Beginning with Tuesday's game at New Mexico, Colorado has six straight and nine of its next 11 games away from home. The Buffaloes will break for finals, play three games at the Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, Dec. 22-25, and open the Pac-12 schedule at the Arizona schools the first week of January.

The six-game swing away from home will be Colorado's longest in the regular season since Dec. 6-31, 1986. All six of those were true road games (1-5) and started a bigger stretch of eight of nine away from home. The Buffaloes played six consecutive neutral site games in March 2012 between the Pac-12 Conference Tournament Championship and the first two rounds in the NCAA Tournament - ironically Colorado's last trip to The Pit in Albuquerque.

Two home contests in an 11 game span will be the fewest for the Buffaloes since December 1974-January 1975 when they also played seven straight and nine of 10 outside of Boulder.

Colorado leads the Pac-12 Conference in scoring (85.1 ppg), field goal percentage (.495), scoring margin (+16.2) and rebounding defense (29.8 rpg) while ranking second in rebounding margin (+10.2) and third in overall rebounding (40.0 rpg), defensive boards (29.4 drpg) and 3-point percentage (.373)

Nationally, Colorado is 14th in rebound margin, 19th in scoring offense and 27th in field goal percentage.

Colorado has had six players lead, or share the team lead, in scoring. The Buffaloes have sported at least four double-digit scorers in seven of eight games (all wins). On the season, Colorado has seven players that have scored in double-figures in at least three games.

Colorado has three players averaging double-figures in scoring and six averaging at least nine per game. Five of those six are shooting 48 percent or better from the floor with all six averaging at least 5.9 field goal attempts per game.

Defensively, Colorado is allowing 68.9 points per game while opponents are shooting 43.0 percent from the field.

Sophomore guard McKinley Wright IV paces the Buffaloes at 15.1 points, 6.3 assists and 1.9 steals per game. He had a game-high 21 points against UIC, the eighth 20-plus point game of his career. Wright averaged 16 points, 7.5 assists and 6.0 rebounds last week in wins over UIC and South Dakota.

After enduring a three-game stretch where he made 9 of 24 (.375) from the field, Wright has rebounded to make 25 of 47 attempts over the last three games (.532).

Wright has stepped it up defensively as well. He tied a career-high and the team's season best with three steals against UIC. Wright has two or more steals in six of eight contests including seven over the last three. With 15 on the season, he is nearly half way to his 32-game total of 31 steals as a freshman.

He is second in the Pac-12 in assists, fourth in steals, seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.9) and free throw percentage (.857), 11th in scoring and 14th in field goal percentage (.500). Wright has scored in double figures in 34 of 40 career games while dishing out at least five assists in 28 contests.

Junior forward Lucas Siewert is second on the team in scoring (12.1 ppg) and rebounding (5.9 rpg) while leading the Buffaloes in shooting, both overall (.610) and from 3-point range (.560). Siewert

SAME BUILDING, NEW NAME

On July 1, 2018, Colorado's basketball and volleyball home facility was renamed the CU Events Center.

The arena had been known as the Coors Events Center since the 1990-91 season. The 2018-19 season marks the 40th year for Colorado's men's and women's basketball teams in the facility, which opened in the fall of 1979 as the CU Events/Conference Center.

was held to a season-low with four points, on limited shots, against South Dakota, but he sprinkled the box score with six rebounds and a pair of assists.

Siewert logged his first two career double-doubles in back-to-back games. He had 16 points against Colorado State and, for the second-straight game, achieved his personal best of 10 rebounds. Siewert recorded his first career double-double with a career-high 18 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Portland. Siewert had a perfect shooting night against Air Force, making all six of his field goal and both of his free throw attempts, finishing with 17 points.

He has made 32 of his last 59 3-point attempts dating back to last season (.542). On the Pac-12 charts, Siewert is fourth in 3-point percentage, fifth in overall field goal percentage, 13th in 3-pointers made (1.8 3mpg), 17th in rebounding and 26th in scoring.

