KICKING OFF

The 2019 regular season is quickly approaching for the University of New Mexico women's soccer team and the Lobos will have a couple of opportunities to get out on the field in game action over the next week as they will host a pair of exhibition games against NCAA Division II opponents. First up on that list is Colorado School of Mines on Saturday, August 17 followed by Colorado State Pueblo on Wednesday, August 21.

Both preseason friendlies will provide a great opportunity for the Lobos to gauge where they are as a team before opening up their regular season at home on Sunday, August 25 against No. 22-ranked Texas Tech.

Entering the 2019 season, the Lobos lost just three seniors from a year ago, but that trio logged considerable minutes and will be difficult to replace. Despite the key contributions of those seniors, the outlook for the 2019 season remains high both internally and externally as the Lobos were recently picked to finish third in the Mountain West by the league head coaches.

Paramount to that optimism is the fact that the Lobos return both goalkeepers and a majority of their scoring offense from a year ago.

2019 WOMEN'S SOCCER

HEATHER DYCHE | @HEATHERDYCHE
RECORD AT UNM: 44-29-9 (5TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: SAME

NOTEWORTHY :

- » Named the fourth head coach in program history on January 29, 2015
- » Ranks second in program history in wins with 44
- » Led team to consecutive Mountain West Tournament Championship Games

HEATHER DYCHE enters into her fifth season as the head women's soccer coach at The University of New Mexico.

The Albuquerque native owns a 44-29-9 overall record and a 26-14-4 mark in Mountain West play. This past season, Dyche guided the Lobos to a share of the program's third regular season title while also making a second-straight appearance in the MW Tournament Championship Game.

Additionally, Dyche's 2018 Lobo team set a program record for goals scored with 45 and posted second-best program marks in assists (33) and points (123). In terms of individual player accolades, three standouts received All-Pacific Region honors from the United Soccer Coaches, which was a program record. From the Mountain West, the 2018 team had five honorees, three of which were first team selections.

All told, Coach Dyche has coached 10 All-MW selections while at UNM. Success has also come under Dyche's leadership in the classroom. In each semester since Dyche's arrival, the UNM women's soccer team has posted a team GPA of 3.46 or higher and three times have posted GPA's above 3.7. For three-straight years, the team has received the Team Academic Award from the United Soccer Coaches.

In her first season, Dyche became the third coach in Lobo women's soccer history to begin her career with double-digit victories by going 10-8-2 in 2015. That record included a 7-3-1 record in Mountain West play and a run to MW Tournament semifinals.

Along with leading the Lobos, Dyche traveled to Brazil to assist the U.S. Women's National Team during the 2016 Summer Olympic Games - assisting with scouting and analyzing opponents. She also served as an assistant coach for the U-18 U.S. Women's National Team's trip to Australia in the summer of 2017.

Dyche is also a coach, instructor and scout with the United States Soccer Federation (USSF). Dyche is an assistant coach for the US Youth National Team U14 and U15 Girls. There, Dyche is granted the opportunity to identify and work with the most talented U15 soccer players in the country and the core of the US team that competed in the 2018 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. She also serves on the USSF instructional staff, instructing USSF B- and USSF C-licensed national coaching schools across the country.

Dyche's footprint at the elite level spans past the national stage, as she has also assisted for national teams from Antigua, St. Kitts and Nevis and Grenada.

Dyche serves on the instructional staff for The Confederation of North, Central American and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF). As the only female of the CONCACAF educational board, Dyche teaches C, D and grassroots courses in order while developing and writing content for all women's grassroots programs.

Dyche is a US Youth Region IV ODP head coach. There, she coaches the team at Olympic Development Interregional events and identifies top players in the region to participate in the Olympic Development Program Regional Team.

Finally, she is also the co-founder and head coach of LEAD Academy (Leadership and Empowerment through Athletic Development Soccer) - an all-girls soccer leadership training school

POTENT TOP-25 OFFENSE PACES THE MW

Last season, UNM women's soccer possessed one of the most potent offenses in the country. Having scored multiple goals in 15 of their 21 games, the Lobos ended the year with 45 goals. Those 45 goals established a new single-season program record, led the Mountain West and ranked 25th in all of Division I.

NINE NEWCOMERS TO THE FOLD

The Lobos did not lose much from their team a year ago as the 2018 iteration boasted just three seniors. Despite that, the Lobos have bolstered their roster with depth and talent thanks to the addition of nine newcomers to the fold. Listed among those newcomers are ALLISON AREND, ALEXIS CHRISTIANSEN, ALIX HAILEY, MYAH ISAIS, JULIANA KOTSIOS, PARIS MCKENZIE, DANI MOSHER, AKANE TAKADA and MAYSA WALTERS. Takada is the lone newcomer not entering as a true freshman as she is transferring from junior college power Tyler JC.

GARCIA AND GAME-WINNERS

Sophomore forward ALESIA GARCIA wasted little time in establishing herself as one of the top scoring threats in the MW as she ranked in a tie for second with seven goals. While any goal is important, all but two of Garcia's were extremely important as they ended up being game-winning goals. Her five game-winners were tied for the second-most by a Lobo in a season and already place her in a tie for sixth on the career list.

CORNERING THE MARKET ON CORNER KICKS

This past season, the Lobos set a new program single-season record for corner kicks as they racked up a whopping 124 corners. That total led the Mountain West by nine as San José State was the next-closest with 113 corners.

HIX KNOCKING ON DOOR OF TOP-5 IN GOALS

A two-time All-Mountain West First Team selection, JESSIE HIX has turned in a stellar career thus far for her hometown team. Her prowess on the pitch is most evident offensively. For her career, Hix has found the back of the net 14 times to place her currently in a tie for sixth all-time at UNM. Entering her senior campaign, Hix is just four goals away from moving into the top-five in program history.

ROAD WARRIORS

Home games were kind to the Lobos last season as they went 8-1-1 while playing at the UNM Soccer Complex, but this year, the Lobos will be forced to be road warriors as 11 of their 18 scheduled regular season games will take place away from the Duke City. Last season, the Lobos had a mixed results on the road going 3-4-1.

AWARDS AND ACCOLADES

The 2018 season was one of the most successful in program history with 13 wins (tied for second-most) and an overall .686 winning percentage (highest since 2009 and third-best). That team success also yielded a bevy of individual awards.

At the conference level, the 2018 Lobos had the second-most all-conference honorees all-time with five. Of those, JESSIE HIX, GWEN MALY and JENNIFER MUÑOZ were named to the first team; matching the program standard of three first team honorees set in 2010.

Those three first team selections also went on to earn All-Pacific Region honors from the United Soccer Coaches. It was the first time since 2011 that the program had an all-region performer.

IF YOU SCORE FIRST...

Being the first to find the back of the net virtually ensured a win for the Lobos a year ago. When scoring first in 2018, the Lobos posted an 11-1-1 record. Conversely, the Lobos were 2-5-1 last season when their opponent opened scoring.

DON'T TRAIL AT HALFTIME

Last season, the Lobos entered their locker room either leading or tied in 15 of their 21 games. In those instances, the Lobos ended up posting a 12-2-1 record. When leading after the first 45 minutes, the Lobos were unbeaten with a 7-0-1 record.
