LAST TIME OUT

After trailing by just five points at halftime, the Lobos fell by a final score of 97-77 to defending Mountain West Champion San Diego State on the road on Tuesday night. Senior Anthony Mathis registered his sixth 20+ point game of the season and went goals made (65). 6-for-10 from behind the arc.

The loss marked the third straight for the Lobos after topping then No. 5/6 Nevada in exciting fashion in The Pit on Jan. 5.

Mathis went an outstanding 4-for-4 from behind the arc in the first half, along with a free throw, for a total of 13 early points. He finished the night 6-for-10 from 3-point range and went 3-for-4 from the line.

TALENTED OFFENSE LIMITED BY DEFENSE

The Lobos have fired over 40 percent from the field in the last six games but have gone 3-3. In the three losses, the last three straight games, the Lobos have allowed their opponents to shoot 50 percent or better.

Tuesday's game against SDSU marked the second straight that UNM has given up over 90 points.

LOBOS AFTER DARK

Last Tuesday's loss to UNLV marked the first seven against Nevada.

of five games this season that UNM will take on an opponent at 9 p.m. MT - some 9 p.m. (PT) times will actually be at 10 p.m. in Albuquerque. In addition, the Lobo schedule features four upcoming 8 p.m. (MT) games.

BACK-TO-BACK TOURNEY FOES

This week's opponents have one important thing in common: the Lobos took on both San Diego State (Tuesday's opponent) and Wyoming (Saturday's opponent) in the 2018 Mountain West Championships. The Lobos topped Wyoming in the quarterfinal round by 10 points (85-75) before falling to SDSU in the championship matchup by seven (82-75).

on to the pros

Lobo basketball has a history of giving a great foundation for players to make it in the pros. On Thursday, Lobo junior Karim Ezzeddine informed coach Paul Weir of his decision to leave the program immediately and pursue professional basketball opportunities overseas. He will withdraw from classes this semester and intends to sign a contract as soon as possible.

MOUNTAIN WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For his efforts against then-ranked No. 5/6 Nevada on Jan. 5 and against Air Force on Jan. 2, senior Anthony Mathis earned his first Mountain West Player of the Week honor. Mathis averaged 22.0 points per game going 12-for-31 (.387) from the field including 8-for-23 (.348) from behind the arc. He also went 12-for-14 from the free throw line.

MATHIS 7TH IN THE NATION

Lobo senior Anthony Mathis has moved up to 7th in the nation in 3-point field goals per game (3.82) and 12th in total 3-point field

He is also ranked 24th in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage (44.5).

EMERGING MALUACH

After a stellar freshman season, sophomore Makuach Maluach started the season out strong, and then inconsistent. In his first 12 games of the season, he registered double figures just four times. In the first four games of the conference season, Maluach registered 12 points or more in each contest. While he broke his streak on Tuesday at SDSU, he did register a career-best five assists in the matchup and has started the last eight games.

WELL-ROUNDED VANCE

Redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson leads the Lobos with the most double-doubles (3) and the most 10+ rebounding games of the season (3). He has scored in double figures in the last eight games and has collected 21 assists in the last seven games, including

NEW MEXICO NOTES

SLOW LOBO STARTS HAVE POTENTIAL

The Lobos have had a rough last three games and are looking to turn the season narrative around. Last season, UNM started 3-8 overall and kicked off Mountain West play 3-3 before eventually closing 7-1 after a sevenwin streak. UNM shocked the nation when it earned the first-round bye and reached the championship game in the 2018 Mountain West Championship.

IT'S RAINING THREES

The Lobos are averaging 9.9 3-pointers per game and have racked up 10 or more in 12of-17 games this season. Conversely, the Lobos have allowed opponents to shoot 10 threes or more just three times this season.

TRENDS TO WATCH

The Lobos have some telling trends this season and look to avoid the following:

-Trailing at the half: Lobos are 1-7 when trailing at halftime.

-Allowing opponents to shot 50: UNM is 0-6 when allowing opponents to fire at a rate over 50 percent, despite shooting over 40 often.

