THE MATCHUP...

SCOUTING NEW MEXICO

- New Mexico is 6-2 on the season and is coming off of a win over Wisconsin on Tuesday, on a neutral court in Brooklyn, N.Y., in the Legends Classic. The Badgers are receiving top-25 votes. The Lobos' two losses have come at UTEP, by three points at the buzzer, and to No. 18 Auburn.
- UNM has one of the nation's top offenses through the first four weeks of the season, ranking 33rd with a .491 field-goal percentage and 66th for scoring (78.9 ppg). The Lobos scored 90-plus points in each of their first four victories.
- Montana and UNM are both among the nation's elite for preventing three-pointers. The Grizzlies rank 47th, with opponents shooting just .277 from deep. The Lobos are 71st, with opponents hitting at a .286 clip.
- While UNM connects on nearly half of its shot attempts, the Lobos also turn the ball over an average of 17.1 times per game (325th).
- Senior guard JaQuan Lyle leads the Lobos in several statistical categories, including 16.9 points per game. He is one of four Lobos in double figures for scoring on the season, with all four shooting at least .467 from the floor.
- Lyle was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week last week after averaging 24.5 points and 5.0 rebounds per game in wins over Green Bay and McNeese. Against Green Bay, he scored a career-high 31 points. Prior to this season, Lyle, an Ohio State transfer, had not played in two seasons due to NCAA transfer rules and injury.
- Senior forward Calton Bragg, a transfer from Kansas, is nearly averaging a double-double with 10.9 points per game (second on the team) and 9.0 rebounds per game (first). He also has a team-high 10 blocks and 10 steals (second). Bragg's rebounding average ranks 61st nationally.
- Junior guard JJ Caldwell, a transfer from Texas A&M, leads the Lobos for assists (41) and steals (18). Both figures rank in the top 62 nationally.
- UNM has been to the NCAA tournament four times in the past decade, earning a No. 3 seed in 2013. The Lobos, though, went 14-18 in 2018-19, its worst record since going 10-18 in 2002-03.
- The Lobos returned nine letterwinners and three starters from last year's team, including five of their top six scorers. The Lobos were picked to finish third in the Mountain West preseason poll.
- Paul Weir is in his third season in Albuquerque. Previously, he was at nearby New Mexico State for 10 seasons, including the final year as head coach. The Aggies went to the NCAA tournament five times during that stretch.
- The Pit, home to New Mexico basketball, is one of the top home-court advantages in the country, with the Lobos winning more than 80 percent of their games inside the venue. They have ranked in the top 30 for attendance each of the past 50 years. In 2013, the NCAA named The Pit as one of the top-five loudest basketball arenas, and Sports Illustrated named it one of the top-10 college basketball venues in the nation.

SERIES VS. THE LOBOS

Montana owns a 16-8 record over New Mexico, including a 6-6 mark in Albuquerque. In fact, the Grizzlies have won five of the past six meetings at New Mexico, but all of them came between 1956-57 and 1961-62. The only meeting in the series to take place since 1962 came in 2010, when the two teams met in the first round of the NCAA tournament. New Mexico, playing as a No. 3 seed, prevailed, 62-57, despite trailing at halftime.

SERIES VS. THE MOUNTAIN WEST

Montana owns 128 all-time wins over current members of the Mountain West (128-145, .469 winning percentage). The Grizzlies' last win came in 2015-16, over a Boise State team that won 20 games that season. The last four games against a Mountain West school have all been decided by five points or fewer.

GRIZ COME UP SHY IN NEAR UPSET OF LOBOS

SAN JOSE CALIF. (March 18, 2010) – This was a whole different breed of wolves the Montana men's basketball team ran into this year.

Four years after upsetting the Nevada Wolfpack in the first round of the NCAA men's basketball tournament, the Griz fell 62-57 to the eighth-ranked New Mexico Lobos on Thursday in a game of see-saw runs at the HP Pavilion.

The third-seeded Lobos advanced to face 11th seed Washington on Saturday. The 14th-seeded Griz finished their season at 22-10.

Montana led 29-28 at intermission behind a dominating performance from junior center Brian Qvale, who scored 17 of his career-high 26 points before intermission.

But the first eight minutes of the second half belonged to the Mountain West Conference regular-season champion Lobos. They put together a 17-0 run to take a 46-32 lead with 12:43 to play.

Then it was the Grizzlies' turn. A 12-2 run got them within 48-44 with 8:39 to play and they eventually crawled to 57-56 on a 16-foot jumper by Anthony Johnson with 1:41 to play. It was Johnson's first field goal of the game, and that told a lot of the story.

New Mexico scored its final five points at the line as the Griz couldn't convert and were forced to foul.

A little more than a week after scoring a school-record 42 points in the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game, Johnson was 1-for-12 and finished with six points, 14 below his season average.

