CAREER: 36-55 (4th season)
AT ETAMU: 36-55 (4th season)

NOV. 4, 2026 | 6:30 P.M. ET | FIFTH THIRD ARENA | CINCINNATI, OH

THE RUNDOWN

- Katrina Merriweather enters her fourth season as head coach at her alma mater and 11th overall as a bench boss. She owns a 191-122 career record and has led three programs to six postseason appearances. She has also produced a Big 12 postseason honoree in each of her first three seasons at Cincinnati.
- Cincinnati will face East Texas A&M for the first time in program history, but the matchup has a familiar connection. East Texas A&M is coached by former Bearcat Valerie King '04, who is in her fourth season at the helm.
- Merriweather and King played one season together in 2000-01. Merriweather served as a graduate assistant in 2001-02, when King helped lead the Bearcats to the NCAA Tournament and the program's first NCAA Tournament victory, defeating Saint Peter's in the first round.
- The Bearcats will celebrate Alumni Night during the season opener and honor the 2001-02 team. That squad finished 27-5 under head coach Laurie Pirtle, setting the program record for wins in a season. The team also captured Cincinnati's only conference tournament title, winning the Conference USA championship to earn its third NCAA Tournament berth.
- Cincinnati finished the 2025-26 season with an 11-20 overall record and a 6-12 mark in Big 12 play. The Bearcats return seven letterwinners, including five members of their nationally ranked 2025 recruiting class.
- Sophomore Caliyah DeVillasee headlines the returning group after averaging 14.5 points, 3.9 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game, earning All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors. She recorded six 20-point games and 23 double-figure scoring performances.
- DeVillasee finished with 106 assists last season, becoming just the fourth freshman in program history to reach 100 assists and the first since 2006-07. Despite missing four games, her 106 assists were the most by a Bearcat in a season since 2021-22.
- Cincinnati added eight newcomers to the 2026-27 roster. The class includes freshmen Zou Garba and Jaidyn Gunter, international guard Marta Fernandez, and transfers Yar Tong, Naomi Benson, Sahnya Jah, Jade Jones and Amber Bullard.
- Sahnya Jah, a 6-foot guard/forward, looks to make an immediate impact after posting career highs of 9.3 points, 4.7 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game at SMU last season.
- Senior Reagan Jackson returns for her fourth season in the Red & Black. A three-year starter, she has appeared in 92 career games and enters the season 167 points shy of 1,000 for her career. She averaged 9.8 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game in 2025-26.
- Cincinnati has established itself as one of the Big 12's top rebounding teams since Merriweather took over the program. The Bearcats have ranked in the top two in the league in offensive rebounds per game in each of the last three seasons, including 14.7 per game in 2025-26. Cincinnati also ranked fourth in the Big 12 in total rebounds per game last season (39.77), while its +5.3 rebounding margin ranked fifth for a single season in program history.
- The Bearcats have also consistently found success at the free throw line, ranking among the Big 12's top five in free throws made per game in each of the last three seasons. Cincinnati averaged 14.6 per game in 2025-26 (third in the Big 12), 16.8 in 2024-25 (first) and 15.9 in 2023-24 (first).
- The Bearcats open the 2026-27 season at home Nov. 4 against East Texas A&M, beginning a 13-game non-conference schedule that includes seven home games, the Cancun Challenge and the annual Crosstown Shootout at Xavier.
- Cincinnati opens Big 12 play Dec. 20 at reigning regular-season champion TCU as part of an 18-game conference schedule.

SEASON PROSPECTUS

- Cincinnati returns seven letterwinners from last season, including five members of its nationally ranked 2025 recruiting class: Dee Alexander, Caliyah DeVillasee, Joya Crawford, Kali Barrett and Paige Whitted. Alexander was a five-star recruit, DeVillasee earned All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors and Crawford delivered the game-winning steal and score against Arizona State. They are joined by veterans Reagan Jackson and Mary Carden.
- The Bearcats added eight newcomers to the 2026-27 roster. The group features freshmen Zou Garba and Jaidyn Gunter, international guard Marta Fernández, and transfers Yar Tong, Naomi Benson, Sahnya Jah, Jade Jones and Amber Bullard.
- Katrina Merriweather enters her fourth season as head coach at her alma mater and 11th overall as a bench boss. She has guided three programs to six postseason appearances.
- Cincinnati returns 47% of its scoring, 31% of its rebounding and 61% of its assists from a season ago.

