COMPLETE
STUDENT

Pac-12 students are known for their success on the field, but they are also impressive, complete people with outside interests, diverse backgrounds, extracurricular activities, interesting families, busy schedules, and full lives. The release for this week's game is focused on who Arizona State students are off the field of play.

ACADEMIC SPOTLIGHT

- The Sun Devil roster currently features five student athletes that are STEM majors (science, technology, engineering, mathematics): Donnie Shields – civil engineering, Gabriel Rees – aeronautical engineering (auto vehicle systems), Daniel Groebner – civil engineering, Cam Smith – biological sciences (genetics, cell and development biology), Coltin Gerhart – Applied biological sciences
- The Sun Devil Football Program awards Scholar Baller distinction to all players who earn over a 3.00 cumulative GPA over the course of a school year. In 2014-15, 76 members of the squad accomplished the feat, an all-time high for the program.
- Five Sun Devils who have made the transition from junior college to a Division I institution have already earned their graduate degrees: Demetrius Cherry, Antonio Longino, Billy McGehee, Solomon Means and Luke Williams.
- Mike Bercovici is not only the team's starting quarterback, but the senior captain goes through the rigors of a football season while also pursuing his master's degree in legal studies in ASU's Sports Law and Business Program, a joint venture between the W.P. Carey School of Business and the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

COMMUNITY CORNER

- Quarterback Mike Bercovici and safety Jordan Simone delivered season tickets to fan Nash Robinson, who was born with severe spastic quadriplegic cerebral palsy.
- Four Sun Devil football student-athletes have gone on LDS missions:
Jacom Brimhall – Mexico City, Mexico
Brandon Mathews – Oslo, Norway
Colbe Smelser – Guadalajara, Mexico
Jay Quitmeyer – Brazil
- Over 90 members of the Sun Devil Athletics staff and student-athletes volunteered to put up American Flags at the Tempe Healing Fields to honor 9/11, including some football players
- Numerous members of the Sun Devil football team and staff actively communicate with longtime fan Gary Gjerstedt, who is blind. Among those being D.J. Foster, who exchanges emails with Gjerstedt from time to time.
- Each year, the Sun Devil football team and the coaching takes time in the Spring to host a youth clinic for boys and girls aged 8-13.
- Several members of the football program take part in the annual Pat's Run in Tempe, whether its running in the race, helping with the kids run, passing out water or simply welcoming runners back into the stadium at the end of the run.

Brothers – The 2015 Sun Devils feature a pair of brothers on the squad in the form of offensive linemen Evan and Devin Goodman and defensive lineman Villami Latu and his twin brother and linebacker, Alani.

Laiu Moeakiola – Among the most cerebral players on the roster, Moeakiola is also one of numerous bilingual players on the team and speaks his native Tongan when he is at home in Texas.

Kweishi Brown – Kweishi Brown had a bit of a different upbringing when it came to coaching in the fact that he learned the sport from his mother, Renethia Hall, who coached Brown from youth league all the way through high school.

 BEST-IN-CLASS

All students that go through ASU's W.P. Carey School of Business will likely find themselves sitting through several economics classes. With around 15 members of the football program currently enrolled in the business school, ECN21 – Microeconomic Principles is a popular spot to find numerous student-athletes. Focusing on the study of individual behavior and decision-making within the economic world, this class features four major tests and four major homework assignments throughout the semester and the hour-long class runs twice a week and features a weekly lab as well.

THE GAME - The Arizona State University Sun Devil football program continues its three game home stretch on Friday, Sept. 18 as the squad welcomes the New Mexico Lobos. The game is scheduled for a 7 p.m. kickoff at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz., and will be broadcast live on the Pac-12 Networks.

THE LOBOS - The Sun Devils lead the all-time series, 23-5-1 and enter the contest with an 18 game winning streak against the Lobos. ASU defeated New Mexico last season, 58-23, in Albuquerque in the first contest between the two since the 1977 season. The Lobos will mark the second consecutive triple option team the Sun Devils are facing and enter the weekend with a 1-1 record. UNM enters the weekend ranked 14th in the nation with 281.5 rushing yards per game.

