Quarterback Quiz: Who is playing quarterback for the Wyoming Cowboys through the early part of the 2015 season has not been an easy question to answer. In the season opener, redshirt senior Cameron Coffman was the clear No. 1 and started his first game as a Cowboy after transferring from Indiana University a year ago. But Coffman suffered a knee sprain at the end of that season opener versus North Dakota and missed the Eastern Michigan game.

For Week 2 vs. Eastern Michigan, sophomore Josh Allen was inserted as the starter for the injured Coffman. Allen began his start in impressive fashion vs. EMU, leading the Cowboys on an 84-yard scoring drive on his first possession as a starter. But on Wyoming's second series of the game, Allen suffered a season-ending shoulder injury on a 24-yard scamper. After Allen's injury, redshirt freshman Nick Smith came off the bench to lead the UW offense for the remainder of the game and rushed for 65 yards in the game.

Coffman returned to the starting lineup for Wyoming's game at Washington State on Sept. 19 and completed 25 of 36 passes (.694) for 296 yards and two TDs.

Athlon Sports Gives Wyoming Head Coach Craig Bohl High Marks:

Athlon Sports released on June 15, 2015, its rankings of all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) head coaches in the country. Athlon also named its Top 15 "Coaches on the Rise." Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl was ranked by Athlon among those Top 15 "Coaches on the Rise." He was also ranked No. 2 among Mountain West head football coaches, and was ranked No. 49 out of the 128 NCAA FBS coaches.

The articles were written by Steven Lassan of Athlon Sports. The ranking of all 128 FBS coaches was a compilation of voting by Athlon Sports' staff members.

Among the comments in Athlon's Top 15 story regarding Bohl was this statement, "There's a strong track record of success, and Wyoming hit a home run when it lured Bohl away from North Dakota State."

In Athlon's ranking of all 128 coaches the publication said this of Bohl, "Bohl's first season at Wyoming resulted in a 4-8 mark, but that record wasn't unexpected. Most anticipated 2014 and '15 would be rebuilding years for the Cowboys, but Bohl's team should show progress throughout the course of the upcoming season. In 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl went 104-32 and claimed three consecutive FCS national championships from 2011-13. Give Bohl a couple of years and Wyoming will be a consistent winner in the Mountain West."

Only Utah State head coach Matt Wells was ranked ahead of Bohl in the rankings. Wells was ranked by Athlon No. 44 in the nation. See Athlon's rankings at: <http://athlonsports.com/college-football/college-footballs-top-15-coaches-rise-2015>

Michigan also ranked 15th in rushing defense (117.7 yards per game), 20th in pass defense (193.7 yards per game) and 28th in scoring defense (22.4 points per game).

Gordie Haug, who served as the Director of Recruiting on the Wyoming football staff in 2014, will coach the Cowboy wide receivers for the 2015 season. Haug came to Wyoming with Bohl last year from North Dakota State. Haug will continue to serve as Director of Recruiting for Wyoming Football.

Eddie Yarbrough Named to 2015 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List for the Second Consecutive Year:

The 2015 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List was released on Tuesday by the Rotary Lombardi Award Committee. University of Wyoming senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough was one of the players named to the 2015 list. It marks the second consecutive season that Yarbrough has been selected to the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List.

Yarbrough will be a leading All-America candidate in 2015. He was named a First Team All-Mountain West selection both as a sophomore in 2013 and as a junior in 2014 in voting by conference head coaches and media.

He led all Mountain West defensive linemen in tackles, averaging 7.4 tackles per game as a sophomore in 2013. Yarbrough ended the 2013 season with 89 total tackles, including 6.5 sacks, 12.0 tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. He followed up that outstanding sophomore campaign by ranking No. 2 among all defensive linemen in the MW in tackles as a junior in 2014. Yarbrough accounted for 63 total tackles, including 4.0 sacks and 10.5 tackles for loss as a junior, while forcing one fumble and recovering another.

The Aurora, Colo., native has made 194 tackles and 28.5 tackles for loss during his college career. He will enter the 2015 season ranked No. 15 among active FBS players in tackles for loss and No. 6 among active FBS defensive linemen, averaging 0.81 TFLs per game (28.5 TFLs in 35 career games). Yarbrough is poised to become Wyoming's all-time leader in career tackles for loss. He needs 7.5 TFLs his senior season to move into the top spot.

