STORYLINES

- TCU will try for its 10th consecutive win when it takes on New Mexico in the Emerald Coast Classic.
- The winner of the TCU-UNM game will play the winner of Maryland-St. Bonaventure Saturday at 6 p.m. on CBSSN. The losers of the two games will play each other on Saturday at 3 p.m. and will be streamed online at EmeraldCostTV.com/ecc17.
- The Frogs are 2-0 so far in the Emerald Coast Classic, with a 100-63 win over Tennessee Tech and a 99-66 win over Omaha.
- TCU has won nine-straight games and 11 of its last 12 dating back to last season.
- TCU is looking for its second-straight regular season tournament championship after winning the Global Sports Classic last season in Las Vegas. The Frogs defeated UNLV 63-59 before beating Washington 93-80 over Thanksgiving weekend.
- TCU will be playing in the state of Florida for the first time since Feb. 9, 2004, a 54-51 win over USF in Tampa.
- TCU has started the season 4-0 for the third time in the last four seasons. The Frogs started 13-0 in 2014 and 8-0 in 2016.
- TCU ranks among the national leaders in assists (22.0, 11th), field goal percentage (52.7, 25th) and steals (9.8, 26th).
- After averaging 7.1 points as a freshman last season, Desmond Bane is averaging 15.0 points as a sophomore.
- TCU was without Alex Robinson (right foot) during its 99-66 win over Omaha.
- Vladimir Brodziansky is 45 blocks away from James Penny's school-record of 171 from 1995-98. Brodziansky currently ranks fifth in blocked shots with 126.
- TCU is receiving votes in the AP and USA Today Top 25 polls for the third consecutive week.
- TCU returned its top six scorers from last season's team that went 24-15, finished tied for seventh in the Big 12 and won the NIT, including all five starters. It's the first time Jamie Dixon has had a team with every starter returning from the year before.
- TCU returned 79 percent of its scoring and 79 percent of its rebounding from last season.
- One season after winning its first postseason tournament, TCU will try to make the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998. Since 1985, 58 percent of the teams that won the NIT made the NCAA Tournament the following season.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT

- New Mexico returned five from last season's team that finished 17-14 overall and 10-8 in the Mountain West Conference.
- The Lobos are coming off a 104-96 loss to Tennessee Tech on Tuesday. Chris McNeal had 29 points and six assists in the loss. He leads the team in scoring this season with 18.0 points per game.
- Paul Weir is in his first season as the head coach of the Lobos after one successful season as head coach at New Mexico State. Weir led the Aggies to a 28-6 record, WAC Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance.

ABOUT THE SERIES

- TCU and New Mexico are meeting for the first time since both were members of the Mountain West Conference together from the 2005-06 to 2011-12 seasons.
- New Mexico leads the all-time series 16-6, including a 2-1 record over TCU in neutral site games.
- Maryland leads the all-time series 2-0 over TCU with the last meeting coming on March 26, 2005, an 85-73 win by the Terrapins.
- It would be the first meeting between TCU and St. Bonaventure.

LAST TIME OUT

TCU 99 - OMAHA 66 // NOV. 20, 2017

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) Vladimir Brodziansky scored 19 points and a swarming TCU defense forced 26 turnovers, cruising to a 99-66 win against overmatched Omaha on Monday night in the Emerald Coast Classic.

The Horned Frogs (4-0) overcame the absence of starting guard Alex Robinson, who sat out with an injured foot. Robinson, who led the Frogs in assists, had started the first three games of the season, plus the final four games of the 2016-17 season, which ended with an NIT title.

Starting in his place was sophomore guard Jaylen Fisher, who finished with nine points and a team-high nine assists. Desmond Bane had 14 points, while Kenrich Williams chipped in 11 points, six rebounds and six assists.

Junior guard Zach Jackson led the Mavericks (0-5) with 17 points.

The Frogs opened with a 10-2 run, eventually building a lead that reached 24 points in the first half. That lead would extend to 42 points late in the game.