Sophomore Tyler Bey leads Colorado at 8.5 rebounds and 1.3 blocks per game while matching Siewert at 12.1 points an outing. Bey recorded his fourth career double-double and second of the season with 15 points and a personal-best 15 rebounds against UIC. It was his fifth career game with double-figure rebounds.

He is shooting 66.7 percent over the last three games (18 of 27) and made his second career 3-pointer against UIC. Inside the 3-point arc, Bey is shooting 64.2 percent on the season (34 of 53).

On the Pac-12 leaderboard he is fifth in defensive boards (6.5 drpg), sixth in overall rebounding, eighth in blocks, ninth in field goal percentage (.545), 12th in offensive rebounds (2.0 orgp), 15th in free throw percentage and 26th in scoring.

Junior guard Shane Gatling has started his first eight games for the Buffaloes, averaging 9.9 points per contest. He scored 13 points vs. CSU, his best in a Colorado uniform. Gatling has upped his scoring average to 11.8 points over the last four games.

Gatling is second on the team in steals with 10; his 1.3 per game averaging ranking ninth in the Pac-12. Gatling also ranks 10th in the Pac-12 in free throw percentage (.818). He was a perfect 6 of 6 from the line against South Dakota and has made 18 of his last 20 (.900) from the charity stripe.

Senior guard Namon Wright is fifth on the team in both scoring (9.3 ppg) and rebounding (3.6 rpg) while shooting 49 percent from the field and 46 percent from 3-point range. He ranks ninth in the Pac-12 in 3-point shooting.

Wright had a team season-high 25 points in the opener, his most in a Colorado uniform. Wright scored 28 points against Florida as a freshman at Missouri on Feb. 24, 2015.

Freshman forward Evan Battey is averaging 9.1 points and 4.0 rebounds while shooting 48 percent. Battey had a game-high 14 points and a personal-best four assists against South Dakota. He made 8 of 10 free throws against the Coyotes. Coming into that game he had been just 8 of 14 through the first six games.

Battey is playing his first meaningful regular season games since his junior year of high school in the spring of 2016. He had eight points on 3 of 6 shooting with one rebound, steal, block and assist in his collegiate debut vs. Drake.

Sophomore wing D'Shawn Schwartz is averaging 7.7 points and is one of six Buffaloes averaging at least three rebounds a game. Schwartz averaged 13.0 points in wins over South Dakota and UIC last week, registering back-to-back games with double figure scoring

BOULDER — Colorado's young Buffs are growing up in a hurry.

CU's freshmen sparked a decisive 12-3 run Wednesday night that broke open a one-point game in the second half and the Buffs pulled away down the stretch for a 75-57 win over New Mexico at the Coors Events Center.

The Buffs also had plenty of help from their seniors.

Senior Dominique Collier led the Buffs with 16 points — 14 in the second half — while freshman McKinley Wright IV recorded his first career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. CU senior George King posted his ninth career double-double and second of the season with 10 points and 11 rebounds.

The Buffs won despite committing a season-high 23 turnovers that led to 28 New Mexico points. Colorado made up the difference by putting forth a dominant 58-31 rebound edge, as well as holding the Lobos to just 29.6 percent shooting (21-for-71) — including a 9-for-34 performance in the second half.

Colorado improved to 7-1 with the win while the Lobos fell to 3-6.

"Certainly not a thing of beauty," head coach Tad Boyle said. "If we were in a beauty contest I think we would have gotten fifth place. But we did what we had to do to get the win."

HOW IT HAPPENED: The Buffs knew the Lobos would apply pressure, and they did — to the tune of a season-high 23 Colorado miscues that led to 28 Lobos points. But CU held UNM to just 29.6 percent shooting (21-for-71) from the floor — including a 9-for-34 effort in the second half — while also posting a 58-31 edge on the boards to make the difference.

"I was really pleased with the second half," Boyle said. "We rebounded the ball well. If we'd rebounded like that last Saturday we'd be 8-0 right now instead of 7-1. But good bounce-back win. We have to keep getting better and learning."