BIT IS BACK

- Caliyah DeVillasee returns as Cincinnati's leading returning scorer and assister after earning All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors in her first season. The point guard averaged 14.5 points, 3.9 assists and 3.5 rebounds per game.
- DeVillasee recorded six 20-point games, 23 double-figure scoring performances and two double-doubles. She was also a two-time Big 12 Freshman of the Week selection and earned a spot in the Big 12 Starting Five once.
- She finished among the Big 12's top 15 in scoring, field goal percentage and assists.

A FRESHMAN SEASON TO REMEMBER

- Caliyah DeVillasee put together one of the most productive freshman seasons in recent memory, both nationally and in Cincinnati program history.
- DeVillasee became just the second Division I player in the last 20 years to record at least 90 points and 40 assists through her first six career games, joining Iowa's Caitlin Clark (2020-21).
- She finished her freshman campaign with 106 assists, becoming just the fourth freshman in program history to reach the 100-assist mark and the first since 2006-07. She accomplished the feat despite missing four games due to injury.
- Her six 20-point performances were the most by a Cincinnati freshman dating back to 2002-03.
- She was one of seven freshmen nationally to average at least 14 points, three assists and three rebounds per game.
- She set Cincinnati's single-game assist record with 15 in the Bearcats' 100-61 win over Georgetown College. The mark broke a record that had stood since 2006 and tied the most assists by a major-conference freshman in the last 20 years.
- She paired the 15 assists with 14 points and six rebounds for her first career double-double. Her 14-point, 15-assist, six-rebound performance was the only such stat line by a Big 12 player this century.

LEADING THE WAY

- Senior Reagan Jackson enters her fourth season with the Bearcats as a three-year starter and one of the team's veteran leaders. She has appeared in 92 games at Cincinnati and is just 167 points shy of reaching 1,000 career points entering the 2026-27 season.
- Jackson started all 31 games in 2025-26, averaging 9.8 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game. She recorded 16 double-figure scoring performances, including eight in Big 12 play. She scored a Big 12-best 19 points in Cincinnati's win over Arizona and earned a spot on the Florida Gulf All-Tournament Team after averaging 14.0 points across two wins.
- Jackson has been a consistent contributor throughout her career, averaging nearly double figures in each of her first three seasons. She appeared in 32 games with 26 starts as a freshman and made a career-best 46 3-pointers as a sophomore.
- Basketball has been a part of Jackson's life from an early age. She is the oldest of four children, with one brother, Tanson, and two sisters, Kenzie and Tinley. Both of her parents played basketball at Texas Wesleyan, and her mother, Rhonda, coached her in high school.

BUILT THROUGH ADVERSITY

- Cincinnati finished the 2025-26 season with an 11-20 overall record and a 6-12 mark in Big 12 play.
- The Bearcats faced one of their most challenging schedules in recent years, with 15 of their 27 opponents advancing to postseason play. The non-conference schedule featured eight opponents that finished with winning records, including three conference regular-season champions in Alabama A&M, Miami (Ohio) and Howard.
- Cincinnati went 3-6 in games decided by five points or fewer, with the six losses coming with an average margin of 3.5 points.
- The program also dealt with significant roster challenges throughout the season, as nine players missed at least one game due to injury or illness. Dee Alexander, the 2025-26 Big 12 Preseason Freshman of the Year, missed all of non-conference play while recovering from an ankle injury, and didn't share the court with Caliyah DeVillasee until Cincinnati's win over No. 11 Iowa State on Jan. 7, the highest-ranked win in program history.

