AGGIE FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

BATTLE OF I-25

Rivalry week is here. NM State clashes with in-state foe New Mexico at 2:30 p.m. (MT) Saturday, Sept. 21, inside Dreamstyle Stadium in Albuquerque, N.M.

The contest will be broadcast on AT&T Sports Network, with Brad Thompson (play-by-play), Sed Bonner (analyst) and Marc Stout on the call.

THE RIVALRY RUNS DEEP

Bragging rights are on the line when the two programs meet for the 110th time in history this Saturday.

The Lobos hold a 71-33-5 all-time series lead over the Aggies, including a 40-14-3 advantage on their home turf. NM State has maintained the upper hand since 2016, however, winning two of the previous three matchups.

The Aggies won 32-21 at home in 2016 before once again knocking off New Mexico, 30-28, on the road in 2017.

The Lobos defeated NM State, 42-25, in last season's contest at Aggie Memorial Stadium. Multiple Aggie playmakers, including key returnees quarterback Josh Adkins, tailback Jason Huntley, wideout OJ Clark and linebacker Javahn Ferguson, terrorized New Mexico despite the setback.

Adkins, in his first extended appearance, threw for 168 yards and a touchdown. He linked up with Huntley, who finished with 87 receiving yards on four catches, for a 58-yard score. Huntley also gashed the Lobos on the ground, rushing for 67 yards on 15 carries (4.5 avg).

Clark caught four passes through the air, as well, racking up 27 receiving yards. Ferguson, meanwhile, had the game of his life, logging a career-best 22 tackles, including a personal-best 2.0 sacks.

SCOUTING THE LOBOS

New Mexico enters Saturday's tilt with a 1-1 overall record, coming off of a 66-14 loss at No. 7 Notre Dame. Quarterback Sheriron Jones made the start and threw three interceptions before giving way to backup Tevaka Tuioti in the second half.

Tuioti, who led the Lobos on a 75-yard fourth-quarter scoring drive against Notre Dame, is expected to get the start versus NM State. The redshirt sophomore, though plagued by injuries throughout his career, is a dual-threat quarterback, possessing the ability to make plays with his arm and legs.

Halfback Ahmari Davis is the offense's most dangerous weapon. Davis has rushed for 129 yards on 25 carries (5.2 avg) and two scores through the first two games of the year.

Defensively, the Lobos are led by linebacker Alex Hart. The captain is second on the team in total tackles (14) with 2.0 tackles for losses this season, including 1.0 sacks.

ALL ABOUT THE AGGIES

NM State returns 17 starters from last year's squad, including eight on the offensive side of the football. Redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Adkins is tasked with leading the Aggie offense, taking over the starting role four games into last season. Senior running back Jason Huntley, who led the nation with three kickoff return touchdowns a year ago, provides explosiveness in different facets of the game for the Aggies.

The defense brings back nine starters from a year ago, paced by redshirt senior linebacker Javahn Fergurson, the nation's reigning leader in tackles per game. Senior defensive lineman Roy Lopez, who logged a team-high 12.5 tackles for loss last season, is back to wreak havoc in opposing backfields.

Senior placekicker Dylan Brown mans field-goal and kickoff responsibilities. The native of Chandler, Ariz., connected on 10-of-15 attempts last season, including a career-long make of 49 yards.

QB1

NM State redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Adkins was named to the Wuerffel Trophy watch list entering 2019.

The Wuerffel Trophy, recognized as "College Football's Premier Award for Community Service," is presented each February. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel from the University of Florida, the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player that best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

Adkins made his debut last season with the Aggies at Utah State and saw action against New Mexico at home before making his first start at UTEP. The Spring Branch, Texas, native, finished the year with 13 passing touchdowns for 2,563 yards.

His 222 pass completions were good for ninth best in program history for a single season while his 2,563 passing yards was good for 10th most in a single season. In addition, his 256.3 yards per game was good for seventh on the single-season program record list. His three games of 300-plus passing yards tied him for fifth most in the careers category while his seven games of 200-plus passing yards is tied for 14th on the all-time list.

THE ALL-AMERICAN

Senior halfback Jason Huntley, a Phil Steele fourth-team All-American last season, has racked up a bevy of preseason accolades entering the 2019 campaign.

Huntley was named to the watch list for the 2019 Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, which recognizes the top offensive player in Division I football from the state of Texas.

It is the second watch list that Huntley has appeared in this preseason. He was first named to the 2019 Paul Hornung Award Watch List, which is given annually to the most versatile player in college football.