"I just picked a bad day to have a bad shooting night," said Johnson. "Credit the defense, though, (Dairese) Gary is a tough guard. He's really strong and he was pretty physical with me throughout the game, which kind of threw me off a little bit. I was getting to the spots on the court where I like it, but the shot just wasn't falling."

New Mexico coach Steve Alford said Gary's defense on Johnson was the difference.

"He does whatever has to be done to will his team to a win," Alford said. "He's a champion. It was Dairese tonight. He holds (Johnson) to 1-for-12. I thought that was the biggest key to the game."

Roman Martinez led the Lobos with 19 points. Gary added 15 on 7-for-10 shooting from the line. Darington Hobson, the MWC player of the year, finished with 11, five below his average.

Johnson said he put his shooting woes in the past at the four-minute mark and started fresh. When his 16-footer got the Griz within a point, it was Montana's game to win.

"At that moment, there was no doubt in my mind we'd win," Johnson said. "Unfortunately, it didn't work out that way."

Johnson finished his career with 1,124 points, 14th on the school's career list in just two years.

"I'm very grateful and very, very appreciative to have been at Montana," Johnson said. "It had a profound effect on me and my family.

"They provided the opportunity to live out my college dream, play basketball and get an education. I'm forever grateful to Coach Tinks and the coaching staff for believing in me enough to bring me on board. I'm just thankful."

GRIZ BITS

- The Grizzlies are on their first winning streak of the season.
- According to KenPom's respected rankings, which accounts for Division-I competition, Montana has played the nation's sixth-toughest schedule so far this season. The Grizzlies' three DI losses have come to opponents with a combined record of 18-2.
- Montana used just eight players through the first four games of the season, before adding senior Jared Samuelson to the rotation at Washington. Four of the team's main rotation players are freshmen.
- Montana has used the same starting lineup each of the past three games. Overall, the Grizzlies have started two true freshmen in every game.
- While Montana's offense has started to hit more consistently, the defense has held its own all season, limiting all seven opponents to 74 points or fewer (65.4 average). The Grizzlies have also forced opponents into .277 three-point shooting and 14.4 turnovers per game.
- Montana's last two opponents have both been held to 62 points scored and under .400 shooting.
- The Grizzlies are 3-0 when turning the ball over 15 times or fewer and 0-4 when doing so more than 15 times. In the Grizzlies' four losses, they are averaging 19.3 turnovers per loss (22.8 points off turnover per defeat).
- Through four games, Montana averaged just 3.8 made three-pointers per game and was shooting 25.0 from beyond the arc, before connecting on nine triples at Washington (40.9 percent shooting). Montana has made eight or more three-pointers in two of its past three contests.
- While the Grizzlies made nine three-pointers against the Huskies, Washington went 0-for-11, marking the first time in 20 years that the Huskies had failed to make a three-pointer.
- Montana has out-rebounded its opponent in five of seven game
- Montana did not lead at halftime in its first five contests, but has held the lead in each of its past two games.
- Montana already has five scoring runs of more than eight points (14-0 vs. Stanford; 13-0 vs. MSU Northern; 11-0 vs. MSU Northern; 9-0 vs. Washington; 8-0 vs. Washington).

BUILDING A WINNING STREAK

Although at a modest two games, Montana has built its first winning streak of the season. The Grizzlies beat Texas Southern on Monday, before defeating Coppin State on Friday. The team's three-game losing skid earlier in November was the program's first since January 2017.

KEEPING IT TIGHT

Montana played just eight players in each of its first four games, before expanding the rotation to nine at Washington (Nov. 22), once Jared Samuelson was able to return from a knee injury.

PLAYING THEM YOUNG

Four of Montana's top eight rotation players – Derrick Carter-Hollinger, Eddy Egun, Kyle Owens and Josh Vazquez – made their collegiate debuts earlier this month at Stanford. The trio of true freshmen are all averaging at least 20.0 minutes per game, with each starting multiple times this season.

Overall, 42.8 percent of the team's minutes played have been recorded by players who were in high school or redshirting last season. The four freshmen also account for 35.7 percent of the team's scoring and 55.6 percent of its rebounding.

STARTING THEM YOUNG

In a variety of combinations, Montana has started two freshmen in all seven of its game this season, with Kyle Owens drawing six starts and Josh Vazquez and Derrick-Carter Hollinger starting four times apiece.

It marks the first time since 2014 that a pair of Montana true freshmen have started in the same game (Mario Dunn and Brandon Gfeller vs. Sacramento State on March 6, 2014). Dunn and Gfeller started the same game just once that season, and one would have to go back to 2004-05 (Andrew Strait and Matt Martin) to find the last time it has happened multiple times. Still, Strait and Martin started together as true freshmen just four times, and neither were starters to begin the season.

Since Montana began tracking starters in 1979-80, the Grizzlies had never previously started two true freshmen in five or more games in a season.

