ABOUT THE MATCHUP

- The Lobos enter Saturday's rematch with the Runnin' Rebels coming off of an 82-59 loss at No. 4 San Diego State on Tuesday.
- New Mexico is 14-1 at home inside Dreamstyle Arena The Pit with its only loss coming against No. 4 SDSU on Jan. 29.
- UNM's last contest in The Pit was a 29-point win over the Wyoming Cowboys, 97-68, and marked the seventh time this season that UNM has scored 90 points.
- The last time the Lobos met the Runnin' Rebels was on the end of a three-win streak for UNLV. After topping the Lobos, UNLV lost four straight and has gone 1-5 over its last six contests including a win over Fresno State (68-67) and an overtime loss to Nevada at home on Wednesday.
- UNM is similarly 1-4 in its last five matchups.
- UNLV leads the all-time series over the Lobos 36-25 while UNM holds a narrow 14-13 advantage at home in The Pit.
- UNLV has taken the last three meetings, the last two of which have been in Vegas.
- Neither team has won more than three games in a row in the series since 2008.
- The last time the Lobos topped the Runnin' Rebels was on Feb. 25, 2018 in Albuquerque. UNM earned an exciting 91-90 win to complete the sweep over UNLV in Paul Weir's first season. That game marked the end of a three-game run in the series for the Lobos.
- The Lobos are led by five players averaging scoring in double figures in conference play including redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle (16.1), senior Corey Manigault (15.0), redshirt-junior Vance Jackson (12.5), redshirt-junior Zane Martin (12.5) and redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix (10.0).
- The Lobos' leading active rebounder is Jackson with 5.9 rebounds per game in MW play.
- UNILY is led by two players scoring in double digits in conference competition including sophomore Bryce Hamilton (21.8) and junior Amauri Hardy (13.2).
- Junior Mbacke Diong leads the Runnin' Rebels in rebounds with 7.3 per game in league play.

LAST TIME OUT

The Lobos had a one-point lead with four minutes left in the first half, but No. 4 San Diego State executed an outstanding comeback in the second to down UNM, 82-59, on the road on Tuesday night. The Aztecs remain the only undefeated team in the nation and secured the 2020 Mountain West Regular-Season Championship with the win.

The Lobos were led by redshirtsophomore Vante Hendrix who recorded a career-high 20 points to go along with four rebounds and four steals. Hendrix was the only Lobo to register double figures on the night while UNM was led by redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle and iunior Makauch Maluach on the boards. The pair registered six rebounds apiece.

be Alumni Day and will mark the return of several former Lobos to The Pit.

OVERTIME THIS SEASON

While the Lobos have yet to play a single overtime game in 2019-20, UNLV enters Saturday's game with a program record six OT contests under its belt so far this season.

SHORTHANDED LOBOS

Last time UNM played the Runnin' Rebels, the Lobos were newly short-handed and figuring out their new roster. The five Lobo starters played over 30 minutes including 35 from four of them: Corey Manigault, Vante Hendrix, Makuach Maluach and JaQuan Lyle. The team ran out of energy en route to the loss.

A NEW IDENTITY

Head coach Paul Weir in his first two seasons had a squad that lived and died by the three. Last season. UNM posted 15 games in which the Lobos scored 10 3-pointers or more.

Throughout the first 19 games of 2019-20, the Lobos focused their energy on getting the ball inside to the post, and as a consequence posted just one game of 10+ 3-pointers (14 against Grand Canyon on Dec. 17).

In light of recent roster fluctuations, the Lobos have switched up the offense and have again been firing from deep. In four of the last seven Lobo contests, UNM has registered 10 or more threes.

The Lobos have registered 10 or more threes just five times this season, four of those five have come in the last seven contests.

LOOKING FOR 50 STRAIGHT STARTS

Junior Makuach Maluach has started 49 straight games for the Lobos as the only member of the squad that has been a Lobo since the beginning of Paul Weir's tenure.

straight and the 70th start in his career.

currently ranks Maluach seventh among a list of prolific Lobo starters in the last decade of UNM hoops, posting the seventh-most career starts (69) of any Lobo since the 2009-10 season. The top of the list includes Kendall greats during Saturday's game? You're Williams (132), Hugh Greenwood not mistaken! Saturday's game will also (126), Obij Aget (94), Alex Kirk (86),

Sam Logwood (80) and Tony Snell (76). STRAIGHT DOUBLE-DIGITS

HENDRIX CONTINUES TO STEP UP

Since he was cleared to play prior to UNM's contest against Grand Canyon on Dec. 17, redshirt-sophomore Hendrix Vante has displayed some huge energy on the court.

Hendrix' breakout game came on Dec. 29 at home against UC Davis when he slammed four dunks in the second half for several key plays that put the Lobos back on top and pushed the momentum in favor of New Mexico. He also collected seven rebounds, two assists and two steals on the day.

Perhaps his most important play of the day was the steal and dunk with four seconds left that sealed the Lobo win.

Hendrix continues to improve as he registered a career-high 19 points in UNM's game at Nevada on Jan. 25. He went 6-for-12 from the floor including 3-for-7 from 3-point range.

The redshirt-sophomore once again delighted Lobo fans on Tuesday at No. 4 SDSU with a new careerhigh 20 points and four steals.

HENDRIX SCORES 20

Hendrix's 20 points on Tuesday marked the first time in his career that he has hit the 20-point threshold. In addition, Tuesday's game marked the first time this season that he was the Lobos' lead scorer.

Hendrix netted 20 points at No. 4 SDSU and was followed by the nearest Lobo with nine.

Last Saturday's career-high 28-point game at home for senior Corey Manigault marked his sixth straight double-digit scoring game while redshirt-junior Keith McGee, who registered 13 points on the night, marked his fifth straight.

Neither was quite able to hit the double-figure mark on Tuesday.

4 STRAIGHT GAMES OF 90+

The Lobos registered at least 90 points in each of their first four wins this season. The last time the Lobos scored in the 90s in four straight games was in Paul Weir's first year toward the end of the season during the Lobos' exciting, unexpected 7-0 run en route to a loss in the Mountain West title contest. In that run, UNM topped Wyoming 119-114. UNLV 91-90. Colorado State 108-87 and Fresno State 95-86.

Last Saturday against Wyoming, the Lobos registered their seventh game of the season scoring 90+ points, their first since Houston Baptist on Dec. 22.

ON THE REBOUND

Despite the absence of the Lobos' former lead rebounder, redshirtsenior Carlton Bragg, UNM posted its largest rebound margin of the season last Saturday against Wyoming.

UNM posted a season-high board margin of 19, outrebounding the Cowboys 46-27.

Senior Corey Manigault led the nine on the night. way with

STARTER STATS

The trio of returning starters from the 2018-19 season return some impressive stats. Jackson collected 13.1 points per game last season to go along with 7.0 rebounds and a 40.5 percent shooting clip. Jackson saw action in all 32 games last season along with Maluach, who started 28 of them. Maluach registered 9.9 points per game while Bragg posted 10.5 points and 8.8 rebounds per contest to go along with shooting 49 percent from the floor.

BY THE NUMBERS

The Lobos have over half of their production returning this season. Here is what is returning and missing for the 2019-20 Lobos.

YOUNG AND OLD

The Lobo roster is made up of half underclassmen (7) and upperclassmen (7) for a balanced roster of experience and new talent.

LOBO TRANSFERS

Four of the seven newcomers to the 2019-20 roster are transfers, that includes redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle who has sat on the bench in his last two seasons as a Lobo. Adding to his experience from Ohio State, redshirt-junior Zane Martin hails from Towson while redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell last saw the floor at Texas A&M and redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix last competed at Utah.

SWITCH IT UP

For a fresh look this season, several players have made some jersey number switches. Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle will rock the #5 jersey instead of last season's #13 while last year's #5, Clay Patterson, has also switched to #20.

PAIR OF KWACHES?

Don't adjust your speakers this season or yell at the television thinking the announcers have it wrong. The Lobos now have TWO "Kwaches." Junior Makuach Maluach serves as the original "Kwach" while freshman Emmanuel Kuac (pronounced Kwach) is affectionately referred to by the team as "Baby Kwach." In a recent media interview, Kuac said that he doesn't mind the nickname as he sees Makuach Maluach as a great friend and role model.

Lobos from near and far

Just two Lobos on the 2019-20 roster hail from New Mexico including sophomore Jordan Arroyo and redshirt-sophomore Clay Patterson. The remainder of the roster includes players from nine states and a total of four countries including the U.S., Australia, Canada and the Central African Republic.

MORE NOTES ON COACH WEIR

- Weir's 28-6 record as a first-year head coach in 2016-17 at NMSU tied for the 10th-most wins by a Division I head coach in NCAA history
- His 28 wins in 2016-17 were the most in Division I for first-year head coaches
- Among those 28 wins was an NMSU school record 20-game win streak that was at the time the longest in the nation
- Has three master's degrees in health and human performance, sports psychology and business administration. Recently completed his doctorate
- Played at York University and became starting pointguard for the Lions as a freshman
- Weir arrived at NM State in 2007 after two seasons as the director of basketball operations at Iowa, where he served under former Lobo head coach Steve Alford

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT PAUL WEIR

"New Mexico got a guy in Paul Weir that has paid his dues, and immediately showed he can get things done as the head coach. This hire makes sense because Weir knows the landscape and the expectations at UNM. He's a guy who can coach, recruit and connect with players. That's rare these days." - Jeff Goodman, ESPN

"Paul Weir handled the transition from assistant coach to head coach about as smoothly as it can be handled -- winning 28 games in his first year after being promoted at New Mexico State. It was similar to what Brad Stevens did immediately after being promoted at Butler. So the Lobos have hired an accomplished coach with a great reputation." - Gary Parrish, CBS Sports

FEB. 11, 2020 - NEW MEXICO 59, NO. 4 5D5U 87 - San Diego, Calif.

Hendrix Scores 20; Lobos Fall at No. 4 SDSU

SAN DIEGO, Calif. --- The Lobos had a one-point lead with four minutes left in the first half, but No. 4 San Diego State executed an outstanding comeback in the second to down The University of New Mexico men's basketball team, 82-59, on the road on Tuesday night. The Aztecs remain the only undefeated team in the nation and secured the 2020 Mountain West Regular-Season Championship with the win.

No. 4 San Diego State improves to 25-0 on the season, 14-0 in Mountain West play, while UNM is now 17-9 overall with a 6-7 mark in league competition.

The Lobos were led by redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix who recorded a career-high 20 points to go along with four rebounds and four steals. Hendrix was the only Lobo to register double figures on the night while UNM was led by redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle and junior Makauch Maluach on the boards. The pair registered six rebounds apiece.

SDSU had four players rack up double digits including a pair of 20+ point scorers in junior Matt Mitchell (22) and senior Yanni Wetzell (20). Mitchell was also the only player on the floor to record a double-double with 12 rebounds.

The Lobos dominated from the floor in the first half, outshooting the Aztecs 45.2 - 39.4 percent. UNM got out to an early five-point lead, 10-5, just three minutes into the contest on a dunk from senior Corey Manigault. SDSU responded with a 5-0 run over the next 2:08 to tie it up at 10-10 before a Maluach layup and a Hendrix three again put UNM up by five, 15-10, at the 11:38 mark of the first half.

The Aztecs tied it again 15-15 at the 10:22 mark and the squads battled it out through the remainder of the first half. UNM's last lead was 28-27 with 4:08 left in the first on a dunk from redshirt-junior Zane Martin. An SDSU 6-0 run made it a five-point game in favor of the home team but through the final stretch of the first half, Hendrix posted another Lobo dunk, SDSU hit a pair of stretch of the first half, Hendrix posted another Lobo dunk, SDSU hit a pair of free throws and Hendrix finished with another from behind the arc for just a two-point SDSU advantage at the break, 35-33.

The first-half Lobos exhibited a well-balanced scoring and defensive effort in which Manigault and Hendrix led with just eight points apiece. UNM was outrebounded by just one in the first half, 19-18, including a 10-8 offensive board count. Neither team led by more than five in the first half, posted nearly-matching runs and the Lobos led for 9:15 compared to just 6:14 for the last undefeated team in the nation.

It was in the second half however, that the momentum shifted drastically to the other side of the court. Neither team scored for the first minute and a half but it was SDSU that struck first with a fast-break layup from Mitchell to start off the half.

Martin hit a jumper for UNM to cut SDSU's lead back to two before the Aztecs began to take control of the game with a 7-0 run to get out to a nine-point lead, 44-35. The game got out of hand quickly from there despite a Lyle three, one of just two for the senior on the night, making it a six-point game at the 16:42 mark.

The Lobos would cut it to six just once more 2:38 later but would get no closer as another 7-0 run for SDSU gave the Aztecs a double-digit lead they would not again relinquish.

UNM's careful first-half squad unraveled in the second as SDSU mounted a 20-point lead over the next five and a half minutes. The Lobos struggled through the remaining time on the clock but the Aztecs remained on top by at least 21 for the rest of the contest en route to securing the 2020 MW Regular-Season title.

The Lobos entered the contest sixth in the nation in made free throws (420) but did not draw a single attempt in the first half. The squad finished 7-for-9 from the stripe compared to 14-for-1 for SDSU.

The second half numbers tell a very different story than the first as UNM's shooting from the floor was just 26.5 percent compared to 51.6 percent for the Aztecs. On the night, the Lobos finished shooting 35.4 percent to 45.3 percent for SDSU. After a two-point, first-half deficit, SDSU outscored the Lobos 47-26 in the second half en route to the 82-59 final score.

The Lobos will return to action on Saturday, Feb. 15 when they host UNLV on CBS Sports Network at 4 p.m. MT. UNM looks to defend its 14-1 record at home in the contest.

Runnin' Rebels Fall In Heartbreaker To UNR, 82-79

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - The UNLV men's basketball team went to overtime for a program-record sixth time this season, but fell in a heartbreaker to rival UNR, 82-79, Wednesday night at the Thomas & Mack Center.

The Runnin' Rebels (12-14, 7-6) were led by sophomore guard Bryce Hamilton's 23 points and nine rebounds, while junior guards Jonah Antonio and Amauri Hardy each scored 14 points. Senior forward Nick Blair also had nine rebounds.

Jalen Harris' double-double of 29 points and 14 rebounds led the Wolf Pack (16-10, 9-5). Jazz Johnson added 19 points, Nisre Zouzoua contributed 12 points and Lindsey Drew pulled down 13 rebounds.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV was just 9 of 39 on 3-pointers for 23.1 percent.