Eligibility for the Rotary Lombardi Award is limited to down linemen, end-to-end, either on offense or defense, who set up no farther than 10 yards to the left or right of the ball, or linebackers who set up no farther than five yards deep from the line of scrimmage. The candidates earned a place on the preliminary Watch List by earning All-American honors, being named to their respective all-conference teams or receiving 2015 pre-season honors.

The 46th Rotary Lombardi Award will be presented on December 9, 2015, at the Bayou Music Center in Houston, Texas. Proceeds from the Rotary Lombardi Awards stay in the Houston community and benefit the American Cancer Society, The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Centers / Children's Cancer Hospital, and Texas Children's Cancer Center. ### Shaun Wick Named to 2015 Doak Walker Award Watch List:

Wyoming senior running back Shaun Wick was selected to the 2015 Doak Walker Award Watch List on Thursday. It was the first time in Wick's career that he was named to the list. The PwC SMU Athletic Forum announced the preseason candidates for the 2015 Doak Walker Award. The award is presented annually to the nation's top college running back.

A native of Oxnard, Calif., Wick enters his senior season with 2,082 career rushing yards, and needs only 42 rushing yards to enter the UW Career Top 10. He already ranks eighth in career rushing touchdowns at Wyoming, with 19. Wick had an outstanding junior season in 2014 despite missing three games with a broken hand. He rushed for 753 yards on the year averaging 83.7 yards per game. He ranked fourth in the Mountain West and 21st in the nation in average yards per carry (5.98 yards per carry) in 2014. Wick recorded four 100-yard rushing games as a junior, including: 134 rushing yards against Montana; 122 rushing yards at national runner-up Oregon; 121 yards at Hawai'i; and 111 yards rushing versus Florida Atlantic.

His sophomore season, Wick had a breakout season, finishing with 979 yards and nine rushing TDs. He averaged 82 yards per game, and posted the third-best rushing day in Cowboy history with 234 yards and a score against San Jose State. Wick had four 100-yard rushing games as a sophomore. In addition to his 234 at San Jose State, he rushed for 116 versus New Mexico, 110 at Idaho and 101 at Nebraska.

The PwC SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors will name ten semifinalists on November 18, and the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee will cast votes to determine the three finalists, who will be announced on November 24. The committee will cast a second vote beginning November 30 to determine the recipient. The National Selection Committee consists of past recipients, former NFL All-Pro and college All-America running backs, media members and selected special representatives.

The recipient of the 2015 Doak Walker Award will be announced live on The Home Depot College Football Awards on Thursday, December 10, on ESPN. The Doak Walker Award Presentation Banquet will be held in Dallas in early 2016.

The award, which will name its 26th recipient in 2015, is named for SMU's three-time All-America running back Doak Walker.

•Coffman finished third on IU's single-season lists in completion percentage, fourth in passing yards, completions and attempts, seventh in total offense and tied for seventh in passing TDs.

•Against Penn State, Coffman threw for season-highs of 454 yards, 33 completions and 59 attempts to go along with two scores, including a 79-yarder. Both the yardage and attempts were Big Ten season highs, while the yardage and attempts were second and completions tied for fourth on IU's single-game lists.

Eddie Yarbrough Voted First Team All-Mountain West Conference for the Second Consecutive Year in 2014, Sophomore Chase Roullier Earns Honorable Mention Recognition:

For the second consecutive season, Wyoming junior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough was voted First Team All-Mountain West Conference in voting by conference head coaches and media members. He became the second Wyoming Cowboy to earn First Team All-Mountain West honors in back-to-back seasons. The other was offensive tackle Adam Goldberg back in 2001 and 2002.

Yarbrough was one of only three MW student-athletes to be repeat First Team selections from a year ago. Boise State junior running back Jay Ajayi and Fresno State senior defensive back Derron Smith were the other two players to be named First Team All-Mountain West in both the 2013 and 2014 seasons.

The other Cowboy to earn All-Conference recognition was sophomore offensive guard Chase Roullier, who was selected Honorable Mention All-Mountain West. It was Roullier's first All-Conference honor of his college career.