The Buffs led by two at intermission before putting together their decisive 12-3 run midway through the second half, with freshmen providing the fuel for the burst. Lazar Nikolic scored the first five points, including a dunk on a beautiful alley-oop from Deleon Brown. McKinley Wright added four and D'Shawn Schwartz drained a 3-pointer to give the Buffs a 61-51 edge with 7:31 to go in the game.

"Laz is sneaky athletic," Wright said of his freshman classmate. "One of the guys with the most bounce on our team people don't know about yet. CU fans saw it tonight and they'll see more of it later in the season."

The Lobos briefly pulled back to within eight, but CU then produced a 7-0 run to take a 68-53 lead with 2:35 left to put the game away. Collier — the only Buff to have more assists than turnovers (2-0) — had four points in the run to help the Buffs seal the win.

"Dom was really good in the second half," Boyle said. "He played within himself. He didn't force the issue. He let the game come to him and I was really pleased with Dom's effort, especially in that second half."

The Buffs jumped out to an early lead in the first half, building the margin to as much as 11 midway through the period. But the Lobos refused to go away, staying in the game with 3-pointers, finally tying the game at 33-33 with 40 seconds to go.

Colorado regained the lead on Schwartz drive with 25 seconds to go, taking a 35-33 lead into the locker room at the half.

The Lobos hit six 3-pointers in the first half, but managed to connect on just 3 of 15 tries from beyond the arc after intermission.

for the first time in his young career. He made a strong season debut against Omaha. Schwartz registered career highs with 15 points and seven rebounds.

Junior guard Deleon Brown is averaging 3.7 points per game while shooting 36 percent from the field. He had four points, three rebounds and two steals against UIC. Sophomore forward Alexander Strating grabbed a personal-best six rebounds at Air Force. He had just eight rebounds in his previous eight career games. Strating appeared in just five games for a total of seven minutes as a redshirt freshman in 2017-18. This year, he has appeared in seven games, averaging 1.1 points and 1.7 rebounds in 6.4 minutes an outing.

Daylen Kountz and Eli Parquet, members of Colorado's 2018 signing class, have been gaining valuable early minutes. Kountz enjoyed his first collegiate double-figure scoring game with 11 points on 5 of 6 shooting at Air Force. He is second on the team in assists with 12 (1.5 apg). Parquet is averaging 2.0 points and has hit 4 of his 8 3-point attempts and is one of seven Buffs with at least two blocked shots.

ABOUT THE LOBOS: New Mexico is 4-3 overall having lost its last two. The Lobos return home for the first time in four outings and are 2-1 at The Pit. UNM averages 80.7 points while shooting 44 percent from the field. Defensively, New Mexico allows 86.1 points while allowing opponents to shoot 49 percent. The Lobos haven't allowed fewer than 75 points in a game this season.

Senior guard Anthony Mathis leads New Mexico in scoring at 14.0 points per game while shooting 46 percent from the floor. He's even better beyond the arc, hitting 47 percent (24-51). Sophomore forward Vance Jackson leads New Mexico in rebounds (7.1 rpg) while ranking second in scoring (12.9 ppg). Cory Manigault is New Mexico's third scorer in double figures at 12.8 per outing.

Paul Weir is in his second season as the head coach of New Mexico with a record of 23-18. He is in his third overall season as a collegiate head coach with a mark of 51-24.

SERIES RECORDS: This will be 15th meeting between Colorado and New Mexico with the series tied at seven games apiece. The Buffaloes won last season's meeting in Boulder, 75-57, on Dec. 6, snapping a three-game New Mexico win streak in the series. New Mexico holds a 3-2 edge in Albuquerque as the two teams meet at The Pit for the first time since a 106-65 Lobos win on Nov. 14, 2006.

Colorado has been at The Pit since that last meeting with the Lobos, however. The Buffaloes played in Albuquerque for the first and second rounds of the 2012 NCAA Tournament. No. 11 seed Colorado knocked off UNLV before falling to No. 3 Baylor in the second round.