CHANCE AT THE END: UNLV had a chance to tie or take the lead near the end of the overtime period, but Hamilton's 3-point try from near the top of the key missed with 10 seconds to go. Harris was fouled and made one of two free throws.

QUOTABLE: "It was a good college basketball game. Obviously, I feel for our guys that we didn't come out on the other end of the game. I felt like defensively early we weren't what we needed to be and offensively late we weren't what we needed to be, but overall our guys competed and fought, especially with smaller lineups and undersized guys out there from start to finish. We just have to do a better job of being attentive to every detail in games like that to come out with a victory." - UNLV head coach T.J. Otzelberger

NOTES:

- It was just the second home loss for UNLV in its last nine games at the Thomas & Mack Center.
- Antonio made four 3-pointers, his highest total in five games.
- UNLV committed just seven turnovers, tying its season low.
- UNLV shot just 48 percent from the free-throw line (12 of 25), while UNR was 64.3 percent (18 of 28).
- There were a total of five lead changes and nine ties.
- UNLV led in bench points, 30-20.
- UNLV has made at least one 3-pointer in a NCAA-record 1,096 straight games.

NEXT FOR THE RUNNIN' REBELS: UNLV will travel to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to face UNM on Saturday, Feb. 15 at 3 p.m. PT. The game will be televised on CBS Sports Network.

Shorthanded Lobos Run Out of Energy at UNLV

LAS VEGAS, Nev. --- For the first time this season, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team (15-5, 4-3 MW) suffered its second-straight road loss with a 99-78 showing at UNLV (11-9, 6-1 MW) on Saturday night. While the Lobos led for the majority of the first half, the Runnin' Rebels jumped ahead in the final minute with a halftime lead that they did not again relinquish.

The five Lobo starters played over 30 minutes of the 40-minute game including 35 or more from four of them: senior Corey Manigault (35), redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix (35), junior Makuach Maluach (37) and redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle (39).

"Unfortunately, we ran out of gas," head coach Paul Weir said. "We turned the ball over 12 times in the second half, three times in the first half. I thought our guys actually competed and played hard and rallied and responded to where we were at, but you've got to give it to UNLV, it just was a better team – it is the better team right now."

Despite the lengthy minutes and obvious wearing down of the Lobo personnel, UNM was behind by single digits with just 4:26 left on the clock. Redshirt-junior Zane Martin made a pair of free throws to make it an eight-point game, 76-68 before the Runnin' Rebels followed with a 9-0 run to extend the UNLV lead to 17, 85-68.

Lyle hit a pair of free throws and a three, broken up by a UNLV dunk, to make it a 14-point game with 2:27 left in a last-ditch effort at some energy from the Lobo squad. The energy burst wasn't quite enough however, as UNLV closed on a 12-5 run over the final 2:27 for the 21-point Runnin' Rebel win.

UNLV collected six dunks in the second half as the Lobo defense grew visibly tired, including three in the final two and a half minutes.

Despite the struggles of the Lobo defense on the night, the Lobo offense hit 10 3-pointers for just the second time this season en route to its 78 points. Lyle led the charge with four on the night followed by Hendrix (3-7). Manigault even registered two from deep, marking a new career-high for the big man.

The final three came from freshman Emmanuel Kuac, who saw 13 minutes on the court, which he registered just 12 seconds after entering the contest.

The Lobos were led on the night by Lyle, who registered his seventh 20+ point game of the season with an even 20 points. He has scored at least 20 in three of the Lobos' last five games.

Finishing just behind Lyle was Manigault who posted his second double-double of the season with 19 points and 11 boards. All five starters finished in double figures.

UNLV was led by a massive effort from sophomore Bryce Hamilton who put up a career-high 35 points going 14-for-19 from the floor. Another outstanding performance on the night was Runnin' Rebel sophomore Marvin Coleman who posted a triple-double with 11 points, 11 assists and 12 rebounds.

Coleman's triple-double marks the first in the Mountain West since 2016.

On the night, the Lobos were outshot 50.7 – 41.3 percent from the floor but fired at a clip of 38.5 percent from behind the arc compared to 30.8 percent for UNLV.

UNM was outrebounded 47-31 including 15-8 in offensive boards while turning the ball over 15 times compared to 10 for the Runnin' Rebels.

The Lobos are set to return to action on Tuesday, Jan. 21 when they host San José State inside Dreamstyle Arena – The Pit on AT&T SportsNet at 8 p.m. MT.

Tuesday's game will mark the Lobos "Suits & Sneakers" game in which UNM will support the BeLIVe campaign for the Children's Cancer Fund of NM by selling T-shirts to match the Lobo squad prior to and on gameday. Visit GoLobos.com/BeLIVe or GoLobos.com/BeLIVeShirt for more information.

WELCOME TO THE PIT, A MILE HIGH AND LOUDER THAN...

"What a terrific atmosphere for college basketball. Great building... Great history... 18,000 screaming fans. It's big time college hoops, baby!" - Dick Vitale, ESPN

"I consider the game we played in Albuquerque in 1978 one of the most exiciting of my career. The Pit is the toughest place to play because of their tremendous atmosphere."

-Jim Boeheim, Syracuse head coach

"When you go into a place like The Pit, there will be challenge different from a regular road game. The crowd can dictate the tempo and momentum. The Pit crowd forces you to be patient."

-Lute Olsen, former Arizona head coach

"A mile high but 37 feet underground, the Pit in Albuquerque has been the site of many mind-blowing college basketball games, including North Carolina State's upset of Houston in '83 and just about any New Mexico home game. The noise created by fans, which has been measured at 125 decibels -- the pain threshold for the human ear is 130 -- is a palpable force."

-Sports Illustrated

- Voted one of "The Top Five Loudest, Most Intimidating Places to Play" by NCAA.com
- Ranked in the top 20 sporting venues of the 20th century by Sports Illustrated
- USA Today ranked The Pit in its "Ten Great Places to Get Pumped for NCAA Action"
- According to Fox Sports, it's one of the top ten "old school" college basketball arenas in the country

THE GREATEST GAME EVER PLAYED

The Pit was the site of one of the greatest college basketball games ever played. It hosted the 1983 national championship game that saw the NC State Wolfpack upset Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler and the Houston Cougars. Coach Jimmy Valvano and the Wolfpack downed the Cougars on a last second put back by Lorenzo Charles. The iconic shot of the late Valvano running onto the court looking for a hug is one of the lasting images in college basketball history.

- Built in 1966 ($1.4 million)
- Capacity of 15,411 (previously 18,018)
- $60 million renovation was completed in 2010
- New floor installed before the 2017-18 season
- Seating includes 40 suites and a club area
- Officially named Dreamstyle Arena in 2017 after a $10 million agreement for naming rights by the local New Mexico business. It is the still referred to as The Pit, its official ly-recognized nickname. As part of the excit ing Dreamstyle changes, University Stadium, UNM's football stadium, officially became Dreamstyle Arena on the same date.
- Less than 30 of 345 NCAA Division I basketball programs play in a college-only arena named after a business or organization founded or headquartered in its home state.
- The Lobos have averaged an astounding 15,410 fans the past 49 years, an amazing 95% of capacity
- The Pit has ranked in the top 25 in attendance nationally nearly every season since the 1966-67 season with 35 seasons in the top ten in the NCAA in attendance
- Led the Mountain West in attendance in 10 of the conference's 15 years of existence
- The floor is named Bob King Court in honor of the former head coach who led the Lobos from 1963 to 1972.

Game 1 - New Mexico 92, Eastern NM 71 Nov. 6, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Men's Basketball Opens Season with 20+ Point Win

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team opened its season with a 21-point victory over Eastern New Mexico on Wednes-day evening inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit. Five Lobos racked up double figures in the 92-71 win.

The first points of the 2019-20 season came on a steal and a layup when redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell went coast-to-coast to kick off his first outing as a Lobo 1:15 into the first half - and the action didn't stop there. The Lobos debuted at a break-neck speed in their season opener in which the fiery offense shot 60.0 percent from the field.

The Lobos were led by a quiet 16 points from junior Makuach Maluach, who scored seven points in the first half before adding eight more in just the first five minutes of the second half. Maluach was joined in the double-digit club by redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Ir, redshirt-junior Zane Martin and senior Corey Manigault, each with 13 points apiece, as well as redshirt-junior Keith McGee who nexted 12.

The last time the Lobos had five double-digit scorers was against Iona at the start of last season, on Nov. 13, 2018.

In addition to the reliable shooting, the Lobos also saw redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle, who has sat the bench for two years as a Lobo (the first due to NCAA transfer rules, the second due to injury), not only scored nine points to go along with four rebounds, but also racked up an outstanding 11 assists. Lyle regularly found players down-court, firing passes between defenders, much to The Pit crowd's delight

New Mexico had just one Lobo collect 10+ assists in a game last season, Drue Drinnon on Dec. 30, 2018 against the University of the Southwest. Prior to that, it was former Lobo Antino Jackson, who was known for his knack for the assist, on Feb. 10, 2018 at Air Force.

In fact, Lyle nearly posted the first double-double in points and assists since Jackson did so in that game.

UNM went into the locker room at the half up by 11, 45-34, and shooting 62.1 percent compared to 40.7 percent (11-27) for the Greyhounds. However, Eastern New Mexico was dominating behind the arc, firing at a clip of 50.0 percent compared to 36.4 percent for UNM.

"Offense isn't my concern right now," head coach Paul Weir said. "We need to value the basketball more, which I think [was tonight] a little more careless than i is skill... We have a lot of potential, but I don't think we're going to reach it unless we can find a way to become a good defensive basketball team.

"I think we showed some flashes of it tonight, but obviously not anywhere we want to be, but that's expected."

The teams traded baskets in favor of ENMU, four points to two, throughout the first 1:12 of the second half before the Lobos exploded on a 13-0 run that started with a fast-break layup by Caldwell, included a Lyle 3-pointer and ended with a Maluach free throw for his 16th point at the 15:48 mark.

The run lasted 2:20 and put the Lobos on top by 23 points, a margin that was not relinquished until 2:56 on the clock as the Lobo starters began exiting the game.

UNM got the lead up to as many as 28 points, 81-53 with 8:01 on the clock en route to the 21-point win.

On the night, UNM fired 60 percent from the floor (33-55), 35 percent from 3-point range and 73.1 percent from the stripe. ENMU finished 37.3 percent from the field, 33.3 percent from 3-point range and 65 percent from the free throw

Leading the Greyhounds were a pair of double-digit scorers including senior Darius Sawyer (11 points) and junior Ibn Zaid (10) points. UNN limited ENMU's returning leading scorer, junior Devin Pullum, to just seven points on the night. Pullum averaged 12.7 points per game last season.

The Lobos return to action on Saturday, Nov. 9 against CSUN at 7 p.m. Last season, UNM opened its campaign on the road in Northridge, claiming the victory on a buzzer-beating three.

Game 2 - New Mexico 97, CSUN 70 Nov. 9, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos 2-0 After 27-Point Rout of CSUN

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team has kicked off the 2019-20 season 2-0 after earning a 27-point victory over the visiting CSUM Matadors inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit on Saturday night by a score of 97-70. The win marks the second 20+ point victory margin for the Lobos as the squad is averaging 94.5 points over its first two games.

In addition, 27 points marks the largest margin of victory for the Lobos over the Matadors in series history. UNM now leads the series 7-0 (5-0 in The Pit) and the victory margin surpasses 17 points set on Dec. 1, 1969, which marked the squads first ever meeting.

For the second straight game, UNM (2-0) boasted five scorers in double figures including redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle who powered the Lobos offensively with 18 points and five assists. Lyle went 7-for-10 from the floor, 2-for-4 from 3-point range and a perfect 2-for-2 from the free throw line.

Joining Lyle in leading the squad in scoring was redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg (17), senior Corey Manigault (17), redshirt-junior Zane Martin (13) and redshirt-junior Keith McGee. Bragg went 6-for-7 from the floor and 5-for-7 from the stripe. Satur day's game marks the second straight that Bragg, Manigault, Martin and McGee have racked up double figures.

Leading UNM defensively was junior Makuach Maluach who posted a team-high eight rebounds. Eight rebounds is just two away from Maluach's career high of 10 As a squad defensively, the Lobos outrebounded the Matadors 36-30 and forced 16 turnovers which they converted for 26 points.

"it was a step for sure defensively tonight. Probably a bigger one than I even anticipated. (CSUN) is a good team," head coach Paul Weir said. "They play hard, you could see the way they came out. They have good athletes, they made some shots early and got into a bit of a rhythm and fortunately our defense was able to still settle in after that and get enough stops to take a step.

"It's crazy that this isn't really about winning and losing as much as it is about just trusting our process and continuing to grow

UNM started out hot with an 8-0 run to get out to an early 11-3 lead, however the squads battled throughout the first half until a 9-0 run gave the Lobos some breathing room with a 10-point advantage, 38-28 with 1:48 left in the first half. The Lobos extended the lead to as many as 14, outscoring CSUN (0-2) by a score of 18-3 over 8:47 at the end of the half. CSUN redshirt-junior Lance Coleman II hit a three with five seconds left to make it an 11-point game at the break

At the half, the Lobos were firing at a clip of 64 percent from the field (16-25) led by Lyle with 11 points going 4-for-6. From behind the arc, UNM shot 37.5 percent in the first half to go along with an 8.8.9 percent shot from the stripe (8-for-9). CSUN shot 36.4 percent from the floor in the first half, 38.5 percent from behind the arc and 37.5 percent from the foul line.

With momentum in their favor, the Lobos didn't let up in the second half. The relentless Lobo offense opened with a dunk from Bragg just 13 seconds in to make the score 45-32

UNM held CSUN scoreless for 2:51 en route to a 16-point lead at the 14:22 mark in the second half before a McGee and-1 put the Lobos on top 60-43 in front of a roaring Pit crowd of over 10,000 fans.

The Lobos continued to pile on the points, getting out to as much as a 29-point lead with 1:56 left on the clock before CSUN scored a pair of points for the 27-point final.

On the night, UNM shot 60 percent for the second straight game (36-60) but shot just 37.5 percent from 3-point range (6-16). CSUN improved its shooting percen age to 44.4 percent after the second half in which the squad shot 53.3 percent.