Yarbrough, who hails from Aurora, Colo., finished his junior season ranked No. 2 among Mountain West defensive linemen in tackles, averaging 5.2 per game, and fifth in solo tackles, with 31 total solo tackles. He led Wyoming in both tackles for loss, with 10.5 total TFLs, and quarterback sacks, with a total of 4.0. Yarbrough ranked second for the Cowboys in total tackles (63). He also forced one fumble versus San Jose State, recovered a fumble against Florida Atlantic and broke up a pass against Utah State.

He concluded his junior season ranked No. 3 in school history in tackles for loss, with 28.5 for his career. He needs only 7.5 tackles for a loss to become Wyoming's all-time leader.

Roullier, a native of Savage, Minn., started all 12 games at left offensive guard for the Cowboys in his sophomore season of 2014. He was one of only two Cowboy offensive linemen to start every game this year -- the other being junior center Rafe Kiely. Roullier has started 16 of 22 career games, including the last 15 consecutive games. He helped block for Cowboy running backs Brian Hill and Shaun Wick, who rushed for 796 and 753 yards respectively in 2014.

Wyoming's Last Meeting Against the Lobos: The Cowboys ended the 2014 season on Nov. 29 in Albueuerque, as the Pokes lost a 36-30 nailbiter to New Mexico. Wyoming had its chance to win it in the final seconds, only to throw an incomplection on fourth down to lose to New Mexico in front of 18,489 fans at University Stadium.

With 59 seconds left, the UW defense gave the Pokes a chance to snag the victory. The Lobos lost possession on a fourth and short attempt on an errant pitch with less than a minute. UW took over possession at the UNM 36. A long attempt from senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard drew a pass-interference penalty, which moved the ball into UNM territory. But three out of the next four plays ended in incomplete passes, including the final pass from Kirkegaard, which glanced off the hands of Gentry in the endzone. # 2015 Bowl Information University of Wyoming Football

2015 Mountain West Bowl Synopsis: As a member of the Mountain West Conference, Wyoming will have several opportunities for football postseason play in 2015.

(The following bowl information has been compiled by the Mountain West Conference entering the 2015 season.)

The number of postseason appearances for the Mountain West will be driven by on-the-field performance, starting with the opportunity to play in the national semifinals or another New Year's Day bowl game as part of the College Football Playoff arrangement.

The highest-rated champion from among the five non-contracted conferences (American, C-USA, MAC, MW, Sun Belt, or chosen by the playoff selection committee) is guaranteed a slot in the system.

In the 16 seasons since the league's inception, the Mountain West's champion or a current MW member has secured that position 12 times, placing teams in the Fiesta (3), Rose and Sugar (2) Bowls during that period.

The MW also has agreements with six (6) different bowl games that in any given year will generate as many as six (6) postseason opportunities for its member institutions. These include primary positions in some or all years with the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and Hawai'i Bowl - and a secondary position with the Cactus Bowl.

The Mountain West will collaborate with the bowl partners to place all eligible teams with consideration given to matchup, geography and historical considerations (e.g., last time a team participated in any bowl or a particular bowl). NOTE: The MW is the primary backup for the Ticket City Cactus Bowl if the Big 12 or Pac-12 does not fill their position.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In its second season, the College Football Playoff format remains unchanged: top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and the national championship game played in a different city every year. Each semifinal will be played during the New Year's holiday with the national championship game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

THE SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will choose the four teams for the playoff based on their performances during the regular season, including strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game.

University of Wyoming Launches Major Initiative for new $44 Million High Altitude Performance Center:

The University of Wyoming unveiled plans in April of 2015 for a $44 million renovation and expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center that will triple the size of the facility. This major new addition to the Rochelle Athletics Center will be called the High Altitude Performance Center.

In addition, UW announced a $3 million leadership gift from Marian Rochelle to launch the project. The gift will be doubled to $6 million by the State of Wyoming. Marian and her late husband Curt were the lead contributors to the Rochelle Athletics Center in 1998.

The High Altitude Performance Center will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," said Governor Matt Mead. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support, and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

This remarkable public-private partnership will expand the current 48,000-square-foot Rochelle Athletics Center into a 126,000-square-foot premier collegiate athletics complex, solidifying Wyoming's reputation as a state committed to excellence—producing student-athletes who succeed in the classroom, compete at the highest level on the field, and define a lasting legacy for this great state.