-Allowing opponents to shoot at a higher percentage: Lobos are 1-8 (0-3 MW) when opponents shoot a higher FG% and 1-6 (0-3 MW) when opponents shoot higher from three.

-Getting outrebounded: Lobos are 2-8 (0-3 MW) when their opponents tally more rebounds.

DEFENSIVE DANE

Senior Dane Kuiper has typically been known as a defensive specialist with flashes of brilliance on offense but he is currently on an offensive roll. Tuesday's game against SDSU marked his second straight scoring in double figures and sinking buckets from three-point range. He was 3-for-4 from behind the arc Tuesday and in the last two games, he has gone 5-for-10 for 50 percent from deep.

DUNK TRACKER

Junior Corey Manigault leads the Lobo squad with five dunks, including two in MW play.

Speaking of dunks, redshirt-sophomore Keith McGee dazzled Lobo fans with a steal and a coast-to-coast dunk with the assist of senior Dane Kuiper on Saturday at Colorado State.

BRAGG IS BACK

Redshirt-junior Carlton Bragg finally earned his debut as a Lobo on Sunday, Dec. 16 after a year and a half off the court. Bragg posted 16 points on 7-for-12 from the floor and tallied seven rebounds in his debut against Central Arkansas. He followed it up with a six-point, seven-rebound performance against North Texas to go along with three steals.

To date, he has accumulated 66 rebounds and 90 points in nine games and has started the last seven.

STEALING LOBOS - 1ST IN THE MW

The Lobos currently lead the Mountain West on the season in steals per game with 7.4. UNM is led in the category by redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson (18), followed by seniors Anthony Mathis (17) and Dane Kuiper (16).

20-POINT FEVER

Senior Anthony Mathis has exploded this season with six 20+ point games so far. Prior to his senior season, he had accumulated just three 20+ point games in his career.

He has also led the Lobos in scoring in over half of UNM's games so far this season (9).

MATHIS COUNTDOWN TO 1,000

Senior Anthony Mathis has accumulated 794 points in his career. With 206 points to go to reach the 1,000-point mark, it may seem premature to begin the countdown but consider this: Mathis has already netted 275 points this season and tallied 433 last season

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT PAUL WEIR

"New Mexico got a guy in Paul Weir that has paid his dues, and immediately showed he can get things done as the head coach. This hire makes sense because Weir knows the landscape and the expectations at UNM. He's a guy who can coach, recruit and connect with players. That's rare these days." - Jeff Goodman, ESPN

"Paul Weir handled the transition from assistant coach to head coach about as smoothly as it can be handled -- winning 28 games in his first year after being promoted at New Mexico State. It was similar to what Brad Stevens did immediately after being promoted at Butler. So the Lobos have hired an accomplished coach with a great reputation." - Gary Parrish, CBS Sports

JAN. 15, 2019 · NEW MEXICO 77, SAN DIEGO STATE 97 · San Diego, Calif.

Mathis Scores 21, Defense Unravels in Second Half

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --- After trailing by just five points at halftime, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team fell by a final score of 97-77 to defending Mountain West Champion San Diego State on the road on Tuesday night. Senior Anthony Mathis registered his sixth 20+ point game of the season and went 6-for-10 from behind the arc.

The loss marks the third straight for the Lobos (8-9, 2-3 MW) after topping then No. 5/6 Nevada in exciting fashion in The Pit on Jan. 5. The win improves the Aztec record to 10-7, 2-2 in conference play.

Mathis went an outstanding 4-for-4 from behind the arc in the first half, along with a free throw, for a total of 13 early points. He finished the night 6-for-10 from 3-point range and went 3-for-4 from the line.

Mathis led four Lobos to score in double figures including redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson, 16 points and a team-high six rebounds, as well as redshirt-junior Carlton Bragg (12 points), and senior Dane Kuiper (11 points). While starting sophomore Makuach Maluach did not continue his double-digit scoring streak, finishing with no points, he did lead the Lobos in assists with five.