The Matadors were led by a pair of players in double figures including Coleman (19) and junior Terrell Gomez (14).

The Lobos are set to return to action for the third game of their four-game season-opening homestand on Wednesday, Nov. 13 against Green Bay. Tipoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Game 3 - New Mexico 93, Green Bay 78 Nov. 13, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Make it Three in a Row; Top GB 93-78

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- For the third-straight game, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team outscored its opponent by double figures while racking up at least 90 points on Wednesday night with a 93-78 victory over the visiting Green Bay Phoenix. Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle led the Lobos with a career-high 31 points while fellow redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr posted his first double-double of the season en route to the victory.

The Lobos (3-0) closed the game in style Wednesday night when, despite head coach Paul Weir shouting to his team not to shoot the ball, the crowd was so loud that the squad couldn't hear the instruction. With 21 seconds left on the clock, the Lobos up by 15 and energy filling The Pit, senior Corey Manigault grabbed a defensive rebound and lobbed the ball to redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell, who drove to the other end and tossed the ball up behind him, where junior Makuach Maluach was waiting.

Maluach leapt from the ground for the dunk that put New Mexico up 17 (93-

Green Bay (1-2) responded with a fast-break layup with 11 seconds left for the 15-point final

Lyle's 31 points surpassed his previous career-high of 29, which he achieved as a freshman at Ohio State. The senior went 9-for-16 from the floor including 5-for-9 from behind the arc and a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line.

Maluach posted 16 points for the second time this season while shooting almost perfect from everywhere on the court. He made all but one (6-7) field goal attempt while going a perfect 2-for-2 from 3-point range and 2-for-2 from the line.

Bragg's double-double of 11 points and 16 rebounds marks his first since the end of last season. His career high in rebounds is 20, which he collected on March 9 against Wyoming. Bragg has posted 10+ rebounds nine times in his career at UNM but Wednesday marked his first time this season

As a team, UNM outrebounded the Phoenix 47-38 while forcing 16 turnovers and racking up 10 steals.

The Lobos led by an early five points at the 17:47 mark on a Maluach three before Green Bay flipped the script to go up by four when junior PJ Pipes made a fast break layup to put the Pheonix up four. Pipes helped lead Green Bay tying for a team-high 17 points.

Neither team had a significant advantage until the Lobos embarked on an 8-0 run to take a one-point game to a nine-point game (32-23) with 7:31 left to play in the first half. At the 2:58 mark, McNeese had whittled the Lobo lead back down to one, but another 7-0 run capped by a three from sophomore Tavian Percy made it an eight point game with 1:06 left. The Phoenix scored a last-second layup to make it a six-point game at the half, 49-43.

Despite giving up 43 points in the first half, the Lobos allowed just 35 points in the second half to outscore Green Bay by nine in the frame, 44-35

The Lobos jumped out with five straight points to kick off the second half including a Maluach layup and a Lyle three to give UNM an 11-point lead. The Phoenix cut it to four at the 15:07 mark but the Lobos soon began to run away with the game.

The second half was highlighted by a 9-0 run, the longest of the game, that put UNM up by 18 points with just 4:30 left. McNeese State got no closer than 13 throughout the remainder of the contest.

Wednesday night's contest was the next-to-last opportunity for fans to see wednesday highs comest was the next to hast opportunity for land to see the Lobos before they embark on a long road trip for four road games, not returning to The Pit until Dec. 1. Saturday's 4 p.m. contest against McNeese State will be the last opportunity - not to mention Lobo fans' first chance to purchase NM State single-game tickets.

Game 4 - New Mexico 90, McNeese 80 Nov. 16, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Manigault's 24 Powers Lobos Past McNeese, 90-80

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — The University of New Mexico men's basketball team finished off ar exciting game on Saturday afternoon to improve to 4-0 as the Lobos claimed a 90-80 victory over McNeese (1-4) in the final minutes inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit. Senior Corey Manigault tied his career-high 24 points in the contest as once again, five Lobos registered double figures on the day.

Manigault went 6-for-8 from the floor, battling in the low post, while scoring 12 more on free throws and posting six rebounds and three steals. The last time he scored 24 points was on Jan. 6, 2018 while at Indian Hills CC.

"I've said it before, I think Corey is the best low-post, left-block scorer I've ever had," head coach Paul Weir said. "For him to get six rebounds, no turnovers and three steals was huge for him. Every day I see him becoming a more impactful player on the floor and to see him finishing out the game is a big testament to how far he's come."

Additional standout performers in the matchup included redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr. who racked up 18 boards and five assists to go along with six points, redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle who collected 18 points, four assists and five rebounds, junior Makuach Maluach (12 points) and resbirt-junior Vance Jackson who registered his first double-digit scoring game of the season (11).

Redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell dished 10 assists on the day and contributed four steals, filling in key roles off the ball while taking just one shot from the floor.

"When you play with a lot of scorers, you want to get the ball to them when they're in their spots," Caldwell said. "They're essentially our playmakers. I'm an unselfish person so I don't really care about shooting. It doesn't really matter to me as long as we get the win and our scorers are scoring."

With the score tied at 78 apiece with just 2:29 left to play, the Lobos amassed significant momentum, collecting four of their 17 steals in just the final two minutes of the contest.

Manigault put the Lobos up by two, 80-78 with a pair of free throws and then up by four (82-78) with a layup before McNeese's Leondre Washington made a pair from the stripe to cut the deficit back to two (82-80) with 1:10 left on the clock.

The Lobos got the ball back - but quickly turned it over - and it looked as if the Cowboys were about to the it up again - until a Caldwell steal put the ball back in New Mexico possession with 42 seconds left in front of a roaring crowd. Caldwell quickly fired to Manigault who slammed an emphatic dunk to put UNM back up by four, 84-80.

Weir called a full timeout and the Lobos came out with another steal, this one from Manigault, and tyle drew the foul to make two more free throws and give UNM a more comfortable, six-point lead (86-80).

A near-brawl under the Lobo basket caused the Cowboys' Kuxhausen to foul out and earned the Lobos four shots on both a technical foul and an intentional foul. Lyle took all four, putting them away for the 90-80 final.

In the final 2:29, UNM went on a 12-2 run with six points coming from Manigault and the other six coming from Lyle. UNM closed the game on an 8-0 run.

McNeese jumped on top early in the contest, leading UNM 10-3 just 1:40 into the first half. The Cowboys extended their lead to 10 at the 16:04 mark and again at the 15:07 mark before the Lobos started to come back.

"I have to tip my hat to McNeese, I thought they played terrific tonight," Weir said. "They made a ton of great shots, a lot of high level shots... This team was a good test for us and I think we needed a game like that. Hopefully in the long run, games like this will serve us well."

New Mexico went on an 11-2 run to make it a one-point game, 19-18 McNeese, at the 11:48 mark before a pair of free throws put the Cowboys up three.

Redshirt-junior Keith McGee tied the game at the 10:20 mark on a dunk, assisted by Caldwell before redshirt-junior Vance Jackson gave the Lobos their first lead on a pair of free throws, 25-23, with 8:27 left in the first half.

Jackson, who has been quiet so far this season, hit a three with 4:49 left in the half to put the Lobos ahead by two en route to a five-point Lobo advantage at the half.

On the day, McNeese outshot the Lobos 50.0 percent to 47.5 percent from the floor. The Lobos shot just 43.8 percent in the first half but followed it up with 51.9 percent in the second half. The Cowboys also outshot UNM from three as they went 44.8 percent from behind the arc compared to 40 percent for the Lobos.

UNM outscored the Cowboys in the paint, however, by a commanding margin (40-28), as well as in second-chance points (18-9), fast-break points (32-10) and points off the bench (43-23).

The Lobos are set to hit the road for a pair of road trips, the first will feature a contest against UTEP on Tuesday, Nov. 19, in El Paso before the Lobos take on in-state rival NM State on Thursday, Nov. 21 at 7 p.m.

Game 5 - New Mexico 63, UTEP 66 Nov. 19, 2019 | Don Haskins Center

Lobos Suffer First Loss at Buzzer in Fl Paso

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team suffered its first loss of the season on the road at UTEP on Tuesday night when a JaQuan Lyle last-second three just barely mised the buzzer. The Lobos fell 66-63 in the contest that had eight ties and 6:53 of tied ball game.

With the loss, UTEP remains undefeated (4-0) while the Lobos post their first blemish of the season, slipping to 4-1.

In the first half, both teams were shooting below 40 percent from the field with a 30-30 halftime score and it was obvious the long-time rivals were going to have a defensive battle.

"I thought [UTEP's] defense was really good," head coach Paul Weir said. "We left some points .. around the rim and some layups and left some points at the free throw line as well on our end. But I don't want to take away from UTEP's defense. I thought they were very physical and played us really well, especially to start the game."

The squads went through seven possessions to kick off the contest that included three turnover, steal combos before a single point was scored. The first point of the matchup didn't come until the 18:21 mark when redshirt-junior Vance Jackson notched a free throw, his first of four points on the night.

Following the slow offensive start, UTEP began to pile on the points, holding the Lobo offense at the other end. The Miners went on a 10-0 run following the free throw to make it 10-1 at the 14:58 mark. LUMS senior Corey Manigault fried off a pair of free throws to end the run and make it a seven-point game (10-3) before the Lobo offense started to find a rhythm.

UNM came back on a 9-0 run over 1:47 to tie the game 10-10 at the 12:24 mark. The run included Manigault's free throws and a pair of threes, the first from junior Makuach Maluach, the second from redshirt-senior Lyle.

At one point late in the second half, Maluach was a perfect 4-for-4 from the floor, 2-for-2 from 3-point range and 1-for-1 from the stripe. The junior finished 4-for-6 on the night including a 2-for-mark from the field for a total of 11 points, four rebounds and two steals.

Lyle finished with a game-high 19 points on the night following his Mountain West Player of the Week honor for his performance last week. He also posted eight rebounds, second-most on the team, and a team-high four assists.

UTEP jumped back out on top with a pair of free throws by sophomore Efe Odigie, who finished second on the Miner squad in points with 12. UTEP built a six-point lead with 5:52 left in the first half before a 6-0 boto run tied it at 24 apiece. The run included a Maluach and-10 make it a three point game (24-21), a jumper by redshirt-junior Zane Martin and a free throw from Lyle, 24-24.

The squads went back and forth for the remaining 2:40 of the first half and the Lobos got on top five two Lyle free throws with eight seconds left, but an Odigie layup at the last second marked the fifth tie of the game for the 30-30 halftime score.

At the break, both teams combined for 17 turnovers of which UNM capitalized for 14 points while JTEP collected 10.

UNM shot 36.4 percent from the floor at the half (8-22) and 33.3 percent from 3-point land (3-9) while leaving five points at the charity stripe (11-16, 68.8 percent), UTEP just barely outshot the Lt bos from the floor at 37.9 percent but shot worse from three (26.7 percent, 4-for-15). The Miners did however, make 4-of-5 free throws for an 80 percent mark from the line.

The second half started out with a quick UTEP three in just the first 19 seconds of the frame, but Maluach matched it just 18 seconds later for the sixth tie of the match, 33-33. A 6-0 UTEP run made it 39-33 at the 17:09 mark before the Lobos again whittled away, making it a two-point gam just 3:18 later.

Neither team was able to gain more than a four-point advantage throughout the remainder of the contest and it was the home team that had a one-point edge with 1:53 left on the clock.

A dunk from Martin put the Lobos ahead by one with 53 seconds left, 63-62, but it was followed by a jumper from UTEP's Jordan Lathon 26 seconds later to put the Miners back up by one, 64-63.

With three seconds left, Maluach attempted a three for the lead from the right wing but missed and Coach Weir called his full timeout. A Lyle foul to stop the clock allowed UTEP's Bryson William to score a pair of free throws for a three-point Miner advantage before Weir called a 30-second timeout with 1.1 left on the clock.

Martin threw the ball in from under the basket, finding Lyle at half court, Lyle collected the ball, dribbled a step, and fired - making the long three. But upon review, the shot did not leave Lyle's hands in time and 66-63 was the final.

Three Lobos scored in double figures on the night including Lyle (19), Maluach (11) and redshirt-se nior Carlton Bragg (10). Bragg also led all players in rebounding with nine.

UTEP was led by grad student Daryl Edwards (18), Odigie (12), Lathon (10) and redshirt-sophomore Souley Boom (10).

On the night, the Miners outshot UNM 42.9 - 38.8 percent from the field and 84.6 - 64.5 percent from the free throw line. The Lobos edged UTEP from 3-point range, 26.3 percent to 25.0 percent. UNM also outrebounded the Miners 36-31 and registered 26 points off of turnovers compared to 21 for UTEP.

The Lobos will get just one day of rest before taking on another long-time rival, NM State, in Las Cruces on Thursday. The squads are set to face off at 7 p.m. Thursday night at the Pan American Center

Game 6 - New Mexico 78, NM State 77 Nov. 21, 2019 | Pan American Center

Lobos Down Aggies in 78-77 Thriller on the Road

LAS CRUCES, N.M. --- For the first time in head coach Paul Weir's tenure, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team claimed a victory over in-state rival NM State in a thrilling fashion on Thursday night. The contest came down to the final possession and the Lobos took the win 78-77 on the road.

The Lobo victory snaps a five-win streak for the Aggies (2-3) and also marks the first time the Lobos (5-1) have won in Las Cruces since Nov. 15, 2015 when UNM claimed an 83-74 victory. UNM also improves to 122-101 over the Aggies in series history with the win.

The Aggies have suffered just 13 losses at home in the Pan American Center since the 2011-12 season and six of those have come at the hands of the Lobos.

Redshirt-junior JaQuan Lyle once again led the Lobo squad with 24 points on the night going 9-for-14 from the floor, 2-for-5 from three and 4-for-5 from the free throw line. He also posted a pair of assists and three steals. Redshirt-senior Carthon Bragg Ir. also scored in double figures, registering 14 points on the night to go along with six rebounds and a game-high four steals. He also had the only block on the night.

Thursday night's rebound leader was redshirt-junior Vance Jackson who nearly racked up a double-double with seven rebounds and nine points. Two other players collected nine points including junior Makuach Maluach and redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell.

With seven ties and 12 lead changes, Thursday night's contest was truly a rivalry battle. The Lobos started out strong with a quick four points but the Aggies roared back to get on top by as many as nine midway through first half before the Lobos chipped the NM State lead back to two with 4:03 left in the half. UNM outscored the Aggies 12-5 over 5:11 and capped the run with a lyle three before the final medial timeout of the first half.