A PROGRAM-DEFINING WIN

- Cincinnati earned one of the biggest wins in program history last season, defeating No. 11 Iowa State, 71-63, on Jan. 7, 2026 at Fifth Third Arena. It marked the Bearcats' first win over a ranked opponent since defeating No. 20 Marquette on Feb. 28, 2011.
- The win was the highest-ranked victory in program history. Cincinnati's previous highest-ranked win came in 1984, when the Bearcats defeated No. 12 Tennessee, 72-69, on Nov. 26 in Knoxville.
- The victory also marked the first ranked win of the Coach Merriweather era.

A NEW CHAPTER

- Sahnya Jah joins the Bearcats after transferring from SMU, where she posted career highs of 9.3 points, 4.7 rebounds and 1.2 steals per game during the 2025-26 season. She appeared in 25 games, recording 10 double-figure scoring performances and two 20-point outings. She led SMU in scoring four times and in rebounding five times.
- Jah began her collegiate career at South Carolina before spending her sophomore season at Arizona, where she appeared in 18 games.
- A highly regarded recruit, Jah was ranked No. 40 nationally in the 2023 recruiting class and earned honorable mention All-America honors in high school. She helped Montverde Academy win the 2023 GEICO High School National Championship.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

92 Reagan Jackson has appeared in 92 games for Cincinnati and is just 167 points shy of reaching 1,000 career points entering the 2026-27 season.

106 With 106 assists, Caliyah DeVillasee dished out the most assists by a Cincinnati freshman since 2006-07. She was just the fourth Bearcat ever to eclipse the 100-assist mark in her first season.

14.7 The Bearcats have ranked in the top two in the league in offensive rebounds per game in each of the last three seasons, including a league-best 14.7 per game in 2025-26.

3 Cincinnati is one of only three programs in the Power Four, and the only program in the Big 12, with an all-female coaching staff.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES

ADDITIONS IN THE POST

- With five post players departing from last season's roster and just 30% of its rebounding production returning, Cincinnati has added size, length and athleticism to strengthen its frontcourt.
- Naomi Benson, a 6-foot-2 forward from Streetsboro, Ohio, joins the Bearcats after spending her freshman season at Illinois. Amber Bullard, a 6-foot-4 center, brings three years of collegiate experience, most recently at Mount St. Mary's.
- Sahnya Jah, a 6-foot guard/forward, adds versatility and athleticism to the group. The Bearcats also welcome 6-foot-7 center Zou Garba (Cotonou, Benin) and 6-foot-3 forward Yar Tong (Alberta, Canada).

KALI'S COMEBACK

- Sophomore Kali Barrett is working her way back after suffering a season-ending ACL injury during Cincinnati's game against Howard on Dec. 16, 2025. She appeared in 11 games before the injury.
- Barrett made her season debut at Penn State, where she knocked down two 3-pointers. She later scored a season-high 12 points on 5-of-8 shooting against Xavier. She was 3-for-3 from the floor against Howard before going down with the injury in the first quarter.
- Head coach Katrina Merriweather has praised Barrett's versatility, noting her ability to play positions one through four for the Bearcats.

SHOW UP

- "SHOW UP" is the team's mantra for the 2026-27 season.
- The Bearcats' creative team has released a behind-the-scenes docuseries offering an inside look at the program, from preseason preparation to the start of the season. The first three episodes are available on the Bearcats' YouTube channel.

A LATE START

- Transfer center Amber Bullard didn't pick up basketball until her sophomore year of high school. A volleyball player before arriving at The Christian Academy (TCA), she joined the basketball team in 2020-21 after learning the school did not offer girls volleyball.
- Bullard began the season on the junior varsity team. After spending time shooting hoops with her father, Timothy, at a local park, she earned a spot on the varsity team the following game.
- The Philadelphia native continued to develop her game in college, beginning her career at La Salle before transferring to Harcum Community College. There, she was named EPAC Player of the Year and led the nation in field goal percentage.
- She spent her junior season at Mount St. Mary's, averaging 9.2 points and a team-leading 6.2 rebounds in 26 games. She also recorded 30 blocks and four double-doubles, including a 23-point, 11-rebound performance at Sacred Heart.
- Bullard now brings her experience to Cincinnati, where she will test her game against Big 12 competition.

¡BIENVENIDA, MARTA!