UNM shot 42.9 percent from the floor, 40.6 percent from 3-point range including 13 made threes, but SDSU fired at a clip of 55.1 percent from the floor, 43.5 percent from behind the arc. Heading into Tuesday night's game, the Lobos were 6-3 when shooting over 40 percent from the floor. While 40 percent is usually enough for the Lobos to win, New Mexico has allowed the last three straight opponents to shoot 50 percent or better.

The Lobos got out to another slow start on Tuesday as the Aztecs jumped out to a 10-point lead, 17-7 at the 15:08 mark. After SDSU increased the lead to 11 at the 13:10 mark, the Lobos embarked on an exciting 11-2 run that included back-to-back threes from Mathis, the second allowed by a steal from Ezzeddine on the Aztec side of the court. The run also included a pair of free throws and a three from redshirt-sophomore Keith McGee, 21-19 SDSU with 11:20 left.

The Aztecs made it 23-19 before another Mathis three, his third in less than three minutes, made it a one-point game, 23-22, with 10:14 left to play in the first half.

The Lobos tied it up twice in the first half, the first at the 5:02 mark at 30-30 on a free throw by sophomore Vladimir Pinchuk to cap a 5-0 run, and the second at the 4:16 mark on a pair of free throws by Bragg (32-32).

With just 55 seconds left to play in the half, Bragg cut yet another SDSU four-point lead to two, 41-39 on a jumper before SDSU's Aguek Arop stole the ball under the Lobo basket with four seconds left. Arop sprinted toward half court, looked up at the clock as it dwindled, and fired a hail-Mary shot from the free throw line. The 3/4-court shot went in at the buzzer and the Aztecs were up at the half by five, 44-39.

"I thought the last play of the first half and probably the first four minutes of the second half were the difference in the game," head coach Paul Weir said. "We were controlling the ball and they weren't making threes. Unfortunately in the beginning of the second half, we turned it over three times in the first four minutes and they started making threes."

The second half quickly got out of control as Bragg registered a layup to make it a three-point game out of the break, 44-41, but then SDSU's Devin Watson hit a pair of threes within 31 seconds to begin to squelch the Lobo momentum.

The Aztecs got out to a 10-point lead on another three from Watson with 16:58 left and Kuiper responded to cut the game back to single digits - twice - with a pair of back-to-back threes. His 3-pointer at the 14:47 mark to cut the game to eight points (57-49) was the last time the Lobos would keep the game within single digits.

SDSU responded by rattling off seven straight points and continued to pile them on for the eventual 20-point victory. SDSU got out by as many as 26 points with as little as 3:47 on the clock, but UNM's Jackson, Mathis, McGee and freshman Drue Drinnon put up a layup, a pair of threes and four free throws to get the game closer before time expired.

The Lobos turned the ball over 17 times on the night, compared to just 13 for SDSU. The Aztecs outscored UNM in the paint, 50-16, off of turnovers, 27-21 and in second-chance points, 18-10.

UNM is set to return to action on Saturday, Jan. 19 at home against Wyoming. Tipoff is scheduled for 4 p.m. MT and the game will be broadcast on ESPN3.

Lobos Advance to Semifinals, Furstinger Nets Career-High

LAS VEGAS, NEV. --- For the first time since 2014, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team has advanced to the semifinals of the Mountain West Tournament. The No. 3 seed Lobos (18-14) claimed a 10-point victory over No. 6 seed Wyoming (20-13) by a score of 85-75 to extend their win streak to six on Thursday night at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The victory marks UNM's first win in the Mountain West Championships since 2014 when it took the tournament title as the No. 2 seed. The Lobos also mark the first No. 3 seed to reach the championship semifinals since 2015. With UNM's victory, No. 3 seeds are now 9-10 all-time in the quarterfinal round.

The Lobos will face No. 7 seed Utah State on Friday night at 9:30 p.m. MT / 8:30 p.m. PT. The teams split this season. After UNM suffered an 89-80 road loss on Jan. 31, UNM rallied for a 78-63 Valentine's Day victory at The Pit.