Over the final minutes of the first frame, the Lobos kept playing catchup with NM State, which couldn't get more than a four-point advantage. A jumper by redshirt-junior Zane Martin with just 23 seconds left made it a two-point game at the half, 39-37 Aggies.

Both teams came out of the locker room on a mission in the second half. NM State's largest lead was five just 1:39 into the half but over the next two minutes, an 8-2 Lobo run put UNM up by one, 47-46, on a fast-break layup by Maluach. The play marked the first time the Lobos had led since 2-44 into the contest.

NM State quickly took the lead back on a senior Terrell Brown three with 16 minutes left and UNM didn't regain the lead again until the 11:41 mark when Bragg made a layup to make it 56-54 lobos.

The game remained tight as neither team led by more than four for the remainder of the contest. UNM got out to a four-point lead on a 7-0 run that was sparked by a three from redshirt-junior Keith McGee and four straight points in the paint by senior Corey Manigault, 67-63 Lobos.

The squads tied the contest three more times, including on a fast-break jumper from Caldwell with just 1:33 left to play, 75-75.

Caldwell was fouled on the play and made the and-1 to put the Lobos back up by one, 76-75, and that's when things got interesting.

The Aggies went back up by one with 1:17 left, but the next 28 seconds were full of fouls and game stoppage before Bragg hit a pair of free throws to give the Lobos another one-point advantage, 78-77

Throughout the final 43 seconds, the Lobo defense battled on the Aggle end of the court, forcing a pair of turnovers while committing two of its own. The referees continued to review the plays and possession changed back and forth. Just as the Lobos looked to head down court for a chance at extending the lead, the Aggles would get the ball back for another chance at the win.

The Lobo defense however, kept the Aggies from getting off a good shot, without fouling, and NM State senior Shunn Buchanan attempted a 3-point buzzer beater and missed for the 78-77 final.

On the night, the Lobos outshot the Aggies from the floor 53.8 percent to 43.8 percent. The Lobos also outperformed the Aggies from 3-point range 26.7 percent (4-15) to 21.2 percent (7-33).

Both teams collected seven steals, NM State registered 17 assists to UNM's 10 and the Aggies outrebounded UNM 37-29.

UNM led for just 6:31 of the contest before delivering the loss in the final minutes.

The Lobos are set to return to action on Monday, Nov. 25 and Tuesday, Nov. 26 in Brooklyn New York for the 2019 Roman Legends Classic presented by Old Trapper. The Lobos will kick off play in New York against 2019 Final Four participant (and currently undefeated) Auburn on Monday before taking on either Wisconsin or Richmond Tuesday.

Lobos Overwhelmed by No. 18/19 Auburn in Semifinal

BROOKLYN, N.Y. --- Despite a strong start against undefeated, No. 18/19 Auburn on Monday night, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team (5-2) suffered an 84-59 loss to the Tigers (6-0) in the semifinal round of the 2019 Roman Legends Classic presented by Old Trapper at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn. The contest had three lead changes before the Tigers ran away with the game.

With the loss, UNM will take on Wisconsin, which is also receiving votes in the latest Associated Press poll, on Tuesday evening at 5 p.m. ET (3 p.m. MT) in the consolation game. Wisconsin (5-2) fell to Richmond on Monday by a final score of 62-52

Neither team shot particularly well on the night as the Lobos finished the contest shooting just 40.3 percent from the floor compared to 42.1 percent for the Tigers. Auburn did however, collect 12 3-pointers (of 38 fired from behind the arc) while the Lobos collected just four, including a pair from redshirt-junior Vance Jackson.

UNM's best scoring run of 8-0 came twice, once it the first half and the second beginning at the 13:24 mark of the second half. After heading into the locker room down 35-24 at halftime, the Lobos attempted a comeback in the second half that was sparked by a dunk by redshirt-junior Keith McGee to make it a 25-point game (56-31).

McGee's spark was followed by layups by Jackson, redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell and another pair of points for McGee to make the game an 18-point contest before Auburn again picked up steam.

McGee was the story of the second half as he collected all 13 of his points and radiated positivity on the court to try to rally the Lobos in the fin minutes.

In the final six minutes, both teams were trading dunks on possessions and McGee scored seven straight points for UNM starting with an alley-opp from Caldwell and adding an emphatic dunk followed by a three with 4:05 left. The energy sparked another Jackson three and also one from freshman Kurt Wegscheider, but the burst was not enough as UNM ultimately dropped the contest by 25 points.

Leading UNM on the night was junior Makuach Maluach who was a consisteating of Nin of the flight was juilin Machael in Mailach will will was a consoft tent presence on the court for UNM. Maluach notched 14 points as one of three Lobos to hit double figures. He went 5-for-7 from the floor and a per-fect 4-for-4 from the free throw line while missing just one 3-point attempt.

McGee was second in scoring for UNM with 13 points followed by Jackson who registered his second double-figure game of the season with 10. Jackson also led the Lobos in rebounding in his 25 minutes on the court, racking up

Auburn was powered by four Tigers in double figures including senior Samir Doughty who collected 19 while senior Austin Wiley posted the only double-double on the night with 14 points and 13 rebounds before fouling out with 2:37 left. Lobo redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr. also fouled out of the contest after collecting seven boards.

Auburn converted 28 points off of 24 Lobo turnovers while UNM collected just six steals on the night.

New Mexico is set to return to action in the consolation contest on Tuesday, Nov. 25 against (RV) Wisconsin at 5 p.m. ET (3 p.m. MT). The game will be broadcast live on ESPN2.

Game 8 - New Mexico 59, Wisconsin 50 Nov. 26, 2019 | Barclays Center

Lobos Take Down Wisconsin in Brooklyn, 59-50

BROOKLYN, N.Y. --- Following a disappointing defeat against No. 18/19 Auburn on Monday night, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team rebounded with a victory over (RV) Wisconsin on Tuesday in the Lobos' first win over a Power 5 team since 2012. Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle led UNM with 14 points as one of four Lobos to register double figures as UNM topped the Badgers 59-50.

The contest wraps up the 2019 Roman Legends Classic presented by Old Trapper in New York. With the win, UNM improves to 6-2 while the Badgers slip to 4-3.

Along with Lyle's 14 points, a trio of Lobos racked up 12 apiece including redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg as well as redshirt-juniors JJ Caldwell and Zane Mar tin. Lyle also led UNM in rebounds with a season-high nine boards, followed by Bragg who posted six and Caldwell who collected five.

Caldwell's 12 points marked a new season high and along with his and Martin's dozen, the pair also registered the most assists on the court with three apiece as UNM had 13 assists while forcing 14 turnovers.

UNM led for 31:48 of the contest, leading 29-20 at the half, marking the second-lowest point total for the Lobos in a half this season. It was the Lobos' first-half advantage that won the game as both squads racked up an even 30 points in the second.

The Lobos started out strong in the first half getting out to an early four-point lead on a 3-pointer by redshirt-junior Vance Jackson at the 14:50 mark (9-5). The Badgers closed the gap and took a one-point lead (14-13), but the Lobos embarked on a 7-0 run with 6:47 left in the first half, sparked by a Bragg layup. Caldwell, who is typically the assist specialist on the squad, hit a jumper followed by a Lyle three to put the Lobos up by six, 20-14.

The Lobo advantage frazzled the Badger defense and UNM continued to pile on the points with another 7-0 run kicked off by a Caldwell triple (23-16). UNM got the advantage up to 11 twice in the final seconds of the first frame, the largest lead of the game, before the 29-20 first-half score. The Lobos outscored Wisconsin 16-6 over the final 6:47 of the first half.

The Lobos shot 44.4 percent from the field compared to 38.9 percent for the

The Badgers whittled the score as close as three twice in the second half, but UNM never relinquished the lead.

On the night, the Lobos outshot Wisconsin 44.0 - 34.0 percent from the field including a 23.1 - 7.7 percent advantage from 3-point range. The Lobo defense held the Badgers to just two threes on the night out of 26 fired from behind the arc.

Wisconsin was led by junior Nate Reuvers who registered 16 points going 7-for-9 from the floor with five rebounds. Just one other Badger racked up double digits, redshirt-junior D'Mitrik Trice, who scored 11 with a team-high seven boards.

After a long road trip that included four tough contests, the Lobos will return to action inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit on Sunday, Dec. 1 against Montana at 1 p.m. The game will be broadcast on AT&T SportsNet.

Game 9 - New Mexico 72, Montana 63 Dec. 1, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Remain Undefeated at Home; Top Montana 72-63

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team extended its unbeaten streak at home to 5-0 on Sunday afternoon with a 72-63 win over the Montana Grizzlies. The Lobos were powered by a 20-point, 14-rebound effort from redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr. in his second double-double of the season.

With the win, the Lobos improve to 7-2 on the season while the Grizzlies drop to 3-5 overall. Montana's losses this season include Sunday's game against UNM, as well as Stanford, Arkansas and No. 25 Washington

On the night, the Lobos were edged in field goal percentage 43.1 - 43.3 but fired at a clip of 46.2 percent from behind the arc while holding the Griz to just 31.8 percent from three. UNM outrebounded Montana 43-31 while turning the ball over just nine times, marking UNM's owest turnover total of the season.

The first half of Sunday's contest was one heavy on defensive effort as neither team reached double digits through the first 7:34. In fact, the Lobos went scoreless for 6:56 before Bragg registered a pair of free throws to make it a two-point game, 10-8, in favor of Montana

"What's been best [about Bragg] has been his free throw shooting," head coach Paul Weir said. "To have a big of his size, that you can feel confident with every time he goes to the free throw line is a great benefit to the program and our team. Today he was [also] finishing around the rim terrific and [had a big block]."

Three minutes and nine seconds after snapping UNM's cold spell from the floor, Bragg was found behind the arc by redshirt-junior Zane Martin, who collected 11 points of his own on the night, and Bragg sunk his first career 3-pointer to spark a 9-0 run that included back-to-back-back threes by not only Bragg, but also sophomore Tavian Percy and redshirt-senior IaQuan Ivle.

The burst of energy and points took UNM from trailing by four to leading by five, 19-14 at the 6:51 mark of the first half. UNM would not relinquish the lead for the remainder of the half.

The Lohos traded quick threes with Montana as freshman Josh Vazquez, who posted 16 points on the day, followed Lyle's three but on the next possession, redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell knocked one down from 3-point range to keep it a five-point game, 22-17 Lobos.

It was Bragg that gave UNM its largest leads of the half with a layup at the 4:54 mark for a seven-point Lobo advantage, 24-17, and again with just 50 seconds left when he hit a pair from the stripe. He pushed the Lobo lead to eight to cap an 8-0 run, 32-24. Montana hit a jumper with 25 seconds left to end the half on an 8-2 Lobo run for the 32-26 score at the Montana came out of the locker room with a pair of free throws at the 19:06 mark to make it a four-point game, 32-28, before junior Makuach Maluach, who had a quiet first half, scored five straight for UNM. Maluach hit a fast-break three to make it a seven-point game, followed with a dunk, his third of the season, to put the Lobos up by nine.

Montana reclaimed the lead just once more with 8:59 left on the clock when redshirt-senior Kendal Manuel hit a three to put the Griz up by one, 50-49. The lead was short-lived h as Bragg hit yet another pair of free throws to put UNM up for good, 51-50 with 8:35 left

JNM continued to add to the lead and eventually got out to a 10-point advantage, the largest lead of the game, with 1:09 left when Martin hit a free throw to make it 69-59 en oute to the nine-point, 72-63 final.

Bragg went 9-for-11 from the free throw line and 5-for-8 from the floor on his way to leading UNM with his 20 points. He was followed by Lyle who registered 16 points and three assists Martin was the third Lobo to collect double figures with 11 while Caldwell led UNM with five

Montana was led by senior Saveed Pridgett who posted 25 points, 10 rebounds and five

The Lobos are set to return to action Wednesday, Dec. 4 when they kick off Mountain West play with a 7 p.m. contest against Boise State inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Game 10 - New Mexico 80, Boise State 78 Dec. 4, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Extend Home Win Streak to 6-0

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- Behind a career-high tying 31 points from redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team earned a thrilling 80-78 victory over Boise State in UNM's earliest conference opener in Mountain West history on Wednesday. With the victory, the Lobos extend their unbeaten streak at home to 6-0 and improve

The 8-2 start marks the best 10-game start since the 2012-13 season when the Lobos went 10-0 through the first 10 contests, eventually stretching the streak to 12

The last time the Lobos were 6-0 at home was in the 2016-17 season when UNM ultimately went 7-0 before falling. Prior to that, it was a 9-0 streak in 2010-11.

With the victory, the Lobos improve to 12-5 in the series (7-2 in The Pit) and the contest marks the third straight game with the Broncos (4-3) that has been decided by one possession. Last season, UNM won 73-72 on Senior Night and in the previous meeting, it was Boise State that came out on top 73-71 on Feb. 2, 2018 - all three contests were in Albuquerque Wednesday night's exciting contest was a back-and-forth battle that resulted in 10 ties and 17 lead changes while UNM led for just 10:38.

After a first half that ended deadlocked at 39-39, the Lobos turned up the energy in the second half and battled for a four-point advantage (53-49) on a dunk by senior Corey Manigault at the 13:47 mark before getting out to to a five-point lead on a layup from redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr. with 10:16 left to play.

Bragg smashed a dunk and a layup within 39 seconds to keep The Pit crowd roaring and extend the Lobo lead

The squads tied the score again at 68-68 with just 5:35 left on a Lyle free throw that marked the start of 10 straight Lobo free throws over the final stretch (11 total).

With the score 68-68, Boise State's RJ Williams, who is one of three Broncos to average scoring in double figures on the season, committed a personal foul under the Bronco basket. After exchanging words with Bragg, the pair received a double-technical foul, followed by another technical, to eject Williams and award Bragg a pair of free throws. Bragg made both, going 5-for-7 on the night from the stripe, to put UNM up by two, 70-68.

The fouls also put the Lobos in the double bonus with 2:46 left to play

Lyle was awarded two more shots just 15 seconds later to give the Lobos a four-point advantage, 72-68 with 4:53 left.

Boise State got back on top 76-73 with 2:28 on the clock but the Lobos tied it back up 76-76 with a pair of free throws from Bragg and one from Lyle before Lyle put UNM back up by one (77-76) with his second of a pair with just 1:02 left.