A LOOK BACK AT COPPIN STATE

- Montana has now won back-to-back games for the first time this season.
- For the second game in a row, the Grizzlies had at least four players in double figures for scoring. Sayeed Pridgett once again led the Grizzlies for a variety of statistical categories: scoring (19), rebounding (12) and assists (3).
- Freshman Derrick-Carter Hollinger recorded his first career double-double, with 10 points and 10 rebounds. Four of his rebounds came on the offensive glass. Carter-Hollinger, who earned his third consecutive start, shot 5-of-7 from the floor.
- Senior Kendal Manuel had a team-high three three-pointers and totaled 11 points on the night. Both of his triples in the second half pushed Montana's lead to a game-high 19 points.
- Junior Timmy Falls had his best all-around game of the season, totaling 14 points, three assists and two blocked shots. During the first half, he scored seven consecutive Griz points to help Montana build an early lead. He then scored back-to-back baskets a few minutes later during a 12-2 run. Through 10 minutes, the junior already had 11 points, one steal and one assist.
- Montana's only deficit came at 2-0 and lasted just 12 seconds.
- The Grizzlies led by double digits for all but 4:44 over the final 28-plus minutes.
- Montana had 18 assists compared to just 13 turnovers (season low against a Division-I opponent), including six assists and one turnover for Manuel.
- Montana scored 42 points in the first half, a season high. It was also Montana's largest halftime lead of the season.
- The Grizzlies shot 54.5 percent from the floor in the first half, knocking down 18 of 33 shot attempts, including 5 of 13 (38.5) from deep.
- Coppin State entered the contest ranked fifth nationally for three-point attempts. The Eagles took 30 three-point attempts, but made just seven of them (23.3 percent).
- Pridgett and Falls were named to the Collegiate Hoops Roadshow, presented by AtmosAir all-tournament team.

MOVIN' ON UP

In March, Sayeed Pridgett became the 34th member of Montana's 1,000-point scoring club. Pridgett (1,191) has already passed eight players this season on the all-time scoring list, most recently passing Martin Breunig (1,158) to move into 19th place.

GAME REWINDS

- Texas Southern (Nov. 25) – Made 11 consecutive shots during the second half, turning a 36-36 tie into a 60-42 lead (24-6 run)... Shot 52 percent from the floor, including 62 percent in the second half... Five players were in double figures for scoring, led by Sayeed Pridgett's 19.
- Washington (Nov. 22) – Went on a 17-5 run across both halves to take a brief 32-31 lead early in the second half... Was called for 34 fouls, leading to 46 Washington free-throws attempts compared to just 13 for the Griz... Kendal Manuel scored a team-high 15 points... Sayeed Pridgett scored all 13 of his points consecutively... Senior Jared Samuelson made his season debut.
- Montana Tech (Nov. 18) – Montana suffered its first non-DI loss since 2002 and its first at home since 1980… The Grizzlies led by as many as seven points, including by five with under 2 minutes to play and three with the ball and less than a minute on the clock, but Montana turned the ball over three times in the final 90 seconds and the Orediggers closed on an 8-1 run… Kendal Manuel led the Grizzlies with a career-high 25 points.
- Arkansas (Nov. 16) – Montana scored just 46 points, its lowest total since scoring 46 at Kansas in December 2015… Despite that, Montana scored more points and shot at a higher percentage than any of Arkansas' first three opponents; the Razorbacks entered the game ranked in the top 10 nationally for scoring defense, field-goal defense, three-point defense and turnovers forced… Montana's defense held Arkansas 15 points and 13 percent below its season scoring and field-goal averages.
- MSU Northern (Nov. 10) – Montana won its home opener for the fifth time in six years under Travis DeCuire… Over the final 16 minutes, the Lights shot 14.3 percent from the floor (3-of-21) with five turnovers… Sayeed Pridgett had a career-high 30 points, including 14 consecutive Griz points in the second half… UM won the turnover battle 18-9.
- Stanford (Nov. 6) – Montana led for 17 minutes in the first half, but a 20-0 Stanford run in the second half doomed the Grizzlies, with Montana shooting 0-for-10 during that stretch… Sayeed Pridgett led Montana for scoring (17), rebounding (10), assists (6), steals (3), blocked shots (2) and minutes played (39)… Four Grizzlies made their collegiate debuts, including Derrick Carter-Hollinger (15 points on 5-of-6 shooting).

LOOK WHO'S BACK

|---|---|
| Minutes | 81.3 |
| Scoring | 85.2 |
| Rebounding | 71.4 |
| Assists | 85.2 |
| Steals | 86.0 |

It's been established that Montana lost plenty of talent, including three players who earned all-conference recognition during their careers. While this is true, a big reason why the league's coaches and media picked Montana to finish so high is because of the players the Grizzlies have coming back.

Montana returned four rotation players from last year's championship team, and all four were key factors.