Omaha had been averaging 17 turnovers through its first four games and again had trouble managing pressure. The Frogs had eight steals and forced 13 Omaha turnovers on their way to a 50-28 halftime lead.

Overall, TCU forced 26 turnovers and finished with 13 steals, both season-highs.

BIG PICTURE
Omaha: The Mavericks already have dropped games to bigger-named foes such as Oklahoma, New Mexico and No. 18 Louisville. They'll be hard-pressed to match last year's 7-6 non-conference record.

TCU: Dating back to last season's NIT championship run, the Frogs have won nine straight games. Their 4-0 start isn't surprising for a team that returned nearly 80 percent of its scoring and rebounding leaders from a season ago.

UP NEXT
Omaha travels to Destin, Florida for the conclusion of the Emerald Coast Classic, with games against Tennessee Tech on Friday and either Jackson State or Maryland Eastern Shore on Saturday.

TCU is also headed to Destin for the Emerald Coast Classic, playing New Mexico on Friday night and either Maryland or St. Bonaventure on Saturday.

LAST MEETING WITH OPPONENT

TCU 83 - NEW MEXICO 64 // FEB. 25, 2012

FORT WORTH--Six Horned Frogs scored in double figures Saturday as TCU earned its second straight victory over a top-25 opponent by defeating No. 18 New Mexico at Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, 83-64. The win marked the team's eighth straight at home.

TCU improved to 17-11 overall with the win and 7-5 in Mountain West play while climbing to within one game of conference leaders New Mexico, UNLV and San Diego State. The Lobos, who entered the day in sole possession of first place, dropped to 22-6 overall and 8-4 in the league standings.

The win helped the Frogs post wins in consecutive games against ranked foes for only the second time in program history, and the first time since 1998. TCU downed No. 11 UNLV on Feb. 14 at the DMC, 102-97, while the Lobos entered the week ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press Top 25 and No. 21 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll.

The Frogs played one of their most well-rounded games of the season while handing UNM its most lopsided setback of the year. New Mexico actually led by two points early in the second half, 43-41, before TCU took total control with a 23-8 run that pushed its lead to 13 points.

Sophomore forward Amric Fields came alive during stretch, scoring eight straight points for TCU after entering the half scoreless. Senior guard Hank Thorns drained his second 3-pointer with 8:20 remaining, while two free throws by fellow senior guard J.R. Cadot pushed the score to 64-51 on the following possession. TCU's defense was key to its big run, as the squad held the Lobos to only a 3-pointer by freshman guard Hugh Greenwood during the more than seven-minute stretch.

New Mexico tried to piece together a comeback late, scoring on five straight possessions while cutting the Frog lead to eight points with 4:01 remaining, but TCU was up to the challenge. Senior forward Craig Williams answered with his fourth 3-pointer of the game, and the Frogs started a parade to the free-throw line late, going a perfect 5-for-5 at the stripe in the final two minutes. Junior guard/forward Garlon Green scored five points in the last minute to help account for the final 19-point margin.

Cadot led an inspired TCU effort, collecting his second straight double-double with a game-high 15 points and 10 rebounds. Six of Cadot's board total came on the offensive glass, as he helped the Frogs match the Lobos in total rebounds (35) after the squad fell nine shy of UNM during the two teams' earlier meeting this season. Thorns added 14 points and a season-high nine assists in 39 minutes.

Joining Cadot and Thorns in double figures were Green (13), Williams (12), Fields (11) and freshman guard Kyan Anderson (10). The six Frogs combined to shoot 11-of-26 from 3-point range, the fifth time in the last seven outings TCU has made at least 11 treys. The squad also regrouped from a recent slump at the free-throw line, making 20-of-25 attempts, while it shot 45.6 percent overall from the field.

New Mexico featured two players in double figures, including forward A.J. Hardeman, who scored 15 points, and guard Kendall Williams, who totaled 10. Forward Drew Gordon pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds.