Bragg put the Lobos back on top by just one with a layup in the paint with 34 seconds on the clock (79-78) and the clock wound down to three seconds left with the Lobos still holding

Boise State attempted a go-ahead three on a right corner three from senior Alex Hobbs, who collected 14 points on the night, but the shot missed and Lobo redshirt-junior Zane Martin collected the defensive rebound and was fouled with 2.1 seconds left.

Martin made one of his two from the stripe to put UNM up by two (80-78) and Boise State attempted to fire the ball down court where Caldwell intercepted it, but went out of bounds. After official review, 0.9 seconds were put back on the clock and the Broncos called their final timeout to attempt one last shot, a corner three from leading-scorer Justinian Jessup (24 points). The shot missed its target for the 80-78 final.

On the night, UNM turned the ball over just six times marking a season low

New Mexico is set to return to action on Saturday, Dec. 7 at 2 p.m. for its second Mountain West contest on the road in Laramie, Wyoming.

Game 11 - New Mexico 79, Wyoming 65 Dec. 7, 2019 | Arena - Auditorium

Lobos Top Wyoming 79-65 on the Road

LARAMIE. Wvo. --- For the third time in the last four contests. The University of New LARAMIE, Wyo. — For the third time in the last four contests, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team (9-2, 2-0 MW) held its opponent to less than 30 points in the first half on Saturday afternoon and used the 11-point halftime advantage to claim a 14-point victory over the Wyoming Cowboys (3-7, 0-2 MW) on Saturday afternoon. UNM topped Wyoming 79-65 as redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Ir. registered his third double-double of the season, his second in the last three games.

Senior Corey Manigault led the Loho scoring effort with 18 points to go along with seven rebounds while redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell nearly posted a triple-double on the day with eight points, 10 rebounds and nine assists. Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle collected 13 points while junior Makuach Maluach added 12.

vho collected a double-double at Arena-Auditorium last season as well (22 points, 20 rebounds), posted 15 points and 15 boards on the day to go along with three blocks and one steal.

Saturday's win marks the seventh time in the last eight seasons that the Lobos have kicked off conference play 2-0 and the second time in the last three meetings that UNM has earned a victory at Wyoming. UNM improves to 25-42 inside Arena-Audi-

The Lobos outshot the Cowboys 48.3 percent to 37.5 percent from the floor while tying their season-high 47 rebounds and limiting Wyoming to just 29 boards, the third least the Lobos have allowed this season.

UNM kicked the contest off with the first basket from Bragg before extending the early lead to five, 8-3, on a Maluach layup at the 15:12 mark.

Wyoming tied it up with 9:02 left in the first half 10-10 before the Lobos used a 7-0 run, sparked by a Maluach layup to make it 17-10 Lobos with 7:39 left in the half. UNM extended its lead to 10 on a clutch three from sophomore Tavian Percy to make it 22-12 UNM.

Just 2:32 later, Manigault slammed an alley-oop from Caldwell at the 2:47 mark to make it a 15-point game, 32-17.

The Cowboys closed the first half on a 4-0 run for the 32-21 halftime score.

Bragg had collected a game-high nine rebounds at the halfway mark while Manigauli led all scorers on the court with nine, followed by Maluach with eight,

The Lobos maintained the double-digit lead until the 15:11 mark when red-shirt-sophomore and Saturday's leading scorer Hunter Maldonado registered a three with 14:55 on the clock to make it a nine-point game, 46-37.

The rally was short-lived, however. Nearly five minutes later, Lobo junior Vance Jackson, who finished last season averaging 13.1 points per game but has struggled so far this season to heat up from the floor, nailed a three to give UNM a 17-point בי הבי היים והמנים והיים בי היים מלא מ advantage on the back of a 6-0 Lobo run that included a three from redshirt-junior Zane Martin.

The Lohos continued to nile on the points, getting out to as much as a 20-point lead with just 4:04 left (71-51) before the Cowboys started chipping away for the 14-point final, 79-65.

Wyoming was led by Maldonado who registered 27 points going 10-for-18 from the floor, 4-for-5 from three and 3-for-5 from the stripe. He also tied for the Cowboys' most rebounds with six.

The Lobos return to non-conference play on Saturday, Dec. 14 when they host the NM State Aggies in game two of the 2019-20 Rio Grande Rivalry. UNM topped NM State in Las Cruces on Nov. 21 by one, 78-77. The Lobos and the Aggies tip off on AT&T SportsNet inside Dreamstyle Arena – The Pit at 5 p.m. Saturday

Game 12 - New Mexico 69, NM State 62 Dec. 14, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Make it a Sweep! Lobos Top Aggies 69-62 in The Pit

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- For the first time since the 2015-16 season, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team earned a sweep over in-state rival NM State, capping this season's series with a 69-62 victory inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit on Saturday evening in front of over 14,000 fans. The win marked the fifth straight for the Lobos and UNM extended its home win streak to 7-0.

The Lobos (10-2) earned the first win over the Aggies this season on Nov. 21 in Las The Louis (10-2) earlied the inst will over the Aggres this season on 100, 21 in Las Cruces by a score of 78-77 before claiming the sweep on Saturday. With the loss, NM State is now 6-6 overall on the season while the Lobos continue their best start since 2012-13 when UNM went 12-0 to open its campaign.

Redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Jr., on his birthday, racked up his fourth double-double of the season, his third in the Lobos' last four games, with 17 points and 17 rebounds. He drew a game-high 10 fouls and went 9-fo-10 from the stripe to go along with a 4-for-5 mark from the floor. Bragg also collected four steals, an assist and a

"[Bragg's] offensive rebounding is at the professional level and it really changes the game for us," head coach Paul Weir said. "His running of the floor has always been terrific and having laQuan and the other guys find him in transition resulted in some really amazing finishes. He's a great player who makes some very athletic,

It was Bragg and classmate JaQuan Lyle who led UNM as Lyle finished with 16 points for his 10th game of the season registering double figures.

"It felt amazing to actually be a part of the win rather than sitting and watching like I did last year," Bragg said. "This win was amazing and it was definitely one of the best games I've ever played in."

While the Aggies outshot UNM 43.6 - 42.0 percent and outrebounded 35-33 UNM still persevered. The Aggies slowly built a six-point lead, 12-6, at the 13:35 mark before the Lobos tore away on a 10-1 run to take a three-point lead, 16-13, within four minutes. The run started with a Lyle jumper and a dunk by senior Cor Manigault before redshirt-junior Keith McGee put the Lobos on top with a layup under the basket, 14-13.

The Aggies pulled back ahead by one within 56 seconds, 17-16 before it was McGee again that put the Lobos back on top. NM State had the lead for just another 19 seconds before McGee drained a three to put the Lobos back on top, 19-17 - and the Lobo crowd went wild

NM State's Jabari Rice, who entered the game second on the Aggies in scoring with 13.0 points per game, hit a pair of threes and a layup intermixed with a few Lobo free throws to put NMSU back up by seven with just 2:10 left in the half, but UNM battled back again with five straight points over the stretch. Junior Makuach Maluach nailed a jumper before Lyle knocked down one a three to make it a two-point game at the break, 33-31 Aggies.

UNM has entered halftime trailing just three times this season, and has now won two of those contests.

In the second half, the Lobos heated up and took off as they extended their 5-0 run at the end of the first half to a 10-0 run on a three by redshirt-junior Vance Jackson, 36-33 Lobos.

UNM continued the run until it was eventually 17-4 over 6:32. The exciting Lobo run was capped by a pair of back-to-back massive Bragg dunks, forcing NM State head coach Chris Jans to call a timeout, Lobos leading by seven, 42-37.

The Aggies tied the game again with 12:46 left on an open three by senior Trevelin Queen, who was coached by current UNM director of operations Ralph Davis at NMMI prior to his arrival at NM State. Queen entered the game leading the Aggies in scoring with 14:9 points on the season and finished with a game-high 19 points

Queen hit another from 3-point range just 45 seconds later to give NM State its last lead of the matchup before the Lobos overtook them again on another McGee three with 10.16 left. UNM never again relinquished the lead and pushed it to as many as nine twice over the final 10 minutes. NM State called all of its timeouts and fouled through the end as UNM posted its last 10 points on free throws.

On the evening, UNM outshot the Aggies 82.1 - 40.0 percent from the free throw line, marking the highest percentage from the stripe this season. The Lobos led for 15^4 2, just edging MMSUS 16.48.

New Mexico is set to continue its four-game home stand with a quick contest on Tuesday, Dec. 17 when the Lobos host Grand Canyon at 7 p.m. MT.

Game 13 - New Mexico 91, Grand Canyon 71 Dec. 17, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Extend Win Streak to Six; Top GCU by 20

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team extended its win streak to six on Tuesday evening with a 91-71 rout of the visiting Grand Canyon 'Lopes (4-8). The contest marked the fifth time this season that the Lobo offense has reached 90 points.

With the victory, the Lobos improve to 11-2 overall to continue UNM's best start to the season since the 2012-13 season. In addition, UNM is now 8-0 at home inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit and 5-0 to open December.

The Lobos were led by a pair of 20 point scorers marking the first time since Nov. 17, 2018 against NM State that the Lobos have had a pair of players score 20+ points. Tuesday night, it was redshirt-seniors JaQuan Lyle who led with 21 points, followed by classmate Carlton Bragg Jr. who registered 20 points and 14 rebounds for his fourth double-double in the last five games.

Bragg went 7-for-10 from the floor and a perfect 2-for-2 from behind the arc for just his second and third career 3-pointers. He also registered a perfect 4-for-4 mark from the free throw line and an assist while Lyle was 6-for-9 from the floor, 4-for-5 from three and a perfect 5-for-5 from the stripe with six assists and a pair of steals.

The Lobos also debuted a new weapon on Tuesday night in Vante Hendrix, the Utah transfer who was declared eligible to play prior to Tuesday evening's contest. Hendrix tallied 12 points, all in the second half and all from behind the arc. He finished 4-for-6 from 3-point range.

Hendrix marked the third of five Lobos to score in double figures Tuesday including redshirt-juniors Vance Jackson (12) and Zane Martin (11). Jackson's 12 points marked a season high.

Overall, the Lobos outshot the 'Lopes 55.4 - 48.3 from the floor and 53.8 18.2 percent from 3-point range. UNM went a season-best 14-for-26 from behind the arc marking the most threes UNM has fired this season and the second time this season that the Lobos have scored more from 3-point range than their opponent (Grand Canyon made just two threes on the night, 2-11).

The Lobos also outrebounded 36-24 and capitalized on 12 GCU turnovers for GCU led for just 1:18 of the contest in the early minutes of the game. UNM got out by as many as three before a 6-1 run put the 'Lopes on top by two, 10-8, at the 13:40 mark.

The Lobos quickly rebounded however, with a 12-0 run that was started by a The boos galaxiy bootined indexer, with a 125 that was safeted by a bragg three. Bragg netted seven points in the run that put UNM up by double digits for the first time, 20-10.

UNM continued its dominating performance throughout the remainder of the first half before an 11-point UNM advantage (31-20) was whittled down to a four-point lead with 52 seconds left in the first half. GCU used a 7-0 run to close the gap to 31-27 but UNM worked the lead back to six, 37-31, at the

The Lobos exploded out of the second half with a 6-0 run on a pair of threes from Lyle and Jackson to make it a 12-point game, 43-31.

GCU got the contest back within eight 3:29 later before the Lobos embarked on a massive 11-0 run that was sparked by a dunk from junior Makuach Maluach followed by a free throw and a trio of threes from Lyle, Martin and Hendrix within 3:46.

The spurt put the Lobos up by 20, 59-39 with 12:25 left to play.

UNM held at least a 13-point lead for the rest of the matchup en route to the

The Lobos have two more home contests before heading back out on the road. UNM is set to take on Houston Baptist on Sunday, Dec. 22 at 12:30 p.m. inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit.

Game 14 - New Mexico 107, Houston Baptist 88 Dec. 22, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Make it 9-0 at Home; Win Streak Now at Seven

ALBUQUEROUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team extended its win streak to seven on Sunday afternoon with a 19-point victory over the visiting Houston Baptist Huskies, 107-88. The contest marked the first time this season that UNM has reached triple figures.

Sunday's contest also marks the sixth time this season that UNM has scored 90+ points. The last time the Lobos (12-2) registered six games scoring 90 points or more before the end of December was 21 seasons ago, in 1998-99.

UNM is now 9-0 at home inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit this season marking the first time since the 2010-11 season that the Lobos have racked up nine consecutive wins in Albuquerque. UNM is also 6-0 in the month of December for the first time since 2011-12.

For the first time this season, UNM debuted a new starting lineup on Sunday afternoon after a pair of regular starters, redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg Ir. and redshirt-junior JJ Caldwell, missed Sunday's contest as announced prior to tipoff via media statement. In their place were redshirt-junior Zane Martin and senior Corey Manigault who combined for 40 points on the day.

It was Manigault who led the Lobos with 21 points going a near-perfect 9-for-10 from the floor followed by Martin with a season-high 19 points and six assists. Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle and junior Makuach Maluach also reg-istered 19 points apiece. Redshirt-junior Vance Jackson posted a season-high 14 points to follow up his season best 12 points which he registered on Tuesday. All five starters scored in double figures on the day.

Houston Baptist (0-10), which boasts the third-toughest schedule in the nation according to KenPom ratings, was led by senior Jalon Gates who scored 30 points on the day. Gates is the first player this season to score 30 points inst the Lobos

Overall, UNM outshot HBU 64.1 to 51.5 percent from the floor and outrebounded 35-31 en route to the win. UNM also converted 14 Husky turnovers into 27 points compared to just 13 off of 10 for HBU.

The squads had seven lead changes through a close first half in which neither team was able to get ahead by more than six points before the Lobos went on a huge run in the second half to take the game. UNM had only trailed three times at the half this season, with a record of 2-1 when trailing at the break, but despite a two-point Lobo lead with 47 seconds left, HBU made a pair of layups in the final 31 seconds, including one at the buzzer, to take a two-point advantage at the break, 48-46.

HBU continued its run out of the break, extending it to 10-2 for a six-point lead (54-48) before the Lobos responded with a 16-0 run to take a 10-point lead at the 14:39 mark. The Lobos never trailed again.

The Lobo spurt included a big Maluach block followed by a Lyle-to-Manigault alley-oop that took the run to 11-0 and put UNM up 59-54, causing HBU to call a timeout.