Tad Boyle is 1-1 as a head coach against New Mexico. Paul Weir is 0-1 as a head coach against Colorado.

SECOND HALF SUCCESS: Colorado has scored at least 79 points in seven out of eight games and 80-plus in its last five, the latter the program's longest streak since Nov.-Dec. 2015, when it scored 80 in 10 straight (all wins).

Colorado's offensive numbers are in large part due to its second half success. The Buffaloes are averaging 49.2 points on 55.2 percent shooting from the field during the second half this season. Against Colorado State, the Buffaloes scored 57 second-half points, tying their season high for the most in any one half. Colorado has scored 50-plus points in the second half in five of eight games.

ble-doubles in the win over Colorado State.

Tyler Bey, 23 points (career high), 10 rebounds
Lucas Siewert, 16 points, 10 rebounds (tied career high)
McKinley Wright IV, 18 points, 11 assists (tied career high)

It was the first time Colorado had three players with double-doubles in the same game since Feb. 22, 2003, an 89-68 home win over Missouri.

David Harrison, 15 points, 11 rebounds
Stephane Pelle, 18 points, 18 rebounds
Michel Morandais, 17 points, 10 assists

OFFENSE SOARS AT AIR FORCE: Colorado's 93 points at Air Force was its most in a true road game since scoring 98 in a triple-overtime win at USC on Jan. 29, 2015. It was the most in regulation since a 104-95 loss at Texas on Feb. 9, 2002. The Buffaloes made 14 3-point field goals at Air Force (29 attempts), tying for the fifth-most in a single game in team history and matching their best-ever total on the road. Colorado also had 14 at New Mexico on March 15, 1995, in the Postseason NIT.

Wins over Air Force and Portland marked the first time the Buffaloes have scored 90 or more points in back-to-back games since Jan. 24 & 29, 2015 at home vs. Washington State (90-58) and at USC (98-94, 3OT). One season earlier was the last time the Buffaloes achieved that feat in a pair of regulation games: Nov. 16 & 18, 2013, vs. Jackson State (94-70) and Arkansas State (93-70).

NONCONFERENCE NUMBERS: Colorado is 83-27 (.755) in non-conference regular season games under head coach Tad Boyle including a mark of 36-10 (.783) over the past three-plus seasons. The Buffaloes were 8-4 during the non-league slate in 2017-18.

Colorado's best nonconference record under Boyle is 11-2, achieved twice. First in 2013-14 and then again in 2015-16. Both seasons ended with NCAA Tournament berths. Boyle also had an 11-win nonconference schedule in 2010-11, his first year at Colorado, as the Buffaloes were 11-4 before beginning their final season in the Big 12 Conference.

ROAD BUFFS: Colorado will play three true road games during the nonconference schedule in 2018-19, and potentially a fourth. After opening with two at home, Colorado played back-to-back at San Diego (Nov. 20) and Air Force (Nov. 24) and will head to New Mexico (Dec. 11).

Colorado is one of just 15 schools from the Power 5 and Big East Conferences to have at least three true road games scheduled before conference play. Stanford leads everyone with four.

If Colorado and Hawai'i have the same result in their respective first round games at the Diamond Head Classic, then the Buffaloes will meet the Warriors on their home floor and join Stanford with a fourth road game.

WRIGHT ALREADY MOVING UP IN CAREER ASSISTS: Sophomore McKinley Wright IV had 175 assists in 32 games as a freshman which not only set Colorado's freshman record for assists in a season but was the second-best overall season mark in team history since the category became an official statistic in 1974-75.

With three assists against Portland, he became the 28th player in team history to reach 200. He is currently 24th on CU's all-time list and three away from reaching the career Top 20.

Colorado Career Assists:

22.	McKinley Wright IV	2017-present	226

Wright's 5.5 assists per game in 2017-18 ranked as the seventh-best single-season average in team history. His current pace, at 5.7 per game, would put him atop list for career average at Colorado. Billy Law currently holds that mark at 5.3 per game from 1990-92.