LAST TIME IN A THANKSGIVING TOURNAMENT

Last season, TCU defeated UNLV (63-59) and Washington (93-80) to win the Global Sports Classic at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas. Alex Robinson has a career night against the Huskies in the final with 24 points, including a 4-of-6 effort from 3-point range. He scored 16 of his points in the second half. Robinson was named to the all-tournament team following the game. The Frogs went against the Huskies Markelle Fultz, who scored 27 points and went on to be drafted No. 1 overall by the Philadelphia 76ers.

EMERALD COAST CLASSIC

In its fourth season, this year's Emerald Coast Classic involves Jackson State, Maryland, Maryland Eastern Shore, New Mexico, Omaha, St. Bonaventure, TCU and Tennessee Tech. Past champions include Virginia (2016), Iowa State (2015) and Mississippi (2014).

On Nov. 24-25, third round and championship games will be played at The Arena on the campus of Northwest Florida State College in Niceville, Fla. All participating teams will stay at the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa in Destin, Fla. TCU will arrive in the Sunshine State on Wednesday.

TCU's third round game with New Mexico and Saturday's championship game will air on CBSSN. The third-place game will be streamed at the following link: www.EmeraldCoastTV.com/ecc17

TCU will have radio coverage of every Horned Frog game with Jeff Williams and Colin Boddicker on the call.

26 TURNOVERS FORCED VS. OMAHA

TCU forced Omaha into 26 turnovers in its 99-66 win on Nov. 20. It was the most turnovers a TCU team had forced since Nov. 14, 2011 when Austin College had 35 turnovers. FGCU had 29 turnovers three days prior on Nov. 11, 2011. The most TCU forced last season was 25 on Nov. 26, 2016 against Washington.

ALL ABOUT SHOOTING

- Desmond Bane ranks No. 1 in field goal efficiency (100) and No. 2 in true shooting percentage (97.2) according to KenPom.com.
- Bane ranks second in the Big 12 in field goal shooting (78.6%) and fourth in the Big 12 in 3-point shooting, 12-of-17 (70.6).
- Nine different TCU players have made multiple 3-pointers.
- TCU ranks second in the Big 12 in field goal percentage (52.7%) and 3-point percentage (41.6%).
- TCU ranks second in the Big 12 and 22nd in the NCAA in field goal shooting (52.6%) and second in the Big 12 and 33rd in the NCAA in 3-point shooting (43.7%).
- Nearly half of TCU's field goals (128) were assisted (63). The Frogs rank second in the Big 12 in assists per game (22.0).

HOT SHOOTING NIGHT VS. TENNESSEE TECH

TCU used a hot shooting night to route Tennessee Tech, 100-63 on Nov. 13.

- The Frogs shot 62.5 percent from the field, the ninth best in school history and the best since Dec. 27, 1998 when they shot 65.9 percent against Oklahoma.
- TCU was 16-of-29 from 3-point range, the most made threes since March 13, 2008. On that date, TCU had 17 3-pointers against UNLV to match the school record set against Grambling State on Dec. 30. The 16 made threes was tied for the third-most in school history.

DESMOND BANE GOES OFF

Sophomore guard Desmond Bane exploded with a career-high 24 points in just 25 minutes of play against Tennessee Tech on Nov. 13. He matched his previous career-high of 19 (vs. Alabama St., Nov. 14, 2016), in the first half. Bane was 6-of 10 from 3-point range, a career high for made threes. It was the most 3-pointers in a game by a TCU player since Hank Thorns hit eight threes against UNLV on Feb. 14, 2012.

GOOD IN NOVEMBER

The Frogs hope to continue the momentum in November like they have in the past. TCU has won 12-straight games in November, dating back to the 2015-16 season. Over the last three years, the Frogs have gone 21-2 in the month of November and was a perfect 7-0 last season as they won their first eight games of the season.

THEY'RE BACK

TCU returns its top six scorers from last season, including all five starters. Altogether, the Frogs return 79 percent of their scoring and 79 percent of their rebounding from last year. Kenrich Williams is the Big 12 Conference's top returning rebounder after averaging 9.7 per game last season. Vladimir Brodziansky's 14.1 points per game is the third-most of a returning player in the conference.