None was bigger than guard/forward combo Sayeed Pridgett, who earned first-team All-Big Sky recognition after ranking in the top 15 in the Big Sky for scoring, field-goal percentage, steals, assists and blocks. In March, he became the 34th member of Montana's 1,000-point scoring club. His biggest asset, though, is his versatility, with Travis DeCuire saying Pridgett will likely play all five position throughout the season.

Joining Pridgett is Kendal Manuel. The Billings native started his career at Oregon State before returning to Montana and making a big splash in his first season. Getting clearance from the NCAA to play the week of the team's season opener, Manuel made the most of that opportunity. He ranked sixth in the Big Sky for three-point shooting (.432 on 57 makes) and led the conference with a .896 free-throw percentage. He was named the league's top newcomer and top reserve.

Mack Anderson, a Bozeman product, is also back. Anderson was initially expected to redshirt in 2018-19, but got thrown into the fire during the second week of the season. He played in 28 games as a true freshman, averaging 8.5 minutes, 2.3 points and 1.6 rebounds per game. Those numbers, though, are a tad misleading, as he progressed throughout the season. Over the final month of the season, Anderson played at least 14 minutes in four contests. During those games, he shot 12-of-15 from the floor, averaging 6.0 points and 3.0 rebounds per game.

During an up-and-down sophomore campaign, Timmy Falls finished strong, starting the final five contests as the Grizzlies won a second consecutive Big Sky tournament title. He ranked second on the team with 73 assists, first with one assist every 8.3 minutes on the court and was considered the team's top perimeter defender. Falls had a negative assist-to-turnover ratio just once over the final 25 games of 2018-19, and closed the regular season with 11.0 points per game over three contests.

After redshirting a season ago, Eddy Egun is expected to fill a role this season. The two-time All-CIF Los Angeles selection has the ability to drive to the hoop or shoot from distance, and DeCuire said in October that he has grown more than anyone in terms of his willingness to compete and bring energy.

NEW TO THE TEAM

Montana signed an exciting trio of players from the state of California last November, and all three are expected to make an impact on the court as true freshmen. Josh Vazquez (6-3 guard from outside Los Angeles) is the team's best pure point guard, DeCuire said, while Derrick Carter-Hollinger (6-5 forward from outside San Diego) and Kyle Owens (6-8 forward from outside Los Angeles) have the versatility to play multiple positions. All three scored more than 1,000 career points during their prep careers.

Vazquez never lost a league or home game during his four-year career at Bishop Montgomery, helping the Knights to a 31-2 record as a senior, winning a state championship and being ranked No. 3 nationally by MaxPreps. He averaged more than 15 points, seven assists, five rebounds and four steals per game.

Carter-Hollinger was the 2019 East County Player of the Year, averaging a double-double as both a junior and senior, including 17.6 points, 11.5 rebounds, 3.1 blocks, 2.2 assists and 1.8 steals per game during his final season. Foothills Christian High School went 24-7 and was ranked No. 13 in the entire state of California last year.

Playing for Crespi Carmelite High School, Owens won a state title as a freshman and went undefeated in league play as a junior. During his senior campaign, Owens averaged 18.3 points, 8.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 0.8 steals per game. Montana also brought in walk-on Jett Briceno, from Kent, Wash.

NEW TO THE TEAM (SORT OF)

Jared Samuelson played two seasons for the Griz, redshirting in 2015-16 before playing in all 32 contests in 2016-17. During that season, the 6-7 forward averaged 5.1 points and 2.4 rebounds per game while adding 11 blocks. He shot a team-best .570.

Samuelson then transferred to Rocky Mountain College in his hometown of Billings, where he became an NAIA All-American. In two seasons, he averaged 18.7 points and 7.6 rebounds per game while shooting at a .523 clip. After earning a degree in business management, Samuelson is back at Montana, where he is playing his senior season while working toward his master's in business administration. He made his season debut Nov. 22 at Washington after missing the first four games due to a minor knee injury.

NEW, BUT WILL HAVE TO WAIT

Montana also brought in a trio of transfers who will have to wait their turn.

Griz fans will be able to see Towson transfer Yagizhan Selcuk around the start of conference play. The Turkish forward played in five games for the Tigers before transferring to Montana midyear.

Naseem Gaskin, who redshirted during in his lone season at Utah, was rated as a three-star recruit by both ESPN.com and 247Sports.com, and was the 37th-best player from the state of California, according to ESPN. He averaged 14.5 points, 6.7 rebounds and 1.7 assists per game at Bishop O'Dowd High School outside of Oakland, helping his school to the CIF state tournament. Michael Steadman was San Jose State's top player last season. He led the Spartans for scoring (13.2 points per game) and rebounding (8.5 per game) while starting 29 games. He ranked third in the Mountain West for shooting (.483) and in the top 15 for both scoring and rebounding.