THE MOUNTAIN WEST - ASU is 104-34-2 all-time against the Mountain West Conference.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- » Improve ASU to 24-5-1 all-time against the Lobos.
- » Be the 19th consecutive victory for ASU over the Lobos dating back to a 1947 victory that started the streak.
- » Improve ASU to 105-34-2 all-time against the Mountain West Conference.
- » Lock up a winning record through the first three games of the year for the 16th consecutive season.
- » Mark Todd Graham's 30th victory at the helm of the Sun Devils and make him the sixth Sun Devil head coach to reach the milestone and the only one outside Frank Kush and Darryl Rogers to do so by their fourth season.
- » Improve ASU to 275-93-3 (.733) all-time in games played at Sun Devil Stadium, the 15th-best record among all programs that have been at their home stadiums for at least 50 years.
- » Improve ASU to 18-4 at Sun Devil Stadium under Todd Graham.

General

The Sun Devil Athletics media relations staff understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. We pride ourselves in being able to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the Sun Devil Football media relations staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the media relations department.

Practice Policies

Due to the nature of Arizona State game days this season, practices schedules each week will vary dependent upon that week's game. The ASU media relations office will provide a practice schedule prior to each game week for the media. Media members will be able to view three periods, beginning with team stretch. Media wishing to shoot practice will be able to do so for the first two of the three allowed periods, beginning with team stretch and followed by the individual drills. Following that open viewing period, the members of the media will be escorted out of the facility and reconvene near the end of the practice period for post-practice interviews.

Interview Policies

Interviews are conducted at the end of each practice. Due to high demand, several players and members of the coaching staff might only be available on a limited basis each week. A full availability schedule will be provided to the media each week.

Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the Dutton Theater for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes. Any members who wish to contact a student-athlete or coach outside of the aforementioned interview periods should contact Thomas Lenneberg (480-965-6594 or Thomas.lenneberg@asu.edu) to arrange a time outside of practice or post-game for interviews.

Weekly Press Conferences

Head coach Todd Graham will resume his weekly press conferences each Monday prior to game week. The press conference is tentatively scheduled for 12 p.m. (Noon) Arizona Time each week. When the team practices on Mondays, Coach Graham will not be available following practice.

Following home contests, Arizona State will bring several student-athletes to the Dutton Theater for a post-game press conference. Head Coach Todd Graham will follow the student-athletes.

All press conference will be streamed live via the Pac-12 website at <http://pac-12.com/live/arizona-state-university>. Additionally, ASAP Transcription Services will provide a transcript following each press conference throughout the year that will be made available via TheSunDevils.com and will also be sent to members of the media following each press conference.

Credentials

Media credentials for Sun Devil home games for the 2015 football season will be handled online through Sports Systems. For access to the online portal request system, please contact Doug Tammara (tammara@asu.edu). For road games, please contact Mark Brand (mark.brand@asu.edu) for more information.

Photography/Videography

Media wishing to shoot practice will be able to do so for the first two of the three allowed periods, beginning with team stretch and followed by the individual drills. On-camera interviews will be conducted at the end of each practice.

For home games, a photographer work area has been established inside the Carson Student-Athlete Center (first floor). Internet access to transmit files is available in the photography workroom. Credentials must be worn in plain view throughout the game while on the field and all photographers must adhere to painted lines and instructions given by security personnel and/or Arizona State staff members at all times.

Weekly Media Teleconference

The Pac-12 Football Coaches Weekly Media Teleconference Call will take place each Tuesday during the season. Coach Graham is scheduled to speak at 12:05 PT/1:05 MT each Tuesday. The teleconferences will be recorded and available at Pac-12.com that same afternoon of the call. Members of the media may reach out to the Pac-12 (925-932-4411) for the media-only phone number for the teleconference.

