KICKING OFF

Frequent flier miles have not been hard to rack up for the University of New Mexico women's soccer team this year as nearly 70% of their games played this season have come on the road, but the end is in sight as the Lobos are preparing to embark on their final regular season road trip this weekend. The final trip will see the Lobos take on Colorado College on Friday night and Air Force on Sunday afternoon.

The Lobos will come into the weekend of games at 8-5-0 overall and 4-2-0 in Mountain West play. This past weekend, the Lobos went 1-1-0 on the road with a 2-1 win over Utah State and a 1-0 loss at Boise State. The loss to Boise State broke what was a tie atop the league standings and places the Lobos in a three-way tie for second place.

Just one game back of the Lobos and the two teams they are tied with for second are the Lobos' two opponents this weekend as both the Colorado College Tigers and the Air Force Falcons enter play this weekend at 3-3-0 in MW action.

After their Friday night game with UNM, Colorado College will remain at home and host San Diego State on Sunday. Conversely, SDSU will be Air Force's opponent prior taking on the Lobos on Sunday.

2019 WOMEN'S SOCCER

HEATHER DYCHE | @HEATHERDYCHE
RECORD AT UNM: 52-34-9 (5TH SEASON)
CAREER RECORD: SAME

NOTEWORTHY :

- » Named the fourth head coach in program history on January 29, 2015
- » Ranks second in program history in wins with 52
- » Led team to consecutive Mountain West Tournament Championship Games

HEATHER DYCHE enters into her fifth season as the head women's soccer coach at The University of New Mexico.

The Albuquerque native owns a 44-29-9 overall record and a 26-14-4 mark in Mountain West play. This past season, Dyche guided the Lobos to a share of the program's third regular season title while also making a second-straight appearance in the MW Tournament Championship Game.

Additionally, Dyche's 2018 Lobo team set a program record for goals scored with 45 and posted second-best program marks in assists (33) and points (123). In terms of individual player accolades, three standouts received All-Pacific Region honors from the United Soccer Coaches, which was a program record. From the Mountain West, the 2018 team had five honorees, three of which were first team selections.

All told, Coach Dyche has coached 10 All-MW selections while at UNM. Success has also come under Dyche's leadership in the classroom. In each semester since Dyche's arrival, the UNM women's soccer team has posted a team GPA of 3.46 or higher and three times have posted GPA's above 3.7. For three-straight years, the team has received the Team Academic Award from the United Soccer Coaches.

In her first season, Dyche became the third coach in Lobo women's soccer history to begin her career with double-digit victories by going 10-8-2 in 2015. That record included a 7-3-1 record in Mountain West play and a run to MW Tournament semifinals.

Along with leading the Lobos, Dyche traveled to Brazil to assist the U.S. Women's National Team during the 2016 Summer Olympic Games - assisting with scouting and analyzing opponents. She also served as an assistant coach for the U-18 U.S. Women's National Team's trip to Australia in the summer of 2017.

Dyche is also a coach, instructor and scout with the United States Soccer Federation (USSF). Dyche is an assistant coach for the US Youth National Team U14 and U15 Girls. There, Dyche is granted the opportunity to identify and work with the most talented U15 soccer players in the country and the core of the US team that competed in the 2018 FIFA U-17 Women's World Cup. She also serves on the USSF instructional staff, instructing USSF B- and USSF C-licensed national coaching schools across the country.

Dyche's footprint at the elite level spans past the national stage, as she has also assisted for national teams from Antigua, St. Kitts and Nevis and Grenada.

Dyche serves on the instructional staff for The Confederation of North, Central American and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF). As the only female of the CONCACAF educational board, Dyche teaches C, D and grassroots courses in order while developing and writing content for all women's grassroots programs.

Dyche is a US Youth Region IV ODP head coach. There, she coaches the team at Olympic Development Interregional events and identifies top players in the region to participate in the Olympic Development Program Regional Team.

Finally, she is also the co-founder and head coach of LEAD Academy (Leadership and Empowerment through Athletic Development Soccer) - an all-girls soccer leadership training school located here in Albuquerque.

2019 WOMEN'S SOCCER

Dyche's New Mexico soccer roots are as extensive as her résumé is.

Prior to joining the University of New Mexico, Dyche was a presenter at the National Soccer Coaches Association of America/U.S. Youth National Conference in 2013 and at the U.S. Soccer National Symposium in 2011.

She has coached more than 60 players who have gone on to collegiate soccer programs. She has coached multiple state and regional champion club teams in New Mexico. Dyche was also the NMISA Coach of the Year in 2008 with the Rio 95G Magic. Additionally, she served as the associate head coach and team captain of the now-defunct Albuquerque Asylum of the Women's Premier Soccer League from 2006-07.

Dyche is a 1997 graduate of Eldorado High School and was a four-year all-state defender, a two-time district Player of the Year and the 1996 Defensive Player of the Year. She also played basketball for the Eagles and was a first-team all-state performer 2 years.