KENPOM CONTINUITY

One of the newest KenPom stats is minutes continuity. What percentage of a team's minutes are played by the same player from last season to this season. TCU ranks 34th in continuity, the best in the Big 12, at 67.5 percent. The national average tends to be 50 percent.

REBOUNDING MACHINE

Under Dixon, TCU is 26-5 when outrebounding their opponent. Over the past three seasons, TCU is 35-6 overall when out-rebounding its opponent. When broken down even further, head coach Jamie Dixon is 290-53 overall as a head coach when his team out-boards the opposition.

COACHING WITH EXPERIENCE

This season, Jamie Dixon will be the head coach of a team

ED AND RAE SCHOLLMAIER ARENA FACTS

Ed Schollmaier is the retired CEO of Alcon Laboratories, Inc., while the late Rae Schollmaier was a dedicated civic volunteer. Through the Schollmaier Foundation, they are both longtime philanthropic leaders in Fort Worth. Of the $72 million of renovations that went into the previously known Daniel-Meyer Coliseum, the Schollmaier's provided the lead gift of $10 million. The Daniel-Meyer name is still prominent as the entire area is known as the Daniel-Meyer Athletic Complex. Ed Schollmaier routinely sits courtside at the half-court line.

WHAT $72 MILLION INCLUDED

- Lowered Playing Surface
- Wider Concourses
- New Concession Stands
- Court Side Club Lounge
- Team Meeting Rooms
- Food Court
- TCU Athletics Hall of Fame
- Sport Offices
- New Locker Rooms
- Expanded Sports Medicine
- New Video Boards

that returns all five starters for the first time in his 15-year career. In 2010-11, Dixon's Pittsburgh team returned four starters from the 2009-10 season. The 2011 team went 28-6, won the Big East Conference and earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

HIGH IN THE BPI
On Nov. 1, ESPN released its preseason BPI rankings where it ranked TCU ranked fifth with a 24.3 percent chance to win the Big 12 Conference. The BPI is a predictive model of team strength that incorporates a variety of factors including the past performance of the coach and players on the roster, recruiting rankings, and the percentage of minutes returning.

FOR COUNTRY
Sophomore guard Desmond Bane (USA) and Lat Mayen (Australia) each accepted an invitation to their country's U19 training camp during the summer.

20 WINS
Last season, TCU reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since going 21-14 in the 2004-05 season. For Jamie Dixon, it was the 13th time in 14 seasons as a head coach to reach 20 wins. TCU will try for to record back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 1998-99 season, the third of three-straight seasons with 20 wins. TCU went 22-13 in 1996-97, 27-6 in 1997-98 and 21-11 in 1998-99.

LAST NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE
TCU last made the NCAA Tournament in 1998. The Frogs lost to Florida State, 96-87, in the NCAA Midwest Regional in Oklahoma City on March 13, 1998. TCU's last win in the NCAA Tournament came on March 12, 1987, a 76-60 win over Marshall in the NCAA East Regional in Charlotte. Jamie Dixon was a senior on the 1987 team that went on to lose to Notre Dame in the second round.

PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE FOR BRODZIANSKY, WILLIAMS
Vladimir Brodziansky and Kenrich Williams became the first TCU men's basketball players to earn preseason all-conference honors since Hank Thorns in the Mountain West Conference in 2012.

- Brodziansky was one of five to earn Preseason All-Big 12 Conference and Williams was named honorable mention. Brodziansky earned second team All-Big 12 Conference honors last season after averaging 14.1 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per game.
- Williams averaged 11.4 points and 9.7 rebounds and was named All-Big 12 honorable mention last season. Brodzinasky was joined on the preseason team by Jevon Carter (West Virginia), Jeffrey Carrol (Oklahoma State), Devonte' Graham (Kansas) and Zach Smith (Texas Tech).