Media Highlights Policy

Highlights include Pac-12 Networks/ESPN/FOX broadcasts and all home hosted non-televised competitions, including those that are live streamed.

Live Broadcasts

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the Sun Devil Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event and will be communicated in the media advisory for the event.

Third-Party Website Highlight Policy

No third party organization may post competition footage of any Pac-12 game or any non-conference home game on its website without a license to the content from the Pac-12 Networks or its licensing partner (XOS Digital), with the exception of news window privileges described below. Third parties are permitted to post video on their websites through the use of the Pac-12 Digital embeddable video player (embed code available at <http://video.pac-12.com>).

News Outlet Highlight Policy

Certified news outlets may use a maximum of 3 minutes of Pac-12 event footage on their newscasts during the 48-hour news window following the conclusion of included events. If these highlights do not contain a Pac-12 mark, the news outlet must insert "Courtesy of the Pac-12 Conference" over the footage. Highlights may also be posted to certified news providers' websites, but must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of any included event, unless a license for that footage is obtained from the Pac-12 Conference. Highlights may not be posted to YouTube, Facebook, or other social media properties. Beyond the 48 hour news window, certified news outlets are permitted to use a maximum of 1 minute of footage - on their television newscasts only - for 14 calendar days after the conclusion of the game in question. This policy pertains to the 2013-14 academic year only and is subject to change in subsequent years.

SUN DEVILS AND DIGNITY HEALTH

Presented by Dignity Health, this game will highlight the new partnership between Sun Devil Athletics and Dignity Health in Arizona. Dignity Health operates five Arizona hospitals: St. Joseph's, Mercy Gilbert, Chandler Regional, St. Joseph's Westgate and Arizona General. Dignity Health and Sun Devil Athletics will be working together on acts of humankindness. ASU student athletes totaled 6,836.5 hours of community service hours last year. During this season, three individuals will be recognized on the field for their extraordinary acts of humankindness and rewarded with an ASU game ball by Dignity Health. Hello humankindness.

ON THE AIR

Hear the hometown call with broadcaster Tim Healey and color analyst Jeff Van Raaphorst as well as sideline reporter Doug Franz providing all the action for Sun Devil Football this season. The hometown broadcasts are boosted by Bonneville's powerful sports/talk lineup of Arizona Sports 98.7 FM, 620 AM KTAR and 92.3 KTAR News FM. This week's game will broadcast on ESPN Phoenix 620 AM. The home town call can also be heard on Sirius Channel 126/XM Channel 197.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION

Saturday's contest will mark the second game of the season that will be broadcast on the Pac-12 Networks for the Devils. Ted Robinson will be on the call alongside analyst Glenn Parker while Jill Savage will provide insight from the sidelines. ASU is 11-1 all-time in games played on the Pac-12 Networks. The Pac-12 will again provide access to Armed Forces Network for carriage of Pac-12 football games in 2014 for the benefit of the men and women in the military.

Pac-12 Complete Student

Across the Pac-12 this week, the conference's football programs will be highlighting the off-the-field accomplishments of our students. The first two pages of these notes are available for all to find more information on ASU football players' academic achievements, community service, and overall involvement in campus life.

We encourage members of the media to reach out to us to discuss the initiative and our incredible student-athletes off the field.

Academics First: First and foremost, the 12 members of the Conference are institutions of higher education – indeed, they are among the finest centers of learning, research and scholarship in the world.

The Complete College Experience: The full college experience goes beyond the classroom and the football field.

Leadership: Our student-athletes are making incredible use of the leadership skills they learn through athletics as well as their positions as visible members of their campus communities.