"I thought Wyoming really fought all game. I don't think the margin between us is very big. We're two very close teams ... They just wouldn't go away," head coach Paul Weir said. "But fortunately we were able to get enough stops and that is something we haven't done a great job of, particularly lately. We were able to get stops down the stretch and keep them at bay and thankfully come out with a victory."

Senior Joe Furstinger, who earned his first MW tournament victory of his career on the night, racked up a career-high 23 points going 8-for-13 from the floor and 6-for-7 from the free throw line. He also accumulated a game-high nine rebounds. He paced three scorers in double-digits including junior Troy Simons (15) and senior Antino Jackson (11).

"I just didn't want this to be my last college game," Furstinger said. "Me and coach we've been close, and Antino ... we just didn't want it to be our last game together."

The Lobos started off on fire and never trailed in the contest, getting out to a 10-1 lead just 3:30 into the contest. UNM extended its lead to 13, 22-9, at the 10:55 mark in the first half which was ultimately the largest lead of the game.

The Lobos still led by double-figures with 7:51 on the clock before a pair of 3-pointers (with a Sam Logwood layup in between) cut the UNM lead to just six, 28-22, with 6:56 to play. The second 3-pointer, off the hands of Wyoming's Hayden Dalton, sparked a 6-0 run that made it a 3-point game, 28-25 with 6:03 left in the first half.

The Cowboys got the deficit as low as two at the 4:34 mark on a 3-pointer by Cody Kelley but the Lobos battled and ended the first period on a pair of Antino Jackson free throws for a four-point advantage heading into halftime, 39-35.

Wyoming opened the second half on another 3-pointer from Kelley to cut the Lobo lead to just one before UNM began to climb back out and extend its lead. A three from junior Chris McNeal made it a nine-point lead for UNM, 55-46, with 15 minutes left on the clock.

The Lobos extended the lead back to double-digits with 6:09 left, 73-63 but over the ensuing 1:21, the Cowboys whittled it back to three, 74-71 on another three from Dalton. They did it again with 2:55 left, 76-73.

UNM closed the final 2:55 with a jumper from Furstinger and seven free throws to just a pair of free throws for Wyoming for the 85-75 final.

The Lobos shot 49.2 percent on the night compared to 48.3 percent for Wyoming. UNM also shot a higher percentage from behind the arc, 41.2 - 34.6. The Lobos were outscored in the paint 36-32 but accumulated 12 points off of 12 turnovers and dominated off of the bench, 47-17.

The Lobos return to action on Friday, March 9, as they take on the No. 7 seed Utah State Aggies at 8:30 p.m. PT / 9:30 p.m. MT in the MW Semifinals on CBS Sports Network.

OPPONENT'S LAST TIME OUT

JAN. 12, 2019 · WYOMING 55, UTAH STATE 71 · Laramie, Wyo.

Fast Start Not Enough for Pokes in 71-55 Loss to Utah State

LARAMIE, Wyo. (Jan. 12, 2019) - The Wyoming Cowboys opened the contest holding one of the Mountain West's top shooting teams to 25 percent from the field, but a late first half surge lifted Utah State past Wyoming 71-55 on Saturday evening in the Arena-Auditorium in Laramie. Wyoming falls to 4-13 overall and 0-4 in the MW, as the Aggies move to 12-6 overall and 2-2 in the conference.

"I thought the game plan we put together was the right one, in a sense of trying to take number 5 (Sam) Merrill out of the game as much as we could," Wyoming head coach Allen Edwards said. "Even with the slower pace, we had the lead for most of the half. We played a good 17 minutes, but we had some mental lapses toward the end of the first half that enabled them to cut the lead and then take the lead before halftime. Overall, I thought the guys came out with good energy tonight to start the game. We just need to put 40 minutes together like that.