Gaskin will have three years of eligibility remaining, beginning in 2020-21. Steadman will be able to play one season for the Griz, in 2020-21.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

How important is non-conference play? If you asked Travis DeCuire, he will say it's a vital time to set a team up for success come conference play, and ultimately in March. Perhaps it's just a useless stat, or perhaps there's more. Montana has posted a winning non-conference record six times since the turn of the century. The Grizzlies have played in the NCAA tournament in five of those seasons (2006, 2010, 2012, 2018 and 2019) and the CBI in the other (2011).

A season ago, Montana went 7-4 in non-conference play – its best winning percentage since 2010-11. Making the record even more impressive, Montana did so against the 43rd-toughtest non-conference schedule in the entire country, featuring wins over 2019 NCAA tournament opponents Georgia State and North Dakota State, in addition to snapping South Dakota State's nation-leading 26-game home win streak.

PRIDGETT 4 PLAYER OF THE YEAR

It was no surprise when Sayeed Pridgett's name was announced as one of six players on the Preseason All-Big Sky Conference team in October. After all, as a junior in 2019, he was the league's only player to rank in the top 15 for scoring (sixth), shooting (second), steals (11th), assists (13th) and rebounds (15th). He not only averaged 15.1 points per game, but did so on .605 shooting, the 19th-best rate in the nation. He was three times named the Big Sky Player of the Week before earning first-team all-league honors in March.

Since then, Montana has graduated a pair of 1,500-point scorers that Pridgett shared the court with last season, opening up more room for Pridgett to take over during his senior campaign.

Pridgett has been named Montana's Ryan Dick Award winner as the team's most-improved player each of the past three seasons. It's not just his scoring that impresses Travis DeCuire, though. Night in and night out, Pridgett fills the box score, with DeCuire recently calling Pridgett the most versatile player he've ever coached.

As a freshman in 2016, Pridgett averaged 8.1 points and 3.9 rebounds per game while shooting at a .524 clip (ninth in Big Sky). As a sophomore, he was Montana's top player off the bench, averaging 8.4 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while adding 1.2 steals per contest (11th in Big Sky). His breakout season came a year later, when he not only was one of the league's top all-around players, but added even more versatility to his game with the development of a three-point shot (.463 shooting on 19 makes) and added defense.

"Sayeed is one of those guys who always comes ready to play, and he always continues to progress regardless of any past success," DeCuire said. "We don't really talk about his progression, he just does it."

Over the final 14 games of his junior season, Pridgett led the Griz for scoring nine times, averaging 19.4 points per game on .671 shooting. He added 15 steals, six blocks and 5.4 rebounds per game.

LOFTY EXPECTATIONS

So much for catching teams by surprise. Despite losing 75 percent of their minutes played and five of their top seven scorers, the Grizzlies were still picked to win the Big Sky Conference by the league's media affiliates and finish second according to the coaches (full polls on Page 5).

If Montana can win a third consecutive Big Sky championship, it would be unprecedented on many levels. Despite winning 12 regular-season championships and a league-record 11 tournament titles in its history, Montana has never won either in three consecutive seasons.

In fact, a Big Sky team has won the tournament three years in a row just once – from 1978-80 – and one would have to go back to 1973 to find the last time a single team won the Big Sky regular season in three consecutive seasons.

DOMINANT DECUIRE

Travis DeCuire is in his sixth season at his alma mater. Despite a long line of successful Griz coaches, no Montana coach has ever won as many games through his first five seasons as DeCuire has (109-58). Blaine Taylor— DeCuire's head coach while he was player – had 104 wins through his first five seasons. Other notable Griz coaches include Stew Morrill (98), Wayne Tinkle (91), Mike Montgomery (89), Jud Heathcote (80) and George Dahlberg (70).

- DeCuire was named coach of the year by the Big Sky Conference and NABC District 6 in 2018.
- DeCuire is the fastest coach in Big Sky history to win 50 league games.
- Entering 2019-20, DeCuire's .763 winning percentage is the third-best in Big Sky Conference history, and best among coaches with three or more years.
- DeCuire has averaged 21.8 wins per season over first seasons as head coach (third in Big Sky history).
- DeCuire is Montana's only coach to win three regular-season conference titles. He has also won the league tournament twice.

CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

- Of Montana's nine Division-I non-conference opponents, five posted winning records a season ago, with four winning at least 20 games. Oregon and Washington played in the NCAA tournament.
- Washington won the Pac-12 regular-season title in 2019, advancing to the second round of the NCAA tournament. In two years under Mike Hopkins, the Huskies have averaged 24 wins per season, after winning nine games the year prior to his arrival.
- Oregon has made the NCAA tournament in six of the past seven seasons, including the Sweet 16 in 2019 after winning the Pac-12 tournament title. The Ducks advanced to the Final Four as recently as 2017.
- Stanford made the second round of the NIT in 2018 and won the tournament in 2015.
- Arkansas has played in the NCAA tournament in three of the past five seasons and went to the second round of the NIT in 2019, finishing with 18 wins. The Razorbacks averaged more than 15,000 fans per game, which ranked 11th in the country.
- New Mexico has been to the NCAA tournament four times in the past decade, earning a No. 3 seed in 2013. The Pit, home to New Mexico basketball, is one of the top home-court advantages in the country, with the Lobos winning more than 80 percent of their games inside the venue. They have ranked in the top 30 for attendance each of the past 50 years. In 2013, the NCAA named The Pit as one of the top-five loudest basketball arenas, and Sports Illustrated named it one of the top-10 college basketball venues in the nation.
- Texas Southern has played in the NCAA tournament in four of the past six seasons, winning three SWAC titles during that span. The Tigers are coming off of a season in which they won 22 games and played in the CIT semifinals.
- Making the jump from Division II to Division I just eight years ago, Omaha has had plenty of success in that little time. The Mavericks qualified for the CBI in their first season of postseason eligibility (2016) and have played in the Summit League title game in two of the past three years.

GOOD AT BOTH

Montana was one of 19 teams across the country in 2018-19 to rank in the top 100 nationally for scoring offense (76.1 points per game, 82nd) and scoring defense (68.5 points per game, 90th). The Grizzlies were also in the top 100 for both statistical categories in 2017-18.

HISTORICALLY GOOD

Montana won 26 games a season ago, tied for the third-most in school history (along with the 2017-18 team). The program won 52 games in 2017-18 and 2018-19 combined, the most ever over a two-year period. Stretching it out even further, Montana won 89 games during Bobby Moorehead and Michael Oguine's four-year careers, the second-best four-year stretch in school history.

Montana was one of 21 schools nationally to win at least 25 games in both 2017-18 and 2018-19. The full list includes: Buffalo, Cincinnati, Duke, Gonzaga, Houston, Kansas, Kansas State, Kentucky, Michigan, Michigan State, Murray State, Nevada, New Mexico State, North Carolina, North Carolina-Greensboro, Old Dominion, Tennessee, Texas Tech, Vermont and Virginia.

ON TOP OF THE BIG SKY

Montana repeated as Big Sky Conference champions in 2018-19, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles. Just five times in the league's history has the same team won both the regular season and tournament in consecutive seasons. The Grizzlies have done it three of those times (1979-80 Weber State, 1981-82 Idaho, 1991-92 Montana, 2012-13 Montana, 2018-19 Montana).

HIGHLIGHTS FROM 2018-19

- Montana went 26-9 in 2018-19, tied for the third-most wins in school history.
- The Grizzlies won both the Big Sky Conference regular-season and tournament championships, becoming the fifth school in Big Sky history to win both in back-to-back seasons.
- Four Grizzlies earned recognition from the Big Sky Conference, including first-team All-Big Sky selections Ahmaad Rorie and Sayeed Pridgett. Additionally, Michael Oguine earned third-team honors while Kendal Manuel was named the league's top reserve and newcomer.
- Rorie was the Big Sky tournament MVP, while Oguine was named to the all-tournament team, after the Grizzlies won the tournament title with wins over Sacramento State, Weber State and Eastern Washington.
- Montana was one of 19 schools nationally to rank in the top 100 for both scoring offense (76.1 points per game, 82nd) and scoring defense (68.5, 90th).
- The Grizzlies shot .492 from the floor (10th in NCAA). They made at least half of their shots in 20 contests.
- Conversely, Montana held opponents under .400 shooting 10 times, and under their season scoring average in 27 of 34 games.
- Montana made at least eight three-pointers in 22 games after hitting that number just four times in 2017-18. Overall, the Grizzlies shot .376 from deep, ranking 38th in the NCAA, after being 236th the year prior.

- Montana finished the season with three players ranked in the top 20 in the Big Sky for scoring, not including Jamar Akoh (16.3), who did not play in enough games to qualify.
- Of the 21 statistical categories tracked by the Big Sky Conference, Montana was in the top three in 14 of them. The Grizzlies led the league for scoring margin, field-goal percentage, three-point percentage, rebounding defense and rebounding margin.
- Montana's 7-4 non-conference record was its best since 2010-11, and it came against the nation's 43rd-toughest schedule. The slate included wins over 2019 NCAA tournament teams Georgia State and North Dakota State, in addition to snapping South Dakota State's nation-leading 26-game home win streak.
- Montana won 10 games in a row from Jan. 12 through Feb. 23. During the streak, the Grizzlies trailed for just 29 minutes, 2 seconds (7.3 percent of action).