OPPONENTS
Of the 14 potential non-conference opponents on the schedule, three were picked to win their conference and three were picked to finish second. Belmont Bruins (OVC) - 1st, Nevada (MWC) - 1st, Texas Southern (SWAC) - 1st, South Dakota (Summit League) - 2nd, St. Bonaventure (A-10) - 2nd, Yale (Ivy League) - 2nd, SMU (The American) - 4th, Maryland (Big Ten) - 5th, Tennessee Tech (OVC) - 5th, Omaha (Summit League) - 6th, Vanderbilt (SEC) - 6th, William and Mary (Colonial Athletic Association) - 8th, New Mexico Lobos (Mountain West Conference) - 9th, ULM (Sunbelt) - 12th

HOME ATTENDANCE, THE DIXON FACTOR

- TCU has sold a school-record 4,931 season tickets, up from last season's total of 4,718, which was a record at the time. In comparison, the Frogs sold a total of 3,704 season tickets for the 2015-16 season.
- In TCU's 2017 season-opener with ULM on Nov. 10, there was an announced attendance of 6,715 which was then the third-largest in the history of Schollmaier Arena.
- On Jan. 21, 2017, a crowd of 7,276, which included over 1,400 students, witnessed an exciting game with 16 lead changes that resulted in a 62-53 loss by TCU to No. 6 Baylor. It was the largest crowd in the two-season history of the Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. Overall, it was the third-largest in TCU history. Schollmaier's capacity is listed at 6,700. The student-section capacity is 1,000.
- TCU averaged 6,127 fans per home game last season. That is the most since the program saw an average of 6,341 for its 11 home games during the 1986-87 season, Jamie Dixon's senior year, which stands as the most in program history.
- TCU's total attendance last season of 128,658 was the most in program history. The previous high was 106,912 over 18 games in Daniel-Meyer Colisum during the 1998-99 season. The 21 games TCU hosted last year was the most in program history, toping the 18 in 1998-99 and 2012-13.

PRESEASON MAGAZINES LIKE THE FROGS
Athlon
Picked: Third in the Big 12
Prediction: Round of 32
What They're Saying: "Second-year head coach Jamie Dixon has the Horned Frogs poised to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 20 years. Swingman Kenrich Williams and forward Vladimir Brodziansky give the Horned Frogs an outstanding tandem to lead the way."
Preseason All-Conference: Second Team - Vladimir Brodziansky and Kenrich Williams
Recruiting: Athlon lists TCU's recruiting class as the third-best in the Big 12, behind Texas (1) and Oklahoma (2) and ahead of Kansas (4).
Top 100: In its list of the top 100 players in the country, Athlon lists Vladimir Brodziansky at No. 74. "The 6'11" Slovakian can score inside with terrific touch, step outside and knock down shots and protect the rim inside."

Lindy's
Picked: Fourth in the Big 12; 20th nationally
Prediction: Round of 32
What They're Saying: "The Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex is buzzing about TCU's sudden emergence on the national radar and it's likely to get louder as this team is ready to make a strong move into the realm of teams able to compete for the Sweet 16."
Preseason All-Conference: First Team - Vladimir Brodziansky; Third Team - Kenrich Williams
Big 12 Honor Roll: Top Rebounder – Kenrich Williams; Top Playmaker – Alex Robinson
Keep an Eye On: Desmond Bane could be one of the most improved players in the conference.

STREET AND SMITH'S
Picked: Fourth in the Big 12
Prediction: N/A
What They're Saying: "Four seasons ago, TCU finished 0-18 in the Big 12. Two years ago, the Horned Frogs played in a high school activities center. Last season, the program hoisted a championship trophy and won 24 games. Corner turned."
Difference Maker: Vladimir Brodziansky – With all the returning talent and a solid class of newcomers, Brodziansky's numbers may not increase, but he's one of the smoothest operators in the Big 12 and matches up with any of the league's big men.

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW REQUESTS
Interviews with TCU basketball student-athletes and coaches must be scheduled directly through the TCU Athletics Communications Office by contacting Steven Schoon. Requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance. While telephone interviews with local media members are permissible, in-person interviews with student-athletes and coaches are recommended and encouraged.