Senior Justin James led all scorers with 27 points, as he went over 1,700 points in his career. He was 10-of-21 from the field and added 10 rebounds for his sixth double-double of the season and 13th of his career. James has scored over 20 points in 11 games this season.

Freshman Trevon "TJ" Taylor added 14 points for back-to-back games in double-figures for the first time in his career. Taylor finished the night with a career-high four three-pointers. Freshman Walk-on Haize Fornstrom, who was just added to the roster played 10 minutes for the Pokes in his debut.

"Coming off our two-game road trip, I told both T.J. (Taylor) and A.J. (Banks) that the way teams were playing us they both had to be ready to shoot the basketball when their opportunities came," Edwards said. "Teams are going to try the best they can to plug the floor up and not let J.J. (Justin James) drive the basketball. When that happens, our other guys have to be ready to shoot the basketball, and I thought T.J. did a great job shooting the basketball today, as well as putting the ball on the floor and trying to play at the rim when he had those opportunities."

"J.J. is J.J. He scores 27 and has 10 rebounds, but when you point out some things that maybe he could do better he takes that teaching well. To see his overall production at the end of the day is impressive. For a guard to have 10 rebounds is a strong performance."

Wyoming shot 40 percent from the field on the night going 20-of-50. The Aggies after opening the game 4-of-16 finished the night shooting 47 percent. Wyoming, who averages 24 free throw attempts recorded only 13 on the night. Utah State held a 40-29 advantage on the glass for the night. Wyoming took excellent care of the basketball recording nine tying for the second fewest this season.

Taylor scored the first eight points of the game for the Pokes to build an early 8-2 advantage for the Brown and Gold in the opening three minutes. Wyoming held the Aggies to 1-of-5 from the field to open the contest with the only make coming on the first basket of the game.

The Pokes continued to be in control building a 16-8 lead nearly halfway through the half. The Aggies were 4-of-16 from the field to that point of the contest and were 0-of-9 from behind the arc.

The Aggies hit their first three-pointer of the game with 7:34 left in the first half to make it a 16-13 contest in favor of the Pokes, but Hunter Thompson responded right back with a three of his own. The Aggies would hold the Pokes scoreless for nearly four minutes tying the contest at 19-19 with 3:42 remaining in the half.

Utah State hit six of their last seven shots to close the first half and took a 32-25 lead into the break. Sam Merrill hit a three-pointer as time expired. The run late by Utah State saw the Aggies finish at 39 percent from the field, as Wyoming shot 35 percent in the opening 20 minutes.

The Pokes opened the half on a 5-2 run to make it a 34-30 contests in the opening minutes of the second frame. An and-one play from A.J. Banks highlighted the early surge for Wyoming. Taylor added two three-pointers to make it a 39-36 game with 14:31 left in the game, but the Aggies went on an 11-1 run to build a 50-37 advantage with a tick over the 11 minute mark.

A dunk by Jordan Naughton on a nice dish from James pulled the Pokes within nine points at 52-43 with 10 minutes left. But the Aggies quickly pushed the lead back to double-digits leading by as many as 15 points. James continued his offensive aggression late, but the Aggies continued to put on pressure and took the contest 71-55.

Utah State was led by Merrill, as the second leading scorer in the MW behind James scored 22 points and added eight rebounds. Neemias Queta added 14 points going 6-of-7 from the field.

The Cowboys return to action next Saturday heading to New Mexico for a contest against the Lobos at 4 p.m. on ESPN3.

Welcome to the Pit. A mile high and louder than...

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT THE PIT

"What a terrific atmosphere for college basketball. Great building... Great history... 18,000 screaming fans. It's big time college hoops, baby!" - Dick Vitale, ESPN

"I consider the game we played in Albuquerque in 1978 one of the most exiciting of my career. The Pit is the toughest place to play because of their tremendous atmosphere."