MALY-MALY

After leading the Lobos in goals scored last year with seven, redshirt junior GWEN MALY got off to a relatively slow start offensively this year with only one goal through the team's first eight games. In the five games since, Maly has got back on track with four goals and has taken over the team-lead. Her best game came at Utah State on October 11 when she scored both of the Lobos goals.

BAKER NAMED MW OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

The Lobos scored six goals across their two games last week and LEILANI BAKER was in the middle of half of them as she scored twice and registered an assist as well. Her five-point week helped the Lobos go 2-0 and jump into a tie for first place, but it also netted the Rio Rancho native her first career MW Offensive Player of the Week honor.

WALTERS' BREAKOUT GAME

True freshman MAYSA WALTERS has emerged as a player to be reckoned with and has gained more time on the pitch. With the playing experience, Walters is also producing. In the Lobos' 3-1 win over Nevada, Walters had a hand in all three goals as she dished out two assists and scored a goal. The four-point effort is a career-best for the young player from Billings, Mont.

BALANCED SCORING

Last season, the Lobos set a new program record for goals with 45. An impressive note to that record was the fact that the team had 13 different goal scorers. This season, the Lobos have put forth another balanced scoring attack. With 19 goals to this point of the season, there have been six different goal scorers and four of those are have three or more goals.

BETWEEN THE PIPES

Going back to last season, the Lobos have had quality options of goalkeeper with EMILY JOHNSON and MALIA VANISI equally as capable. Last year, Johnson received a majority of the time in goal for the Lobos and started the first two games this season, which included an impressive 1-0 shutout of then-ranked No. 22 Texas Tech, but an injury has sidelined Johnson opening the door for Vanisi to step in.

In the 11 games that Vanisi has played, she has allowed 10 goals and posted 53 saves while registering a trio of shutouts.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

2019 WOMEN'S SOCCER

Combined, Johnson and Vanisi have turned in four clean sheets. Last season, the Lobos had just one defensive shutout.

OFFENSE GAINING MOMENTUM

After scoring two goals through their first four games, the Lobos offense has began to pick up steam as they have scored 17 goals over their last nine games. The Lobos have won seven of those nine games.

ONE-GOAL DIFFERENCE

Thus far, 10 of the 13 games played by the Lobos this season have been one-goal games. In those games, the Lobos are 5-5. Last season, the Lobos played 12 one-goal games and posted a 7-5 record.

EJ NAMED MW DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior goalkeeper EMILY JOHNSON earned the first MW Defensive Player of the Week award for the 2019 season after she withstood an unrelenting offensive attack by the No.22-ranked Texas Tech Red Raiders for the entirety of the 90-minute match en route to a clean sheet.

In the first half, Johnson faced 10 shots and made three saves. In the second half, with the Lobos holding a 1-0 lead, Johnson was forced to face 12 shots and made four more saves. The individual shutout posted by Johnson was her eighth as the Lobo goalkeeper and the weekly conference plaudit was the second in her career as well.

KNOCKING OFF NATIONALLY-RANKED FOE

Historically, the Lobos have played 33 matches against a ranked opponent coming into the 2019 season. All-time the Lobos' record vs. ranked opponents was 4-25-5. Coming off of their NCAA Second Round run a year ago, UNM's first opponent, the Texas Tech Red Raiders, were ranked No. 22 in the United Soccer Coaches Preseason Poll.

This year's meeting marked the fourth time that the Lobos would play the Red Raiders when they were ranked. In those games, the Lobos were 0-3-0, but a "1" was added to the win column for the Lobos after they pulled off a 1-0 upset win of the Red Raiders.

The win snapped what was a five-game losing streak to the Red Raiders and was the first win for the Lobos over a ranked opponent since 2010 when they beat No. 8-ranked BYU.

HIX KNOCKING ON DOOR OF TOP-5 IN GOALS

A two-time All-Mountain West First Team selection, JESSIE HIX has turned in a stellar career thus far for her hometown team. Her prowess on the pitch is most evident offensively. For her career, Hix has found the back of the net 17 times to place her currently tied for fifth all-time at UNM. Thus far in her senior campaign, Hix has scored three goals.

GARCIA AND GAME-WINNERS

Sophomore forward ALESIA GARCIA wasted little time in establishing herself as one of the top scoring threats in the MW as she ranked in a tie for second with seven goals. While any goal is important, all but two of Garcia's were extremely important as they ended up being game-winning goals. Her five game-winners as a freshman were tied for the second-most by a Lobo in a season and already place her in a tie for sixth on the career list.

Garcia has wasted no time in adding to her total as her penalty kick goal in the waning seconds of the first half against No. 22-ranked Texas Tech stood up as the game-winner. Garcia, now with six career game-winners to her credit is tied for fifth all-time.

ROAD WARRIORS

Home games were kind to the Lobos last season as they went 8-1-1 while playing at the UNM Soccer Complex, but this year, the Lobos will be forced to be road warriors as 11 of their 18 scheduled regular season games will take place away from the Duke City. Currently, the Lobos are 4-4-0 on the road.