Just 1:08 later, the Lobos extended the run to 16-0 on a Jackson steal that turned into a Martin fast-break layup on the other end. The play came just after a Manigault three from the left corner and the pair of plays caused the Huskies to call another timeout with 14:39 on the clock, when the Lobos led by 10 (64-54).

UNM got ahead by as many as 22 points with 2:11 left on the clock en route to the 19-point final

The Lobos are set to return to action on Sunday, Dec. 29, when they host UC Davis at 2 p.m. in The Pit. The contest will mark the last of the four-game home stand before UNM returns to the road to re-open conference play at San José State on New Year's Day.

Game 15 - New Mexico 74, UC Davis 69 Dec. 29, 2019 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Make it 10-0 with Exciting One Over UC Davis

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team improved to 13-2, 10-0 at home, on Sunday afternoon to finish out the month of December undefeated with a 74-69 victory over UC Davis (5-10). UNM also extended its win streak to eight as senior Corey Manigault led the Lobos with his first double-double of the season, registering 20 points and a season-high 11 rebounds.

Manigault's 11 rebounds matches his UNM career high, to go along with four างเอเมลูเฮนเ 3 ±1 เยบบนาเมร matches his UNM career high, to go along with four steals and two assists on the day. He also posted just one turnover in a UNM career-high 38 minutes.

Manigault was one of five Lobos to register double figures on the day, followed by junior Makuach Maluach (14 points), redshirt-sophomore Vante Henrix (13) and redshirt-juniors Vance Jackson (12) and Zane Martin (10). The contest marks the third straight that five Lobos have scored in double figures.

Hendrix had an outstanding day that included several key plays. Not only did he seal the victory with a steal and a dunk with four seconds left, but he registered four second-half dunks, three of which put the Lobos up after being either behind or tied to change the momentum in the Lobos' favor.

With the game tied at 64-64 with 3:24 left to play, it was Hendrix who reg istered the fast-break dunk to put UNM back on top, 66-64. Just 20 seconds later however, UC Davis' leading scorer on the season, Joe Mooney, drained a three to put the Aggies up by one with 2:23 left, 67-66.

Mooney had accumulated four fouls with 13 minutes to go in the second half and therefore played 23 minutes compared to his usual 29.8 minutes per game. UNM also held the the senior, averaging 16.0 points per game, to just 13 points on the night.

A Lobo foul at the 1:54 mark allowed the Aggies to shoot - and miss - a pair of free throws and Martin drilled a jumper to put UNM back up by one, 68-67. The Lobos did not again relinquish the advantage.

Maluach made a layup in the paint with 51 seconds on the clock to put UNM up by three, 70-67, and on the defensive end of the floor, Martin made a huge block that caused UC Davis to call its final timeout.

The Aggies reduced the Lobo lead to one just once more on a layup with 20 seconds to go, 70-69, but a pair of free throws, one from Martin and one from Hendrix, put UNM up by three before the final nail in the coffin that was Hendrix' dunk at the four-second mark, 74-69.

The Lobos fielded just eight players on the night for just the fourth time this season (the first three against NM State and UTEP). Overall, UNM outshot UD Davis 43.6 - to 41.4 percent from the floor while shooting just 18.8 percent from behind the arc (3-16). UNM outrebounded the Aggies 42-34 and drew 24 fouls that UNM converted into 23 points from the stripe.

UNM also forced 20 turnovers, while committing 21, which the Lobos converted into 29 points compared to just 19 for the Aggies.

The Lobos led the game for 24:39 with the best scoring run of 8-0 coming in the first half en route to their 10th straight victory inside Dreamstyle Arena -The Pit this season. The last time the Lobos were 10-0 at home was in the 2009-10 season, when the Lobos eventually went 30-5 overall and earned a Mountain West Championship as well as a pair of NCAA Tournament contests

With Sunday's game, UNM has wrapped up non-conference play and will return to Mountain West action on Wednesday with a New Year's Day contest on the road against San José State at 8 p.m. MT.

Game 16 - New Mexico 85, San José State 88 Jan. 1, 2020 | Provident Credit Union Event Center

Late Energy Burst Too Late, Lobos Fall at SJSU

SAN JOSE, Calif. — Despite a 14-point lead in the first half, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team [13-3, 2-1 MW] dropped a narrow, three-point final to the San José State Spartans (5-10, 1-2 MW) on the road on Wednesday. Despite the outcome, UNIM had a pair of 25-point scorers including redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle who registered his 1,000th career point in the contest.

The loss marks just the third to the Spartans in program history and the second straight on the road in the series. It also marks just the third Lobo New Year's Day loss in program historiand snaps an eight-win streak that started Nov. 26 against Wisconsin.

It was Lyle and redshirt-junior Vance Jackson who led UNM with 25 points apiece while Jackson also posted a UNM career-high 13 rebounds for his first double-double of the season his suth as a tob. The pair combined for 20 points over the final stretch as the Lobos nearly executed an 1-8-point comeabout built in the final seconds.

Lyle also nearly posted a double-double in points and assists as he dished eight on the night while collecting a team-high three steals. The pair were joined in the double-digit scoring club by senior Corey Manigault (15 pts, 7 rebs) and redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix (13 pts, 5 rebs).

After a close first five minutes of the matchup, the Lobos exploded on a 17-2 run over 4:12 that put UNM up 23-9 at the 13:09 mark, but the Spartans rallied back with a 17-3 run to tie it up just 343 later, 26-26, with 9:26 left to Jay) in the half. The squads battled and with the score tied 33-33 with 5:14 left in the first frame, it was SISU that again broke free, finishing the last five minutes on a 13-3 run for a 10-point Lobo halfitme deficit.

The Spartans led 46-36 at the break marking just the second time this season UNM has trailed by 10 or more at the break, the first was against Auburn on Nov. 25.

Despite being down by 10 at the half, UNM was outshooting SJSU from the floor 48.3 - 45.9 percent however, the Spartans had capitalized on 10 Lobo turnovers, converting 20 points, compared to just three points on just two SISU turnovers in the first half. UNM left seven points at the free throw line, shooting 41.7 percent (5-12) through the first half from the stripe.

San José State increased its lead to as much as 18 points with 12:46 left to play before the Lobos began chipping away at the Spartan lead. It was at the 8:03 mark that a Manigault dunk made it a single-digit game, 68:59, and the Lobos' fighting spirit returned.

A pair of Jackson free throws with just less than seven minutes on the clock again made it a single-digit game (eight points) and a Lyle layup made it seven (72-65) before SJSU jumped back out by 13 with 5:17 left.

It was in the final 2:17 that the Lobos really turned on the gas.

SJSU led by 10 points on a jumper by senior Brae Ivey before Jackson and Hendrix nailed back-to-back threes to make it a four-point game, 84-80, with 1:07 left, sparking the Lobo bench and Lobo fans in attendance.

The threes kicked off an eventual 11-0 run that included a pair of Lyle free throws with 1:01 on the clock and a Martin layup to tie it up at 84-84 with less than 15 seconds left, causing SISU to call a timeout

Martin drew a foul in the paint and was awarded the and-one, which he made to put UNM up for the first time since the 5:14 mark in the first half, 85-84.

The Lobo defense attempted to retain the lead, but the breakout shooter of the night, junior Richard Washington, who headed into the contest averaging 7.4 points per game, sunk his seventh 3-pointer of the night to put SJSU back up by two, 87-85, with eight seconds left and the Lobos took a full timeout.

UNM reclaimed possession and hoped to reclaim the lead, but a fast dribble down the court with three seconds left resulted in another UNM turnover, kicked out of bounds, and the ball was given back to the Spartans, up by two.

An intentional Lobo foul to stop the clock allowed livey to register one more from the stripe to make it 88-85 and the Spartans took their final timeout, followed by UNM's final timeout as the Lobos attempted to work up one final play to the it.

With less than two seconds on the clock, the Lobos attempted to bring the ball in from under the opposite basket and Lyle took a pass at half court, turned and shot the long three, but the ball hit the rim for the 88-85 final as time expired.

On the night, the Lobos outshot from the floor (49.2 - 47.8), but fired just 6-for-24 from three-point range (25 percent) compared to 12-for-33 for the Spartans. UNM committee turnovers compared to just 12 for SJSU that resulted in 29 points for the Spartans compared to just 15 for UNM.

The Lobos return home for a pair of conference contests, starting with Fresno State on Tuesday, Jan. 7 at 9 p.m. MT on ESPNU.

Game 17 - New Mexico 78, Fresno State 64 Jan. 7, 2020 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos 11-0 in The Pit: Down Fresno State, 78-64

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- The University of New Mexico men's basketball team improved to 11-0 inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit for the first time since 2005-06 with a 78-64 win over Fresno State (5-11, 1-4 MW) on Tuesday night. With the victory, UNM is now 14-3 overall, 3-1 in conference play.

Redshirt-junior Vance Jackson led the Lobos with 29 points and 13 rebounds for his second straight 25-point game and double-double this season. His 29 points landed him just one shy of tying his career-high 30 points, which he also scored against Fresno State last season, on Feb. 17, 2019.

Jackson was nearly perfect from the floor on Tuesday night going 9-for-12, 6-for-7 from behind the arc and 5-for-7 from the stripe.

Redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle also had a standout performance, posting UNM's first double-double in points and assists since Antino Jackson did so on Feb. 10, 2018, two seasons ago. Lyle racked up 14 points and 10 assists to go along with three steals.

The pair led four Lobos to score in double figures including junior Makuach Maluach, who was 3-for-6 from 3-point range, and senior Corey Manigault who posted 10 points.

Head coach Paul Weir also reached a landmark, hitting his 75th career win with the victory.

UNM went down by as many as nine early in the first half after an 8-0 Fresno State run made it 14-5 Bulldogs just under five minutes into the contest. Fresno State kept the lead until the 8:10 mark when an 8-0 run, capped by a Maluach triple, tied it up at 22-22.

The teams posted three more first-half ties before the Lobos scored 11 straight points, kicked off by another Maluach three, including a trio of Lyle free throws and a layup by redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix. The run was capped by another three from Jackson to make it an eight-point Lobo lead, 41-33, with 2:00 left on the clock. Fresno State scored four straight for the four-point halftime score, 41-37 Lobos.

At the break, Jackson had 17 points and the Lobos were outshooting the Bulldogs 43.3 - 38.9 percent from the floor.

UNM started the second half with six straight points to make it a 10-point game on a Maluach dunk at the 17:52 mark, 47-37. A Hendrix dunk again made it a 10-point Lobo lead with 12:35 left, 57-47.

With 5:35 left, Fresno State had reduced the Lobo lead to seven, but UNM embarked on a stellar 11-0 run over 3:33 to take its largest lead of the contest, 18 points (78-60), with just 2:02 to play. Over the final two minutes. Fresno State added four more points on a pair of layups for the 14-point final,

Fresno State was led by freshman Orlando Robinson who posted 16 points and 12 rebounds. UNM held Bulldog senior New Williams, who scored 32 points on a Mountain West-record 10 3-pointers on Saturday, to just 10 points and a pair of threes.

The Lobos are set to return to action on Saturday, Jan. 11 when they host Air Force on STADIUM at 4 p.m. inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Game 18 - New Mexico 84, Air Force 78 Jan. 11, 2020 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Remain Undefeated in The Pit; Top Air Force

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- In one of its best shooting performances of the season, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team improved to 15-3 on the season (4-1 MW) with an 84-78 victory over Air Force (8-9, 2-3 MW) on Saturday afternoon in Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit. The win also extended the Lobos' home win streak to 12-0 which UNM has not done since the 2005-06 season.

UNM was led by five scorers in double figures for the sixth time this season. Despite fouling out with nearly four minutes left, it was redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle who led the Lobos, netting 20 points for the second time in the last three games. He also added four assists, two rebounds, a steal and a block.

Following Lyle was redshirt-junior Zane Martin who scored 18 points, just one point shy of his most as a Lobo, while dishing a team-high five assists. Senior Corey Manigault added 16 points, six rebounds and three blocks while redshirt-senior Carlton Bragg nearly notched his sixth double-double of the season with 11 points and seven boards. The final Lobo to reach double figures was redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix who collected 10 points going a near-perfect 3-for-4 from the floor including 2-for-3 from 3-point range and 2-for-2 from the stripe.

On the night, UNM outshot Air Force in every category, firing at a clip of 57.7 percent from the floor (30-52) including 35.3 percent from behind the arc (6-17). From the stripe, the Lobos shot 72.0 percent (18-25), just edging the Falcons' 71.4 percent

Not only was the Lobo offense hot, but the UNM defense was strong, holding the Falcon squad that entered the contest shooting 41.5 percent from behind the arc to just 28.6 percent from long range.

While Air Force was led by senior Lavelle Scottie, who tallied a game-high 26 points, the Lobos held Falcon leading scorer Ryan Swan to just 10 points. Swan entered the game averaging 19.3 points per game in conference play.

The squads traded 10-2 runs in the first half but ultimately UNM went into the locker room up by three, 37-34, after Air Force whittled down a nine-point Lobo lead with 4:20 left in the half with an 11-5 run to close the first frame. UNM is now undefeated (11-0) on the season when leading at halftime.

It was Manigault that was the star performer of the first half, posting 11 points, five rebounds, three assists and a block in the first 20 minutes.

dshirt-junior Vance Jackson opened the second half with a layup to increase the UNM advantage to five before Air Force went on a 7-0 run to jump ahead by two with 17:57 left. It was a fast-break Lyle 3-pointer 16 seconds later however, that stopped the run and put the Lobos back on top for the remainder of the game.

UNM took off, got the score to double digits on a Martin dunk at the 11:38 mark, and even got out to as much as a 12-point lead in the second half en route to the six-point final score.

With five, second-half Lobo dunks including two in the final minute from junior Makuach Maluach and senior Carlton Bragg Jr., the second half and the end of the contest had fans roaring and on their feet.

The Lobos forced Air Force to expire all of its timeouts, one of which came after a Martin-to-Maluach alley-oop with 1:00 on the clock to make it a five-point game. The Bragg dunk came with just five seconds left, also assisted by Martin.

UNM will spend the next two games on the road, taking on Colorado State on Wednesday, Jan. 15, on ESPN3 before continuing the road trip with a Saturday contest at LINIV on Ian 18 on CBS Sports Network. The Lohos return home on Tuesday Jan. 21, as they host San José State at 8 p.m. on AT&T SportsNet.