Wright has four double-figure assists games each resulting in points-assists double-doubles. His three points-assists double-doubles last year tied the school single-season record previously set by Jay Humphries (1982-83 and '83-84) and Toney Ellis (1976-77). Humphries holds the career mark in that category with six.

Wright's four games with 10-plus assists are the fifth most in team history. Humphries holds the record with seven from 1980-84.

Games With Double-Digit Assists:

1. Jay Humphries (1980-84) 7

RIGHT AT HOME: Colorado has won 39 of its last 46 and 49 of 57 in the friendly confines of the CU Events Center. In the Tad Boyle era, Colorado is a sparkling 119-22 at the CU Events Center (.844). The Buffaloes are 432-173 (.714) all-time at the CEC. Colorado has won at least 10 games at home each of the last nine seasons.

FOR OPENERS: Colorado improved to 81-35 (.698) in all-time season openers, regardless of location. The Buffaloes are 7-2 under Boyle and 34-5 in overall season openers since the 1980-81 season. The Buffaloes are 92-24 all-time in home openers and have won their last 11, making Boyle a perfect 9-0 in home openers. The Buffaloes have won 16 of their last 17.

The Buffaloes' 100 points were their most in a season-opening game since a 113-89 win over Cal State Northridge on Nov. 23, 1990. It was Colorado's most points in regulation since defeating Oregon, 100-91, on Jan. 5, 2014. The Buffaloes scored 112 last season in a double-overtime win over South Dakota State.

Colorado shot 58.9 percent from the floor (33 for 56), its best mark since hitting 59.2 (29 for 49) against Arizona State on March 1, 2015.

LATE START? NOT REALLY: While the majority of college basketball tipped off on Nov. 6, Colorado waited a full week to begin its season on Nov. 13. In fact, the Buffaloes were the last NCAA Division I team to officially tip off their season. There was no rhyme or reason to the later opening date, other than that's the way the Buffaloes' opponents and their open dates fell. Furthermore, Colorado plays three of its games between Dec. 22-25, at the Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, when much of the country has wrapped up their nonconference schedule the previous week.

But is it really unique to start on that late of a calendar date? Not really. In fact, Colorado started one day later, Nov. 14, just four years ago, beginning with a 65-48 home win over Drexel to tip off the 2014-15 campaign. That season, the Buffaloes also played in the Diamond Head Tournament over the Christmas holiday.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS: Colorado was 2-4 against ranked opponents last season highlighted by a sweep of No. 4 (AP)/6 (Coaches) Arizona State and No. 14/16 Arizona, January 4 & 6.

Colorado claimed wins over ranked teams in back-to-back outings for the first time since defeating #9 Missouri in Boulder and No. 21 Kansas State in Manhattan Jan 8 & 12, 2011. It's the first time in program history Colorado has defeated AP Top 15 teams in back-to-back games

Colorado's thrilling 90-81 overtime win Arizona State snapped a three-game skid and was Colorado's highest AP ranked win since defeating No. 3 Texas, 93-80, in Boulder on Feb. 4, 2003.

Colorado's 17 wins over ranked opponents in Boyle's eight seasons is by far the best streak in team history. In fact Boyle coached teams, with a record of 17-32, have accounted for 28 percent of wins over ranked opponents (61) since 1949-50.

WALTON TO MISS 2018-19: Redshirt sophomore forward/center Dallas Walton will miss the 2018-19 season after suffering a torn ACL in his right knee in October, during a preseason practice session.

Walton averaged 5.7 points, 3.4 rebounds and 1.1 blocks in just under 19 minutes per game as a freshman in 2017-18. He led Colorado with 34 blocked shots, ranking 10th in the Pac-12 Conference. All but seven of his blocks came during conference play, ranking sixth in the league during that span (1.4 bpg).

Walton took a redshirt year in 2016-17 in part to continue his rehabilitation and strength training after experiencing two ACL tears in his left knee in a 10-month span during his junior year of high school

COLORADO, ASU TO MEET IN 2019 PAC-12 CHINA GAME: Colorado will play a nonconference game against Arizona State in China, in November 2019.