- Junior point guard Marta Fernández, a 5-foot-4 native of Foz, Galicia, Spain, completed the Bearcats' 2026-27 roster.
- Fernández represented Spain at the 2025 FIBA U20 Women's EuroBasket, helping lead her country to a championship. She averaged 6.3 points, 1.7 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game while shooting 47.1% from the field and 50% from 3-point range.
- She recorded three double-digit scoring performances during the tournament, including a 10-point, seven-assist outing against Germany in the Round of 16.
- Fernández most recently competed for Recoletas Zamora in Spain's LF Challenge league.

FLORIDA CONNECTION

- Sophomores Jade Jones (West Palm Beach, Fla.) and Kali Barrett (Bradenton, Fla.) were familiar opponents before becoming teammates at Cincinnati. The two competed against each other in high school and on the AAU circuit, including back-to-back state semifinal matchups. Barrett's team came out on top in both contests.
- Jones, a transfer from Houston, and Barrett are now reunited as teammates after years of competing against each other.

TENNESSEE TWO STEP

- Sophomore shooting guards Joya Crawford and Paige Whitted both call Tennessee home, separated by just 90 miles. The duo shared the floor in the Basketball Coaches Association of Tennessee All-Star Game in high school.
- Crawford eclipsed 2,000 career points at Dyersburg High School and was a finalist for Tennessee Miss Basketball. She led her team to the 2024 TSSAA Class AAA State Championship, earning State Tournament MVP honors.
- Whitted, a Memphis native from Briarcrest Christian Academy, earned All-State recognition during her standout prep career.

6-7

- Freshman Zou Garba joins the Bearcats as a 6-foot-7 center from Cotonou, Benin, standing as the tallest player in program history.
- Garba is one of 14 players in NCAA Division I women's basketball listed at 6-foot-7 or taller.

4 CINCY

- Head coach Katrina Merriweather took over the Cincinnati program in 2023, after Reagan Jackson had already committed to the Bearcats under the previous coaching staff. Jackson chose to remain at Cincinnati through the coaching change and has continued to grow into a leader for the program.
- Now a senior, she enters her fourth season as a Bearcat, a rare accomplishment in today's college athletics landscape.
- Jackson is the only four-year player on this season's roster. She shares that connection with her head coach, who was also the only four-year player on her roster as a senior during the 2000-01 season.

EYE FOR TRANSFER TALENT

- The coaching staff has found success in the transfer portal, adding players who have made an immediate impact on the program.
- In 2025-26, Mya Perry earned All-Big 12 Third Team honors after scoring 553 points, the 11th-highest single-season total in program history. She also made 82 3-pointers, ranking fifth in program history for a single season.
- Tineya Hylton, who transferred from Texas A&M in 2024-25, saw a significant increase in production during her time at Cincinnati. She surpassed her combined totals from her previous three seasons and set career highs with 129 field goals and 109 free throws.
- Both Perry and Hylton have since signed professional contracts to play overseas, with Proteas Voulas (Greece) and Basket Club Franconville (France), respectively.

THE SISTERHOOD

- Cincinnati is one of only three programs in the Power Four, and the only program in the Big 12, with an all-female coaching staff.
- Every year, Merriweather has had a former player on staff. At least one from every head coaching stop. Merriweather had a staff member selected to the WBCA Thirty Under 30 List for eight straight years.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Cincinnati posted a 3.714 team GPA in spring 2026 and earned Special Mention recognition on the WBCA Academic Honor Roll for the 2025-26 season.
- In the latest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report, the Bearcats recorded a perfect score of 100 for the second consecutive year. Cincinnati also posted a perfect multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR), becoming one of six UC programs to achieve the mark.
- The Bearcats have produced 41 consecutive graduating seniors and recorded a 100% senior graduation rate for 12 straight years. Since 2000-01, 69 of 71 women's basketball student-athletes have earned their degrees.

HEAD COACH KATRINA MERRIWEATHER

Director of Athletics John Cunningham announced the hire of former Bearcats' captain Katrina Merriweather as the 10th women's basketball head coach at the University of Cincinnati on March 25, 2023.

Merriweather quickly has become a rising star in the coaching profession, taking three programs to the postseason a total of six times, including a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. She has totaled 191 wins in 10 seasons as bench boss.

