 102 games (32 starts). Riley Allenspach is a game shy of 100 appearances (35 starts), while Tyler Tejada has played in 93 games (83 career starts - most of any Bearcat) and Tylen Riley has seen action in 89 contests (51 starts).
- Seven Bearcats earned all-conference honors a season ago. Trevian Carson was an All-Summit League First Team selection, Amani Lyles was an All-Mid American Conference First Team pick, M.J. Collins Jr. earned All-Mountain West Second Team laurels, Tyler Tejada is a two-time All-CAA honoree, including 2024-25 CAA Player of the Year honors as a sophomore. In addition, Tylen Riley was an All-American Conference Second Team pick, Eric Mahaffey garnered All-MAC Freshman Team honors and Riley Allenspach picked up All-Atlantic 10 Second Team honors.
- In addition, seven members of the team have appeared in an NCAA Tournament game, including Trevian Carson, MJ Collins Jr., Myles Colvin, Adlan Elamin, Amani Lyles, Eric Mahaffey and Elijah Perryman.

TWYMAN-STOKES CLASSIC

Cincinnati's game against Minnesota Nov. 9 will mark the 2026-27 Twyman-Stokes Classic.

The game spotlights the story that transcends the city and basketball as a whole. Rising NBA star Maurice Stokes, while playing for the Cincinnati Royals, suffered a life-changing injury at the end of the 1958 season that left him paralyzed and unable to speak. His teammate, Bearcats legend Jack Twyman, became his legal guardian at 23 to give him financial and physical support.

After years of grassroots fundraising nationwide, NBA stars held out at the 1964 All-Star Game to get the players' union recognized, largely in part after seeing what Stokes had gone through. Stokes died in 1970, and when Twyman passed in 2012, the Reverend Jesse Jackson helped lead a call to the NBA to establish the Twyman-Stokes Teammate of the Year award.

MONSTER FACTORY LEGACY

Mike Rehfeldt, UC's associate athletic director for sports performance, has become a beacon within the men's basketball program. He first served the Bearcats from 2012-20 before joining Wes Miller's inaugural staff after a one-year stint at UConn.

Rehfeldt's cutting-edge investments go beyond the plates and into the technology realm. He also helped hire Dillon Frees, the athletics department's first director of performance nutrition.

BEARCATS IN THE NBA DRAFT

Per Real GM, the Bearcats have the third-most NBA Draft picks all-time among Big 12 schools. Kansas leads the way with 102, while Arizona has 85 and Cincinnati has had 58 players drafted. Rounding out the top five in the conference is Kansas State with 54 and Houston with 52.

CALHOUN STREET ON YOUR SCREEN

Calhoun Street, Cincinnati men's basketball's documentary in partnership with 4th Floor Creative, premiered Oct. 29 on ESPN+. The eight-episode production, which provides an all-access, behind-the-scenes look into the Bearcats' basketball program under first-year head coach Jerrod Calhoun, is available on demand on the platform.

JUMPMAN, JUMPMAN, JUMPMAN...

Cincinnati returned to familiar threads in 2023-24 with the Jordan brand. The Bearcats were one of the three original schools rewarded with it in 1997, joining St. John's and North Carolina A&T.

Michael Jordan himself helped present the uniforms to the public on the Rosie O'Donnell Show on Sept. 9, 1997.

Cincinnati is one of 12 schools to wear the Jumpman logo, joining North Carolina, Michigan, Houston, Oklahoma, Florida, Georgetown, Marquette, San Diego State, UCLA, Morehouse and Howard.

DOUBLE-DUTY DAN HOARD

The Dayton game three years ago was yet another glorious chapter in Cincinnati radio voice Dan Hoard's storied career, this time with his best proximity in some time.

Hoard carried the Bengals' 1 p.m. game against the Minnesota Vikings, then trekked slightly down the banks to do the Bearcats-Flyers game at 7 p.m., all on 700 WLW.

Hoard is among a select few handling PxP duties within the college hoops and pro ranks nationally.

CINCINNATI HEAD COACH JERROD CALHOUN

Ohio native and University of Cincinnati graduate Jerrod Calhoun was named the 29th head coach in Cincinnati men's basketball history on March 24, 2026. Last spring, Calhoun completed his ninth season as a Division I head coach — and 14th overall — leading Utah State to a 29-7 record and its second NCAA Tournament in his two seasons at the helm of the Aggies.