"The expansion of the Rochelle Athletics Center to include the High Altitude Performance Center will assist our student-athletes to be the best they can be," said April Brimmer Kunz, daughter of Marian Rochelle and UW Foundation Board of Directors vice chair. "Our family's donation is targeted to help student-athletes receive a meaningful degree when they graduate from the University of Wyoming."

"It is fitting that the lead gift to this important project is being made by Marian Rochelle," said Cowboy Football Head Coach Craig Bohl. "Her unwavering commitment is a testament to Marian's recognition of the ongoing needs of our student-athletes. Marian's extraordinary philanthropy continues to shape the course of Cowboy Athletics and Wyoming's university. It is a redefining moment for Cowboy football."

While the central focus of the expansion is to provide the football program with the tools it needs to win Mountain West Conference championships, the facility will also benefit all UW student-athletes.

When this initiative is complete, the facility will become the premier athletics center in the Mountain West Conference, featuring new or expanded spaces focused on academic success, nutrition, strength and conditioning and sports medicine and rehabilitation facilities for all of Wyoming's student-athletes.

"The Athletics department and university have had a wonderful long-term partnership with the Rochelle family," says UW Athletics Director Tom Burman. "It is exciting that Marian is investing in this transformational project. When this facility is complete, the new High Altitude Performance Center will become the premier athletic center in the Mountain West Conference. We are so appreciative of Marian and April. It is simply amazing the impact that they have had on UW through the years."

The first floor will maximize efficiency and create a welcoming environment with the Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center centrally located so it can be accessed by all student-athletes.

The first floor will also have the Football Strength and Performance Center, a tiered team meeting room and an expanded football locker room, as well as a Heritage Hall honoring the history and traditions of Cowboy Football.

The existing football coaches' office suite and position meeting rooms on the second floor will be reconfigured and enlarged.

The second floor Training Table will integrate technology for customizing each meal to meet the individual nutritional needs of every individual student-athlete. The arrangement of the space will allow for team meals, as well as more casual and intimate dining.

"The University of Wyoming, in partnership with transformational private supporters like Marian Rochelle and State of Wyoming leaders guided by Governor Mead and so many key members of the Wyoming Legislature, is making a statement that the commitment to excellence in our state knows no bounds," said Ben Blalock, UW Foundation president.

"Marian H. Rochelle is one of UW's greatest supporters and friends," said UW President Dick McGinity. "She and her husband Curt's initial gift for the Rochelle Athletics Center changed the face of the university and its programs. That gift made the center possible, and this most recent one will make it better. Marian's generosity has touched many places on campus, but the most important impact her generosity has had is on students. She shares the university's vision of giving students every opportunity to become successful, and with her continued support, they will be able to accomplish just that."

Craig Bohl enters his second year leading the University of Wyoming football program in 2015. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 13 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in his last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Ruffan earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2015 season will be Bohl's 35th year coaching at the college level.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 57 years old when the 2015 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Wyoming 29 Eastern Michigan 48

Sept. 12, 2015

War Memorial Stadium
Laramie, Wyo.

What began as a promising start for Wyoming quickly turned into the second consecutive home loss of the season for the Cowboys as the Eastern Michigan Eagles captured a 48-29 victory in Laramie in the first meeting between the two schools.

Despite the key loss at quarterback, Wyoming's rushing attack showed signs of what it can be as the Pokes rushed for 430 yards, marking the first time a Cowboy team had done that since rushing for 451 against San Diego State in 1988. Sophomore running back Brian Hill recorded the second 200-yard rushing performance of his career, ending the day with 242 yards on 21 carries and scoring two rushing touchdowns. Senior running back Shaun Wick ran for 76 yards and one TD, and moved into the No. 8 spot in career rushing at Wyoming. Wick has rushed for 2,173 yards during his Wyoming career. He moved past Dabby Dawson (2,124 yards), Alvester Alexander (2,127) and Walt Goffigan (2,167) on Saturday. Redshirt freshman quarterback Nick Smith added 65 rushing yards on 10 carries.