The Buffaloes and Sun Devils will meet in the fifth edition of the Pac-12 China Game presented by Alibaba Group. Longtime Pac-12 partner Federation of University Sports of China (FUSC), which operates under China's Ministry of Education, will serve as the co-host for the game.

The matchup between Colorado and Arizona State, tentatively scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 9 and for national broadcast in both the U.S. and China, will not count as a conference contest. The teams are slated to meet only once during the 2019-20 Pac-12 regular season as part of the league's annual 18-game rotation model.

This will be the first time the Pac-12 China game has featured two conference teams. The previous editions, including this year's California-Yale contest, has had one Pac-12 team and one from another NCAA Division I conference.

The Pac-12 China Game is the flagship event of Pac-12 Global, designed to grow the global popularity of Pac-12 athletic programs and universities, fostering cultural exchange through sport, and creating unique educational experiences for Pac-12 student-athletes.

This will be the first intercollegiate regular season event for a Colorado Athletics program in China, or the Eastern Hemisphere for that matter. The Buffaloes have played in a handful of regular season events outside the United States. Both basketball programs have played in Puerto Rico; the men in 1998-99 and the women in 2005-06. Colorado's men's and women's golf teams have both competed Mexico and Puerto Rico, and the women will play a tournament in the Dominican Republic in March 2019.

Many Colorado student-athletes have taken advantage of out-of-season foreign tours or World University Games competitions over the last couple of decades. Nine Buffaloes that would be on next year's roster in China were part of the team's preseason foreign tour to Italy in August 2017.

BUFFS SEVENTH IN PRESEASON POLL: Colorado was picked to finish seventh in the annual Pac-12 Conference Preseason Media Poll.

The Buffaloes had 161 points, just behind Arizona State at 165. Oregon was picked to win the 2018-19 Pac-12 title with 288 points and 16 of 25 first place votes. UCLA was second (264) with six first place votes, Washington was third (249) with two first place votes. Arizona picked up the remaining first place vote and was picked fourth overall (205), just two votes ahead of USC.

Colorado returns nine letterwinners to a team that finished 17-15 and tied Arizona State for eighth place in the final 2017-18 Pac-12 standings at 8-10.

USAFA, Colo. - On an afternoon when Colorado's leading scorer was held in check in the points column and its leading rebounder was forced to exit early with an injury, the Buffaloes went to their "go-to-player" - the open man.

Colorado shot nearly 60 percent from the field and four players scored in double figures as the Buffaloes sprinted to a 93-56 win over Air Force Saturday at Clune Arena.

Junior forward Lucas Siewert led a career-high with 17 points to lead four double-digit scorers as Colorado emphatically put an end to a six-game losing streak in true road contests that dated back to last season.

Colorado drilled a season-high 14 3-pointers, hitting 48 percent beyond the arc. Namon Wright had 13 points while D'Shawn Schwartz and Daylen Kountz each had 11.

Leading scorer McKinley Wright IV was held to five points, but dished out five assists and grabbed six rebounds. Tyler Bey played only seven minutes after taking a rough fall on his right shoulder on an alley oop attempt in the first half and did not return.

Step up Siewert, and the rest of the Buffaloes whose depth took center stage. "The go-to-guy on this team is the open man," Colorado head coach Tad Boyle said. "Some nights we're going to need McKinley to score for us and other nights he needs to distribute for us. He rebounded the ball well, especially when Tyler went out."

Siewert was a perfect 6 of 6 from the field, including three from 3-point range. He also matched his personal best with eight rebounds.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Boyle implored his team to put the foot down on the gas pedal, and keep it there. Minus a brief lapse late in the first half, the Buffaloes did just that.

Colorado came out firing from long range, making five of its first six 3-point attempts to build an early 17-4 lead in the first six minutes. Siewert made two of those, with another coming from Bey, the first of his career.