The native of Arlington, Texas, rushed for 505 yards and seven touchdowns while recording 529 receiving yards for three scores one season ago. As a return specialist, he led the nation with three kickoff return touchdowns, finishing the year with 1,632 all-purpose yards en route to becoming the third running back in program history to earn All-America honors.

Huntley is just two return touchdowns shy of tying the FBS record of seven. That figure is held by Rashaad Penny (San Diego State, 2014-17) and Tony Pallard (Memphis, 2016-18).

TACKLE MACHINE

Redshirt senior linebacker Javahn Ferguson, the nation's leader in tackles per game last season, has the attention of some of the country's top talent evaluators heading into the 2019 campaign.

Ferguson was named to the Senior Bowl watch list. The Senior Bowl, the premier annual college all-star game for the nation's top upperclassmen, will be played Jan. 29, 2020, at Ladd-Peebles Stadium in Mobile, Alabama.

Ferguson started all ten games he played in last year, leading the entire country in tackles per game (13.2). He finished the year with 132 total tackles (42 solo, 90 assisted), recording double-figure tackles in eight of the ten games he played in.

The native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, racked up 15+ tackles in four games, including a career-high 22 tackles vs. New Mexico (9/15). He was second on the team in sacks with 5.5, including a season-high two sacks vs. New Mexico.

DOWNTOWN DYLAN BROWN

Senior kicker Dylan Brown was nominated as NM State's representative for the prestigious National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy.

The award is given to a collegiate football student-athlete with the best combination of academic success, community service and on-field performance.

Brown, who transferred to NM State after spending his freshman year at Phoenix College, has handled the Aggies' field-goal and kickoff responsibilities since stepping foot on campus. He finished his sophomore campaign 13-of-17 on field-goal attempts, connecting on both of his kicks in NM State's win against Utah State in the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Last season, the native of Chandler, Ariz., was 10-of-15 on field-goal attempts, drilling a career-long 49-yarder at Utah State. He was a perfect 35-of-35 on point-after attempts, giving him 64 consecutive makes dating back to his sophomore year.

Brown, who is majoring in kinesiology, currently ranks first in the Aggie record book in career field-goal percentage and third in career extra-point percentage. He connected on his first field-goal make of the year at No. 2 Alabama, drilling a 43-yard attempt.

LAST TIME OUT

The Aggie offense, led by the arm of redshirt sophomore quarterback Josh Adkins and the hands of graduate transfer wideout Tony Nicholson, hit its stride in the second half, but it was too little too late.

Plagued by turnovers and silenced by the Aztec defense throughout the first half,

NM State finally found its way in third quarter, cutting its deficit to two scores in the frame's final minute. The Aggies (0-3) would not get any closer, however, falling 31-10 to San Diego State (3-0) Saturday, Sept. 14, in the home opener inside Aggie Memorial Stadium.

Adkins, the Aggie signal caller, accompanied his 299 total yards of passing with a 35-yard touchdown toss, linking up with junior wide receiver Robert Downs III in the third quarter. It was Adkins' second of the season and the first touchdown-scoring grab of Downs III's career.

Adkins, who completed 26-of-41 passes, threw receptions to nine different receivers in the contest, with Nicholson and redshirt senior wideout OJ Clark garnering the majority of targets. Nicholson caught a team-high seven passes for a career-best 78 yards, and Clark followed closely behind him, making six catches for 52 yards.

After failing to force a turnover in the first two games of the season, the Aggie defense came out hungry. Senior defensive back Austin Perkins picked off opposing quarterback Ryan Agnew on San Diego State's opening drive of the game, marking the first time that the Aztec signal caller has thrown an interception in a road game in his career.

NM State's offense could not match the defense's success, though. The Aggies struggled with ineffectiveness and turnovers in the first two quarters, fumbling on their first possession of the game and punting three times in the half. The first of Adkins' two interceptions came midway through the second quarter.

San Diego State built a 17-0 lead by halftime, capitalizing off of the Aggies' woes. The Aztecs dominated time of possession in the first half, controlling the football for more than 21 minutes.

The Aggies showed signs of life in the third quarter, thanks to Adkins' touchdown toss and senior placekicker Dylan Brown's 46-yard field goal. NM State trailed by only 14 points with 23 seconds left to play in the third, but San Diego State would tack on a touchdown to begin the final period of play and hold off the Aggies for the rest of the way.

NOTABLES: LAST GAME

The Aggie defense intercepted a pass from San Diego State QB Ryan Agnew in the first quarter. It's the first time that Agnew has thrown an interception in a road game in his career.

QB Josh Adkins completed 26-of-41 pass for 299 yards and a touchdown. He threw receptions to nine different receivers.