- » Over the past nine seasons at Pitt, Tulsa, Rice and now ASU, only one Graham-coached team has ranked outside the top 50 nationally in sacks. The Sun Devils averaged 4.0 sacks per game in 2012, the second-best mark in the nation, and then finished with 2.9 per game in 2013 and 3.0 per game in 2014 to finish 17th and 13th, respectively, in the country.
- » In nine seasons, Graham is 29-24 in true road games. ASU was 3-3 in

HOLD ON TO YOUR SEATS

HOLD ON TO THAT BALL, ALSO

- » ASU is now 10-1 under Todd Graham in games where it does not have a turnover.

- » Graham has won 29 games in his first four seasons at Arizona State.

- » He has led ASU to three consecutive eight win seasons for the first time since 1971-73.
- » It took Frank Kush until the third game of his third season to reach the 20-win plateau whereas it took Graham until the second game of his third season.

- » Graham became the third-quickest coach to reach 28 wins, doing so in 40 games.

- » Coach Graham has recorded 10 wins in five of his nine seasons as a head coach (Tulsa 2007, 2008, 2010; ASU 2013, 2014.) DOUBLE THE DIGITS, DOUBLE THE FUN

- » In 2014, ASU secured back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time since Frank Kush notched double-digit victories from 1970-73. That was drought of 31 years since it last happened, providing further evidence of how difficult an achievement back-to-back 10-win seasons are to come by.

- » Back-to-back 10-win seasons hadn't happened at Arizona State since 1970-73. But a quick look around the nation shows that only 12 schools have posted back-to-back 10 win-seasons the past two years. Here are the double-digit dozen.

DOUBLE DIGIT DOZEN Schools with back-to-back 10-win seasons

- Alabama (12-1 in 2014/11-2 in 2013)
- Arizona State (10-3/10-4)
- Baylor (11-2/11-2)
- Clemson (10-3/11-2)
- Florida State (13-1/14-0)
- Marshall (13-1/10-4)
- Michigan State (11-2/13-1)
- Missouri (11-3/12-2)
- Northern Illinois (11-3/12-2)
- Ohio State (14-1/12-2)
- Oregon (13-2/11-2)
- UCLA (10-3/10-3)

BERC-ING FOR THE WEEKEND

- » In Mike Bercovici's first two career starts last season, he passed for for 998 yards with eight touchdowns and two interceptions.
- » The 998 yards were a Pac-12 record for most yards in consecutive games for about an hour before WSU's Connor Halliday broke the mark but the tally ranks as the most passing yards in the first two starts of a players career in Division I history.
- » Bercovici threw for five touchdowns against USC, a milestone that no player in history has ever accomplished against the Trojans.

LIKE MIKE

- » In Bercovici's 186 pass attempts in 2014, only 24 times did he target the same receiver on back-to-back plays. At one point in the UCLA contest, he targeted eight different receivers over the course of 11 pass attempts. Only once did he target a receiver on three straight attempts.
- » Out of all the players on last year's team with a reception that weren't named Jaelen Strong or D.J. Foster, there were 137 total receptions made on the season. Bercovici, in his limited action, was responsible for 61 of those passes (44.5 percent).

TAKING DOWN THE TOP

- » ASU was 3-2 in 2013 against team's ranked in the AP Top-25 Poll and the three victories were the most since 1997 when the team went 3-1 against teams ranked in the AP poll.
- » ASU's 2014 schedule put the team on a collision course with three consecutive AP Top-25 teams (UCLA, USC, Stanford), a streak that ASU had faced only twice in program history. The last that happened was 2001, where ASU went 0-3 against No. 13 Washington, No. 8 Oregon and No. 11 Washington State. In 1994, ASU defeated No. 20 BYU in between losses to No. 23 Washington State and No. 21 Oregon.

- » ASU came out of the gauntlet with a 2-1 record with back-to-back victories over No. 16 USC and No. 23 Stanford. It was the first time ASU has won back-to-back games over ranked opponents since 1997, when it took down No. 25 Stanford on Oct. 18 before defeating No. 10 Washington State on Nov. 1 following a bye week.