Lobos Suffer 4th Loss of the Season on CSU Threes

FORT COLLINS, Colo. --- In a record-breaking night for the Colorado State Rams (12-7, 3-3 MW), The University of New Mexico men's basketball team (15-4, 4-2 MW) fell by a score of 105-72 on the road on Wednesday night, breaking the Lobos' two-win streak in just their fourth loss of the season. UNM is now 10-2 over its last 12 games.

Colorado State broke a program record with 19 3-pointers on the night going an outstanding 67-9 percent from the field (19-28). The Rams were led by six scorers in double figures including freshman Isaiah Stevens who went 5-for-6 from 3-point range and 7-for-10 from the floor to total 19 points.

New Mexico was led by redshirt-junior Zane Martin who fired off 17 points going 7-for-11 from the floor including 2-for-3 from behind the arc and 1-for-2 from the stripe. Martin finished just two points shy of his 1,000th career point after totaling 815 at Towson, Martin has scored 183 points so far as a Lobo putting him at 998 career points heading into Saturday's game at UNLV.

Wednesday's 33-point loss marked UNM's largest defeat margin of the seasor after falling by 25 points to now-No. 4 Auburn. That week, the Lobos began receiving votes for the first time and suffered their largest loss of the seasor Wednesday's outcome is similar as UNIM received votes again for the first time since on the week before falling, The Lobos have however, shown a resiliency after losses, bouncing back after each loss of the season. UNM is 3-0 in 2019-20 after a loss.

Nineteen threes marks the most allowed by the Lobos this season after Boise State netted 14 on Dec. 4. The Lobo record for most threes made by an opponent is 20, which occurred just once in 2004.

Colorado State got out to a quick nine-point lead just three minutes into the contest, going a perfect 4-for-4 from behind the arc in the span. The Rams increased the lead to 12, 19-7, at the 15:10 mark with another three and kept piling on the points.

It was just midway through the first half that the game was out of hand with CSU leading by 20, 37-17.

At halftime, Colorado State was leading by 23, 56-33, with the largest lead a team has had at the break over UNM this season. The Rams were outshooting 56.8 percent from the floor compared to 45.5 percent for the Lobos and 68.8 percent from three (11-16) compared to 23.1 percent (3-13) for UNM.

The Lobos, who entered the game leading the nation in both free throws made and free throws attempted, did not have a single attempt in the first half while CSU had just three attempts as the teams combined for just nine called fouls in the first frame. On the night, both teams combined for just 22 free throw attempts on 28 total fouls.

UNM attempted a second-half comeback but with Colorado State rarely missing, the Lobos got no closer than 20 the rest of the way.

The end of the contest marked a great opportunity for the Lobo bench to work on development as redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle exited the game with 11:46 left to play. Redshirt-junior Vance Jackson also departed early, leaving the game with 5:43 left in the first half with an injury while senior Corey Manigault saw limited minutes due to early foul trouble.

Standouts from the bench included freshman Emmanuel Kuac who pleasantly surprised fans with a 3-for-4 performance from the floor in his 11:46 on the court. He made the most of his time, exhibiting contagious energy and going a perfect 2-for-2 from 3-point range while collecting three rebounds and a steal. He registered his first career points on the night, totaling eight.

The Lobos will get not quite three days of rest before taking on UNLV in Las Vegas on Saturday at 4 p.m. on CBS Sports Network.

Game 20 - New Mexico 78, UNLV 99 Jan. 18, 2020 | Thomas & Mack Center

Shorthanded Lobos Run Out of Energy at UNLV

LAS VEGAS, Nev. --- For the first time this season, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team (15-5, 4-3 MW) suffered its second-straight road loss with a 99-78 showing at UNLV (11-9, 6-1 MW) on Saturday night. While the Lobos led for the majority of the first half, the Runnin' Rebels jumped ahead in the final minute with a halftime lead that they did not again relinquish.

five Lobo starters played over 30 minutes of the 40-minute game including 35 or more from four of them: senior Corey Manigault (35), redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix (35), junior Makuach Maluach (37) and redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle (39)

"Unfortunately, we ran out of gas," head coach Paul Weir said. "We turned the ball over 12 times in the second half, three times in the first half. I thought our guys actually competed and played hard and rallied and responded to where we were at, but you've got to give it to UNLV, it just was a better team – it is the better team right now."

Despite the lengthy minutes and obvious wearing down of the Lobo personnel, UNM was behind by single digits with just 4:26 left on the clock. Redshirt-Junior Zane Martin made a pair of free throws to make it an eight-point game, 76-68 before the Runnin' Rebels followed with a 9-0 run to extend the UNLV lead to 17, 85-68.

Lyle hit a pair of free throws and a three, broken up by a UNLV dunk, to make it a 14-point game with 2:27 left in a last-ditch effort at some energy from the Lobo squad. The energy burst wasn't quite enough however, as UNLV closed on a 12-5 run over the final 2:27 for the 21-point Runnin' Rebel win.

UNLV collected six dunks in the second half as the Lobo defense grew visibly tired, including three in the final two and a half minutes.

Despite the struggles of the Lobo defense on the night, the Lobo offense hit 10 3-pointers for just the second time this season en route to its 78 points. Lyle led the charge with four on the night followed by Hendrix (3-7). Manigault even registered two from deep, marking a new career-high for the big man

The final three came from freshman Emmanuel Kuac, who saw 13 minutes on the court, which he registered just 12 seconds after entering the contest

The Lobos were led on the night by Lyle, who registered his seventh 20+ point game of the season with an even 20 points. He has scored at least 20 in three of the Lobos' last five games.

Finishing just behind Lyle was Manigault who posted his second double-dou-ble of the season with 19 points and 11 boards. All five starters finished in double figures.

UNLV was led by a massive effort from sophomore Bryce Hamilton who put up a career-high 35 points going 14-for-19 from the floor. Another outstand-ing performance on the night was Runnin' Rebel sophomore Marvin Coleman who posted a triple-double with 11 points, 11 assists and 12 rebounds.

Coleman's triple-double marks the first in the Mountain West since 2016.

On the night, the Lobos were outshot 50.7 – 41.3 percent from the floor but fired at a clip of 38.5 percent from behind the arc compared to 30.8 percent

UNM was outrebounded 47-31 including 15-8 in offensive boards while turning the ball over 15 times compared to 10 for the Runnin' Rebels.

The Lobos are set to return to action on Tuesday, Jan. 21 when they host San José State inside Dreamstyle Arena – The Pit on AT&T SportsNet at 8 p.m. MT.

Tuesday's game will mark the Lobos "Suits & Speakers" game in which UNM vill support the BeLIVe campaign for the Children's Cancer Fund of NM by selling T-shirts to match the Lobo squad prior to and on gameday. Visit GoLobos.com/BeLIVe or GoLobos.com/BeLIVeShirt for more information.

Game 21 - New Mexico 86, San José State 59 Jan. 21, 2020 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Lobos Improve to 13-0 in The Pit; Top SJSU by 27

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. -- Despite being down four starters on Tuesday night, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team executed an energetic 27-point victory (86-59) over San José State inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit, improving the Lobo record to a perfect 13-0 at home this season. The victory margin ties the largest for UNM so far this season.

The victory also came on "Suits & Sneakers" night, in which UNM worked to raise funds and awareness for pediatric cancer and the Children's Cancer Fund of NM, marking the first time this season that head coach Paul Weir donned a suit instead of his familiar red sweater.

The Lobos (16-5, 5-3 MW) earn their first 13-0 mark at home since the 1998 99 season, UNM's last season as a member of the WAC. That season, UNM went on to 16-0 at home. The win also gives the Lobos the series split with SJSU (6-14, 2-6 MW) after the Spartans claimed a three-point victory over the Lobos in San Jose on New Year's Day. UNM is now 9-1 against the Spartans in Albuquerque and 15-3 in series history.

The Lobos were led by a pair of players scoring 20 points or more including redshirt-junior Zane Martin (20) and senior Corey Manigault (21). Martin's marks a season-high for the former Towson high-scorer as he has taken on a traditionally different role so far in his time at UNM.

Junior Makuach Maluach also had a standout game as the only Lobo starter to remain suited up on Tuesday night, starting his 44th consecutive matchup. He registered his first double-double of the season, just the second in his career, with 15 points and 13 rebounds.

Redshirt-sophomore Keith McGee was the fourth Lobo to register double figures with 10 points, collecting his most in his last 11 contests while redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix accumulated eight points, four rebounds, a season-high five assists and two steals.

The Lobos jumped on top of the Spartans early and never let up, limiting SJSU to just one point through the first 3:30 with an 8-1 run for a seven-point lead. SISU went on a 5-0 run to make it a two-point game at the 14:45 mark, but that was as close as the Spartans would get for the remainder of the contest as Maluach hit a three on the next posession to spark a 6-0 run that made it an 11-point game just midway through the first half, 19-8.

With just 3:37 left in the half, the Spartans had whittled the score down to four (31-25) before the Lobos closed the first half on a devastating 12-4 run for a 12-point Lobo halftime advantage, including a last-second layup by

The Lobos brought the momentum into the second half and the game was out of reach for the Spartans for the remainder of the contest as UNM piled on the points for a 30-point advantage with 11:11 left.

San José State was led by sophomore Seneca Knight who was the only Spartan to score in double figures. In the teams' last meeting, it was junior Richard Washington who put up seven threes on the Lobo defense. In Tuesday night's matchup, UNM's defense held him to just 1-for-2 from the floor in 17 minutes, his one make was from 3-point range.

Overall the Lobos outshot the Spartans 56.6 - 27.0 percent from the floor including 31.3 - 20.0 percent from deep. UNM also outscored SJSU 44-20 in the paint and capitalized on the Spartans' 14 turnovers for 16 points compared to 10 points off of 11 Lobo turnovers.

UNM is set to return to action on Saturday for a highly-anticipated matchup on the road in Reno as the Lobos take on the Nevada Wolf Pack, led by former UNM head coaches Steve Alford and Craig Neal. Fans unable to make the journey to Reno can watch live on CBS Sports Network at 6 p.m. MT.

Second Half Run Falls Short, Lobos Downed at Nevada

RENO. Nev. --- A late 13-0 run by The University of New Mexico men's basketball KEND, Nev. — A late 13-0 run by I he University of New Mexico men's basketball team (16-6, 5-4 MW) fell short on Saturday evening as the Lobos dropped a 96-74 final on the road against Nevada (13-8, 6-3 MW), which entered the contest tied with UNIM for third in the Mountain West standings. The Lobos were led by redshirt-junior Zane Martin who collected a season-high 23 points to go along with four assists and three rebounds.

UNM fell behind early and went into the halftime break down by its second-largest halftime deficit of the season, 20 points (49-29), but came out shooting in the second half. The Lobos were outscored by just two points, 47-45 in the second half.

UNM entered the second half outshot by the Wolf Pack 56.3 percent (18-32) to 37.9 percent (11-29) including 56.3 – 20.0 percent from behind the arc in the first. The Lobos rebounded in the final 20 minutes however, going 46.9 percent from the floor (15-32) and 57.1 percent from 3-point range, hitting eight of their 10 3-pointers in the second half.

The game marked just the third time this season that UNM has made 10 threes

Down by 20 at the start of the half, Nevada extended its advantage to 25 in the first 2:40 (57-32) before back-to-back threes from redshirt-junior Keith McGee and sophomore Tavian Percy cut the deficit back to 19.

The momentum couldn't quite take off and Nevada went back to piling on points however, making it a 28-point game with 8:54 left on a dunk from freshman K.J. Hymes to cap an 11-4 run.

It was at that point that Loho head coach Paul Weir called a timeout, after which LINM It was at that point that Lobo flead coath Paul well called a fumeout, after which or posted its best scoring run of the game, 13-0, sparked by back-to-back threes from shirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix and McGee. Hendrix made four free throws and Mc Gee netted another three to make it a 15-point game and for a brief moment, it loo like the Lobos had gotten themselves back in the game with 5:48 left on the clock.

The hope was short lived however as the Nevada called a timeout and closed the game out 14-7 for the 96-74 final.

Not only did Martin lead all scorers on the floor on the night, but he scored 14 straight points for the Lobos leading up to halftime

Martin was one of four Lobos to score in double figures, followed by Hendrix with a career-high 19. Martin and Hendrix both went 3-for-7 from behind the arc while P tin was 8-for-19 from the floor and Hendrix went 6-for-12 including a perfect 4-for-from the free throw line.

Senior Corey Manigault registered 13 points and five rebounds while McGee collected 11 points and a trio of assists.

The Lobos dressed just 10 players on the night, nine of which saw the court on Saturday, compared to a field of 11 for the Wolf Pack. The short Lobo bench required its starters to play 26 minutes or more while McGee came off the bench going 3-for-4 from 3-point range in 26 minutes. He was a perfect 3-for-3 from deep in the second

The Wolf Pack was led by senior Nisré Zouzoua who scored 20 points as one of six members of the Wolf Pack to register double figures. The game marked the secon time in four games that a UNM opponent has had six players in double digits.

Nevada's Johncarlos Reyes finished with the only double-double on the floor with 10 points and 11 rebounds

Overall on the night, Nevada fired at an outstanding clip of 48.6 percent from three compared to 41.7 percent for UNM, racking up 17 from behind the arc. The short Lobo bench was outrebounded 50-26 though UNM did well controlling the ball, turning it over just seven times compared to 11 for Nevada.

Current Nevada head coach and former Lobo head coach Steve Alford collected his 600th career victory on the night, 155 of which were at UNM, while Weir was looking for his 50th at the helm of the Lobos.

UNM is set to return to action on Wednesday, Jan. 29 inside Dreamstyle Arena Pit when it hosts No. 4 San Diego State at 7 p.m. on CBS Sports Network. The last time the Lobos hosted an undefeated, top-10 apponent, UNIM came away with an exciting 85-58 victory over then undefeated No. 5/6 Nevada.

Lobo Underclassmen Shine Despite Loss to #4 SDSU

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- With four starters down on a previously 15-mar roster, underclassmen on The University of New Mexico men's basketball team had the chance to prove themselves on the court on Wednesday evening, posting career-nights against the only undefeated team left in the country in nationally-ranked, No. 4 San Diego State.