All practices are generally closed unless otherwise specified. TV crews and photographers are only permitted to shoot practice after receiving permission from the Media Relations Office.

MEDIA WILL CALL
All media passes available for pickup on game day will be left at media will call, located in the main tunnel of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
All credential requests for home TCU basketball games will only be accepted through an online system (SportsSystems.com/TCU). Please visit the site for complete instructions on submitting the application form. All credential requests for an outlet must be made at one time, and only those applications submitted by an outlet's sports editor or sports director will be considered. Requests should be received no later than noon, two days prior to the game. For more information, contact administrative assistant Deanna Damon at (817) 257-7969.

GAME DAY SERVICES
The TCU Athletics Communications Office will provide rosters of both teams, game notes, statistics and media guides to accredited media members for each home contest inside the media room on the lower level of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena. Complete statistics and game books will be available following each game. Media wishing to file stories after the game may do so in the press conference/media room, while food and drinks will be available for working media members prior to each home game in the same location.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Four (4) courtesy telephone lines, as well as two (2) ISDN SPIDS, are available courtside on press row for the visiting team's official radio station. The visitor's radio location is at the end of press row. The TCU/IMG Sports Network is located on the opposite end of press row. TCU Director of Broadcasting Brian Estridge serves as the local contact when placing phone line orders. He can be contacted at (817) 257-5462 or via email at b.estridge@tcu.edu. Also, for ease of operation, all outgoing calls should be placed with either a calling card or by collect. If problems are encountered TCU's Bruce Hudson is on call during all TCU home games.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
As prescribed in NCAA and Big 12 Conference guidelines, working photographers will be limited to the court baseline areas for game-time shooting. No photographers will be allowed to shoot courtside from in front of either the officials or press row tables. Additionally, tripods will not be allowed at courtside or along the end lines. Strobe light installations must first gain approval by TCU Associate Athletics Director Ross Bailey. He can be reached at (817) 257-5658 or via email (r.bailey@tcu.edu). No upper-level shooting platforms are available inside Schollmaier Arena. Space does not allow for freelancers. Photographers who wish to cover TCU home games must apply for credentials.

TCU ON THE RADIO
TCU men's basketball games are broadcast live on the radio in the DFW Metroplex on 570 KLIF AM, as well as 88.7 KTCU FM and the TuneIn App (all games). Brian Estridge will serve as the primary play-by-play announcer, while he will be joined by John Denton. Broadcasts will also be available online on GoFrogs.com for FrogVision subscribers.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
TCU head coach Jamie Dixon and requested student-athletes will be available for interviews in the media area, located on the lower level of Ed and Rae Schollmaier Arena, following a brief cooling off period. If requested, opposing coaches and student-athletes can be available to the media in the media area prior to TCU's arrival.

To request specific players to attend the postgame press conference, contact Steven Schoon during the second half of the game. The TCU locker room is closed to the media both at home and on the road.

BIG 12 COACHES' Teleconference
The Big 12 men's basketball coaches will participate in a weekly media-only teleconference. The teleconference begins at 9:52 a.m. CT. The call can also be heard live and on replay online at Big12Sports.com. Listed below is the tentative weekly schedule. FEELING THE LOVE
After winning the NIT Championship on March 30, with an 88-56 victory over Georgia Tech, TCU felt the appreciation of TCU and Fort Worth. It started that March evening when the town was lit up in purple in support of the basketball team's first postseason championship.

April 8 - Signed autographs and posed for pictures with fans for over an hour during TCU football's annual Spring Game. Later that day, they were at Lupton Stadium where seniors Brandon Parrish, Karviar Shepherd, Chris Washburn and Michael Williams threw the ceremonial first pitch for TCU baseball's game with Murray State.

April 11 - Helped with the lunch menu at Market Square, TCU's primary dining hall on campus. The chef cooked up favorite foods of Parrish, Shepherd, Washburn, Williams and head coach Jamie Dixon. Members of the team also signed autographs and posed for pictures with the NIT trophy during lunch.