-Jim Boeheim, Syracuse head coach

"When you go into a place like The Pit, there will be challenge different from a regular road game. The crowd can dictate the tempo and momentum. The Pit crowd forces you to be patient." -Lute Olsen, former Arizona head coach

"A mile high but 37 feet underground, the Pit in Albuquerque has been the site of many mind-blowing college basketball games, including North Carolina State's upset of Houston in '83 and just about any New Mexico home game. The noise created by fans, which has been measured at 125 decibels -- the pain threshold for the human ear is 130 -- is a palpable force."

-Sports Illustrated

- Voted one of "The Top Five Loudest, Most Intimidating Places to Play" by NCAA.com
- Ranked in the top 20 sporting venues of the 20th century by Sports Illustrated
- USA Today ranked The Pit in its "Ten Great Places to Get Pumped for NCAA Action"
- According to Fox Sports, it's one of the top ten "old school" college basketball arenas in the country

THE GREATEST GAME EVER PLAYED

The Pit was the site of one of the greatest college basketball games ever played. It hosted the 1983 national championship game that saw the NC State Wolfpack upset Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and the Houston Cougars. Coach Jimmy Valvano and the Wolfpack downed the Cougars on a last second put back by Lorenzo Charles. The iconic shot of the late Valvano running onto the court looking for a hug is one of the lasting images in college basketball history.

- Built in 1966 ($1.4 million)
- Capacity of 15,411 (previously 18,018)
- $60 million renovation was completed in 2010
- New floor installed before the 2017-18 season
- Seating includes 40 suites and a club area
- Officially named Dreamstyle Arena in 2017 after a $10 million agreement for naming rights by the local New Mexico business. It is the still referred to as The Pit, its officially-recognized nickname. As part of the exciting Dreamstyle changes, University Stadium, UNM's football stadium, officially became Dreamstyle Arena on the same date.
- Less than 30 of 345 NCAA Division I basketball programs play in a college-only arena named after a business or organization founded or headquartered in its home state.
- The Lobos have averaged an astounding 15,410 fans the past 49 years, an amazing 95% of capacity
- The Pit has ranked in the top 25 in attendance nationally nearly every season since the 1966-67 season with 35 seasons in the top ten in the NCAA in attendance
- Led the Mountain West in attendance in 10 of the conference's 15 years of existence
- The floor is named Bob King Court in honor of the former head coach who led the Lobos from 1963 to 1972.

The run fell short however, as UNM eventually suffered a four-point loss, 98-94, to the Aggies in the Rio Grande Rivalry matchup.
The Lobos (1-0) and the Matadors (0-1) battled throughout 40 minutes with 13 lead changes and six ties.	The victory marks the 16th straight season in which the Lobos came away with the win in their home opener.	A trio of Lobos racked up 20 points or more including redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson (27), senior Anthony Mathis (22) and junior Corey Manigault (20). The game

"It was a good basketball team that we beat, and we have come a long way in the last 12 months. We have not arrived and we have a lot of work to do the next few days in order to continue to get better, but just to get a win against a good basketball team early in the year shows our progression as a	The Lobos outshot NMSU in every category including 59.6 - 56.6 percent from the field, 55.0 - 52.2 percent from behind the arc and 70.0 - 66.7 percent from the foul line, but the Aggies' redshirt-junior AJ Harris went an unstoppable 9-for-11 from the field, 6-for-6 from 3-point range and 7-for-10 from the free throw line to total 31 points, leading NMSU to victory. "First, thank you so much to all of the fans that came out today," head coach Paul Weir said in a press conference. "It was an exceptional sign of how far I think we've grown and where our program is hopefully headed. Unfortunately, the result is not what we wanted. It's incredibly disappointing, and inevitably that falls on me."
"Ball control was clearly an issue for us tonight," head coach Paul Weir said. "Our size was almost a problem tonight (because CSUN was so quick), but you've got to tip your cap to CSUN, they played their hearts out. Diane is a tremendous player, puts a lot of pressure on defenses, particularly on the glass, and they were able to go out and show that tonight."	Pinchuk's 10 points went along with seven rebounds, one steal, three assists and two blocks in a new career-high 30 minutes.	The teams remained within three points over the first five minutes until the Lobos began to pull ahead on a Mathis three and a jumper by sophomore Vladimir Pinchuk, making the score 13-5 for an eight-point lead, the most for UNM of the day.