Colorado's first seven field goals were all 3-pointers. Air Force missed 13 of its first 16 shots, which allowed the Buffs to run. When they did, they moved the ball fast, and well, which led to open looks.

After the early success outside, the Buffaloes began to attack the paint. Evan Battey scored a pair of baskets on post moves and Kountz had a driving layup to give Colorado a 33-18 advantage.

The Falcons made a run toward the end of the first half, after the Buffs had cooled off. Air Force used an 8-0 run to trim CU's lead to seven at 33-26 with 1:31 left in the half.

McKinley Wright IV ended that run with a driving layup with just under a minute left. He finished off the half with a free throw and Colorado's was back up to double digits, 36-26.

Once the second half started, Colorado put down the gas pedal, and left it on for good. The Buffaloes opened on an 18-3 run and doing so at an incredibly efficient pace. Colorado missed its first field goal attempt of the period, but made its next 12 before its next miss.

Schwartz, who played limited minutes early with two quick fouls, began the run with five straight points. From there the floodgates opened. Colorado scored on six of its next seven possessions, culminating with a Siewert steal and coast-to-coast dunk that gave Colorado its largest lead of the game at 55-29.

Gatling hit a pair of 3-pointers, his second capping off Colorado's string of 12-straight made field goals and gave the Buffaloes a 64-38 advantage with 10:19 remaining in the game. Colorado ended up shooting 73.3 percent in the second half (22-30) alone and totaled 18 assists on 34 baskets overall.

BOULDER - Colorado coach Tad Boyle is a firm believer that good defense leads to a productive offense.

The Buffs (4-1) followed that recipe Wednesday night, breaking open a tight game in the second half to run away with a 93-69 win over Portland (5-4) at the CU Events Center. Junior Lucas Siewert scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his first career double-double and McKinley Wright IV added 22 points and seven rebounds for the Buffs.

The Buffs finished with five players in double figures, with Evan Battey (10 points, five rebounds), Tyler Bey (12 points, six rebounds) and Shane Gatling (11 points) joining Siewert and Wright. It was Wright's seventh career 20-point game, and the third time in five games thus far that the Buffs have surpassed the 90-point mark.

Josh McSwiggan led Portland with 22 points. Siewert scored 15 of his 18 points in the first half to keep the Buffs in what was a close game for the first 20 minutes. Wright scored 15 of his 22 after halftime, igniting a 16-1 run that broke open a 51-51 tie game and ultimately sparking a 28-4 surge that turned the game into a rout.

HOW IT HAPPENED: Colorado led by just three at the half, 39-36, after allowing the Pilots to shoot 48 percent from the field (15-for-31). That included a 10-for-14 stretch that led to a 20-7 Portland run that erased a 12-point CU lead.

But following a halftime talk from Boyle, the Buffs produced a much better effort on the defensive end in the second half, which in turn led to an offensive outburst that put the game away. Colorado broke away from a 51-51 tie with 14 minutes to go with a 16-1 run, then built the lead to as much as 32 late in the game.

"I got after them pretty good at halftime and they responded in the second half," Boyle said. "One of the things we talked about at halftime is they have to take ownership of what we're trying to do defensively and I felt like they really did in the second half. It started with McKinley but it didn't end with McKinley. We got some really good defensive possessions, broke the game open, and had a runaway."

Wright started the 16-1 run with a 3-pointer, then added a pair of free throws less than 30 seconds later. Bey added six points in the run and Namon Wright had four, including a steal and breakthrough dunk.

"Vintage McKinley Wright," Boyle said. "He just says, 'OK guys, it's time to get this train moving,'" and the train starts moving.

Fueling the run was a CU defensive effort that held the Pilots without a field goal for more than four minutes.

"Once we get stops, we're getting in transition and that's when we're at our best," McKinley Wright said. "We're trying to focus on defense this year. We're one of the best teams in the country when we get out and run."