In her third season at Cincinnati, Merriweather continued to elevate the program in the highly competitive Big 12, leading the Bearcats to multiple marquee victories and continued postseason recognition for her players. Cincinnati recorded three Quad 2 wins, highlighted by the highest-ranked victory in program history over No. 11 Iowa State, while also earning wins over Arizona State at home and BYU on the road.

Senior Mya Perry was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team after finishing the season ranked fifth in program single-season history with 82 three-pointers and 11th in scoring with 553 points. Freshman Caliyah DeVillasee earned All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors after totaling 106 assists, becoming just the fourth freshman in program history to surpass the 100-assist mark and the first since 2006-07.

With the honors for Perry and DeVillasee, Cincinnati has now had a player earn Big 12 postseason recognition in three consecutive seasons during its time in the league.

In 2024-25, Merriweather guided the Bearcats to their first winning season since 2019-20. UC posted its best non-conference winning percentage (.800, 8-2) since 2005-06 and secured its most conference wins (7) since 2019-20. The Bearcats also led the Big 12 and ranked among the nation's top five in made free throws per game.

Forward Jillian Hayes cemented her legacy as the first player in program history to earn All-Big 12 honors, landing on the All-Big 12 Third Team in 2024-25 after earning Honorable Mention recognition the previous season.

Merriweather's impact was immediate, successfully navigating Cincinnati's transition from the American Athletic Conference to the Big 12 in her first season at the helm. The Bearcats saw a five-win improvement, posted their best non-conference winning percentage (72.7%) in 15 years, and strung together a six-game win streak—their longest since 2019-20. That season also featured UC's first victory over an SEC opponent since 2004.

Merriweather once again proved her ability to build postseason contenders, leading Cincinnati to the 2024 WNIT — marking the program's 14th postseason appearance and first since 2019.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bearcats' Hall of Fame head coach Laurie Pirtle from 1997-01, Merriweather became the program's first women's basketball player to advance to four consecutive postseason tournaments. Additionally, she helped lead the program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament win as a graduate assistant coach in 2001-02.

Merriweather and USA Basketball earned a silver medal podium finish at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in León, Mexico. She was elevated to her first bench coach assignment for the event after previously serving as a court coach for the 2021 USA Women's U19 National Team Trails.

Merriweather led Memphis to a 22-11 season in 2022-23, the program's first 20-win season in more than a decade, and an appearance in the 2023 WNIT Sweet 16.

Merriweather took over a four-win Memphis team and immediately produced 16 wins in 2021-22 before the 22-win campaign this season in which the Tigers clinched the two seed in the 2022 AAC Championships, the program's highest-ever AAC regular season finish, and advanced to a postseason tournament for the first time since 2015-16.

In her two seasons at the helm, the Tigers compiled a 38-23 record and earned three All-Conference selections.

Prior to her tenure at Memphis, Merriweather spent five seasons as the head coach at Wright State, where she took the Raiders to two NCAA Tournaments and was named Horizon League Coach of the Year three times. Merriweather led Wright State to the program's third appearance and first NCAA Tournament win with an upset over four-seed Arkansas in 2021.

In 2018-19, she guided the Raiders to a school-record 27 wins and its first-ever outright Horizon League regular season championship, securing the conference tournament title and reaching the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.

While at the helm, Merriweather led the Raiders to a 113-47 (.706) record, finishing with the best winning percentage in program history. She was a part of all three of the program's Horizon League tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances, twice as a head coach in 2019 and 2021 and once as an assistant in 2014. The Raiders also earned 16 All-Conference selections in her tenure.

Merriweather was an assistant under Mike Bradbury for six seasons at Wright State from 2010-16 before becoming head coach. Prior to Wright State, she was an assistant at Purdue from 2003-06, and at UIC for the 2002-03 season.

With the Bearcats, Merriweather made 27 career starts, including 22 in her senior season, and played in 107 games. She helped lead the program to an 83-41 record in her four seasons.

The Indianapolis native graduated from Cincinnati in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in English literature and earned a second bachelor in secondary education in 2002.