April 27 - The mayor of Fort Worth, Betsy Price, and the Fort Worth City Council held a pep rally downtown at Sundance Square to recognize the Frogs' accomplishments of the past season.

May 23 - Members of the team accepted a proclamation from the Tarrant County Commissioners Court and sponsored by Commissioner Roy Charles Brooks.

On multiple occasions, TCU has returned the favor. On April 25, Dixon hosted a cookout for students in the right field terrace at Lupton Stadium. Free food and fun games were available to students to show appreciation for the student section which has come to be known as Frog Army and was a part of 128,658 people who watched TCU at home, the most in school history.

FROGS DOWN UNDER
TCU embarked on a foreign tour of Australia from Aug. 5-16. The Horned Frogs went 5-0 on the trip, playing games in Sydney and Melbourne. It was a joint trip with the TCU women's basketball team and the schedule allowed for plenty of sightseeing. Among the sites were Bondi Beach, Manly Beach, Moonlit Animal Sanctuary, Eureka Skydeck 88 and an Australian Football Game. The trip also allowed Australian native Kouat Noi to play in front of his family as well as get the chance to show his teammates his home country. Noi led the team in scoring with 14.0 points per game and averaged 5.2 rebounds.

TCU IN OVERTIME
The Frogs have posted an all-time record of 48-64 (.428) in overtime games and 35-30 (.538) in overtime games at home since 1961. TCU is a combined 5-0 in games that extend beyond two overtimes in its history. Jamie Dixon is 19-8 all-time in overtime games and 5-2 in double overtime contests.

DIXON VS. HALL OF FAME AND NATIONAL CHAMPS
TCU head coach Jamie Dixon has quite the record versus coaches either in the Hall of Fame or that have won a recent NCAA National Championship.

Dixon vs. The Best

Team	Record
Roy Williams (North Carolina)	2-3
Mike Krzyzewski (Duke)	2-2
Jim Boeheim (Syracuse)	15-6
Jay Wright (Villanova)	10-5
John Calipari (Kentucky)	1-0
Bill Self (Kansas)	1-2

DIXON'S YOUNG ACTING CAREER
As a youngster growing up in North Hollywood, Dixon had an acting career. He still is a card-carrying member of the Screen Actors Guild. In his early 20s, Dixon was in a Bud Light commercial that featured a woman dunking on him. The commercial was one of the more popular basketball ads of the year and aired on virtually every basketball event.

At age 12, Dixon fired a space gun in a commercial for Mattel. At age 10, he was the star of a TV commercial for Rice Krispies, pretending to celebrate a birthday while eating cereal. At age 5, he did a TV commercial for Volvo, sitting in the back seat and smiling while his father played the driver. He was also in a Kentucky Fried Chicken commercial. Father Jim Dixon was an actor and screenwriter who starred in a variety of movies and productions.

BEST OF 2016-17
- TCU defeated an AP No. 1 team for the first time in school history when it beat No. 1 Kansas on March 9.
- TCU finished eighth in the Big 12, the highest in its five seasons in the league. TCU was picked 10th in the preseason poll.
- TCU's 24 wins ties for the second-most in a season (1951-52: 24-4, 1986-87: 24-7). It's the most wins in a season since the 1997-98 season (27-6).
- TCU reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 21 wins in the 2004-05 season.
- TCU won a postseason game for the first time since 2012 and obtained its first NIT win and postseason road win since 2005.
- TCU's home average attendance of 6,127 was the second-best in school history and the most since 6,341, the school record set in 1986-87. It's total attendance of a 128,658 was the most in school history.

2017-18 RECRUITING CLASS

TCU signed four on Nov. 8 during the early signing period. All four players will be freshmen next season at TCU.

KADEN ARCHIE // 6-6 /// FORWARD // MIDLOTHIAN, TEXAS
- Four-star recruit by 247Sports and Rivals.
- Averaged 18.7 points and 5.0 rebounds per game as a junior last season at Midlothian High School in Midlothian, Texas.
- Scout Rankings: No. 3 player in the state of Texas... No. 16 small forward in the nation... No. 73 player in the nation.