Colorado finished with a 25-11 edge in fast-break points while shooting 48.4 percent from the field (31-for-64) to go with a commanding 44-27 edge on the boards. The Pilots, meanwhile, shot just 37.5 percent from the field after halftime and finished 27-for-63 from the field.

Siewert continued to be a weapon inside and out, hitting two of his four 3-point tries to go along with three baskets inside and six free throws.

The Buffs threatened to break the game open in the first half, going on a 15-3 run to take a 26-14 lead with just more than nine minutes to go in the period. Siewert, McKinley Wright and Deleon Brown all had 3-pointers in the surge.

But just when it looked like the Buffs might blow the game open, their defense went south. The Pilots battled back with a 20-7 run to take a 34-33 lead with just under two minutes to go, hitting 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the burst.

Colorado finally recovered to regain the lead and take a 39-36 edge at intermission.

BOULDER - Big plays on both ends of the floor made the difference for Colorado down the stretch Saturday, as the Buffs fought back to collect an 86-80 win over rival Colorado State at the CU Events Center.

Colorado improved to 5-1 while CSU fell to 4-4 as CU ended a two-game losing streak to the Rams.

In a see-saw game that featured 12 lead changes and four ties, the Buffs found themselves down by one when a 10-0 CSU run gave Colorado State a 75-74 lead with 2:26 to play.

But the Buffs answered with a 3-point play from Evan Battey seconds later to regain the lead, then produced a decisive sequence to put the game away in the final two minutes. It included drawing an offensive foul on the defensive end, a breakaway slam dunk from Shane Gatling for a four-point lead after Lucas Siewert rebounded, a huge block from Tyler Bey on the defensive end, and six consecutive free throws from Bey in the final 23 seconds.

"At the end of games, especially games like tonight, players make plays," CU head coach Tad Boyle said. "I can call the plays, CSU can call their plays, but the players who make the plays is the team that wins the game."

The Buffs had their fair share of plays during just that. Bey was one of three Buffs with a double-double, scoring 21 of his career-high 23 points in the second half as well as grabbing seven of his 10 rebounds after intermission. McKinley Wright IV recorded an 18-point, 11-assist double-double and Siewert had a 16-point, 10-rebound effort for Colorado. Gatling finished with 13 points to give the Buffs four players in double-digit scoring while Battey added seven points, five rebounds and a pair of big second-half assists.

The Rams also had four players in double figures, led by Kris Martin with 21 points and J.D. Paige with 17.

The Buffs won despite Colorado State shooting 51.7 percent from the field (30-for-58). CU overcame a cold-shooting first half to shoot 61 percent in the second half (21-for-34), including a stretch in which the Buffs hit 12 field goal tries in a row.

The Buffs also had a 40-29 edge on the boards. HOW IT HAPPENED: After trailing for much of the first half and early in the second, Colorado finally regained the lead with a stretch that saw the Buffs hit 12 consecutive field goal tries. CU put together a 10-2 run that turned a 41-40 deficit into a 50-43 lead, with Wright starting the run with a 12-foot jumper before Siewert and Bey each added four points.

Colorado State came back several times to narrow CU's cushion, but each time Colorado answered. The Buffs finally built their lead to 10 points, 67-57, with 7:16 to go on a Gatling 3-pointer and Bey slam dunk.

But the Rams had one more rally in their pocket. A J.D. Paige drive three-point play cut Colorado's lead to two, 74-72, with three minutes to play before a 3-pointer from Anthony Mastinton-Bonner capped a 10-0 run to give the Rams a 75-74 lead with 2:23 remaining.

That set the stage for the final two minutes, with Battey's drive to the hoop past CSU big man Niko Carvacho and ensuing free throw giving the Buffs the lead for good.

The Buffs struggled from the floor for the entire first half while the Rams had no such issues. Colorado shot just 33 percent, hitting 12 of its 36 field goal tries - including 3-for-14 from 3-point range - while the Rams hit 50 percent of their shots, going 13-for-26 and 5-for-11 from beyond the arc.

As a result, the Buffs trailed for most of the half and entered the locker room down by three, 32-29, at intermission.