GRIZ HISTORY

- Montana has posted a .500 or better record in 11 consecutive seasons and has won 20-plus games in four of five seasons under Travis DeCuire.
- Montana has won back-to-back Big Sky Conference titles (regular season and tournament). Overall, the program has won the Big Sky regular season 12 times and the tournament on 11 occasions (first).
- Montana has played in the NCAA tournament in each of the past two seasons and 12 times overall. The Grizzlies' first appearance came in 1975, earning a win over Utah State in the Round of 32. Montana also was victorious in 2006, knocking off No. 5 seed Nevada. The Grizzlies have also played in the NIT four times and CBI once.
- Montana won 52 games in 2017-18 and 2018-19 combined, the best two-year stretch in school history.
- Over the past eight seasons, Montana has won five regular-season Big Sky titles, finishing runner-up two other times. The Grizzlies have played in the conference title game eight times in the past 10 years, winning five times.
- Montana is closing in on 1,500 all-time victories, entering the season with a 1,489-1,248-1 record (.544).
- Montana has one of the nation's top home-court advantages, entering the season with a 992-408 record at home (.709) including 712-247 (.742) inside Dahlberg Arena.
- Notable former head coaches include College Basketball Hall of Famers Jud Heathcote and Mike Montgomery, in addition to Montana alums Blaine Taylor, Larry Krystkowiak and Wayne Tinkle.
- Krystkowiak is Montana's all-time leading scorer (2,017) and rebounder (1,105). He is one of 123 Division I players in NCAA history with more than 2,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.
- Montana has had seven NBA Draft picks, including first-round selections Michael Ray Richardson and Lee Johnson. More than a dozen former players are actively playing professionally across the globe.

BEST OF THE WEST

Of the 71 western schools in NCAA Division-I basketball (those in the Big Sky, Big West, Mountain West, Pac-12, Summit League, WAC and West Coast), very few have had the level of success that Montana has enjoyed over the past decade. From 2009-10 through 2018-19, the Grizzlies won five regular-season conference titles (T-2nd), played in the NCAA tournament five times (7th) and won 219 games (9th).

Head Coach | 6th Season | Montana, 1994

Travis DeCuire continues to rewrite Montana's record books as he enters his sixth season as head coach in 2019-20. During his first five seasons, the former Griz player has led Montana to four post-season appearances and 20-win seasons, including back-to-back Big Sky Conference regular-season championships, Big Sky tournament titles and NCAA tournament appearances.

Among a string of prominent Montana coaches – including George Dahlberg, Jud Heathcote, Larry Krystkowiak, Mike Montgomery, Stew Morrill, Blaine Taylor and Wayne Tinkle – DeCuire is the best in many ways.

DeCuire (pronounced: dee-CURE) has won 109 games as head coach of the Grizzlies, more than any Montana coach through his first five seasons. He is also the only Griz coach to lead Montana to three Big Sky Conference regular-season championships during their career.

On a conference level, he is the fastest Big Sky coach ever to win 50 league games, needing just 69 games to do so, and his current .763 winning percentage ranks third in league history and first among those who have coached more than three seasons. Overall, only two Big Sky coaches have ever averaged more than DeCuire's 21.8 wins per season, and both coached three or fewer seasons.

In five seasons, Montana has played in the Big Sky tournament championship game four times, and the team's 52 wins from 2017-18 to 2018-19 are the most ever over a two-year stretch.

In 2018-19, Montana won 26 games, tied for the third-most in school history. During non-conference play, the Grizzlies beat a pair of NCAA tournament teams in Georgia State and North Dakota State, and snapped South Dakota State's nation-leading 26-game home winning streak. After beginning Big Sky Conference play just 3-2, Montana won 16 of its next 18 games to repeat as Big Sky Conference regular-season and tournament champions.

Montana was one of 20 schools nationally to rank in the top 100 for both scoring offense and defense, and was incredibly efficient, making 49.2 percent of its shots (10th in the nation), including 37.6 percent from beyond the arc (38th).

DeCuire was tabbed as coach of the year by the Big Sky Conference and NABC (District 6) in 2018, and it's easy to see why. The 2017-18 season was historic on many levels, with the Griz winning 26 games, and like 2018-19, winning Big Sky Conference regular-season and tournament titles and advancing to the NCAA tournament. The team's record included a perfect 14-0 mark on its home court.

The Grizzlies got off to a strong start, posting their first winning non-conference record in six seasons, including a signature victory at Pitt of the ACC. Montana then won its first 13 Big Sky games, the third-longest winning streak in school history and the third-longest active streak in the NCAA at the time. The stretch featured a program-record seven consecutive road victories.

Montana used the same starting lineup for all 34 contests, leading to a balanced effort. The Grizzlies led the Big Sky in five statistical categories and ranked in the top three in 14. On defense, the Grizzlies ranked in the top 30 nationally for turnovers forced, steals and turnover margin.

DeCuire has coached six first-team All-Big Sky Conference selections, in addition to two second-team honorees, plus the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, Newcomer of the Year (twice) and Big Sky tournament MVP (twice). Over the past two seasons, three players have reached 1,000 career points scored, three of just 34 players in school history to reach the threshold.