Coach Dixon says:
"Kaden is a versatile, physical, skilled wing that can play multiple positions. He's very competitive and has the ability to become a great defender."

RUSSELL BARLOW // 6-10 // CENTER // RICHARDSON, TEXAS
- Four-star recruit by ESPN.
- 247Sports Rankings: No. 14 player in the state of Texas... No. 14 center in the country.
- 7-foot wingspan.
- Played at Lloyd V. Berkner High School. Transfered to Bishop Lynch for senior season.

Coach Dixon says:
"Russel has a big, strong body with very good hands and a soft touch around the basket. We expect him to improve due to his strong work ethic."

KENDRIC DAVIS // 5-10 // GUARD // HOUSTON, TEXAS
- Four-star recruit by 247Sports, ESPN and Rivals.
- Selected to the all-region team as a sophomore and junior at Sam Houston High School.
- 247Sports Rankings: No. 4 player in Texas... No. 15 points guard in the nation.
- Averaged 23.0 points and 7.4 assists per game as a junior at Sam Houston High School.

Coach Dixon says:
""Kendric is a tough, hard-nosed point guard. He possesses good leadership skills and has great vision on the court. He has a tremendous burst of speed with the ability to change pace."

ANGUS MCWILLIAM // 6-11 // C/F // CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND
- Averaged 27 points, 22 rebounds, four assists and three blocks per game at Middleton Grange School last season.
- Played for the Mainland Eagles Academy from 2014-17.
- As a 17-year old, was a member of the New Zealand U-19 National Team last summer.

Coach Dixon says:
"We are excited to add a guy who is big and has good skills like Angus. He has great basketball talents, but also excels academically."

WELCOME TO FORT WORTH

The City of Cowboys & Culture is the 16th-largest city in the United States and part of the No. 1 tourist destination in Texas, welcoming 8.8 million visitors annually. Nicknamed Cow Town and Funky Town, Fort Worth is comprised of seven primary entertainment districts each offering distinct dining, shopping, entertainment and cultural amenities. In only a few days you can enjoy a range of experiences: from NASCAR racing to rodeos, world-class museums to cowboy cuisine, boutique shopping to a top-5 zoo, biking to horseback riding.

Fort Worth is conveniently located 17.5 miles from DFW International Airport. With 1,850 flights daily, DFW Airport serves as a gateway for visitors from around the globe, making Fort Worth an easily accessible international and domestic leisure destination.

The heart of downtown Fort Worth is Sundance Square, a 35-block shopping and entertainment district where you'll find a multitude of restaurants, shops, galleries and performance venues.

The gorgeous Fort Worth Botanical Garden and the downtown Water Gardens are some of Fort Worth's most popular outdoor attractions.

Fort Worth's Texas Motor Speedway is one of the largest racing facilities in the nation, with seating for nearly 155,000 spectators.

Once home to cowboys, cattlemen and outlaws, today the Stockyards National Historic District is one of the most popular attractions in Texas. Day and night, visitors come to the Stockyards to get a taste of the true American West. The Fort Worth Herd, the world's only twice-daily cattle drive takes place at 11:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Exchange Avenue.

NIT + Foreign Tour = ?

About four months after the longest season in program history (by games, 39, and date, 3/30), TCU began its 10 practices allowed by the NCAA prior to its departure for Australia. The Frogs hope to reap the benefit of their extra practice days. The last team to use the NIT as a launch into the NCAA Tournament was Baylor, which won in 2013 and the following year went 26-12 and advanced to the Sweet 16. The Bears went on to make the Big Dance every season since. Wichita State was the last team to win the NIT and take a foreign tour the season before making the NCAA Tournament. The Shockers won in 2011, traveled to Brazil and then went 27-6 and started its string of six-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. TCU has not made the NCAA Tournament since 1998, but has set the goal of changing that this season.