SLAYING DRAGONS

- » The Sun Devils have gone 7-4 in the last 11 games against ranked teams.
- » In three seasons at the helm, Todd Graham is 7-7 against AP-ranked opponents and the team was 4-2 in such teams in 2014.
- » Graham has more than doubled Dennis Erickson (3) and Dirk Koetter (2) during their tenures.
- » In the previous 14 seasons, ASU was 5-40 in games against teams ranked in the AP poll. -- Other notable victories include the come-from-behind victory over Arizona in 2012, winning a game in the Coliseum last season for the first time since 1999 and defeating USC in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1996-97. ASU also ended a four-game losing streak to Stanford.

GOLD RUSH

- » Since the Coach Kush era, ASU has scored 20 or more rushing touchdowns in three or more consecutive seasons just one other time (1985-87) outside the current streak (23 in '11, 27 in '12, 36 in '13 and 20 in '14).
- » The current streak of four straight years with 20+ rushing touchdowns is the second longest streak in ASU history since 1960 behind only the seven straight Kush-led teams from 1967-73.

CAN'T BRING ME DOWN

- » Of Demario Richard's 221 yards from scrimmage this season, 105 have come after first contact (47.5 percent/2.3 yards per play).

GAME 1

Texas A&M38
Arizona State 17

HOUSTON (AP) - Arizona State tried to recruit both Kyle Allen and freshman Christian Kirk, who grew up just up the road from Tempe, Arizona, in Scottsdale.

Instead they signed with Texas A&M, and on Saturday night the pair led the Aggies to a 38-17 win over the 15th-ranked Sun Devils.

Arizona State kicked a field goal before Allen connected with freshman Kirk on a short pass and he dashed 66 yards for a touchdown to make it 31-17. Kirk also returned a punt 79 yards for a TD in the second quarter.

Mike Bercovici threw for 199 yards and a touchdown for the Sun Devils.

It was the first-ever meeting between these teams and the loss dropped the Sun Devils to 0-7 against the Southeastern Conference.

Allen finished with 198 yards passing with two touchdowns and an interception. Murray threw for 49 yards with an interception and ran for 69 yards.

A&M's revamped defense under John Chavis, the former LSU coordinator, forced two turnovers, had nine sacks and 14 tackles for losses. It was the most sacks the Aggies have had since they had 10 against Texas Tech in 1995.

Arizona State35
Cal Poly.....21

TEMPE, Ariz. -Sun Devil Football scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to emphasize its 35-21 home-opening win against Cal Poly Mustangs on Saturday at Sun Devil Stadium.

Arizona State took a 14-0 lead less than two minutes into the second quarter and quarterback Mike Bercovici tossed a pair of touchdowns in the final frame to push the Devils to a 14-point victory in front of the Double Inferno and reinvented Sun Devil Stadium.

Sophomore tailback Demario Richard tallied a career-high 121 rushing yards on 25 carries and scored a pair of touchdowns to pace the Sun Devils' 531 yards of total offense. Senior wide receiver D.J. Foster finished with 134 all-purpose yards, including 76 rushing and 58 receiving, and added a 14-yard touchdown catch in the opening quarter.

The Sun Devils defense held Cal Poly scoreless in the first and fourth quarters as four linebackers notched double-digit tackles, including sophomore linebacker Christian Sam, who co-led the Devils in tackles for the second consecutive game with 12 and added a team-high two sacks. Redshirt senior safety Jordan Simone also added 12 solo tackles, including three of them for a loss, and redshirt junior Laiu Moeakiola set career highs with 11 tackles and three tackles for loss, respectively.

The Sun Devils offense began with a spark when Bercovici connected with Foster on a 15-yard pass for the first play of the game. The catch marked 42 consecutive games with at least one reception for Foster and brought him within two games of tying the school record set by Sun Devil legend John Jefferson's streak.

Bercovici spread the wealth among his receivers as he completed 23 of 35 passes for 283 yards and three touchdowns. ASU's aerial attack involved four Sun Devils with three or more catches, including seven by first-year Sun Devil Devin Lucien and six from Foster.