FORT COLLINS, Colo Despite having four players score in double figures and redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson register his third double-double of the season. The University of New Mexico mer's basketball team fell to Colorado State by a score of 91-76 on Saturday afternoon on the road. With the loss, the Lobos fall to 8-8, 2-2 MW, while CSU improves to 7-10, 2-2 MW.	SAN DIEGO, Calif. — After trailing by just five points at halftime, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team fell by a final score of 97-77 to defending Mountain West Champion San Diego State on the road on Tuesday night. Senior Anthony Mathis registered his sixth 20+ point game of the season and went 6-for-10 from behind the arc. The loss marks the third straight for the Lobos (8-9, 2-3 MW) after topping then
Jackson led the Lobos with 18 points, 12 rebounds and four steals, followed by senior Anthony Mathis who, after scoring just five points in the first half (2-for-2, 1-for-1 from three), racked up 11 in the second half en route to 16 points.	No. 5/6 Nevada in exciting fashion in The Pit on Jan. 5. The win improves the Aztec record to 10-7, 2-2 in conference play.
The other two Lobos to hit double figures included sophomore Makuach Maluach who went 3-for-7 from three, and senior Dane Kuiper, who netted all 10 of his points in the first half going 4-for-7 from the floor, 2-for-5 from behind the arc to open the contest. He shot just once more in the second 20 minutes.	Mathis went an outstanding 4-for-4 from behind the arc in the first half, along with a free throw, for a total of 13 early points. He finished the night 6-for-10 from 3-point range and went 3-for-4 from the line.
Colorado State had five players score in double figures, led by redshirt-junior Hyron Edwards who racked up a season-high 20 points in a season-most 28 minutes. The last time UNM allowed five scorers in double figures was on Nov. 24 against UTEP.	Mathis led four Lobos to score in double figures including redshirt-sophomore Vance Jackson, 16 points and a team-high six rebounds, as well as redshirt-junior Carlton Bragg (12 points), and senior Dane Kuiper (11 points). While starting sophomore Makuach Maluach did not continue his double-digit scoring streak, finishing with no points, he did lead the Lobos in assists with five.
Both teams were on point from the floor throughout the game as neither fired below 40 percent for the entirety of the contest. The Lobos shot 47.3 percent on the day and entered Saturday's game 6-2 when scoring between 40.0 and 49.9 percent (2-1 in MW play). The Lobos also went 12-for-29 from behind the arc for 41.4 percent. Despite the lotty Lobo numbers, colorado State ultimately outshot UNM at 56.1	UNM shot 42.9 percent from the floor, 40.6 percent from 3-point range including 13 made threes, but SDSU fired at a clip of 55.1 percent from the floor, 43.5 percent from behind the arc. Heading into Tuesday night's game, the Lobos were 6-3 when shooting over 40 percent from the floor. While 40 percent is usually enough for the Lobos to win, New Mexico has allowed the last three straight opponents to shoot 50 percent from the field and 46.7 percent from three. Turnovers again proved to be a problem for the lobos as New Mexico turned the ball over 17 times to just nine for the Rams. Colorado State capitalized on UMM's miscues as it converted the 17 lobo turnovers into 24 points in the eventual 15-point loss.	percent or better. The Lobos got out to another slow start on Tuesday as the Aztecs jumped out to a 10-point lead, 17-7 at the 15:08 mark. After SDSU increased the lead to 11 at the 13:10 mark, the Lobos embarked on an ackiting 11-2 run that included back-to-back
The Rams also dominated in the paint, outscoring UNM 44-22 in the key. "I thought they came out of the gate making a lot of really good shots," head coach Paul Weir said. "Toward the end of the first half and through most of the second half, I thought our defense was pretty good, unfortunately when you turn the ball over like that against a team, with that kind of speed, your end teven giving yourselves a	threes from Mathis, the second allowed by a steal from Ezzeddine on the Aztec side of the court. The run also included a pair of free throws and a three from redshirt- sophomore Keith McGee, 21-19 SDSU with 11:20 left.
