COLORADO 78, NEW MEXICO 75

Matchup Notes:
- Starting Lineup: Drue Drinnon, Anthony Mathis, Dane Kuiper, Vance Jackson and Vladimir Pinchuk
- Colorado now leads the series 8-7.
- Attendance: 10,800

Paul Weir Notes:
- Career Record: 51-25
- UNM Record: 23-19

In game notes:

- Drue Drinnon had a game-high six assists, setting a new career high.
- Vance Jackson had a career high in field goal attempts with 16, which was previously 14. Jackson also tied his career high in assists with three.
- Anthony Mathis tied his season high of 23 points, shooting 70.0% from behind the arc.
  - He last scored 23 points at Bradley on Dec. 1.
  - Mathis tied his career-high seven 3-pointers in a game, which he has done twice prior in his career (at Bradley on Dec. 1, vs. Utah State on Feb. 14, 2018).
  - This is Mathis' third time scoring 20 or more points this season.
- Karim Ezzeddine set a new season high in rebounds with seven.
- The Lobos scored a third of their points (25) off of turnovers.
- In the first half, UNM went on an 11-0 run in 1:12 to make the Lobo lead 43-29. In this run, Mathis had six points, Manigault had three and Kuiper had two.
- UNM posted a season-high 70 field goal attempts.
- As a team, the Lobos had a season low in free throw attempts (14).
- Tuesday served as the first night the Lobos had under 10 turnovers with nine on the night. Last time that happened was against Utah State on Feb. 14, 2018.
  - The Lobos have lost their last three contests, but have committed the fewest turnovers of the season in the last three games (11, 10, 9, respectively).
- The Lobos held the Buffaloes to a season-low 10 assists and 41.9 field goal percentage.