TODD GRAHAM

HEAD COACH

ASU: 29-13 (4TH SEASON) | CAREER: 78-42 (NINTH SEASON)
2013 PAC-12 COACH OF THE YEAR

From the moment he was introduced as Arizona State University's head football coach on December 14, 2011, Todd Graham made it clear he was a visionary. A throwback. A teacher who truly believes in the virtues of hard work, dedication and giving back.

He made it clear he was going to infuse the program with a culture that was about winning in all facets of a student-athlete's life. Graham referred to it simply as, 'The Sun Devil Way.'

"Our goal as a program is that we are going to first and foremost bring out the best in every single person's character that's involved in our program," Graham said. "I'm not only interested in winning on Saturday... I want to win every day in every way. We will compete in the classroom as we compete on the field.

"On the field we're going to be passionate and disciplined. Discipline is the key to winning football games. We're going to be involved in the community. The greatest joy that I've had in my life is to learn to be a giver. . . . I want our players to understand that family and character and bringing out the best and being a giver, that's what I call unique character, is giving every day."

Graham, the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, enters his fourth season at the helm of the Arizona State University football program. Under his leadership, Sun Devil football has reached levels of success not seen in more than 30 years as last year's squad became the first to post back-to-back 10-win seasons since 1973. The accomplishment is the sum of many brilliant achievements orchestrated by Graham and his staff the last three seasons. Since Graham's arrival in Tempe...

- ASU's high-octane offense has eclipsed 50 points in 12 games and the Devils are second in the Pac-12 and seventh in the nation at 38 points per game during that stretch.
- ASU's attacking defense has outscored opponents 417-151 in points off takeaways. The Devils are second in the nation with a plus-35 turnover margin and rank in the top three in the nation in tackles for loss, sacks and interceptions. They are one of only four teams in the nation with more than 300 total tackles for loss, and their 130 sacks and 56 interceptions are both the second-highest totals among FBS teams.
- ASU has become one of the least penalized teams in the nation (third over the last three seasons in fewest penalty yards per game) and the most disciplined team in the Pac-12 (first in fewest penalties per game).
- ASU has earned three consecutive bowl bids and won the Pac-12 South in 2013.
- The Sun Devils are 16-4 at home under Graham and in the last two years have won seven of 10 games on the road.
- The Sun Devils have also reached new heights in the classroom. ASU's 12 Pac-12 All-Academic honorees in 2014 were the most in program history (26 in three years). In addition, 97 football student-athletes have earned Scholar Baller® recognition – which honors Sun Devil student-athletes who achieve a 3.0 GPA or higher – in his three seasons.

In 2014, Graham's Sun Devil squad posted a 10-3 record, including 6-3 in Pac-12 play, a second-place finish in the Pac-12 South Division and a 36-31 victory over Duke in the Sun Bowl. Tasked with replacing nine starters on defense, Graham led a unit that ranked near the top in the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, forced 27 turnovers and scored five touchdowns during the season.

On the other side of the ball, ASU finished the season ranked 16th in the nation in scoring offense and averaged more than 440 yards per game behind record-breaking quarterback and Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year Taylor Kelly, 1,000-yard rusher D.J. Foster and 1,000-yard receiver Jaelen Strong.

A total of 28 FBS schools hired coaches prior to the 2012 season, 17 of which remain at those schools. Of those coaches, Graham has posted the fourth-best overall record in his first three seasons behind only Urban Meyer (38-3), Jim Mora (29-11) and Kevin Sumlin (28-11).

In 2013 Graham's Sun Devils brushed aside the prognostications from skeptics who felt that an early-season string of games against Wisconsin, Stanford, USC and Notre Dame would be a little bit too much to overcome. Then, sitting with a 5-2 record after seven games and still very much in the race for the Pac-12 South crown, the Sun Devils would have their endurance and desire questioned again as they had to navigate their way through a stretch of three of their next four games on the road. In a gut-check, 20-19 win at Utah, the Sun Devils dug deep and proved they had the toughness and resilience to fight through any challenge that lay before them.