The refs were quick to the whistle to kick off Saturday afternoon's matchup as	The Aztecs made it 23-19 before another Mathis three, his third in less than three minutes, made it a one-point game, 23-22, with 10:14 left to play in the first half. The Lobos tied it up twice in the first half, the first at the 5:02 mark at 30-30 on a
Jackson registered his first point off of a free throw just 11 seconds into the game to put the Lobos on top 1-0. Three straight CSU 3-pointers however over a one-minute span quickly put the Rams up by eight at the 17:37 mark, 9-1.	free throw by sophomore Vladimir Pinchuk to cap a 5-0 run, and the second at the 4:16 mark on a pair of free throws by Bragg (32-32).
A layup from Mathis and a successful and-1 for redshirt-sophomore Keith McGee cut the deficit back to three, 9-6, but the Rams pushed their lead to nine on a layup by their season's leading sorer Nicc Carvacho. Mathis followed by hiting his first three of the night to cut it back to a six-point game, 19-13 with 13:36 left to play in the half.	With just 55 seconds left to play in the half, Bragg cut yet another SDSU four-point lead to two, 41-39 on a jumper before SDSU's Aguek Arop stole the ball under the Lobo basket with four seconds left. Arop sprinted toward half court, looked up at the clock as it dwindled, and fired a hail-Mary shot from the free throw line. The 3/4-court shot went in at the buzzer and the Aztecs were up at the half by five, 44-39.
The teams battled back and forth but Maluach hit a three at the 12:33 mark to make t a four-point game, 22-18, but CSU followed with a 12-5 run over the next 4:57 to get out to an 11-point advantage. The Rams increased it to 13 before Kuiper and Jackson hit back-to-back threes within 26 seconds to make it a seven-point game, 42-35 with 1:20 left.	"I thought the last play of the first half and probably the first four minutes of the second half were the difference in the game," head coach Paul Weir said. "We were controlling the ball and they weren't making threes. Unfortunately in the beginning of the second half, we turned it over three times in the first four minutes and they started making threes."
Despite an and-one from redshirt-junior Carlton Bragg with 21 seconds left, the Rams pushed the lead back to double figures, 48-38, at the half. The Lobos cut the CSU lead back to single digits just twice more after the break, the last time at the 12:17 mark of the second half on a jumper by junior Corey	The second half quickly got out of control as Bragg registered a layup to make it a three-point game out of the break, 44-41, but then SDSU's Devin Watson hit a pair of threes within 31 seconds to begin to squelch the Lobo momentum.
Manigault, 57-49 Rams, before Colorado state went on a 7-0 run to make it a 16-point game, 65-49, and put the game out of reach. The Lobos would get no closer than 13, which came on the next play on a three from Jackson, 65-52. Over the final 1:38, UNM cut a 25-point deficit down to 15 on a furious comeback	The Aztecs got out to a 10-point lead on another three from Watson with 16:58 left and Kuiper responded to cut the game back to single digits - twice - with a pair of back-to-back threes. His 3-pointer at the 14:47 mark to cut the game to eight points (57-49) was the last time the Lobos would keep the game within single digits.
rally attempt with threes from Mathis, Jackson and Maluach, along with a free throw from sophomore Vladimir Pinchuk, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Ram lead. The Lobos were outscored by the Rams by a 10-point margin in the first half and a five-point margin in the second. On the day, the teams finished evenly matched on the glass, 31-30 in favor of the Rams. UNM shot 63.2 percent from the free-throw	SDSU responded by rattling off seven straight points and continued to pile them on for the eventual 20-point victory. SDSU got out by as many as 26 points with as little as 3:47 on the clock, but UNM's Jackson, Mathis, McGee and freshman Drue Drinnon put up a layup, a pair of threes and four free throws to get the game closer before