Among the greats DeCuire has developed are Ahmaad Rorie and Michael Oguine. Rorie, the 2019 Big Sky Conference tournament MVP, reached 1,500 career points faster than any player in Montana history, doing so in his third season with the program. Oguine was the 2018 tournament MVP and league's top defender, and finished his career ranked in the top 10 for scoring, steals and games started. During DeCuire's first season, Jordan Gregory was a Capital One third-team All-American while Martin Breunig was a two-time first-team All-Big Sky pick who is still enjoying a professional career overseas.

In his first season at the helm of a program with a rich history of success, DeCuire's Griz started the year picked to finish eighth in the conference. Led by Gregory, Montana would go on to defy expectations and win the Big Sky regular-season championship and advance to play Texas A&M in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). At the time, DeCuire became only the second coach in Montana history to notch 20 victories in his first season – a feat also accomplished by his former coach Blaine Taylor in 1991-92, when DeCuire was a player for the Griz.

In DeCuire's second year, he followed up with another 20-win season and another trip to the Big Sky championship game, this time led by Breunig. DeCuire's Grizzlies would once again advance to the postseason, competing in the first round of the CBI tournament against Nevada, finishing with a 21-12 record. He is the only coach in Montana history to win at least 20 games in each of his first two seasons.

Paced by 10 underclassmen and just two seniors who played significant time, the Grizzlies went 16-16 in 2016-17, earning a first-round bye in the Big Sky tournament. The 2016-17 season was also the second consecutive year in which the Grizzlies posted a team grade-point average above 3.0, earning NABC Team Academic Excellence recognition both seasons.

Prior to returning to his alma mater as head coach, DeCuire spent six seasons (2008-09 through 2013-14) on the University of California coaching staff – including the final four as associate head coach. Regarded as one of the top tutors in the game, DeCuire helped former Montana mentor Mike Montgomery – a member of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame – transform Cal into one of the winningest programs in the Pac-12 during his time in Berkeley. The Bears reached the postseason all six years he was on the staff, including the NCAA tournament four times. The Golden Bears boasted 130 wins in his six seasons – the best six-year stretch in school history – winning the 2010 Pac-10 championship. He coached numerous all-conference selections, including conference players of the year Jerome Randle (2010) and Jorge Gutierrez (2012).

DeCuire spent five seasons (2003-04 through 2007-08) as an assistant coach at Old Dominion, under former Griz head coach and player Blaine Taylor. There, he helped the Monarchs to a combined record of 117-53. The mark included 94 wins during his final four seasons – the most in school history over a four-year period. Old Dominion reached the postseason each of those four seasons and advanced to the NCAA tournament in both 2005 and 2007 – winning a school-record 28 contests in 2005. Additionally, the Monarchs reached the NIT semifinals in 2006 and the quarterfinals of the College Basketball Invitational in 2008.

In 16 seasons as an assistant or head coach at the Division-I level, DeCuire is 356-184, a .659 winning percentage.

DeCuire's roots remain in the Seattle area, where he grew up, started his non-profit and broke into the coaching profession. He served as the head coach at both Sammamish High School and Green River Community College. At GRCC, DeCuire took over a last-place program and guided it to a conference championship and its first 20-win season in more than 20 years, earning league coach-of-the-year honors in 2003 – his second season. At Sammamish High School in Bellevue, DeCuire led his team to a pair of conference titles, a state tournament appearance and three consecutive trips to the district tournament.

As a point guard for Montana from 1992-94 DeCuire was named All-Big Sky Conference as a junior and senior. He set a school record, despite playing just three seasons, with 435 career assists – a mark which still stands today. He also established Montana's single-season mark with 199 assists as a senior in 1993-94, when he ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 7.1 assists per game. He was the recipient of the Grizzlies' Carl Dragstedt Award (MVP) as a junior and senior, and received the John Eaheart Award (Outstanding Defensive Player) following his senior year. Montana won a pair of Big Sky Conference championships during his Griz career, advancing to the NCAA tournament in 1991 and 1992.

As a freshman at Chaminade-Hawaii, he was a starter and team MVP in 1990. He then transferred to Montana and redshirted in 1991. As a prep, DeCuire starred in the Rainer Valley and at Mercer Island High School, where he was a three-year starter and all-state, team MVP, and a McDonald's All-America honorable mention pick.

He has a strong commitment to community service and founded and acted as president of the Fastbreak Basketball Association – an organization that assists in teaching life lessons and building self-esteem through basketball to more than 500 students in the Seattle-Tacoma area. Additionally, he has extensive experience in counseling at the Echo Glen Children's Center in Snoqualmie, Wash., from 1996-98, and with the Ryther Children's Center in North Seattle, from 1995-97.

DeCuire graduated from Montana in 1994 with a degree in business marketing. He and his wife, Sabrina, have two daughters – Brianna and Tamia.