That belief would serve them well two weeks later in a winner-take-all showdown at No. 14 UCLA. At stake: a trip to the Pac-12 Championship game. There would be no hesitation to seize the moment as the Sun Devils ambushed the Bruins, jumping out to a 35-13 halftime lead. Despite its early dominance, ASU could not leave UCLA's Rose Bowl Stadium with a win until having to overcome yet another test.

A furious rally by the Bruins got them to within one score. Down 38-33 and with 3:21 remaining, the Bruins took over possession of the ball at their own 35. In a similar situation one year earlier, UCLA responded by taking the ball down the field for the game winning field goal. Despite Hollywood being only 15 miles away, the Sun Devil defense ensured there would be no sequel on this day as a pair of critical sacks forced the UCLA offense into submission. And just like that, the Sun Devils were champions of the Pac-12 South.

One week later ASU would keep possession of the Territorial Cup after blitzing Arizona 58-21. With the win the Sun Devils clinched a berth in the 2013 Pac-12 Championship Game.

ASU outscored its opponents 146-42 on points off turnovers while posting a +15 takeaway number in 2013. ASU put points on the board following 75.8 percent of opponent turnovers (25-of-33) compared to just the 33.3 (6-of-18) percent clip ASU opponents scored off of Sun Devil turnovers.

The duo of defensive tackle Will Sutton and linebacker Carl Bradford combined to give ASU the most dynamic defensive tandem in the country as the two combined for 24.5 sacks and 44.0 tackles for loss in 2012. Their collective average of 1.92 sacks per game was the highest in the country by two players on the same team since the 2006 season. Bradford racked up 40.5 tackles for loss in two years under Graham, tied for the fourth most by any player in the nation in that time.

Sutton became ASU's sixth winner of the Morris Trophy and the 18th consensus All-American and first since 2007. Sutton also became the fifth ASU player to win the Pac-10/12 conference Defensive Player of the Year award. After accomplishing all of that as a junior, Sutton returned for his senior season and repeated as the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and Morris Trophy Winner while adding numerous All-American accolades.

Although the 2013 Sun Devils would come up short of their ultimate goal of getting to and winning the annual Rose Bowl Game, they proved they had the right people on board. And leading that ship a captain in Graham, who, surrounded by the best lieutenants in the land, would put them in position to get there again.

Graham was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and as he and his staff of talented assistants – all committed to winning, ‘The Sun Devil Way – guided the team through a turbulent schedule to post a 10-4 record and an 8-1 record to earn the program’s first Pac-12 Championship game berth.

“The honor says, ‘Coach of the Year,’ but it really should say ‘Team of the Year,’ because none of this would be possible without the work of our tireless coaching – I’m very blessed to have tremendous teachers, men of great character that do a tremendous job – and the trust of our kids to believe what we are teaching them is going to take us where we want to go,” said Graham.

In his first season at Arizona State, Graham guided the team to an 8-5 record as the program recorded its first winning regular season since going 10-2 in 2007. ASU ended the season with three straight wins for the first time since 1978 and just the 14th time in school history.

That season, ASU beat Arizona in a dramatic fourth-quarter comeback in Tucson to reclaim the Territorial Cup and went on to win a bowl game for the first time since 2005 and the 13th time in school history. Additionally, ASU was one of just four Pac-12 teams to win at least three conference road games (3-2) in 2012, doing so for just the fifth time in the program’s Pac-10/12 history.

While known for leading programs that have annually been among the nation’s leaders in offensive production, Graham gained national acclaim for his coaching prowess on the other side of the ball after leading defenses that helped West Virginia (2002) and Tulsa (2003) engineer two of the top single-season turnarounds in recent memory. With head-turning accomplishments like those it is easy to see why Graham believes that defense wins championships.