The 2026 Mountain West Conference and 2023 Horizon League Coach of the Year has nine 20-win seasons as a head coach and has been a conference champion in three different leagues on his way to a 297-159 career record.

"Jerrod is a tireless worker, has an incredible passion and talent for developing not just players, but people, and has won at every stop along the way," Cunningham said. "He's one of the best offensive minds in college basketball and has the pedigree to take Cincinnati basketball to the next level in the Big 12 and nationally. I'm looking forward to welcoming his wife, Sarah, and children, Jordan, Kennedy, Kendall and Quinn to the Cincinnati family."

Calhoun went 55-15, including a 30-10 mark in Mountain West play, with a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances in his two seasons in Logan. His Aggies won the Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships in 2026. He led five All-Mountain West selections in his two seasons, including 2026 Mountain West Player of the Year Mason Falslev.

For the second-straight year, Utah State possessed one of the most efficient offenses in the country, ranking 26th in adjusted offensive efficiency. However, the Aggies also saw a considerable improvement on the defensive end, going from 150th in 2024-25 to 44th in 2025-26. Utah State led the Mountain West and ranked in the top 30 nationally in turnover margin (11th, 3.6), field goal percentage (15th, 49.6), assists per game (17th, 17.6), assist-to-turnover ratio (17th, 1.69), scoring margin (22nd, 11.4) and steals per game (26th, 8.7). The Aggies also led the conference in fastbreak points (13.86) and scoring offense (82.1).

"It is a tremendous honor to have the opportunity to lead the Bearcats' program — one that I know intimately as an alum and hold in the highest regard," Calhoun said. "I am deeply grateful to John Cunningham and President Neville Pinto for their trust and confidence in me to elevate this program and guide our student-athletes as we pursue championships. Our goal is to build a program that consistently makes Bearcats fans proud, both on and off the court. Sarah, our children and I are excited to get to work at a place that means so much to our family."

Prior to his time at Utah State, Calhoun spent seven seasons as the head coach at Youngstown State from 2017-24. He guided the Penguins to five-consecutive winning seasons for the first time in their Division I history and led Youngstown State to the postseason three times. He coached 12 All-Horizon League selections and led Youngstown State to consecutive 20-win seasons — the first time in program history — in his final two seasons. Calhoun's 2023 Youngstown State team won the program's first Horizon League regular-season championship and the Penguins 24 wins that season tied the school record for victories set in 1964.

Calhoun's first stint as a head coach came at Division II Fairmont State from 2012-17, where he led the Fighting Falcons to a 124-38 (.765) record, garnering 2017 Mountain East Coach of the Year honors. His teams earned four appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament, including a national runner-up finish in 2017, and won at least 20 games in each of his five seasons.

Calhoun spent five years on Bob Huggins' staff at West Virginia from 2007-12, including four as director of operations and the final season as assistant coach. The Mountaineers went 120-36 with five NCAA Tournament appearances — including the 2010 Final Four and 2008 Sweet 16 — in his five seasons.

Prior to his time in West Virginia, Calhoun was an assistant coach at Walsh University from 2004-07, helping the Cavaliers to an 82-21 record, including the 2005 NAIA National Championship, an Elite Eight in 2006 and a Sweet 16 in 2007.

Calhoun, who is a 2004 graduate of the University of Cincinnati, began his coaching career as a student assistant under Huggins in 2003-04, when the Bearcats went 25-7 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Calhoun played two years of basketball at Cleveland State for head coach Rollie Massimino, earning Dean's List honors and was a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Board.

He earned four letters at Villa Angela-St. Joseph High School in Cleveland and averaged 19.0 points per game his senior year. He graduated as the school record-holder for free-throw percentage and was tabbed Lake County News Herald Player of the Year.

Calhoun earned his bachelor's degree from Cincinnati, majoring in criminal justice and minoring in communications. He is married to the former Sarah McKenna and has a son, Jordan, and three daughters, Kennedy, Kendall and Quinn.

• Cincinnati's seven overtime games in 2019-20 were a school record (previous record was six during the 1966-67 season), AAC record and are one shy of the NCAA record of eight overtime games set by Western Kentucky (1978), Portland (1984) and Valparaiso (1993).
• Cincinnati's four consecutive overtime games from Feb. 9, 2020 through Feb. 19, 2020 tied the NCAA record set by Jacksonville (1982), Illinois State (1985) and Dayton (1988).