WR Robert Downs III hauled in his first career touchdown reception in the third quarter. He caught a 35-yard pass from Adkins for the Aggies' lone touchdown of the contest.

DT Myles Vigne logged his first career pass breakup. He finished with four tackles.

LB Javahn Ferguson led the team in tackles with 15 (3 solo). He recorded 1.0 tackles for loss in addition to a career-high two pass breakups.

LB Rashie Hodge carded his first career pass breakup. He finished the game with nine tackles, five of which were solo.

DB Austin Perkins made his second career interception in the first quarter. DB Ray Ruford, meanwhile, had a career-high six tackles (all solo), including 1.0 tackles for loss.

K Dylan Brown drilled a 46-yard field goal. He has connected on field goals of 40+ yards in back-to-back weeks.

CRACK OPEN A COLD ONE

New Mexico State is one of only 16 collegiate institutions in the United States to have an officially licensed beer.

Pistol Pete's 1888, a collaboration between NM State and Bosque Brewing Co., was released throughout the state of New Mexico in the fall of 2017 before the canned version was released in August 2018. The beer is available for purchase inside Aggie Memorial Stadium.

A brilliant pale straw-colored ale with a light malt sweetness and just enough late addition hops to add flavor and aromatic nuance, Pistol Pete's 1888 received a bronze medal at the 2018 Great American Beer Festival (GABF). It was recognized in the Golden or Blonde Ale beer-style category.

Bosque is headquartered in Albuquerque, N.M., with two locations in addition to its newest addition in the Bernalillo area. The brewery also has locations in Las Cruces.

Carroll College, Colorado, Colorado State, LSU, Louisiana, Montana, Montana State, NC State, New Mexico, New Orleans, Purdue, SEMO, Tulane, UC Davis and Wichita State also have officially licensed beers.

three-year deal with FloSports to broadcast Aggie football home games through the 2021 season.

Through this new deal, FloSports, an innovator in live digital sports and original content, will provide live and on-demand coverage of all Aggie home football games on FloFootball.

“Partnering with FloSports to provide Aggie football games and additional Aggie related content will be a tremendous addition for Aggie Nation around the state, country and worldwide,” NM State Director of Athletics Mario Moccia said. “We have traditionally had a strong linear presence, and now with FloSports as our partner, we will have a tremendous OTT presence as well.”

The home games that will air live on FloFootball in 2019 include the following:

- Sept. 14 vs. San Diego State Aztecs
- Sept. 28 vs. Fresno State Bulldogs
- Oct. 5 vs. Liberty Flames
- Nov. 16 vs. UIW Cardinals
- Nov. 23 vs. UTEP Miners

To access live and on-demand coverage of the NM State football games, visit FloFootball.com to become a monthly or annual PRO subscriber. Either subscription unlocks access to premium content across the entire FloSports network. Watch the event across all screens by downloading the FloSports app on Roku, Amazon Fire TV, Apple TV, and the App Store.

CHASING HUNTLEY

All eyes are on New Mexico State football senior Jason Huntley as he chases the NCAA football record for most kickoff returns for touchdowns in his final campaign in the Crimson & White.

The All-American running back currently has five career returns for touchdowns, which is tied with Mike Carroll (1965-67) for the most in program history.

Huntley now needs just two more kickoff returns to tie the FBS record of seven, which is held by Rashaad Penny (San Diego State, 2014-17) and Tony Pallard (Memphis, 2016-18).

DOUG MARTIN

SEVENTH SEASON

Doug Martin is entering his seventh season at the helm of the NM State football program in 2019.

Martin was officially announced as the Aggies' 34th head football coach on Feb. 1, 2013, after the departure of former head coach DeWayne Walker to the NFL. Martin was no stranger to the NM State program as he was the Aggie offensive coordinator under Walker in 2011.

In 2017, Martin etched his name into Aggie lore when he guided the Aggies to their first bowl game in 57 years and then captured the 2017 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship in front of 25,000-plus Aggie fans at Arizona Stadium on Friday, 12/29/17.

The season was capped off with a storybook ending as Larry Rose III rushed in the winning touchdown in overtime for the 26-20 victory over Utah State – the last opponent NM State defeated in 1960 when it last appeared in a bowl game. Rose III was named the offensive MVP while Leon McQuaker took home defensive MVP honors.

Rose III's game-winning touchdown also saw him tie James "Preacher" Pilot for the most rushing touchdowns in program history with 37.