The 85-57 loss ends UNM's 13-0 undefeated streak in The Pit and evens the Lobos' conference record at 5-5, 16-7 on the season. San Diego State remains undefeated and improves to 22-0, 11-0 Mountain West,

Six of the 10 Lobos to see action on the court Wednesday were underclassmen and combined for 94 of the 200 Lobo minutes on the night.

While UNM was led offensively by senior Corey Manigault with a teambest 12 points. Manigault scored all of his points in the first half, seeing just four minutes in the second. Redshirt junior Keith McGee, who registered his first start of the season, followed with 10 points including a pair of 3-pointers accounting for half of the Lobos' total from deep.

Sophomore Jordan Arrovo saw his best career game against the Aztecs. racking up a career-high seven rebounds in a career-most 21 minutes against a team that featured a duo of 6-10 seniors to go along with a 6-10 sophomore. UNM was outrebounded by just three on the night, 36-33.

Freshman Emmanuel Kuac was also a bright spot on the night, tying his career-most 13 minutes on the court while going 3-for-5 from the floor for six points and three rebounds, tied for his career high. With the game already out of hand at 74-43 with 7:44 left, redshirt junior Zane Martin, who collected a a team-high three assists, tossed the ball up over the hoop where Kuac one-handed it into a dunk.

San Diego State was led by five players in double figures including senior KI Feagin who went 6-for-9 from 3-point range for 18 points, tying his career-most made threes in a game. Feagin entered the game averaging just 7.5 points on the season, 7.2 points per game in MW play.

SDSU junior Jordan Schakel nearly finished as the only player on the night with a double-double, registering 11 points and nine rebounds.

On the night, SDSU collected 17 fouls to just 11 for the Lobos finishing the first half 10-4 in favor of UNM. Despite getting into the double bonus early, UNM was still down by as many as 23 points in the first half with just 42 seconds left to play.

SDSU outshot UNM 58.2 - 33.8 percent from the floor and 45.5 - 17.4 percent from 3-point range.

The Aztecs got out to a quick 17-point lead on a 17-0 run that extended to the 15:16 mark before a jumper from Manigault ended the Lobo scoring drought. UNM never got the game back to single digits.

UNM's best scoring run of the game, 8-0, came in the final 4:34 and was sparked by a triple from McGee to reduce the deficit from 33 points to 30. It was followed by a jumper from freshman Kurt Wegscheider and capped by another McGee three to make it a 25-point game for the first time since the 17:05 mark.SDSU closed the game 5-2, with the two points coming on another Kuac dunk with 1:11 left

The Lohos are set to return to action on Saturday Feb. 1, when they travel to Fresno State to take on the Bulldogs at 3 p.m. MT on AT&T SportsNet.

Game 24 - New Mexico 77, Fresno State 82 Feb. 1, 2020 | Save Mart Center

Lobo Defense Unable to Hold On at Fresno State

FRESNO, Calif. --- Despite a strong offense that saw The University of New Mexico men's basket-ball team shooting 44.4 percent with 12 threes and a 17-point lead, the Lobo defense couldn't hold off the Fresno State Bulldogs on Saturday afternoon on the road. Fresno State roared back in the final minutes for an 82-77 victory in the Save Mart Center.

With the loss, the Lobos slip to 16-8 on the season, 5-6 MW, while Fresno State improves to

The Lobo offense was led by four players in double figures including a trio that finished with 18 points apiece: senior Corey Manigault and redshirt-juniors Zane Martin and Keith McGee. MGGee's 18 points marked his most of the season as he went 6-for-9 from 3-point range. Saturday's game marked just the fourth time this season that UNM has registered 10 or more from behind the arc.

The fourth Lobo to hit double digits was junior Makuach Maluach for the 12th time this season Maluach collected 13 points to go along with a team-high six rebounds.

Maluach was one of five players to finish the game with 30 minutes or more as the Lobos ran out of steam in the final minutes. He was joined by Manigault, Martin, McGee and red-shirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix, who contributed eight points, two rebounds and three steals.

With the teams tied 16-16 at the 13:15 mark of the first half, the Lobos put on a dominant show on the Bulldogs' court, embarking on a 19-2 run over 6:25 to take a 17-point lead with 6:35 left in the first half.

The hefty run was sparked by a pair of back-to-back threes from McGee and Martin and included two more McGee threes along with one by Hendrix and a pair of free throws by Martin. The run was capped by a layup from freshman Emmanuel Kuac, who collected two points, three rebounds and two assists in 10 minutes on the night.

Fresno State scored six straight points within 1:14 to gain momentum and reduce the UNM lead to 11, forcing UNM head coach Paul Weir to call his first, 30-second timeout at the 4:57 mark.

UNM got back up by 16 three times but Fresno State freshman Anthony Holland hit a three with four seconds left to reclaim the Bulldog momentum and go into the break with the Lo up by 11.

"I though the end of the first half unfortunately started [the momentum change]," Weir said. "They made those two threes at the end of the first half to cut it to 11 and I think it just gave them a little bit of momentum and took a little bit of the wind out of our sails.

resno State] just kept fighting and fighting and fighting and unfortunately I thought we just out of gas ... We just didn't quite have the defensive effort we needed down the stretch."

Fresno State fought to close the gap, posting an 11-1 comeback run, and finally tied the game with 6:23 left in the contest on a layup from Bulldog leading-scorer New Williams (66-66). Williams netted the game leading Fresno State with 15.5 points per game in league play. On the night, the Lobos held him to just nine points, going 1-for-9 from 3-point range after tying the Mountain West record with 10 earlier this season.

ads tied the game three more times at 4:21 (71-71), 3:00 (73-73) and finally at 1:18 . The tie marked the ninth and final of the game.

Williams hit a three to put Fresno State up 78-75, followed by a layup by Martin with 52 seconds left on the clock to make it a one-point game, 78-77.

A Lobo foul with 22 seconds left on a Bulldog 3-point attempt allowed freshman Jarred Hyder to make two of three free throw attempts to put the home team back up by three, 80-77. With no more timeouts left, the Lobos were forced to foul to stop the clock with eight seconds left, but the Bulldogs closed the game on a pair of made free throws for the 82-77 final.

Saturday's game marks the first time this season that UNM has not earned the win after heading into halftime with the victory. Prior to Saturday, the Lobos were a perfect 12-0 when leading at the break.

Fresno State outshot New Mexico 56.5 - 44.4 percent including 44.0 - 42.9 percent from behind the arc.

The Bulldogs were led by three players scoring in double figures including two with a double-double. Freshman Orlando Robinson racked up 20 points for the fourth time this season to go along with a career-high-tying 15 rebounds. Senior Nate Grimes collected 15 points and 13 boards on the night.

On the day, UNM led for 29:46 holding the largest lead of the game at 17 in the first half. Fresno State led for just 4:31 with its largest lead of the game at five with eight seconds left and the ultimate final score.

UNM has a bye week and is set to return to action at home on Saturday, Feb. 8, at home inside Dreamstyle Arena – The Pit at 4 p.m. on STADIUM.

Game 25 - New Mexico 97, Wyoming 68 Feb. 8, 2020 | Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit

Three Lobos Hit 20 in 29-Point Win Over Wyoming

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. --- On the back of a trio of players to rack up 20 points, The University of New Mexico men's basketball team rebounded from its recent three-game skid with a 29-point victory, 97-68, over the visiting Wyoming Cowboys on Saturday evening inside Dreamstyle Arena - The Pit, The win improves the Lobos' home record to 14-1 and marks head coach Paul Weir's 50th victory at the helm of the Lobos.

Win the win LINM improves to 17-8 on the season (6-6 MW) while Wyoming falls to 6-19, 1-12 MW. The contest marks the first time since Dec. 22 that UNM has registered at least 90 points and is the seventh time UNM has done so this season after starting the 2019-20 campaign with four straight games scoring

Senior Corey Manigault posted a career-high 28 points to lead UNM along with nine rebounds, four assists and three steals. Manigault's points included a 10-for-11 mark from the free throw line. He was joined in the 20-point club by redshirt-junior Zane Martin who collected a UNM career-high-tying 23 points, as well as redshirt-junior Vance Jackson who scored 20 while going 6-for-8 from 3-point range. Six threes ties Jackson's UNM career high.

In his first game back on the court after missing the last four to injury, Jackson scored just three points in the first half before draining 17 points in the second on the way to his third 20-point game of the season. He registered 14 straight Lobo points within 2:52 to take the Lobos from an 18-point advantage to a 24-point lead with 7:27 left to play.

UNM entered the halftime break with an 11-point lead after Martin went on a 5-0 run to claim the momentum for the Lobos with just under 2:30 left in the half. Leading by five, Martin hit a three and then collected his second steal of the game just four seconds later and drove for the dunk to put UNM up by 10 at the 2:27 mark.

When the Lobos came out of the locker room at the half however, it looked like Wyoming might take the momentum away. After UNM held Cowboy lead-ing-scorer Hunter Maldonado to nine points in the first half, the redshirt-sopho-more scored six of Wyoming's first 10 points ouf of the break and the Cowboys opened with a 12-8 advantage to reduce the Lobo lead to seven with 15:47

The Lobos followed by scoring five straight, on a layup from redshirt-junior Keith McGee, who was UNM's fourth Lobo in double figures on the night with 13 points, and a three from Manigault. The back-to-back points put UNM back up by 12.

Jackson's run just over four minutes later put UNM back on top by 24. Jackson's Jackson's full just over four influes rater put to INM back on 100 by 9.24. Jackson's final three in his 14-point run sparked a Lobo 8-2 run that included a Manigault three-steal-dunk combo to give UNM its largest lead of the game, 29 points, 84-55. Wyoming was able to get as close as 25 points before the eventual, 20 point facility of the second 29-point final score

The final Lobo score was punctuated by an emphatic dunk from McGee, igniting Lobo fans and the Lobo bench, with just 21 seconds left.

The dunk was the last of nine on the night including three from McGee, four from Manigault, one from Martin and one from freshman Emmanuel Kuac.

On the evening, UNM outrebounded Wyoming 46-27 marking the highest Lobo rebound margin of the season, 19. The Lobos also outshot the Cowboys 50.7 - 42.9 percent from the floor and 41.4 - 19.0 percent from 3-point range UNM registered 12 threes on the evening marking just the fifth time this seasor that the Lobos have registered 10 or more from deep, the fourth time in the last six contests.

The Lobos are set to return to action on Tuesday, Feb. 11 as they travel to still-undefeated No. 4 San Diego State for a 9 p.m. MT contest in San Diego on

Game 26 - New Mexico 59, No. 4 San Diego State 82 Feb. 11, 2020 | Viejas Arena

Hendrix Scores 20; Lobos Fall at No. 4 SDSU

SAN DIEGO. Calif. --- The Lobos had a one-point lead with four minutes left in the first half, but No. 4 San Diego State executed an outstanding comeback in the second to down The University of New Mexico men's basketball team, 82-59, on the road on Tuesday night. The Aztecs remain the only undefeated team in the nation and secured the 2020 Mountain West Regular-Season Championship with the win.

No. 4 San Diego State improves to 25-0 on the season, 14-0 in Mountain West play, while UNM is now 17-9 overall with a 6-7 mark in league competition.

The Lobos were led by redshirt-sophomore Vante Hendrix who recorded a career-high One business were the present experimental with a feet and four steals. Hendrix was the only tobo to register double figures on the night while UNIM was led by redshirt-senior JaQuan Lyle and junior Makauch Maluach on the boards. The pair registered six rebounds apiece.

SDSU had four players rack up double digits including a pair of 20+ point scorers in junior Matt Mitchell (22) and senior Yanni Wetzell (20). Mitchell was also the only player on the floor to record a double-double with 12 rebounds.

The Lobos dominated from the floor in the first half, outshooting the Aztecs 45.2 - 39.4 percent. UNM got out to an early five-point lead, 10-5, just three minutes into the contest on a dunk from senior Corey Manigault. SDSU responded with a 5-0 run over the next 2:08 to tie it up at 10-10 before a Maluach layup and a Hendrix three again put UNM up by five, 15-10, at the 11:38 mark of the first half.

The Aztecs tied it again 15-15 at the 10-22 mark and the squads battled it out through the remainder of the first half. DNM's last lead was 28-27 with 4:08 left in the first on a dunk from redshirt-junior Zane Martin. An DSDS 6-0 run made it a five-point game in favor of the home team but through the final stretch of the first half, Hendrix posted another Lobo dunk, SDSU hit a pair of free throws and Hendrix finished with another from behind the arc for just a two-point SDSU advantage at the break, 35-33.

The first-half Lobos exhibited a well-balanced scoring and defensive effort in which Manigault and Hendrix led with just eight points apiece. UNM was outrebounded by just one in the first half, 19-18, including a 10-8 offensive board count. Neither team led by more than five in the first half, posted nearly-matching runs and the Lobos led for 9-15 compared to just 6:14 for the last undefeated team in the nation.

It was in the second half however, that the momentum shifted drastically to the other side of the court. Neither team scored for the first minute and a half but it was SDSU that struck first with a fast-break layup from Mitchell to start off the half.

Martin hit a jumper for LINM to cut SDSU's lead back to two before the Azters began to take control of the game with a 7-0 run to get out to a nine-point lead, 44-35. The game got out of hand quickly from there despite a Lyle three, one of just two for the senior on the night, making it a six-point game at the 16:42 mark

The Lobos would cut it to six just once more 2:38 later but would get no closer as another 7-0 run for SDSU gave the Aztecs a double-digit lead they would not again relinguish.

UNM's careful first-half squad unraveled in the second as SDSU mounted a 20-point lead over the next five and a half minutes. The Lobos struggled through the remaining time on the clock but the Aztecs remained on top by at least 21 for the rest of the contest en route to securing the 2020 MW Regular-Season title.

The Lobos entered the contest sixth in the nation in made free throws (420) but did not draw a single attempt in the first half. The squad finished 7-for-9 from the stripe compared to 14-for-1 for SDSU.

The second half numbers tell a very different story than the first as UNM's shooting from the floor was just 26.5 percent compared to 51.6 percent for the Aztecs. On the night, the Lobos finished shooting 35.4 percent to 45.3 percent for SDSU. After a two-point, first-half deficit, SDSU outscored the Lobos 47-26 in the second half en route to the 82-59 final score.

The Lobos will return to action on Saturday, Feb. 15 when they host UNLV on CBS Sports Network at 4 p.m. MT. UNM looks to defend its 14-1 record at home in the