Employing an approach that emphasizes excellent fundamentals and hard and disciplined play, the Sun Devils’ extraordinary improvement on defense played a paramount role in the team’s rise improvement in 2012. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Pac-12 in several defensive categories in 2011, the Sun Devils experienced an amazing reversal in 2012 as they led the conference in tackles for loss (No. 1 in the nation), pass defense (No. 3 in the nation), and pass efficiency defense (No. 10 in the nation) and finished second in the league in sacks (No. 2 in the nation), interceptions (No. 4 in the nation) and total defense.

Graham was named the 23rd head football coach in program history on December 14, 2011, arriving in Tempe from the University of Pittsburgh.

Graham became well-known on the national scene following a four-year stint at Tulsa (2007-2010) where he led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark, which included three bowl wins and three seasons of 10-plus wins. Tulsa was one of just 11 schools to post back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2007 and 2008.

The native of Mesquite, Texas, had seasons at Tulsa which included records of 10-4 (2007), 11-3 (2008) and 10-3 (2010) and in his final season the Golden Hurricane won games at Notre Dame and then topped No. 24 Hawaii 62-35 in its own bowl game. The Notre Dame win was dubbed the biggest upset of the 2010 college football season by ESPN’s Kirk Herbstreit.

One distinguishing characteristic of Graham-coached teams has been their propensity for lighting up the scoreboard. On two occasions Tulsa led the nation in total offense (2007 at 543.9 yards per game and 2008 at 569.9 yards per game) and ranked fifth in 2010. His 2010 Tulsa team also led the nation in interceptions (24) and was third in turnovers gained (36). His 2007 squad not only led the nation in total offense at 543.9 yards per game, it set 29 school records, 15 conference marks and four NCAA records. Tulsa routed Bowling Green 63-7 in the GMAC Bowl, the largest bowl margin of victory in NCAA history.

His 2008 team again led the nation in total offense (569.9 yards per game) while ranking second in scoring (47.2 points per game), fifth in rushing (268 ypg) and ninth in passing (301.9

ypg). His team finished 11-3, capped by another large bowl win, a 45-13 victory over No. 22 Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.

Including ASU’s 62-28 win over Navy in the 2012 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, Graham’s offense has enabled three different teams (two at Tulsa) to score 60-plus points in a bowl game, making him the only coach to accomplish the feat multiple times.

Prior to taking the head job at Tulsa, Graham led Rice to its first bowl game in 45 seasons in 2006 and earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors that same season.

Graham began his coaching career in 1988 as an assistant at Poteet High School/Middle School in Mesquite (1988-90) and then helped lead East Central University from a .500 program to NAIA national champions in his third year as he served as defensive coordinator from 1991-93. One year later he was at Carl Albert High School in Midwest City, Okla., and then spent time from 1995-2000 at Allen High School in Allen, Texas. While at Allen, north of Dallas, he also served as athletic director and led a program that had no district wins in the year prior to his arrival to five playoff berths in six seasons (1995-2000).

Graham was hired as the linebackers coach at West Virginia in 2001 and one year later he was promoted to defensive co-coordinator as the Mountaineers went from 3-8 to 9-4, the top turnaround in the country in 2002.

In 2003 Steve Kragthorpe hired Graham as the defensive coordinator at Tulsa. For the second time in as many years, a Graham-led defense proved instrumental in helping a program post the nation’s best turnaround as the Golden Hurricane went from 1-11 in 2002 to 8-5 in 2003. Graham’s defenses would help lead Tulsa to a pair of bowl games before he moved on to take over the head job at Rice.

Graham was an all-state defensive back at North Mesquite High School and, after graduating in 1983, he played for East Central University in Ada, Okla., where he was a two-time NAIA All-American defensive back.

Born Dec. 5 1964, Graham earned his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in education from East Central University. He and his wife, Penni, have six children: Bo, Natalie, Hank, Haylee, Dakota