At season's end, the team finished the regular-season 7-6 and 4-4 against Sun Belt opponents. These victories included a sweep over NM State's rivals UTEP and New Mexico for the first time since 2002. The win in 2017 over UNM was the second win in as many years.

The Aggies' head coach helped guide the offense to average 453.8 total yards of offense per game, including a Sun Belt-best 352.6 passing yardage. Martin led quarterback Tyler Rodgers to a conference-leading 3,825 yards with 26 touchdown passes. Wide receiver Jaleel Scott also posted a standout season as the senior led the team with eight touchdowns and 1,042 total yards. For his efforts Scott received an invitation to the Senior Bowl, a first for an Aggie since 1978.

The strong season led Scott to being selected in the fourth round (132 overall) by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2018 NFL Draft. Scott, a First Team All-Conference selection in the Sun Belt, became the first Aggie chosen in the draft since the Jacksonville Jaguars took Jeremy Harris in the seventh round in 2013. The wideout was the highest Aggie taken in the draft since Davon House was selected in the fourth round, pick 131, by the Green Bay Packers in 2011.

NM State finished 2016 with a record of 3-9 for the second straight year, including a 32-31 rivalry win in the second game of the season against New Mexico. In conference play, the Aggies collected a 37-31 home win against Louisiana and cruised by Texas State, 50-10, at home.

Martin coached seven players that earned All-Sun Belt postseason honors, which was the most by NM State since joining the SBC in 2013. Linebacker Rodney Butler was named first-team all-conference after leading the country in tackles with 165. Butler, who concluded his career fourth in school history in tackles with 378, was named a Phil Steele All-American at the end of the season. Butler became the third Aggie to lead the country in tackles for a single season.

Martin helped lead the Aggies to an average of 414.7 yards of total offense per game, including 244.92 through the air. Martin guided quarterback Tyler Rogers to a strong campaign with 16 touchdown passes and 2,603 passing yards. Meanwhile, the Aggie backfield, led by Larry Rose III, averaged 169.8 yards per game on the ground. Rose III paced the ground attack with 935 yards on the season.

The Aggies concluded the 2015 season with a 3-9 record, which is the best record for the program since 2011. In conference play, NM State defeated Idaho 55-48, Texas State 31-21 and UL-Lafayette 37-34 to collect three victories in a row. This was also the first time the team won three in a row since 2004.

As the offensive coordinator, Martin guided sophomore Larry Rose III as he broke the NM State single-season rushing record in just 10 games. Overall, Rose III had 1,651 rushing yards to finish the year ranked No. 6 all-time in the conference. For his accomplishments, Rose III earned Associated Press All-American Third Team honors and was named the Sun Belt Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Overall, the Aggies won five conference Player of the Week awards. Rose III won back-to-back honors, while Andrew Allen and Parker Davidson both won after leading the team to victory against UL-Lafayette. Jaden Wright was named Defensive Player of the Week at the beginning of the season.

NM State went 2-10 for the second year in a row in 2014. During Martin's second year, the Aggies began the season 2-0 for the first time since 1999. After topping Cal Poly in a 28-10 victory, NM State defeated Georgia State, 34-31, in its first Sun Belt Conference game.

The Aggies also faced I-10 rival UTEP, Rio Grande rival New Mexico and No. 17 LSU in 2014. Under Martin's tutelage, Allen became the first freshman to rush for over 100 yards against LSU since 2011. Later in the season, Rose III rushed for 229 yards against UL-Monroe to become the first NM State player to rush for over 200 yards since 2003 when Eric Higgins ran for 218 yards. This feat ranked Rose III as No. 7 all-time for single game performances.

With Martin guiding him, Rose III amassed 1,102 yards over the season to become the first 1,000 yard rusher since Kenny Turner in 2011. This was also the first time a freshman rushed for over 1,000 yards since Dervis Manns in 1995.

As a team, the Aggies averaged 420.9 yards of total offense per game after amassing 2,252 rushing yards and 2,899 receiving yards through 12 games. Defensively, NM State had two players amass triple-digit tackling on the season as Rodney Butler racked up 119 tackles and Derek Ibekwe accumulated 102 tackles. In addition, 21 student-athletes garnered double-digit tackles on the season. In all, the defense had 1,028 tackles, fivesacks, 11 interceptions and 10 fumble recoveries.

NM State went 2-10 in 2013 during Martin's first season as head coach after playing one of the toughest schedules in the school's history. The Aggies faced five teams that had participated in a bowl game the previous season while also playing two teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

NM State kicked off the 2013 season with a trip to Austin, Texas, to face the 15th-ranked Texas Longhorns and also made a trip to Los Angeles during the season to play No. 13 UCLA. The Aggies' home schedule included games versus Minnesota, which was the first school out of the Big Ten to play at Aggie Memorial Stadium, and Boston College, which was the first school out of the Atlantic Coast Conference to make a trip to Las Cruces.

The Aggies averaged 20.9 points per game and 382.2 yards per game in 2013, including 141.8 yards per game on the ground and 240.5 yards per game through the air. The team had a season-high 224 yards rushing against Abilene Christian on Oct. 26 and a season-high 380 yards passing and receiving versus Boston College on Nov. 9.

Martin's influence and system began to take shape during the final five games of the season as NM State went 2-3 in those games and had fourth-quarter chances for a win in two of the three losses.

Martin would start making an impact on the squad as soon as he accepted the head coaching position. Before the season began, the Aggies had four players placed on six different preseason watch lists, the most for any NM State football team in the school's history. NM State also had 12 players honored on the College Sports Madness Independent Preseason All-Conference team and 11 players on the Phil Steele College Football Preview All-Independent team.

During the season, senior safety Davis Cazares was nominated as a Bulsworth Trophy finalist, honoring the most outstanding collegiate football player who began his career as a walk-on. Linebacker Clint Barnard would be named to the Capital One Academic All-District VII first team. The Aggies would also pick up three FBS Independent Player of the Week nods in 2013 under Martin, Cazares and Barnard on the defensive side and punter Cayle Chapman-Brown on special teams.

At the conclusion of the 2013 season, NM State would place five players on the All-Independent Football team including Cazares, Trashaun Nixon, Austin Franklin, Andy Cunningham and Davonte Wallace.

In 2012, Martin left his offensive coordinator position at NM State to take the same position for Boston College out of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles ranked 47th in the nation in passing offense, as Martin guided wide receiver Alex Amidon and offensive tackle Emmett Cleary to All-ACC honors.

As the offensive coordinator for the Aggies in 2011, Martin helped NM State rank 47th in the country in total offense and 26th in passing offense. He helped guide the Aggies to a win over Minnesota, the program's first win against a team from the Big Ten.

With seven seasons under his belt as the head coach at Kent State University and eight as the offensive coordinator, Martin was instrumental in building a true football program at the university. A total of 20 Golden Flashes earned All-Mid-American Conference accolades from 2007-10, including Eugene Jarvis, who was atop the active Football Bowl Subdivision running backs list with 3,722 career yards on the ground, and Brian Lainhart, whose 17 career interceptions was also tops among active FBS players.

In 2010, Roosevelt Nix was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year under Martin's watch. Also with Martin's help, four players were selected in the NFL draft including Jameson Konz (2010 - 7th round, Seattle Seahawks), Usama Young (2007 - 3rd round, New Orleans Saints), Jack Williams (2008 - 4th round, Denver Broncos) and Julian Edelman (2009 - 7th round, New England Patriots).

Martin is widely regarded as one of the nation's premier quarterback mentors. His list of protégés includes three-time All-Conference USA selection and current NFL passer David Garrard, record-setting CFL quarterback Marcus Crandell and other pros Richard Alston and Joshua Cribbs, who both played quarterback in college under Martin before switching positions in the NFL.

In Martin's first season, the Golden Flashes posted a 5-6 overall record, winning their final four games for the program's longest winning streak since 1976. The team also finished in fourth place in the MAC East Division with a 4-4 mark while producing three All-MAC players and two honorable mention All-Americans.

Martin was named the school's 19th head coach on March 1, 2004, replacing Dean Pees. Martin joined the Kent State staff in January 2003 as offensive coordinator. After just one year on the staff, Martin made an instant impact on the Golden Flashes' offense. In its first season under Martin's system, Kent State averaged 26.8 points per game, the second-highest in the previous 30 years for the program.

Martin arrived at Kent State following 11 seasons at East Carolina University, the last seven of which he was in charge of the team's offense. He was at ECU for all of Steve Logan's tenure there, serving as the tight ends coach and special team's coordinator for two seasons (1992-93), then another two years as wide receivers coach (1994-95) before being promoted to offensive coordinator in 1996.

Prior to joining the staff at East Carolina, Martin was a graduate assistant at the University of Kentucky, his alma mater, from 1986-87 and then spent the 1988-91 seasons at East Tennessee State University.

Martin was a four-year letterwinner at Kentucky from 1981-84. A native of Oak Ridge, Tenn., Martin earned a bachelor's degree in history from Kentucky in 1985.

Martin and his wife Vicki have a daughter, Molly, and two sons, Cory and Bobby. Cory is on staff as a wide receivers coach.
